This Clause explained by 6 Annæ, c. 12. sect. 1.

12 Months allowed for Payment of Duties on Rock Salt.

9 Months on other English Salt.

‘WHEREAS by the Articles of Union between the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, which are agreed upon and confirmed by an Act of this present Parliament, there are certain Concessions made for the Advantage of her Majesty's Subjects of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in Matters relating to the Duties upon Salt, and other Goods and Merchandizes, as are herein after-mentioned, whereby her Majesty's Subjects in England, trading in Salt and other the Commodities herein after particularly expressed, will be liable to great Disadvantages, unless Provision be likewise made for their Ease in the said Trade:’ We your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons, in Parliament assembled, being desirous that there may be as great an Equality of Trade as is possible among all your Majesty's Subjects, do beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all foreign Salt that shall be imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, shall, upon the landing thereof, be weighed, cellared, and locked up in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt, under the Custody of the Merchant or Importer (who is to be at the Charge of the Cellarage or Store-house) and such Officer as the Commissioners for the Duties on Salt for the time being, shall appoint, in the Port or Place where the same shall be so imported and landed; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Merchant or Importer of the said Salt, from time to time, in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt, and by Warrant or Permit, under such Officer's Hand and Seal, to have what Quantity thereof his Occasions may require, not under a Weigh or forty Bushels at a time, giving Security for the Duty of what Quantity he receives, payable in six Months time after the Delivery of any such Salt; and in case such Merchant or Importer shall pay ready Money upon the Delivery of the Salt, he shall have after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum out of the said Duties abated him.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such foreign Salt imported, shall not, upon the landing thereof, be secured, as aforesaid, the same shall be liable to Payment of Duties, and to such Penalties and Forfeitures, for not paying or securing such Duties, as if this Act had not been made; and that no Salt so cellared and locked upon, as aforesaid, shall be removed from any such Cellar or Place, without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that Purpose, and without a Warrant or Permit for conveying the same, as aforesaid; upon Pain of forfeiting such Salt, and also upon Pain of forfeiting ten Shillings per Bushel, and also the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered from the Person or Persons who imported the same; and that every Carrier, or Person who shall carry, convey, or remove any such Salt without Notice first given to the Officer, and without a Warrant or Permit for conveying the same, shall be liable to the like Forfeitures of ten Shillings per Bushel, and also twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

III. Provided nevertheless, That where the whole Quantity of foreign Salt, liable to Duty, imported in any Ship or Vessel, does not amount to forty Bushels, the Duties shall be paid and secured, according to the Provisions made by former Laws; any thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘IV. And whereas Salt carried Coastwise is or may be liable to Waste,’ Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Merchant or Person who, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, shall ship any English Salt, or Rock Salt, to be carried Coastwise (viz.) from one Port of England or Wales, or the Port of Berwick upon Tweed, to any Port of England or Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, the Duties having been paid, or secured to be paid, according to former Laws, shall have an Allowance made to him, after the Rate of three Bushels for every forty Bushels of English white Salt, and after the Rate of one Bushel and an Half for every forty Bushels of English Rock Salt so shipped to be carried Coastwise, and proportionably for a greater or less Quantity, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof, which Allowance shall be made but once for the same Salt, although such Salt be carried from several Ports Coastwise as aforesaid, and the proper Officer of the Port, where such Salt or Rock Salt shall be first shipped to be carried Coastwise, shall not only express the said Allowance on the Coast Coquet or Transire for the same, but also give gratis to the said Merchant, or other Person there shipping the same, a Certificate under Hand and Seal, of the Number of Bushels of Salt so shipped, and how much the Allowance hereby directed to be made at the Rates aforesaid doth amount to, which Certificate being produced to the Officer who first received the Duties of the said Salt, or took Security for the same, the Officer last mentioned shall repay so much Money as he received for Duties of the said Salt, or Rock Salt, as is to be allowed for Waste as aforesaid; and if the Duties thereof shall not then have been paid in Money, then the said Officer shall discount the said Allowance for Waste on the said Security.

V. And it is hereby enacted, That in all Cases where, by the former Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, the Time for Payment of the Duties on Rock Salt is appointed to be nine Months, there shall be twelve Months Time allowed, instead of the said nine Months; and where the Time for Payment of the Duties on other English Salt is by the said former Laws appointed to six Months, there shall be nine Months Months Time allowed instead of the said six Months; and the Securities and Discounts for prompt Payment, after the said first Day of May next, shall be regulated accordingly.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all white Herrings, which shall, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, be exported from any Port or Place in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to Parts beyond the Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be the like Allowances as are to be made upon the Exportation of white Herrings from Scotland, to be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt in the same Port from whence any such Herrings shall be exported, within thirty Days after a Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Customs where such Herrings shall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of Herrings actually shipped, and that the same were well cured, and merchantable, and full packed, and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be first taken before the principal Officers of the said Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and empowered to give the said Oath, that the Herrings in such Debenture mentioned were cured with Salt, for which the Duties had been paid, and not drawn back, and that the same is really exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not relanded or intended to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward shall be taken; and in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture, shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis) the principal Commissioners for managing her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Salt for the time being, shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made in Course out of the first Money in their Hands arising out of the Duties upon Salt; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective Ports of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Herrings as aforesaid, and before the same shall be laid on Board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Barrel, or other Vessel, wherein any such Herrings shall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Herrings have been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same, or any Part thereof, shall be relanded and reimported.

Farther Provision relating hereto, 6 Annæ, c. 12. sect. 3.

Exported and relanded, forfeited, and 20 s. per Barrel.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such Herrings shall, after the same shall be exported, be relanded or reimported, all the said Herrings so relanded or reimported shall be forfeited and lost, and twenty Shillings per Barrel for every Barrel thereof, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

Allowances for salted Beef or Pork exported, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Barrel of salted Beef or Pork, which shall be exported for Sale from any Port of this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to Parts beyond the Seas, after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be for each Barrel the like Allowances as are to be allowed upon Exportation of such Beef and Pork exported from Scotland, which Allowance shall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt, in the same Port from whence any such Beef or Pork shall be exported, within thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Customs where such Beef or Pork shall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of Beef and Pork actually shipped for Sale, and that the same is good and merchantable, and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be first taken before the principal Officers of the said Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and empowered to give the said Oath, that the Beef or Pork in such Debenture mentioned, was salted with Salt for which the Duties had been paid, and not drawn back, and that the same is really exported to Parts beyond the Seas for Sale, and that any Part thereof was not spent, or intended to be spent for the Ship's Use, and was not relanded, or intended to be relanded; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward shall be taken: And in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture, shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then upon Certificate thereof by him made, (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis) the principal Commissioners for managing her Majesty's Revenues of Excise upon Salt for the time being, shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made in Course out of the first Money in their Hands arising out of the Duties upon Salt: And that it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective Ports of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Beef or Pork, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Barrel, or other Vessel wherein any such Beef or Pork shall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Beef or Pork has been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same, or any Part thereof, shall be relanded or reimported.

1 s. 6 d. to be paid per Barrel.
3 Geo. 2. c. 20. sect. 16.
Revised by
5 Geo. 2. c. 6.
Which is revived and made perpetual by 26 Geo. 2. c. 3.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Beef or Pork shall, after the same shall be exported, be relanded or reimported, all the said Beef or Pork so relanded or reimported shall be forfeited and lost, and forty Shillings per Barrel for every Barrel thereof, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

Exported and relanded, forfeited, and forty Shillings per Barrel.

X. And whereas by the aforesaid Articles of Union, it is provided, That from and after the Union there shall be certain Allowances for all Oatmeal, and Grain called Beer, exported from Scotland, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Oatmeal, and Grain called Beer alias Bigg, which from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, shall be exported from any Port of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to Parts beyond the Seas, by any Merchant, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be the like Premium given upon the Exportation thereof, as is to be given upon Exportation of Oatmeal and Beer from Scotland; such Merchant or other Person first bringing a Certificate in Writing under his or their Hands, containing the Quantity of such Oatmeal, or Beer alias Bigg, so shipped, to the Collector or other Person appointed, or to be appointed for the time being, to collect the Duties or Rates arising by Customs within any such Port, and making Proof of such Certificate by one or more credible Person or Persons upon their Oaths, (which Oaths the said Collector, or other Person, is hereby authorized and required to administer) and giving Bond in the Sum or ten Pounds at least for every Ton of Oatmeal so shipped, consisting of twenty hundred Weight, and for every forty Bushels of Beer alias Bigg, so shipped, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, that the same shall be so exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not be relanded; which Premium every Merchant, or other Person so shipping off any such Oatmeal, or Beer alias Bigg, and giving Certificate and Bond as aforesaid, shall have and receive from such Collector, or other Person, as aforesaid, in any Port respectively where the same shall be so shipped, out of her Majesty's Revenue of the Customs, and upon Certificate returned under the Common Seal of the chief Magistrate in any Place or Places beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of two known English Merchants upon the Place, that such Oatmeal, or Beer alias Bigg, was there landed, or upon Proof by credible Persons that such Oatmeal, or Beer alias Bigg, was taken by Enemies, or perished in the Seas; which Proof being made, or Certificate delivered to the Collector, or other Person, who took Bond as aforesaid, the said Bond shall be delivered up to such Merchant, or other Person, or his Order, to be cancelled without any Fee for the same.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures given by this or any former Law relating to the Duties of Excise upon Salt, shall be distributed in Manner following; (that is to say) one Moiety thereof to the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Officer or Officers who shall seize, sue, or inform for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Persons having exported Salt to Ireland, intitled
to a Drawback.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, and it is hereby declared, That all and every Person and Persons, who have exported any Salt, or Rock Salt, out of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and landed the same in the Kingdom of Ireland, although the same was entered in England, on the Exportation thereof, for other foreign Parts, and afterwards landed in Ireland, such Person or Persons having so landed the same in Ireland, shall be entitled to a Debenture or Drawback of the said Duty of such Salt, notwithstanding the same was entred for other foreign Parts: And all Suits or Prosecutions commenced, or to be commenced against any Person or Persons having exported such Salt or Rock Salt for foreign Parts, and landed the same as aforesaid, shall cease and determine.

But not henceforth, unless Entry at Exportation be made for some Port in Ireland.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, there shall be no Debenture made out or Drawback allowed for any Salt or Rock Salt landed in Ireland after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, unless the Entry of the same Salt at Exportation, be made for some Port in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Allowances
for Waste.

XIV. And whereas White Salt and Rock Salt in the Exportation from England to Ireland, are liable 'to Waste,' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May, upon producing such a Certificate as is by Law required, from the Collector and proper Officers of the Port or Place in Ireland, of the Quantity of what white Salt and Rock Salt was there landed, the Exporter or Proprietor of such white Salt and Rock Salt shall have an Allowance of four Bushels for every forty Bushels of white Salt, and of two for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt put on Board in England, in order to be exported to Ireland, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof; and a Debenture or Debentures shall be issued out gratis accordingly, by the Collector or proper Officer of the Port or Place in England, from whence such white Salt or Rock Salt was exported, and the same shall be allowed or paid to the Exporter or Proprietor, in like Manner as Debentures are or shall be payable for Salt exported.

Sess. 1. c. 12.

XV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY of blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for the encouraging the Exportation of Corn, it was amongst other things thereby enacted, That every such Merchant by the said Act described, shipping any Malt or Barley, Rye, or Wheat, and giving Certificate and Bond as the said Act directs, shall have and receive from the Farmers, Commissioners, Collectors, or other Persons appointed or to be appointed for the time being, to collect the Duties and Rates arising by Customs, within any such Port where the said Corn shall be shipped off, for every Quarter of Barley or Malt, ground or unground, two Shillings and six Pence; for every Quarter of Rye, ground or unground, three Shillings and six Pence; for every Quarter of Wheat, ground or unground, five Shillings: And whereas since the making of the said Act there have been divers Quantities of Malt made of Wheat, some Part whereof have been exported, and some Doubts have arisen touching the Bounty-money to be paid upon the Exportation thereof, to the Discouragement of the Exportation of Corn: And for clearing thereof, and for preventing future Disputes touching the same; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Merchant or other Person exporting Malt made of Wheat, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, shall have and receive of the said Farmers, Commissioners or Persons aforesaid, five Shillings for every Quarter of Malt made of Wheat, or Wheat Malt, ground or unground, to be paid by the respective Persons in the said recited Act mentioned.

Malt to have 5 s. per Quarter.
Bounty-money.

XVI. And

' XVI. And whereas by the several Acts of Parliament for laying Duties on Rock Salt, and Salt refined from Rock Salt, the Exporters of the same draw back more Money from the Salt Revenue than they pay to her Majesty; For Prevention thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, no Person or Persons who shall export Rock Salt, or Salt refined from Rock Salt, shall have any other or greater Allowance on prompt Payment and Exportation of the same, by Way of Debenture, than what really and bona fide was before paid for the Duty of the said Salt; and that no Person giving Bond and Security for the said Duty, payable within the Time limited by Law, and paying the same in twenty-eight Days after giving the said Security, shall be intitled, on Exportation from England, Wales, or Berwick, to any other Advantage than to such a Debenture as shall discharge the Bond and Security only given for the Payment of the said Duty.

' XVII. And whereas foreign Salt imported is allowed to be cellared, or put into Warehouses, and the Duties thereof are to be paid or secured upon Delivery, as in this Act is mentioned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Merchants and other Persons importing such foreign Salt, from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, shall be and are hereby charged with the Duties for the full Quantity of Salt so cellared, or put into Warehouses; and if upon clearing any Cellar or Warehouse, in which the said Salt was locked up, there be any Want of the said Quantity, the Importer or Importers of the said Salt so wanting shall be answerable for the same; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

' XVIII. And whereas by a Clause in an Act passed in the last Session of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and certain Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and additional Duties of Excise, and for settling and establishing a Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, for Payment of Annuities to be sold for raising a further Supply to her Majesty, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and six, and other Uses therein mentioned, all Interest on Bonds entered into, and due and payable before the sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and five, by Merchants and others, for the Customs, additional Duties, Impositions, and other Duties on Goods and Merchandizes imported into the Kingdom of England, was thereby discharged, provided the principal Sums secured by such Bonds were paid before the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and six; and whereas several Merchants and others of the City of Bristol had, before the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and six, paid several Sums of Money, amounting in the whole to the Sum of three thousand eighty-eight Pounds eight Shillings, in to the Collector of the Customs of the Ports there, for the Interest of several principal Sums of Money, upon several Bonds by them given for Customs and other Duties of Goods and Merchandize by them imported into the said Port of Bristol, which principal Monies they had also before that Time paid, and which principal Monies and Interest have been since applied to the Use of the Publick; and it is equally just that those Monies so paid for Interest should be allowed back to the said Persons, as the other Interest should be forgiven to the said Persons, pursuant to the said before mentioned Clause; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, to direct the Collector of the Customs of the said Port of Bristol for the Time being, out of the Monies which shall be at the Time of such Direction in the Hands of such Collector, upon Account of Customs, additional Duties, Impositions, and other Duties on Goods and Merchandizes respectively, imported there, or which shall from thence next after come into his Hands upon that Account, and such Collector is hereby authorized and required accordingly to refund and repay to the said several Merchants and others, (who paid in the said three thousand eighty-eight Pounds eight Shillings) their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the Sum and Sums of Money so paid in by all and every such Merchants, or others; and that thereupon, and upon the said Collector's producing Receipts and Acquittances for such Sum and Sums, such Collector shall be allowed the same upon his Account, as if the same had been by him paid upon Account of Drawbacks for Goods exported; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for the better securing her Majesty's Purchase of Cotton House in Westminster.

' WHEREAS Sir John Cotton, late of Westminster in the County of Middlesex, Baronet, was in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, seized for the Term of his Life, with Remainder to John Cotton the Grandson, (now Sir John Cotton Baronet) and the Heirs Male of his Body, with other Remainders, of and in the Capital Messuage called Cotton House, and the Gardens and Buildings used and enjoyed with the same, being in the Parish of St. Margaret's Westminster, in the County of Middlesex; and being so seized, in the said twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King WILLIAM, at the Request of the said Sir John Cotton the Grandfather, in the Absence of the said Sir John Cotton the Grandson beyond the Seas, an Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the better settling and preserving the Library kept in the House at Westminster, called Cotton House, in the Name and Family of the Cottons, for the Benefit of the Publick, was made, thereby reciting, That Sir Robert Cotton, late of Conington in the County of Huntington Baronet, did, at his own great Charge and Expence, and by the Assistance of the most learned Antiquaries of his Time, collect and purchase the most most useful Manuscripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials, in most Languages, of great Use and Service for the Knowledge and Preservation of our Constitution both in Church and State; which Manuscripts and other Writings were procured, as well from Parts beyond the Seas, as from several private Collectors of such Antiquities within this Realm, and are generally esteemed the best Collection of its Kind now any where extant; and that the said Library had been preserved and very much augmented by the late Sir Thomas Cotton, Son of the said Sir Robert, and by the said Sir John Cotton, and was lodged in the said Sir John's ancient Mansion House at Westminster; and that the said Sir John, in pursuance of the Desires and Intentions of his said Father and Grandfather, was content and willing that the said Mansion House and Library should continue in his Family and Name, and not be sold or otherwise disposed or imbezilled, and that the said Library should be kept and preserved by the Name of the Cottonian Library, for publick Use and Advantage, it is enacted, That from and after the Death of the said Sir John Cotton the Grandfather, the said Mansion House, with the Gardens and all other Appurtenances, and also all the said Library or Collection of Manuscripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials mentioned and named in a Schedule then and now remaining in the said Library, together with all Coins, Medals, and other Rarities and Curiosities in the said Library then and now contained, be settled, limited, and vested in the Trustees therein after named, to have, hold, and enjoy, to them and their Successors for ever, to the Uses, Intents, and Purposes therein mentioned (that is to say) As for the said House, Gardens, and Appurtenances, other than the Room where the said Library then was, or then after might be lodged, and a convenient Way, Passage, and Resort to the same, at the Will and Discretion of the Heirs of the Family, and the Library therein after mentioned, to the only proper Use and Behoof of the said now Sir John Cotton the Grandson and Heir of the late Sir John Cotton, and after his Decease, to the first and every the Son and Sons of his Body to be begotten, and the Heirs Male of the Body of such Son or Sons issuing successively, with other Remainders as therein are particularly mentioned, Remainder to the right Heirs of the said Sir John Cotton (now living) Grandson and Heir of the said late Sir John Cotton, for ever; and as for and concerning the said Library and Room wherein the same then was, or should be contained, together with a convenient Passage for resorting thereunto, upon this Trust and Confidence, that the said Trustees and their Successors should and would, from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, as Occasion should require, inspect, consult, and take care of the said Library, and other Particulars above mentioned, and also make and appoint such Orders and Rules as they should think proper for the reading and using the same, and for their better Preservation; and to the Intent or Purpose that the said Trustees, or the major Part of them, should nominate and appoint a good and sufficient Person, well read in Antiquities and Records, to have the immediate Care and Custody of the said Library. And it is thereby further enacted, That the said House, with the Appurtenances, and the Library, and other Particulars aforesaid, should never be subject or liable to any Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, or any other Incumbances, nor should ever be sold or aliened, forfeited, or forfeitable, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever; and further that the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper for the Time being, the Honourable Robert Harley Esquire, then Speaker of the House of Commons, the Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being, the Lord Chief Justice of the King's Bench for the Time being, Sir Robert Cotton of Hatley St. George in the County of Cambridge Knight, Phillip Cotton of Connington in the said County Esquire, Robert Cotton of Giddin in the County of Huntington Esquire, and William Hanbury, of the Inner Temple London Esquire, shall be the Trustees, to and for the Purposes aforesaid; and in case of the Decease of any of the aforesaid last recited four Persons, the said Sir John Cotton the Grandson, or other Heir Male of the said Family, who should be in Possession, or intitled to the Possession of the Mansion House, by virtue of the Limitations therein recited, should nominate and appoint one or more fit Persons to succeed him or them, and supply the Place of him or them so dying. And whereas since the making of the said Act very little hath been done in pursuance thereof, to make the said Library useful to the Publick, except what has been lately done at her Majesty's Charge, and there is no Way or Passage to it set out as the Act did direct, nor can there be any Passage to the same but through the best Rooms of the House, which would render the House wholly useless to the Family, so that the Library cannot be resorted unto; nor have any Orders or Rules been appointed for reading or using the same, and thereby the Publick is wholly deprived of the Benefit and Advantage designed by the Act; and the Place wherein the Library was then contained, was a narrow little Room, damp, and improper for preserving the Books and Papers; and the Condition thereof having been humbly represented to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her Majesty, to the Intent so great a Treasure of Books and Manuscripts, so generously given for the publick Service, might not remain any longer useless, and in Danger of perishing for want of due Care; and that it may be in her Majesty's Power to make this most valuable Collection useful to her own Subjects, and to all learned Strangers, did give Directions for treating with the said Sir John Cotton, for the Purchase of the said Cotton House and Gardens, and an Agreement has been made for the purchasing the Inheritance thereof, for the Sum of four thousand five hundred Pounds, which her Majesty hath directed to be paid on the investing the Inheritance of the Premises in her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, which cannot be done but by Act of Parliament, the said recited Act having directed it may not be sold or aliened: May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty, at the humble Suit and Petition of the said Sir John Cotton the Grandson, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Capital Messuage, called Cotton House, and the Gardens and Buildings used and enjoyed with the same, with their Appurtenances, shall be be and are hereby vested in her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors shall for ever have, hold, and enjoy the same, against the said Sir John Cotton the Grandson, and against all and every the Sons of the said Sir John Cotton, to be begotten, and the Heirs Male of the Bodies of such Son or Sons, and against all and every other Person and Persons claiming or to claim by Virtue of any of the Uses or Limitations contained in the said recited Act, and against the Heirs of the Bodies of Sir Thomas Cotton, and Dame Alice his Wife, both deceased, and against the right Heirs of the said Sir Thomas Cotton, and against all and every Person and Persons claiming or to claim, by, from, or under the said Sir John Cotton deceased, and freed and discharged of and from their respective Titles and Estates.

II. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That a convenient Room shall be built on or near Part of the said Ground, hereby intended to be vested in her Majesty, as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall by Writing under the Sign Manual appoint; in which Room, when built, all the said Manuscripts, written Books, Papers Parchments, Records, and other Memorials, as also all Coins, Medals, and other Rarities and Curiosities in the said Library contained, shall be lodged, and there remain to all Posterity; and the said Room when built, shall for ever be called and known by the Name of the Cottonian Library; and from the building thereof, the said Library shall be managed and directed by the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the Time being, the Honourable Robert Harley Esq; Principal Secretary of State, the Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being, the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench for the Time being, Sir Robert Cotton of Hatley St. George in the County Cambridge, Knt. Phillip Cotton of Connington in the said County, Esq; Robert Cotton of Giddin in the County of Huntingdon, Esq; and William Hanbury of the Inner Temple, London, Esq; and their Successors, as Trustees to and for the Use of the Publick for ever; and in case any of the said recited four Persons shall happen to die, the said Sir John Cotton, or other Heir Male of his Family for the Time being, shall nominate and appoint one or more fit Person or Persons for the Time being, to succeed him or them, and to supply the Place of him or them so dying, and so toties quoties, as any of the said last four Trustees, or others succeeding them, shall happen to die.

A convenient Room to be built for the Library, and to be called the Cottonian Library.

Trustees appointed,

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said Manuscripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials, as also all Coins, Medals, Rarities, and Curiosities in the said Library, hereby intended to be lodged in the said Room when rebuilt, shall be under the same Regulations, Directions, and Management of the said Trustees, to all Intents and Purposes, as the present Library and every Thing therein contained, now is by the said recited Act liable and subject to; and a fit Person for Library Keeper, shall be appointed by the said Trustees from Time to Time as they, or the major Part of them, shall think fit; and the said Library, and Library Keeper, shall be in every Respect under the same Directions and Government as the present Library and Library Keeper by the said recited Act are subject to, except where the same is herein particularly altered.

Library to be under the same Regulations as at present,

IV. Saving to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors (other than and except the said Sir John Cotton the Grandson, and his Son and Sons, begotten or to be begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Bodies of such Son and Sons, and other than the Person and Persons claiming or to claim by Virtue of, or under any of the Uses or Limitations contained in the said recited Act, and other than the Heirs of the Bodies of Sir Thomas Cotton and Dame Alice his Wife, and other than the right Heirs of the said Sir Thomas Cotton, and other than the Person and Persons claiming, or to claim, by, from, or under the said Sir Thomas Cotton deceased) all such Right, Title, Estate, Interest, or Demand, into or out of the said Premises hereby vested in her Majesty as aforesaid, as they or any of them had or might enjoy if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Salvo of Right to all Persons, &c. Exception.

V. And to the Intent that an Equivalent in lieu of the said House, called Cotton House, Gardens and Buildings, hereby vested in her Majesty, may be settled to the same Uses the said House, Gardens, and Buildings aforesaid, be settled and limited by the said recited Act of Parliament; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sir John Cotton, or his Heirs, shall before or at the Time of receiving the said four thousand five hundred Pounds from her Majesty, by good and sufficient Conveyances and Assurances in the Law, convey and assure Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of Inheritance in the Counties of Huntingdon or Bedford, or one of them, Part of the present Estate of the said Sir John Cotton, of the clear annual Value of three hundred Pounds beyond ordinary Reprizes, free from all Incumbrances, to the Use of him the said Sir John Cotton, for and during the Term of his natural Life, and after his Decease, to the Use of the first, and every other Son and Sons of the Body of the said Sir John Cotton to be begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of such Son or Sons issuing successively; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of Thomas Cotton, Brother of the said Sir John Cotton, for the Term of his natural Life; and after his Decease, to the Use of the first and every other Son and Sons of the Body of the said Thomas to be begotten successively, and to the Heirs Males of the Body of such Son and Sons; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of Robert Cotton of Giddin in the County of Huntingdon Esq; Uncle of the said Sir John Cotton, for the Term of his natural Life; and after his Decease, to the Use of John Cotton, Son of the said Robert Cotton, for his natural Life; and after his Decease, to the Use of the first and every other Son and Sons of the said John Cotton to be begotten successively, and the Heirs Males of their Bodies issuing; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of all and every the other Son and Sons of the Body of the said Robert to be begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Bodies of such Son or Sons successively; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of Sir Robert Cotton of Hatley St. George in the County of Cambridge, Knight, for his natural Life; and after his Decease, to the Use of the first and every other Son and Sons of his Body to be begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Bodies of such Son and Sons issuing successively; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of Phillip Cotton of Connington in the County of Cambridge, Esq; for

Sir John Cotton to settle 300 l. per Annum in lieu of Cotton House.

To the Use of himself, &c.

for his natural Life; and after his Decease, to the Use of the first and every other Son and Sons of his Body to be begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Bodies of such Son and Sons issuing successively; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of Thomas Cotton of Cotton in the County Palatine of Chester, Esq; for the Term of his natural Life; and after his Decease, to the Use of the first and every other the Son and Sons of his Body to be begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Bodies of such Son and Sons issuing successively; and for Default of such Issue, to the Use of the Right Heirs of the said Sir John Cotton for ever.

Lands, &c. when settled not to be subject to future Judgments, &c.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, when settled as aforesaid, shall never be subject or liable to any future Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, or Incumbrances, nor shall ever be sold or aliened, forfeited or forfeitable by the said Sir John Cotton, or any other of the said Persons in Remainder, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever.

An Act for the Encouraging the Discovery and Apprehending of House-breakers.

25 H. 8. c. 3. 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 9 & 10. 3 W. & M. c. 9. I. WHEREAS the Crimes of Burglary and breaking open Houses in a felonious Manner, are of late Years become more frequent than formerly, to the great Disquiet, Terror, and Impoverishment of many of your Majesty's good Subjects; which Crimes might be, in great Measure, prevented, if due Encouragement be given to such as shall vigorously endeavour the Discovery and apprehending of such Malefactors, and some severe Punishment inflicted on such as shall receive or buy stolen Goods, and harbour and protect the said Offenders: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, all and every Person and Persons who shall apprehend and take any Person or Persons guilty of Burglary, or the felonious Breaking and Entering of any House in the Day-time, and prosecute him, her, or them, so apprehended and taken, until he, she, or they be convicted of such Burglary or Felony, shall have and receive, over and above the Rewards given by one Act of Parliament made at Westminster, in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the better Apprehending, Preventing, and Punishing of Felons that commit Burglary, House-breaking, or Robbery in Shops, Warehouses, Coach-houses, or Stables, or that steal Horses, the Sum of forty Pounds within one Month after such Conviction, to be paid by the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where such Felony or Burglary shall be made and done, without any Fee for the same, to the Person or Persons so taking, apprehending, and prosecuting the said Offenders, he and they rendering a Certificate to the said Sheriff or Sheriffs, under the Hand or Hands of the Judges or Justices before whom such Felon shall be convicted for such Burglary or Felony, certifying the Conviction of such Felon for the said Offence or Offences, and in what Parish the same was committed, and also that such Felon or Felons was or were taken by the Person or Persons claiming the said Reward; and in case any Dispute shall happen to arise between the Persons so apprehending any the said Felons, touching their Right and Title to the said Reward, that then the said Judge or Justices so respectively certifying as aforesaid, shall in and by their said Certificate direct and appoint the said Reward to be paid to and amongst the Parties claiming the same, in such Share and Proportions as to the said Judge or Justices shall seem just and reasonable; and if it shall happen that any such Sheriff or Sheriffs shall die or be removed before the Expiration of one Month after such Conviction, and demand made of the said Reward (not being paid as aforesaid) that then the next succeeding Sheriff or Sheriffs shall pay the same within one Month after Demand, and Certificate brought as aforesaid; and if Default of Payment of the said Sum or Sums of Money shall happen to be made by any Sheriff or Sheriffs, such Sheriff or Sheriffs so making Default shall forfeit to the Person or Persons to whom such Money is due as aforesaid, double the Sum or Sums of Money he or they ought to have paid, to be recovered by him or them, or his or their Executors or Administrators, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein but one Imparance, and no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, with Treble Costs of Suit, by him or them expended in the Recovery of the same.

Apprehenders of Burglars, &c. to have 40 l. over and above the Rewards by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23.

payable by Sheriff.

Justices in case of Dispute to direct in their Certificate how Reward shall be paid.

Watchman or other killed in Pursuit of House-breaker, his Executor, &c. entitled to the 40 l. by 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 4. Sheriffs may apply to the Treasury without charging this Money in their Accounts.

II. And be it further enacted, That in Case any Watchman, or any other Person or Persons shall happen to be killed by any such Burglar or House-breaker, endeavouring to apprehend, or in making Pursuit after him or them, that then the Executors or Administrators, or such Person or Persons to whom the Right of Administration of the Personal Estate of such Person so killed shall belong, upon Certificate delivered under the Hands and Seals of the Judge or Justices of Assize of the County where the Fact was committed, or the two next Justices of the Peace, of such Person or Persons being so killed, which Certificate the said Judge or Justices, upon sufficient Proof before them made, are immediately required to give without Fee or Reward, shall receive the Sum of forty Pounds from the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where the said Fact was done and committed; and upon Failure of Payment thereof by the said Sheriff or Sheriffs, double the Sum of forty Pounds to be recovered against them, with Treble Costs of Suit, in Manner and Form as aforesaid.

Further Provisions concerning Burglary, 12 Ann. c. 7. 4 Geo. 1. c. 11. and 6 Geo. 1. c. 23.

III. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Sheriffs, their Executors, and Administrators, upon producing such respective Certificates, and the Receipts for the Money paid by them, in pursuance of this Act, shall be allowed, and are hereby empowered to deduct, upon their Accounts, all Monies, other than double the Sum and Sums of Money, and Treble Costs of Suit, which they shall disburse as aforesaid; and that if upon Account of any Sheriff or Sheriffs, there shall not be Money sufficient in the Hands of such Sheriff or Sheriffs to reimburse him or them such Monies paid by him or them by virtue of this Act, that then the Sheriff or Sheriffs having so paid the said Monies, shall have the same repaid by the Lord Treasurer, or Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, out of the Revenue of the Crown, upon Certificate from the Clerk of the Pipe to that Effect.

Sheriffs to deduct Monies so paid on their Accounts, and be repaid by Lord Treasurer.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons being out of Prison, shall from and after the said tenth Day of May commit any Burglary or Felony as aforesaid, and afterwards discover two or more Persons who already have, or hereafter shall commit any such Burglaries or Felonies, so as two or more of the Persons discovered shall be convicted of such Burglary or Felony, any such Discoverer shall himself have the like Reward and Allowance of forty Pounds hereby promised to be paid to the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and convict House-breakers, and all other Advantages given to such Taker and Prosecutor, and shall also be himself entitled to the gracious Pardon of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for all Burglaries, Robberies, and Felonies (except Murder and Treason) by him committed at any Time or Times before such Discovery made, which Pardon shall be likewise a good Bar to any Appeal brought for such Burglary, Robbery or Felony.

Felon, &c. discovering two or more Felons, shall on Conviction be entitled to Reward, and be pardoned,

V. And forasmuch as the said Felons are much encouraged to commit such Burglaries and Felonies, because a great Number of Persons make it a Trade to receive and buy of the said Felons the Goods so by them feloniously taken, and also do make it their Business to harbour and conceal the said Offenders after the said Facts, knowing the said Felonies and Burglaries to have been by them committed: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall receive or buy any Goods or Chattels that shall be feloniously taken or stolen from any other Person, knowing the same to be stolen, or shall receive, harbour, or conceal any Burglars, Felons, or Thieves, knowing them to be so, shall be taken and received as Accessary or Accessaries to the said Felony or Felonies; and being of either of the said Offences legally convicted, by the Testimony of one or more credible Witnesses, shall suffer and incur the Pains of Death as a Felon convicted.

Buyers or Receivers of stolen Goods, &c. made Accessaries, &c.

VI. Provided always, That if any such principal Felon cannot be taken, so as to be prosecuted and convicted for any such Offence, yet nevertheless it shall and may be lawful to prosecute and punish every such Person and Persons buying or receiving any Goods stolen, by any such principal Felon, knowing the same to be stolen, as for a Misdemeanor, to be punished by Fine and Imprisonment, or other such corporal Punishment as the Court shall think fit to inflict, although the principal Felon be not before convicted of the said Felony, which shall exempt the Offender from being punished as Accessary, if such principal Felon shall be afterwards taken and convicted.

If principal Felon cannot be taken, Accessary to be tried as for a Misdemeanor.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judge or Justices (before whom such Felons and House-breakers shall be convicted, as aforesaid) shall determine and settle the Right, Rights, and Shares of such respective Persons, who by virtue of this Act shall be entitled to the Certificate herein directed to be given, and shall also (being thereunto required) make out and deliver, or cause to be made out and delivered, the said Certificate without Fee or Reward to such Person or Persons entitled thereunto, before the End of such Assizes or Sessions wherein such Conviction, as aforesaid, shall be had.

Judges, &c. to settle the Right and Shares of Persons to the Certificate, &c.

VIII. And whereas the Offences mentioned in this Act are generally committed in London and Middlesex, and the Rewards hereby granted being to be paid by the Under-Sheriffs of the said Counties, by reason whereof they will be obliged to disburse great Sums of Money; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Sheriff of London and Middlesex, shall accept, demand, take, or receive of his or their Under-Sheriff, directly or indirectly, either by himself, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him or them, any Sum or Sums of Money, Gratuity, or Present whatsoever, for the Execution of the Place of Under-Sheriff; nor in any Manner oblige his or their Under-Sheriff, by Covenant, Promise, or otherwise to be at any Expence or Charge in Relation to the said Place of Under-Sheriff, which ought and hath been usually paid and disbursed by the High Sheriff; except the Rewards given by this or any other Act for the apprehending Highwaymen, Clippers, Coiners, and House-breakers, and the Fees of passing such High Sheriff's Accounts in the Exchequer, and such other Disbursements as hath been heretofore customarily sustained by the Under-Sheriff.

No Sheriff of London or Middlesex to take of his Under-Sheriff any Gratuity for his Place of Under-Sheriff.

Nor oblige him to be at any Expence, &c. Exception.

An Act for obliging John Rice to account for Debentures granted to him in the last Session of Parliament. P R.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for continuing the Laws therein mentioned, relating to the Poor, and to the buying and selling of Cattle in Smithfield, and for suppressing of Piracy.

‘WHEREAS the temporary Laws following, which by Experience have been found useful and beneficial, are expired or near expiring; therefore, for continuing the same,’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, which was enacted to have Continuance (except what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby constituted) until the twenty-ninth of May one thousand six hundred and sixty-five, and from thence to the End of the first Session of the next Parliament; which said Act, by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King JAMES the Second (except what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby constituted) was enacted to be in force from the first Day of May one thousand six hundred eighty-five, and so to continue for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; and by an Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM, the said Act (as to what therein related to the Settlement of the Poor) was enacted to be in force from the first Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-one; but no Provision was thereby made for continuing divers other Parts of the said Act; which said Act, for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, as to all Parts thereof not mentioned and continued in and by the said Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties (other than, and except what relates to the Corporations mentioned in the said Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, and thereby constituted) was, by an Act made in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties, continued for the Space of seven Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; which said Act afterwards, by an Act of the eleventh and twelfth Years of King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for continuing several Laws therein mentioned, was continued for seven Years, from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred, shall be in force from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven (except what relates to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby constituted) for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Sessions of Parliament.

I. WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies; it was enacted, That no Company or particular Person or Persons who should have a Right, in pursuance of the said Act, to trade to the East Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits of the said Act mentioned, should be allowed to trade thither, until sufficient Security was first given (which the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any three or more of them for the Time being, were thereby authorized and required to take, in the Name and to the Use of his said late Majesty, his Heirs and Successors) That such Company or particular Persons should cause all the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, which at any Time or Times afterwards, during the Continuance of the said Act, should be laden by or for them, or any of them, or for their or any of their Accounts, in any Ship or Ships whatsoever bound from the East Indies, or Parts within the Limits mentioned in the said Act, should be brought (without breaking Bulk) to some Port of England or Wales, and there be unladen and put on Land (the Danger of the Seas, Enemies, Pirates, Restraints of Princes and Rulers, and Barratry of Seamen excepted:) And whereas the said Act, and the Security to be given in pursuance thereof, have been by Experience found not to be sufficient to hinder and prevent the unlading or putting on Shore in divers Places and Countries other than the Kingdom of England or Dominion of Wales, great Quantities of Goods brought from the East Indies, or some Port or Places within the Limits mentioned in the said recited Act, to the great Loss of her Majesty's Customs, and the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom in general: And whereas some Difficulties have arisen touching the Acceptance of the Security directed by the said Act; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Security

Security to be hereafter given in pursuance of the said Act, shall be after the Rate of two thousand five hundred Pounds for every hundred Tun the Ships or Vessels shall be respectively let for, that shall be sent to the said East Indies, or other Parts within the Limits in the said Act mentioned, and so proportionably for any lesser Part than an hundred Tuns; and that the English Company trading to the East Indies shall for each Ship or Vessel which shall be sent out from Great Britain, and employed by them, or for their Account, give Security as aforesaid, by their Common Seal; the Condition whereof shall be in the Form following, viz.

2500l. Security to be given for every hundred Tun that Ship sent to the East Indies shall be let for.
Company to give such Security.

WHEREAS in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, the Ship whereof Captain is Master, of the Burthen of Tons, is, under the Regulation of the said Act, bound out upon a Voyage to the East Indies, or other Parts within the Limits prescribed by the said Act, with a Cargo or Loading of Goods, upon Account of the above bound English Company trading to the East Indies: The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if all the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities which shall at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this present intended Voyage, be laden by or for the said Company, or any of them, or for their, or any of their Accounts in the said Ship, from the said East Indies, or Parts aforesaid, shall be, without breaking Bulk, brought to some Port of Great Britain, and there be unladen and put on Land (the Danger of the Seas, Enemies, Pirates, Constraint of Princes and Rulers, Barratry of Seamen, and necessary Provisions, Stores and Merchandizes for the People and Garrison of St. Helena, only for their own proper Consumption excepted) then this Obligation shall be void, or else shall remain in full Force, Effect, and Virtue.

Form of the Condition.

II. And that besides the several and respective Securities to be given by this or the said former Act against breaking Bulk, all the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities which shall be laden in the East Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits mentioned in the said Act, upon any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of her Majesty's Subjects, with Intent to be transported out of and from the said East Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid, the same shall be brought to some Port of Great Britain, and there shall be unladen and put on Shore (necessary Provisions, Stores, and Merchandizes for the People and Garrison of St. Helena, for their own proper Consumption only, excepted) and except also where the breaking of Bulk or landing of Goods in Breach of this or the said former Act shall happen to be by the Danger of the Seas, Enemies, Pirates, Restraint of Princes or Rulers, or Barratry of Seamen, on Pain of forfeiting all such Goods which contrary to this Act shall be landed elsewhere than in some Port of Great Britain, or the Value thereof, to be recovered, one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effloin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

land seven hundred and thirteen; and all the Monies to arise by Virtue of an Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of glorious Memory, of or for the Duties of Excise thereby granted, after paying off, or reserving sufficient to pay off the Lottery Annuities therein mentioned, together with other Monies mentioned in the said Act of the fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign, are appropriated and made liable to the Payment of certain Annuities purchased thereupon, not exceeding one hundred eighty-four thousand two hundred forty-two Pounds and fourteen Shillings per Annum, for ninety-nine Years, from Lady-day one thousand seven hundred and six, payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer; which Subsidies, Rates, Duties, and other Funds or Provisions charged by the said Act of the fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign, with the Annuities last mentioned, will by Estimation produce annually a considerable Sum more than sufficient to discharge all those Annuities, and the necessary Charges of paying and accounting for the same; and the Overplus Monies thereof are since enacted to be justly and duly computed at the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary in every Year, or within six Days after: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in England in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties on Low Wines, and Spirits of the first Extraction, and the Duties payable by Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and Part of the Duties on stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and the late Duties on Sweets, and the one third Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and for settling and establishing a Fund thereby, and by the Application of certain Overplus Monies, and otherwise, for Payment of Annuities to be sold, for raising a further Supply to her Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seven, and other Uses therein expressed, certain Duties upon Low Wines, and Spirits of the first Extraction, thereby granted and continued from the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, for the Term of ninety-six Years from thence next ensuing, and certain Duties payable by Hawkers, Pedlars, Petty Chapmen, and others therein described, and thereby continued for the like Term of Years; and such of the Duties upon stampd Vellum Parchment, and Paper, as are therein mentioned, and thereby granted and continued for the Term of ninety-six Years, to commence from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the Duties upon Sweets thereby laid for the Term of ninety-nine Years, commencing from the four and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six; and the additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, which are commonly called as aforesaid, the one third Subsidy, by the same Act granted, and continued for one whole Year, commencing from the Expiration of the ninety-eight Years granted therein by the said former Act; and all the Overplus Monies of the Subsidies, Rates, Duties, and other Funds contained in the said Act of the fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign, after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay so much as shall be incurred or grown due upon the said Annuities by Virtue of that Act, at or before every Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary respectively, the necessary Charges of paying and accounting for the same Annuities purchased thereupon being excepted, are appropriated and made liable to the Payment of certain Annuities purchased upon the said Act of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of seventy-two thousand one hundred eighty-seven Pounds ten Shillings per Annum, for ninety-nine Years, from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven, payable at the said Receipt of the Exchequer; and for the better securing the quarterly Payments which should grow due at or before Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and ten, upon the said Annuities, not exceeding seventy-two thousand one hundred eighty-seven Pounds ten Shillings per Annum, divers other temporary Provisions are made in the said Act of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign; and thereby it is also provided, That if at the End of any Year of the said Term of ninety-nine Years, for which the said Annuities upon the said Act of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign were to be purchased (the first Computation to be made at Lady-day one thousand seven hundred and eight, or within six Days after) the Monies arising at the Exchequer within such Year by the said Rates, Duties, Subsidies, Overplus Monies, and other Monies thereby appropriated for Payment of the said Annuities, pursuant to that Act, shall exceed all the Monies then due for or upon the same Annuities, and all Arrearages thereof, then or at any Time or Times before that Time incurred, so that there shall be an Excess or Surplus remaining in the Exchequer, such Excess or Surplus shall be disposable from Time to Time for the publick Use and Service, and not otherwise: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in England in the fourth Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of glorious Memory, (intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France) certain other Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors therein particularly expressed, were granted to their said late Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, for the Term of ninety-nine Years, from the five and twentieth Day of January one thousand six hundred and ninety-two, and are by that and by several other Acts relating thereunto, made liable to the Payment of several Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship, and other Annuities charged thereupon; which Rates and Duties of Excise last mentioned, do also produce annually a considerable Sum more than sufficient to discharge all those Annuities so charged thereupon, and the necessary Charges of paying and accounting for the same; and the Overplus Monies thereby arising have been and are to be computed on the four and twentieth Day of June yearly, and are comprehended amongst the temporary Provisions made in the said Act of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, for better securing the quarterly Payments of the said Annuities, not exceeding seventy-two thousand one hundred eighty-seven Pounds ten Shillings per Annum, which should grow due at or before the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand ‘ thousand seven hundred and ten, from which Time the Overplus Monies of the Rates and Duties of Excise last-mentioned do belong to her Majesty for the publick Use and Service.’ Now we your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to raise a Sum of Money not exceeding six hundred and forty thousand Pounds, that is to say, a Sum not exceeding five hundred and forty thousand Pounds, Part of the Money necessary to be provided in this Session of Parliament for your Majesty’s Supply, and a Sum not exceeding one hundred thousand Pounds to be applied in such Manner as is herein after mentioned, towards making good the Payment of the Annuities to be purchased upon this Act, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, for and during the full Term of ninety-nine Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, the full Sum of forty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain by the Year, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient for paying and discharging all the Annuities to be purchased upon this present Act, shall be set apart and appropriated, and the same is by this Act appropriated for the Payment and Satisfaction of the said Annuities to be purchased on this Act, in such Manner and Form as are herein after prescribed in that Behalf.

II. And for the better raising, securing, and establishing of the said Fund, it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Fund, or Sum not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum, shall be charged upon and payable out of all the Overplus or Surplus Monies of the said Rates, Duties, Subsidies, and other Funds settled for Payment of the said several Annuities purchased upon the said several Acts of the fourth and fifth Years of her Majesty’s Reign respectively, which shall from time to time remain, after satisfying, or reserving in the Exchequer sufficient to satisfy so much as shall be incurred, or grown due upon those Annuities, and every of them, and which, by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, were left to be disposed from time to time for the publick Use and Service, as aforesaid; and shall also be charged upon, and payable out of all the Overplus Monies which shall arise after the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, of or for the said Rates and Duties of Excise granted in the said fourth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and which from time to time, during the then Remainder of the said Term of ninety-nine Years therein granted, shall remain, after Payment and Satisfaction of all the Annuities charged thereupon by the said Act of the fourth Year of their said late Majesties Reign, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament before this Time made for charging any Annuities whatsoever upon the Rates and Duties of Excise last-mentioned; and the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby directed from time to time, during the Continuance of the said Subsidies, Rates, Duties, and other Funds settled by the said several Annuity Acts of the fourth and fifth Years of her Majesty’s Reign, as aforesaid, and every or any of them, to cause all the said Overplus Monies of the same Subsidies, Rates, Duties, and other Funds contained in the said several Annuity Acts of the said fourth and fifth Years of her Majesty’s Reign, to be justly and duly computed at the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary in every Year, or within six Days after; and during the Continuance of the said Rates and Duties of Excise granted by the said Act of the fourth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, to cause all the said Overplus Monies of the same Rates and Duties of Excise to be justly and duly computed on the four and twentieth Day of June yearly; and to cause all the Overplus Monies which shall appear upon such several and respective Computations as aforesaid, from time to Time, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, to be set apart, reserved, and applied for and towards the making good the said Fund or Sum not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum, hereby intended and appointed to be settled and established for the Payment of all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, without diverting or misapplying any of the Monies which by the said former Acts, or any of them, ought upon every such Computation to have been reserved for Payment of any the Annuities formerly purchased, as aforesaid, if this present Act had not been made.

III. And for the better securing the quarterly Payments which shall grow due on or before Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and ten, upon the Annuities to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, Part of the Contribution-monies to be raised by sale of Annuities upon this Act, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to make good the said yearly Fund, not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum for the first two Years and an Half of the said Term of ninety-nine Years, shall and may be reserved and applied for and towards the discharging the quarterly Payments last-mentioned, to grow due at any Time or Times before the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten.

IV. And to the end there may be no Failure in the Payment of such Annuities, or any of them, as shall be purchased upon this Act at any Time or Times until the full Expiration of the Term of ninety-nine Years, for which the same are intended to be purchased, we your Majesty’s said dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction, and the Duties to be paid by Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and the Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and the additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and the Duty upon Sweets, and the particular Rates and Duties upon Excise hereafter in this Act expressed, for and during such further Term and Terms of years respectively as are herein after mentioned; And do most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept thereof, and that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such or the like Duties for and upon all Low Wines, or Spirits of the Extraction, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign were continued or granted for the Term of ninety-six Years above-mentioned, shall by virtue of this Act be further continued, and be paid and payable unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Low Wines, and Spirits of the first Extraction, to be made or drawn by any Distiller, or other Person making or drawing Spirits or Strong Waters for Sale or Exportation, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, from or after the Expiration of the said Term of ninety-six Years, for and during the Term of one whole Year from thence next and immediately ensuing: And that all and every such and the like Duties and Sums of Money to be paid by every Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, and such other Persons as are described in one Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, for licensing Hawkers and Pedlars, and all the Powers for granting such Licences, which by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign are to continue for the like Term of ninety-six Years, from the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall be further continued, and be paid and payable, and be put in Execution by virtue of this Act within the whole Kingdom of Great Britain, from and after the Expiration of the said Term of ninety-six Years, during the Term of one whole Year from thence next and immediately ensuing: And that such of the Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign were continued for the Term of ninety-six Years from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall by virtue of this Act be further continued, and be due and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, within and throughout the whole Kingdom of Great Britain, from and after the Expiration of the Term of ninety-six Years last-mentioned, for and during the Term of one whole Year from thence next and immediately ensuing: And that the additional Subsidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, commonly called, the one third Subsidy, which by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, are granted and continued for the Term of one whole Year from the Expiration of a Term of ninety-eight Years, which commenced from the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, shall by virtue of this Act be further continued, and be due and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, within and throughout the whole united Kingdom of Great Britain, from the Expiration of the said Term of one Year so granted and commencing as aforesaid, for and during the further Term of one whole Year from thence next and immediately ensuing: And that the Duty upon Sweets made for Sale, which by the said Act in the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, was granted for the Term of ninety-nine Years, commencing from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, shall, by virtue of this Act, be further continued, and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, within and throughout the united Kingdom of Great Britain, from and after the Expiration of the Term of ninety-nine Years last-mentioned, for and during the further Term of two Years from thence next and immediately ensuing.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which by the said Act of the fourth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of glorious Memory, were granted for the Term of ninety-nine Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of January one thousand six hundred ninety-two, shall, by virtue of this Act, be further continued, and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, within and throughout the whole united Kingdom of Great Britain, from and after the Expiration of the Term of ninety-nine Years last-mentioned, for and during the further Term of fifteen Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, That the said several Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction; and the said Duties payable by Hawkers, Pedlars, Petty Chapmen, and others described as aforesaid; and the said Rates and Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and the said additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, by this Act severally granted for a further Term of one Year as aforesaid; and the said Duty upon Sweets by this Act granted for a further Term of two Years as aforesaid; and the said Rates and Duties of Excise by this Act granted for a further Term of fifteen Years as aforesaid, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, be severally and respectively raised and levied by such Rules and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Distribution of the said Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Power of Mitigation, and such respective Drawbacks, Allowances, and Repayments, and in such Manner and Form as the like Duties granted or continued by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or any of them respectively, are prescribed, enacted, or appointed to be raised or levied.

VII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the said Overplus Monies of the said Rates, Duties, Subsidies, and other Funds settled for Payment of the said several Annuities purchased upon the said several Acts of the fourth and fifth Years of her Majesty's Reign respectively; and the said Overplus Monies of the said Rates and Duties of Excise which were granted in the fourth Year of their said late Majesty's Reign as aforesaid; and the said Sum not exceeding one hundred thousand Pounds, directed to be reserved out of the Contribution-monies as aforesaid; and the several Grants made by this Act of the said Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction; and of the said Duties to be paid by Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen; and of the said Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and of the said additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage severally, for the further Term of one Year as aforesaid; and of the said Duties upon Sweets for two Years as aforesaid; and of the said particular Rates and Duties of Excise for the Term of fifteen Years as aforesaid; or so much of the said several Overplus Monies, nies, reserved Monies, Rates, additional Subsidy, and other Duties, as shall be sufficient for making up the said Fund, not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum, for answering the full and due Payment of all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, and all Arrearages thereof from time to time incurred, are, and shall be by virtue of this Act, liable and appropriated thereunto, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities in this Act expressed; and all the Monies arising by the said Overplusses, Grants, and Provisions hereby made, out of which the said Fund, not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum, is to be raised, shall be fairly and duly entred in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells for that Purpose, to which all Persons concerned at all seasonable Times shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

and to be entred in a Book for that Purpose.

VIII. And for the raising any Sum and Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the said Sum of six hundred and forty thousand Pounds, for such Uses as aforesaid, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute, advance, and pay into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, for her Majesty's Use, at or before the respective Days and Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the said Sum of six hundred and forty thousand Pounds, for purchasing any Annuity or Annuities to be paid and payable during the full Term of ninety-nine Years, to be reckoned from the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, at the Rate of sixteen Years Purchase, which Rate doth amount to the Sum of one hundred and sixty Pounds for every such Annuity of ten Pounds per Annum, and proportionably for any greater Annuity; and the same Rate, or Consideration-money, is hereby appointed to be paid into the said Receipt at or before the respective Days and Times herein after mentioned; that is to say, One fourth Part thereof on or before the six and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the six and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the six and twentieth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the five and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight: All which Annuities so to be purchased, shall not exceed in the whole the said Sum of forty thousand Pounds per Annum; and shall be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year; that is to say, The Feasts of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, Saint Michael the Archangel, the Birth of our Lord Christ, and the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, by even and equal Portions, the first Payment thereof to be due at the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight.

Any Person may lend 640,000*l.* for purchasing Annuities at 16 Years Purchase.

Times of Payment.

Annuities not to exceed 40,000*l.* per Ann. and to be paid quarterly.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, That in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells in the Exchequer severally, there shall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which there shall be fairly entred the Names of all who shall be Contributors, and of all Persons by whose Hands the said Contributors shall pay in any of the said Sums upon this Act, and also the Sums so paid, and the Times when the same are respectively paid: To which Book it shall be lawful for the said respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, from time to time, and all seasonable Times, to have Resort, and to inspect the same without Fee or Reward.

Contributors Names to be entred, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Annuities whatsoever, which shall be purchased upon or in pursuance of this present Act, shall be and are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable from time to time out of the said Fund or Sum not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum, by this Act intended and appointed to be established, as aforesaid; and the said yearly Fund or Sum of forty thousand Pounds per Annum, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the Annuities to be purchased upon this Act, and all the Arrearages thereof, at any Time due or owing, are and shall be, by virtue of this Act, appropriated, and applied to and for satisfying and discharging of the same Annuities, and such Arrearages thereof accordingly, and shall be issued, disposed, and applied to that Use, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities in this Act expressed; any thing herein contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The 40,000*l.* charged with the said Annuities.

XI. Provided always, That if at the End of any Year of the said Term of ninety-nine Years, for which the said Annuities upon this Act are to be purchased, the first Computation to be made at the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and nine, or within six Days after, the Monies arising at the Exchequer within such Year, which by this Act are chargeable to make good the said yearly Fund, not exceeding forty thousand Pounds (excepting such Part of the said Contribution-money, as is to be reserved for making good the future quarterly Payments, until the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, as aforesaid) shall exceed all the Monies which at every such Feast Day shall be due for or upon the same Annuities, and all Arrearages thereof, then or at any Time or Times before that Time incurred, so that there shall be an Excess or Surplus remaining in the Exchequer, such Excess or Surplus shall be disposible from time to time for the publick Use and Service, and not otherwise; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Surplus to be applied to publick Use.

Farther Provision relating hereto, 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 12. §. 7.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Contributor and Contributors upon this Act, duly paying the Consideration or Purchase-money at the Rate aforesaid, at or Contributors entitled to the Annuities &c. Part of the Annuities were subscribed into South Sea Stock pursuant to 6 Annæ, c. 4.th before before the respective Days or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, for any such Annuity or Annuities, as aforesaid, or such as he, she, or they shall appoint, his, her, or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled by virtue of this Act, to have, receive and enjoy the respective Annuity and Annuities so to be purchased out of the Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for the Payment thereof, during the said whole Term of ninety-nine Years, to be purchased therein, as is above mentioned; and that all and every such Purchasers, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, shall have good and sure Estates and Interests in the several Annuities so by them to be purchased, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; and that all the said Annuities to be purchased upon this Act and every of them, during the Term aforesaid, shall be free from all Taxes, Charges, and Impositions whatsoever.

And have Tallies and Orders struck for Payment, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Contributor upon this Act, for any Annuity or Annuities, as aforesaid, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, upon Payment of the Consideration or Purchase-money for the same, at the Rate aforesaid, or any Part or Proportion thereof, within the Time or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, shall immediately have one or more Tally or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of so much Consideration-money as shall be so paid; and upon Payment of all the Purchase-money for any such Annuity or Annuities, at the Rate aforesaid, every such Contributor, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns respectively, shall have an Order for paying of the said Annuity and Annuities, for and during the said Term of ninety-nine Years, to be purchased therein, which Order shall be signed by the Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and after the signing thereof, the same shall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treasurer or Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them, or any of them, nor shall any Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Orders so signed, as aforesaid, or any of them.

5 per Cent. for Prompt Payment before 26 March 1708.

XIV. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors to advance and pay forthwith into the Receipt of the Exchequer the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon this Act, it is provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Contributor who shall advance and pay into the said Receipt of Exchequer, all or any Part of the Purchase-money payable for any such Annuity or Annuities, as aforesaid, before the said six and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be allowed and paid out of the Contribution-money arising by this Act, Interest after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum for the prompt Payment of the Money so advanced, from the Time of the actual advancing and paying the same, until the said six and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Contributor or Contributors, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of his, her, or their Term, Estate, or Interest of and in any Annuity to be purchased upon this Act, by any Writing under his, her, or their Hands and Seals, or under the Common Seal of a Corporation, or by his, her, or their last Will in Writing, to assign, or devise such Annuity, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, and so toties quoties, and no such Assignment to be revokable, so as an Entry, or Memorandum of such Assignment or Will be made in Books to be kept for that Purpose in the said Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, within the Space of three Months after such Assignment, or Death of the Devisor; and that upon producing such Assignment, or Will, or Probat thereof, in the said Office of Receipt to be entred, as aforesaid, the Party so producing the same shall bring therewith an Affidavit taken before one or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, of the due Execution of the said Assignment or Will, which Affidavit shall be severally filed in the said Office; which said Entry or Memorandum the proper Officers in the said Receipt of Exchequer are hereby required to make accordingly, and to file the said Affidavits; and in Default of such Assignment or Devise by Deed or Will, the Interest of such Contributor shall go to his or her Executors or Administrators.

Guardian may advance 160 l. for Benefit of Infant.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Trustee, having the Disposal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of one and twenty Years, for the Use and Benefit of such Infant, to advance and pay the Sum of one hundred and sixty Pounds of the Money of such Infant, to purchase an Annuity upon this Act, for the Benefit of such Infant; and the said Guardian or Trustee, as to the said Sum of one hundred and sixty Pounds so advanced, is hereby discharged.

XVII. And be it further enacted, for the better Encouragement of Persons to advance the Monies on this Act, That all Receipts and Issues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, shall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward for the same; and in case any of the Officers of the Exchequer shall take or demand any such Fee or Reward, or shall divert or misapply any of the Monies of the said Fund, Duties, or Monies hereby appropriated, or any Part thereof, which should make good the Payment of the said Annuities, or shall pay, or issue out the same otherwise than according to the Intent of this Act, or shall not keep Books or Registers, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things which by this Act they are required to perform, every such Officer shall forfeit his Office, and

and be for ever incapable of any Office or Place of Trust, and shall answer and pay Treble Damages to every Contributor or Person who shall be prejudiced thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, Order of Restraint, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed; and in the said Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery shall have full Costs, one third of which Sum to be recovered for Damages, shall be to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other two third Parts with the Costs shall be to the Use of the Prosecutor; and in case there shall be any Collusion or Feint Prosecution between the Plaintiff and Defendant in such Action, it shall be lawful for any other Contributor, his or her Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to bring another Action, wherein he or she shall recover, as aforesaid, to the like Uses, as aforesaid.

XVIII. Provided always, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall or may Purchase or obtain, or be admitted to purchase or obtain any Annuity whatsoever upon this Act, unless the whole or one fourth at least of the Consideration-money for the same, at such Rate, as aforesaid, be advanced and paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer, on or before the said six and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight.

XIX. Provided also, That in Case any such Contributor, as aforesaid, who shall on or before the said six and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, have advanced one fourth Part of his or their Purchase-money, or his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, do not advance and pay into the said Receipt of Exchequer, one other fourth Part of his or her Consideration-money, so to be paid for such respective Annuity or Annuities, as aforesaid, on or before the said six and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; and the other fourth Part thereof, on or before the said six and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eight; and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the said five and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; then and in every such Case respectively no Order shall be drawn or signed for such respective Annuity, for which the Consideration-money shall not be fully paid, as aforesaid, but so much of the Consideration-money as shall have been actually paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for such respective Annuity, shall be forfeited to her Majesty, her Heirs, and Successors, and be applied, together with other the Monies to be raised by this Act, for such publick Services, as aforesaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Contributor paying one fourth Part, and not the Remainder, forfeits what is paid.

XX. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, out of the Overplus of the Revenues hereby appropriated for making good the said Fund, not exceeding forty thousand Pounds per Annum, which shall arise over and above so much as shall be sufficient to make up the said yearly Fund for discharging all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, to reward the Officers, Clerks, and others to be employed in the Payment of the said Annuities, or the Accounts thereof, for their Labour, Pains, Charges, and Service therein respectively, and to defray all other the necessary Charges incident to the Payment of the said Annuities, as to the said Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall seem meet and reasonable in that Behalf; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Treasury may reward Officers.

XXI. And whereas there are admitted in the Exchequer many Subscriptions for Annuities to this Act before the same has had the Royal Assent, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Subscriptions made or taken, or which shall be made and taken, before the Royal Assent given to this Act, shall be, and are hereby declared to be null and void.

Subscriptions admitted before the Royal Assent, void.

C A P. VI.

An Act for rendring the Union of the two Kingdoms more intire and compleat.

I. WHEREAS by her Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness the Union of the two Kingdoms hath been happily effected, and the whole Island is thereby subject to one Sovereignty, and presented by one Parliament: To the end therefore that the said Union may be rendred more compleat and intire, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, that from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall have but one Privy Council in or for the Kingdom of Great Britain, to be sworn to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, as Sovereigns of Great Britain; and such Privy Council shall have the same Powers and Authorities as the Privy Council of England lawfully had, used, and exercised at the Time of the Union, and none other.

5 Ann. c. 8.

From 1 May 1708 the Queen to have but one Privy Council in Great Britain.

II. And to the End the publick Peace may be in like Manner preserved throughout the whole United Kingdom; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Shire and Stewartry within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland and also in such Cities, Boroughs, Liberties, and Precincts within Scotland, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors shall think fit, there shall be appointed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, a sufficient Number of good and lawful Men to be Justices of the Peace within their respective Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Liberties, or Precincts; which Persons so appointed, over and above the several Powers and Authorities vested in Justices of the Peace by the Laws of Scotland, shall be further authorized to do, use and exercise over all Persons within their several Bounds, whatever doth appertain to the Office and Trust of a Justice of Peace, by Virtue of the Laws and Acts of Parliament made in England before the Union, in Relation to and for the Preservation of the publick Peace. Provided nevertheless, That in the Sessions of the Peace the Methods of Trial and Judgments shall be according to Laws and Customs of Scotland.

III. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to alter or infringe any Rights, Liberties, or Privileges heretofore granted to the City of Edinburgh, or to any other Royal Borough, of being Justices of Peace within their respective Bounds.

IV. And whereas by an Act made in Scotland in the Third Session of the second Parliament of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act concerning the Regulation of the Judicatures, several good and wholesome Provisions were made concerning the Justice Court, and amongst others it was thereby enacted, That once a Year Circuit Courts should be kept at the Time and Places in the said Act mentioned: Now for the better and speedier Administration of Justice, and further Preservation of the publick Peace in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the future, twice in the Year, that is to say, in the Months of April or May, and in the Month of October, Circuit Courts shall be kept in the several Places in the said Act mentioned, and in Manner and Form as in the said Act contained.

V. And for the more uniform and express Method of electing and returning Members of Parliament, be it likewise further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Parliament shall at any Time hereafter be summoned or called, the forty-five Representatives of Scotland in the House of Commons of the Parliament of Great Britain, shall be elected and chosen by Authority of the Queen's Writs under the Great Seal of Great Britain, directed to the several Sheriffs and Stewarts of the respective Shires and Stewartries; and the said several Sheriffs and Stewarts shall, on Receipt of such Writs, forthwith give Notice of the Time of Election for the Knights or Commissioners for their respective Shires or Stewartries, and at such Time of Election the several Freeholders in the respective Shires and Stewartries shall meet and convene at the Head Burghs of their several Shires and Stewartries, and proceed to the Election of their respective Commissioners or Knights for the Shire or Stewartry; and the Clerks of the said Meetings, immediately after the said Elections are over, shall respectively return the Names of the Persons elected to the Sheriff or Stewart of the Shire or Stewartry, who shall annex it to his Writ, and return it with the same into the Court out of which the Writ issued: And as to the Manner of Election of the fifteen Representatives of the Royal Boroughs, the Sheriff of the Shire of Edinburgh shall, on the Receipt of the Writ directed to him, forthwith direct his Precept to the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, to cause a Burgess to be elected for that City; and on Receipt of such Precept, the City of Edinburgh shall elect their Member, and their common Clerk shall certify his Name to the Sheriff of Edinburgh, who shall annex it to his Writ, and return it with the same into the Court from whence the Writ issued: And as to the other Royal Burghs, divided into fourteen Classes or Districts, the Sheriffs or Stewarts of the several Shires and Stewartries, shall on the Receipt of their several Writs, forthwith direct their several Precepts to every Royal Borough within their respective Shires or Stewartries, reciting therein the Contents of the Writ, and the Date thereof, and commanding them forthwith to elect each of them a Commissioner as they used formerly to elect Commissioners to the Parliament of Scotland, and to order the said respective Commissioners to meet at the presiding Borough of their respective District (naming the said presiding Borough) upon the thirtieth Day after the Day of the Tesle of the Writ, unless it be upon the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and then the next Day after, and then to choose their Burgess for the Parliament; and the common Clerk of the then presiding Borough shall immediately after the Election, return the Name of the Person so elected to the Sheriff or Stewart of the Shire or Stewartry wherein such presiding Borough is, who shall annex it to his Writ, and return it with the same into the Court from whence the Writ issued; and in case a Vacancy shall happen in Time of Parliament, by the Decease or legal Incapacity of any Member, a new Member shall be elected in his Room, conformable to the Method hereinbefore appointed; and in case such Vacancy be of a Representative for any one of the said fourteen Classes or Districts of the said Royal Boroughs, that Borough which presided at the Election of the deceased or disabled Member, shall be the presiding Borough at such new Election.

VI. Provided always, That upon the issuing of Writs of Summons for the electing of a Parliament, if any Shire or Stewartry wherein a Royal Borough is, hath not then a Turn or Right to elect a Commissioner, or Knight of the Shire or Stewartry for that Parliament, that then it shall be omitted out of the Writ directed to such Sheriff or Stewart, to cause a Knight, Commissioner for that Shire or Stewartry, to be elected for that Parliament.

C A P. VII.

An Act for the Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line.

WHEREAS by the happy Union of England and Scotland, it is become necessary to make divers Alterations in Relation to an Act passed in the Parliament of England, in the fourth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, whom God long preserve, intituled, An Act for the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of England in the Protestant Line, and to extend the Provisions of the said Act throughout the whole United Kingdom, for the better Security of our most gracious Sovereign's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line, as it is now by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm settled, limited, and appointed; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice vice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall maliciously, advisedly, and directly, by Writing or Printing, maintain and affirm, That our Sovereign Lady the Queen that now is, is not the lawful and rightful Queen of these Realms, or that the pretended Prince of Wales, who now styles himself King of Great Britain, or King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, or King of Scotland, by the Name of JAMES the Eighth, hath any Right or Title to the Crown of these Realms, or that any other Person or Persons hath or have any Right or Title to the same, otherwise than according to an Act of Parliament made in England in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of ever blessed and glorious Memory, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown; and one other Act made in England in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject; and the Acts lately made in England and Scotland mutually for the Union of the two Kingdoms; or that the Kings or Queens of this Realm, with and by the Authority of Parliament, are not able to make Laws and Statutes of sufficient Force and Validity to limit and bind the Crown, and the Descent, Limitation, Inheritance, and Government thereof; every such Person or Persons shall be guilty of High Treason, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged Traitors, and shall suffer Pains of Death, and all Losses and Forfeitures as in Cases of High Treason.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall maliciously and directly, by Preaching, Teaching, or advised speaking, declare, maintain, and affirm, That our Sovereign Lady the Queen that now is, is not the lawful or rightful Queen, of these Realms, or that the pretended Prince of Wales, who now styles himself King of Great Britain, or King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, or King of Scotland, by the Name of JAMES the Eighth, hath any Right or Title to the Crown of these Realms, or that any other Person or Persons hath or have any Right or Title to the same, otherwise than according to an Act of Parliament made in England in the first Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown; and one other Act made in England, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject; and the Acts lately made in England and Scotland mutually for the Union of the two Kingdoms; or that the Kings or Queens of this Realm, with and by the Authority of Parliament, are not able to make Laws and Statutes of sufficient Force and Validity to limit and bind the Crown, and the Descent, Limitation, Inheritance, and Government thereof; every such Person or Persons shall incur the Danger and Penalty of Præmunire mentioned in the Statute of Præmunire made in England in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of King RICHARD the Second.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall be prosecuted by Virtue of this Act for any Words spoken, unless the Information of such Words be given upon Oath to one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace within three Days after such Words spoken, and the Prosecution of such Offence be within three Months after such Information; and that no Person shall be convicted by Virtue of this Act for any such Words spoken, but by the Oaths of two credible Witnesses.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Parliament, or any other Parliament which shall hereafter be summoned and called by her Majesty QUEEN ANNE, her Heirs or Successors, shall not be determined or dissolved by the Death or Demise of her said Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, but such Parliament shall, and is hereby enacted to continue, and is hereby empowered and required, if sitting at the Time of such Demise, immediately to proceed to act, notwithstanding such Death or Demise, for and during the Term of six Months, and no longer, unless the same be sooner prorogued or dissolved by such Person to whom the Crown of this Realm of Great Britain shall come, remain and be, according to the Acts for limiting and settling the Succession, and for the Union above mentioned; and if the said Parliament shall be prorogued, then it shall meet and sit on and upon the Day unto which it shall be prorogued, and continue for the Residue of the said Time of six Months, unless sooner prorogued or dissolved as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if there be a Parliament in Being, at the Time of the Death of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, but the same happens to be separated by Adjournment or Prorogation, such Parliament shall immediately after such Demise meet, convene and sit, and shall act, notwithstanding such Death or Demise, for and during the Time of six Months, and no longer, unless the same shall be sooner prorogued or dissolved as aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there is no Parliament in Being at the Time of such Demise that hath met and sat, then the last preceding Parliament shall immediately convene, and sit at Westminster, and be a Parliament to continue as aforesaid, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Parliament had never been dissolved, but subject to be prorogued and dissolved as aforesaid.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to alter or abridge the Power of the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, to prorogue or dissolve Parliaments, nor to repeal, or make void one Act of Parliament made in England in the sixth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for the frequent Meeting and Calling of Parliaments; but that the said Act shall continue in Force in every Thing that is not contrary to, or inconsistent with the Direction of this Act; and the said Act for the frequent

Realm at Queen's Death;

Seven Lords Justices appointed.

The Successor
(by three Instruments) may add seven others.

The three Instruments to be transmitted into Great Britain,

quent Meeting and Calling of Parliaments is hereby declared and enacted to extend to the Parliament of Great Britain, as fully and effectually, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, as if the same were herein and hereby particularly recited and enacted.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Privy Council of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors for the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall not be determined or dissolved by the Death or Demise of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors; but such Privy Council shall continue and act as such by the Space of six Months next after such Demise, unless sooner determined by the next Successor to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm is limited and appointed to go, remain, and descend; nor shall the Office or Place of Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, or of Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, Lord President of the Council for Great Britain, Lord Privy Seal of Great Britain, Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or of any of the Great Officers of the Queen or King's Household for the Time being; nor shall any Office, Place, or Employment, Civil or Military, within the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sarke, or any of her Majesty's Plantations, become void by Reason of the Demise or Death of her present Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, Queens or Kings of this Realm; but the said Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Great Officers of the Household, and every other Person and Persons in any of the Offices, Places, and Employments aforesaid, shall continue in their respective Offices, Places, and Employments, for the Space of six Months next after such Death or Demise, unless sooner removed and discharged by the next in Succession as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Privy Seal, Privy Signet, and all other Publick Seals in Being, at the Time of the Demise of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall continue and be made use of as the respective Seals of the Successor, until such Successor shall give Order to the contrary.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whensoever her Majesty (whom God long preserve) shall happen to demise and depart this Life without Issue of her Body, the Privy Council for Great Britain in Being, at the Time of such Demise of her Majesty, shall with all convenient Speed cause the next Protestant Successor entitled to the Crown of Great Britain, by Virtue of the Acts before mentioned, to be openly and solemnly proclaimed in Great Britain and Ireland, in such Manner and Form as the preceding Kings and Queens respectively have been usually proclaimed after the Demise of their respective Predecessors; and that all and every Member and Members of the said Privy Council, wilfully neglecting or refusing to cause such Proclamation to be made, shall be guilty of High Treason, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged Traitors, and shall suffer Pains of Death, and all Losses and Forfeitures as in Cases of High Treason; and also all and every Officer and Officers within the said Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, who shall by the said Privy Council be required to make such Proclamations, and shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make the same, shall be guilty of High Treason, and being thereof lawfully convicted shall be adjudged Traitors, and shall suffer Pains of Death, and all Losses and Forfeitures as in Cases of High Treason.

XI. And because it may happen that the next Protestant Successor may, at the Time of such Demise of her Majesty, be out of the Realm of Great Britain in Parts beyond the Seas; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the continuing of the Administration of the Government in the Name of such Protestant Successor, until her or his Arrival in Great Britain, the seven Officers herein after named, who shall be in the Possession of their Offices at the Time of such Demise of her Majesty, that is to say, The Archbishop of Canterbury at that Time being, the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain at that Time being, the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain at that Time being, the Lord President of the Council for Great Britain at that Time being, the Lord Privy Seal of Great Britain at that Time being, the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain at that Time being, and the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench at that Time being, shall be and are, by Virtue of this Act, constituted and appointed Lords Justices of Great Britain, and are and shall be, by Virtue of this Act, empowered, in the Name of such Successor, and in her and his Stead, to use, exercise, and execute all Powers, Authorities, Matters, and Acts of Government, and Administration of Government, in as full and ample Manner as such next Successor could use or execute the same, if she or he were present in Person within this Kingdom of Great Britain, until such Successor shall arrive, or otherwise determine their Authority.

XII. Nevertheless, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Person who by the Limitations aforesaid is or shall be next to succeed to the Crown of this Realm, in case of her Majesty's Demise without Issue, shall and is hereby empowered, at any Time during her Majesty's Life, by three Instruments under her or his Hand and Seal, revocable or to be altered at her and his Will and Pleasure, to nominate and appoint such and so many Persons, being natural born Subjects of this Realm of Great Britain, as she or he shall think fit, to be added to the seven Officers before named, to be Lords Justices as aforesaid; who shall be empowered, by Authority of this Act, to act with them as Lords Justices of Great Britain, as fully and in the same Manner as if they had been herein particularly named: Which said Lords Justices, or the major Part of them, which shall assemble, so as such major Part be not fewer than five, shall and may use and exercise all the Powers and Authorities before mentioned, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all of them had been assembled together and consenting.

XIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said three Instruments, revocable and to be altered as aforesaid, shall be transmitted into Great Britain, to the Resident of such Person next to succeed as aforesaid, whose Credentials shall be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and to the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, close sealed up; and after they are so transmitted, shall be put into several Covers, which shall be severally sealed up with three several Seals of such Resident, and of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain; and one of them, after it is so sealed up, shall be lodged and deposited in the Hands of such Resident, one other of them in the Hands of the said Archbishop of Canterbury, and one other of them in the Hands of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain: And that if the next Successor shall be minded to revoke or alter her or his Nomination or Appointment made as aforesaid, and shall by three Writings of the same Tenor, under her or his Hand and Seal, require the said Instruments deposited as aforesaid, to be delivered up to some Person or Persons thereby authorized to receive the same; then and in such Case the said Persons with whom the said Instruments shall be deposited, and every of them, and in case of any of their Deaths, their Executors or Administrators respectively, and every other Person in whose Custody any of the said Instruments shall happen to be, shall deliver up the said Instruments accordingly; and they are hereby respectively authorized and required so to do: And if any of the said Persons with whom the said Instruments shall be so deposited shall happen to die, or be removed from their respective Offices or Employments, during the Life of her present Majesty, such Person and Persons, and in case of any of their Deaths, their Executors or Administrators respectively, and every other Person in whose Custody any of the said Instruments shall happen to be, shall, with all convenient Speed, deliver such of them as shall be in his or their Custody, to the Successor or Successors of the Person so dying or removed as aforesaid; which said several Instruments so sealed up and deposited as aforesaid, shall immediately after the Demise of her Majesty without Issue, be brought before the Privy Council, where the same shall be forthwith opened and read, and afterwards inrolled in the High Court of Chancery.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the said Persons with whom the said Instruments shall be deposited as aforesaid, or any of their Executors or Administrators, or any other Person in whose Custody the same shall happen to be after the Deceases of any of the said Persons, shall open any of the said Instruments, or shall wilfully neglect or refuse to produce before the said Privy Council as aforesaid, such of the said Instruments as shall be in his or their Custody as aforesaid, every such Person so opening, neglecting or refusing, shall incur the Pains and Penalties of a Præmunire inflicted by the said Statute of Præmunire. Persons opening any of the said Instruments, &c. guilty of a Præmunire. 16 R. 2. c. 5.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if all the said Instruments deposited as aforesaid, shall not be produced before the said Privy Council as aforesaid, then any one or more of the said Instruments so produced as aforesaid, shall be as effectual to give such Authority as aforesaid, to the Persons therein named, as if all of them had been produced as aforesaid: And if there be not any Nomination by such Instruments, then the said seven Officers, or any five of them, are constituted and appointed to be Lords Justices of Great Britain, and are hereby invested with the Powers and Authorities mentioned in this Act. Any one of the Instruments produced to the Privy Council, to be effectual.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Nomination and Appointment already made by the next Successor, signified by such Instruments deposited as aforesaid, pursuant to the said former Act for the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of England in the Protestant Line, shall be deemed and taken to be as effectual for constituting and appointing the Persons so nominated Lords Justices of England to be Lords Justices of Great Britain, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes, as if such Nomination and Appointment were made pursuant to this Act. Nomination of Lords Justices by Successor, already made, to be as effectual as if appointed by this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Lords Justices constituted as aforesaid, shall not dissolve the Parliament continued and ordered to assemble and sit as aforesaid, without express Direction from such succeeding Queen or King; and that the said Lords Justices shall be, and are hereby restrained and disabled from giving the Royal Assent in Parliament to any Bill or Bills for the repealing or altering the Act made in England in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Uniformity of publick Prayers, and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies; and for establishing the Form for making, ordaining, and consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons in the Church of England; or the Act made in Scotland in the last Session of Parliament there, intituled, Act for securing the Protestant Religion, and Presbyterian Church Government; and all and every the said Lords Justices concurring in giving the Royal Assent to any Bill or Bills for repealing or altering the said Acts, or either of them, shall be guilty of High Treason, and suffer and forfeit as in Cases of High Treason. Lords Justices not to dissolve the Parliament without Direction, not alter 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4. or an Act made in Scotland.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Lords Justices before they act or intermeddle in their said Offices, or any of the Authorities hereby to them given, shall take the Oaths mentioned in an Act made in England in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for abrogating the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and appointing other Oaths; and also the Oath herein after expressed and enacted to be taken after the Demise of her Majesty without Issue of her Body; which said Oaths shall be taken before the Privy Council appointed to continue by Virtue of this Act, who are hereby required and impowered to administer the same; and that all the Members of both Houses of Parliament, and every Member of the Privy Council, and all Officers or Persons in any Offices, Places, or Employments Civil or Military, who are or shall be by this Act continued as aforesaid, shall take the said Oaths, and do all other Acts requisite by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, to qualify themselves to be and continue in such their respective Places, Offices and Employments, within such Time, and in such Manner, and under such Pains, Penalties, and Disabilities, as they should or ought to do, had they been newly elected, appointed, constituted, or put into such Offices, Places, or Employments in the usual and ordinary Way. Lords Justices to take the Oaths, 1 W. & M. II. c. 8. By 1 Geo. 2. Stat. 1. c. 5. And by 1 Geo. 2. Stat. 2. c. 23. Repealed as to Officers qualifying themselves anew.

XIX. And

And be deemed Officers of Trust.

XIX. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That all and every the Persons that shall be any of the Lords Justices by Virtue of this Act, shall be deemed and taken as Persons executing Offices of Trust within England, and shall be required to do all Acts requisite by the Laws and Statutes of England, to qualify themselves to be and continue in their said Offices or Places of Trust, within such Times, and in such Manner, and under such Pains, Penalties, and Disabilities as in and by the said Act are required.

to be taken.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Demise of her Majesty without Issue of her Body, instead of the Oath appointed to be taken by the Act, intituled, An Act for the further Security of her Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors, and for declaring the Association to be determined, the following Oath shall be taken by all Persons required by the said Act to take the said Oath therein mentioned, and hereby altered and changed (that is to say)

The Oath.

I A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify, and declare in my Conscience, before God and the World, That our Sovereign is lawful and rightful of this Realm, and of all other Majesty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, that the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to and will defend to the utmost of my Power, against all traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever which shall be made against Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my utmost Endeavour to disclose and make known to Majesty and Successors all Treasons and traiterous Conspiracies which I shall know to be against or any of them. And I do faithfully promise, to the utmost of my Power, to support, maintain, and defend the Succession of the Crown against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same by an Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands limited to the Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutchess Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge and swear, according to the express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion, or secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Abjuration, Renunciation, and Promise, heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.

So help me GOD.

How Blanks in the Oath shall be filled up.

XXI. The Blanks of which Oath shall be filled up with the Name of her or him, as Queen, or King, who shall be next in Succession, according to the said Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, when the said Oath is to take Place, and with the other proper Additions of the Words Her, His, or Him, and from and after the Death of the said pretended Prince of Wales, these Words following, viz. [And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, that the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him] shall be left out, and also the Words [against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever] shall be omitted, and instead thereof shall be inserted [against all Persons whatsoever.]

The Successor
may use any Seal before her or his Arrival in Great Britain.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such next succeeding Queen or King shall and may make use of any Seal, to affix to any Writing or Instrument, which she or he shall, before her or his Arrival in Great Britain, make and pass, to execute and do, or cause to be executed or done, any regal Act; and it being signified by such Writing or Instrument, that the same shall have the same Effect as if passed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, or any other publick Seal used there, the same shall be of the same Force and Effect, as if it were actually sealed by the Great Seal of Great Britain, or such other publick Seal, which the same is declared to be intended to have the Force and Effect of in such Writing or Instrument.

Parliament called by Lords Justices not to be dissolved by Arrival of Successor.

XXIII. And be it further declared and enacted, That if, after the Death of her Majesty without Issue, and before the Arrival of any succeeding Queen or King in Great Britain, any Parliament shall be called by the Lords Justices, by Writs tested in their Names; by the Arrival of such succeeding Queen or King in Great Britain, such Parliament shall not be dissolved, but after such Arrival shall proceed without any new Summons.

Proviso in case
any of the 7 Great Offices be in Commission at Queen's Death.

XXIV. Provided always, That if any of the aforesaid seven Officers, other than the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, shall be in Commission at the Time of such Demise of her Majesty, that then the first Commissioner of such respective Commission shall be one of the said Lords Justices of Great Britain, and use, exercise, and execute all Powers, Authorities, Matters, and Acts of Government by this Act vested in the said Lords Justices of Great Britain, according to the Directions and Provisions of this:

this Act, in as full and ample Manner as if such Office or Offices were in the Hands of a single Person. Provided, that if there be no Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, and the Office of Treasurer of the Exchequer shall be in Commission, then the first in that Commission shall be one of the Lords Justices of Great Britain.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person, who shall have in his own Name, or in the Name of any Person or Persons in Trust for him, or for his Benefit, any new Office or Place of Profit whatsoever under the Crown, which at any Time since the five and twentieth Day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and five, have been created or erected, or hereafter shall be created or erected, nor any Person who shall be a Commissioner, or Sub-Commissioner of Prizes, Secretary or Receiver of the Prizes, nor any Comptroller of the Accounts of the Army, nor any Commissioner of Transports, nor any Commissioner of the Sick and Wounded, nor any Agent for any Regiment, nor any Commissioner for any Wine Licences, nor any Governor or Deputy Governor of any of the Plantations, nor any Commissioners of the Navy employed in any of the Out-Ports, nor any Person having any Pension from the Crown during Pleasure, shall be capable of being elected, or of fitting or voting as a Member of the House of Commons in any Parliament which shall be hereafter summoned and holden.

Persons in Office, &c. made incapable of being elected Members of the House of Commons.

By 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 56. No Pensioner for Years shall sit in the House, &c. See 15 Geo. 2. c. 22.

XXVI. Provided always, That if any Person being chosen a Member of the House of Commons, shall accept of any Office of Profit from the Crown, during such Time as he shall continue a Member, his Election shall be, and is hereby declared to be void, and a new Writ shall issue for a new Election, as if such Person so accepting was naturally dead. Provided nevertheless, That such Person shall be capable of being again elected, as if his Place had not become void as aforesaid.

Accepting Office of Profit while a Member, Election void: But may be again elected.

XXVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in order to prevent for the future too great a Number of Commissioners to be appointed or constituted for the executing of any Office, that no greater Number of Commissioners shall be made or constituted for the Execution of any Office, than have been employed in the Execution of such respective Office at some Time before the First Day of this present Parliament.

No Office to be executed by too many Commissioners.

XXVIII. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to any Member of the House of Commons, being an Officer in her Majesty's Navy or Army, who shall receive any new, or other Commission in the Navy or Army respectively.

Not to extend to Officers in the Navy or Army.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person hereby disabled, or declared to be incapable to sit or vote in any Parliament hereafter to be holden, shall nevertheless be returned as a Member to serve for any County, Stewartry, City, Town, or Cinque Port, in any such Parliament, such Election and Return are hereby enacted and declared to be void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and if any Person disabled, or declared incapable by this Act to be elected, shall after the Dissolution or Determination of this present Parliament presume to sit or vote as a Member of the House of Commons in any Parliament to be hereafter summoned, such Person so fitting or voting shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by such Person as shall sue for the same in England, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, and only one Imparllance.

Persons disabled, if returned as Members, such Election and Return void.

XXX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Person disabled to be elected, or to sit or vote in the House of Commons of any Parliament of England, shall be disabled to be elected, or to sit or vote in the House of Commons of any Parliament of Great Britain.

Penalty on sitting.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person, who now is a Commissioner for disposing the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and all other Sums arising to Scotland by Way of Equivalent, upon the Agreements, and to the Purposes mentioned in the Articles of Union of the two Kingdoms, shall, for, or by Reason of such Commission, or any other Commission for disposing the said Equivalent, or any Part thereof, or the Execution of any such Commission, or any Thing relating thereunto, be disabled from being elected a Member of Parliament, or sitting or voting as such in this or any future Parliament.

No Commissioner for the Equivalent disabled from being elected. See farther c. 14. and 8 Ann. c. 15.

be raised by Sale
whereof 1,020,000l. for the Expence of the War, &c. and 260,000 l. for Payment of the Annuities purchased on this Act.

I. MOST Gracious Sovereign; Whereas several Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money, upon Wines, Goods, and other Merchandizes, were given and granted unto his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second (of Blessed Memory) for his Life, by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his Reign, intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported, and by the Book of Rates thereunto annexed; which Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money, upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, as well exported as imported, (with some Alterations) were by several subsequent Acts of Parliament granted to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ten: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for continuing several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, and for making Provisions therein mentioned, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's necessary and important Occasions, and for ascertaining the Wine-Measure) the said Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money, were enacted to continue, and be payable to your Majesty, for and upon all Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, which should be imported at any Time or Times between the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten and the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve: Now, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, having resolved, that a further Sum, not exceeding one million two hundred and eighty thousand Pounds, be raised by Sale of Annuities in the manner,

‘herein after mentioned, to wit, one Million and twenty thousand Pounds thereof for the better enabling your Majesty to defray the Expence of the present War, and other your Majesty’s most necessary and important Occasions; and two hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, Residue thereof, to be applied in such Manner as is herein after mentioned, towards making good the Payment of the Annuities to be purchased upon this Act,’ have, for that End and Purpose, cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant unto your Majesty the further Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money herein after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That over and above all other Subsidies, additional Duties, Impositions and Payments whatsoever, by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise however, already due or payable, or which ought to be paid to her Majesty, for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatsoever, imported or to be imported, there shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and satisfied unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, which at any Time or Times, from and after the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, within or during the Term of ninety-six Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, one Moiety or half Part of such and the like several and respective Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign are charged or payable within or during the Term or Time thereby granted or limited, for or upon the like imported Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes respectively; except such Goods and other Merchandizes as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or by any Law now in Force, are exempted from the Payment of the Subsidies or Duties which were first granted in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second as aforesaid.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That in all Cases where, by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or by any Act relating thereunto, any Drawbacks or Abatements are to be made of the Whole, or any Part of the Duties thereby imposed, upon any Wines, Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever, there shall be in the like Cases proportional Drawbacks and Abatements made of the Whole, or Part of the Duties by this Act imposed upon the same Wines, Goods and Merchandizes respectively; and that the several Subsidies and Duties by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, shall be raised, collected, levied, secured, and paid, within and throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances, and subject to such Rules and Directions, as in and by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or by any other Act or Acts therein referred unto, are prescribed or appointed, for the raising, collecting, levying, securing, and paying the said Subsidies and Duties, granted by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, during the Continuance thereof; and that every Article, Rule, and Clause contained in the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, or thereby referred unto, for raising, collecting, levying, securing, and paying the said Subsidies and Duties thereby granted, during the Continuance thereof, are and shall be by Force of this Act revived, and shall be used, exercised and put in Practice, for the raising, levying, collecting and answering the Subsidies and Duties granted or imposed by this present Act, during the said Term of ninety-six Years, and all Arrearages thereof from time to time, as fully and effectually as if the same Articles, Rules, and Clauses, and every of them, were again particularly and at large recited and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; except only as to such of the said Articles, Rules, and Clauses, touching which other Provisions, Alterations or Exemptions are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being, which other Provisions, Alterations, or Exemptions shall be observed with Respect to the Duties hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, in the same Manner as they are to be observed with respect to the said Subsidies formerly granted as aforesaid.

III. And for the better and more sure Payment of all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising from time to time by or for the further Subsidies and Duties by this Act granted or payable (the necessary Charges of managing, raising, levying, collecting, answering, paying, and accounting for the same only excepted) shall from time to time, from and after the Commencement thereof, for and during the said Term of ninety-six Years thereby granted, be brought and paid by the Receiver General, or such Person or Persons as for the time being shall have the Receipt thereof (who are hereby required and enjoined to bring and pay the same as it shall be raised) into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, distinctly and separately from all other Monies whatsoever that are or shall be payable by him or them into the said Receipt.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies which by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign are charged upon the aforesaid Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage thereby granted, shall be satisfied and paid off, or that Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer sufficient for that Purpose, then one Moiety or half Part of the aforesaid Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, to arise by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, for the Remainder of the Term thereby granted, and therein then to come and unexpired (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, and accounting for the same) shall in like Manner from time to time be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Purposes in this Act expressed distinctly and apart as aforesaid, and the said Receiver and Receivers General, or other Persons who shall have the Receipt of the said Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies and Duties by this or the said former Act granted, and hereby required to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer as aforesaid, shall make or cause to be made the Payments thereof into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, accord-

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said half Subsidies and Duties by this Act appointed to be paid into the Exchequer weekly for the Purposes in this Act contained, as aforesaid, and the said Sum not exceeding two hundred and sixty thousand Pounds hereby directed to be reserved out of the Contribution-money as aforesaid, or so much of the same Subsidies, Duties, and reserved Monies as shall be sufficient for answering the full and due Payment of all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, and all Arrearages thereof from time to time incurred, are and shall be by virtue of this Act, liable and appropriated thereunto, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use; Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities in this Act expressed; and all the Monies arising by the said half Subsidies, Duties, and Provisions hereby made, out of which the said Annuities to be purchased upon this Act are to be satisfied, shall be fairly and duly entered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells for that Purpose, to which all Persons concerned at all seasonable Times shall have free Access, without Fee or Charge.

VII. And to the End all the Monies by this Act appropriated for Payment of the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, may be duly and certainly raised and brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer for that Purpose, it is hereby further enacted, That from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be continued or appointed Commissioners, and a Receiver or Receivers General, as also Comptrollers, Collectors, and other proper Officers for raising the several half Subsidies and Duties by this Act intended for the Payment of the Annuities to be purchased thereupon, and for keeping the Accounts of the same; and that all Commissioners, Receivers General, Comptrollers, Collectors, and other Officers, who are or shall be concerned in the managing, raising, levying, receiving, collecting or paying the same, or in keeping the Accounts thereof, shall perform their several and respective Duties therein, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the said Monies, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory (intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies) for the like Offence or Neglect in relation to the Duties upon Salt, and other Duties upon stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper thereby granted, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted by the Act last-mentioned.

VIII. And for the raising any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the said Sum of one million and two hundred and eighty thousand Pounds, for such uses as aforesaid, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute, advance, and pay into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer for her Majesty's Use, at or before the respective Days and Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the said Sum of one million two hundred and eighty thousand Pounds, for purchasing any Annuity or Annuities to be paid and payable during the full Term of ninety-nine Years, to be reckoned from the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, at the Rate of sixteen Years Purchase, which Rate doth amount to the Sum of one hundred and sixty Pounds for every such Annuity of ten Pounds per Annum, and proportionably for any greater Annuity; and the same Rate, or Consideration-money, is hereby appointed to be paid into the said Receipt, at or before the respective Days or Times herein after-mentioned, that is to say, One fourth Part thereof on or before the twentieth Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the two and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the twentieth Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the twentieth Day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight: All which Annuities so to be purchased, shall not exceed in the whole the Sum of eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, and shall be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year; that is to say, The Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, and the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, by even and equal Portions; the first Payment thereof to be due at the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, That in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells in the Exchequer severally, there shall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which there shall be fairly entered the Names of all who shall be Contributors, and of all Persons by whose Hands the said Contributors shall pay in any of the said Sums upon this Act, and also the Sum so paid: To which Book it shall be lawful for the said respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, and and Assigns, from time to time, and at all seasonable Times, to have Resort, and to inspect the same without Fee or Reward.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Annuities whatsoever, which shall be purchased upon or in pursuance of this present Act, shall be and are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable from time to time in the first Place, and with Preference to all other Payments whatsoever, out of the Monies arising from time to time, of or for the said half Subsidies, and other Duties appointed to be brought in weekly for that Purpose, as aforesaid, and out of the said Sum of the Contribution-money hereby appointed to be reserved, as aforesaid; and so much of the said half Subsidies, Duties, and reserved Monies so appointed, as shall be sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, and all the Arrearages thereof, at any Time due or owing, are and shall be, by virtue of this Act, appropriated and applied to and for satisfying and discharging of the same Annuities, and such Arrearages thereof accordingly, and shall be issued, disposed, and applied to that Use, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities in this Act expressed; any thing herein contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at the End of any Quarter of a Year of the Term for which the Annuities upon this Act are to be purchased, the Monies arising at the Exchequer of or for the said half Subsidies and Duties by this Act appropriated (the Contribution-money to be reserved, as aforesaid, being excepted) shall exceed all the Monies then due for or upon the same Annuities, and all Arrearages thereof, then or at any Time or Times before that Time incurred, so that there shall be an Excess or Surplus remaining in the Exchequer, such Excess or Surplus shall be disposable from time to time for the publick Use and Service, and not otherwise; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Contributor and Contributors upon this Act, duly paying the Consideration or Purchase-money at the Rate aforesaid, at or before the respective Days or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, for any such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, or such as he, she, or they shall appoint, his, her, or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall have, receive and enjoy, and be entitled by virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy the respective Annuity and Annuities so to be purchased out of the Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for the Payment thereof, during the said whole Term of ninety-nine Years, to be purchased therein, as is above-mentioned; and that all and every such Purchasers, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, shall have good and sure Estates and Interests in the several Annuities so by them to be purchased, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; and that all the said Annuities to be purchased on this Act, and every of them, during the Term aforesaid, shall be free from all Taxes, Charges, and Impositions whatsoever.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Contributor upon this Act for any Annuity or Annuities, as aforesaid, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, upon Payment of the Consideration or Purchase-money for the same, at the Rate aforesaid, or any Part or Proportion thereof, within the Time or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, shall immediately have one or more Talley or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of so much Consideration-money as shall be so paid; and upon Payment of all the Purchase-money for any such Annuity or Annuities, at the Rate aforesaid, every such Contributor, his her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns respectively, shall have an Order for paying of the said Annuity and Annuities, for and during the said Term of ninety-nine Years, to be purchased therein; which Order shall be signed by the Treasurer and Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being; and after the signing thereof, the same shall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treasurer or Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office, or Offices of them or any of them; nor shall any Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Orders so signed as aforesaid, or any of them.

XIV. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors to advance and pay forthwith into the Receipt of the Exchequer the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon this Act, it is provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Contributor who shall advance and pay into the said Receipt of Exchequer, all or any Part of the Purchase-money payable for any such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, before the said twentieth Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be allowed and paid out of the Contribution-money arising by this Act, Interest after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum for the prompt Payment of the Money so advanced, from the Time of the actual advancing and paying the same, until the said twentieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and eight.

XVII. And be it further enacted, for the better Encouragement of Persons to advance the Monies on this Act, That all Receipts and Issues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, shall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for the same; and in case any of the Officers of the Exchequer shall take or demand any such Fee or Reward, or shall divert or misapply any of the Monies of the said half Subsidies, and other Duties or Monies hereby appropriated, or any Part thereof, which should make good the Payment of the said Annuities, or shall pay or issue out the same otherwise than according to the Intent of this Act, or shall not keep Books or Registers, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things which by this Act they are required to perform; every such Officer shall forfeit his Office, and be for ever incapable of any Office or Place of Trust, and shall answer and pay Treble Damages to every Contributor or Person who shall be prejudiced thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, Order of Restraint, or more than one Imparance shall be granted or allowed; and in the said Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery shall have full Costs; one third of which Sum to be recovered for Damages shall be to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other two third Parts, with the Costs, shall be to the Use of the Prosecutor; and in case there shall be any Collusion or feint Prosecution between the Plaintiff and Defendant in such Action, it shall be lawful for any other Contributor, his or her Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to bring another Action, wherein he or she shall recover as aforesaid, to the like Uses as aforesaid.

No Purchase,
unless one fourth
be paid by 20
April 1708.

XVIII. Provided always, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall or may Purchase or obtain, or be admitted to purchase or obtain any Annuity whatsoever upon this Act, unless the whole, or one fourth Part at least of the Consideration-money for the same, at such Rate as aforesaid, be advanced and paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer on or before the said twentieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and eight.

Contributor paying one fourth Part, and not the Remainder, forfeits what is paid.

XIX. Provided also, That in case any such Contributor as aforesaid, who shall, on or before the said twentieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and eight, have advanced one fourth Part of his or her Purchase-money, or his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, do not advance and pay into the said Receipt of Exchequer one other fourth Part of his or her Consideration-money, so to be paid for such respective Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, on or before the said two and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eight; and one other fourth Part thereof on or before the said twentieth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eight; and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the said twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eight; then, and in every such Case respectively, no Order shall be drawn or signed for such respective Annuity, for which the Consideration-money shall not be fully paid as aforesaid; but so much of the Consideration-money as shall have been actually paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for such respective Annuity, shall be forfeited to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and shall be applied, together with other the Monies to be raised by this Act, for such publick Services as aforesaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Treasury may reward Officers, Clerks, &c. out of the Surplus of Duties, &c.

XX. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, out of the said half Subsidies and other Duties by this Act appropriated for making good the said Fund, not exceeding eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, which shall arise over and above so much as shall be sufficient to make up the said yearly Fund for discharging all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, to reward the Officers, Clerks, and others to be employed in the Payment of the said Annuities, or the Accounts thereof, for their Labour, Pains, Charges, and Service therein respectively, and to defray all other the necessary Charges incident to the Payment of the said Annuities, as to the said Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being shall seem meet and reasonable in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. And whereas in and by the said Act of the fifth Year of her said Majesty's Reign, a Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding eight hundred twenty-two thousand three hundred eighty-one Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence Farthing, to be borrowed at an Interest, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties in that Act mentioned, and the ‘ Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are thereby authorized and directed to cause the Officers of the Receipt of Exchequer to receive from Time to Time by way of Loan, at the like Interest, at the said Receipt, any further Sum and Sums of Money over and above the said Sum of eight hundred twenty-two thousand three hundred eighty-one Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence Farthing, as should be sufficient to make good the Payment of all the Interest Monies appointed or allowed by that Act, every three Months, until the Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties therein mentioned should come into the Exchequer, and be sufficient for that Purpose, pursuant to the true Intent and Meaning of that Act.’ Now it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to the taking away, altering, or lessening the said Power and Direction of borrowing Monies to make good the Payment of the said Interest every three Months, until the said Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties in the said recited Act mentioned shall come in and be sufficient for that Purpose as aforesaid, or in any wise to alter or prejudice the Security given by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, for the Re-payment or Satisfaction of the same, or any other the Principal or Interest Monies, which were secured, or intended to be secured by that Act, and that the Orders for the same shall be registred in Courle, and paid in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made; this present Act, or any Thing therein contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Clause of Credit in 5 Annæ, s. 2. not lessened by this Act.

‘ XXII. And whereas several Tickets, commonly called Million Lottery Tickets, and Malt Lottery Tickets, which are still unpaid, and several Bills called Exchequer Bills, not yet discharged, also divers Sorts of Bills or Certificates, commonly called Debentures, made forth for Arrears due to the Army, and for Transport Services, not being applied to the purchasing of any of the forfeited Estates in Ireland, or otherwise discharged, and also divers Tallies and Orders for Payment of Annuities granted by Acts of Parliament, are by Casualty or Mischance lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed;’ Be it hereby further enacted, That in all Cases where it shall appear by Affidavit, to be made before any of the Barons of the Exchequer for the Time being, to the Satisfaction of such Baron or Barons, That any such Tickets, Bills, Debentures, Tallies, or Orders as aforesaid, before the third Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven, have been or are lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, it shall and may be lawful for the respective Officers or Persons appointed to issue and make forth the said Tickets, Bills, Debentures, Tallies, or Orders, or to pay and discharge the same, or to issue any Monies due and payable thereon, upon the producing of a Certificate from any of the said Barons of such Affidavit made before him (which Affidavit the said Barons, or any of them, is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to make and grant without Fee or Reward) and on Security given to the said respective Officers and Persons to their good liking, to indemnify them respectively against all other Persons whatsoever, for or concerning the Monies specified in, or due upon such respective Ticket or Tickets, Bill or Bills, Debenture or Debentures, Tally or Tallies, Order or Orders, they the said Officers and Persons respectively, shall and are hereby required to make forth Duplicates of the said Tickets, Bills, Debentures, or Orders, and to innovate the said Tallies, at the Request of the respective Owners, and to pay and discharge the said Tickets, Bills, Debentures, Tallies, and Orders, and all such Interest as is or shall be due on the said Tickets, Bills, Debentures, or Orders, carrying Interest, as he or they should have paid and discharged on the said original Bills, Tickets, Debentures, Tallies, or Orders, if the same had been produced, and shall be allowed the same in all their respective Accounts; and if there shall not be any proper Officer or Person to make forth the said Duplicates, or any of them, that the Lord High Treasurer of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any three of them, shall and are hereby authorized and required upon such Affidavit and Security as aforesaid, to order and direct any such Duplicates to be made forth, in such Manner as he or they shall judge to be best; all which Matters and Things shall be done without Fee or Reward to be taken or demanded for the same; any Thing in this or any other Act of Parliament contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Lottery Tickets, Exchequer Bills, Debentures, &c. burnt or lost and not discharged, new ones to be made forth in lieu of such so lost, &c. On Affidavit and Certificate, &c.

Officers to pay the same.

Without Fee.

‘ XXIII. And whereas several Officers and other Proprietors of Debentures made forth by the late Paymaster of the Army, Commissioners for Transports, and by the Commissioners of Accounts, in that Behalf authorized respectively, have omitted to register the said Debentures within the Time limited by Act of Parliament for that Purpose made and passed in the fourth Year of her present Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act to enlarge the Time for registering unsatisfied Debentures upon the forfeited Estates in Ireland, and for renewing of other Debentures which have been lost, burnt or destroyed.’ For the Relief therefore of all such Officers and other Proprietors of the said unregistered Debentures, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all such Officers and other Proprietors of any of the said Debentures, who have not registred the same, to register their Debentures on or before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eight; which said Debentures being so registred, shall, and are hereby intituled to all the Benefit of Interest and other Advantages, as if registred on or before the four and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six.

Irish Debentures not registred within Times limited, may be registred before 24. June 1708. 4 Annæ, c. 24.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Purchaser or Purchasers of any Annuity or Annuities upon this Act, having paid one fourth Part or more of the Purchase-money hereby appointed to be paid for the same, shall be minded and desirous to be paid by way of Advance out of the Monies by this Act appointed to be reserved (when such Money shall be reserved) as aforesaid, all or any of the quarterly Payments to grow due upon such Annuity or Annuities at or before Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and eleven, then an Order shall be forthwith drawn and signed, according to the Courle of the Exchequer, and satisfied, for the immediate paying, by way of Advance, such quarterly Payments as aforesaid, out of the said reserved Monies, deducting for the Uses Purchasers having paid one fourth Part, &c. may have advanced all or any the quarterly Payments, due before 29 Sept. 1711. deducting 4 l. per Cent.

of this Act, upon every quarterly Payment so to be advanced, so much as an Interest after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum shall amount unto, from the Time of such Advance, until such quarterly Payments respectively would grow due by the Days of Payment limited for the same by this Act; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XII.

An Act to explain the Act of the last Session of Parliament, for the Ease of her Majesty's Subjects in Relation to Allowances out of the Duties upon Salt carried Coastwise, and also an Act of the first Year of her Majesty's Reign, in Relation to certain Salt Works near the Sea-side and Bay of Holy-head in the County of Anglesea.

3 Annæ, c. 29.

I. WHEREAS by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Ease of her Majesty's Subjects in Relation to the Duties upon Salt, and for making the like Allowances upon the Exportation of White Herrings, Flesh, Oatmeal, and Grain called Beer, alias Bigg, as are to be made upon Exportation of the like from Scotland; it was provided and enacted, That any Person that shall ship any English White Salt or Rock Salt to be carried Coastwise, after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, from one Port of England or Wales, or the Port of Berwick upon Tweed, to any Port of England or Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, the Duties having been paid or secured to be paid, according to former Laws, shall have an Allowance made to him after the Rate of three Bushels for every forty Bushels of English White Salt, and after the Rate of one Bushel and an Half for every forty Bushels of English Rock Salt so shipped to be carried Coastwise, and proportionably for a greater or less Quantity, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof; which Allowance shall be but one made for the same Salt, although such Salt shall be carried from several Ports Coastwise as aforesaid: And whereas there has been some Doubt in Relation to the Allowance for the ordinary Waste of Salt, where the said Salt has been shipped to be carried to a Member of the same Port, though at a considerable Distance from the same; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Persons that shall (from and after the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven) ship Salt to be carried Coastwise by Cocket or Tranfire, twenty Miles by Sea or more, or from the Port of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk to Lowestoff, or Southwold Bay in the County of Suffolk, although unto a Member or Creek of the Port from whence it was first shipped off, shall have an Allowance after the Rate of three Bushels for every forty Bushels of English White Salt, and after the Rate of one Bushel and an Half for every forty Bushels of English Rock Salt so shipped to be carried Coastwise, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof, the Duties having been first paid, or secured to be paid, according to former Laws; which Allowance shall be but once made for the same Salt, although such Salt shall be carried Coastwise from several Ports as aforesaid, or Members or Creeks of Ports.

II. And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, it is enacted, That no Rock Salt whatsoever shall be refined or made into White Salt in any Place or Places whatsoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, except in such Places as are or shall be within ten Miles Distance of the respective Pit or Pits from whence such Rock Salt shall be taken, or at such Places as, on or before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and two, shall have been used for the refining of Rock Salt, under a Penalty therein expressed: And whereas certain Salt Works have been with great Charges erected near the Sea-side and Bay of Holy-head in the County of Anglesea in North Wales, for the making of White Salt from Sea Water; and upon several Occasions Rock Salt is very useful to strengthen the Brine in the said Works, when weakened by fresh Water, or other Accidents; but the proper use of the said Salt Works not being for the refining Rock Salt, it hath been doubted whether Rock Salt might be there used: For preventing such Doubts for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Rock Salt may be so used in the making Salt from Sea Water in the said Salt Works near Holy-head aforesaid, any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding, so as her Majesty's Duties for all the Salt proceeding as well from the said Rock Salt as from the Sea Water be duly charged, answered, and paid to her Majesty's Use.

III. And whereas by the said Act it is enacted, That for all White Herrings which shall from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, be exported from any Part or Place in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to Parts beyond the Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be the like Allowances as are to be made upon the Exportation of White Herrings from Scotland, upon the Oath of the Exporter or his Agent, taken before the principal Officers of the Port from whence the same are exported, that such Herrings were cured with Salt for which the Duties have been paid, and not drawn back, and that the same are really exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not re-landed or intended to be re-landed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed: And whereas many of her Majesty's Subjects cannot have the Benefit that was intended for them by the said Act, in Regard the Salt with which the White Herrings are salted in many Parts of England pass through many Hands, and the Persons who export such Herrings buy the same already cured of Persons to whom they are sent to be sold and disposed of at Ports far distant from the Places where they are cured, and by Reason thereof such Exporters are incapable of making such Oath as by the Act is required: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all all White Herrings, which shall from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight be exported from any Port or Place in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to Parts beyond the Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be the Allowances made as are directed by the said Act to be paid, by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt in the same Port, at such Times, and in such Manner, and upon such Debenture, and so verified, as in the said Act is directed, upon Oath of the Exporter, or his Agent, to be first taken, in Manner as in the said Act is expressed, That he bought the Herrings in such Debenture mentioned, and that the same were cured with Salt for which the Duties had been paid, and not drawn back, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and that the same are really exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not re-landed, or intended to be re-landed, in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, in which Oath shall be inserted the Name of the Person or Persons of whom the said Herrings were bought.

Allowance to be made on Exportation of White Herrings.

An Act for the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government.

FOR the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government against the Practices and Attempts of all Persons who shall be suspected to be disaffected and dangerous to the same, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Officers Civil and Military, in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain, commonly called Scotland, shall be obliged to take the following Oath:

This Act enlarged by 8 Annæ, c. 15. Officers Civil and Military in Scotland to take the Oath.

I A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify, and declare in my Conscience, before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE is lawful and rightful Queen of this Realm, and of all other her Majesty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, or of Scotland by the Name of JAMES the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereunto belonging: And I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ANNE, and her will defend to the utmost of my Power against all traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever which shall be made against her Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my utmost Endeavour to disclose and make known to her Majesty and her Successors all Treasons and traiterous Conspiracies, which I shall know to be against her or any of them. And I do faithfully promise, to the utmost of my Power, to support, maintain, and defend the Succession of the Crown against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands settled by an Act, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown to her present Majesty, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants; and as the same by one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands settled and entailed after the Decease of her Majesty, and for Default of Issue of her Majesty, to the Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutches Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge and swear, according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion, or secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promise, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.

And by 10 Annæ, c. 12. §. 6. Patrons of Livings must take this Oath. By 10 Annæ, c. 2. §. 10. Advocates. Altered by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13.

An Act for repealing the Act of the first Year of King JAMES the First, intituled, An Act for the well garbling of Spices; and for granting an Equivalent to the City of London by admitting Brokers.

3 Jac. 1. c. 19: ' I. W HEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the First, intituled, An Act for the well garbling of Spices, several Drugs, Wares, Spices and Merchandizes, ‘chandizes are to be garbled within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, as therein is mentioned, under the Penalties and Forfeitures therein specified, and several Powers are thereby given to the Garbler for the Time being, for that Purpose; which Act for the garbling of Spices, and other Wares and Merchandizes, in many Cafes is now become usefess, and in other Cafes would be prejudicial, and to the Damage of several Wares and Merchandizes so to be garbled, to the Obstruction and Discouragement of the Trade of this Kingdom, and the Foreign Exportation, and to the Vexation of the Subjects, by unnecessary Prosecutions in her Majesty’s Court of Exchequer.’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s 6 W. 3. c. 7. most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act for the garbling of Spices repealed, shall be, and from henceforth stands absolutely repealed, and all Powers, Penalties, and Forfeitures therein mentioned or given, shall from henceforth be null and void.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Suits and Informations now depending in her Majesty’s Court of Exchequer, or in any other Court, or which shall at any Time hereafter be brought or prosecuted upon the said Act, under Pretence of any Seizure or Forfeiture, or Penalty incurred for Breach of the said Act, or for any Offence committed or supposed to be committed against the same, shall be, and are hereby declared to be discharged, discontinued and determined, and that no Proceedings shall be had thereupon, and all Seizures upon the said Act made or to be made, are hereby declared to be discharged, released, null, and void.

III. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London for the Time being, to appoint from time to time a fit and able Person to execute the Office of Garbler within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, who at the Request of any Person or Persons, Owner or Owners of any Spices, Drugs, or other Wares or Merchandizes garbleable, and not otherwise, shall garble the same, and such Garbler shall have and receive for his Pains and Trouble therein as the said Lord Mayor, Court of Aldermen and Common Council shall appoint, and no more.

‘IV. And whereas the Profits of the said Office are Part of the Revenues and Incomes of the City of London, and are now lett by Lease to William Stewart, under the Rent of three hundred Pounds per Annum, the Profits of which Office, and the Right of the said William Stewart to the same, by repealing the said Act will be very much diminished;’ Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Determination of this present Session of Parliament, all Persons that shall act as Brokers within the City of London and Liberties thereof, shall from time to time be admitted so to do by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City for the Time being, under such Restrictions and Limitations for their honest and good Behaviour as that Court shall think fit and reasonable, and shall upon such their Admission pay to the Chamberlain of the said City for the time being, for the Uses herein after mentioned, the Sum of Forty Shillings, and shall also yearly pay to the said Uses the Sum of Forty Shillings upon the nine and twentieth Day of September in every Year; all which Monies shall in the first Place be applied for and towards the paying and satisfying to the said William Stewart the Sum of nine hundred sixty-seven Pounds and ten Shillings, for a Compensation for his Interest in the said Office; and that from and after the full Payment of the said Sum of nine hundred sixty-seven Pounds and ten Shillings to the said William Stewart, all the Monies arising by such Admissions and yearly Payments, shall go to, and be enjoyed by the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London; and that from and after the Determination of this present Sessions of Parliament, the said Lease to the said William Stewart, and every Clause therein contained, shall cease, determine, and be absolutely void.

V. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons from and after the Determination of this present Sessions of Parliament, shall take upon him to act as a Broker, or employ any other under him to act as such, within the said City and Liberties, not being admitted as aforesaid, every such Person so offending, shall forfeit and pay to the Use of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, for every such Offence, the Sum of five and twenty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, in the Name of the Chamberlain of the said City, in any of her Majesty’s Courts of Record, in which no Protection, Effoin, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance.

C A P. XVII.

An Act for assuring to the English Company trading to the East Indies, on Account of the united Stock, a longer Time in the Fund and Trade therein mentioned, and for raising thereby the Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty’s Occasions.

I. MOST gracious Sovereign; Whereas in and by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third (of glorious Memory) intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling a Trade to the East Indies, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That all the Monies arising by the several Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, and upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, in the said Act mentioned, should be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer yearly and every Year, reckoning the first Year to begin from the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, and that one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, of the Monies to arise by the said several Duties, and to be brought into the Exchequer by weekly or other Payments, in case the same Payments should extend thereunto, should be the whole and entire yearly Fund, and in case the same weekly or other Payments should not extend to one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, then the said weekly Monies or Payments, so far as the same should extend, should be Part of the yearly Fund, for and towards the answering and paying of the Annuities of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, to such Persons or Corporations as should subscribe and pay in their Monies upon the Terms of the said Act: And it is thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful for his Majesty, by Commission under the then great Seal of England, to authorize and appoint any Number of Persons to take and receive all such voluntary Subscriptions as should be made on or before the said nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, by or for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate (the Governor and Company of the Bank of England only excepted) of any Sum of Money whatsoever, not less than one hundred Pounds, for and towards the raising and paying into the Receipt of the Exchequer, the Sum of two Millions of Pounds Sterling: And it was therein further enacted, That during the Time thereby limited for taking the said Subscriptions, it should and might be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, by or for themselves, or any of them, or in Trust for any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or any of them (except as aforesaid) freely to subscribe any Sum of Money not less than one Hundred Pounds, for or towards the said Sum of two Millions; and that all Monies so to be subscribed should be answered and paid in such Manner and Form as in the said Act is expressed: And it was thereby further enacted, ordained, and declared, That every Person and Body Politick, who should subscribe as aforesaid, and be named or contained in such Book or Books as are therein mentioned, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns respectively, should have, receive, and enjoy for ever, out of the Fund by the said Act settled and provided, one Annuity or certain yearly Sum, for the whole Sum by him, her, or them subscribed, according to the Rate or Proportion of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, in the Manner thereby prescribed: And it is thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for her said late Majesty, by Letters Patents under the then Great Seal of England, to incorporate all and every Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who should subscribe, or for whom Subscription should be taken, and upon whose Subscriptions such Payments should be made, as is therein expressed, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title, derived or to be derived from, by, or under the said original Subscribers, at any Time or Times thereafter, should have or be entitled to any Part, Share, or Interest, of or in the said yearly Fund, so long as they respectively should have any such Part, Share, or Interest therein, to be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of, *The General Society entitled to the Advantages given by an Act of Parliament, for advancing a Sum not exceeding two Millions, for the Service of the Crown of England, with such Succession, Capacity, and Powers as in the said Act is mentioned; and in such Charters or Letters Patents, such further Rules, Powers, and Clauses for carrying on Trade, and pursuing the Ends and Intent of the said Act, were to be inserted, as should be lawfully and reasonably desired in that Behalf: And it was thereby further enacted, That in case the said whole Sum of two Millions, or one Moiety, or any greater Part of the said Sum of two Millions should be subscribed, as aforesaid, on or before the said nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, that then, and from thenceforth, all and every the Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, by or for whom such Subscriptions should be made, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title derived or to be derived from, by, or under the said original Subscribers at any Time or Times thereafter, should have or be entitled to any Part, Share, or Interest of and in the said yearly Fund, and of and in a proportional Part of the principal Stock of the said General Society, so long as they respectively should continue to have any Part, Share, or Interest therein, and all and every Person and Persons, who for any Time should be licensed by such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to trade in the stead of them, should, or lawfully might for ever thereafter, by themselves severally, or by such Factors, Agents, or Servants as they severally should think fit to entrust, freely traffick, and use the Trade of Merchandize into and from the East Indies, and Parts or Limits in the said Act mentioned, in such Manner, and by such Proportions, and subject to such Restrictions as in the said Act are expressed: And it was further thereby enacted, That if the said whole Sum of two Millions, or one Moiety, or any greater Part thereof, should be subscribed on or before the said nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, and all or any Corporations, or other Person or Persons, having particular Shares or Interests in the said principal Stock of the said General Society, or in proportionable Annuities or yearly Payments issuing out of the said yearly Fund, should be willing and desirous to unite and join together such their several Shares and Interests, and to be incorporated, so as they might be able to manage their Trade (in Proportion to their Interests) as a Company, and by a Joint Stock, that then it should and might be lawful for his said late Majesty, by Letters Patents under the then Great Seal of England, to incorporate all such Persons and Corporations, by such proper Names as he should think fit, to be one Company, with Power to manage and carry on their Trade to the East Indies, and other the Limits in the said Act mentioned, by a Joint Stock, and to have perpetual Succession, and a Common Seal, with Power to grant and take, sue and be sued, and to choose their own Managers, Directors and Officers from time to time, and such other Powers and Clauses as should be necessary or requisite for the carrying on of such Trade, and should be reasonable for his said late Majesty to grant, neverthe-* less with such Restrictions as in the said Act is mentioned; and the Directors and Managers, and other Members of such Company, were to be subject to such further Rules, Qualifications and Appointments, as his said late Majesty in such Charter should think necessary or reasonable to be inserted: And in the said Act there is contained a Proviso or Condition of Redemption in such Manner and Form as therein, and hereafter in this present Act are expressed: And it is also thereby enacted, That in case the Duties arising or appropriated by the said Act, should at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year, to be reckoned from the nine and twentieth Day of September, which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and nine, the weekly Payments upon the same Duties should not amount to so much as should be sufficient to discharge and satisfy the several and respective Benefits, yearly Payments or Advantages by the said Act appointed or intended to be paid, within or for the same Year respectively; in every such Case, every such Deficiency should be answered by or out of the next Aids to be raised and granted by Parliament in the Manner therein mentioned: As by the said Act of Parliament, in which are contained divers other Powers, Provisoes, Authorities, Privileges, and Clauses, (Relation being thereunto had) more fully and large it doth and may appear: And whereas in Pursuance of the said Act, His said late Majesty, by a Commission under the then Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Westminster the fourteenth Day of July in tenth Year of his Reign, did authorize several Persons therein named, to be Commissioners, with Power to take Subscriptions for and towards the raising and paying the said Sum of two Millions, as by the said Commission, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas it appeared by Duplicates transmitted into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of his said late Majesty's Exchequer, that several Sums amounting in the whole to the said Sum of two Millions of Pounds Sterling, were subscribed pursuant to the said Act: And whereas the said whole Sum of two Millions was entirely answered to his Majesty's Use: And whereas by a Charter under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Westminster the third Day of September in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, his Majesty created and established the said Corporation, or Body Politick, called, The General Society entitled to the Advantages given by an Act of Parliament, for advancing a Sum not exceeding two Millions, for the Service of the Crown of England, with such Powers, Privileges, and Benefits as are therein expressed: And whereas by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Westminster the fifth Day of September in the said tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, reciting, That the Subscribers towards the said Sum of two Millions therein particularly named and expressed, were willing and desirous to unite or join together their several Shares or Interests in the principal Stock of the said General Society, or in their proportionable Annuities, or yearly Payments issuing out of the said yearly Funds, and to be incorporated so as they might be able to manage their Trade in Proportion to their Interest, as a Company and by a Joint Stock, his said late Majesty did grant, ordain, and establish, that the Subscribers therein particularly named, and every of them, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title, derived, or to be derived from, by or under the same Subscribers, should have and be entitled to any Part, Share, or Interest of or in the said yearly Fund by the said Act settled, as aforesaid, or of or in the proportionable Annuities or yearly Payments issuing out of the said yearly Fund, so long as they respectively should have any such Part, Share, or Interest therein, to be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The English Company trading to the East Indies, with such Benefit of Trade, Powers, Privileges, and Advantages, and subject to such Restrictions, Conditions, Covenants and Agreements, as are therein expressed. And whereas by another Act of Parliament made in the eleventh Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, reciting, That John Dubois, of London, Merchant, had, by Direction of, and in Trust for the Corporation of the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading into the East Indies, subscribed and paid the Sum of three hundred and fifteen thousand Pounds, as Part of the said Sum of two Millions, it was enacted, That the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, should remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick by the Name aforesaid, subject nevertheless to be determined upon the Redemption of the Fund by the said Act granted: And whereas by an Indenture tripartite, bearing Date the two and twentieth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and two, made between your Majesty of the first Part, the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies of the second Part, and the English Company trading to the East Indies of the third Part, it was (amongst other Things) agreed, with your Majesty's Approbation, that the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, should purchase from the Members of the said English Company so much of their Capital Stock as would make the Property of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies equal to the Property which would then remain to the other Members of the said English Company trading to the East Indies; and that the whole Trade which might or should be carried on during the Term of seven Years, to be reckoned from the Date of that Indenture, to and from the East Indies, and other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid, for or in respect of their several Stocks and Funds thereby agreed to be united, should be for the Benefit and Behoof of all the Members of the said English Company trading to the East Indies, proportionable to their Shares in the Capital or principal Stock thereof; and that the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading into the East-Indies, should have a Right and Power equal to the rest of the Members of the said English Company, in the Direction, Management, and carrying on of the said Trade, during the said Term of seven Years, and that after the End or Expiration of the said Term of seven Years, the whole Trade to the East Indies, and other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid, for or in respect of their united Stock and Fund, should for ever (subject to the Redemption of the said Fund by Parliament) be wholly managed and carried on by the said English Company trading to the East

' East Indies (by whatsoever Name the same should then be called) according to the said Charter of the fifth of September in the said tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, and not otherwise: And to that End and Purpose, many Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements were contained in the said Indenture, as by the same, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas the united Stock of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, and of all the rest of the Members of the said English Company trading to the East Indies, in their own Names, or in the Names of others in Trust for them, doth at this Time amount to one million nine hundred ninety-two thousand eight hundred Pounds, Part of the Sum of two Millions before-mentioned; and their united Fund doth amount to one hundred fifty-nine thousand four hundred twenty-four Pounds per Annum, Part of the Sum of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum before-mentioned: And as well the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, as the rest of the Members of the said English Company trading to the East Indies, are willing to advance to your Majesty, in manner herein after-mentioned, for carrying on the present War, and other your Majesty's necessary Occasions, a further Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, upon such Terms, Conditions, and Advantages as are hereafter expressed and set down: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous not only to supply your Majesty with such Aids as may enable your Majesty to carry on the said War with Vigour, but also to raise the same in such a Manner as may create no new Charge upon your Subjects, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said English Company trading to the East Indies, as well for and on the Behalf of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, as for and on the Behalf of all others the Members of the said English Company, shall advance and actually pay into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, for her Majesty's Use, the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds, by such Proportions, and at such Times as are herein after appointed for the Payment thereof (that is to say) Two hundred thousand Pounds, Part thereof on or before the twelfth Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; two hundred thousand Pounds more thereof, on or before the twelfth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eight; two hundred thousand Pounds more thereof, on or before the eleventh Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eight; two hundred thousand Pounds more thereof, on or before the twelfth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and eight; two hundred thousand Pounds more thereof, on or before the twelfth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eight; and two hundred thousand Pounds more thereof, and in full Satisfaction of the said twelve hundred thousand Pounds on or before the tenth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; and in case the said English Company trading to the East Indies, shall make Failure in any of the said Payments hereby appointed to be made, at or before the respective Days or Times before limited in that Behalf, the Monies whereof such Failure in Payment shall be made, shall and may be recovered to her Majesty's Use, by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparance; in which Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, it shall be lawful to declare, That the said English Company trading to the East Indies, are indebted to her Majesty the Monies of which they shall have made Default in Payment, according to the Form of this Statute, and have not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and in or upon such Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, there shall be further recovered to her Majesty's Use, against the said English Company trading to the East Indies, Damages after the Rate of twelve Pounds per Centum, for the Monies so unpaid contrary to this Act, besides full Costs of Suit; and the said English Company trading to the East Indies, and their Successors, and the said united Stock and Fund shall be and are hereby made subject and liable thereunto.

II. And for the better enabling the said English Company trading to the East Indies, to raise and pay the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds to her Majesty's Use as aforesaid, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Common Seal of the said English Company, now in the Hands of the Managers for the united Trade of the English Company trading to the East Indies, shall and may be made Use of to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money from time to time, upon Account of the said united Stock and Fund, so as the Sum Total of all the principal Monies which at any one Time shall be owing upon the Security of the said Seal, do not exceed one million five hundred thousand Pounds, over and above the Monies which might lawfully be borrowed thereupon before the making of this present Act.

III. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the General Court of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, and the General Court of the said English Company trading to the East Indies at any Time or Times whilst they shall separately continue, shall think fit, or if the General Court of the said English Company, after the Determination of the other General Court aforesaid, shall think fit to call in Monies from their respective Adventurers or Members, for or towards the raising the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds to be advanced to her Majesty's Use, or any Part thereof, or for repaying the Monies borrowed for that Purpose, or the Interest thereof, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading into the East Indies, and the said English Company trading to the East Indies respectively, at any Time or Times during the separate Continuance of their General Courts, as aforesaid, and afterwards to and for the said English Company trading to the East Indies, by whatsoever Name or Names the same shall then be called or known, to call in, or direct to be paid unto them respectively, from from and by their respective Adventurers and Members for the Time being, proportionably, any Sum and Sums of Money which shall from time to time be so thought fit, for or towards the making up the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds to be advanced to her Majesty's Use as aforesaid, or for repaying the Monies borrowed for that Purpose, or the Interest thereof; and that all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, and Trustees, shall be indemnified in paying the same; and in case any Adventurers or Members of the said respective Corporations, shall neglect or refuse to pay his, her, or their Shares of the Monies so called in, at the Time or Times appointed for that Purpose, by Notice to be fixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, or in case any Adventurer or Adventurers, Member or Members of the said respective Corporations, shall neglect or refuse to pay his, her, or their Share of the Monies which the said Companies, or either of them, shall (in pursuance of the said first recited Act, and their respective Charters, or any or either of them) call in, for the carrying on of their Trade, at the Time or Times appointed for that Purpose, by the like Notice as aforesaid; then and in either of the said Cases, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, and the said English Company trading to the East Indies respectively, and their respective Successors, not only to stop the Share or Dividends which shall from time to time become payable to such Adventurer or Adventurers, Member or Members, so neglecting or refusing, of the Fund, Stock, or Profits of the said respective Companies, and to apply the same from time to time for or towards Payment of the Share of the Money so called in, and which ought to have been paid by such Adventurer or Adventurers, Member or Members so neglecting or refusing to pay the same, until the same shall be satisfied, but also to stop the Transfers of the Shares of every such Defaulter, and to charge such Defaulter and Defaulters with an Interest after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Monies so by him and them neglected to be paid, from the Time the same were appointed to be paid until the Payment thereof; and the Share and Stock of such Defaulter and Defaulters shall be liable to make good and answer the said Monies so appointed to be paid, and the Interest thereof; and that in case the Principal and Interest shall not be paid within the Space of three Months, then the said Governor and Company, and the said English Company, and their Successors respectively as aforesaid, shall have Power to sell so much of the Stock of such Defaulter or Defaulters as will satisfy and pay the same.

Members refusing to pay, Company may stop their Dividends, &c.

And the Transfers of such Defaulters, and Charge them with Interest at 6l. per Cent. Shares not paid in three Months, Company may sell.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds agreed to be advanced and paid, as aforesaid, shall be and be called, deemed, and taken to be a further Addition to the capital Stock of the said English Company, and shall be, and is hereby exempted from any Taxes, Rates, Impositions, or Assessments whatsoever.

The said 1,200,000l. to be a further Addition to the capital Stock, and Tax-free.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the united Stock and Fund of the said English Company, and their Successors, by whatsoever Name or Names they shall be called or known, shall be and are by this present Act made subject and liable to the Payment and Satisfaction of all such Debts as are or shall be contracted by the same Company, for or upon Account of the said united Stock or Trade.

The united Stock liable to all Debts contracted, &c.

VI. And whereas by the said former Acts and Charters it was provided, That at any Time, upon three Years Notice, after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, upon Repayment of the said two millions, and all Arrears of the said Annuities or yearly Payments, the said Duties upon Salt, and Rock Salt, and the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and the said yearly Fund charged thereupon, and the said Annuities issuing out of the same, and the Duty of five Pounds in the Hundred on imported Goods therein expressed, and all the Corporations to be erected by or in pursuance of that Act, and the Benefit of Trade thereby given or intended to be given to them or any of them, shall absolutely cease and determine: Now, to the Intent, that the said English Company, and their Successors, may be encouraged to proceed in their Trade, and may have Time to settle Factories, and perform such other Matters and Things as are necessary for carrying on the said Trade to their best Advantage and Profit, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the last-mentioned Proviso for Redemption and Determination of the said several Duties, yearly Fund, Annuities, Corporations, and Benefit of Trade, shall be, and is hereby repealed and made void; and that the said Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, and the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and the said Duty of five Pounds in the Hundred upon imported Goods, shall continue, and the said English Company trading to the East Indies, and their Successors, by whatsoever Name or Names they shall be called or known, shall have and enjoy the said yearly Sum of one hundred fifty-nine thousand four hundred twenty-four Pounds per Annum, and all the Benefit of Trade, Franchises, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, in respect thereof given or granted, or intended to be given or granted unto them by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, or by the said Charter of the fifth Day of September in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, or by the said Indenture Tripartite of the two and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and two, and every or any of them, freed and discharged of and from the said former Proviso, or Condition of Redemption, and all other Provisoes, Powers, Acts, Matters, or Things heretofore had, made, done, or committed, for redeeming, determining, or making void the said Duties, yearly Fund, Benefit of Trade, Franchises, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages, or any of them; subject nevertheless to the Restrictions, Covenants, and Agreements in the said Act first recited, and the said recited Charters and Indenture Tripartite, or any of them contained, now in Force, and also subject to the general Provisoes or Condition of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained.

For encouraging the English Company to carry on their Trade.

Former Proviso for Redemption repealed.

In order to a compleat Union,

It is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Persons entitled to the said Stock, amounting to seven thousand two hundred Pounds, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, and enjoy their said Proportion of the said yearly Fund and Trade, as fully and effectually as they might have done if this Act had never been made; nevertheless it shall and may be lawful to and for the said English Company, and their Successors, at any Time after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, by Writing to be signed by their Secretary, and to be affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, to give Notice of their Intention to repay the said Sum of seven thousand two hundred Pounds to the Persons who shall be interested therein, or entitled thereunto, at the End of three Years after such Notice given; and in case the said English Company, at the End of the said three Years, do fully pay and satisfy to such Persons the said Sum of seven thousand two hundred Pounds at the Guild-hall of London, together with all Arrears (if any) of the said yearly Sum of five hundred seventy-six Pounds, which shall be then due to the said Persons respectively, then, and upon such Payment made, or lawful Tender thereof, the said Stock of seven thousand two hundred Pounds, and the proportional Trade and Fund belonging thereunto, shall be, and are by virtue of this Act, vested and settled in the said English Company, and their Successors; subject nevertheless to the general Proviso or Condition of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained, and to no other Proviso or Condition of Redemption whatsoever; any thing in this Act contained, or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the before-mentioned Duty of five Pounds per Centum, for or in respect only of such Goods and Merchandizes as shall be imported into Great Britain by the said English Company trading to the East Indies, from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall cease, determine, and be no longer collected or paid; any thing in this, or in the said first recited Act, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time upon three Years Notice, after the five and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, upon the Expiration of the said three Years, and upon Repayment by Parliament, as well of the said Sum of two Millions formerly advanced, as of the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds to be advanced, as aforesaid, making in the whole three Millions and two hundred thousand Pounds, unto such Companies, Corporations, or Persons as shall be then intitled thereunto, and of all Arrears which at the End of the said three Years shall be due for or upon the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum; then, and from thenceforth, as well the said Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, as the said Duties upon stamp'd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and also the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and all the Corporations erected by or in pursuance of this or the said former Acts, and the Benefit of Trade by this and the said former Acts and Charters, or any of them, given, or intended to be given to them or any of them, shall absolutely cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not be deemed, taken, or construed to repeal or alter an Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Clause, Matter or Thing therein contained; but that the said Act, and every Clause, Matter, or Thing therein contained, shall stand, remain, and be in full Effect and Force, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XI. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, upon any Importation of any Goods or Merchandizes by the said English Company trading to the East Indies, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs for the Time being, and they are hereby required from time to time to take one or more Bond or Bonds, under the common Seal of the said English Company, for all such of the Customs and Duties chargeable and to be charged on the Goods and Merchandizes so to be imported, as are Bondable, or for which Bonds have usually been given; any Law, Statute, or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XII. And whereas the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, and the rest of the Members of the English Company trading to the East Indies, are desirous that a speedy and compleat Union may be had and perfected, pursuant to the before-mentioned Indenture Tripartite, and have agreed to refer all Matters in Difference concerning the same, and the compleating the said Union, unto the final Determination of the Right Honourable Sidney Earl of Godolphin, Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Matters in Difference between the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, and the rest of the Members of the said English Company, and the settling the Terms of, and perfecting and compleating the said Union, shall be, and is hereby referred to the Judgment, Award, and final final Determination of the said Sidney Earl of Godolphin, to proceed upon and settle the Terms and Conditions of the same, as his Lordship shall think fit, so as the whole be made, settled, perfected, and completed on or before the twenty-ninth Day September in the Year one thousand seven hundred and eight, by Writing attested under his Lordship's Hand and Seal; which said Award being so made and settled within the Time aforesaid, shall in all Parts thereof be binding and conclusive, as well to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, as to the rest of the said Members of the said English Company, and shall be by them complied with, and submitted to accordingly.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the making of the said Award, and Surrender of the Charter of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East Indies, in pursuance to the said Indenture Tripartite, then the Persons who, at the Time of such Surrender, shall in pursuance of the same Indenture be the Managers for the united Trade of the English Company trading to the East Indies, and none others, shall be the Directors of the said English Company, (which Company shall then be called, The united Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies) until such Time as new Directors shall be chosen for the same, in pursuance of the said Charter, bearing Date the fifth Day of September in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Act, and the Acts herein before recited, and all Parts thereof, shall be construed, adjudged, and taken to be publick Acts to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

C A P. XIX.

An Act for continuing the Half Subsidies therein mentioned, with several Impositions and other Duties, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's necessary and important Occasions, and for charging of Prize Goods and Seizures, and for taking off the Drawbacks of foreign Cordage, and to obviate the clandestine Importation of wrought Silks.

‘ I. MOST gracious Sovereign; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, duly considering the Necessity of making an ample and compleat Provision to enable your Majesty to carry on the present War, and to defray your other necessary Expences, have for that End and Purpose cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty, the several and respective Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties herein after particularly described, for and during the Terms herein after expressed, that is to say, Whereas several Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and other Merchandizes, were given and granted unto his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, of Blessed Memory, for his Life, by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his Reign, (intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported) and by the Book of Rates thereunto annexed, which Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, as well exported as imported, (with some Alterations) were by several subsequent Acts of Parliament granted to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ten; and by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, and for making Provisions therein mentioned, to raise Money by Way of Loan, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's necessary and important Occasions, and for ascertaining the Wine Measure, the said Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money last-mentioned, were enacted to continue and be payable to your Majesty, for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, which should be imported at any Time or Times between the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten, and the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve: Now we your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, do must humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That over and above all other Subsidies, additional Duties, Impositions, and Payments whatsoever, by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament or otherwise howsoever already due or payable, or which ought to be paid to her Majesty, for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatsoever, imported or to be imported, there shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and satisfied unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, which at any Time or Times from and after the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, and before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, one Moiety or Half Part of such and the like several and respective Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign are charged or payable within or during the Term thereby granted or limited, for or upon the like imported Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes respectively, except such Goods and other Merchandizes as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any Law now in force are exempted from the Payment of the Subsidies or Duties which were first granted in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second as aforesaid.

Half Subsidies continued from 31 July 1712. to 2 Aug. 1714. Made perpetual by 7 Annæ, c. 7. §. 29.

12 Car. 2. c. 4.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That in all Cases where by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any Act relating thereunto, any Drawbacks or Abatements are to be made of the whole or any Part of the Duties thereby imposed on any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatsoever, there shall be in the like Cases proportional Drawbacks and Abatements made of the whole or Part of the Duties by this Act imposed upon the same Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes respectively; and that the several Subsidies and Duties by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, shall be raised, collected, levied, secured and paid, within and throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances, and subject to such Rules and Directions, as in and by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts therein referred unto, are prescribed or appointed, for the raising, collecting, levying, securing, and paying the said Subsidies and Duties granted by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, during the Continuance thereof; and that every Article, Rule, and Clause contained in the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, or thereby referred unto, for raising, collecting, levying, securing, and paying the said Subsidies and Duties thereby granted, during the Continuance thereof, are and shall be, by force of this Act, revived, and shall be used, exercised, and put in Practice for the raising, levying, collecting, and answering the Subsidies and Duties granted or imposed by this present Act, during the Continuance thereof, and all Arrearages of the same, from Time to Time, as fully and effectually as if the same Articles, Rules and Clauses, and every of them, were again particularly and at large recited and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act, except only as to such of the said Articles, Rules, and Clauses, touching which other Provisions, Alterations, or Exemptions are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Being, which other Provisions, Alterations, or Exemptions, shall be observed with Respect to the Duties hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, in the same Manner as they are to be observed with Respect to the said Subsidies formerly granted as aforesaid.

5 Annæ, c. 27. The same Drawbacks to be allowed.

Former Powers revived.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Impositions and Duties upon Wines and Vinegar, granted by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King JAMES the Second (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar imported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three) which said Act, by several subsequent Acts of Parliament since made, was continued, and is to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall, by Virtue of this Act, be further continued to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and no longer; and that the said Act so made in the first Year of the Reign of the said late King JAMES the Second, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, for or concerning the said Impositions on Wines and Vinegar, shall continue and be in full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and shall be applied, practised, and executed for raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties upon Wine and Vinegar hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things in the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of the said King JAMES the Second contained, had been again in this Act repeated and particularly enacted.

Duties on Tobacco continued to 1 Aug. 1714. 1 Jac. 2. c. 4.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rates, Duties, and Impositions upon all Sorts of Tobacco, granted by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the said late King JAMES the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Tobacco and Sugar imported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which said Act, as for and concerning the said Duties and Impositions upon Tobacco only, by several subsequent Acts of Parliament since made, was continued, and is to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall, by Virtue of this Act, be further continued and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and no longer.

And to be levied, &c. as by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 10.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Tobacco which shall be imported during the Times by this Act limited, and all Arrears thereof, shall be secured, collected, raised, levied, answered, and paid to her Majesty, in such Method, and with such Discount and Allowances, and according to such Rules and Directions, as are mentioned, referred to, or prescribed, as to the Duties or Impositions upon Tobacco, in and by the Act made in the Parliament holden in the seventh Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine, Vinegar, and upon Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and not otherwise.

Old Impos't continued to 1 August 1714. 2 W. & M. II. 2. c. 4.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several additional and other Rates, Impositions, Duties, and Charges upon the several Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes granted by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandizes, to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of May one thousand six hundred and ninety, and which thereby, and by several subsequent Acts of Parliament already made, have Continuance until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be further continued to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and no longer; and that the said Act made in the second Year of their said late Majesties Reign, concerning East India Goods, and other Things therein charged, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and shall be applied, practised, and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said respective Duties hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said last mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, had been again repeated and particularly enacted; except only as to such Part of the said Acts concerning the said Impositions on Wines, Vinegar, Tobacco, East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, touching which other Provisions or Alterations are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being; which other Provisions or Alterations are to be observed, and to continue during the Continuance of this present Act; and the said Act, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine and Vinegar, and upon Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and every Article, Clause, Matter, and Thing therein contained, for the raising, levying, securing, answering and paying the Impositions and Duties on the Merchandizes and Commodities thereby charged, and which are by this Act continued, shall be of full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen.

All Powers, Provisions, &c. in 2 W. & M. II. 2. c. 4. and 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 10. to be observed.

Exception.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 10.

Additional Impos't continued to 1 Aug. 1714. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the additional and other Rates, Duties, Impositions, and Charges upon the several Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes, granted by an Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of their said late Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain additional Impositions upon several Goods and Merchandizes, for prosecuting the present War against France, which by several subsequent Acts of Parliament already made, have Continuance until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall, by Virtue of this Act, be further continued, and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and no longer; and that the said Act last mentioned, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained (except as herein after is excepted and provided) as for and concerning the said Rates, Duties, and Impositions, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as if the said last mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, had been again repeated and particularly enacted in this present Act.

New Provisions or Alterations made to be observed.

VIII. Provided also, That in all Cases where any other Provision or Alteration is made, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being, in or about any other Matter or Thing contained in the said Act of Parliament for the Impositions last mentioned, such other Provisions or Alterations shall be observed during the Continuance of the Term hereby granted; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties on Whale-fins continued to 1 August 1714. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 45.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That the several Impositions and Duties for and upon all Whale-fins imported, which by an Act of Parliament in the ninth Year of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, (intituled, An Act for taking away Half the Duties imposed on Glass Wares, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares and Tobacco Pipes, and for granting in lieu thereof new Duties Duties on Whale-fins and Scotch Linen) were granted to his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, and by subsequent Acts already passed, have Continuance until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be and are hereby continued to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and no longer; and shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties, as are mentioned in the said Act for granting the said Impositions on Whale-fins and Scotch Linen; which Act, with all the Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, or thereby referred to, shall continue and be in full Force until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and shall be applied, practised and put in Execution for raising and levying the said Duties on Whale-fins hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, as fully and effectually as if all the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, concerning the said Duties on Whale-fins, were repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

‘ X. And whereas the said Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and the said other Duties granted therewith in the said twelfth Year of King CHARLES the Second as aforesaid, as to Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes imported, and the said Impositions on Wines, Venegar, and Tobacco, which were first granted to King JAMES the Second, in the first Year of his Reign, and the said Impositions on East India Goods, and other Goods charged therewith, which were first granted to their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, in the Second Year of their Reign, and the said additional Impositions which were first granted to them in the fourth Year of their Reign, and the said Duties on Whale-fins imported, which were granted to his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, in the ninth Year of his Reign, were by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign (intituled, An Act for continuing several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, and for making Provisions therein mentioned, to raise Money by Way of Loan for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty’s necessary and important Occasions, and for ascertaining the Wine Measure) continued as aforesaid, until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, in the Manner therein mentioned, and are by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, made subject and liable to the Satisfaction of the Principal and Interest Monies therein mentioned, which are to be paid and discharged in the first Place out of the Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties granted or continued by the Act last mentioned: Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies which by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign are charged upon the several Subsidies, Duties, and Impositions last mentioned, shall be fully paid off and satisfied, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, then all the Monies which shall from thenceforth arise by one Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes imported (which were first comprehended in the said Act of the twelfth Year of King CHARLES the Second) and all the Monies, which from and after such Payment made, or reserving Money to discharge all such Principal and Interest as aforesaid, shall arise by the said Impositions upon Wine, Vinegar, Tobacco, East India Goods, and other Goods therewith charged, and by the said additional Impositions on Goods and Merchandizes, and by the said Duties upon Whale-fins, for the Remainder of the Terms formerly granted, and therein then to come and unexpired (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer distinctly, for the Purposes in this present Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

‘ XI. And whereas all Wines of the Growth and Product of France, or of any Dominions under the French King, are by several Laws and Statutes liable to the Payment of several Duties upon the Importation thereof, and particularly by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty upon all French Goods and Merchandizes) it was enacted, amongst other Things, That for every Ton of French Wine imported within the Time therein mentioned, there should be paid twenty-five Pounds above the Duties before charged thereupon: But by another Act made in the eighth Year of the same King’s Reign (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a further Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage upon Merchandizes imported, for the Term of two Years and three Quarters, and an additional Land Tax for one Year, for carrying on the War against France) it was provided, That nothing in the said Act of the seventh Year of his said late Majesty’s Reign, should charge any Merchandize of the Growth of France, which should be bona fide seized or taken, and condemned as Prize, with any further or other Duties than what they were or ought to have been charged withal before the making of the Act last mentioned; and her Majesty, by her Royal Declaration bearing Date the first Day of June in the first Year of her Reign, for the Encouragement of her Ships of War and Privateers, was pleased to subject all Ships, Vessels, and Goods, which should be taken and condemned as lawful Prize, to the Payment of such Customs and Duties only as are therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act made in the second Year of her Majesty’s Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage for three Years, and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for ascertaining the Values of unrated Goods imported from the East Indies) it was enacted, That for every Ton of any Wines of the Growth or Product of France, or of any Dominions under the French King, seized or taken, or to be seized or taken by any of her Majesty’s Ships, or by any Privateers or otherwise, and which at any Time or Times, during the Term of three Years, which commenced from the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and three, should be condemned or adjudged as lawful Prize, there should be paid to her Majesty the Sum of fifteen Pounds over and above the Duties before

' before that Time charged thereupon, without Deduction, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity; which Duty of fifteen Pounds per Ton, expired on the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Ton of any Wine of the Growth or Product of France, or of any Dominions under the French King, seized or taken, or to be seized or taken by any her Majesty's Ships, or by any Privateers, or otherwise, and which at any time or times, from and after the fifteenth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven, during the present War, shall be condemned or adjudged as lawful Prize, and for every Ton of any Wines of the Growth or Product of France, or of any Dominions under the French King, which after the said fifteenth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven, during the said present War, shall be seized and condemned for unlawful Importation, or for being brought into any Part of Great Britain by Collusion, there shall be paid to the Queen's Majesty the Sum of five and twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, without Deduction, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XII. And it is hereby declared, That (over and above the said Duty of five and twenty Pounds per Ton on Prize Wines by this Act imposed) all Ships, Vessels, Wines, and other Goods and Merchandizes, which shall be taken from the Enemy, and condemned as lawful Prize, and all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes which shall be seized and condemned for unlawful Importation, or for being brought in by Collusion, as aforesaid, during the present War, shall be subject or liable to such or the like Customs and Duties to which Ships, Goods, and Merchandizes taken and condemned as Prize, were subjected or intended to be subjected by her Majesty's Declaration aforesaid; and that all the Duties by this Act chargeable upon Ships, Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes taken or seized, as aforesaid, shall and may be detained and satisfied out of the neat Proceed of such respective Prizes and Seizures, upon Sale of the same; and if any entire Prize or Seizure shall not be sufficient by its neat Produce to answer all the said Duties thereupon, then the said neat Produce shall be applied proportionably towards discharging the said Duties, so far as the said Produce will extend thereunto, and so much as shall arise by this Act of or for the said Duty of five and twenty Pounds per Ton, upon Wines taken or seized, as aforesaid, shall be applied towards the Payment of the Principal and Interest to be borrowed upon this Act; and the rest of the Monies arising by the said Duties upon such Prizes or Seizures, as aforesaid, shall be apportioned and applied to the same several Uses and Purposes whereunto the like Duties upon the like Goods or Merchandizes imported, are applicable by Virtue of the several Laws relating thereunto.

XIII. And for encouraging the Manufacture of Cordage in Great Britain, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That foreign Cordage, or Cable Yarn imported, or to be imported into Great Britain, upon Exportation thereof, at any Time or Times from or after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, for any Parts beyond the Seas, shall have no Allowance or Drawback of any Duties paid or secured by this or any other Acts, Laws, or Statutes whatsoever, upon the Importation thereof; any thing in this, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

' XIV. And whereas notwithstanding the several Laws now in Force for preventing of clandestine Importation of foreign Goods, great Quantities of wrought Silks mixed with Gold and Silver, and other Silks, have of late been imported, contrary to Law, to the great Prejudice of the Manufacturers of this Kingdom: For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, all and every such Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall secretly and clandestinely import, bring, or convey into this Kingdom, any wrought Silk or Silks mixed with Gold or Silver, or any other Materials, and all and every their Aiders, Abettors, and Assistants, shall for every such Offence forfeit two hundred Pounds, over and above the Penalties to which the same are liable by any Laws now in Force; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession such Silks shall be found, or who shall sell or offer the same to Sale, knowing thereof, and all and every Person or Persons who shall conceal such Silks, with Intent to prevent the Forfeiture of the same, shall over and above the Loss of the said Silks, for every such Offence forfeit one hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlane.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all such Silks so forfeited, as aforesaid, in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be sold at the Custom House at London, by Inch of Candle, to the highest Bidder, and such of them as shall be so forfeited, as aforesaid, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be sold at the Custom House in Edinburgh, in like Manner, and not otherwise.

XVI. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance or lend to her Majesty, at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, as well upon Credit of the several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, by this Act granted or continued, as also upon Credit of the Monies, which by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, after Satisfaction of the Principal and Interest thereupon, as aforesaid, shall arise by the Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties thereby granted, any Sums which shall not exceed in the whole seven hundred twenty-nine thousand sixty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence three Farthings, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; and moreover, the Treasurer of the Exchequer, for the Time being, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby authorized and directed to cause the Officers of the said Receipt of Exchequer to receive from time to time by way of Loan, from any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, willing to make the same at the said Receipt, any further Sum and Sums of Money, over and above the said Sum of seven hundred twenty-nine thousand sixty-seven Pounds, fifteen Shillings, and six-pence three Farthings, as shall be sufficient to make good the Payment of all the Interest Monies appointed or allowed by this Act, every three Months, until the said Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties arising by this, or the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or either of them first happening, shall come into the Exchequer, and be sufficient for that Purpose, pursuant to the Intent and Meaning of this Act; and that all the Lenders, as well of the said Sum, not exceeding seven hundred twenty-nine thousand sixty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence three Farthings, as of the said further Sums for making good the Payment of the intermediate Interest, as aforesaid, shall have and receive Interest for the Forbearance thereof, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and that no Money to be lent upon the Security of this Act shall be taxed, rated, or assessed by any Act of Parliament whatsoever.

XVII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons, who shall lend any Money upon such Credits, as aforesaid, and pay the same into the said Receipt of Exchequer, shall immediately have a Talley of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his, her, or their Repayment, bearing the same Date with his, her, or their Tallies; in or upon which Order shall be also contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for the Forbearance thereof, at the Rate aforesaid, and to be paid every three Months, until the Repayment of the Principal; and that all such Orders for Repayment of Money to be lent, shall be registered in Course, according to the Dates respectively, without other Preference of one before another; and that all and every Person and Persons shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registred in the said Register Book, so as the said Person, Native or Foreigner, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, who shall have his, her, or their Order or Orders first entred in the said respective Books of Register, shall be taken and accounted the first Person to be paid out of the Monies to come in by this Act, and he, she, or they, who shall have his, her, or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively, and in Course; and that the Monies to come in of or for the several Subsidies, Impositions, or Duties by this Act granted or continued, as aforesaid, and also the Monies which by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, (after Satisfaction of the Principal and Interest thereupon, as aforesaid) shall arise by the Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties thereby granted, as aforesaid (except the said Duties to arise by Prizes and Seizures, other than the Duty of five and twenty Pounds per Ton before-mentioned) shall be liable in the same Order to the Satisfaction of the Monies to be lent, as aforesaid, to the respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns respectively, without undue Preference of one before another, and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any her Majesty's Subjects, for providing or making of any such Books or Registers, or any Entries, Views, or Search in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Interest thereof, as aforesaid, by any of her Majesty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party grieved, by the Party offending, with treble Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take of demand any such Fee or Reward, then to lose his Place also; and if any undue Preference of one before another shall be made, either in Point of Registry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Case, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Costs, to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged of his Place or Office; and if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privy of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages, and Costs, and shall be for ever incapable of his Place and Office; and in case the Auditor of the Receipt shall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment according to each Person's due Place and Order, as before directed, then he or they shall be adjudged to forfeit, and the respective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages, and Costs, in such Manner as aforesaid; all which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Costs, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Restraint, shall in any wise be granted or allowed.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that several Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforesaid, bear Date, or be brought the same Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be registred, then it shall be interpreted no undue Preference which of those be entred first, so as he enters them all the same Day.

XIX. Provided also, That it shall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay subsequent Orders to Persons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Persons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Course, so as there be so much Money reserved, as will satisfy precedent Orders, which shall not be otherwise disposed, but kept for them; Interest upon Loan being to cease from the Time the Money is so reserved and kept in Bank for them.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, to whom any Monies shall be due for Loans, to be registred by Virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Register, as aforesaid, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by proper Words of Assignment to be indorsed and written upon his Order, may assign or transfer his Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit of such Order, or any Part Clause of Loan in 5 Annæ, c. 27. f. 2. not lessened by this Act.

‘XXI. And whereas in and by the said Act of the fifth Year of her said Majesty’s Reign, a Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding eight hundred twenty-two thousand three hundred eighty-one Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence Farthing, to be borrowed at an Interest, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties in that Act mentioned; and the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are thereby authorized and directed to cause the Officers of the Exchequer to receive from time to time, by Way of Loan, at the like Interest at the said Receipt, any further Sum or Sums of Money over and above the said Sum of eight hundred twenty-two thousand three hundred eighty-one Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence Farthing, as should be sufficient to make good the Payment of all the interest Monies appointed or allowed by that Act, every three Months, until the Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties therein mentioned, should come into the Exchequer, and be sufficient for that Purpose, pursuant to the Intent and true Meaning of that Act.’ Now it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the taking away, altering, or lessening the said Power and Direction of borrowing Monies to make good the Payment of the said Interest every three Months, until the said Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties in the said recited Act mentioned, shall come in and be sufficient for that Purpose, as aforesaid, or in any wise to alter or prejudice the Security given by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, for the Repayment or Satisfaction of the same, or any other the principal and interest Monies which were secured or intended to be secured by that Act, that the Orders for the same shall be registred in Course, and paid in the same Manner, as if this Act had never been made; this present Act, or any thing therein contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for the avoiding of Doubts and Questions touching the Statutes of divers Cathedral and Collegiate Churches.

‘ I. W H E R E A S several Doubts and Questions have arisen, and may hereafter arise, in Relation to the Validity and Force of the Statutes of divers Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, founded by King HENRY the Eighth, of famous Memory, which Doubts and Questions have been occasioned, partly by a Temporary Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of Queen MARY the First, in Relation to such Statutes made by the said late King HENRY the Eighth, and in order to defeat the true and pious Ends and Designs of the said Foundations, and partly by Reason of the known Loss of many Records and Evidences during the late Rebellion in this Kingdom: And whereas the said Doubts and Disputes may in Time not only turn to the great Disquiet and Prejudice of the said Foundations, but may prove a manifest Obstruction to the Peace, Order, good Government and Discipline of the Church, unless some speedy and effectual Remedy be provided;’ Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, founded by the said King HENRY the Eighth, such Statutes as have been usually received and practised in the Government of the same respectively, since the late happy Restoration of King CHARLES the Second, and to the Observance whereof the Deans and

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall at any Time hereafter be liable to any Prosecution, Censure, or Punishment whatsoever, for not having observed any of the Statutes hereby ratified and confirmed, or for having done any thing contrary to the same, on or before the ninth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, during her Life (which God long preserve) from time to time to alter, amend, correct, revoke, diminish, or enlarge the said Statutes, or any of them, and to make new Statutes and Ordinances for the said Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and for refusing or settling the local Visitation of them, or any of them, in such Manner, from time to time, as to her Majesty shall seem meet.

I. MOST gracious Sovereign; Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in England in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon Low Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins, and for granting new Duties upon several of the said Commodities; and also upon Callicoes, China Ware, and Drugs, several Duties therein mentioned upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures imported, were continued from the last Day of April one thousand seven hundred and six till the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, and a certain Duty upon Muslins imported, after the Rate of fifteen Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof, was continued from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and six till the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten; and by the same Act for increasing your Majesty's Revenues, several new additional Rates and Sums therein particularly expressed, were laid upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, which should be imported at any Time or Times after the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and four, and before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, and by the same Act several further Rates and Sums therein particularly mentioned, were charged or imposed for and upon all white Callicoes, Porcelan, commonly called China Ware, and Drugs (except Drugs for Dying) imported from and after the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and four, at any Time or Times before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten; the said several Duties to be severally ascertained, answered, and paid in the Manner therein mentioned; and in the said Act there are contained Clauses of Credit for lending thereupon any Sums not exceeding in the whole seven hundred thousand Pounds, at an Interest not exceeding the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, as by the same may more largely appear: And whereas it is likely that the Duties granted by the said Act, may and will determine before the Loans made thereupon, and all the Interest due, or to grow due for the same, will be satisfied: We therefore your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for preserving the publick Credit, have given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant unto your Majesty the several Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money to be payable for and upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, Muslins, White Callicoes, Porcelan, called China Ware, and Drugs (except Drugs for Dying) herein after mentioned, for the Term and Purpose herein after expressed; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Duties, which by the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign were continued upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and upon Muslins, and the said increased, or new additional Rates and Duties which were thereby laid upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and the said further Rates and Sums which were thereby charged or imposed for and upon all white Callicoes, Porcelan, commonly called China Ware, and Drugs (except Drugs for Dying) shall by virtue of this Act

Act be continued and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon the same Commodities and Merchandizes respectively, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, from and after the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, at any Time or Times within, or during the Term of four Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, the same Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, and every of them respectively (over and above all other Duties and Impositions whatsoever already charged for or upon the same Commodities, or any of them respectively, by any other Laws or Statutes now in Force) to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Distribution of the said Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Drawbacks, Allowances and Repayments, and in such Manner and Form in all Respects as the like Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money respectively granted or continued by the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign are hereby, or by any other Act or Acts, Laws, or Statutes whereunto the said Act hath Reference, prescribed, enacted, or appointed, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such of the Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things provided, settled, or established by the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts now in force whereunto the same hath Relation, for the better ascertaining, raising, levying, recovering, answering, or paying the said respective Duties thereby granted, or for making any Drawbacks, Re-payments, or Allowances out of any of the said several and respective Duties upon Exportation, shall be revived, and be continued, and be in Force and Virtue during the Continuance of this Act, and further for the Recovery of all the Arrearages and Sums of Money which shall become due or payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors upon this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, and every of them, were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

III. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and upon Muslins, and the said increased or additional Rates by this Act continued and imposed upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and the said further Rates and Sums by this Act continued, and payable for and upon all White Callicoos, Porcelain, commonly called China War, and Drugs, (the necessary Charges of raising, managing, paying, and accounting for the same excepted) shall be appropriated, paid, and applied, and be subject and liable (over and above the said Duties granted upon the like Commodities by the said former Act) to and for the securing, paying, and satisfying all the Principal and Interest Monies, which shall from Time to Time remain unsatisfied, of or for the Loans made upon the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, not exceeding the Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds before mentioned, in the same Course, Order and Manner, as the Monies arising by the said former Act were thereby prescribed to be applied thereunto, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as by the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign are prescribed, for diverting or misapplying any the Monies thereby arising.

IV. And whereas by another Act of Parliament made in England, in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty a further Subsidy on Wines and Merchandizes imported) certain Subsidies of Tunnage and Poundage, commonly called the two third Subsidies, were granted and made payable for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes imported after the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and four, within or during the Space of four Years from thence next and immediately ensuing; in which Act there are contained Clauses of Credit for lending thereupon, any Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of six hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Pounds four Shillings and a Halfpenny, at an Interest not exceeding the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum; and it is likely that the said Subsidies granted by the Act last mentioned, may and will determine before the Loans made thereupon and all the Interest due or to grow due for the same will be satisfied: We therefore your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for preserving the publick Credit, have also given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the said Subsidies of Tunnage and Poundage, commonly called the Two third Subsidies, herein after particularly described, for such farther Term, and for such Purpose, as are herein after expressed; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That over and above all other Subsidies, additional Duties, Impositions, and Payments whatsoever, by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament or otherwise howsoever already due or payable, or which ought to be paid to her Majesty, for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatsoever imported or to be imported, there shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and satisfied unto her Majesty, one other Subsidy called Tunnage, for and upon all Wines which from and after the seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, at any Time or Times, within, or during the Space of three Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, that is to say, two third Parts of such or the like several and respective Duties, as by an Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, were granted to his Majesty during his Life; and by an Act in the first Year of her Majesty's Reign are continued and payable, during her Majesty's Life, for or upon any kind of Wine or Wines respectively; and one other Subsidy called Poundage of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes to be imported or brought into Great Britain, at any Time or Times from and after the said seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, within or during the said Term of three Years, by way of Merchandize, that is to say, two third Parts of such or the like several and respective Duties, as by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign were granted, and by the said Act of the first Year of her Majesty's Reign are continued and payable for or upon the same Goods and Merchandizes respectively (except Tobacco and such Currans as shall be imported in English built Shipping, navigated according to the Laws now in Force, and Sugar from the English Plantations, and such Goods and other Merchandizes, as by the two Acts last mentioned, or either of them, are exempted from Payment of the Subsidies thereby granted.)

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties, commonly called the Two third Subsidies, by this Act granted and continued as aforesaid, and every of them respectively, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Distribution of the said Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Drawbacks, Allowances, and Re-payments, and in such Manner and Form in all Respects, as the like Duties, commonly called the Two third Subsidies respectively, granted by the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, are thereby, or by any other Act or Acts, Laws or Statutes whereunto that Act hath Reference, prescribed, enacted, or appointed, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for, during the Continuance thereof respectively; and that all such of the Powers, Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things provided, settled, or established by the said Subsidy Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts now in Force, whereunto that Act hath Relation, for the better raising, levying, recovering, answering, or paying the said respective Duties, commonly called the two third Subsidies, thereby granted, or for making any Drawbacks, Repayments, or Allowances out of any of the said several and respective Duties upon Exportations, shall be revived, and be continued, and be in Force and Virtue, during the Continuance of Act; and further for the Recovery of all the Arrearages, and Sums of Money, which shall become due or payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors upon this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, and every of them, were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

VI. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties, commonly called The two third Subsidies, by this Act continued and payable (the necessary Charges of raising, managing, paying, and accounting for the same, excepted) shall be appropriated, paid, and applied, and be subject and liable (over and above the said Duties called The two third Subsidies, granted by the said former Act) to and for the securing, paying, and satisfying all the Principal and Interest Monies, which shall from Time to Time remain unsatisfied of or for the said Loans, not exceeding six hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Pounds four Shillings and a Halfpenny, made upon the said Subsidy Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, in the same Course, Order, and Manner, as the Monies arising by the Act last mentioned were thereby prescribed to be applied thereunto, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as by the said Subsidy Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign are prescribed, for diverting, or misapplying any the Monies thereby arising.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and as the said respective Sums of seven hundred thousand Pounds and six hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Pounds four Shillings and a Halfpenny, and all the Interest thereof due and to grow due, shall be respectively paid off and fully discharged, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose pursuant to the true Meaning of this Act, then and from thenceforth the said Duties chargeable by this Act with the said Principal and Interest, and either of them respectively, for and during the then Remainder of the said respective Terms hereby granted of and in the same respectively, shall be disposable for the publick Use and Service by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise; any thing herein contrary to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Glass Wares, Stone and Earthen Bottles, Coals and Culm, for carrying on the War against France) recited, That the Imposition upon Coals exported to foreign Parts was so great, that it was almost a Prohibition, to the great Diminution of his Majesty's Customs, and lessening the English Navigation on the Exportation of Coals beyond the Seas: For Remedy whereof it was thereby enacted, That all Coals exported beyond the Seas in foreign Bottoms should, during the Continuance of that Act, only pay ten Shillings the Chaldron, and English Bottoms only three Shillings the Chaldron, which Part of the said Act was to determine on or about the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred; and by another Act made in the eleventh Year of the same King's Reign, for continuing several Laws therein mentioned, it was enacted, That all Coals exported beyond the Seas in foreign Bottoms, should from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred, for and during the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Sessions of Parliament, only pay ten Shillings the Chaldron, and in English Bottoms only three Shillings the Chaldron; which several Acts, in Relation to Coals exported, have been found very beneficial and useful to the Publick, and fully to have answered the good Ends and Intent thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Coals exported beyond the Seas, from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, from Great Britain in foreign Bottoms, shall only pay ten Shillings the Chaldron; and in British Bottoms only three Shillings the Chaldron, and after those Rates for greater or lesser Quantities; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The said respective Duties on Coals exported, to be raised, levied, uplifted, and recovered in the same Manner, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as any other Customs or Duties payable to her Majesty upon the Exportation of any Goods or Merchandizes are by any Law or Statute now in Force, to be raised, levied, uplifted, or recovered in England or Scotland respectively.

How Duties shall be levied.

See 8 Annæ c. 13. f. 5.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 20. & 9 Annæ, c. 6. f. 5. to 11.

IX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, of glorious Memory (intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of several Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising the publick Credit) it is amongst other Things enacted, That during the Continuance of the Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, no other Bank, or any other Corporation Society, Fellowship, Company, or Constitution in the Nature of a Bank, shall be erected or established, permitted, suffered, countenanced, or allowed by Act of Parliament, within the Kingdom, as in and by the said Act more at large may appear; nevertheless since the passing of the said Act some Corporations by Colour of the Charters to them granted, and other great Numbers of Persons, by Pretence of Deeds or Covenants united together, have presumed to borrow great Sums of Money, and therewith, contrary to the Intent of the said Act, do deal as a Bank, to the apparent Danger of the established Credit of the Kingdom: Now for preventing of such Practice in Time to come, and the Mischiefs thence to arise, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, during the Continuance of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, it shall not be lawful for any Body Politick or Corporate whatsoever, erected, or to be erected, other than the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or for other Persons whatsoever united or to be united in Covenants or Partnership, exceeding the Number of Six Persons, in that Part of Great Britain called England, to borrow, owe, or take up any Sum or Sums of Money on their Bills or Notes, payable at Demand, or at any less Time than six Months from the borrowing thereof.

From 29 Sept. 1708, during Continuance of Bank, no Company united in Partnership, exceeding six in Number, shall take up Money on their Bills payable under six Months.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all European Linens, Sisters Threads, and Tapes or Incle, Linseed, and Flax, shall be exempted from the Payment of the Duties imposed by this Act (called the Two third Subsidies, as aforesaid) during the said Term of three Years by this Act granted of and in the same, as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

All European Linens, &c. exempted from Duties by this Act.

XI. And whereas in raising the several Sums granted to his late Majesty King WILLIAM, and her present Majesty, by several Acts of Parliament for granting Aids by a Land Tax in the Years one thousand seven hundred and one, one thousand seven hundred and two, one thousand seven hundred and three, one thousand seven hundred and four, one thousand seven hundred and five, one thousand seven hundred and six, there hath happened a Deficiency in the several and respective Aids in the County of Monmouth, and the Commissioners in the said County having caused the same to be re-assessed and paid to the Receiver General in a gross Sum, and Duplicates not regularly returned into her Majesty's Remembrancer's Office in the Exchequer, by Reason whereof the Receiver is incapable of passing his Account; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Auditor in making up the said Receiver's Accounts for the said County, shall charge the said Receiver with the Sums contained in the several Acts of Parliament for the respective Years before-mentioned, so as that the said Sums are fully answered to her Majesty, although Duplicates for the said County are not regularly returned.

Auditor in making up Receiver's Accounts for County of Monmouth, to charge him with the Deficiency in several Aids here-in mentioned.

XII. And for promoting the Consumption of Tobacco of the Growth of her Majesty's Plantations in America, the Increase of her Majesty's Revenue, and for the better Encouragement of the said British Plantations, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, it shall not be lawful for any Commander of any of her Majesty's Ships of War, or Purser thereof, to sell, deliver, or cause to be sold or delivered to any of her Majesty's Seamen or Marines on Board of such Ship, any Tobacco of the Growth of Europe, nor any Tobacco mixed with Tobacco of the said Growth.

After 29 Sept. 1708, no Tobacco of the Growth of Europe, to be sold in any Ships of War. 12 Car. 2. c. 34. 15 Car. 2. c. 7. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26.

XIII. And for the better Employment of the Poor of this Kingdom, Be it likewise enacted, That all Tobacco to be used or consumed on Board any of her Majesty's Ships of War in any Part of Europe, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, shall be such as is of the Growth of the said British Plantations which hath paid her Majesty the full Duties, and been manufactured in Great Britain; upon Pain that every such Commander or Purser who shall knowingly and wilfully offend herein, shall forfeit their respective Places and Employments, and three Shillings for every Pound weight of Tobacco, and so in Proportion for every greater or lesser Quantity so sold and delivered; one Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Informer who shall sue for the same by Action or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, and no more than one Imparlance.

But only Tobacco of the British Plantations, manufactured in Great Britain. Further Provisions concerning Tobacco, 8 Ann. c. 13. 12 Ann. f. 2. c. 8. 1 Geo. 1. c. 46. 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. 6 Geo. 2. c. 13.

An Act to make further Provision for electing and summing sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the Parliament of Great Britain; and for trying Peers for Offences committed in Scotland; and for the further regulating of Voters in Elections of Members to serve in Parliament.

5 Ann. c. 8.

I. WHEREAS by the two and twentieth Article of the Treaty of Union for uniting the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, ratified and confirmed by the respective Parliaments of each Kingdom, it was, amongst other Things, provided, That when her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, should declare their Pleasure for holding the first, or any subsequent Parliament of Great Britain, until the Parliament of Great Britain should make further Provision therein, Writs should issue under the Great Seal of the united Kingdom of Great Britain, directed to the Privy Council of Scotland, commanding them to cause sixteen Peers, who were to sit in the House of Lords, to be summoned to Parliament, in such Manner as by an Act of the then present Session of Parliament of Scotland, was or should be settled; in which Session of the Parliament in Scotland, an Act was accordingly passed for that Purpose, intituled, An Act settling the Manner of electing the sixteen Peers and forty-five Members to represent Scotland in the Parliament of Great Britain; which Act was afterwards confirmed by the Parliament of England, and declared to be as valid as if the same had been Part of, and ingrossed in the said Articles of Union; by which Act it is, amongst other Things, provided and enacted, That the sixteen Peers, who should have a Right to sit in the House of Peers in the Parliament of Great Britain, on the Part of Scotland, by virtue of the said Treaty, should be named by the said Peers of Scotland, whom they represent, their Heirs or Successors to their Dignities and Honours, out of their own Number, and that by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers present, and of the Proxies for such as should be absent, the said Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law; and that such Peers as were absent, being qualified as aforesaid, might send to all such Meetings a List of the Peers whom they judged fittest, validly signed by the said absent Peers, which should be reckoned in the same Manner, as if the Parties had been present, and given in the said List; and in case of the Death or legal Incapacity of any of the said sixteen Peers, that the aforesaid Peers of Scotland should nominate another of their own Number in Place of the said Peer or Peers, in Manner as therein is mentioned; and it was thereby further enacted, That until the Parliament of Great Britain should make further Provision therein, the said Writs so to be issued, should contain a Warrant and Command, to command the said Privy Council to issue out a Proclamation in her Majesty's Name, requiring the Peers of Scotland for the Time to meet and assemble at such Time and Place within Scotland, as her Majesty and her Royal Successors should think fit, to make Election of the said sixteen Peers, and requiring the Lord Clerk Register, or two of the Clerks of Session, to attend all such Meetings, and to administer the Oaths as were or should be by Law required, and to ask the Votes, and having made up the List in Presence of the Meeting, to return the Names of the Sixteen Peers chosen, certified under the Subscription of the said Lord Clerk Register, Clerk or Clerks of Session attending, to the Clerk of the Privy Council of Scotland, to the End that the Names of the sixteen Peers being so returned to the Privy Council, might be returned to the Court from whence the Writ did issue, under the Great Seal of the united Kingdom, conform to the said twenty-second Article: And whereas by an Act of this present Session, intituled, An Act for rendring the Union of the two Kingdoms more intire and compleat, it is declared and enacted, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eight, the Privy Council of Scotland shall cease and determine, whereby it is become necessary that some further Provision should be made for the electing and returning the said sixteen Peers, that are to sit in the House of Peers in the Parliament of Great Britain, pursuant to the said Treaty; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at all Times hereafter when her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors shall declare her or their Pleasure for summoning and holding any Parliament of Great Britain, that in order to the electing and summoning the sixteen Peers of Scotland, a Proclamation shall be issued under the Great Seal of Great Britain, commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Edinburgh, or in such other Place in Scotland, and at such Time as shall be appointed in the said Proclamation, to elect by open Election the sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the Parliament of Great Britain, in such Manner as by the before recited Act and herein after is appointed.

Proclamation to be issued for electing 16 Peers of Scotland to sit in the Parliament of Great Britain. And published at Edinburgh, &c. 25 Days before Election.

All the Peers present to take the Oaths.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Proclamation issued for the Purpose aforesaid, shall be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, five and twenty Days at the least before the Time thereby appointed for the Meeting of the Peers to proceed to such Election.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Peers who meet on such Proclamation, shall, before they proceed to the Election, and in Presence of the Peers assembled for such Election, take the respective Oaths, videlicet:

Oaths.

I. A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ANNE, So help me G O D.

I A. B.

I A. B. do swear, That I do from my Heart abhor, detest, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Position, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatsoever. And I do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State, or Potentate, hath or ought to have any Jurisdiction, Power, Superiority, Pre-eminence or Authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

So help me God.

And shall also make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration following, videlicet:

I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely, in the Presence of God, profess, testify, and declare, That I do believe that in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any Transubstantiation of the Elements of Bread and Wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, at or after the Consecration thereof by any Person whatsoever; and that the Invocation or Adoration of the Virgin Mary, or any other Saint, and the Sacrifice of the Mass, as they are now used in the Church of Rome, are superstitious and idolatrous. And I do solemnly, in the Presence of God, profess, testify, and declare, That I do make this Declaration, and every Part thereof, in the plain and ordinary Sense of the Words read unto me, as they are commonly understood by English Protestants, without any Evasion, Equivocation, or mental Reservation whatsoever, and without any Dispensation already granted me for this Purpose by the Pope, or any other Authority or Person, or without any Hope of any such Dispensation from any Person or Authority whatsoever, or without thinking that I am or can be acquitted, before God or Man, or absolved of this Declaration, or any Part thereof, although the Pope or any other Person or Persons, or Power whatsoever, should dispense with, or annul the same, or declare that it was null and void from the Beginning.

And subscribe the Declaration.

And also take and subscribe the Oath following, videlicet:

I A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify, and declare in my Conscience, before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE is lawful and rightful Queen of this Realm, and of all other her Majesty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, or of Scotland, by the Name of JAMES the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of the King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereunto belonging: and I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ANNE, and her will defend to the utmost of my Power against all traitorous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever which shall be made against her Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my utmost Endeavour to disclose and make known to her Majesty and her Successors all Treasons and traitorous Conspiracies, which I shall know to be against her or any of them. And I do faithfully Promise, to the utmost of my Power to support, maintain, and defend the Succession of the Crown against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands settled by an Act, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown to her present Majesty, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants; and as the same by one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Right and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands settled and entailed after the Decease of her Majesty, and for Default of Issue of her Majesty, to the Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutches Dowager of Hannover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge and swear, according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion, or secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promise, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.

And also take the following Oath.

So help me GOD.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent Money.

WHEREAS by the Treaty of Union, and fifteenth Article thereof, it is agreed, That Scotland shall have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof shall be charged towards Payment of the Debts of England contracted before the Union, in all Particulars whatsoever; and particularly, that the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, should be granted to her Majesty as an Equivalent to Scotland, for such Parts of the Customs and Excise there, as should be applicable to the Payment of the said Debts of England, according to the Proportions therein set down; and in Regard that after the Union, Scotland becoming liable to the same Customs and Duties of Excises upon all exciseable Liquors as in England, as well on that Account as upon the Account of the Encrease of Trade and People, the said Revenues will much improve beyond the Values mentioned in the said Article, of which no Estimate could be made, it was agreed, That after the Union there should be kept an Account of the said Duties arising in Scotland, to the end it might appear what ought to be answered to Scotland, as an Equivalent for such Proportion of the said Encrease as should be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England; and for the further and more effectual answering the several Ends therein after mentioned, it was agreed, That from and after the Union, the aforesaid whole Encrease of the Revenues of Customs and Excises in Scotland therein expressed, should go and be applied for the Term of seven Years to the Uses therein set down; and that upon the said Account there should be answered to Scotland annually, from the End of seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent, in Proportion to such Part of the said Encrease as shall be applicable to the said Debts of England; and generally that an Equivalent should be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the Debts of England as Scotland might thereafter become liable to pay, by Reason of the Union, other than such as are in the said Article expressed; and as for the Uses to which the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and other Monies, which are to be answered or allowed to Scotland as aforesaid, are to be applied, it was thereby agreed, That in the first Place, the Losses which private Persons might sustain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, might be made good; in the next Place, That the Capital Stock or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland advanced, together with the Interest of the said Capital Stock after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the respective Times of Payment thereof, should be paid; and as to the Overplus of the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and also the whole Encrease of the said Revenue of Customs and Excise, above the then Values arising during the Term of seven Years, with the Equivalent which should become due upon Improvement thereof, and also all other Sums, which, according to the aforesaid Agreement, should become payable to Scotland by Way of Equivalent, it was agreed, That the same should be applied in Manner following, viz. that all the publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as should be adjusted by the then Parliament of Scotland, should be paid; and that two thousand Pounds per Annum, for the Space of seven Years, should be applied towards encouraging the Manufacture of Course Wooll, within those Shires which produce the Wooll; and afterwards the same should be wholly applied for encouraging the Fisheries, and such other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may most conduce to the general good of the united Kingdom: And whereas for preventing all Mistakes or Abuses which might hinder the ready Application of the aforesaid Money to the Proprietors and others concerned in the Stock of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, conform to the said Article, there was an Act made in the last Session of the last Parliament of Scotland, intituled, Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company, wherein it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Directors of the said African and Indian Company of Scotland, should make up Accounts of the Sums advanced by

5 Annæ, c. 8.

From first May 1708. a Court of Exchequer to be erected in Scotland;
and to be a Court of Record for ever.

I. WHEREAS in and by the nineteenth Article in a late Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of her now Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for an Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, it is amongst other Things provided, That there should be a Court of Exchequer in Scotland after the said Union, for deciding Questions concerning the Revenues of Customs and Excise there, having the same Power and Authority in such Cases, as the Court of Exchequer has in England, and that the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, have Power of passing Signatures, Gifts, Tutories, and other Things, as the Court of Exchequer in Scotland then had, and that the Court of Exchequer that then was in Scotland, should remain until a new Court of Exchequer be settled by the Parliament of Great Britain in Scotland after the Union, which Union took effect upon the first Day of May in the sixth Year of her now Majesty's Reign one thousand seven hundred and seven, and thereby the said two Kingdoms of England and Scotland became united into one Kingdom, by the Name of Great Britain; To the Intent therefore that there may be a Court of Exchequer settled and established in Scotland, pursuant to the Purport and Meaning of the said recited Act, and of the nineteenth Article therein contained; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eight, a Court of Exchequer, to be called and known by the Name of The Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be, and by Authority of this Act is hereby erected, constituted, and established in and for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and that the said Court of Exchequer shall be and is hereby enacted to be a Court of Record, Revenue, and Judicature, for and within Scotland, and to have Continuance for ever, and to be held within the City of Edinburgh, at such Place or Places where the former Exchequer of Scotland before the said Union was usually held, or at such other Place or Places in Scotland, as by Authority from the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and in Default thereof, by the Judges of the said Court of Exchequer for the Time being, shall from Time to Time be directed, limited or appointed.

Lord Treasurer, and such others
as Queen shall appoint to be Chief Baron and Barons of the Exchequer, shall be Judges of the said Court.
And continue in their Offices

7 Geo. 2. c. 16.
§. 4.

II. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, and such other Person and Persons as by Commissions from the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, under the Seal which by the said Articles of Union is appointed to be kept in Scotland, from Time to Time, shall be ordained, constituted, or appointed to be the chief Baron, and other Barons of the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be the Judges of and in the said Court; and the said Lord High Treasurer and Barons, and the said Barons in the Absence of the said Lord High Treasurer, shall have and put in Execution all and every the Judicial and other Powers and Authorities of or belonging, or which shall or may appertain or belong to the said Court, or wherewith the said Court shall be invested, and the said Barons shall remain, and have Continuance in their respective Offices and Places quam diu se bene gesserint; which Barons of the Exchequer are to be made of such as have been, are or shall be Serjeants at Law, or Barristers of Law of five Years standing in some of the four Inns of Court in England, or else of such Persons as shall have been, are or shall be Advocates in the College of Justice in Scotland for five Years; and the said Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland shall respectively take the same Oaths Oaths of Office, mutatis mutandis, and other Oaths, as the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in England have used, or ought to take, upon their Admissions into their respective Offices, the said Oaths to be taken for the first Time before the Court of Session in open Court, in case the said Court be sitting, or otherwise, in case the said Court be not then sitting, before any three of the Lords of Session, and at all Times hereafter before the said Court of Exchequer; and the said chief Baron and Barons shall use and wear such Robes and Habits as the chief Baron and Barons of the Court of Exchequer in England do use and wear, or such other Robes or Habits as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

And take the same Oaths of Office as the Barons in England.

And wear such Robes, &c.

III. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be in the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, the several Offices following, that is to say, The Office of Queen's Remembrancer, the Office of Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, the Office of Clerk of the Pipe, and such other Offices now in being in the Court of Exchequer in England, or are now in being in Scotland, relating to Signatures, Gifts, and Tutories, as the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall from Time to Time think fit and proper, to be constituted and appointed under the Seal which by the said Articles of Union is appointed to be kept in Scotland; and that such Persons shall be the Masters or chief Officers of and in the said respective Offices, and for such Term, Estate, and Interest therein, as the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall from Time to Time by Letters Patents under the Seal aforesaid ordain or appoint, and that the said Masters or chief Officers of the aforesaid several Offices shall have and appoint from Time to Time under them, and in their respective Offices, such and so many Attornies and Clerks as shall be fit and proper for the Business in their respective Offices; which said Masters and chief Officers, as also the said Attornies and Clerks, shall, before their Admissions into their Offices or Places respectively, take such Oath or Oaths in the said Court, or before the chief Baron, or one of the Barons of the said Court, for their faithful and honest Carriage and Behaviour in their said Offices respectively, as the like Officers, Attornies, and Clerks in the Court of Exchequer in England have used and ought to do, or as by the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall for that Purpose be devised and appointed.

Other Offices to be in the said Court.

IV. Provided nevertheless, That the said several chief Officers in the respective Offices aforesaid, as also the said Attornies, Clerks, and other Officers of or belonging to the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland for the Time being, shall all of them be subject and obedient to the said Court of Exchequer, and may be suspended, punished, or removed by the said Court for Neglect of Duty, or for Crimes and Misdemeanors in their respective Offices and Places, or other just Causes.

Officers, &c. may be punished for Neglect of Duty.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be a Seal to be assigned or appointed by the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for the Sealing all such Letters Patents, Grants, Commissions, Writs, Precepts, and other Process and Proceedings, which shall issue out of or be awarded by the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or ought or shall be directed to pass under the Seal of the said Court; which Seal shall be kept in the Custody of the chief Baron of the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for the Time being; and the said chief Baron of such Person or Persons as he shall depute, and for whom he will be answerable, shall therewith seal all Letters Patents, Grants, Commissions, Writs, Precepts, and other Process and Proceedings before mentioned, which shall be brought to be sealed; and for that Purpose shall attend at proper and convenient Times and Places to be directed by the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or any of the Barons thereof (in case any Question shall arise touching the same;) and the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland is hereby empowered from Time to Time to depute and appoint all such other Officers, Ministers, Clerks, Servants, and Attendants for the constituting of which there is no other Provision made by this Act, as shall be thought convenient for the Use and Service of the said Court, and for the carrying on and Dispatch of the Business therein, subject and liable nevertheless to be suspended, punished, and removed, and to the taking of such Oaths, mutatis mutandis, for the faithful Execution of their respective Offices, Places, and Employments, as herein before is provided for any the Officers, Attornies or Clerks in the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and all and every the Sheriffs, by themselves or their sufficient Deputies for whom they are to be answerable, and other Officers, Ministers, and Subjects in Scotland, are hereby enjoined and required to be from Time to Time aiding, assisting, obedient to, and attendant upon the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and the Judges and Jurisdiction thereof, in all Things relating to the said Court of Exchequer, which do, may, or shall any ways touch or concern their respective Offices or Duties in any manner of wise, and shall be liable and subject to such Penalties and Punishments for Neglect of their Duties, or for any Contempts of Disobedience to the said Court, or the Process thereof, or for any other Neglect, Contempt, or Offence as shall be set or imposed upon them respectively by the said Court of Exchequer.

in and during which Terms the Barons of the said Court shall sit therein, and hear and determine the Business, Causes, Matters and Things depending, or which shall, may, or ought to be prosecuted in the said Court, either in Law or Equity, or which shall or may concern the Revenues, Debts, Duties, Matters, or Things within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and that either with or without any Adjournment to or for any Time or Place; and that the said Barons shall and may order and appoint the Days and Times for the Returns of Writs or Process issuing out of, and returnable in the said Court, and set and impose upon all such Sheriffs and other Officers and Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to whom the Execution of such Writs or Process do or shall appertain, such Issues, Fines, Amerciaments, and Penalties, as to the said Court shall seem fit and reasonable; and the said Barons in Court, or any of them out of Court, shall take Bails, Recognizances, and other Securities, Informations, Bills, Answers, and Affidavits, and take and declare Accounts, and do and execute all Matters and Things relating to the Business or Jurisdiction of the said Court, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as the Barons of the Exchequer in England, or any of them, have or do use in such or the like Cases in or out of Court there; and the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, are hereby also authorized and enabled to hold Plea in Equity by English Bill, Petition, or Suit to be brought or exhibited in the said Court, by or against the Attorney or Advocate General of the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, on her or their Behalf, or for her or their Interest, or by or against any other Person or Persons any Ways concerned in or about any the Revenues, Debts, or Duties before-mentioned, touching the said Revenues, Debts, or Duties, for any Discovery or Relief in Equity; and in and upon such Bills, Petitions, and Suits, the said Court of Exchequer shall and are hereby enabled to issue and award Process of Subpœna, or Distingas, and all other usual and proper Process for compelling the Parties Defendants to or in such Suits, to put in their Answers, and make their Defences to such Bills, Petitions, or Suits, and for the Parties to such Suits to proceed therein and thereupon, according to such Rules or Orders, and in such Manner and Form as the Court of Exchequer in England hath used to proceed by; and upon Issues joined in any the said Causes or Suits in Equity, the Court of Exchequer in Scotland is to cause Witnesses to be examined (if desired on either Side) by Commissions to be awarded for that Purpose, or by sworn Examiners, and after Publication of the Depositions of the Witnesses, to proceed to the hearing of the said Causes, and upon the Proofs and Evidence therein or thereupon, or upon Bill and Answer where no Witnesses shall be examined or Proofs made, to make such Orders and Decrees either for the Relief of the Plaintiffs, or for directing any Issue or Issues at Law to be tried for the Information of the Conscience of the Court, or for dismissing of the said Plaintiff Bills, or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable, and as is or hath been used in the Court of Exchequer in England; save only that all Issues at Law directed, as aforesaid, for the Information of the Conscience of the Court, shall be and are hereby ordered to be made up and proceeded upon in the said Queen's Remembrancer's Office in Scotland, in such Manner as such Issues are used to be made up and proceeded upon in the Office of Pleas in the Court of Exchequer in England; and the said Court shall award such Process for the enforcing any of the Parties to such Suits to perform and yield Obedience to such Orders or Decrees as shall be made in the said Causes, and in case of Non-performance thereof, or Disobedience thereunto, the said Court shall award all such Process of Contempt against the Persons and Estates of him, her, or them that shall be in Contempt, or refuse Obedience to any the said Orders or Decrees, as hath been used and practised in like Cases, in or by the Court of Exchequer in England, and make and execute like Process, Orders, and Proceedings thereupon, as are used in the Court of Exchequer in England, in like Cases.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and all and every the Officers and Members of the said Court of Exchequer shall be entitled to, and have and enjoy such and the same Privileges and Immunities, as the Members of the College of Justice have and enjoy by the Law, Custom, and Practice in Scotland, excepting only that they may be pursued in Justice before the Lords of Session for Causes not competent to the Court of Exchequer.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Officers and Persons employed or to be employed in or about the collecting, receiving, managing, paying, answering, or accounting for any the Revenues or Duties of Customs or Excise, or other Crown Revenues, Debts, or Duties in Scotland, shall be under and subject to the Rules, Orders, Directions, Authority, Power, and Jurisdiction of the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, in all Things touching the said Revenues, Debts, Duties, or Accounts, and touching the collecting, ordering, and Management thereof, and the paying and answering the same, and concerning any Securities to be given, or Oaths to be taken relative thereto, which are not, or shall not be contrary to, or inconsistent with the Commands, Orders, and Directions in Force, of or from the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or of or from the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain,

Britain, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury in Great Britain for the Time being; and that all and every such Person and Persons, as is, or are, or shall be appointed under the aforesaid Seal, which by the Articles of Union is appointed to be kept in Scotland, to be the Auditor or Auditors of the said Revenues of Customs or Excise, or other Crown Revenues or Duties whatsoever in Scotland, or any Part thereof, shall take the same, or like Oath, mutatis mutandis, for the due Execution of his or their Office or Offices, before the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as any Auditor of any the Crown Revenues in England hath or have used or ought to take; and such Auditor or Auditors shall have the taking and making up all the said Accounts, which being sworn to by the respective Accountants as to the Truth thereof, and allowed and declared by and before the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before the Chief Baron, or some other of the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, the same shall be examined, enter'd, and enrolled in the Offices of Remembrancer of the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; and Particulars and Vouchers of such Account, contained in a Bag for that Purpose, shall be there left, and such Account shall be also entred in the Office of Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, in such and the like Manner as is and hath been used in the like Offices in England, and then shall be delivered into the Pipe Office in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and the Clerk of the Pipe or Chief Officer in that Office, or his Deputy (in Case that Office shall be executed by Deputy) shall cause the said Accounts to be examined, and if found true, to be entred and inrolled in the said Office, and shall make and give a Quietus or Discharge to the Accountant thereupon, which shall be a Discharge to and for such Accountant, as to all the Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things therein, and thereby accounted for, paid, and answered; and if any Supers or Arrears shall be set upon the Accountant, or any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, by or upon the said Account, the Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall award all proper and effectual Process to be made and issued out of such one of the two Remembrancers Offices, as the Court shall direct, for the speedy accounting for, levying and receiving of all such Supers and Arrears, and answering the same to the Use of the Crown, in such Sort and Manner as in like Cases may by Law be done, or hath been used, in the Court of Exchequer in England.

Auditors of the Revenues to take the same Oath as Auditors in England. And have the making up of the Accounts, &c.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, Party or Parties to any Judgment which shall be given in the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, or such other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be Privy to, and affected by such Judgment, and who by Law is or are entitled to bring and maintain a Writ or Writs of Error thereupon, to sue and prosecute out of the Court of Chancery in England a Writ or Writs of Error, to be made in usual Manner upon any such Judgment, returnable in the Parliament of Great Britain, and such and the like Securities, Matters and Things, Way and Method of Proceedings, shall and may be had therein and thereupon, and relating thereunto, as have been, are, or may be used and practised upon, or concerning Writs of Error returnable in Parliament, upon any Judgment in any the Courts in England, and upon or relating to the Affirming or Reversal of such Judgments, and the Proceedings thereupon in like Cases; and every Person or Persons against whom any Orders or Decrees in English Causes shall be made in the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall and may have and pursue such and the like Relief and Redress therein, as any Person or Persons, against whom any Orders or Decrees in the Court of Exchequer in England have been or shall be made, may have and pursue in like Cases.

Party to any Judgment given in Court of Exchequer, may bring a Writ of Error upon such Judgment returnable in Parliament, &c.

XIII. Provided also, That the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being shall have and exercise all such Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdictions, about or relating to any the Revenues or Duties of Custom and Excise, and other the Crown Revenues, Duties, or Treasure within Scotland, and the getting in, paying, issuing, and accounting for the same, or any Part thereof, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, by virtue of such his Office, hath, or may, or can have or exercise about or concerning any the Crown Revenues, Debts, or Duties in England; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And for the better and more effectual ascertaining the Ports, Members, Creeks, and Havens in Scotland, where Goods and Merchandizes have been or may be exported and imported, and the several Key's Wharfs, and other Places where the same may be put on board any Ship or Vessel for Transportation, or be unshipt or unladen upon Importation; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall and may, from time to time, by Commission or Commissions out of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, assign and appoint all such further Places, Ports, Members, and Creeks in Scotland, as shall be lawful for the landing and discharging, lading, or shipping of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes in Scotland, and to what ancient and head Ports respectively such Places, Members, or Creeks shall respectively appertain; and where any such Place, Member, or Creek shall be so appointed, as aforesaid, the Customer, Collector, Comptroller, and Searcher of the head Port, shall by themselves, or their sufficient Deputy or Deputies, Servant or Servants, reside and inhabit, for the entring, clearing and passing, shipping and discharging of Ships, Goods, and Merchandize, and by virtue of the said Commission or Commissions may likewise set down and appoint the Extents, Bounds, and Limits of every Port, Haven, or Creek in Scotland, whereby the Extents, Limits, and Privileges of every Port, Haven, or Creek in Scotland may be ascertained and known; after which Appointment so made, the said Ports, Members, and Creeks so appointed, shall be observed and used for Importation and Exportation, in the same Manner, and subject to and under such Orders and Regulations, and to the same Effect, as the like Ports, Creeks, and Members appointed in England for Exportation or Importation there, are or ought to be by the Laws of England.

XIX. And whereas by the aforesaid recited Article of the Treaty of Union it is provided, That the Court of Exchequer in Scotland have Power of passing Signatures, Gifts, Tutories, and in other Things as the Court of Exchequer in Scotland at the Time of the said Treaty had; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall have Power to receive Resignations in her Majesty's Name of all Baronies, Lands, Lordships, Tithes, Jurisdictions, Offices, and all other Rights which were in Use to be resigned and received in her Majesty's Name in the Exchequer, at the Time of the said Treaty; and that Signatures, Gifts, Tutories, and other Things which were presented, revised, and compounded, or which were passed or given by the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or Court of Exchequer there at the Time of the said Treaty, shall be given in, resigned, presented, revised, compounded, and expedited as formerly, with this Alteration only, That the Presenter of Signatures shall present the said Signatures, Gifts, Tutories, and other Things to the said Chief Baron and Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, who are hereby authorized and empowered to revise and compound the same, in the same Manner, and with the same Powers as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Treasury of Scotland might have done, and thereafter in a Court of Exchequer, to hear Parties concerned, and to pass all such Signatures, Gifts, Tutories, and other Things aforesaid, and especially to declare and appoint Fines, as the Court of Exchequer might have done at the Time of the said Treaty and such Signatures, Gifts, Tutories, and other Things aforesaid being passed in the Exchequer, shall be recorded by the proper Clerks, and thereafter be expedited at the proper Seals, as at the

the Time of the said Treaty by the Law and Practice of Scotland was required: Reserving nevertheless full Power to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, to receive Resignations immediately in her or their Royal Hands, and to grant all Signatures, Gifts, and other Things, in the same Manner as her Majesty could have done at the Time of the aforesaid Treaty.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Barristers at Law, Advocates or Counsellors, who may plead and practice before the Court of Exchequer in England, or before the Court of Session in Scotland, have and shall have Right and Privilege to plead and practice before the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

English Counsellors, &c. may plead in Exchequer Court in Scotland.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the two principal Clerks of Exchequer in Scotland, and other Officers in that Court, who have Grants of their Offices during Life, or of Inheritance, shall enjoy their Offices according to the Nature of their Gifts, except in so far as these Offices are inconsistent with the Constitution of Exchequer, as the same is settled by this Act: In which Case, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person having Right to any such Office, shall be provided in one or other of the Offices established by this Act, equal in Value to what they now enjoy, to hold for Life, or in Fee respectively, or have some other equivalent Recompence for the Loss of such Office.

How Offices for Life shall be enjoyed.

XXII. Provided always, That the Validity, or Invalidity and Preference of the Title of the Crown to any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to Casualties belonging to the Crown, shall continue to be tried and decided in the Court of Session as was used, and of Right ought to have been by the Law and Practice of Scotland, at the Time of the Union, and not otherwise; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Crown Title to Lands, &c. to be tried by Court of Session.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Officer, Minister, Clerk, or other Person employed in the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall ask, demand, receive, or take from any of her Majesty's Subjects, or from any other Person or Persons whatsoever, any greater or other Fee, Reward, Profit, Advantage, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, for or in Respect of any Business, Matter, or Thing transacted, dispatched, made, or done in the said Court of Exchequer, than such only as shall be settled and allowed by the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, or any three or more of them (whereof the Chief Baron to be one) under their Hands: Which Fees or Allowances shall be contained in a Table to be hung up in the most publick and visible Place of the said Court of Exchequer, and to which any of her Majesty's Subjects, or others may have Free Liberty to resort, and to have a View and perusal thereof, without Fee or Reward; and each of the Masters or Chief Officers in the Offices of Queen's Remembrancer, Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, Clerk of the Pipe, and Clerk of the Pleas, and Auditor shall take care, that a Table of the Fees and Allowances relating to their respective Offices and Places and Business therein transacted, and so allowed and signed, as aforesaid, shall be hung up in some publick and visible Place in their said respective Offices, to which any of her Majesty's Subjects, or others, may have free Liberty to resort, and to have a View and perusal thereof, without Fee or Reward; and if any Person or Persons shall offend in any the Premises, the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, upon Complaint thereof to them made in that Behalf, shall cause Right to be done to the Party complaining, and to punish the Offenders by Fine, Suspension, or Deprivation of Office, or as to them shall seem just and reasonable, and to recompence the Complainer with Costs in that Behalf.

Penalty on Offenders.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Number of the said Barons of her Majesty's said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall not at any Time exceed the Number of five.

Number of Barons not to exceed five.

WHEREAS by An Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for discharging small Livings from their First-fruits and Tenths, and all Arrears thereof, it is provided, That the said Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend to discharge any Benefices, with Cure of Souls, the Tenths whereof were granted away by any of her Majesty's Predecessors to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, in Perpetuity, before the third Day of November in the third Year of her Majesty's Reign; which Clause was intended only to save the Rights of such Persons who had Grants of Tenths from the Crown before the said third Day of November, and not otherwise: But so far as the First-fruits of the aforesaid Benefices with Cure of Souls, the Tenths whereof were so granted, as aforesaid, were notwithstanding the said Grants, reserved to the Crown, and are now granted by her Majesty to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen ANNE for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, and their Successors: And so far as the discharging of the First-fruits and Arrears thereof of small Livings, the Tenths of which are not vested in the said Governors, will be a present proper Augmentation of the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Ecclesiastical Benefices with Cure of Souls, not exceeding the clear yearly Value of fifty Pounds by the improved Valuation of the same, the Tenths whereof are not vested in the Corporation of the said Governors, and the Incumbents thereof for the Time being, and every of them, their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Sureties, shall be free and clearly discharged and acquitted for ever of and from the said First-fruits, and of and from all Arrears of the same; any Thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding: And the ascertaining of the clear improved yearly Valuations of the said Ecclesiastical Benefices with the Cure of Souls, hereby intended to be discharged from the Payment of First-fruits, shall be by the same Persons, and in the same Manner and Form, as for other Livings mentioned in the said Act.

II. Provided nevertheless, That the Certificates by the proper Ordinaries into her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, of the yearly Valuation of such Livings intended by this Act to be discharged from the Payment of First-fruits, may be made at any Time before the twenty-fourth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight; any thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And whereas by the said Act of Parliament made in the said fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, the Time limited for certifying into the Court of Exchequer the Valuation of such Livings intended by the said Act to be discharged from the Payment of First-fruits and Tenths, is found not sufficient with Respect to some Dioceses and Places; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Certificates which shall be made into the said Court of Exchequer, of the yearly Valuation of such Livings intended to be discharged from the Payment of First-fruits and Tenths by the said Act of Parliament, at any Time before the said twenty-fourth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, shall be as good and effectual for the Purposes by the said Act intended, as if the same were made and certified on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight; any thing in this or the said Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be taken and accepted in all Courts and Places whatsoever as a publick Act.

V. And whereas it has been usual for the Kings and Queens of England, by their Letters of Privy Seal, to allow the Archbishops and Bishops four Years Time for the Payment of their First-fruits to the Crown, by Way of Installment, which since her Majesty has been graciously pleased to give the First-fruits and Tenths for the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, cannot now be done: And whereas the First-fruits of Archbishopricks and Bishopricks amount to near the full annual Value thereof, and the other Charges of coming into Archbishopricks and Bishopricks are very great: And whereas Archbishops and Bishops have not the Profits of their Bishopricks from the Death of their Predecessors, as Rectors and Vicars have, but from the Time that such Bishopricks are conferred upon them: And whereas no Provision has been made for any Abatements of the First-fruits of Archbishops or Bishops, as there is for Rectors and Vicars, in Case of Death or Removal, within the Times allowed for the Payment of such First-fruits; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Archbishop and Bishop shall have four Years allowed him, when he or they shall compound for the same, for the Payment of his First-fruits, which shall commence from the Time of Restitution of his Temporalities; and that in every Year he shall Pay one fourth Part of the whole Sum: And if it shall please God he shall die, or be removed, before the full Term of four Years shall be expired, he, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, shall be discharged of so much as did not become due or payable at or before the Time or Times of his Death or Removal, in like Manner as the Heirs, Executors, and Administrators of Rectors and Vicars are authorized to do.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Deans, Archdeacons, Prebendaries, and other Dignitaries, shall compound for their respective First-fruits, in such Manner and Form as Rectors and Vicars have been accustomed to do; and in case of Death or Removal within the Time usually allowed to Rectors and Vicars for Payment of their said First-fruits, they the said Deans, Archdeacons, Prebendaries, and other Dignitaries, shall be in the like Condition, and have the same Benefit as is allowed to Rectors and Vicars by the Statute made in the first Year of the Reign of the late Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act for the Restitution of the First-fruits to the Crown.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the better ascertaining the Tythes of Hemp and Flax, was to continue from the five and twentieth Day of March which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament: And whereas the said Act hath by Experience been found to be very useful and necessary to this Kingdom; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be continued, and be in Force from the five and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act to repeal a Clause in an Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty (for amending and repairing the Highways) which enjoins Waggoners and others to draw with a Pole between the Wheel Horses, or with double Shafts, and to oblige them to draw only with six Horses or other Beasts, except up Hills.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the better amending and repairing the Highways, and Explanation of the Laws relating thereunto, it is enacted, That all Horses or Oxen drawing any travelling Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, wherein any Burdens, Goods, or Wares are or shall be carried or drawn for Hire, shall draw in Pairs with a Pole between the Wheel Horses, or in double Shafts, and the other Horses to draw in a Line with the Wheel Horse or Oxen, in the same Manner as they usually draw in Coaches, under the Penalty of forty Shillings for every Offence; Two third Parts thereof to be to the Use of the Highways, and the other third Part to the In- former: And whereas the aforesaid Manner of drawing with a Pole between the Wheel Horses, or in double Shafts, as by the said Act is directed, has by Experience been found altogether impracticable in many Parts this Kingdom, notwithstanding which many of her Majesty's poor Subjects, Waggoners, and Carriers, are perpetually harrassed by common Informers, and their Teams often seized for Payment of the Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned, to the Ruin of the said Waggoners and Carriers, and to the great Damage of the Owners of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes conveyed in such Waggon, Wains, and Carriages by the Delays in their Journies, occasioned by such common Informers: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act, as is herein before mentioned, shall be, and from henceforth shall stand absolutely repealed, and is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Seizures and Suits now depending in any of her Majesty's Courts at Law, or which shall at any Time hereafter be seized, brought, or prosecuted upon the said Clause in the said recited Act, under Pretence of any Seizure or Forfeiture, or Penalty incurred for Breach of the said Clause in the said Act, or for any Offence committed, or supposed to be committed against the same, shall be, and are hereby declared to be discharged, discontinued, and determined; and that all Seizures upon the said Clause in the said recited Act, made or to be made, are hereby declared to be discharged, released, null and void.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eight, no travelling Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, wherein any Burdens, Goods, or Wares shall be carried or drawn, other than such Carts and Carriages, as are or shall be employed in and about Husbandry and manuring of Land, and in the carrying of Hay, Straw, Corn, Coal, Chalk, Timber for Shipping, Materials for Building, Stones of all Sorts, or such Ammunition or Artillery as shall be for the Service of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall at any one Time travel, be drawn, or go in any common or publick Highway or Road with above six Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, upon Pain that every Owner of every such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Pounds; one Moiety whereof shall be to the Surveyors of the Highways of the Town, Village, Hamlet, or Place where any of the said Offences shall be committed, to be employed in the Repairs of the said Highways, and the other Moiety thereof to him that shall discover and prosecute for any of the said Offences (provided such Discoverer or Prosecutor be an Inhabitant of such Town, Village, or Place) the said Penalty to be levied by Distress of all or any of the said Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one Justice of the Peace; and in case the said Penalties be not paid within three Days after, that then it shall be lawful to and for the said Person and Persons so distraining as aforesaid, to sell the same, and to restore the Overplus to the Owner, the Charges of keeping and selling being first deducted; and if any such Surveyor shall wilfully suffer any such Waggon, Wain, or Carriage to be drawn with more than six Horses, and shall neglect to put this or any former Laws made for repairing the Highways in Execution, shall forfeit five Pounds, to be divided and recovered as aforesaid.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to restrain or hinder any Owner or Owners of such travelling Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, or his or their Servants, using or drawing with as many Horses or Beasts as shall be necessary for the drawing such Waggon, Wains, Carts, or Carriages up any Hills, as the Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, and Places, where such Hills lie, shall at their Quarter-Sessions, from Time to Time, order and direct, which said Order and Direction shall be carefully kept by the respective Clerks of the Peace, amongst the Records of the Sessions, to which all Persons, at reasonable Times, shall have Recourse, without Fee or Reward, without incurring any Forfeitures or Penalties herein before mentioned; any thing in this, or any other Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for ascertaining the Rates of foreign Coins in her Majesty's Plantations in America.

WHEREAS for remedying the Inconveniencies which had arisen from the different Rates at which the same Species of foreign Silver Coins did pass in her Majesty's several Colonies and Plantations in America, her most Excellent Majesty has thought fit by her Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the eighteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and four, and in the third Year of her Reign, to settle and ascertain the Currency of foreign Coins in her said Colonies and Plantations, in the Manner and Words following.

Proclamation for ascertaining the Currency of foreign Coins in America.

WE having had under our Consideration the different Rates at which the same Species of foreign Coins do pass in our several Colonies and Plantations in America, and the Inconveniencies thereof, by the indirect Practice of drawing the Money from one Plantation to another, to the great Prejudice of the Trade of our Subjects; and being sensible that the same cannot be otherwise remedied, than by reducing of all foreign Coins to the same current Rate within all our Dominions in America; and the principal Officers of our Mint having laid before us a Table of the Value of the several foreign Coins which usually pass in Payments in our said Plantations, according to their Weight, and the Assays made of them in our Mint, thereby shewing the just Proportion which each Coin ought to have to the other, which is as followeth, viz. Sevil Pieces of eight, old Plate, seventeen Penny-weight twelve Grains, four Shillings and six Pence; Sevil Pieces of eight, new Plate, fourteen Penny-weight, three Shillings seven Pence one Farthing; Mexico Pieces of eight, seventeen Penny-weight twelve Grains, four Shillings and six Pence; Pillar Pieces of eight, seventeen Penny-weight twelve Grains, four Shillings and six Pence three Farthings; Peru Pieces of eight, old Plate, seventeen Penny-weight twelve Grains, four Shillings and five Pence or thereabouts; Crofs Dollars, eighteen Penny-weight, four Shillings and four Pence three Farthings; Ducatoons of Flanders, twenty Penny-weight and twenty-one Grains, five Shillings and six Pence; Ecu's of France, or Silver Lewis, seventeen Penny-weight twelve Grains, four Shillings and six Pence; Crusadoes of Portugal, eleven Penny-weight four Grains, two Shillings and ten Pence one Farthing; three Gilder Pieces of Holland, twenty Penny-weight and seven Grains, five Shillings and two Pence one Farthing; old Rix Dollars of the Empire, eighteen Penny-weight and ten Grains, four Shillings and six Pence; the Halfs, Quarters, and other Parts in Proportion to their Denominations, and light Pieces in Proportion to their Weight: We have therefore thought fit for remedying the said Inconveniencies, by the Advice of our Council, to publish and declare, That from and after the first Day of January next ensuing the Date hereof, no Sevil, Pillar, or Mexico Pieces of eight, though of the full Weight of seventeen Penny-weight and an Half, shall be accounted, received, taken, or paid within any of our said Colonies or Plantations, as well those under Proprietors and Charters, as under our immediate Commission and Government, at above the Rate of six Shillings per Piece current Money, for the Discharge of any Contracts or Bargains to be made after the said first Day of January next, the Halfs, Quarters, and other lesser Pieces of the same Coins to be accounted, received, taken, or paid in the same Proportion; and the Currency of all Pieces of eight of Peru, Dollars, and other foreign Species of Silver Coins, whether of the same or baser Alloy, shall, after the said first Day of January next, stand regulated, according to their Weight and Fineness, according and in Proportion to the Rate before limited and set for the Pieces of eight of Sevil, Pillar, and Mexico; so that no foreign Silver Coin of any Sort be permitted to exceed the same Proportion upon any Account whatsoever; and we do hereby require and command all our Governors, Lieutenant Governors, Magistrates, Officers, and all other our good Subjects, within our said Colonies and Plantations, to observe and obey our Directions herein, as they tender our Displeasure.

II. And whereas notwithstanding the said Proclamation, the same indirect Practices as are therein mentioned, are still carried on within some of the said Colonies or Plantations, and the Money thereby drawn from one Plantation to another, in Prejudice of the Trade of her Majesty's Subjects; Wherefore for the better enforcing the due Execution of her Majesty's said Proclamation throughout all the said Colonies and Plantations, and for the more effectual remedying the said Inconveniencies thereby intended to be remedied, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, as well those under Proprietors and Charters, as under her Majesty's immediate Commission and Government shall after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, for the Discharge of any Contracts or Bargains to be thereafter made, account, receive, take, or pay any of the several Species of foreign Silver Coins mentioned in the before recited Proclamation, at any greater or higher Rate than at which the same is thereby regulated, settled, and allowed, to be accounted, received, taken, or paid, every such Person so accounting, receiving, taking, or paying the same contrary to the Directions therein contained, shall suffer six Months Imprisonment, without Bail or Mainprize; any Law, Custom, or Usage in any of the said Colonies or Plantations to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding; and shall likewise forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds for every such Offence; one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information,

For enforcing the due Execution of Proclamation,

Persons after 1 May 1709, paying or receiving any foreign Silver Coins at a higher Rate than is regulated, To suffer 6 Months Imprisonment, and forfeit 10l.

in any of her Majesty's Courts of Justice within any of the said Plantations, or in any of the Courts of Justice of the Charter or Proprietary Governments where such Offence shall be committed.

III. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in the before recited Proclamation or in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to compel any Person to receive any of the said Species of foreign Silver Coins, at the respective Rates in the said Proclamation mentioned. Proviso.

IV. Provided also, and it is hereby further declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to restrain her Majesty from regulating and settling the several Rates of the said Species of foreign Silver Coins within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, in such other Manner, and according to such other Rates and Proportions, as her Majesty by her Royal Proclamation for that Purpose to be issued, shall from Time to Time judge proper and necessary, or from giving her Royal Assent to any Law hereafter to be made in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, for settling and ascertaining the current Rates of such Coins within the said Colonies or Plantations; but that such further Regulations may be made, and such Assent given, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as the same might have been done in case this Act had not been made, and no otherwise; any thing herein before contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. Queen may regulate the several Species hereafter, in such other Manner as she shall judge necessary. Concerning Plantations, see farther 8 Ann. c. 13. 9 Ann. c. 17 & 27. 10 Ann. c. 22 &

On breaking out of any Fire, &c. all Constables and Beadles to aid and assist the Inhabitants, &c.

No Action to be prosecuted against any Person in whole House, &c. any Fire accidentally begins, &c.

‘ II. And whereas the several Insurance Offices for insuring Houses against Loss by Fire, retain in their several Services, and give Coats and Badges unto Watermen for Service and Assistance in extinguishing of Fires, who are always ready at a Call, and are provided with various Sorts of Poles, Hooks, Hatchets, and several other Instruments and Things at the Charge of the said respective Insurance Offices, for the extinguishing of Fires; which Watermen by Custom and Skill venture much further, and give greater Help than any other Persons not used to come into Danger: And whereas it hath been found by frequent Experience, that such Watermen are of great Use and Service whenever any Fire happens;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Watermen for the time being, belonging to each Insurance Office, within the Cities of London and Westminster, and Limits thereof, not exceeding thirty for each Office, shall be free from being impressed, or liable to be compelled to go to Sea, or serve as Marines or as Soldiers at Land, their Names and Places of Abode being registred and entred with the Secretary or other Officer of the Admiralty Office.

‘ III. And whereas Fires often happen by the Negligence and Carelessness of Servants,’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any menial or other Servant or Servants, through Negligence or Carelessness, shall fire or cause to be fired any Dwelling-house, or Out-house or Houses, such Servant or Servants being thereof lawfully convicted by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses made before two or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds unto the Churchwardens of such Parish where such Fire shall happen, to be distributed amongst the Sufferers by such Fire, in such Proportions as to the said Churchwardens shall seem just; and in case of Default or Refusal to pay the same immediately after such Conviction, the same being lawfully demanded by the said Churchwardens, that then and in such Case such Servant or Servants shall, by Warrant under the Hand of two or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, be committed to some Workhouse, or House of Correction, as the said Justices shall think fit, for the Space of eighteen Months, there to be kept to hard Labour.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, all and every House and Houses that shall be erected and built either upon old or new Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or other Parishes or Places comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, shall have Party Walls between House and House, wholly of Brick or Stone, and of two Bricks thick at the least, in the Cellar and Ground Stories, and thirteen Inches thick upwards from the Foundation quite through all the Stories of each House, and eighteen Inches above the Roof; and that no Mundillion or Cornish of Timber or Wood under the Eaves shall hereafter be made or suffered in any such new House or Houses, but that all Front and Rear Walls of every House and Houses shall be built of Brick or Stone, to be carried two Foot and an half high above the Garret Floor, and coped with Stone or Brick; and if any new House or Houses shall, from and after the said first Day of May, be erected and built within the Places aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that then the Owner of every such House, and Head Builder or Workmen, who undertake such Building or Work, shall each of them forfeit, lose, and pay for every such Default the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be equally divided, one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish wherein such Building shall be erected; and to be levied by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace within the Place where such Building shall be so erected, or where such Workmen shall inhabit, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, upon due Conviction upon Oath, or upon the View of one or more of such Justices of the Peace, rendering the Overplus to the Owners, if any be; and for Want of such Distress the Offender shall be imprisoned by Warrant from the said two Justices, who are hereby impowered and required to issue such Warrant, until Payment as aforesaid; and the Share of such Forfeitures appointed to go to the Poor, as aforesaid, to be paid into the Hands of the Churchwardens of such respective Parish where such Offence shall be committed, who are to give a Receipt for the same, and to be charged therewith, and accountable for the same, in like Manner as for other Monies which they shall receive for the Use of such Parish.

V. And be it further enacted, That upon the breaking out of any Fire within London or Westminster, all Constables and Beadles, (upon Notice thereof) shall immediately repair to the Place where the said Fire shall happen, with their Staves, and other Badges of their Authority, and be aiding and assisting, as well in the extinguishing the said Fires, and causing People to work at the Engines, as also in preventing Goods being stolen; and shall seize and apprehend all ill-disposed Persons that they shall find stealing or pilfering from the Inhabitants; as also that the said Constables and Beadles shall give their utmost Assistance to help the Inhabitants to remove their said Goods.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Action, Suit, or Process whatsoever, shall be had, maintained, or prosecuted against any Person in whose House or Chamber any Fire shall, from and after the said first Day of May, accidentally begin, or any Recompence be made by such Person for any Damage suffered or occasioned thereby; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

withstanding: And if any Action shall be brought for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence, and in case the Plaintiff become nonsuit, or discontinue his Action or Suit, or if a Verdict pass against him, the Defendant shall recover treble Costs.

VII. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend to defeat or make void any Contract or Agreement made between Landlord and Tenant.

VIII. Provided always nevertheless, That so much of this Act as relates to the Indemnity of any Person in whose House or Chamber any Fire shall accidentally begin, shall continue for the Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

An Act for the publick registering of all Deeds, Conveyances, Wills, and other Incumbrances that shall be made of, or that may affect any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the East Riding of the County of York, or the Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eight; and for the rendring the Register in the West Riding more complete.

Conveyances and Wills whereby Lands, &c. in the East Riding of Yorkshire or Hull may be affected, to be registered.
Deed not so registered void.
Blades v. Blades, Ab. Cal. Equ. 358.
Wrightson v. Hanson 13 Feb. 1737. at the Rolls.
Method established for registering such Memorials.

I. WHEREAS the Lands in the East Riding of the County of York, and in the Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, are generally Freehold, which may be so secretly transferred or conveyed from one Person to another, that such as are ill disposed have it in their Power to commit Frauds, and frequently do so, by Means whereof several Persons (who through many Years Industry in their Trades and Employments and by great Frugality have been enabled to purchase Lands, or to lend Monies on Land Security) have been undone in their Purchases and Mortgages, by prior and secret Conveyances, and fraudulent Incumbrances, and not only themselves but their whole Families thereby utterly ruined: For Remedy whereof, may it please your most Excellent Majesty (at the humble Request of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the said East Riding, and of the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a Memorial of all Deeds and Conveyances which from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, shall be made and executed, and of all Wills and Devises in Writing made, or to be made and published, where the Devisor or Testatrix shall die after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, of or concerning, and whereby any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the said East Riding, or in the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, may be any way affected in Law or Equity, may be registred in such Manner as is herein after directed; and that every such Deed or Conveyance that shall, at any Time after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, be made and executed, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent Purchaser or Mortgagee for valuable Consideration, unless such Memorial thereof be registred, as by this Act is directed, before the registering of the Memorial of the Deed or Conveyance, under which such subsequent Purchaser or Mortgagee shall claim; and that every such Devise by Will shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent Purchaser or Mortgagee for valuable Consideration, unless a Memorial of such Will be registred in such Manner as is herein after directed.

II. And for settling and establishing a certain Method, with proper Rules and Directions for registering such Memorials as aforesaid, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one publick Office for registering such Memorials of and concerning any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, that are situate, lying, and being within the said East Riding, or the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, shall (at the publick Charge of the said East Riding, to be raised by the Justices of the Peace thereof at their General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, in such Manner as they are empowered to raise Money for the Repairs of Publick or County Bridges) be erected and established at Beverley, the nearest nearest Market Town to the Center or Middle of the said East Riding, to be managed and executed by a fit and able Person, to be from time to time elected and appointed in Manner herein after directed, or his sufficient Deputy, and to continue in the said Office for so long Time as he shall well demean himself therein.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Elections of a Register to be made or appointed by virtue of this Act, shall be performed by balloting, in Manner following; that is to say, All the Freeholders that at the Time of any such Election have an Estate of Freehold of or in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within the said East Riding, and the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, or in either of them, of the yearly Value of one hundred Pounds, to be determined by the Oath of the Elector, before the Scrutators herein after mentioned, if any Doubt arise touching the same (which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer) shall be electors of the said Register; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said East Riding, in that Behalf assembled, or the major Part of them, or any five of such Justices to be appointed by such major Part, shall be Scrutators of the Ballot, who shall meet on the Day and Place of Election, and there in the Presence of the Electors, shall place one or more Glafs Vessels to be provided for that Purpose, into which each elector present shall put one open Paper, containing the Name of such Person as he approves of to be Register; which Papers shall be taken out again in the Presence of the said Scrutators, by a Person by them in that Behalf appointed; and the Name or Names of every Person therein shall be once transcribed in Distinct Columns, and under each Name shall be set down the Number of their Electors, which shall be deliberately cast up by the said Scrutators, and the same shall be read over in the Hearing, and fixt up in the View of the Electors then present, and the Person upon whom the Majority shall fall, shall be declared Register.

Register to be elected by balloting.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Election of a Person to be the first Register shall be made at Beverley aforesaid, upon the thirteenth Day of July in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, in open Court, between the Hours of nine in the Morning and three in the Afternoon.

Time of Election.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and as often as the said Office shall become vacant by the Death, Forfeiture, or Surrender of any such Register, the Justices of the Peace for the said East Riding assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, next after such Vacancy shall happen, or the major Part of them, shall in open Court declare the said Vacancy, and by Order of the same Sessions shall appoint and prefix a certain Day and Time within the Space of one Calendar Month, and above three Weeks ensuing the End of such General Quarter-Sessions, for the Electors to assemble at Beverley aforesaid, to chool a fit and able Person in the Manner aforesaid, to supply the said Vacancy; and to the Intent that all Persons qualified to be Electors may have due Notice of such Vacancy and Time of Election of a succeeding Register, the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being for the said East Riding, shall forthwith cause Copies of such Order, for the prefixing the Time of such Election, to be delivered to the respective Chief Constables of the several Wapentakes within the said East Riding, who shall and are hereby required to publish the same in full Market in every Market Town within their respective Wapentakes, on the next Market Day after the Receipt thereof, and to affix the same in the most publick Place of Resort there.

On Death of Register a new one to be elected.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every such Register before he enter upon the Execution of the said Office, shall be sworn before the Justices of the Peace for the said Riding, or any three or more of them that shall be present at his Election (who are hereby impowered and required to administer such Oath) in these Words:

Who shall be sworn.

‘ YOU shall duly and faithfully perform and execute the Office and Duty that is directed and required by you to be done by Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the publick registering of all Deeds, Conveyances, Wills, and other Incumbrances that shall be made of, or that may affect any Honors, Mansors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the East Riding of the County of York, or the Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eight; and that you have not given or promised directly or indirectly, nor authorized any Person to give or promise any Money, Gratuity or Reward whatsoever, for procuring or obtaining the said Office for you.

tered on Affidavit.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Memorial of such Deeds, Conveyances and Wills as shall be made and executed, or published in London, or in any other Place not within forty Miles of the said East Riding, which do or may concern or affect any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the said East Riding, or the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, shall be entred or registred by the aforesaid Register or his Deputy, in case an Affidavit sworn before one of the Judges at Westminster, or a Master in Chancery, ordinary or extraordinary, be brought with the said Memorial to the said Register, or his Deputy, wherein one of the Witnesses to the Execution of such Deeds and Conveyances shall swear, he or she saw the same executed, and the Memorial signed and sealed, as aforesaid, or wherein one of the Witnesses to the Memorial of any Will shall swear, he or she saw such Memorial signed and sealed, as aforesaid; and the same shall be a sufficient Authority to the said Register or his Deputy, to give the Party that brings such Memorial and Affidavit, a Certificate of the registering such Memorial; which Certificate signed by the said Register or his Deputy, shall be taken and allowed as Evidence of the Registries of the same Memorials in all Courts of Record whatsoever; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof contained in any wise notwithstanding.

In case of more Writings than one, which concern the same
Lands, &c.
Memorial sufficient, if Lands, &c. are only once named therein.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where there are more Writings than one for making and perfecting any Conveyance or Security, which do name, mention, or any Ways affect or concern the same Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, it shall be a sufficient Memorial and Register thereof, if all the said Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the Parishes, Townships, Hamlets, or extraparochial Places, wherein the same lie, be only once named or mentioned in the Memorial, Register, and Certificate of any one of the Deeds or Writings made for the perfecting of such Conveyance or Security, and that the Dates of the rest of the said Deeds or Writings relating to the said Conveyance or Security, with the Names and Additions of the Parties and Witnesses, and the Places of their Abodes, be only set down in the Memorials, Registers, and Certificates of the same, with a Reference to the Deed or Writing whereof the Memorial is so registred, that contains or expresses the Parcels mentioned in all the said Deeds, and Directions how to find the registering the same.

XIV. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That all Memorials of Wills that shall be registred in Manner as aforesaid, within the Space of six Months after the Death of every respective Devisor or Testatrix dying within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within the Space of three Years after the Death of every respective Devisor or Testatrix dying upon or in any Parts beyond the Seas, shall be as valid and effectual against subsequent Purchasers, as if the same had been registred immediately after the Death of such respective Devisor or Testatrix; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XV. Provided always, That in Case the Devisee, or Person or Persons interested in the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, devised by any such Will, as aforesaid, by reason of the contesting such Will, or other inevitable Difficulty, without his, her, or their wilful Neglect or Default, shall be disabled to exhibit a Memorial for the Registry thereof, within the respective Times herein before limited, and that a Memorial shall be entred in the said Office of such Contest or other Impediment, within the Space of six Months after the Decease of such Devisor or Testatrix, who shall die within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within the Space of three Years next after the Decease of such Person who shall die upon or beyond the Seas, then and in such Case the Registry of the Memorial of such Will, within the Space of six Months next after his, her or their Attainment of such Will, or a Probate thereof, or Removal of the Impediment, whereby he, she, or they are disabled or hindred to exhibit such Memorial, shall be a sufficient Registry within the Meaning of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XVI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, For Inrollments of Bargains and Sales, it is enacted, That no Manors, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, shall pass, alter, or change from one to another, whereby any Estate of Inheritance or Freehold shall be made or take Effect, in any Person or Persons, or any Use thereof to be made, by Reason only of any Bargain and Sale thereof, except the said Bargain and Sale be made by Writing indented, sealed, and enrolled in one of the King's Courts of Record at Westminster, or else within the same County or Counties where the same Manors, Lands Tenements, or Hereditaments so bargained and sold, lye or be before the Custos Rotulorum, and two Justices of the Peace, and the Clerk of the Peace of the said County or Counties, or two of them at the least, whereof the Clerk of the Peace to be one; which Act hath been found by Experience to be of little or no use within the said East Riding, or the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, for that the Clerks of the Peace thereof respectively for the Time being, who have the keeping of the said Inrollments within the said respective Places, are not by the said Act enjoined to give any Security for the safe keeping, nor under any Penalty for the negligent keeping of the said Inrollments, nor is there by the said Act any certain Place appointed for keeping thereof; and whereas by this present Act a publick Office is intended to be erected and established at Beverly aforesaid, at the publick Charge of the said East Riding, for registering and safe keeping Memorials of all Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, as aforesaid, and a publick Register to be chosen, who, according to the Directions herein after mentioned, is to give sufficient Security for the due Execution of the said Office: For rendring therefore the said Act made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth more effectual and beneficial to the Inhabitants of the said East Riding, and of the Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, all Bargains and Sales of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, situate, lying and being within the said East Riding, or the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, which shall be inrolled by the said Register, or his Deputy for the Time being, in the said publick Office at Beverly, shall be as good, effectual, and available, to all Intents and Purposes, whatsoever, as if the same had been inrolled in one of the Queen's Courts of Record at Westminster, or before the Custos Rotulorum and two Justices of the Peace and the Clerk of the Peace of the said East Riding, or of the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, or two of them, according to the aforesaid Act made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, or any other Act now in Force: And one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the said East Riding for the Time being shall have Power to take and enter the Acknowledgment of the Bargainor, if but one, or of one of the Bargainors if more, in such Bargains and Sales; and the said Register, or his Deputy for the Time being, shall well and sufficiently inroll, by ingrossing in Parchment Books, all such Bargains and Sales as shall for that Purpose be acknowledged as aforesaid, and shall indorse a Certificate on such Bargains and Sales of the Times of inrolling thereof, and sign the same, and the Books thereof shall safely keep in the said publick Office, there to remain upon Record amongst the Memorials of Deeds there registred.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Deeds of Bargain and Sale so inrolled in the said publick or Register Office, as aforesaid, which shall appear to be so inrolled by an Indorsement or Certificate on the said Deeds of Bargain and Sale, signed by the said Register, or his Deputy, and that all Copies of the Inrollments thereof remaining on Record in the said Register Office, shall be allowed in all Courts where such Bargains and Sales, or Copies shall be produced, to be as good and sufficient Evidence as any Bargains and Sales inrolled in any of the Courts at Westminster, and the Copies of the Inrollments thereof.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Inrollment of every such Deed in the said Register Office, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged to be the entering a Memorial thereof pursuant to this Act, and shall have the same Force and Effect upon the Estate therein mentioned, in relation to all subsequent Deeds, Conveyances and Wills, and to all other Intents and Purposes, as if a Memorial of such inrolled Deed had been entred in the said Register Office, as aforesaid, pursuant to this Act.

No Judgment, Statute, &c. after 29 Sept. 1708. shall affect any Lands, &c. in East Riding, or Hull, but only from the Time that a Memorial thereof be entered, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance (other than such as shall be entered into in the Name and upon the proper Account of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors) which shall be obtained, or entered into after the said nine and twentieth Day of September in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, shall affect or bind any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situate, lying, and being in the said East Riding, or in the said Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, but only from the Time that a Memorial of such Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance shall be entered at the said Register Office, expressing and containing, in case of such Judgment, the Names of the Plaintiffs, and the Names and Additions therein of the Defendants, the Sums thereby recovered, and the Time of the signing thereof; and in case of Statutes and Recognizances, expressing and containing the Date of such Statute or Recognizance, the Names and Additions of the Cognizors and Cognizees therein, and for what Sums, and before whom the same were acknowledged; and that in order to the making an Entry of such Memorials of Judgments, Statutes, and Recognizances as aforesaid, the Party and Parties desiring the same, shall produce to, and leave with the said Register, or his Deputy, to be filed in the said Publick or Register Office, a Memorial of such Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance, signed by the proper Officer, or his Deputy who shall sign such Judgment, or his Successor in the same Office, or by the proper Officer in whose Office such Statute or Recognizance shall be inrolled, together with an Affidavit, sworn before one of the Judges at Westminster, or a Master in Chancery, That such Memorial was duly signed by the Officer, whose Name shall appear to be thereunto set, which Memorial such respective Officer is hereby required to give such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Cognizee or Cognizees, or his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, or Attorney, or any of them; he, she, or they paying for the same the Sum of one Shilling and no more.

Register to enter every such Memorial, and give a Certificate, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the said Register or his Deputy shall make an Entry, and likewise (if required) shall give a Certificate in Writing, under his Hand, testified by two credible Witnesses, of every such Memorial of any Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance brought to him to be so registered as aforesaid, and therein mention the certain Day on which such Memorial is so registered or entered, expressing also in what Book, Page, and Number the same is entered.

Fees for Entries of Memorials.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every such Register shall be allowed for the Entry of every such Memorial, as is by this Act directed, the Sum of one Shilling and no more, in case the same do not exceed two hundred Words; but if such Memorial shall exceed two hundred Words, then after the Rate and Proportion of six Pence an hundred for all the Words contained in such Memorial, over and above the first two hundred Words; and the like Fees for the like Number of Words contained in every such Bargain and Sale as aforesaid, and in every Certificate or Copy given out of the said Office, and no more; and for every Search in the said Office one Shilling and no more.

Times of Attendance at the Office.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Register, or his sufficient Deputy, shall give due Attendance at his Office every Day in the Week (except Sundays and Holydays) between the Hours of nine and twelve in the Forenoon, and the Hours of two and five in the Afternoon, for the Dispatch of all Business belonging to the said Office, and that every such Register, or his Deputy, as often as required, shall make Searches, concerning all Memorials that are registered as aforesaid, and give Certificates concerning the same under his Hand (if required by any Person) testified by two credible Witnesses.

Register to enter into a Recognizance of 2000l. for the true Execution of his Office.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Register at the Time of his being sworn into the said Office as aforesaid, shall enter into a Recognizance, with two or more sufficient Sureties (to be approved of by five or more of the Justices of the Peace of the said Riding, that were present at his Election, by Writing under their Hands and Seals to be registered at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the said Riding) of the Penalty of two thousand Pounds unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, to be taken by the same Justices of the Peace that approved of his Security, conditioned for his true and faithful Performance of his Duty in the Execution of his said Office, in all Things directed and required by this Act; the same to be transmitted by the same Justices of the Peace, within one Month next after the Date thereof, into the Office of her Majesty's Remembrancer of the Exchequer, there to remain amongst the Records of the said Court.

Penalty in case of Neglect of Duty.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Register, or his Deputy, shall neglect to perform his or their Duty in the Execution of the said Office, according to the Rules and Directions in this Act mentioned, or commit or suffer to be committed any undue or fraudulent Practice in the Execution of the said Office, and be thereof lawfully convicted, then such Register shall forfeit his said Office, and pay treble Damages with full Costs of Suit to every such Person or Persons as shall be injured thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlane.

On Death or Surrender, if no Misbehaviour appear, Recognizance to be void.

XXV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Register shall die or surrender his Office, and that within the Space of three Years from and after such Death or Surrender no Misbehaviour appear to have been committed by such Register in the Execution of his said Office, then and in such Case, at the End of the said three Years after his Death or Surrender, the said Recognizance so entered into by him shall become void and of none Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Penalty on forging or counterfeiting Entry.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Entry of the Acknowledgment of any Bargain or in any such Bargain and Sale as aforesaid, or any such Memorial, Certificate, or Indorsement, as is herein mentioned or directed, and be thereof lawfully con-convicted, such Person or Persons shall incur and be liable to such Pains and Penalties, as in and by an Act made in the fifth Year of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act against Forgers of false Deeds and Writings, are imposed upon Persons for forging and publishing of false Deeds, Charters, or Writings sealed, Court Rolls or Wills, whereby the Freehold or Inheritance of any Person or Persons of, in, or to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall or may be molested, troubled, or charged; and that if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forswear himself before the said Register, or his Deputy, or before any Judge or Master in Chancery, in any of the Cases herein mentioned, and be thereof lawfully convicted, such Person or Persons shall incur, and be liable to the same Penalties, as if the same Oath had been made in any of the Courts of Record at Westminster.

And on Persons forswearing themselves.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of Mortgages, Judgments, Statutes, and Recognizances, whereof Memorials shall be entred in the said Register Office, pursuant to this Act, if at any Time afterwards a Certificate shall be brought to the said Register, or his Deputy, signed by the respective Mortgagors and Mortgagees in such Mortgage, Plaintiffs and Defendants in such Judgment, Cognizors and Cognizees in such Statute or Recognizance, their respective Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and attested by two Witnesses, whereby it shall appear that all Monies due upon such Mortgage, Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance respectively, have been paid or satisfied in Discharge thereof, which Witnesses shall, upon their Oath before the said Register, or his Deputy (who are hereby respectively empowered to administer such Oath) prove such Monies to be satisfied or paid accordingly, and that they saw such Certificate signed by the said Mortgagors and Mortgagees, Plaintiffs and Defendants, Cognizors and Cognizees respectively, their respective Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, that then and in every such Case, the said Register, or his Deputy, shall make an Entry in the Margents of the said Register Books against the Registry of the Memorial of such Mortgage, Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance respectively, that such Mortgage, Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance respectively was satisfied and discharged according to such Certificate, to which the same Entry shall refer; and shall after file such Certificate to remain upon Record in the said Register Office.

Mortgages, Judgments, &c. whereof Memorials are entred, and afterwards Monies due thereupon paid, Register shall make an Entry in the Margin that such Mortgage, &c. is discharged.

XXVIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That if any Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance be registred in the said Register Office, within thirty Days after the Acknowledgment or Signing thereof, all the Lands that the Defendants or Cognizors had at the Time of such Acknowledgment or Signing, shall be bound thereby.

Provido if Judgment, &c. be registred within 30 Days after signing.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend to any Copyhold Estates, or to any Leases at a Rack Rent, or to any Lease not exceeding one and twenty Years, where the actual Possession and Occupation goeth along with the Lease; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Not to extend to Copyhold Estates, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Deeds of Bargain and Sale hereafter inrolled in pursuance of this Act, whereby any Estate of Inheritance in Fee-simple is limited to the Bargainee and his Heirs, the Words Grant, Bargain, and Sell, shall amount to, and be construed and adjudged in all Courts of Judicature, to be express Covenants to the Bargainee, his Heirs and Assigns, from the Bargainor for himself, his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, that the Bargainor notwithstanding any Act done by him, was at the Time of the Execution of such Deed seized of the Hereditaments and Premises thereby granted, bargained and sold, of an indefeasible Estate in Fee-simple, free from all Incumbrances (Rents and Services due to the Lord of the Fee only excepted) and for quiet Enjoyment thereof against the Bargainor, his Heirs and Assigns, and all claiming under him, and also for further Assurance thereof to be made by the Bargainor, his Heirs and Assigns, and all claiming under him; unless the same shall be restrained and limited by express particular Words contained in such Deed; and that the Bargainee, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, shall and may, in any Action to be brought, assign a Breach or Breaches thereupon, as they might do in case such Covenants were expressly inserted in such Bargain and Sale.

How Deeds of Bargain and Sale of Fee-simple Estates shall be construed and adjudged.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Leaf of the aforesaid Register Books and Inrolment Books shall be signed by two Justices of the Peace of the said Riding (to be from Time to Time appointed by the Justices of the Peace thereof, or the major Part of them, at their General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace assembled) who are hereby required to sign the same accordingly; and that an Entry thereof shall be made from Time to Time by the Clerk of the Peace of the said Riding for the Time being, in the Order Book of the said Sessions, and signed by the same Justices of the Peace that shall from Time to Time sign the said Register Books and Inrolment Books, to remain upon Record amongst the Records of the said Sessions; and that a like Entry shall be made upon Record, and signed as aforesaid, of the Number of the same Books, and how called or marked, and how many Pages each of them contains, that are at any Time, and from Time to Time, used in the said Register Office.

Every Leaf of the Register Books to be signed by two Justices.

XXXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Member of Parliament for the Time being shall be capable of being chose Register, or of executing by himself or any other Person, the said Office, or have, take, or receive any Fee or other Profit whatsoever, for or in Respect thereof; nor shall any Register, or his Deputy for the Time being, be capable of being chosen a Member to serve in Parliament.

No Member of Parliament to be Register.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be taken and allowed in all Courts within this Kingdom as a publick Act, and all Judges, Justices, and other Persons therein concerned, are hereby required as such to take Notice thereof, without special pleading the same.

Act to be a publick Act.

XXXIV. And whereas an Act of Parliament made in the second Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the publick registering of all Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills that shall be made of any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the West Riding of the County of York, after the

An Act for raising the Militia of this Kingdom, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and eight, although the Month's Pay formerly advanced be not repaid.

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America.

For Advancement of the Trade to America.

All Prize Offices in America suppressed.

Officers and Seamen, &c. to have the sole Property in all prize Ships, &c.

Encouragement for the Encrease of private Ships of War.

FOR Advancement of the Trade of her Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, to and in the several Parts of America, for the further Encouragement of her Majesty's Ships, and private Ships of War, the annoying and diminishing the Wealth and Power of her Majesty's Enemies in those Parts, and for the Encrease of Shipping and of Seamen for these and other Services; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Prize Offices in any Port or Place in America be and are hereby suppressed and taken away, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eight.

II. And for the better Encouragement also of such Ships and Vessels of War, which are or shall be in her Majesty's Pay or Service, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers and Seamen of every such Ship or Vessel of War, shall have the sole Interest and Property of and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandize they shall take in any Part of America (being first adjudged lawful Prize in any of her Majesty's Courts of Admiralty, and subject to the Customs and Duties payable to her Majesty, as if the same had been first imported to any Part of Great Britain, and from thence exported, for and in Respect of all such Goods and Merchandize) to be divided in such Proportions, and after such Manner, as her Majesty, heir Heirs and Successors shall think fit to order and direct.

III. And for the Encouragement and Encrease of private Ships of War, be it further enacted, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, or any Person or Persons in any Part of America, by him or them empowered and appointed, shall (at any Time during the present War, at the Request of any British Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, giving such Bail and Security as has been usually taken upon granting Commissions, or Letters of Marque, except only for the Payment of the Tenths of the Value of the Prizes which shall be taken, to the Lord High Admiral) cause to be issued forth (in the usual Manner) one or more Commission or Commissions to any Person or Persons whom such Owner or Owners shall nominate to be Commander (or in case of Death successively Commanders) of such Ship or Vessel, for the attacking, surprizing, seizing, and taking, by and with such Ship or Vessel, any Ship or Vessel, Goods, Ammunition, Arms, Stores of War, or Merchandizes belonging to, or possessed by any of her Majesty's Enemies, in any Sea, Creek, Haven, or River in America, not being within the Space of one hundred Leagues of any Part of Asia or Africa, whereof that Trade is already granted to the East India Company; and that such Ship or Ships, Vessel and Vessels, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods and Merchandizes whatsoever, with all their Furniture, Tackle, or Apparel so to be taken by or with such private Owner or Owners, Ship or Vessel, according to such Commission and Commissions, being first adjudged lawful Prize in any of her Majesty's Courts of Admiralty in or for any of her Colonies or Plantations in America, shall (subject to the Customs and Duties payable to her Majesty as aforesaid for and in Respect of such Goods and Merchandizes) wholly and intirely belong to, and be divided between and and among the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and the several Persons which shall be on board the same, and be aiding and assisting to the taking thereof, in such Shares and Proportions as shall be agreed on with the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel as shall be the Captor thereof, their Agents or Factors, as the proper Goods and Chattels of such Owner or Owners, and the Persons that shall be thus intitled thereto, by virtue of such Agreements among themselves; and that neither her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or any Admiral, Vice Admiral, Governor, or other Person commissioned by or claiming under her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or any Person or Persons whatsoever (other than the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, being the Captor of such Prize Ship or Vessel, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods and Merchandizes, and the Persons claiming under him or them) shall be intitled to any Part or Share thereof (her Majesty's said Duties and Customs being duly answered and paid;) any Custom, Statute, or other Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And for the more speedy Proceeding to Condemnation or other Determination of any Prize Ship or Vessel, Goods and Merchandizes taken by any such Privateer Ship, or by any of her Majesty's Ships of War, in such Court of Admiralty, as aforesaid, and for lessening the Expences that have been usual in those Cases; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judge or Judges of such Court of Admiralty, or other Person or Persons thereto authorized, shall within the Space of five Days after Request to him or them for that Purpose made, finish the usual preparatory Examination of the Persons commonly examined in such Cases, in order to prove the Capture to be lawful Prize, or to enquire whether the same be lawful Prize or not; and that the proper Monition usual in such Cases shall be issued by the Person or Persons, proper to issue the same, and shall be executed in the usual Manner by the Person or Persons proper to execute the same, within the Space of three Days after Request in that Behalf made; and in case no Claim of such Capture, Ship, Vessel, or Goods shall be duly entered or made in the usual Form, and attested upon Oath, giving twenty Days Notice after the Execution of such Monition, or if there be such Claim, and the Claimant or Claimants shall not within five Days give sufficient Security (to be approved by such Court of Admiralty) to pay double Costs to the Captor or Captors of such Ship, Vessel, or Goods, in case the same so claimed shall be adjudged lawful Prize, that then the Judge or Judges of such Court of Admiralty shall, upon producing to him or them the said Examinations or Copies thereof, and upon producing to him or them, upon Oath, all Papers and Writings which shall have been found, taken in or with such Capture (or upon Oath made that no such Papers were found) immediately; and without further Delay proceed to Sentence, either to discharge and acquit such Capture, or to adjudge and condemn the same as lawful Prize, according as the Case shall appear to him or them, upon Perusal of such preparatory Examinations, and also of the Writings found taken in or with such Capture (if any such Writing shall be found) and in case such Claim shall be duly entered or made, and Security given thereupon, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, and there shall appear no Occasion to examine any Witnesses, other than what shall be then near to such Court of Admiralty, that then such Judge or Judges shall forthwith cause such Witnesses to be examined and (within the Space of ten Days after such Claim made, and Security given) proceed to such Sentence, as aforesaid, touching such Capture; but in case upon making or entering such Claim, and the Allegation and Oath thereupon, or the producing such Writings as shall have been found taken in, or with such Capture, or upon the said preparatory Examinations, it shall appear doubtful to the Judge or Judges of such Court of Admiralty, whether such Capture be lawful Prize or not, and it shall appear necessary according to the Circumstances of the Case, for the clearing and determining such Doubt, to have an Examination of Witnesses that are remote from such Court of Admiralty, and such Examination shall be desired, and that it be still insisted on, on the Captors Part, that the said Capture is lawful Prize, and that the contrary be still persisted in, on the Claimants Behalf, that then the said Judge or Judges shall forthwith cause such Capture to be appraised by Persons named on the Part of the Captor, and sworn truly to appraise the same according to the best of their Skill and Knowledge, and shall after such Appraisement made, and within the Space of fourteen Days after the making of such Claim, proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Claimants, to pay to the Captors the full Value thereof, according to such Appraisement, in case the same shall be adjudged lawful Prize, and after such Security duly given, the said Judge or Judges shall make an interlocutory Order for releasing or delivering the same to such Claimant or Claimants, or his or their Agents; and the same shall be actually released or delivered accordingly.

V. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Claimant or Claimants shall refuse to give such Security, the Judge or Judges shall cause the Captor or Captors in like Manner to give good and sufficient Security, to be approved of by the Claimant or Claimants, to pay to the said Claimant or Claimants the full Value according to the Appraisement, in case any such Capture or Captures shall be adjudged not to be lawful Prize; and the said Judge or Judges shall thereupon proceed to make an interlocutory Order for the releasing and delivering of the same to the said Captor or Captors, or their Agents.

VI. IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Mariner or other Person who shall serve on Board, or be retained to serve on Board any Privateer, or trading Ship or Vessel, that shall be employed in any Part of America, nor any Mariner, or other Person, being on Shore in any Part thereof, shall be liable to be impressed or taken away, or shall be impressed or taken away by any Officer or Officers of or belonging to any of her Majesty's Ships of War, empowered by the Lord High Admiral, or any other Person whatsoever, unless such Mariner shall have before deserted from such Ship of War belonging to her Majesty at any Time after the fourteenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and seven; upon Pain that any Officer or Officers so impressing or taking away, or causing to be impressed or taken away, any Mariner or other Person contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall forfeit to the Master, or Owner or Owners of any such Ship or Vessel, twenty Pounds for every Man he or they shall so impress or take, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, in any Court within any Part of her Majesty's Dominions.

X. And for preventing the Desertion of any Mariners or Seamen from her Majesty's Ships of War, to any such trading or Privateer Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Master or Commander of such trading or Privateer Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid, shall before he shall receive or entertain any Mariner, Seaman, or other Person to serve on Board such Privateer or trading Ship or Vessel, endeavour (by all the Ways and Means that he reasonably and conveniently may or can) to discover whether such Mariner, Seaman, or other Person hath deserted from any of her Majesty's Ships of War: And in case any such Master or Commander shall receive or entertain any Mariner, Seaman, or other Person, on Board such trading Ship or Privateer, as aforesaid, without such reasonable Endeavour for such Discovery first had and made, or which he shall know, or be informed hath deserted from any of her Majesty's Ships of War, such Master or Commander shall forfeit to the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, twenty Pounds for every Man he shall so receive or entertain, to be recovered with Costs of Suit in any Court within any Part of her Majesty's Dominions.

XI. And for the more effectual preventing Merchant Ships or Privateers from harbouring or entertaining any Seamen who shall desert her Majesty's Service, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and eight, every Master of a Merchant Ship or Vessel, and Commander of a Privateer, shall before he shall set sail from any Port deliver to the Chief Officer of the Customs of the Port from whence he shall set sail, an exact List of all the Men belonging to such Merchant Ship or Vessel, or Privateer, containing their Names, Ages, and Descriptions of their Persons; upon Pain that he shall forfeit ten Pounds to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for every such Man he shall so receive and entertain on Board, whose Name shall not be inserted in such List, to be recovered with Costs of Suit, in any Court within any Part of her Majesty's Dominions.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted, That such Officer of the Customs do return to such Master or Commander, an attested Copy of such List so delivered unto him, and that upon the Death or Alteration of any Seaman the said List be immediately altered and delivered in to the naval Officer, or chief Officer of the Customs in any Port where such Merchant Ship or Vessel, or Privateer, shall arrive, in Manner as aforesaid; aforsaid: All which said Lists shall from time to time be produced and shewn to any of the Captains or other Officers of any of her Majesty's Ships of War, demanding the same: And if any Man or Men belonging to any of her Majesty's Ships of War, shall be found on Board any Merchant Ship or Vessel, or Privateer, whose Name shall not be contained in such List, as aforsaid, the Master or Commander of such Vessel or Privateer shall forfeit to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Man which shall be so found on Board, to be recovered in Manner as aforsaid.

XIII. And for the better furnishing Seamen to serve on Board her Majesty's Ships of War which shall be in or about the several Parts of America, for annoying the Enemy, and protecting the Trade there, it is hereby further enacted, That the Master or Commander of every trading Ship or Vessel, and every Packet Boat, which shall from time to time, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of April, be outward-bound, and going for any Part of America, shall be, and are hereby obliged (at the Desire of any of her Majesty's Officers thereunto lawfully authorized, and at the Charges of her Majesty) to receive on Board, and carry to the Port or Place, whereto such trading Ship, Vessel, or Packet Boat shall be so bound, and deliver to such Officer or Person, to whom they shall be assigned, any Number of Mariners, Seamen, or other Persons actually entred into her Majesty's Service and Pay (over and above the Complement of Mariners or Seamen, which such trading Ship, Vessel, or Packet Boat usually carries, or which shall be sufficient for navigating the same for such intended Voyage, not exceeding the Proportion of a fifth Part of the Number of such usual or sufficient Complement of Mariners, or Seamen) upon Pain of forfeiting twenty Pounds for every such Seaman or Mariner, that he or they shall refuse to take on Board and carry, to be paid and recovered, as aforsaid.

Trading Ships and Packet Boats to America, to carry with them Mariners for the Queen's Ships there, &c.

On Penalty.

XIV. And for the more effectual annoying her Majesty's said Enemies, and abating their Power and Wealth in the Parts of America, by Numbers of private Ships of War to be equipped and set out in a warlike Manner by and at the Charge of her Majesty's Subjects, and encouraging her Majesty's Subjects to engage in joint and united as well as separate Expences, Expeditions, and Adventures for those Purposes; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforsaid, That her Majesty be, and she, her Heirs and Successors are hereby impowered from time to time, during the Continuance of the present War, to grant or make any Charter, Commission, or Grant, Charters, Commissions, or Grants, for the better or more effectual enabling any Society or Societies, or particular Persons, to join in any Expeditions or Adventures by Sea or Land, for the attacking, surprizing, taking or destroying any Ships, Goods, Moveables and Immoveables, Settlements, Factories, Creeks, Harbours, Places of Strength, Lands, Forts, Castles, and Fortifications, now or hereafter of or belonging to or possessed by any of her Majesty's Enemies, in any Part or Parts of America, and for the better making and carrying on any Preparations for such Purpose and Purposes, and for the making and assuring to the Societies and Persons which may be concerned, their Heirs, Successors, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, full and undoubted Properties, Rights, and Titles of, in and to, and the full Enjoyment of all and every the Ships, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Chattels, Moveables and Immoveables, Settlements, Factories, Places of Strength or Security, Lands, Forts, Castles, and Fortifications, now or hereafter of or belonging to, or possessed by any of her Majesty's Enemies in any of the Parts of America, which such Society or Persons shall take or cause to be taken from any of her Majesty's Enemies during this present War, together with all the Proceed, Profits, and Advantages which may accrue of or by the same, or any of them, with and under such Regulations, and in such Manner and Form, as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall think fit, and at any Time or Times afterwards (although the present War should be then ended) by any further Grants or Charters to confirm, corroborate, and further assure the Premises, and every or any of them to the said Societies, and Persons concerned, their and every their Successors, Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, so as to enable them, and every of them, to have, hold, and enjoy the full Benefit thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Queen (during War) may grant Commissions, &c. to take or destroy Enemies Ships, Goods, &c. in any Parts of America, &c.

And assure to them what Ships, &c. they shall so take, &c.

XV. Provided always, That nothing shall be contained in any Charter, Commission or Grant, made in pursuance of this Act, to exclude or restrain any of her Majesty's Subjects from having a full and free Trade to and in any Part of America.

Queen's Subjects to enjoy a free Trade to America

XVI. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared to be the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforsaid, That it shall not be lawful to any Commander of any of her Majesty's Ships of War, Privateer or Merchant Ship having Letters of Marque, to attack, surprize, seize, take, destroy, or offer any Violence, Spoil, or Molestation whatsoever between Rio la Hacha, and the River Chagre on the Spanish Coast in America, or within five Leagues at Sea of any Part of that Shore, to any Sloop, Barcolongo, Canoa, or other Boat, Goods, or Merchandizes belonging to any of the Subjects of Spain, who shall be concerned in any Intercourse of Trade with any of her Majesty's Subjects, or to any Sloop, Barcolongo, Canoa, or other Boat, Goods, or Merchandizes belonging to any of her Majesty's Subjects which shall be found going to, or coming from any Port or Place within the Limits aforsaid.

No Ship to molest the Subjects of Spain, in their Trade, &c. between Rio la Hacha and the River Chagre.

XVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the third and fourth Years of her Majesty's 3 & 4 Ann. c. 13. Reign, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That the several contraband Goods or Merchandizes therein particularly enumerated, shall not be carried by any of her Majesty's Subjects to any Port or Place belonging to the Crown of Spain, nor any Trade whatsoever be permitted or allowed with the Subjects of Spain for the said contraband Goods or Merchandizes; and forasmuch as some Doubts may arise concerning the Extent of that Clause, Be it therefore hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforsaid, That the same shall not extend or be construed to restrain any of her Majesty's Subjects from carrying any of the said contraband Goods or Merchandizes to any Port or Place within the Limits aforsaid, but it shall and may be lawful to or for any of her Majesty's Subjects to trade with the Subjects of Spain, for the said contraband Goods and Merchandizes, or any of them, within the Limits aforesaid; any thing in this, or in the said last recited Act, or in any former Act, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

' XVIII. And whereas good and necessary Laws have been made, and are still in force within several of her said Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, for the preventing and carrying off from the said Colonies or Plantations, any Servant or Slave, without the Consent of the Owner, or the carrying off from thence any other Person whatsoever, until such Person shall have taken out his Ticket from the Secretary's Office within such respective Colony or Plantation, in such Manner, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as in and by the said several Laws is declared and provided; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Commanders of private Ships of War, or Merchant Ships having Letters of Marque, shall, upon their going into any of those Ports or Harbours, be subject, and they are hereby determined to be subject to the several Directions, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in and by such Laws made and provided; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

During War, Privateers or Trading Ships may be navigated by Foreign Seamen. So as one Fourth be British.

XIX. And for the better Supply of Mariners and Seamen to serve in her Majesty's Ships of War and on board Privateers, Merchant Ships, and Trading Vessels, and for the better carrying on the present War, and the Trade of Great Britain, during the Continuance thereof; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of this present War, and no longer, it shall and may be lawful for any Privateer or Merchant, or Trading Ship or Vessel, to be navigated by foreign Seamen or Mariners, not being Natives of Great Britain, or of any of the Colonies or Plantations thereto belonging, or her Majesty's natural, or naturalized Subjects, so as the Number of such Foreign Seamen or Mariners do not exceed three Fourths of the Mariners at any one Time employed to navigate such Privateer or Merchant or Trading Ship or Vessel, and that one Fourth at the least of the Mariners or Seamen to be employed, be at all Times Natives, or her Majesty's naturalized Subjects of Great Britain (sudden Death, and the Hazard and Casualties of War and the Seas saved and excepted) one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and encreasing of Shipping and Navigation, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

12 Car. 2. c. 18.

Foreign Seamen serving 2 Years on board any British Ships to be deemed natural-born Subjects.

XX. And for the better encouraging of Foreign Mariners and Seamen to come and serve on board Ships belonging to the Kingdom of Great Britain; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Foreign Mariner or Seaman who shall from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of April have faithfully served on board any of her Majesty's Ships of War, or any Privateer or Merchant, or Trading Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, which at the Time of such Service shall belong to any of her Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain, for the Space of two Years, shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be deemed and taken to be a natural-born Subject of her Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, and have and enjoy all the Privileges, Powers, Rights, and Capacities which such Foreign Mariner or Seaman could, should, or ought to have had and enjoyed, in case he had been a natural-born Subject of her Majesty's, and actually a Native within the Kingdom of Great Britain.

Queen may license 20 Ships bought in Foreign Parts to be used for Privateers.

XXI. And for the more expeditious providing of Ships and Vessels to be equipped and used as and for Privateers for the speedy annoying her Majesty's Enemies, and putting in Execution the Purposes by this Act intended, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, to grant to any Person or Persons who shall be actually engaged in any Adventure in pursuance of this Act, a Licence to buy or procure in any Foreign Parts, any Ship or Ships (first giving Security to her Majesty, that such Ship and Ships shall be employed in such Adventures) so as the whole Number of Foreign Ships so to be bought and licensed, shall not exceed the Number of twenty; and that such Ships which shall be so bought by Licence of her Majesty, as aforesaid (having been equipped, set out, and employed as Privateers, during the Continuance of the present War) shall (after the same War ended) be to all Intents and Purposes deemed and taken as Ships of British built, and have all the Privileges of Ships built in any Part of Great Britain, and be capable of being used and employed accordingly; the said Act made in the said twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

5 Annæ, c. 15.

MAY it please your most Excellent Majesty; Whereas by or in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties several Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Vessels, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France, the Corporation or Body Politick of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England was erected and established with such Capacities, Powers, Privileges Benefits, and Advantages, and subject to such Restrictions, and in such Manner and Form as are therein mentioned; and in pursuance of the same Act the Sum of one Million two hundred thousand Pounds was advanced and lent to their said late Majesties, for which there is now payable to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, the yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds out of certain Rates and Duties of Excise, which were thereby granted to their said late Majesties, their Heirs and Successors; in which Act it was provided, That at any Time upon twelve Months Notice, after the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and five, upon Repayment by Parliament of the said Sum of one Million two hundred thousand Pounds, and of all the Arrears of the said yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, then the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and the said Corporation, should absolutely cease and determine: And whereas by another Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of several Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising the Publick Credit, the said Corporation was enlarged and established with divers other Powers, Privileges, Benefits, and Advantages, and subject to such other Restrictions and Rules as are therein particularly expressed; in which Act last-mentioned it was provided and enacted, That at any Time upon twelve Months Notice, after the first Day of August which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament of the said Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, and of all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and also upon Payment of all the Principal and Interest Monies which should be owing to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon all such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, or Parliamentary Funds, which the said Governor and Company should have remaining in their Hands or be entitled to at the Time of such Notice to be given, as aforesaid, then, and in such Case, and not till then, the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and also the said Corporation, should cease and determine: And whereas by an Act made in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties Duties upon Houses, to secure a yearly Fund for circulating Exchequer Bills, whereby a Sum not exceeding fifteen hundred thousand Pounds is intended to be raised for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions) several Duties upon Houses therein mentioned or referred unto, are continued from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten, and from thenceforth made payable to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in that Act expressed, subject to the Proviso or Condition of Redemption therein contained; and the Duties so continued, together with such Remainder and Arrears of House Money, as are therein mentioned, are thereby charged with the yearly Fund, after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, to be paid to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for circulating all such Exchequer Bills as should be issued by or in pursuance of that Act; and by the same Act a Power was given for making forth Exchequer Bills for any Sum not exceeding fifteen hundred thousand Pounds for your Majesty's Supply; and it was thereby enacted, that like Bills should be made out quarterly for so much as should be computed to be due and owing upon and for the said Allowance of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, until the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel one thousand seven hundred and ten inclusively, in the Manner therein mentioned; and it was thereby enacted, that the said Governor and Company, after the said Exchequer Bills, or any of them, should be issued upon that Act as aforesaid, should, from Time to Time, exchange all such Exchequer Bills as they should be required to exchange by any Person or Persons whatsoever for ready Money; and that the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, should continue and remain a Corporation until all the said Exchequer Bills should be redeemed and cancelled in the Manner in that Act mentioned; and in the same Act there is contained a Proviso, that at any Time, upon one Year's Notice and Payment of the Principal Money to be due on the said Exchequer Bills, and of so much as should be due for the said Allowance, after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, for circulating the said Exchequer Bills, then, and not till then, the said Exchequer Bills should be cancelled and discharged, and the said Allowance after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, should cease and determine; and so much of the said Duties on Houses as should have been applied for the Payment of the said four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, in case the same had continued, should from thenceforth be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and should not be issued, paid, or applied to any Use or Purpose whatsoever but by Authority of Parliament; and it is also thereby enacted, that the said Governor and Company might call in from their respective Members proportionably, any Sums of Money as they should think necessary for the said Circulation; and that until all the Exchequer Bills by that Act directed to be issued, should be paid off, discharged, and cancelled, no more or other Bills of the like Nature should be made out and issued at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, either with or without the Authority of Parliament, unless with the Consent of the said Governor and Company; and that nothing in that Act contained should hinder the Redemption of the said original Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, or of any other Funds granted or to be granted by Parliament, upon which the said Governor and Company had or should have lent any Monies, and which were redeemable by Parliament, but that the same might be redeemed from the said Governor and Company, according to former Acts for that Purpose, without redeeming the said four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum; nevertheless, without determining or dissolving the Corporation of the said Governor and Company, until the said four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, should be redeemed from them; as by the said several Acts, Relation being thereunto respectively had, more at large may appear: And whereas the said Governor and Company, for the better enabling themselves to supply the publick Exigencies, did lately consent to admit new Subscriptions for doubling their then present Stock of two millions two hundred and one thousand one hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings, at the Rate of one hundred and fifteen Pounds to be paid for every one hundred Pounds subscribed; and upon a Commission granted by your Majesty, under the great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the sixteenth Day of February in the seventh Year of your Reign, to Sir Thomas Abney, and others directed, grounded upon an Address of the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, several Persons have subscribed several Sums, amounting to two millions two hundred and one thousand one hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings, for doubling the said Stock as aforesaid, and have paid down to the said Governor and Company, at or before their respective Subscriptions, one fifth Part of the Sums by them respectively subscribed, and are to pay the remaining four fifth Parts thereof, together with fifteen Pounds per Centum more (being in all one hundred and fifteen Pounds for every one hundred Pounds subscribed) in Manner hereafter mentioned; all which Subscriptions are contained in Books of Vellum or Parchment for that Purpose, attested by three or more of the said Commissioners, and now remaining in the Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, whereof there are two Duplicates made in Vellum or Parchment, attested by seven or more of the said Commissioners; and one of the said Duplicates is delivered into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, and the other of them into the Office of the Clerk of the Pells in your Majesty's Exchequer, there to remain for ever: Now for the better pursuing the Ends and Intent of the said Subscribers in making such Subscriptions and Payment as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted, at the humble Suit of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the several Sums subscribed or written in the said Books, amounting to the said Sum of two millions two hundred and one thousand one hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings, shall be added and united, and be judged and deemed to be added and united to the Stock of the said Governor and Company, which before such Addition consisted of the like Sum of two millions two hundred and one thousand one hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings as aforesaid, so that the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company so increased, shall be and amount, and be deemed to amount in the whole to the Sum of four millions four hundred and two thousand three hundred forty-three Pounds; and that all and every the Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, who have subscribed or written any Sum or Sums of Money, or for whom any Sum or Sums of Money have been subscribed or written in the said Books of Subscription, for or towards the making up the said Sum of two millions two hundred and one thousand one hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings, therein completely subscribed, and who have paid to the said Governor and Company one fifth Part of each subscribed Sum as aforesaid, and the Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, of such Person and Persons respectively, shall be, and be deemed and reputed to be Members of, united to, and incorporated with the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and shall at all Times, together with the other Members of the said Corporation and Body Politick, and their Successors respectively, be, and be adjudged, construed, reputed, accepted, and taken to be one Body Politick and Corporation, by the Name of The Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company, now amounting as aforesaid, to four millions four hundred and two thousand three hundred forty-three Pounds, shall be assignable and transferrable in the same Manner as the original Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company was assignable and transferrable before the making of this Act.

III. And whereas the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England so enlarged or constituted, being the better enabled by such new Subscriptions and Payments thereupon as aforesaid, to serve the Publick, are willing to advance and lend to her Majesty a further Sum on the said yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds, upon such Terms, Conditions, and Advantages as are hereafter in this Act expressed in Relation thereunto, and are willing to accept an Annuity after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, out of the said Duties on Houses, for all the said Exchequer Bills that have been made out, or are to be made out, in pursuance of the last recited Act, and to deliver up the said Bills as fast as they can get them into their Custody, to be cancelled, upon such Terms, Conditions, and Advantages as are also hereafter in this Act expressed, in relation to such Annuity to be settled, and such Bills to be cancelled as aforesaid; and are also willing to undertake a Circulation, (in the Manner and Form herein after mentioned) of two millions five hundred thousand Pounds in other Exchequer Bills to be issued for the Use of the War, and other your Majesty's Occasions, upon such Terms, Conditions, and Advantages as are likewise hereafter in this Act expressed in relation thereunto; and are likewise willing upon the like Terms, Conditions, and Advantages to undertake the Circulation of such Exchequer Bills as shall be made out quarterly, as well to discharge the Allowance of three Pounds per Centum per Annum which shall be due to the said Governor and Company for circulating the Exchequer Bills to be issued, in pursuance of this Act, from the Time such Bills shall begin to be issued, as also to discharge, or raise Money to discharge the Interest of two Pence per Diem, for every one hundred Pounds to be born upon the said Bills, until the Funds, which by this Act are settled and intended to discharge the said Allowances for Circulation and Interest, shall take Effect, and be sufficient for those Purposes: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous, not only to raise the necessary Supplies with as much Ease to your Majesty's Subjects as is possible, for the carrying on and finishing the present War with Success, but also to use such Ways and Means in the doing thereof, as that your Majesty may have the better and more speedy Effect of the said Supplies, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England so enlarged or constituted as aforesaid, and their Successors, shall advance and pay into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, for her Majesty's Use, the full Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall remain after Deduction of such Discount as is hereafter in this Act allowed to be made out of the same; such Payment to be made by such Proportions, and at such Times, as are herein after appointed for Payment thereof; that is to say, one third Part thereof on or before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nine, one other third Part thereof on or before the eight and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nine, and the Residue thereof on or before the five and twentieth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and nine.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the said Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds, the said Governor and Company shall have and receive back, or shall and may retain and keep to their own Use, by Way of Discount, so much as the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for each Sum of Money which shall be actually advanced and paid for or upon Account of the said Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds, shall amount unto, from the Day of the actual Payment thereof, until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven: And in case the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall make Failure in any of the said Payments, so by this Act appointed to be made into her Majesty's Exchequer as aforesaid, at or before the respective Days or Times before limited in that Behalf, the Money whereof such Failure in Payment shall be made, shall and may be recovered to her Majesty's Use, by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Impar lance; in which Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, it shall be lawful to declare, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, are indebted to her Majesty the Monies of which they shall have made Default in Payment, according to the Form of this Statute, and have not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and in or upon such Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, there shall be further recovered to her Majesty's Use, against the said said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, Damages after the Rate of twelve Pounds per Centum, for the Monies so unpaid contrary to this Act, besides full Costs of Suit; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, and their said Stock and Funds, shall be and are hereby made subject and liable thereunto. and pay Damages at the Rate of 12 l. per Cent.

V. And for the Encouragement of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England to advance and pay the said Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds, with such Discount out of the same, as aforesaid, and to perform the other Services in this Act mentioned, and to the End the said Governor and Company and their Successors, may have a competent Recompence and Consideration for so doing, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several and respective Provisoers or Conditions contained in the said recited Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and in the said Act of the eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, and each of them, for determining the said Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon the respective Notices and Payments in the same respective Acts mentioned, shall be, and are hereby repealed and made void; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, so enlarged as aforesaid, and their Successors, for ever, shall remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name aforesaid, and shall for ever have, receive, and enjoy the said entire yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds out of the said Rates and Duties of Excise, together with a perpetual Succession, and all Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever whereunto the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are, or before the making of this Act, were intitled by the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and by the said Act of the eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM or either of them, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, Grants, or Charters whatsoever, now in Force; all which are by this Act ratified and confirmed to the said Governor and Company so enlarged, and their Successors (the said Allowance after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, for circulating of Exchequer Bills, and the Powers only concerning such Circulation, given by the said Act of the fifth Year of her now Majesty's Reign, excepted) freed and discharged of and from the said Provisoers and Conditions of Redemption hereby repealed, or intended to be repealed, as aforesaid, and all other Provisoers, Powers, Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever heretofore had, made, done, or committed, for redeeming, determining, or making void the said Corporation or yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds, and the said Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages, or any of them; subject nevertheless to such Restrictions, Rules, and Directions, and also to such other Agreements, Matters and Things, as in the said Acts and Charters, or any of them now in Force, are contained or prescribed; and also subject to the Power and Condition of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained in this Behalf. Provisoers in 5 W. & M. c. 20. and 8 W. 3. c. 20. for determining the yearly Fund and Corporation, repealed.
Privileges of the Bank confirmed, 5 W. & M. c. 20. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 20.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time upon twelve Months Notice, after the first Day of August, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, as well of the said Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds formerly advanced, as of the Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds before-mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of sixteen hundred thousand Pounds, without any Deduction, Discount, or Abatement whatsoever, to be made out of the said Sum of sixteen hundred thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof; and upon Payment to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, of all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and all the Principal and Interest Money, which shall be owing unto them upon all such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, or Parliamentary Funds, which the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, shall have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to at the Time of such Notice to be given, as aforesaid, (such Funds for Redemption whereof other Provision is afterwards made, in and by this Act, only excepted) then and in such Case, and not till then, the said yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds shall cease and determine. On 12 Months Notice after 12 Aug. 1732. and on Repayment, &c. yearly Fund to cease.
Repealed by 12 Annæ, stat. 1. c. 11. s. 23. and farther Provisions relating hereto,

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after such Repayment by Parliament, of the said sixteen hundred thousand Pounds, and Payment of all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and of all the Principal and Interest on such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, and Parliamentary Funds aforesaid, shall be made to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and also Redemption shall be made by Parliament of the Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, hereafter in this Act settled and made payable to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, in Manner and Form herein after mentioned, and likewise from and after all the Exchequer Bills, which are to be made forth in pursuance of this Act, shall be entirely discharged and cancelled in Manner herein after mentioned, and Payment made to the said Governor and Company of the said Allowances hereafter made for circulating the said Exchequer Bills, that then, and not till then, the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall cease and determine, but till then, the said Governor and Company shall continue a Corporation, and shall have and enjoy all the Powers and Privileges they are now entitled unto by virtue of any Charter, Act, or Acts of Parliament heretofore granted or made. and Corporation to determine.

VIII. And whereas the Exchequer Bills which were made forth in pursuance of the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for her Majesty's Supply, did and do amount to the said full Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, and the quarterly Bills authorized to be made forth in pursuance of the same Act, for the said Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and the Allowance thereupon, until and for the Quarter ended at Lady Day one thousand seven hundred and nine inclusive, do amount 5 Annæ, c. 13.

to the further Sum of one hundred twenty-three thousand three hundred thirty-seven Pounds eighteen Shillings and one Penny half Penny; in both, to one million six hundred twenty-three thousand three hundred thirty-seven Pounds eighteen Shillings and one Penny half Penny, as by a Certificate signed by the Auditor of the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, bearing Date the first Day of April one thousand seven hundred and nine, doth appear; and the Interest of the said Sum of one million six hundred twenty-three thousand three hundred thirty-seven Pounds eighteen Shillings and one Penny half Penny, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum for six Quarters, to be reckoned from Lady Day one thousand seven hundred and nine to Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and ten, being computed and made principal at the End of each Quarter, doth amount to one hundred fifty-one thousand six hundred eighty-nine Pounds nineteen Shillings and nine Pence more; and being added to the Sum last mentioned, the whole will amount to the Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings ten Pence Half-penny, for which an Annuity or yearly Fund, computed after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, doth amount to one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum. Now for the Encouragement of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by this and the said former Acts established, as aforesaid, to pay off, discharge, and cancel all the Exchequer Bills which have been issued, or were authorized to be issued by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, as aforesaid; and to the End the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, may have a competent Recompence and Consideration for so doing, and for their said Allowance after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and for all their Demands relating thereunto, according to the true Meaning of this Act; We your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly pray that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by this and the said former Acts established, as aforesaid, and their Successors, for ever, (subject nevertheless to the Proviso of Redemption herein after contained in this Behalf) shall have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled by virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy one Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, of lawful Money of Great Britain, which shall be, and is hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable from time to time in the first Place, and with Preference to all other Payments whatsoever, out of the said Duties on Houses granted or continued unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for ever, by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, which is to take Effect from the said last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten, as aforesaid, and upon and out of such Remains and Arrears of House-money, as by the Act last-mentioned were intended to be charged with the Payment of the said Allowance of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, in case that Allowance had continued; the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, to be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year; That is to say, the Feasts of the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, and Saint Michael the Archangel, by even and equal Portions; the first quarterly Payment thereof to be made at the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten; and that the said Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, and every Part thereof, shall be free from all Taxes, Charges and Impositions whatsoever.

IX. And for the better and more regular Payment of the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for ever (subject as aforesaid) an Order or Orders shall be signed by the Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and after the signing thereof, the same shall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treasurer or Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office, or Offices of them, or any of them; nor shall any Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, and make void such Order so signed, as aforesaid.

X. And for the more speedy Payment of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, to the said Governor and Company, as aforesaid; It is hereby declared and enacted, That weekly or otherwise, as the Money of the said Duties shall from time to time be brought into the Exchequer for Payment of the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, the same shall and may be issued upon the said Order or Orders for or towards the discharging of the said Annuity, to grow due for and at the End of the Quarter in which such Payments shall be made, so as such weekly or other Payments do not exceed the Sum of the quarterly Payment which should grow due for or at the End of every such Quarter respectively.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England and their Successors, at any Time or Times by Writing under their Common Seal, to assign the said Annuity or Yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, and so toties quoties, and no such Assignment shall be revocable, so as an Entry or Memorandum thereof be made in the Books to be kept for that Purpose in the said Office of the Auditor of the Receipt.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, and every Part thereof, shall be adjudged to be a personal and not a real Estate, and shall not be liable to any Foreign Attachment; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And for the better securing the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, unto the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by this and the said former Acts established, as aforesaid; it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such Duties on Houses, and such Remains and Arrears of House-money, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign were charged with the said Allowance of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, shall continue and be payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for satisfying and discharging the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, and shall be raised, levied, received, issued, accounted for, appropriated, and applied thereunto, under the same Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are prescribed by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, touching the raising, levying, collecting, issuing, appropriating, applying, and accounting for the same; nevertheless freed and discharged of and from the Proviso or Condition of Redemption, which was so contained in the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, and all other Provisoes and Conditions of Redemption whatsoever (the Proviso or Condition hereafter in this Act contained for redeeming the said Duties on Houses, and the said Annuity payable out of the same, only excepted;) the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time, upon one Year's Notice to the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, and upon full Payment to them of the said Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, if any shall be then due, then and not till then, the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, shall from thenceforth cease and determine; and then also the said Duties on Houses shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid, or applied to any other Use or Purpose whatsoever, but by Authority of Parliament; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XV. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained for or concerning the Redemption of the said Duties on Houses, or the said Annuity hereby charged thereupon, shall in any wise prevent or hinder the Redemption of the said Original Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum pursuant to the aforesaid Proviso in that Behalf, or of any the Funds herein after settled, for circulating the Exchequer Bills hereafter to be made out, in pursuance of this Act, but that the same respectively may be redeemed from the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, according to the respective Provisoes or Conditions in this Act contained for those Purposes, without Redemption of the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum.

XVI. And to the end all the said Exchequer Bills which have been issued by or in pursuance of the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, which amounted as aforesaid, to fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, for her Majesty's Supply, and to one hundred twenty-three thousand three hundred thirty-seven Pounds eighteen Shillings and one Penny Halfpenny, in quarterly Bills, computed to Lady Day one thousand seven hundred and nine, as aforesaid, may be speedily paid off, discharged, and cancelled; and that her Majesty and her Exchequer may be effectually discharged of and from all Demands of any quarterly Bills which were intended to be issued by that Act, after Lady Day one thousand seven hundred and nine, until and for the Quarter to end at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and ten inclusively; and that the said Duties on Houses by this Act made a Security for Payment of the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, may be free and clear from all Pretences to the said former Allowance of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and all other Incumbrances whatsoever; It is hereby provided and enacted, &c.

“ Bank to deliver up all Exchequer Bills in their Hands on 31 March 1709, to be cancelled, and discharge all the rest, as fast as they can be gotten in. the Purposes of this Act.

‘ to be born upon all the Bills to be issued in pursuance of this Act, and the Premium or Allowance, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, which the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, are to receive for circulating the same in the Manner and Form herein after expressed, until all the said Bills to be issued in pursuance of this Act, shall be paid off and cancelled; and for establishing a sufficient Fund for paying off, and cancelling all the Exchequer Bills to be issued forth in pursuance of this Act in a reasonable Time;’ We your Majesty’s said dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do further give and grant unto your Majesty the several Subsidies, Duties, Impositions, and Sums of Money herein after-mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid in Manner following, that is to say, ‘ Whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign for continuing (amongst other Things) the Duties called the Two third Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, it was enacted, That (over and above the Subsidies and other Payments therein mentioned) there should be paid to her Majesty one other Subsidy called Tonnage, for and upon all Wines which from and after the seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, at any Time or Times within or during the Space of three Years from thence next or immediately ensuing, should be imported or brought into Great Britain, that is to say, Two third Parts of such or the like several and respective Duties as by an Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, were granted to his Majesty during his Life, and by an Act of the first Year of her Majesty’s Reign, are continued and payable during her Majesty’s Life, for and upon any Kind of Wine or Wines respectively; and one other Subsidy called Poundage, of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes that should be imported or brought into Great Britain, at any Time or Times from and after the said seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, within or during the said Term of three Years, by way of Merchandize, that is to say, Two third Parts of such or the like several and respective Duties as by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty’s Reign were granted, and by the said Act of the first Year of her Majesty’s Reign continued, and payable for and upon the same Goods and Merchandizes respectively (except Tobacco, and such Currans as should be imported in English built Shipping, navigated according to the Laws then in Force, and Sugar from the English Plantations, and such Goods and other Merchandizes, as by the two Acts last-mentioned, or either of them, were exempted from the Payment of the Subsidies there- by granted :)’ Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Subsidies and Duties so granted by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign for the Term of three Years, as aforesaid, shall be continued upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes imported or brought into Great Britain (except before excepted) at any Time or Times from and after the Expiration of the said Term of three Years, and shall be paid and payable from thenceforth to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for ever, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, subject nevertheless to the proviso or Condition of Redemption herein after contained and relating thereunto.

XXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the same Subsidies or Duties by this Act continued, as aforesaid, and every of them respectively, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Distribution of the said Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Drawbacks, Allowances, and Repayments, and in such Manner and Form, in all Respects, as the like Subsidies or Duties continued by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, are thereby, or by any other Act or Acts, Laws or Statutes, whereunto that Act hath Reference, prescribed, enacted, or appointed to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for during the Continuance thereof; and that all such of the Powers, Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, provided, settled, or established by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or by any other Act or Acts now in Force whereunto that Act hath Relation, for the better raising, levying, recovering, answering, or paying the respective Subsidies or Duties thereby continued, or for making any Drawbacks, Repayments, or Allowances out of any of the said Subsidies or Duties upon Exportation, shall be revived and be continued, and be in Force and Virtue during the Continuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, and every of them, were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all European Linnen, Sisters Threads, and Tapes, or Incle, Linseed and Flax, shall be exempted from the Payment of the said Duties, called the Two third Subsidies, during the Continuance of the same by virtue of this Act.

XXV. And whereas the said Subsidies or Duties last-mentioned were by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign made subject and liable (inter alia) to the Securing, Payment, and Satisfaction of all the principal and interest Monies, which should, from time to time, remain unsatisfied, of and for certain Loans not exceeding the Sum of six hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Pounds four Shillings and a Half-penny, borrowed upon a former Act therein mentioned:’ Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that the Sum now remaining unsatisfied of the Loans, not exceeding the said Sum of six hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Pounds four Shillings and a Half-penny, and the Interest thereof shall be fully paid off and discharged, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, out of the Monies arising or to arise by the last-mentioned Subsidies or Duties, then all the Monies which from thenceforth, during the Remainder of the said Term of three Years, shall or may arise by the said last-mentioned Subsidies or Duties (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) same) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

XXVI. And whereas by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and upon Muslins, and the increased or new additional Rates and Duties upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and the further Rates and Sums charged or imposed for and upon all White Callico, coes, Porcelain, commonly called China Ware, and Drugs (except Drugs for Dying) in the said Act mentioned, should be continued, and be paid and payable unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon the same Commodities and Merchandizes respectively, which should be imported into Great Britain, from and after the twenty-third Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, at any time or times within or during the Term of four Years from thence next and immediately ensuing: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and Muslins, and the said increased or new additional Rates and Duties upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and the said further Rates and Sums charged or imposed upon all White Callico, coes, Porcelain, commonly called China Ware, and Drugs (except Drugs for Dying) so continued by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for the Term of four Years, as aforesaid, shall be further continued, for and upon the same Commodities and Merchandizes respectively (except before excepted) which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, at any time or times from and after the Expiration of the said Term of four Years, and shall be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, subject nevertheless to the Provision and Condition of Redemption herein after contained and relating thereunto.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said last-mentioned Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, by this Act continued, as aforesaid, and every of them respectively, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Distribution of the said Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Drawbacks, Allowances, and Repayments, and in such Manner and Form in all Respects, as the like Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money continued by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, are thereby, or by any other Act or Acts, Laws and Statutes whereunto that Act hath Reference, prescribed, enacted, or appointed, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, answered, paid, and accounted for, during the Continuance thereof; and that all such of the Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, provided, settled, or established by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts now in Force, whereunto that Act hath Relation, for the better ascertaining, raising, levying, recovering, answering, or paying the respective Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, and other the last mentioned Commodities thereby continued, or for making any Drawbacks, Repayments, or Allowances out of any of the said Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, upon Exportation, shall be revived, and be continued and be in Force and Virtue during the Continuance thereof by this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, and every of them, were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

XXVIII. And whereas the Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Coffee and other the enumerated Commodities last-mentioned, were by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, made subject and liable to and for the securing, paying, and satisfying all the Principal and Interest Monies which should, from time to time, remain unsatisfied of or for certain Loans, not exceeding the Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, borrowed upon a former Act therein mentioned: Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that the Sum now remaining unsatisfied of the Loans, not exceeding the said Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid off and discharged, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, then all the Monies which from thenceforth, during the then Remainder of the said Term of four Years, shall or may arise by the said Duties on Coffee and other the Commodities last enumerated (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, answering, and re-counting for the same) shall, from time to time, be paid into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

XXIX. And whereas several Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, were given and granted to his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, of Blessed Memory, for his Life, by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his Reign, (intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King, of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported) and by the Book of Rates thereunto annexed; which Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, as well exported as imported (with some Alterations) were, by several subsequent Acts, granted to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ten; and by an Act made in the fifth Year of her now Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for continuing several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, and for making Provisions therein mentioned, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's necessary and important Occasions, and for ascertaining the Wine Measure) the said Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties and Sums of Money last mentioned, were enacted to continue and be payable to her Majesty for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes

‘ which should be imported at any Time or Times between the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten and the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve: And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing the half Subsidies therein mentioned, with several Impositions, and other Duties, to raise Money by way of Loan for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty’s necessary and important Occasions, and for charging of Prize Goods and Seizures, and for taking off the Drawbacks of foreign Cordage, and to obviate the clandestine Importation of wrought Silks, it was enacted, amongst other Things, That over and above all other Subsidies, additional Duties, Impositions, and Payments whatsoever, by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise howsoever, then due or payable, or which then ought to be paid to her Majesty for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatsoever, imported or to be imported, there should be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, which at any Time or Times from and after the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, and before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, should be imported or brought into Great Britain, one Moiety or half Part of such and the like several and respective Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign were charged or payable within or during the Term thereby granted or limited, for or upon the like imported Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes respectively (except such Goods and other Merchandizes as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or by any Law in Force at the making of the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, were exempted from the Payment of the Subsidies or Duties which were first granted in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second as aforesaid): Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said one Moiety of half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money, granted by the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes imported as aforesaid, into Great Britain (except as in the same Act is excepted) shall from and after the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, be further continued and charged, and shall be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, subject nevertheless to the Proviso or Condition of Redemption herein after contained, and relating thereunto.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where by the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, any Drawbacks or Abatements are to be made of the whole, or any Part of the Duties thereby imposed on any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes imported, there shall be in the like Cases, the like proportional Drawbacks and Abatements made of the whole, or Part of the Duties by this Act imposed upon the same Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes respectively; and that the said Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money by this Act granted, shall be raised, collected, levied, secured, and paid within and throughout the whole Kingdom of Great Britain, by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties, and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances, and subject to such Rules and Directions, as in and by the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or by any other Act or Acts therein referred unto, are prescribed or appointed, for the raising, levying, collecting, securing, and paying the said Moiety of half Part of the same Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money granted by the same Act of the sixth Year of her said Majesty’s Reign; and that every Article, Rule, and Clause contained in the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, or thereby referred unto, for raising, collecting, levying, securing, and paying the said Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes thereby granted as aforesaid, during the Continuance thereof, are and shall be by Force of this Act revived, and shall be used, exercised, and put in practice, for the raising, levying, collecting, and answering the said Moiety or half Part of the Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes by this Act granted or imposed as aforesaid, and all Arrears of the same, from Time to Time, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, as fully and effectually, as if the same Articles, Rules, and Clauses, and every of them, were again particularly, and at large recited and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act, excepting only as to such of the said Articles, Rules, and Clauses touching which other Provisions, Alterations, or Exemptions are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being, which other Provisions, Alterations, or Exemptions, shall be observed, with respect to the Moiety or half Part of the Subsidies, Duties, or Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes hereby continued as aforesaid, in the same Manner as they are to be observed with respect to the said Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, or Sums of Money formerly granted as aforesaid.

XXXI. And whereas the said one Moiety of half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, together with several other Impositions, Subsidies, and Duties mentioned in the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, were by that Act made subject and liable to the Securing, Payment, and Satisfaction of certain Loans of any Sums which should not exceed in the whole seven hundred twenty-nine thousand sixty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence three Farthings, borrowed or authorized to be borrowed thereupon, and such further Sums for Payment of Interest as are therein mentioned or referred unto: Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that all the said Loans, not exceeding seven hundred twenty-nine thousand sixty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence three Farthings, borrowed or authorized to be borrowed as aforesaid, and all the Interest Monies secured, or intended to be secured by the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, shall be paid off and discharged in the Manner in the same Act mentioned, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, out of the Monies arising or to arise by the the Subsidies, Duties, and Impositions thereby appropriated thereunto, then all the Monies which from thenceforth, until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall or may arise by the said Moiety or half Part of the Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes by the said former Acts granted, and by this Act continued as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer distinctly for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

XXXII. And whereas by another Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing one half Part of the Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes imported, which were granted to the Crown in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and for settling a Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, for Payment of Annuities, not exceeding eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, to be sold for raising a further Supply to her Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and eight, and other Uses therein expressed, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That over and above all other Subsidies, additional Duties, Impositions, and Payments whatsoever, by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise howsoever, then due or payable, or which ought to be paid to her Majesty, for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatsoever, imported or to be imported, there should be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, which at any Time or Times from and after the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, within or during the Term of ninety-six Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, should be imported or brought into Great Britain, one Moiety or Half Part of such and the like several and respective Subsidies and Duties, and Sums of Money, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, therein mentioned, are charged or payable within or during the Term or Time thereby granted or limited for or upon the like imported Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes respectively, except such Goods and other Merchandizes as by the said last-mentioned Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or by any Law in Force, were exempted from the Payment of the Subsidies or Duties which were first granted in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second as aforesaid: And whereas a Sum not exceeding in the whole the Sum of eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, to arise by and out of the said last mentioned Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, is by the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign appropriated for and during the said Term of ninety-six Years for the Payment of Annuities to be purchased in pursuance of that Act; in which said Act it is provided and enacted, That if at the End of any Quarter of a Year of the Term for which the Annuities upon that Act were to be purchased, the Monies arising at the Exchequer of or for the said half Subsidies and Duties by that Act appropriated (certain Contribution Money therein mentioned to be reserved, being excepted) should exceed all the Monies then due for or upon the same Annuities and all Arrearages thereof, then or at any Time or Times before that Time incurred, so that there should be an Excess or Surplus remaining in the Exchequer, such Excess or Surplus should be disposable, from Time to Time, for the Publick Use and Service and not otherwise: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Excess or Surplus which shall from Time to Time arise of and from the last mentioned Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, after Payment and Satisfaction, or reserving at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, from Time to Time, sufficient to pay and satisfy the said Annuities, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, charged upon the said last mentioned Moiety or half Part of the Subsidies, Duties, or Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes by the said last mentioned Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, during the said Term of ninety-six Years, (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, ascertaining, and accounting for the same) and also all Arrearages of the said last mentioned Moiety or half Part of the said Subsidies, Duties, and Sums of Money upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes (not already appropriated, or to be applied by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf) shall, as the same shall arise, be kept distinct and apart in her Majesty's Exchequer for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

XXXIII. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties commonly called by the Name of The two third Subsidies, which from and after the Expiration of the said Term of three Years formerly granted therein as aforesaid, shall arise, grow due, or become payable by Virtue of this Act to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and all the Monies which from and after the paying off and discharging all the said Loans, not exceeding six hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Pounds four Shillings and a half Penny, and all the Interest thereof, shall or may arise during the then Remainder of the said Term of three Years of or for the said Subsidies and Duties, commonly called The two third Subsidies, granted or continued by the said Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign; and the said Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and upon Muslins, and the increased or new additional Rates and Duties upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures; and the further Rates and Sums charged or imposed for and upon all White Callicoes, Porcelain, commonly called China Wares, and Drugs, which from and after the Expiration of the said Term of four Years formerly granted therein as aforesaid, shall arise, grow due, or become payable by Virtue of this Act to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; and all the Monies which from and after the paying off and discharging all the said Loans, not exceeding seven hundred thousand Pounds, and all the Interest thereof, shall or may arise during the then Remainder of the said

And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, it shall not be lawful for any Body Politick or Corporate whatsoever, erected or to be erected, (other than the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England) or for any other Persons whatsoever united or to be united in Covenants or Partnership, exceeding the Number of six Persons, in that Part of Great Britain called England, to borrow, owe, or take up any Sum or Sums of Money on their Bills or Notes payable at Demand, or at any less Time than six Months from the borrowing thereof.

LXII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Common Capital and Principal Stock, and also the real Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and all the Profit and Produce to be made thereof, or arising thereby, and the said Allowance after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the particular Part, Share, and Interest of every Member of the said Corporation in the said Stock, Funds, Profits, Produce, and Allowance, and the Principal to be contained in the said Bills, and the Interest to be born thereupon, shall be and are hereby exempted from any Taxes, Rates, Assessments, and Impositions whatsoever, during the respective Continuances of the same; and shall be deemed in all Courts of Law and Justice, and in all other Courts and Places whatsoever, to be a personal Estate, and not real, and shall go to the Executors and Administrators of the Person or Persons dying possessed thereof, or entitled thereunto, and not to the Heirs of such Person or Persons; sons; and that the said Common Capital and Principal Stock, and real Funds of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the said Allowances after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, the said Exchequer Bills, whilst in the Hands of the said Governor and Company, and the particular Part, Share, and Interest of every Member of the said Corporation in the said Stock, Funds, Allowances, and the said Bills, whilst such Bills shall be in the Hands of the said Governor and Company, as aforesaid, shall not be liable or subject to any Foreign Attachment by the Custom of London, or otherwise; any thing in this Act, or in any other Act contained, or any other Law, Statute, Provision, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the original Fund of the said Governor and Company of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum before mentioned, and all Profit, Benefit and Advantage, from time to time arising out of the Management of the said Corporation, and also the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, and likewise the said Allowance after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum for circulating the Exchequer Bills to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall (the Charges of managing the Business of the said Governor and Company, only excepted) be applied from time to time, to the Uses of all the Members of the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being, ratably and in Proportion to each Member's Part, Share, and Interest in the common Capital and principal Stock of the said Governor and Company hereby continued, enlarged, and established.

The original Fund, &c. to be applied to the Use of the Members.

LXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Persons who have subscribed the several Sums in the said Books, amounting to the said Sum of two millions two hundred and one thousand one hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings, or for whom such Subscriptions have been made, and have paid down one fifth Part of each Sum subscribed, as aforesaid, or their respective Assigns, shall, and they are hereby respectively enjoined and required to pay to the said Governor and Company, or their Cashier, for their Use, the remaining four fifth Parts of every Sum so subscribed or written in the said Books, or any of them, against their Names respectively, and also every Sum of fifteen Pounds, or after that Rate, to be added to every hundred Pounds, or any greater or lesser Sum subscribed, as aforesaid, at such Times, and by such Proportions, as the Court of Directors of the said Governor and Company for the Time being, or the major Part of them, shall appoint in that Behalf, so as publick Notice thereof be given as well in the London Gazette, as by a Paper to be signed by the Secretary of the said Governor and Company, and fixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, at least ten Days before the respective Days of Payment so appointed; and in case Default shall be made in any of the said Payments so appointed and notified, then the Person or Persons making such Default, shall forfeit the fifth Part so paid down, as aforesaid, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, and in respect of such fifth Part shall not be entitled to any Share or Dividend out of the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Subscribers of 2,201,171. 10s. who have paid one Fifth to pay the Remainder into the Bank, at such Times as the Directors shall appoint.

Defaulters to forfeit the fifth Part paid down.

LXV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England so enlarged and constituted, as aforesaid, and their Successors, at any Time or Times hereafter, when they shall find it safe and convenient, to reduce or lessen their Capital Stock increased as aforesaid, by any Dividend or Dividends to be made among the then Members of the said Corporation in their private or personal Capacities, ratably and in Proportion to their respective Shares and Interests therein, taking Care that the Sum total of all their Debts which they shall owe at any one Time to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, do not exceed the Value of the Joint and Capital Stock, and such other Estate which at any such Time shall be and remain to the said Governor and Company undivided; and that in case the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, by any Dividend whatsoever to be made amongst themselves in their private or personal Capacities, shall reduce or lessen their joint Stock or Capital, without limiting, paying off, or proportionably reducing the total Sum of the said Debts which they shall owe to others, as aforesaid, so that the Value of their joint Stock and Capital, and other their Estate then remaining undivided, shall not be sufficient to answer their just Debts then remaining unpaid; in every such Case the particular Members of the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and every of them respective, who in their private or personal Capacities shall receive any Share of such Dividend, shall be severally liable, and they are hereby made liable, so far as the respective Shares so by them respectively received upon such Dividend will extend, to pay and satisfy the Debts which shall remain due and unpaid by the said Governor and Company, to any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, as aforesaid, who by virtue of this Act shall or may sue for and recover the same (besides Treble Costs) by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, as is before-mentioned; any thing in this, or any former Act, Charter, or otherwise howsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Bank may make Dividends, &c.

taking Care that the Debts they shall owe, exceed not the Capital Stock.

In such Case the particular Members who have received any Share of such Dividend, shall be, so far as that will extend, liable to pay the Debts owing by the Bank.

After the Bills are all discharged, the Duties are redeemed.

LXVI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That from and after the compleat paying off, and discharging the said Principal and Interest due on all the said Exchequer Bills to be issued in pursuance of this Act, and cancelling all the Bills, and full Satisfaction made as aforesaid, of all Arreages of the said Allowances, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum for circulating the same, then, and not till then, the several Duties by this Act settled or appropriated, as well for Payment of the said Interest, after the Rate of two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said Allowance after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as for raising the said yearly Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds, and every of them, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid or applied plied to any Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, without the Authority of Parliament; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The notredeem-ing the said Duties, not to hinder the Redemption of the original Fund, &c.

LXVII. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained, for or concerning the Redemption of the said Duties by this Act settled and appropriated, as well for Payment of the said Interest, after the Rate of two Pence per Diem, and the said Allowance after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as for raising the said yearly Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds for cancelling the said Bills, shall in any wise prevent or hinder the Redemption of the said original Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, or the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, pursuant to the respective Provisoos for those Purposes in this Act contained; but that the same, or either of them may be redeemed from the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, according to the respective Provisoos or Conditions in this Act contained, without Redemption of the said Duties and Funds hereby settled in Relation to the Exchequer Bills to be made forth in pursuance of this Act, as aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

The Dividend of 4l. 10s. to belong only to the old Members.

LXVIII. And whereas the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England established by former Acts herein recited, did on the three and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, order a Dividend of four Pounds and ten Shillings per Centum to be made amongst their then Members; It is hereby enacted and declared, That the said Dividend only belongs to, and is to be received and enjoyed by the respective Members of the said Corporation, before the making of the Subscription before-mentioned, and their respective Assigns, in Proportion to their respective Interests in the then Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company.

Commissioners for taking Subscriptions indem-nified.

LXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Persons named Commissioners for taking the Subscriptions in the Act before-mentioned, or any of them, shall not incur or be subject to any Incapacity, Forfeiture or Penalty whatsoever, for or in Regard of their or any of their being named Commissioners, or acting in or upon the Commission for taking such Subscriptions, or any Ways relating thereunto; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Publick Act.

LXX. And be it further enacted and declared, That this present Act shall be esteemed in all the Parts thereof in all Courts of Law and Equity to be a publick Act, and Notice thereof shall be taken as such by all Courts and Persons accordingly.

Bank not obliged to pay Interest to a lesser Sum than a Penny.

LXXI. And it hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as often as any of the Bills hereby authorized to be issued shall become payable by the said Governor and Company, and shall be brought to them to be exchanged for Money, the said Governor and Company shall not be obliged to pay for such Interest to any lesser Sum than a Penny due upon such Bill, in case a single Bill be produced for Payment, or for the Total of the Interest of such Bills, where two or a greater Number of Bills shall be offered at one Time by the same Person; and the Payment or Tender of all such Interest as shall be due on such Bill or Bills (except such Sum less than a Penny) together with the Principal due on such Bill and Bills, shall be good and sufficient in Law, as if the Principal and entire Interest, including such less Sum than a Penny, had been paid or tendered upon such Bill or Bills.

Bank may call in Monies divided out of their capital Stock, &c.

LXXII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, from time to time hereafter in such Manner, and by such Notice as in this Act are before appointed for calling in any Monies for the Circulation of Exchequer Bills and other the Purposes before-mentioned, to call in or direct to be paid by or from their respective Members for the Time being proportionably all or any Part of the Monies, which shall have before been divided and paid out of their said Capital Stock of four millions four hundred and two thousand three hundred forty and three Pounds, under such Penalties, Charges, and Forfeitures for Non-payment of any Monies of the said Capital so called in, as are before appointed for Non-payment of any other Monies (not Capital) by this Act authorized to be called in, as aforesaid.

C A P. VIII.

An Act for continuing several Impositions and Duties, to raise Money by way of Loan; and for exporting British Copper and Brass Wire Duty-free; and for circulating a further Sum in Exchequer Bills, in case a new Contract be made in that Behalf; and concerning the Oaths to be administered in Relation to Italian thrown Silks, and touching Oils and Plantation Goods of Foreigners, taken or to be taken as Prize; and concerning Drugs of America to be imported from her Majesty's Plantations; and for appropriating the Monies given in this Session of Parliament; and for making out Debentures for two Transport Ships in this Act named; and to allow a further Time for registering certain Debentures, and for Relief of Persons who have lost such Tickets, Exchequer Bills, Debentures, Tallies, or Orders, as in this Act are mentioned.

MOST gracious Sovereign; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for the better enabling your Majesty to defray the Expences of the present War, and for other your Majesty's most necessary and important Occasions, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the several and respective Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties herein after particularly described, for and during the Terms herein after expressed, and do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Impositions and Duties upon Wines and Vinegar granted by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King JAMES the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar imported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which said Act, by several subsequent Acts of Parliament since made, was continued, and is to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall, by virtue of this Act, be further continued and be payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines and Vinegar which shall be imported into Great Britain, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and no longer; and that the said Act so made in the first Year of the Reign of the said late King JAMES the Second, and all Powers Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, for or concerning the said Impositions on Wines and Vinegar, shall continue and be in full Force and Effect, until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and shall be applied, practised, and executed for raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties upon Wine and Vinegar hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things in the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of the said King JAMES the Second contained, had been again in this Act repeated, and particularly enacted.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rates, Duties, and Impositions upon all Sorts of Tobacco, granted by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the said late King JAMES the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Tobacco and Sugar imported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five, and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which said Act as for and concerning the said Duties and Impositions upon Tobacco only, by several subsequent Acts of Parliament since made, was continued, and is to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall, by virtue of this Act, be further continued and paid unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Tobacco to be imported into Great Britain, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and no longer.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Tobacco which shall be imported within the Times by this Act limited, and all Arrears thereof, shall be secured, collected, raised, levied, answered, and paid to her Majesty in such Method, and with such Discount and Allowances, and according to such Rules and Directions, as are mentioned, referred to, or prescribed (as to the Duties or Impositions upon Tobacco) in and by the Act made in the Parliament holden in the seventh Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties, granted by former Acts upon Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and not otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several additional and other Rates, Impositions, Duties, and Charges upon the several Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes, granted by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East India Goods and Merchandizes, and upon all Wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandizes to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety, and which thereby, and by several Acts of Parliament already made, have Continuance until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be further continued and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon the like Commodities to be imported into Great Britain, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and no longer; and that the said Act made in the second Year of their late Majesties Reign, concerning East India Goods and other Things therein charged, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and shall be applied, practised, and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said respective Duties hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said last mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, had been again repeated and particularly enacted (except only as to such Part of the said Acts, concerning the said Impositions on Wines, Vinegar, Tobacco, East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, touching which other Provisions or Alterations are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, which other Provisions or Alterations are to be observed, and to continue during the Continuance of this present Act) and the said Act, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wines and Vinegar, and upon Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and every Article, Clause, Matter, and Thing therein contained, for the raising, levying, securing, answering and paying the Impositions and Duties on the Merchandizes and Commodities thereby charged, and which are by this Act continued, shall be of full Force and Effect, until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen.

Additional Impositions continued to 1 Aug. 1716. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5. Farther continued by 8 Annæ, c. 13. and made perpetual by 9 Annæ, c. 21. §. 1.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the additional and other Rates, Duties, Impositions, and Charges upon the several Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes, granted by an Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of their said late Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain additional Impositions upon several Goods and Merchandizes, for prosecuting the present War against France, which by several subsequent Acts of Parliament already made, have Continuance until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall, by Virtue of this Act, be further continued, and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, throughout Great Britain, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and no longer; and that the said Act last mentioned, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained (except as herein after is excepted and provided) as for and concerning the said Rates, Duties and Impositions, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as if the said last mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, had been again repeated and particularly enacted in this present Act: Provided also, That in all Cases where any other Provision or Alteration is made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Being, in or about any other Matter or Thing contained in the said Act of Parliament for the Impositions last mentioned, such other Provisions or Alterations shall be observed during the Continuance of the Term hereby granted; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties on Whale Fins continued to Aug. 1716. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 45. Farther continued by 8 Annæ, c. 13. and made perpetual by 9 Annæ, c. 21. §. 1.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted, That the several Impositions and Duties, for and upon all Whale Fins imported, which by an Act of Parliament in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for taking away half the Duties imposed on Glass Wares, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, and for granting in lieu thereof new Duties on Whale Fins and Scotch Linnen, were granted to his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, and by subsequent Acts already passed, have Continuance until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be, and are hereby continued and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, upon all Whale Fins to be imported into Great Britain, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and no longer; and shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties, as are mentioned in the said Act for granting the said Impositions on Whale Fins and Scotch Linnen; which Act, with all the Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, or thereby referred to, shall continue and be in full Force until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and shall be applied, practised, and put in Execution for raising and levying the said Duties on Whale Fins hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, as fully and effectually as if all the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained concerning the said Duties on Whale Fins were repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

1 Ja. 2. c. 3. 2 W. & M. ff. 2. c. 4. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 45.

VII. And whereas the said Impositions on Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco, which were first granted to King JAMES the Second, in the first Year of his Reign, and the said Impositions on East India Goods, and other Goods charged therewith, which were first granted to their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY in the second Year of their Reign, and the said additional Impositions which were first granted to them in the fourth Year of their Reign, and the said Duties on Whale Fins imported, which were granted to his said late Majesty King WILLIAM in the ninth Year of his Reign, were by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued (with some Exceptions and Alterations) as aforesaid, until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, in the Manner therein mentioned, and are thereby made subject and liable (together with such other Duties as are therein expressed) to the Satisfaction of several principal Sums which were borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed upon those Acts respectively, and the Interest due, and to be due for the same, which Principal and Interest are to be duly paid off and discharged in the first Place; Now it is hereby further declared and enacted enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies which by the said former Acts, or any of them, are charged or chargeable on the several Impositions and Duties last particularly mentioned (jointly with other Duties) as aforesaid, shall be fully paid off and satisfied according to the true Meaning of the said former Acts, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, then all the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise by the said Impositions upon Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco, which were first granted to King JAMES the Second in the first Year of his Reign, and the said Impositions on East India Goods, and other Goods charged therewith, which were first granted to their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, in the second Year of their Reign, and the said additional Impositions which were first granted to them in the fourth Year of their Reign, and the said Duties on Whale Fins imported, which were granted to his late Majesty King WILLIAM in the ninth Year of his Reign, for the Remainders of the Terms formerly granted, and therein then to come and unexpired (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer distinctly for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

After the Principal, &c. of the former Acts are discharged, the several Duties appropriated for the Uses of this Act.

‘ VIII. And whereas it is found by Experience, That the Duties upon the Exportation of Copper of the Produce and Growth of Great Britain, and upon Brass Wire made in Great Britain, have annually produced very inconsiderable Sums, and nevertheless do hinder the Exportation of such Copper and Wire, to the Prejudice of this Nation;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Subsidies or other Duties shall be due or payable by any Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever upon the Exportation of any such Copper or Wire, which from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nine, shall be exported to or for any Parts beyond the Seas; any Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

British Copper and Brass Wire to be exported Duty-free.

‘ IX. And whereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have undertaken the Circulation of Exchequer Bills, amounting to two millions and five hundred thousand Pounds, for her Majesty’s Supply, in such Manner and Form, and upon such Terms and Advantages as are mentioned or intended by another Act of this Session of Parliament in that Behalf;’ Now it is hereby provided, &c.

7 Annæ, c. 7.

See 9 Annæ, c. 7.

‘ The Bank may agree to circulate further Exchequer Bills for 612,739*l.* &c. with the same Advantages, &c. as by the former Act, &c. Oath upon importing Italian thrown Silk, to be made before the Collector, &c. Oils and Plantation Goods of Foreigners, taken as Prize, to pay Customs, pursuant to her Majesty’s Declaration, 12 May 2 Annæ. EXP. See 8 Annæ, c. 1.”

1 Annæ, stat. 1. c. 27. 6 Annæ, c. 19.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nine, Jesuits Bark, Sarsaparilla, Balsam of Peru and Tulu, and all other Drugs of the Growth and Product of America, may be imported from any of her Majesty’s Plantations in America, in Ships regularly manned and navigated, paying the same Duty and no more, as if they were imported directly from the Place of their Growth; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Drugs of America may be imported from her Majesty’s Plantations.

Concerning Drugs see farther,

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance or lend to her Majesty at the Receipt of her Majesty’s Exchequer, as well upon Credit of the several Impositions and Duties by this Act granted or continued, as also upon Credit of the Monies which by the said former Acts, after Satisfaction of the Principal and Interest thereupon as aforesaid, shall arise by the Impositions and Duties thereby granted, any Sums which shall not exceed in the whole six hundred forty-five thousand Pounds, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty’s Occasions; and moreover, the Treasurer of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby authorized and directed to cause the Officers of the said Receipt of Exchequer, to receive from Time to Time, by way of Loan, from any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, willing to make the same at the said Receipt, any further Sum and Sums of Money, over and above the said Sums not exceeding six hundred forty-five thousand Pounds, as shall be sufficient to make good the Payment of all the Interest Monies appointed or allowed by this Act, every three Months, until the said Impositions and Duties arising by this or by the said former Acts, or any of them first happening, shall come into the Exchequer, and be sufficient for that Purpose, pursuant to the Intent and Meaning of this Act; and that all the Lenders as well of the said Sums not exceeding six hundred forty-five thousand Pounds, as of the said further Sums for making good the Payment of the intermediate Interest as aforesaid, shall have and receive Interest for the Forbearance thereof, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and that no Money to be lent upon the Security of this Act, shall be taxed, rated, or assessed by any Act of Parliament whatsoever.

and of a further Sum for making good the intermediate Interest;

at 6 per Cent. Tax-free. See 8 Annæ, c. 13. f. 12.

‘ Lenders to have Tallies struck, &c. Orders to be paid in Course, &c. No Fee, &c. to be taken. Penalty. Tallies of the same Date no undue Preference. No Penalty to incur, if subsequent Orders be first paid. Orders assignable. EXP.”

‘ XVIII. And whereas in and by one Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, a Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding eight hundred twenty-two thousand three hundred eighty-one Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence Farthing; and by another Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, a further Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding seven hundred twenty-nine thousand sixty-seven Pounds

And whereas several Tickets, commonly called Million Lottery Tickets, and Malt Lottery Tickets, which are still unpaid, and several Bills called Exchequer Bills, not yet discharged, also divers Sorts of Bills or Certificates, commonly called Debentures, made forth for Arrears due to the Army, and for Transport Services, not being applied to the purchasing of any of the forfeited Estates in Ireland, or otherwise discharged, and also divers Tallies and Orders for Payment of Annuities granted by Act of Parliament, are by Casualty or Mischance, lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed; Be it hereby further enacted, &c.

“The Barons of the Exchequer, on Affidavit made before them, that any Lottery Tickets, Exchequer Bills, Debentures, &c. are lost, shall give a Certificate thereof, and the respective Officers, on Security given to indemnify them, shall make forth Duplicates of such Tickets, &c. and in Default of such Officer, the Lord Treasurer, &c. shall order such Duplicates to be made forth. All which shall be done without Fee, &c. E X P.

C A P. IX.

An Act for giving the Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London the same Powers as the Commissioners of Sewers for Counties have; and to oblige Collectors for the Sewers to account.

‘WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the City of London, it is amongst other Things enacted, That the Number and Places for all Common Sewers, and Vaults, and Drains, and the Order and Manner of paving and pitching the Streets and Lanes within the said City and Liberties, shall be designed and set out by such and so many Persons, as the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City in Common Council assembled, should authorize and appoint under their Common Seal, or the more Part of them; to which Persons several Powers and Authorities are thereby given, for the Ends in the said Act mentioned: And it is thereby enacted, That all other Commissioners whatsoever, be altogether suspended from intermeddling in the Premises for the Space of seven Years, and for so long after, until the intended Buildings of the said City should be fully finished; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas by another Act made in the two and three and twentieth Years of the Reign of the said King, it is enacted and declared, That the said Clause or Branch of the said Act herein before recited, should remain and continue in Force, and be made perpetual, and the Powers and Authorities thereby given and appointed to be executed by such Persons as should in that behalf be authorized and appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled, according to the Tenor thereof, under their Common Seal, or any seven or more of them, should and might for ever thereafter be put in Execution, according to the Purport and Effect of the aforesaid Act; and that no other Commissioner, or any other Person whatsoever, should at any Time then after intermeddle in the Premises, within the said City and Liberties thereof; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding;

The Persons authorized by the Mayor, &c. of London, have and shall exercise in London, &c. all the Powers given to Commissioners of Sewers, in any other County or Place; but subject to the Act of 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 17.

Collectors of the Rates refusing on Notice to appear before the Commissioners and to give an Account on Oath, or neglecting to collect, &c. or to pay the Money collected, shall forfeit 10 l. to be levied by Distress, &c.

To be paid into the Chamber of London, and applied to the maintaining the Sewers.

This Act not to extend to the Conservatorship of the Thames.

If any Action be brought for what is done in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and shall recover Treble Costs.

All the said Acts to be taken as Publick Acts.

ing: And whereas some Doubts have arisen whether the said Persons so authorized have the like Powers and Authorities vested in them, as Commissioners of Sewers, by virtue of their Commission, and of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, have in any County within that Part of Great Britain called England; For explaining the same, and for remedying the Mischiefs herein after mentioned, Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Persons so, as aforesaid, authorized and appointed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City of London in Common Council assembled, or that shall hereafter in like Manner be authorized and appointed for the Purposes in the said recited Acts mentioned, have of Right exercised and put in Practice, and shall or may, for the Time to come, exercise and put in Practice, within the said City of London, and Liberties of the same, all and every the Powers and Authorities given to and vested in any Commissioner of Sewers in any other County or Place, by Force and Virtue of any the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, or of any Commission to them granted, pursuant to the same, and shall be deemed and taken to be Commissioners of Sewers within the Limits aforesaid, subject nevertheless to the Limitations and Directions of the said Statute of the two and three and twentieth Years of the Reign of our said late Sovereign King CHARLES the Second.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons appointed by the said last-mentioned Statute to be Collectors of the Rates and Duties that shall be assessed, according to the Directions of the said Statute, for the Ends and Purposes therein contained, shall neglect or refuse, upon due Notice to him or them given, to appear before the said Commissioners, at the Place of their publick Meetings, and give a just and true Account, upon Oath, of all Monies by him or them collected and received for the Purposes aforesaid, which Oath the said Commissioners, or any seven of them, at any any their publick Meetings, according to the Directions of the said Statute, are hereby authorized and empowered to administer, or shall neglect or refuse to collect such Sum or Sums as shall be specified in a Roll delivered to him, or shall neglect or refuse to pay such Money so collected, as upon such Account shall appear to be in his Hands, into the Chamber of the said City, according to the Directions of the said Act, every Person so neglecting or refusing to appear, collect, or pay, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, a Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, over and above what Money he shall be chargeable with, to be set and imposed by the said Commissioners, or any seven of them; which said Penalties, and all other Fines that be set and imposed by the said Commissioners, pursuant to the Authority to them given, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person so offending, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or any seven of them, rendering the Overplus, (if any be) after the Charges of such Distress and Sale deducted, to the Owner of the said Goods; all which Fines and Sums of Money, and all other Fines to be set and imposed by the said Commissioners, shall be paid into the Chamber of London, and applied for and towards the maintaining, repairing, cleansing, and scouring the publick Drains and Sewers within the said City and Liberties thereof.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained, shall be adjudged deemed, or taken to extend to the Conservatorship of the River of Thames, or to give any Jurisdiction to the said Commissioners to intermeddle with the same, or to alter the Powers or Authorities of the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, touching the same, but the same shall or may continue to be managed, executed and done, as before the making of this Act; any thing herein before contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action, Suit, Complaint, or Information shall, at any Time after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nine, be commenced, sued or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for what he or they shall do, in pursuance of any of the recited Acts, or this Act, such Person or Persons, so sued or prosecuted in any Court whatsoever, shall or may plead the General Issue, and upon Issue joined, may give the said Acts or this Act, or any of them, and the special Matter, as the Case may require, in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor become nonsuit, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him, her, or them, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, for which they shall have the like Remedy as in any Case where Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

V. And it is also enacted, That this Act, and the said recited Acts, shall be deemed and taken for Publick Acts.

'such Manner, as by the said Laws now in Force is directed and appointed: And it is thereby provided, That the same Decrees and Ordinances shall bind all and every Person and Persons, that at the making of the same Decree had any Interest in such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Use, Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, their Heirs and Feoffees, and every of them; and shall also bind as well the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of the King of England, as all and every other Person and Persons and their Heirs, and such their Interest, as they shall fortune to have in any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or other casual Profit, Advantage, or Commodity whatsoever they be, whereunto the said Laws, Ordinances, and Decrees shall in any wise extend, according to the true Purport, Meaning, and Intent of the said Laws; but the said Laws of Sewers now in Force, have been found Defective, in that sufficient Power and Authority is not thereby given to Commissioners of Sewers, to make Sale of Copyhold or Customary Lands within the Limits of their Commission for the Causes aforesaid; For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners authorized by Commission from her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, or any six or more of them, to put in Execution the Laws now in Force concerning Sewers, for Nonpayment of any Lot or Charge assessed or charged upon any Copyhold or Customary Lands within the Limits of their Commission, and by the Power and Authority of the said Commission of Sewers, to decree and ordain the said Copyhold or Customary Lands so charged from the Owner or Owners, and their Heirs, and the Heirs of every of them, to any Person or Persons, for such Estate and Interest therein, as the said Owner or Owners thereof, or any claiming in Remainder under them, at the Time of such Decree made, had in the same Copyhold Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments; the said Decrees to be made and executed, as Decrees concerning Freehold Lands are, by the said Laws now in Force, to be made and executed.

After 25 March 1709. Commissioners of Sewers may for Non-payment of any Lot assessed on Copyhold Lands, decree the same from the Owners, &c.

The said Decrees to be executed as Decrees concerning Freeholds.

II. Provided always, That all and every Person or Persons, to whom any such Sale of Copyhold or Customary Lands or Tenements shall be made, shall before such Time as they or any of them shall enter, or take any Profit of the same Lands or Tenements, agree and compound with the Lords of the Manors, of whom the same shall be holden, for such Fines or Incomes, as heretofore hath been most usual and accustomed to be yielded or paid therefore; and that upon every such Agreement or Composition, the said Lords for the Time being, at the next Court to be holden at or for the said Manors, shall not only grant to such Vendee or Vendees upon Request, the same Copyhold or Customary Lands or Tenements by Copy of Court Roll of the said Manors, for such Estate or Interest as to them shall be so decreed or sold, and reserving the ancient Rents, Customs, and Services, but also shall in the same Court admit them Tenants of the same Copyhold or Customary Lands, as other Copyholders of the same Manors have been wont to be admitted, and to receive their Fealty accordingly.

The Buyers of such Copyhold Lands to agree with the Lords of whom holden, for the accustomed Fines, and the Lords to admit them Tenants.

III. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Sewers, or any six or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to give Authority to any Person or Persons, to levy the Sums of Money by them, from time to time, to be assessed or taxed upon the Lands, Meadows, Marshes or Grounds, liable or chargeable with any Sesses, Taxes, Impositions, or Charges, by Authority of their said Commission, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Person or Persons that shall not pay, or refuse to pay the same; and the Overplus of the Money arising upon such Sale, after Deduction of the reasonable Charges of making such Distress and Sale, shall be restored to the Owner or Owners of the Goods so distrained.

Six of the Commissioners may by Warrant empower any Person to levy the Assessments by Distress and Sale. The Overplus to be restored to the Owner.

C A P. XI.

An Act for ascertaining and directing the Payment of the Allowances to be made for or upon the Exportation from Scotland, of Fish, Beef, and Pork, cured with Foreign Salt imported before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven; and for disposing such Salt still remaining in the Hands of her Majesty's Subjects there; and for ascertaining and securing the Allowances for Fish and Flesh exported, and to be exported from Scotland for the future.

WHEREAS certain Quantities of White Herrings, and of Salmon, Codfish, Beef and Pork, cured with Foreign Salt only, which was imported into Scotland before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven (at which Time the happy Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland took Effect) have been, since the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, exported from several Parts of Scotland, such Herrings, Salmon, and Codfish respectively, having been first duly pined, cured, and packed for Exportation with the said Foreign Salt only, without any Mixture of British or Irish Salt, according to the Laws and Acts of Parliament formerly made in Scotland, and still in Force in that Behalf; and the said Beef and Pork having been also first duly salted with the said Foreign Salt without Mixture, as aforesaid, and exported for Sale only; and on the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nine, certain other Quantities of White Herrings, Salmon, Codfish, Beef and Pork, do or may remain in Scotland ready to be entred for Exportation from thence to Parts beyond the Seas, being also salted with Foreign Salt imported into Scotland before the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, without Mixture, as aforesaid; and such Fish being also duly pined, cured and packed, and the Beef and Pork last-mentioned, being likewise intended

* tended for Sale only : And whereas the Sum total of all the Allowances claimed for the said Fish and
 * Flesh exported, and to be exported from Scotland, so salted with Foreign Salt imported before the said
 * first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, being computed according the Rates un* questionably allowable for the like Fish and Flesh salted with Foreign Salt imported into Scotland after
 * the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, will not by Estimation exceed twenty-
 * eight thousand four hundred and fifty-two pounds nineteen shillings and seven pence; Be it enacted, &c.

“ Fish, &c. cured with Foreign Salt only, imported before 1 May 1707. to have the same Allowances as “ since the Union. Debentures to be prepared for Fish, &c. exported since 1 May 1707. and before 15 May “ 1709, &c. And to be brought to the Commissioners of the Customs at Edinburgh, by 15 July 1709. Not “ to exceed 28,452 l. 19 s. 7 d. Treasury to issue Money for Payment to Sir Patrick Johnson, &c. E X P.

No Debenture to be allowed till Oath, &c.

V. And for preventing Frauds, be it enacted, That no Debentures for any Allowances to be made by Law for any Fish or Flesh exported, or hereafter to be exported from Scotland (the Debentures for the said allowances not exceeding the said Sum of twenty-eight thousand four hundred and fifty-two Pounds, nineteen Shillings and seven Pence, for Fish and Flesh cured with Foreign Salt imported from Scotland before the Union as aforesaid, only excepted) shall be prepared or allowed until such Oaths be made and taken, which the proper Officers have hereby Power to administer; and all such other Matters and Things be done and performed for preventing of Frauds to her Majesty's Prejudice, as by any Law or Statute now in Force in England or Scotland are to be made, taken, done or performed for preventing Frauds in the like Allowances for the like Kinds of Fish and Flesh respectively; and all Laws now in Force in England or Scotland, for preventing any Frauds upon the Importation and Exportation of Fish and Flesh, for which the said Allowances are to be made by Law, shall be in Force, and extended to Scotland.

“ VI. And whereas certain Quantities of such Foreign Salt imported into Scotland before the said first Day “ of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, do still remain in the Hands of several of her Majesty's “ Subjects there, not having been employed in the curing of Fish or Flesh, or otherwise howsoever, which “ Salt in Hand doth not, by Computation, exceed in the whole fifty-one thousand seven hundred se“ venty-seven Bushels, reckoning eighty-four pounds Weight to the Bushel; It is hereby further enacted, &c.

“ Such Foreign Salt in Hand to be weighed by the Salt Officer by 1 June 1709. and certified to the Com“ missioners by 15 July 1709. Not to exceed 51,777 Bushels. Stock in Hand not delivered, forfeited.
 “ Salt so delivered to be cellar'd, &c. Treasury to issue Money for Payment at 9 s. per Bushel, to Sir Pa- “ trick Johnson, &c. Sir Patrick Johnson, &c. to have 2 d. per Pound.” E X P.

How the Allowances for the future shall be ascertained.

X. And for the better ascertaining and securing all such Allowances as by Law ought to be made for any Fish or Flesh exported, or hereafter to be exported from Scotland, which have been or shall be duly salted and cured only with Foreign Salt imported since the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, or hereafter to be imported into Scotland, and for which her Majesty's Duties payable by the Act of Union, have been, or shall have been first duly paid or secured; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Allowances (not being already satisfied) shall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt payable in Scotland, out of the same Duties arisen or to arise in the same Port from whence any such Fish have been or shall be exported, within Thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collectors of the Customs in the Port where such Fish or Flesh have been or shall be entered out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of Fish or Flesh actually shipped, and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be first taken before the principal Officers of the said Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and empowered to give the said Oath, that the Fish in every such Debenture mentioned, were caught by Her Majesty's Subjects, Inhabitants of Great Britain, and that the Fish and Flesh in such Debenture mentioned, were really exported to Parts beyond the Seas for Sale, and not intended to be reloaded in Great Britain, and were duly cured only with Foreign Salt imported into Scotland after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, without any Mixture of British or Irish Salt, and that her Majesty's Duties for such imported Salt shall have been duly paid or secured; all which Particulars shall be specified in such Debentures respectively, for which Debenture or Debentures no Fee or Reward shall be taken; and in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture, shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then such Officer and Officers shall give a Certificate in Writing thereof, without Fee or Charge, to the Exporter or his Agent, to be directed either to the Commissioners of the Customs, or the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, at the Option of the said Exporter, or his Agent, and upon producing such Certificates, together with the Debenture or Debentures so certified, to the Commissioners of the Customs, or the Commissioners of Excise for the time being, to whom such Certificate shall be directed, shall cause such Debenture or Debentures so certified, to be paid and satisfied without Fee or Charge, in Course, out of any her Majesty's Duties arising upon Salt in Scotland, or out of the said Revenues of Customs, and Excise in Scotland, or any of them, which are hereby charged therewith, and made liable thereunto, out of the first Monies arising by the said Revenues respectively, and with Preference to all other Payments whatsoever to be made out of the same; the Charges of raising and managing those Revenues, and the Fees, Salaries, and other Charges allowed, or to be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for keeping up the Court of Session and Justiciary, and the Exchequer Court in Scotland always excepted and foreprized; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and any Officer

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge any Part of, or lessen directly or indirectly the Overplus of the Customs of Scotland, exceeding the Sum of thirty thousand Pounds per Annum, mentioned in the fifteenth Article of the said Union, or any Part of the Overplus of the Excise of Scotland, exceeding the Sum of thirty-three thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum, mentioned in the same Article; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not to charge the Overplus of the Customs or Excise in Scotland.

C A P. XII.

An Act for preserving the Privileges of Ambassadors, and other publick Ministers of Foreign Princes and States.

WHEREAS several turbulent and disorderly Persons having in a most outrageous Manner insulted the Person of his Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matueof, Ambassador extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, her Majesty's good Friend and Ally, by arresting him, and taking him by Violence out of his Coach in the publick Street, and detaining him in Custody for several Hours, in Contempt of the Protection granted by her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in Prejudice of the Rights and Privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorized and received as such, have at all Times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable; Be it therefore declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Actions and Suits, Writs and Processess commenced, sued or prosecuted against the said Ambassador, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, and all Bail Bonds given by the said Ambassador, or any other Person or Persons on his Behalf, and all Recognizances of Bail given or acknowledged in any such Action or Suit, and all Proceedings upon or by Pretext or Colour of any such Action or Suit, Writ or Process, and all Judgments had thereupon, are utterly null and void, and shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all Intents, Construtions, and Purposes whatsoever.

Preamble, reciting that the Czar's Ambassador having been arrested,

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Entries, Proceedings, and Records against the said Ambassador or his Bail, shall be vacated and cancelled.

enacted therefore, that all Suits against him should be void.

III. And to prevent the like Infolences for the future, be it further declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Writs and Processess that shall at any Time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the Person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any Foreign Prince or State, authorized and received as such by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or the Domestick, or Domestick Servant of any such Ambassador, or other publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their Goods or Chattels may be distrained, seized, or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void to all Intents, Construtions, and Purposes whatsoever.

And all Proceedings against him and his Bail vacated.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such Writ or Process, such Person and Persons, and all Attornies and Solicitors prosecuting and soliciting in such Case, and all Officers executing any such Writ or Process, being thereof convicted, by the Confession of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any Two of them, all be deemed Violators of the Laws of Nations, and Disturbers of the publick Repose, and shall suffer such Pains, Penalties, and corporal Punishment, as the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any Two of them shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

All Processess against any publick Minister, or any of his Servants, to be adjudged void for the Time to come. Punishment for Attornies, &c. suing forth such Process.

V. Provided, and be it declared, That no Merchant or other Trader whatsoever, within the Description of any of the Statutes against Bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the Service of any such Ambassador or publick Minister, shall have or take any Benefit by this Act; and that no Person shall be proceeded against as having arrested or detained any Ambassador or publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the Name of such Ambassador or publick Minister be first registered in the Office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary be presented to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the Receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick Place in their Offices, whereto all Persons may resort, and take Copies thereof, without Fee or Reward.

No Merchant, &c. to have any Benefit of this Act. Nor the Servant of an Ambassador, unless his Name be registered, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be taken and allowed in all Courts within this Kingdom as a Publick Act, and that all Judges and Justices shall take Notice of it without special pleading; and all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and other Officers and Ministers of Justice, concerned in the Execution of Process, are hereby required to have regard to this Act, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

This Act to be taken as a Publick Act.

C A P. XIII.

An Act for the better ascertaining the Lengths and Breadths of Woollen Cloth made in the County of York.

WHEREAS divers Abuses and Deceits have of late Years been used in the Manufacture of Woollen Cloths in the County of York, with respect to the Breadth, Length, and Over-stretching and Straining of the same, which tends to the great debasing and undervaluing of the said Manufacture, both at Home and in Foreign Parts where the said Cloths are vended: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, every Broad Cloth made in the said County of York, whether the same be called an End or Half Cloth, or a Long or Whole Cloth, being well scoured and fully mill'd, shall at the least, be five Quarters and an Half by the Standard Yard Wand in Breadth within the Lifts, in the Water, being fully wet; and every such Cloth called an End or Half Cloth, shall not exceed in Length three and twenty Yards, being fully wet; and every such Cloth called a Long or Whole Cloth, shall not exceed forty-six Yards in Length, being fully wet; and that all Sorts of Yorkshire Cloths called Whole-thick-kerseys, and Whole-thick-plains, shall not be made under seventeen Yards and an Half in Length, and not less than three Quarters and an Half in Breadth by the Standard Yard Wand, when fully wet.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Clothier or other Person shall, after the said four and twentieth Day of June in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and nine, make, offer, or expose to Sale any of the aforesaid Cloths which shall be made after the said four and twentieth Day of June, and not made according to the said respective Breadths and Lengths, every such Person so offending, being thereof convicted by the Oath of any Overseer or Searcher of Cloth, appointed or to be appointed within the several and respective Parishes or Townships in the said County of York, by any former Law now in Force, or by the Oath of one or more other credible Witnesses before any Justice of Peace within the said County, or of any Corporation within the same (provided such Justice be not a Merchant or Trader in the Woollen Manufacture) which Oath the said Justices respectively are hereby empowered to administer, shall for every Inch the said respective Cloths shall be less than the said respective Breadths, and for every Yard the said Broad Cloths called a Long or Whole Cloth, shall exceed the said Length of six and forty Yards, and for every Yard the said Broad Cloth called an End or Half Cloth shall exceed the said Length of three and twenty Yards, and for every Half Yard the said Whole-thick-kerseys or Whole-thick-plains shall be less in Length than seventeen Yards and a Half, as aforesaid, forfeit respectively the Sum of twenty Shillings.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Owner or Occupier of every Fulling Mill in the said County of York, where any of the said respective Cloths shall be milled or fulled, shall fix or cause to be fixed at each End of every such Cloth, before it is carried from the Mill, a Seal of Lead, riveted and stamp'd with his Name, mentioning in Figures the exact Number of Yards and Inches that the said Cloth contains in Length and Breadth, when wet, scoured, and milled, for which he shall be paid, by the owner of the said Cloth, the Sum of one Penny, and no more.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the Owner or Occupier of any such Mill shall at any Time refuse or neglect to fix such Seal, as aforesaid, to any such Cloth, or if any Persons shall afterwards take off, deface, counterfeit, or alter the Figures of any such Seal, before the Cloth is exported or sold to the Retailer, or if any Person whatsoever shall, after the said four and twentieth Day of June, stretch or strain any Piece of the said Woollen Cloths more than one Inch in every Quarter of a Yard in the Breadth, or any Piece of the said Broad Cloths more than one Yard in every twenty Yards in Length, or any Piece of the said Whole-thick-kerseys and Whole-thick-plains more than Half a Yard in every seventeen Yards and an Half in Length, when the said respective Cloths are wet, scoured, and milled, as aforesaid; or if any Owner or Occupier of any such Fulling Mill, as aforesaid, shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, mill or full, or cause to be milled or fulled in any one Stock at the same Time, any more than one whole Broad Cloth, or two half Broad Cloths; then, and in every such Case, every such Person that shall so neglect or offend, and be thereof convicted in Manner aforesaid, shall for every such Neglect or Offence forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings.

V. And be it further enacted, That all such Forfeitures as shall happen by reason of this Act, shall be the one Half thereof to the Informer, and the other Half to the Poor of the Township or Place where the Offence shall be committed; and that if any Offender shall, by the Space of seven Days next after he shall be convicted, refuse or neglect to pay any Forfeiture by him incurred by reason of this Act, then, and not before, it shall and may be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom such Conviction shall be made, and such Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby required, to issue out one or more Warrants under his or their Hands and Seals, to the Constables of the Town or Place where such Offender doth inhabit or can be found, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, returning the Overplus (if any be) to the Offender; and where no sufficient Distress can be found, to commit the Offender to the House of Correction, or Gaol of the County or Corporation, to be kept to hard Labour for such Time as the Justice of the Peace before whom such Conviction shall be made, shall direct, not exceeding one Month for any one Offence.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Penalties incurred by reason of this Act, be inflicted within ten Days next after the Offences are committed, or discovered.

VII. Provided always, That if it shall happen that any such Clothes, as aforesaid, without any wilful Default of the Maker thereof, shall in some Parts (not exceeding in the whole one fifth Part of the Length) be less than the respective Breadths aforesaid, yet such Clothes may be sold without incurring any of the Penalties by this Act imposed on the Maker or Seller thereof.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons find him or themselves aggrieved by any Order or Warrant made by any Justice or Justices of the Peace upon any Conviction before him or them in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may appeal to the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County or Place where such Conviction shall be made, giving sufficient Notice of such Appeal; and if the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions shall think fit to confirm or disanul the said Order or Warrant, they shall allow such Costs and Charges to the Party aggrieved thereby as they shall think reasonable, to be levied and paid in such Manner as is usual in other Cases of Appeals from the Orders of any Justices of the Peace to the Quarter-Sessions.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall hereafter be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons by this Act authorized to put the same in Execution, all and every Person and Persons so sued may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or forbear further prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or a Verdict pass against him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his and their Treble Costs, for which he and they shall have like Remedy as in Cases wherein Costs by Law are given to Defendants; and this Act shall be taken and allowed as a Publick Act in all Courts within this Kingdom; and all Judges and Justices are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such, without special pleading of the same.

C A P. XIV.

An Act for the better Preservation of Parochial Libraries in that Part of Great Britain called England.

WHEREAS in many Places in the South Parts of Great Britain called England and Wales, the Provision for the Clergy is so mean, that the necessary Expence of Books for the better Prosecution of their Studies cannot be defrayed by them; and whereas of late Years, several charitable and well-disposed Persons have by charitable Contributions erected Libraries within several Parishes and Districts in England and Wales; but some Provision is wanting to preserve the same, and such others as shall be provided in the same Manner, from Embezzlement; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Parish or Place where such a Library is or shall be erected, the same shall be preserved for such Use and Uses, as the same is and shall be given, and the Orders and Rules of the Founder or Founders of such Libraries shall be observed and kept.

II. And for the Encouragement of such Founders and Benefactors, and to the Intent they may be satisfied, that their pious and charitable Intent may not be frustrated; Be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister or Curate of a Parish, before he shall be permitted to use and enjoy such Library, shall enter into such Security by Bond or otherwise, for Preservation of such Library, and due Observance of the Rules and Orders belonging to the same, as the proper Ordinaries within their respective Jurisdictions, in their Discretion shall think fit; and in case any Book or Books belonging to the said Library shall be taken away and detained, it shall and may be lawful for the said Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister or Curate for the time being, or any other Person or Persons, to bring an Action of Trover and Conversion, in the Name of the proper Ordinaries within their respective Jurisdictions; whereupon Treble Damages shall be given with full Costs of Suit, as if the same were his or their proper Book or Books, which Damages shall be applied to the Use and Benefit of the said Library.

III. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Ordinary, or his Commissary or Official in his respective Jurisdiction, or the Archdeacon, or by his Direction his Official or Surrogate, if the said Archdeacon be not the Incumbent of the Place where such Library is, in his or their respective Visitation, to enquire into the State and Condition of the said Libraries, and to amend and redress the Grievances and Defects of and concerning the same, as to him or them shall seem meet; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Ordinary, from time to time, as often as shall be thought fit, to appoint such Person or Persons, as he shall think fit, to view the State and Condition of such Libraries, and the said Ordinaries, Archdeacons or Officials respectively, shall have free Access to the same at such Times as they shall respectively appoint.

IV. And be it also further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Library is appropriated to the Use of the Minister of any Parish or Place, every Rector, Vicar, Minister or Curate of the same, within six Months after his Institution, Induction or Admission, shall make or cause to be made a new Catalogue of all Books remaining in, or belonging to such Library, and shall sign the said Catalogue, thereby acknowledging the Custody and Possession of the said Books; which said Catalogue so signed, shall Penalty when to be inflicted.

If any such Clothes shall, without the Default of the Maker, be less than the Breadth aforesaid, they may be sold without Penalty.

The party aggrieved may appeal to the Sessions, who may allow Costs.

The Defendant may plead the General Issue, and shall recover Treble Costs. Publick Act.

Further Provisions concerning

In every Parish where a Library shall be erected, it shall be preserved for the Uses to which it is given, &c.

Incumbents, &c. before they use the Library, shall give Security to preserve it.

If any Book be taken away &c. the Incumbent may bring Trover, and shall recover Treble Damages, to the Use of the Library.

The Ordinary, &c. may inquire into the State of the Library, and amend the Defects; and appoint Persons to inspect the Library.

Incumbent, &c. to make a Catalogue of the Books, to be delivered to the Ordinary,

and registred
without Fee.

Where Libraries are already erected, such Catalogue to be made,
&c. before 29
Sept. 1709.

And where any shall be erected, within 6 Months after.

Upon the Death or Removal of any Incumbent, the Churchwardens shall lock up the Library.

The Vestry, &c.
may meet in such Libraries, if they did so formerly.

The Incumbent shall enter the Benefactions, and Books.

The Ordinary and Donor may make Orders concerning the Library; which shall be entred as aforesaid.

Books not to be alienable without Consent of the Ordinary.
If any Book be lost a Justice of Peace may grant a Warrant to search for it; and if found it shall be restored to the Library.

This Act shall not extend to a Library erected in Ryegate in

shall be delivered to the proper Ordinary within the Time aforesaid, to be kept or registred in his Court, without any Fee or Reward for the same.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where there are any parochial Libraries already erected, the Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate of such Parish or Place, shall make or cause to be made a Catalogue of all Books in the same, thereby acknowledging the Custody and Possession thereof; which Catalogue so signed, shall be delivered to the proper Ordinary, on or before the nine and twentieth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine; and where any Library shall at any Time hereafter be given and appropriated to the Use of any Parish or Place, where there shall be an Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate in Possession, such Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, shall make or cause to be made a Catalogue of all the Books, and deliver the same, as aforesaid, within six Months after he shall receive such Library.

VI. And to prevent any Imbezilment of Books upon the Death or Removal of any Incumbent, Be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately after the Death or Removal of any Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, the Library belonging to such Parish or Place shall be forthwith shut up, and locked, or otherwise secured by the Churchwarden or Churchwardens for the Time being, or by such Person or Persons as shall be authorized or appointed by the proper Ordinary, or Archdeacon respectively, so that the same shall not be opened again, till a new Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate shall be inducted or admitted into the Church of such Parish or Place.

VII. Provided always, That in case the Place where such Library is or shall be kept, shall be used for any publick Occasion for Meeting of the Vestry, or otherwise, for the Dispatch of any Business of the said Parish, or for any other publick Occasion, for which the said Place hath been ordinarily used, the Place shall nevertheless be made use of as formerly for such Purposes, and after such Business dispatched shall be again forthwith shut and locked up, or otherwise secured, as is before directed.

VIII. And be it also further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better Preservation of the Books belonging to such Libraries, and that the Benefactions given towards the same may appear, a Book shall be kept within the said Library for the entring and registering of all such Benefactions, and such Books as shall be given towards the same, and therein the Minister, Rector, Vicar, or Curate of the said Parish or Place, shall enter or cause to be fairly entered such Benefaction, and an Account of all such Books as shall from time to time be given, and by whom given.

IX. And for the better governing the said Libraries, and preserving of the same, It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Ordinary, together with the Donor of such Benefaction, (if living) and after the Death of such Donor, for the proper Ordinary alone, to make such other Rules and Orders concerning the same, over and above, and besides, but not contrary to such as the Donor of such Benefaction shall in his Discretion judge fit and necessary; which said Orders and Rules so to be made, shall, from time to time, be entred in the said Book, or some other Book to be prepared for that Purpose, and kept in the said Library.

X. And it is further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That none of the said Books shall in any Case be alienable, nor any Book or Books that shall hereafter be given by any Benefactor or Benefactors shall be alienated, without the Consent of the proper Ordinary, and then only when there is a Duplicate of such Book or Books; and that in case any Book or Books be taken or otherwise lost out of the said Library, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of Peace within the County, Riding, or Division, to grant his Warrant to search for the same, and in case the same be found, such Book or Books so found shall immediately, by Order of such Justice, be restored to the said Library; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to a publick Library lately erected in the Parish of Ryegate in the County of Surry, for the Use of the Freeholders, Vicar, and Inhabitants of the said Parish, and of the Gentlemen and Clergymen inhabiting in Parts thereto adjacent; the said Library being constituted in another Manner than the Libraries provided for by this Act.

C A P. XV.

An Act for altering Whitsuntide and Lammas Terms, for the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

‘ WHEREAS it is found to be most convenient for the Subjects of Scotland, that the Terms to be kept and observed there, for the sitting of the Court of Exchequer, should be at the same Time that the Court of the Lords of Session is held and kept there; and that therefore it is inconvenient that Whitsuntide Term for the said Court of Exchequer should begin before the Month of June, or that Lammas Term for the same Court should continue after the Month of July; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Whitsuntide Term for the said Court of Exchequer shall at all Times hereafter begin upon the first Day of June, and shall end upon the two and twentieth Day of the said Month of June, and that Lammas Term for the same Court shall also at all Times hereafter begin upon the seventh Day of July, and end upon the six and twentieth Day of the same Month, except any of the said Days, upon which the said Terms are appointed to begin and end, happen to be upon a Sunday, in which Case the Beginning or Ending of such Term, in which that happens, shall be upon the Day following.

Whitsuntide Term for the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, to begin June 1.
and end June 22.
Lammas Term
to begin July 7.
and end July 26.
Except any of the said Days be Sunday.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Processess of the said Court of Exchequer which are returnable upon the first Day of Whitsuntide Term next ensuing, shall be returned into the said Court upon the first Day of June next ensuing, and all Persons obliged to appear or answer in the said Court upon the first Day of the said Term, shall be obliged to appear and answer there upon the said first Day of June, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as such Returns, Appearances, or Answers ought to have been upon the five and twentieth Day of May next, if such Alteration of the said Term, as is above, had not been made.

All Processess returnable the first Day of Whitsuntide Term next, shall be returned the first of June.

An Act for making more effectual an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for the better preventing of Mischiefs that may happen by Fire

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, holden in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Mischiefs that happen by Fire, it was amongst other Things enacted, That each and every Parish within the Cities of London and Westminster, and weekly Bills of Mortality, shall from time to time, and at all Times, have and keep in good Order and Repair, in some known and publick Place within each Parish, a large Engine, and also a Hand Engine, to throw up Water for the extinguishing of Fires, and also provide, keep, and maintain one Leather Pipe and Socket of the same Size as the Plug or Fire Cock, to the Intent the Socket may be put into the Pipe to convey the Water clean, and without Loss, or Help of the Bucket, into the Engine; and for as much as several of the Parishes within the said City of London were, after the great Fire which happened in the Year one thousand six hundred sixty and six, united together, or to each other, and for that some Doubt hath arisen, whether each of the said Parishes so united is not obliged to have and keep two such Engines; Therefore for explaining the same, and avoiding of any Dispute or Question that may arise touching the Construction thereof, Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Parishes so united were intended to be, and shall (for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned) be esteemed and taken as one Parish only.

6 Annæ, c. 31.
11 Geo. 1. c. 28.

The Parishes in London united after the Fire, shall be taken as one Parish for the Purposes in the Act, 6 Annæ, c. 31.

II. And whereas by the said Act a Reward of ten Shillings is to be paid to the Turn Cock belonging to any Water Work, whose Water shall be found on, or first come into the Main or Pipe where the first Plug shall be opened at any Fire; thirty Shillings to the first Engine Keeper which brings in a Parish Engine to help to extinguish any Fire; twenty Shillings to the Keeper of the second Parish Engine that shall be next brought to a Fire; and to the third ten Shillings; by the Churchwardens of each Parish where such Fire shall happen; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where the said Rewards are claimed, by Reason of any Fire happening within the said City of London, or the Liberties thereof, the Churchwardens of the Parish where such Fire shall happen, shall not pay the said Rewards, or any of them, without the Approbation and Direction of the Alderman of the Ward wherein such Parish is situate, or his Deputy, or two of the Common Councilmen of the same Ward for the Time being; and that the said several Rewards shall likewise be paid and payable in like Proportion, and in the same Manner, to the Keeper of any other large Engine, (though not a Parish Engine) who shall bring in such large Engine to help to extinguish any Fire, in good Order, and compleat.

The Rewards to the Turn Cock and others, how to be paid.

III. Provided nevertheless, and it is further enacted, That in Case the Vestries of any of the said united Parishes, or of any other Parishes within the weekly Bills of Mortality, shall at any Time conceive it necessary for the said Parish, in Respect of the Largeness thereof, to have more than one great Engine or Hand Engines, it shall and may be lawful for them to provide more great Engine or Engines, Hand Engine or Hand Engines, at the Charge of the Parish, by an Assessment to be made, as by the said former and this present Act is prescribed and provided; and that the same shall be under the like Regulations and Encouragements as the Engine or Engines respectively to be provided by the said former Act were and are to be.

The Vestries may order more Engines than one to be kept in a Parish.

IV. And to the End the said Act may be made more effectual for the Purposes the same was intended, It is further enacted, That there shall be left at the House, upon which there is a Notice of a Fire Plug, a Key to open the Stop Cock, and also a Pipe for the Water to come thereout; to be made Use of as Occasion shall require.

A Key and Pipe to be left at the House where there is Notice of a Fire Plug.

V. And

The Parish Officers, &c. may assess Rates for maintaining the Engines, &c.

to be levied as Poor Rates, but subject to the like Appeal.

In case of Removal of Mains or Pipes, the like Stop Blocks shall be fixed, and the Key removed to the House where the Fire Pipe is.

The Clause in the Act 6 Annæ, c. 31. that Party Walls should be wholly of Brick or Stone, shall not extend to Houses on London Bridge.

After May 1, 1709, all Houses within the Bills of Mortality, (except on London Bridge, &c.) that shall be built on old or new Foundations, shall have Party Walls between House and House, except Door Cases, &c.

How the Party Walls shall be built.

For the pulling down of Party Walls, see 11 Geo. 1. c. 28. §. 1.

How Chimney Jambs, Backs, &c. shall be built.

' V. And whereas there is no Provision made for raising Monies to defray the necessary Charges of providing and maintaining the said Engine or Engines, Stop Blocks and Fire Cocks, and Keys, and other Implements and Materials, and Payment of the Rewards or Gratuities directed by the said Act; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Inhabitants, in a Vestry duly summoned, of the several Parishes within the Limits aforesaid, shall and may, and they are hereby required from time to time (as often as there shall be Occasion) to rate and assess such competent Sum and Sums of Money as shall be needful and requisite for the Ends aforesaid, in like Manner as by Law they may do for the Maintenance and Relief of the Poor of their respective Parishes; which Rates being allowed and confirmed in like Manner as the Rates made for the Poor are or ought to be, shall be collected and levied in the same Manner as the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor by Law now may or ought to be collected and levied, subject nevertheless to the like Appeal as in case of Rates made for the Relief of the Poor; and the said Officers shall be accountable for the same in like Manner as by Law they are for the Money by them levied and collected for the Relief of the Poor.

VI. An be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that where any Stop Blocks of Wood with Plugs, or any Fire Cocks have been or shall hereafter be made and fixed upon any Mains and Pipes belonging to any Water Works by virtue of this or the said former Act, the Owners of the said Water Works shall afterwards remove, change, or alter the said Mains or Pipes; then in every such Case the Owners of the said Mains or Pipes shall, at their own proper Charges, place and fix the same or the like Stop Blocks, Plugs, and Fire Cocks upon such new Main or Pipe so to be new laid, to be placed where the Churchwardens for the Time being of the Parish where the same were placed, shall direct and appoint; and in such Case of Removal, the Key and Pipe shall be removed to the House upon which Notice shall be of such Fire Plug.

' VII. And whereas by the said Act it was further enacted, That all and every House and Houses that should be erected and built, either upon old or new Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or other Parishes or Places comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, shall have Party Walls between House and House wholly of Brick or Stone, and of two Bricks thick at the least in the Cellar and Ground Stories, and thirteen Inches thick upwards from the Foundation quite through all the Stories of each House, and eighteen Inches above the Roof, and that no Mundillion or Cornish of Timber or Wood under the Eaves, should thereafter be made or suffered in any such new House or Houses; but that all Front and Rear Walls of every House and Houses, shall be built of Brick or Stone, to be carried two Foot and an Half high above the Garret Floor, and coped with Stone or Brick; Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said recited Clause was not intended, or shall be construed to extend to any House or Houses hereafter to be erected and built upon any Part of London Bridge, but that the same may be erected and built with Wood and Timber, as hath been always hitherto used; the said recited Clause, or any other Clause in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, all and every House and Houses that shall be erected and built, either upon old or new Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or other Parishes or Places comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, (except Houses on London Bridge and on the River of Thames below Bridge) shall have Party Walls between House and House, wholly of Brick or Stone (except Door Cases, Windows, Lintels, Breast Summers, Story Posts, and Plates) of two Bricks thick at the least in the Cellar, and one Brick and an Half thick upwards to the Top of the Garret Floor, and all Gable Ends to be one Brick in Length, and eighteen Inches above the Roof, and to have no Beams or Rafters lie or stand, or be in the Brick Works of the Gable Ends.

' IX. And whereas many Suits of Law have been brought about Differences in Party Walls, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Party Walls that shall hereafter be built, shall be built nine Inches on each Man's Ground, whether the old Party Wall be Brick, Stone, or Timber, and that the first Builders shall have Power to pull down the same, and build up the new Party Wall, as aforesaid, and be paid by the Owner of the next House after the Rate of five Pounds per Rod as soon as he shall have built the said Party Wall; and for all Houses hereafter to be built that will not yield the Rent of twenty Pounds per Annum more than the Ground Rent, to be left to the Discretion of the Builders: Provided that all Party Walls for the same be built with Brick.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Chimney Jambs and Backs that shall hereafter be erected or built, shall be nine Inches thick from the Cellars to the Roof, and all Withs the Insides of such Chimnies, shall be four Inches and an Half in Breadth, and all the Funnels plaistered or pargetted the Inside from the Bottom to the Top, and that all Chimnies be turned or arched under the Hearths with Brick, (except upon a Ground Floor) and that no Timber shall lie nearer than five Inches to any Chimney, Funnel, or Fire Place; and all Mantles between the Jambs arched over with Brick, and no Wood or Wainscot shall be placed or affixed to the Front of any Jamb or Mantle of any Chimney, nearer than five Inches from the Inside of such Jamb or Mantle; and that all Gable Ends called nine Inches thick in Party Walls, be rendred on the ruffest Side; and that all Stoves and Boylers, Cop-yers, and Ovens that shall be hereafter set up with Brick or Stone, shall not be nearer than nine Inches at the least to the adjoining House, and no Timber to lie nearer than five Inches to any Fire Place or Flew.

' XI. And

' XI. And whereas the distilling of Turpentine, and the drawing of Oil of Turpentine and Rosin by distilling of common Turpentine, and the boiling of the said Oil and Turpentine together for making of common Varnish, within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, has often been, and may hereafter prove of the most dangerous Consequence to the Neighbourhood where such Trade or Practice has been used, by the frequent Fires that have and may happen thereby: For preventing whereof for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and nine, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to distil or boil any Turpentine, nor draw any Oil of Turpentine and Rosin by distilling of common Turpentine, nor boil the said Oil and Turpentine together, above the Quantity of ten Gallons at any one Time, of all or any the said Commodities, within the said City of London, and Liberties thereof, and the City of Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and the Liberties thereof, in any Workhouse contiguous to any other Building, but shall stand distant from any other Building at least fifty Foot, except such Houses as are already built in Southwark, and are at present used for the said Trade, and except the Still and Furnace built by Daniel Tombes at his House at Holbourn Bridge for the Distillation of Oil of Turpentine; upon Pain that every Person offending therein, shall, for every Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, which Forfeitures shall and may be recovered, with Treble Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be granted or allowed, nor any more than one Impar lance; one Moiety whereof shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall inform and sue for the same.

Not above 10 Gallons of Turpentine, &c. shall be boiled or distilled at one Time in any Workhouse contiguous to other Buildings (except in Houses already built in Southwark, &c.)

upon Pain of forfeiting 100l. to be recovered with Treble Costs;

one Moiety to the Queen, the other to him who will sue, &c.

' XII. And whereas frequent and great Damage happens to Houses by Fire, as likewise constant Decay and Ruin, by setting Brick-work upon Timber, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nine, no Brick or Stone-work in the Fronts, Party, or Partition Walls of any House, Tenement, or other Building whatsoever, which shall be erected upon any new or old Foundation within the Cities of London and Westminster, or their Liberties, shall be supported, depend, or any otherwise bear upon any Sort of Timber or Wood Work (excepting upon Piles and Planks where they are absolutely necessary for Foundations in marshy and unsound Ground, and excepting likewise all Houses upon London Bridge, and on the River of Thames below Bridge); upon Pain that every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, suffer Imprisonment for three Months without Bail or Mainprize.

After June 1709 no Brick or Stone-work in the Fronts, &c.

shall bear upon Timber, &c. on the Penalty of 3 Months Imprisonment.

' XIII. And whereas, since Frames of Wood have been in use for Doors and Windows, it has been the common Practice of Workmen, to set them very near, and often quite ranging with the Outside Face of the Wall, by which Means (being under no Shelter from the Weather) they soon rot and perish, occasioning great Cost and Expence in perpetual Repairs: For Prevention of such Evil and unskilful Practice for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nine, no Door Frame, or Window Frame of Wood to be used in any House or Building, which shall be erected upon old or new Foundations within the aforesaid Cities of London and Westminster, or their Liberties (except Houses on London Bridge, and on the River of Thames below Bridge) shall be set nearer to the Outside Face of the Wall than four Inches.

No Door Frame, &c. of Wood to be nearer the Outside of the Wall than 4 Inches.

An Act to enable Infants who are seized or possessed of Estates in Fee, in Trust, or by Way of Mortgage, to make Conveyances of such Estates.

After 10 May 1709, any Person under the Age of 21, being Trustee, &c. may by the Directions of the Courts of Chancery, or Exchequer, convey such Lands, &c.

and such Conveyance shall be good.

An Infant being Trustee, &c. may be compelled to make such Conveyance, &c.

WHEREAS many Inconveniences do and may arise by Reason that Persons under the Age of one and twenty Years, having Estates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, only in Trust for others, or by Way of Mortgage, cannot (though by the Direction of the Cestuy que Trust, or Mortgagor) convey any sure Estate in any such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to any other Person or Persons: For Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nine, it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Person or Persons, under the Age of one and twenty Years, by the Direction of the High Court of Chancery or the Court of Exchequer, signified by an Order made upon hearing all Parties concerned, on the Petition of the Person or Persons for whom such Infant or Infants shall be seized or possessed in Trust, or of the Mortgagor or Mortgagees, or Guardian or Guardians of such Infant or Infants, or Person or Persons entitled to the Monies secured by or upon any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereof any Infant or Infants are or shall be seized or possessed by Way of Mortgage, or of the Person or Persons entitled to the Redemption thereof, to convey and assure any such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in such Manner as the said Court of Chancery or the Court of Exchequer shall, by such Order so to be obtained, direct, to any other Person or Persons; and such Conveyance or Assurance so to be had and made as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the said Infants or Infant were, at the Time of making such Conveyance or Assurance, of the full Age of one and twenty Years; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Infant or Infants, being only Trustee or Trustees, Mortgagee or Mortgagees as aforesaid, shall and may be compelled by such Order, so as aforesaid to be obtained, to make such Conveyance or Conveyances, Assurance or Assurances as aforesaid, in like Manner as Trustees or Mortgagees of full Age are compellable to convey or assign their Trust Estates, or Mortgages.

An Act for the publick registering of Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, and other Incumbrances which shall be made of, or that may effect any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the County of Middlesex, after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and nine.

A Memorial of Conveyances, made after Sept. 29, 1709, and of all Wills, &c. that may affect any Honors, &c. within the County of Middlesex, may be registered; and every Conveyance made after such Memorial registered, shall be void, &c. unless such Memorial be registered before the registering of the Conveyance, under which, &c.

The like of a Devise by Will. 6 Annæ, c. 35. Abr. Ca. Eq. 38. Registers appointed.

WHEREAS by the different and secret Ways of conveying Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, such as are ill-disposed have it in their Power to commit Frauds, and frequently do so, by Means whereof several Persons (who through many Years Industry in their Trades and Employments, and by great Frugality, have been enabled to purchase Lands, or to lend Monies on Land Security) have been undone in their Purchases and Mortgages by prior and secret Conveyances, and fraudulent Incumbrances; and not only themselves, but their whole Families thereby utterly ruined: For Remedy whereof, may it please your most Excellent Majesty (at the humble Request of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a Memorial of all Deeds and Conveyances, which from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, shall be made and executed, and of all Wills and Devises in Writing, made or to be made and published, where the Devisor or Testatrix shall die after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, of or concerning, and whereby any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the said County, may be any Way affected in Law or Equity, may be registered in such Manner as is herein after directed; and that every such Deed or Conveyance, that shall at any Time after the said twenty-ninth Day of September be made and executed shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent Purchaser or Mortgagee for valuable Consideration, unless such Memorial thereof be registered as by this Act is directed, before the registering of the Memorial of the Deed or Conveyance under which such subsequent Purchaser or Mortgagee shall claim; and that every such Devise by Will shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent Purchaser or Mortgagee for valuable Consideration, unless a Memorial of such Will be registered at such Times and in such Manner as is herein after directed.

II. And for settling and establishing a certain Method, with proper Rules and Directions for registering such Memorials as aforesaid, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one publick Office for registering such Memorials of and concerning any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, that are situate, lying, and being within the said County, shall be erected and established in Manner following; that is to say, That for the better and more effectual putting in Execution the several Matters and Things in this Act contained, the sworn Clerk to execute the Office of Inrolment in the High Court of Chancery, who is appointed to inrol for the County of Middlesex, the chief Clerk to inrol Pleas in the Queen's Bench, the Clerk of the Warrants in the Court of Common Pleas, and the Queen's Remembrancer, or his Deputy in the Court of Exchequer, shall be the Registers or Masters of the Office for the Matters and Things in this Act contained, and also shall and may, from Time to Time, nominate and appoint one or more able and sufficient Person or Persons, for whom they shall be accountable, to be their Deputy or Deputies; which said Registers or their Deputies shall well and truly do and perform all and every the Matters and Things intended by this Act to be done and performed, in some convenient Office or Place to be provided by the said Clerks or Registers in or near some of the Inns of Court or Chancery, whereto all Persons may have free Resort at the Times appointed by this Act; and that the said Clerks or Registers shall present such Deputy or Deputies to the Lord High Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain, to the Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, to the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, and to the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, to be by them, or any three of them, approved of, before such Deputy or Deputies shall enter upon the Execution of the said Office; and that such Deputy or Deputies shall and may be displaced and removed by the said Lord High Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, the Chief Justices of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas, and Chief Baron, or any three of them, by any Writing under their Hands and Seals; and that the said Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, the two Chief Justices, and Chief Baron, or any three of them, shall, from Time to Time, have full Power and Authority to make such Rules and Orders for the better Management and Government of the said Office, agreeable to the Form and true Intention of this Act, as they shall find convenient and necessary.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Register or Master, before he enter upon the Execution of the said Office, shall be sworn before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain, or the Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, and Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, or any one of them (who are hereby impowered and required to administer such Oath) in these Words:

‘YOU shall swear, That you will truly and faithfully perform and execute the Office and Duty that is directed and required by you to be done by Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the publick registering of Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, and other Incumbrances which shall be made of, or that may affect any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the County of Middlesex, after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and nine; and that you have not given or promised, directly or indirectly, nor authorized any Person to give or promise any Money, Gratuity, or Reward whatsoever, for procuring or obtaining the said Office for you:’

So help you God.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Person so appointed Register or Master, shall be lawfully convicted of any Neglect, Misdemeanor, or fraudulent Practice in the Execution of the said Office, he shall be liable to pay Treble Damages, with full Costs of Suit, to every Person that shall be injured thereby, to be recovered as is herein after directed.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Memorials, so to be entered and registred, shall be put into Writing in Vellum or Parchment, and brought to the said Office, and in case of Deeds and Conveyances shall be under the Hand and Seal of some or one of the Grantors, or some or one of the Grantees, his or their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, Guardians or Trustees; attested by two Witnesses, one whereof to be one of the Witnesses to the Execution of such Deed or Conveyance; which Witness shall, upon his Oath before one of the said Registers, or Masters, or before a Master in Chancery ordinary or extraordinary, prove the Signing and Sealing of such Memorial, and the Execution of the Deed or Conveyance mentioned in such Memorial; and in case of Wills, the Memorial shall be under the Hand and Seal of some or one of the Devisees, his or their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, Guardians or Trustees, attested by two Witnesses, one whereof shall, upon his Oath before the said Registers or Masters, or before such Master in Chancery as aforesaid, prove the Signing and Sealing of such Memorial; which respective Oaths the said Registers or Masters, and Masters in Chancery, are hereby impowered to administer, and shall indorse a Certificate thereof on every such Memorial, and sign the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Memorial of any Deed, Conveyance, or Will, shall contain the Day of the Month and the Year when such Deed, Conveyance, or Will bears Date, and the Names and Additions of all the Parties to such Deed or Conveyance, and of the Devisor or Testatrix of such Will, and of all the Witnesses to such Deed, Conveyance, or Will, and the Places of their Abode, and shall express or mention the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments contained in such Deed, Conveyance, or Will, and the Names of all the Parishes, Townships, Hamlets, Precincts, or Extraparochial Places within the said County where any such Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments are lying or being, that are given, granted, conveyed, devised, or any Way affected or charged by any such Deed, Conveyance, or Will, in such Manner as the same are expressed or mentioned in such Deed, Conveyance, or Will, or to the same Effect; and that every such Deed, Conveyance, and Will, or Probat of the same, of which such Memorial is so to be registred as aforesaid, shall be produced to the said Registers or Masters at the Time of entering such Memorial, who shall indorse a Certificate on every such Deed, Conveyance, and Will, or Probat thereof, and therein mention the certain Day, Hour, and Time on which such Memorial is so entered or registred, expressing also in what Book, Page, and Number the same is entred; and that the said Registers or Masters shall sign the said Certificate when so indorsed; which Certificates shall be taken and allowed as Evidence of such respective Registries in all Courts of Record whatsoever; and that every Page of such Register Books, and every Memorial that shall be entred therein, shall be numbered, and the Day of the Month, and the Year, and hour, or Time of the Day when every Memorial is registred, shall be entred in the Margents of the said Register Books and in the Margents of the said Memorial; and that every such Register or Master shall keep an Alphabetical Kalendar of all Parishes, Extraparochial Places and Townships within the said County, with Reference to the Number of every Memorial that concerns the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in every such Parish, Extraparochial Place or Township respectively, and of the Names of the Parties mentioned in such Memorials; and that such Register or Master shall duly file every such Memorial in Order of Time as the same shall be brought to the said Office, and enter or register the said Memorials in the same Order that they shall respectively come to his Hands.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where there are more Writings than one, for making and perfecting any Conveyance or Security, which do name, mention, or any Ways affect or concern the same Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, it shall be a sufficient Memorial and Register thereof, if all the said Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or Extraparochial Places wherein the same lie, be only once named or mentioned in the Memorial or Register of any one of the Deeds or Writings made for the perfecting of such Conveyance or Security; and that the Dates of the rest of the said Deeds or Writings relating to the said Conveyance or Security, with the Names and Additions of the Parties, and Witnesses, and the Places of their Abodes, be only set down in the Memorials and Registers of the same, with a Reference to the Deed or Writing whereof the Memorial is so registred, that contains or expresses the Parcels mentioned in all the said Deeds, and Directions how to find the registering the same.

VIII. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That all Memorials of Wills that shall be registred in Manner as aforesaid, within the space of six Months after the Death of every respective Devisor or Testatrix, dying within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within the Space of three Years after the Death of every respective Devisor or Testatrix, dying upon the Sea, or in any Parts beyond the Seas, shall be as valid and effectual against subsequent Purchasers, as if the same had been registred immediately after the Death of such respective Devisor or Testatrix; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, That in case the Devisee, or Person or Persons interested in the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, devised by any such Will, as aforesaid, by Reason of the Concealment, or Suppression, or contesting such Will, or other inevitable Difficulty, without his, her, or their wilful Neglect and Default, shall be disabled to exhibit a Memorial for the Registry thereof within the respective Times herein before limited, and that a Memorial shall be entred in the said Office of such Contest, or other Impediment within the Space of two Years after the Death of such Devisor or Testatrix, who shall die within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within the Space of four Years next after the Decease of such Person who shall die upon the Sea, or beyond the Seas; then, and in such Case, the Registry of the Memorial of such Will, within the Space of six Months next after his, her, or their Attainment of such Will, or a Probat thereof, or Removal of the Impediment whereby he, she, or they are disabled or hindered to exhibit such Memorial, shall be a sufficient Registry within the Meaning of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. Provided nevertheless, That in case of any Concealment, or Suppression of any Will, or Devise, any Purchaser or Purchasers shall not be disturbed, or defeated in his or their Purchase, unless the Will be actually registred within five Years after the Death of the Devisor or Testatrix.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every such Register or Master shall be allowed for the Entry of every such Memorial, as is by this Act directed, the Sum of one Shilling, and no more, in case the same do not exceed two hundred Words; but if such Memorial shall exceed two hundred Words, then after the Rate and Proportion of six Pence an Hundred for all the Words contained in such Memorial, over and above the first two hundred Words, and the like Fees for the like Number of Words contained in every Certificate or Copy given out of the said Office, and no more, and for every Search in the said Office, one Shilling and no more.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Register or Master shall give due Attendance at his Office every Day in the Week (except Sundays and Holy-days) between the Hours of Nine and Twelve in the Forenoon, and the Hours of Two and Five in the Afternoon, for the Dispatch of all Business belonging to the said Office; and that every such Register or Master, as often as required, shall make Searches concerning all Memorials that are registred, as aforesaid, and give Certificates concerning the same under his Hand (if required by any Person) testified by two credible Witnesses.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That each of the said Registers or Masters at the Time of his being sworn into the said Office, as aforesaid, shall enter into a Recognizance with two or more sufficient Sureties (to be approved of by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain, or the Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, and Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, or any one of them) of the Penalty of two thousand Pounds unto her Majesty, her Heir and Successors, to be taken by one of the said Chief Justices, conditioned for his true and faithful Performance of his Duty in the Execution of his said Office, in all Things directed and required by this Act; the same to be transmitted by such Chief Justice within one Month next after the Date thereof, into the Office of her Majesty's Remembrancer of the Exchequer, there to remain amongst the Records of the said Court.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Damages before-mentioned, to be forfeited by any such Register or Master, for any Neglect, Misdemeanor, or fraudulent Practice in the Execution of his Office, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Impar lance.

Forfeiture for his Neglect, how to be recovered.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Entry of the Acknowledgment of any such Memorial, Certificate or Indorsement, as is herein mentioned or directed, and be thereof lawfully convicted, such Person or Persons shall incur and be liable to such Pains and Penalties as in and by an Act made in the fifth Year of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act against Forgers of false Deeds and Writings, are imposed upon Persons for forging and publishing of false Deeds, Charters or Writings, sealed Court Rolls or Wills, whereby the Freehold or Inheritance of any Person or Persons of, in or to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall or may be molested, troubled or charged; and that if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forswear himself before the said Registers or Masters, or before any Judge, or Master in Chancery, in any of the Cases herein mentioned, and be thereof lawfully convicted, such Person or Persons shall incur and be liable to the same Penalties as if the same Oath had been made in any of the Courts of Record at Westminster.

Persons forging an Entry of any Memorial, liable to the Punishments in the Act of 5 Eliz. c. 14.

Perjury before a Register, how to be punished.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of Mortgages, whereof Memorials shall be entered in the said Register Office pursuant to this Act, if at any Time afterwards a Certificate shall be brought to the said Registers or Masters, signed by the Mortgagee or Mortgagees in such Mortgage, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, and attested by two Witnesses, whereby it shall appear that all Monies due upon such Mortgage have been paid or satisfied in Discharge thereof, which Witnesses shall upon their Oaths before the said Registers or Masters, or before a Master in Chancery, ordinary or extraordinary (who are hereby respectively impowered to administer such Oath) prove such Monies to be satisfied or paid accordingly, and that they saw such Certificate signed by the said Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns; that then, and in every such Case, the said Registers or Masters shall make an Entry in the Margents of the said Register Books against the Registry of the Memorial of such Mortgage, that such Mortgage was satisfied and discharged according to such Certificate, to which the same Entry shall refer, and shall after file such Certificate, to remain upon Record in the said Register Office.

Upon Certificate and Proof made to the Register, that Money due on a Mortgage entered in the Registry, has been satisfied, the Register shall make an Entry in the Margent, against the Inrolment, &c.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend to any Copyhold Estates, or to any Leases at a Rack Rent, or to any Lease not exceeding one and twenty Years, where the actual Possession and Occupation goeth along with the Lease, or to any of the Chambers in Serjeants Inn, the Inns of Court, or Inns of Chancery; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

This Act not to extend to Copyhold Estates, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Judgment, Statute or Recognizance, (other than such as shall be entered into in the Name, and upon the proper Account of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors) which shall be obtained or entered into after the said twenty-ninth Day of September in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, shall affect or bind any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, situate, lying, and being in the said County of Middlesex, but only from the Time that a Memorial of such Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance shall be entered at the said Register Office, expressing and containing, in case of such Judgment, the Names of the Plaintiffs, and the Names, Additions, and Places of Abode, (if any such be in such Judgment) of the Defendants, the Sums thereby recovered, and the Time of the signing thereof; and in case of Statutes and Recognizances, expressing and containing the Date of such Statute or Recognizance, the Names, Additions, and Places of Abode of the Cognizors and Cognizees therein, and for what Sums, and before whom the same were acknowledged; and that in order to the making an Entry of such Memorials of Judgments, Statutes and Recognizances, as aforesaid, the Party and Parties desiring the same shall produce to, and leave with the said Registers or Masters, to be filed in the said publick or Register Office, a Memorial of such Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance, signed by the proper Officer or his Deputy, who shall sign such Judgment in the same Office, or by the proper Officer, in whose Office such Statute, or Recognizance shall be inrolled, together with an Affidavit sworn before one of the Judges at Westminster, or a Master in Chancery, that such Memorial was duly signed by the Officer whose Name shall appear to be thereunto set; which Memorial such respective Officer is hereby required to give such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Cognizee or Cognizees, or his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, or Attorney, or any of them, he, she, or they paying for the same the Sum of one Shilling, and no more.

After 29 Sept. 1709. no Judgments, &c. (other than such as are entered into in the Name of the Queen, &c.) shall bind Hereditaments in Middlesex, but from the Time a Memorial thereof shall be entered, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Register or Master shall make an Entry, and likewise (if required) shall give a Certificate in Writing under his Hand, testified by two credible Witnesses, of every such Memorial of any Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance brought to him to be so registred, as aforesaid, and therein mention the certain Day on which such Memorial is so registred or entered, expressing also in what Book, Page, and Number the same is entered.

The Register to make an Entry, and (if required) to give a Certificate of such Memorial, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be taken and allowed in all Courts within this Kingdom as a Publick Act, and all Judges, Justices, and other Persons therein concerned, are hereby required as such to take Notice thereof, without special pleading the same.

Publick Act.

XXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Member of Parliament shall be capable of being Register, or of executing by himself or any other Person or Persons, the said Office, or to have, take, or receive any Fee or other Profit whatsoever issuing out of the said Office, or for or in Respect thereof; nor shall any such Register, or his Deputy, or any Person or Persons receiving Profit out of the said Office, be at any Time hereafter capable of being, or being chosen, a Member to serve in Parliament.

No Member of Parliament capable to be Register, &c. Nor any Register to be a Member of Parliament.

C A P. XXI.

An Act for improving the Union of the Two Kingdoms.

5 Ann. c. 8.
6 Ann. c. 6.

After 1 July
1709. High Treason and Misprison in England shall be so in Scotland, and no other.
And the Queen,
&c. may grant
Commissions of Oyer and Terminer in Scotland under the Seal of Great Britain
to hear and determine such Treasons, &c.

A Justice General who had Jurisdiction before this Act, to be in the Commission, and one of the Quorum.

The Justice Court, &c. shall try Treasons in Scotland by a Jury.

Indictments of Treason, &c. before Justices of Oyer, &c. may be removed by Certiorari into the Justice Court, and there tried as in England.

Persons attainted of Treason in Scotland, to be liable to the same Penalties as in England.

A Person seized of an Estate Tail in Scotland, and married before the said first of July, shall forfeit his Lands upon such Attainder but for his Life only, and his issue shall inherit. Treasons committed by Scotsmen upon the High Sea, or out of Great Britain, shall be determined by the Justice Court, ‘ WHEREAS nothing can more conduce to the improving the Union of the Two Kingdoms, which by her Majesty’s great Wisdom and Goodness hath been happily effected, than that the Laws of both Parts of Great Britain should agree, as near as may be, especially those Laws which relate to High Treason, and the proceedings thereupon, as to the Nature of the Crime, the Method of Prosecution and Trial, and also the Forfeitures and Punishments of that Offence; which are of the greatest Concern both to the Crown, and the Subjects:’ To the end therefore that the said Union may be more effectually improved, be in it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, such Crimes and Offences which are High Treason or Misprison of High Treason within England, shall be construed, adjudged, and taken to be High Treason and Misprison of High Treason within Scotland; and that from thenceforth no Crimes or Offences shall be High Treason or Misprison of High Treason within Scotland, but those that are High Treason or Misprison of High Treason in England; and that from and after the said first Day of July in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, the Queen’s Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, may issue out Commissions of Oyer and Terminer in Scotland, under the Seal of Great Britain, to such Persons, as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall think fit, and that Three of the Lords of the Justiciary be in the said Commission of Oyer and Terminer, whereof one to be of the Quorum, to enquire of, hear and determine such High Treasons and Misprison of High Treason, in such Manner as is used in England.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Commission of Oyer and Terminer shall issue pursuant to this Act, and is to be executed within any District where there is a Justice General, or Person having Right of Justiciary, who had Jurisdiction in Cases of High Treason and Misprison of High Treason at the Time of the making of this Act, from and after the Time that such Right be made appear before the Lords of Session, and by them certified to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, such Justice General, or such Person having Right of Justiciary, or their respective Deputy, shall be in the said Commission, and one of the Quorum.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and nine, the Justice Court and other Courts having Power to judge in Cases of High Treason and Misprison of High Treason in Scotland, shall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby required, to enquire by the Oaths of Twelve or more good and lawful Men of the County, Shire or Stewartry where the respective Courts shall sit, of all High Treasons and Misprisions of High Treason committed within the said Counties, Shires, or Stewartries, and thereupon to proceed, hear and determine the said Offences whereof any Person shall be indicted before them, in such Manner as the Court of Queen’s Bench or Justices of Oyer and Terminer in England may do by the Laws of England: And if any Person be indicted of High Treason or Misprison of High Treason before any Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or in the Circuit Courts, or other Courts having Power to judge in Cases of High Treason or Misprison of High Treason in Scotland, then upon the Request of the Queen’s Advocate General to the Lord High Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being, the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper shall award her Majesty’s Writ of Certiorari under the said Great Seal, directed to the Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or the Justices of the Circuit Courts, and such other Courts, thereby commanding them, or any of them, to certify such Indictment into the Justice Court; which Court shall have full Power and Authority, and is hereby required, to proceed upon, hear and determine the same, as the Court of Queen’s Bench in England may do upon Indictments removed or certified into the said Court; and that from and after the said first Day of July in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, all Persons convicted or attainted of High Treason or Misprison of High Treason in Scotland, shall be subject and liable to the same Corruption of Blood, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Persons convicted or attainted of High Treason or Misprison of High Treason in England.

IV. Provided always, That where any Person now is, or shall be, before the said first Day of July, seized of any Messuages, Lands, Seigniories, Rents, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Scotland, of an Estate Tail, that is to say, an Estate Tailzie, affected with Irritant and Resolutive, or Prohibitive Clauses, and is, or before the said first Day of July shall be married, if any Issue of that Marriage be living, or there be Possibility of such Issue at the Time of the High Treason committed, that then in such Case the said Messuages, Lands, Seigniories, Rents, Tenements, and Hereditaments, shall not be forfeited upon the attainder of such Person for High Treason, (but during the Life of the Person so attainted only) so that the Issue and Heirs in Tail of such Marriage shall inherit the same, the said attainder notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Treasons and Misprisions of Treasons, which from and after the said first Day of July shall be done or committed by any Native of Scotland upon the High Sea, or in any Place out of this Realm of Great Britain, shall be enquired of, heard and determined before the said Justice Court, or before such Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, and in such Shire, Stewartry, or County of Great Britain, as shall be assigned by the Queen’s Commission, and by good and lawful Men of the same Shire, in like Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Treasons or Misprisions of Treasons had been done or committed in the same Shire where they shall be enquired of, heard and determined, as aforesaid: And that from and after the said first Day of July in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine, no Person accused of any capital Offence, or other Crime in Scotland, shall suffer, or be subject or liable to any Torture: Provided that this Act shall not extend to take away that Judgment which is given in England against Persons indicted of Felony, who shall refuse to plead, or decline Trial.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person may be summoned and returned to be a Jurymen in any such Trials, as aforesaid, who shall at the Time of such Trial have and be seized of in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, of Lands or Tenements, of an Estate of Inheritance, or for his or her Life, or the Life of some other Person, within the County, Stewartry, or Place where any such Trial shall be, or from whence the Jury is to come, of the yearly Value of forty Shillings Sterling at least; and for want thereof, or for any other lawful Cause, shall be subject to be challenged and set aside.

VII. And whereas the Crimes after-mentioned are by several Acts of Parliament in Scotland declared to be Treason, and the Committers thereof are appointed to be punished with the same Pains and Faultures as Committers of Treason, and that after the first Day of July aforesaid, the aforesaid Act of Parliament in Scotland will have no Force nor Effect, seeing no Facts nor Offences are to be deemed Treason within Scotland after that Time, but such as are so by the Acts and Statutes now in force in England; Be it therefore by the Authority aforesaid further enacted, That Theft in landed Men, Murder under Trust, wilful Fire-raising, firing Coalheughs, and Assassination, which were declared to be Treason by particular Statutes in Scotland, shall after the aforesaid Time be only adjudged and deemed to be capital Offences, and the Committers thereof shall be only liable to such Pains and Punishments as by the Law of Scotland are to be inflicted upon the Committers of capital Crimes and Offences, and the Persons Committers thereof are to be punished and tried in the same Manner as by the Laws of Scotland is provided in the Cases of other capital Crimes; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall, from and after the said first Day of July, slay any of the Lords of Session, Lords of Justiciary, sitting in Judgment in the Exercise of their Office within Scotland, that the doing thereof shall be construed, adjudged and taken to be High Treason.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of July, if any Person counterfeit her Majesty's Seals appointed by the twenty-fourth Article of the Union, to be kept, used, and continued in Scotland, that the doing thereof shall be construed and adjudged to be High Treason.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the Decease of the Person who pretended to be Prince of Wales during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since pretends to be King of Great Britain, and at the End of the Term of three Years after the immediate Succession to the Crown, upon the Demise of her present Majesty, shall take effect, as the same is and stands limited by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown; and by one other Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, no Attainder for Treason shall extend to the disheriting of any Heir, nor to the Prejudice of the Right or Title of any Person or Persons, other than the Right or Title of the Offender or Offenders, during his, her, or their natural Lives only; and that it shall and may be lawful to every Person or Persons to whom the Right or Interest of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, after the Death of any such Offender or Offenders, should or might have appertained, if no such Attainder had been, to enter into the same.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Decease of the Person who pretended to be Prince of Wales during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since pretends to be King of Great Britain, and at the End of the Term of three Years after the immediate Succession to the Crown, upon the Demise of her present Majesty, shall take effect, as the same is and stands limited by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesty's King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown, and by one other Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, when any Person is indicted for High Treason, or Misprision of Treason, a List of the Witnesses that shall be produced on the Trial, for proving the said Indictment, and of the Jury, mentioning the Names, Profession, and Place of Abode of the said Witnesses and Jurors, be also given at the same Time that the Copy of the Indictment is delivered to the Party indicted; and that Copies of all Indictments for the Offences aforesaid, with such Lists, shall be delivered to the Party indicted, ten days before the Trial, and in Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for the Queen's most gracious, general, and free Pardon.

ANNE R.

THE Queen's most Excellent Majesty calling to mind how many Ways her loving and obedient Subjects have, from time to time, expressed their dutiful Affections towards her Majesty, and considering ‘ing that divers of her said Subjects may by sundry Ways have fallen into the Danger of very many Penalties and Forfeitures, ordained by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, from which they can in no wise be freed but by her Majesty’s great Goodness and Clemency; and being graciously inclined to encourage and invite all her loving Subjects to live and continue in their due Obedience to her Majesty, rather by Acts of Grace and Mercy, than by a severe Execution of Justice; and having an especial Trust and Confidence in her said Subjects, that they will with more Cheerfulness and Affection apply themselves to the Discharge of their respective Duties towards her Majesty, and her Government, when they shall be released and freed from the many Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures to which they are now liable, hath thought fit to grant her general and free Pardon, in a large and more bountiful Manner than hath heretofore been done:’ And therefore her Majesty is well pleased and contented that it be enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament; And be it enacted, &c.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act for raising the Militia for the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine, although the Month’s Pay formerly advanced be not repaid. E X P.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act for continuing the former Acts for the Encouragement of the Coinage, and to encourage the bringing Foreign Coins and British or Foreign Plate to be coined, and for making Provision for the Mints in Scotland, and for the prosecuting Offences concerning the Coin in England.

18 Car. 2. c. 5. ‘WHEREAS great Benefit and Advantage hath accrued to this Kingdom by one Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intitled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, and continued by another Act made in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King CHARLES, intitled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage; both which said Acts were revived by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his Majesty King JAMES the Second, and were continued by an Act made in the fourth and fifth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of blessed Memory, and were further continued by an Act made in the twelfth and thirteenth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM of glorious Memory, to be in force for seven Years, from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and one, and from thence to the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; so that unless the said Acts be revived and continued, the Encouragement given thereby will cease, and this Kingdom be deprived for the future of so great a Good as it hath for many Years last past enjoyed:’ Now we your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do give and grant unto your Majesty the Rates, Duties, and Impositions herein after mentioned, for and during the Term and Time herein after expressed; and do humbly pray that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such and the like Rates, Duties, and Impositions, as by the said Act of Parliament of the eighteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second were granted, and by the said subsequent Acts were continued, for and upon the Importation of Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy, and Strong Waters imported, during the respective Terms therein mentioned, shall be further continued, and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy, and strong Waters, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, within or during the Space of seven Years, to commence from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; and that the said Act of the eighteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and also one other Act made in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intitled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage; and one other Act made in the fourth Year of her now Majesty’s Reign, intitled, An Act to impower the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, to issue out of the Monies arising by the Coinage Duty, any Sum not exceeding five hundred Pounds, over and above the Sum of three thousand Pounds yearly, for the Uses of the Mint; and every Clause, Article and Sentence in the said Acts, or any of them contained, shall be, and are by virtue of this Act, revived and continued, and shall be in Force, and be extended to all Wines, and such other Liquors, as aforesaid, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, for and during all such Term and Time as are before-mentioned.

Time before-mentioned. Farther continued by 19 Geo. 2. c. 14. 27 Geo. 2. c. 11. 1 Geo. 3. c. 16.

The Lord High Treasurer, &c. may require the Master of the Mint to issue out of the Overplus Money arising by the Coinage Duty, 6000 l. for the Payment of 2 d. ob. per

‘II. And whereas the giving a further Encouragement at this Time to the Coinage of Silver Money, may be an Advantage to the Publick,’ Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, by his or their Warrant or Warrants, to authorize and require the Master and Worker of her Majesty’s Mint or Mints for the Time being, out of the Office of Receipt of the said Mint or Mints, according to the Manner and Course of the same, to issue or dispose of the Overplus of the Money that hath arisen or shall arise by the Coinage Duty, any Sum or Sums not exceeding six thousand Pounds, for and towards the Payment of any Sum or Sums not exceeding two Pence Halfpenny per Ounce for every Ounce of Foreign Coins, and Foreign or British Wrought Plate, of the Standard of eleven Ounces two Penny-weight fine, or reduced thereunto, as shall be brought into the said Mint or Mints from and after the twentieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and nine, until the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and nine then next following, and no longer, there to be coined into the Current Coins of Great Britain; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That over and above the Sums not exceeding three thousand Pounds per Annum, and five hundred Pounds per Annum, mentioned in the said former Acts, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Treasurer of Great Britain, and Under Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of the said Commissioners for the Time being, by Order or Warrants, to issue out of the Exchequer, or dispose of the Monies arising by the said Coinage Duties, yearly and every Year, from and after the Commencement, and during the Continuance of this Act, and no longer, such Sum as he or they shall think necessary and reasonable, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of twelve hundred Pounds for the Fees and Salaries of the Officers of the Mint or Mints in Scotland, and towards the providing, maintaining, and repairing the Houses, Offices, and Buildings, and other Necessaries for assaying, melting down, and coining in the Mints of Scotland; any Thing in the said before recited Acts, or any other Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That (over and above the Sums not exceeding three thousand Pounds per Annum, and five hundred Pounds per Annum, mentioned in the said former Acts, for the Uses of the Mint) it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, and the Under Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, by Orders or Warrants, to issue out of the Exchequer, or dispose of the Monies arising by the said Coinage Duty, yearly and every Year, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nine, any Sum or Sums not exceeding the yearly Sum of four hundred Pounds, for the Charges and Expences of the Officers, and others employed and to be employed in the Prosecution of Offences in counterfeiting, diminishing, or otherwise concerning the current Coins of Great Britain, in that Part thereof called England; and any Officer or Officers employed, as aforesaid, may have and receive the said Sum not exceeding four hundred Pounds, or any Part thereof, without being liable to any Forfeiture, Disability, or Incapacity whatsoever; the said recited Acts, or any other Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for making perpetual an Act for the better preventing the Counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom, as also an Act for giving like Remedy upon promissory Notes as is used upon Bills of Exchange, and for the better Payment of Inland Bills of Exchange, and also for continuing several Acts made in the fourth and fifth Years of her Majesty's Reign for preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts.

‘ W H E R E A S the temporary Laws following, which by Experience have been found beneficial and useful, are expired, or near expiring;’ Therefore for continuing the same, be it enacted by Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the Session of Parliament held in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the Counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom, which was to continue for one Year, was by a Clause in another Act made in the ninth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, continued in Force unto the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and one; which Act was further continued by an Act made in the first Year of her present Majesty's Reign, till the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nine, and from thence to the End of the first Session of Parliament then next ensuing, shall be, and is hereby continued, and shall be in Force, and is hereby made perpetual.

‘ II. And whereas by an Act made in the eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the Counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom, it is ordained, That no Prosecution shall be made for any Offence against the said Act, unless such Prosecution be commenced with three Months after such Offence committed;’ Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Prosecution of such Person or Persons as offend against the said Act, by making or mending, or beginning or proceeding to make or mend any coining Tool or Instrument therein prohibited, or by marking of Money round the Edges with Letters or Grainings, may be commenced at any Time within six Months after such Offence committed; any thing in the said Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth Years of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for giving like Remedy upon promissory Notes as is used upon Bills of Exchange, and for the better Payment of Inland Bills of Exchange, which was to continue for the Space of three Years from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and five, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, shall be, and is hereby continued, and shall be in Force, and is hereby made perpetual.

‘ The Statute 4 Annæ, c. 17. and 5 Annæ, c. 22. concerning Bankrupts, continued from the 25th of April 1709, for five Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament. E X P.

C A P. XXVI.

Over and above the 3000 l. per Annum, and the 500 l. per Annum, mentioned in the former Acts, the Lord Treasurer, &c. may issue out of the Exchequer any Sum not exceeding 1200 l. per Annum, for the Salaries of the Officers of the Mint.

After 1 June 1709, the Lord Treasurer, &c. may further issue, &c. 400 l. per Annum, for the Charges of Officers, to be employed in prosecuting Offences in counterfeiting, &c. the Coin of Great Britain.

The Act 8 W. 3. c. 26.

Continued by 9 W. 3. c. 2. and further continued by 1 Annæ stat. 1. c. 9. made perpetual.

8 Annæ, c. 26.

The Prosecution of Offences against 8 W. 3. c. 26. may be commenced in 6 Months after the Offence.

The Act 3 & 4 Annæ, c. 9. concerning promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, made perpetual.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act for appointing Commissioners to treat and agree for such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as shall be judged proper to be purchased for the better fortifying Portsmouth, Chatham, and Harwich.

“ WHEREAS for the better securing her Majesty’s Docks, Ships of War, and Stores, ’tis highly necessary to enlarge and strengthen the Fortifications at or near Portsmouth, Chatham, and Harwich; and in Order thereunto, to purchase several Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, some of which are or may be the Estates of Infants, Femes Covert, Ecclesiastical Corporations, or other Persons who by Law are disabled to make any Contracts or Conveyances; in all which Cases, as likewise where any Proprietors designing to obstruct the publick Service, or to make any unreasonable Gain to themselves, insist on extravagant Rates, ’twill be necessary to have Recourse to the usual Methods that have been taken in such like Cases; Be it therefore enacted, &c.

“ The Queen to appoint Commissioners to survey, &c. the Lands to be purchased. Any five of the Commissioners appointed to treat and agree with the Owners of the Lands, &c. Persons refusing to treat, or incapable, the Commissioners may issue Warrants to the Sheriff to impanel and return a Jury, who shall enquire into the true Value, &c. Farther Provision for the Land Owners by 8 Annæ, c. 21. §. 1. and their Verdict shall be certified into the Chancery by the 23d of October 1709. The Commissioners not to be liable to the Penalties in the Act of 25 Car. 2. c. 2. nor 1 W. & M. Sess. 1. c. 8. Nor 13 & 14 W. 5. c. 6. The Commissioners not to be disqualified from sitting in the House of Commons. P R.”

An Act to prohibit the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch, and Low Wines, Spirits, Worts, and Wash drawn from malted Corn.

" WHEREAS the Price of Corn at this Time within the Kingdom of Great Britain is become very great, and (in some Parts thereof) excessive, which tends to the Impoverishment of many of her Majesty's good Subjects, especially of poor Manufacturers, and others of a meaner Condition, and by Reason that Corn in several other Parts of Europe is scarcer and dearer than in Great Britain, it is likely that several Persons, for their private Advantage or Lucre, will not only export or carry great Quantities of Corn from this Kingdom, but likewise distil excessive Quantities of Low Wines and Spirits from Malt, Corn, or Grain, in order to export the same to Foreign Parts, whereby the Price of Corn will be further enhanced, to the Detriment of her Majesty's good Subjects, and the Destruction of many of them, if a timely Remedy in this Behalf be not provided; Be it therefore enacted, &c.

" No Corn, Low Wines, &c. to be exported before 29 Sept. 1710. Master and Mariners offending to be imprisoned for three Months. Officers of the Customs may seize all such Corn, &c. Proviso for Corn, &c. to be exported for Ship's Use: Or for the Factories in Africa, or Colonies in America: Or for the British Fishery in those Parts. Exporter to declare the Colony, &c. for which the Corn, &c. is bound, and give Security. Malt or Barley may be transported from Southampton for Jersey or Guernsey, not exceeding 5000 Quarters. Corn, &c. may be carried Coastwise, &c. Her Majesty by Proclamation may permit the Exportation of Corn, &c. before 29 Sept. 1710. Commissioners of Customs to give Account to next Session of Parliament of all Corn, &c. exported. E X P.

XI. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said several Duties by this Act granted, as well for and upon such Coals, Culm, and Cynders, as upon such Houses, as aforesaid, shall be liable to, and be charged and chargeable with the yearly Fund herein after mentioned, and all the Annuities to be payable out of the same, in pursuance of this Act, during the whole Term of thirty-two Years herein after expressed, and all the same Duties (except the necessary Charges before-mentioned) are and shall be appropriated thereunto, in such Manner, that all the Monies which shall, from time to time, be or remain due or in Arrear, for or upon the said Annuities, or any of them, or for any Arrears thereof (if any such be) shall, from time to time, in the first place be paid and satisfied out of the said several and respective Duties by this Act granted, or some of them, with Preference to any other Payments that shall or may hereafter be charged upon the same Duties, or any of them, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are hereafter in this Act contained in that Behalf.

XII. And to the end all the Monies arising by the said Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and by the said Duties upon Houses by this Act granted, may be duly and certainly raised and brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer for the Purposes aforesaid; It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of the Customs, Receivers General, Collectors, Surveyors, and other Officers, as shall be proper and necessary for managing, governing, levying, collecting, receiving, and paying the respective Duties by this Act granted, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the said Receivers General, Collectors, Surveyors, and other Officers, who are or shall be concerned in the raising, collecting, receiving, and paying the said respective Duties hereby granted, or any of them, and keeping and rendering the several Accounts thereof, shall perform their several Duties therein, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the said Monies, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by Virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties on Salt, and upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies, which were granted, or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

XIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year during the said Term of thirty-two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, the full Sum of one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said Duties on Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and by the said Duties on Houses by this Act granted, or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforesaid, in case the same shall extend thereunto, shall be the whole and entire yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer, of or for the said Duties, shall not amount to one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same will extend, shall be Part of the yearly Fund, for and towards the answering or paying of the Annuities herein after mentioned; and in case the said Duties by this Act granted, shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year, to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer, for or upon Account of the same Duties, shall not amount to so much as one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds, or to so much as shall be sufficient to discharge and satisfy all the Annuities by this Act appointed, or intended to be paid, within or for the same Year respectively, That then and so often, and in every such Case, so much as shall be wanting to make up the said Fund for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good, from time to time, out of the first Aid to be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall from time to time be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same shall be granted.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute for or towards advancing the Sum of one million five hundred thousand Pounds, for carrying on the said War, by paying, at or before the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, to any Receiver or Receivers to be appointed for that Purpose, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of ten Pounds, or divers entire Sums of ten Pounds, upon this Act; and that for the raising the said Sum of one million five hundred thousand with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parlia- ment assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the Feast of the Annunciation, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, there shall be, within and throughout the whole Realm of Great Britain, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and during the Term and Space of thirty-two Years from thence next and im- mediately ensuing, and fully to be compleat and ended, for Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors herein after expressed, by Way of Excise, over and above all Duties, Charges, and Impositions, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament set or imposed, the several Rates and Duties of Excise herein after expressed; that is to say,

New duties of Excise for 32 Years, from 25 March 1710. made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 1.

For every Barrel of Beer or Ale (above six Shillings the Barrel, exclusive of the Duties of Excise) brewed by the common Brewer, or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, to be paid by the common Brewer, or by such other Person or Persons respective- ly, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, three Pence.

Strong Beer.

For every Barrel of six Shilling Beer or Ale, or under, brewed by the common Brewer, or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, to be paid by the said common Brewer, or by such other Person or Persons respectively, as aforesaid, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, one Penny.

Small Beer.

For all Cyder and Perry made and sold by Retail, upon every Hoghead, to be paid by the Retailer thereof, and so proportionably for any greater or lesser Measure, five Pence.

Cyder and Perry.

For all Verjuice made for Sale, upon every Hoghead, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and so propor- tionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, five Pence.

Verjuice.

For all Metheglin or Mead, made for Sale, whether by Retail, or otherwise, to be paid by the Maker thereof, upon every Gallon, one Penny.

Metheglin, or Mead.

For and upon every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, which shall be brewed or made of any English or Foreign Materials, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, for Sale, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Maker thereof, nine Pence.

Vinegar.

For every Gallon of Strong Waters or Aqua Vitæ, made for Sale, to be paid by the Maker thereof, one Penny.

Strong Waters.

Spirits.

And for every Gallon of Spirits made in Great Britain, of any kind of Wine or Cyder imported, two Pence.

New Duties how to be collected.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Rates, Duties, and Impositions upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors aforesaid, and all Arrearages thereof, be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, during the said Space and Term of thirty-two Years, in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of Mitigation, and other Powers, and with such Allowances, as any the Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are by any Act or Acts of Parliament or Law whatsoever, now in Force, enacted, appointed, or allowed to be raised, levied, collected, managed, recovered, and paid; and that so much of the said Acts as are now in Force, for the raising, levying, collecting, paying, or answering the said Duties of Excise, or any of them, formerly granted, shall be continued and revived, and be practised, put in Execution, and observed, in and for the raising, levying, collecting, managing, adjudging, and answering the said Duties of Excise, by this Act granted, for and during the said Term of thirty-two Years, and all Arrearages thereof, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, as fully and effectually as if the same were particularly and at large re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Two-penny Ale.
This Section explained by 12
Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 62.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the Barrel of Two-penny Ale, mentioned and described in the seventh Article of the Treaty of Union, there shall be only paid and charged, by Virtue of this Act, such a proportional Part of three Pence, as two Shillings bears to four Shillings and nine Pence, over and above the other Duties wherewith the said Barrel of Ale is charged in the said Article.

Vinegar for Pickles liable to the Duties.
Refer to 10 & 11
W. 3. c. 21. f. 8.

IV. And whereas it may be doubted whether such Persons as make Vinegar, and use the same in the preparing or making of Pickles for Sale, are Vinegar-makers within the Meaning of this and the other Acts relating to the Duties upon Vinegar; It is hereby declared, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Vinegar so made and used is and shall be liable to the Duties by this Act, and the former Acts, whereby the Duties on Vinegar are imposed; and the said Persons shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be deemed and taken to be the Makers of Vinegar for Sale, within the Meaning of the same Acts.

Vinegar for making White
Lead not liable.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this or any other Act, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with this or any other Duty, such Vinegar as shall be made by the Manufacturers of White Lead only, and used and consumed by themselves, in the making and preparing the same, and to no other use whatsoever; nevertheless, such Makers of Vinegar, so used in the preparing of White Lead (in case they shall sell or deliver out any Vinegar whatsoever by them made, to any Person or Persons, or employ the same for any other Use) shall from henceforth be chargeable with all Duties payable to her Majesty by Vinegar-makers, for all Vinegar by them made or to be made.

New Duties on Pepper, &c. for 32 Years, from 6 February 1709.
Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c.
4. §. 1.

VI. And her Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do also most humbly beseech her Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be answered and paid unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all and all Manner of Pepper, Raisins, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, and Mace whatsoever; and for such Snuff as is herein after-mentioned, imported or to be imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain, at any Time or Times after the sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, within or during the Term of thirty-two Years from thence next and immediately ensuing (over and above all Duties, and additional Duties already payable for the same, or any of them, by any other Law now in Force) the several new Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money following; that is to say,

Long Pepper not
this Duty, 9 Annæ, c. 6. §. 59.

For every Pound of Pepper, Averdupois Weight, imported as aforesaid, one Shilling and six Pence.

Raisins.

For every Hundred Weight of Raisins, of what kind soever, imported as aforesaid, accounting one hundred and twelve Pounds Averdupois to the Hundred, the Sum of five Shillings.

Nutmegs, &c.
See 8 Geo. 1.
c. 15. §. 17.
which directs how these Duties are to be paid.

And for all Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, and Mace, imported, as aforesaid, as much as the same Spices respectively pay by any Law or Laws now in Force, upon the Importation thereof, it being intended by this Act, that the present Duties upon the Importation of Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, and Mace, shall be doubled.

Snuff.
The Old Duty
only to be paid for Snuff, by 12
Geo. 1. c. 26.
§. 3.

And for every Pound Weight Averdupois of all Snuff imported as aforesaid, not being of the Product or Manufacture of her Majesty's Plantations, the Sum of three Shillings.

The said respective Duties, for and upon all Pepper, Raisins, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Snuff, to be paid or secured in the manner herein after-mentioned.

Pepper imported
after 17 February 1709. to be Warehoused, and Half the Subsidy paid;

VII. And for the better securing the Duties upon Pepper by this and other Acts of Parliament imposed, and to the Intent that the same may not be too burdensome on the Importers of such Pepper, as shall be again exported to Parts beyond the Seas; it is hereby provided, and further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the seventeenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, all such Pepper as shall be imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall upon Entry thereof, be forthwith carried and put into such Warehouse or Warehouses, as shall for that purpose be provided by and at the Charge of the Importers of the said Pepper, and be approved of by the Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs for the time being; and half the Subsidy which by Law is payable for Pepper, imported after the said seventeenth Day of February, shall be paid down in ready Money by the Importer or Importers thereof, who shall have Power to Sift or Garble the said Pepper as hath been usual, and ever practised, to make it Merchantable; which said Pepper so brought into such Warehouse or Warehouses, shall not be taken taken or carried out thence upon any Account whatsoever, other than as is herein after mentioned; that is to say, Such of the said Pepper as shall be sold to be consumed or spent in Great Britain, shall be delivered out of such Warehouse or Warehouses, unto the Person or Persons who shall buy the same of the Importer or Importers thereof, upon such Person or Persons paying to her Majesty's Use the Duties charged or imposed, or to be charged or imposed, by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, for or upon such Pepper so bought (other than and except the before mentioned half Subsidy;) and such of the said Pepper as shall be for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, shall be delivered out of such Warehouse or Warehouses, unto the Importer or Importers thereof, or such Buyer or other Person or Persons, as such Importer or Importers, shall appoint in that Behalf, upon sufficient Security to be first given by the Importers, or such Buyers or other Persons, to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors (which Security the said Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs are hereby required and empowered to take) that the same, and every Part thereof, shall be exported, and not relanded in Great Britain; which said Securities shall be discharged without Fee or Reward, upon Certificate returned or produced to the said Commissioners of the Customs, under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate in any Place or Places in Parts beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of two known British Merchants, then being at such Place or Places, that such Pepper was there landed, or upon Proof by credible Persons, that such Pepper was taken by Enemies, or perished in the Seas; the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the said Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being.

and if to be consumed in Great Britain, not to be carried out till the whole Duty paid. See 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 15 & 16.

If to be exported, Security to be given, &c.

VIII. And for preventing all clandestine importing or bringing any Pepper into this Kingdom of Great Britain, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, from and after the said seventeenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, shall import or bring any Pepper into any Port of or in this Kingdom of Great Britain other than the Port of London; or into the Port of London, and shall not make due Entries of such Pepper so imported or brought in, and bring the same into the said Warehouse or Warehouses as aforesaid: The same shall be, and is hereby adjudged, deemed, accounted, and taken to be clandestine Running, and unlawful Importation thereof; and such Person or Persons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, so offending therein, and their Abettors, shall not only forfeit and lose all such Pepper so clandestinely run as aforesaid, but also the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and divided, one Moiety to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons that shall seize, sue, or inform for the same, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

What shall be deemed clandestine Importation of Pepper.

IX. And for preventing the clandestine carrying of any of the said Pepper out of the said Warehouses, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Keeper or Keepers of the said Warehouse or Warehouses (who shall be provided at the Charge of the Importers) shall keep one or more Book or Books, wherein he or they shall fairly enter or write down an exact, particular, and true Account of all Pepper which shall be brought into and carried out of his or their said Warehouse or Warehouses, and the Days and Times when the same was so brought in and carried out, and how much thereof was delivered out to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, and how much for Exportation as aforesaid; and shall at the end of every six Months transmit in Writing an exact Account thereof, upon Oath, to the Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being, together with an exact Account of how much shall be remaining in his or their said Warehouse or Warehouses respectively, and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and enjoined, within one Month after the same shall be transmitted to them as aforesaid, to appoint one or more Person or Persons to inspect the said Book or Books, Warehouse or Warehouses, and to examine the said Accounts; and if upon Examination it shall appear that any of the said Pepper was delivered out otherwise than as aforesaid, or before paying the Duties of such of the said Pepper as shall be sold to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, or giving such Security as aforesaid, for such of the said Pepper as shall be delivered out for Exportation as aforesaid, then the Warehouse-keeper or Warehouse-keepers, so offending therein, shall not only forfeit and lose the Value of the said Pepper so carried out as aforesaid, and be for ever disabled from any publick Employment for the future, but also shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered and divided as aforesaid.

What shall be deemed clandestine carrying out of Pepper.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Pepper, so lodged in any Warehouse or Warehouses as aforesaid, to affix one Lock to every such Warehouse, the Key of which shall remain in the Custody of such Proprietor or Proprietors; and that he or they may, in the Presence of the said Warehouse-keeper or Warehouse-keepers, who is and are hereby obliged to attend at all seasonable Times for that Purpose, view, sort, and deliver out the said Pepper, or any Part thereof, in Manner following; that is to say, Such of the said Pepper as shall be sold to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, to the Person or Persons who shall buy the same, upon paying the Duties charged or imposed thereon as aforesaid, and such of the said Pepper as shall be sold for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas upon giving such Security as is before in that Behalf expressed.

Proprietors may affix a Lock on the Warehouse, &c.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said seventeenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, no other Duty shall be taken or demanded upon or at the Importation of any Pepper into Great Britain, (but the half Subsidy before-mentioned) and all other the Duties and Impositions charged upon or for such Pepper as shall be delivered as aforesaid, out of the Warehouse, to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, shall be paid upon such Delivery out of the Warehouse as aforesaid, and not otherwise: And that from and after the said seventeenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, all Duties charged or imposed on such of the said Pepper, as shall be delivered out of the said Warehouse or Warehouses to be exported, and shall be exported accordingly (except the half Subsidy) shall be discharged, and from thenceforth no Drawback or Allowance shall be paid or made out of her Majesty's Customs, for or on the Account of such Exportation of any of such Pepper; any thing herein, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament, contained to the contrary thereof, in any wise notwithstanding.

Half Subsidy only to be paid on Importation of Pepper, and the other Duties on its Delivery out of the Warehouse for Consumption here. On Exportation all other Duties back discharged.

Importers of Raisins, &c. to have 12 Months for Payment, or 10 l. per Cent. for prompt Payment.

Nutmegs, &c. may be imported from any Ports in British Ships, &c. Farther Provisions relating hereto, 6 Geo. I. c. 21. §. 45.

Raisins, &c. landed without Entry, &c. forfeited.

Raisins, &c. exported in due Time, Duty to be repaid. These 9 and 18 Months enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. I. stat. I. c. 21. §. 10.

New Duties how to be levied.

Pepper, &c. or any uncustomed Goods, unshipped without paying the Duties, forfeited, and Treble the Value, &c. by Devenement.

Farther Provisions relating hereto, 8 Geo. I. c. 13. §. 16.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Importers of the said Raisins, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, or Snuff, giving Security at the Custom-house, shall have twelve Months Time for Payment of the Duties by this Act imposed thereupon; and in case such Importer shall pay ready Money, he shall have ten Pounds per Centum, or after that Rate per Annum, of the said Duty abated to him for prompt Payment.

XIII. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into the Kingdom of Great Britain, during the Continuance of this Act, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, or Mace, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas in British Ships, so as the Master, and at least one fourth of the Mariners during the Continuance of this present War, be her Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain, and so as after the End of this War, and during the Continuance of this Act, the Master, and at least three Fourths of the Mariners be her Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain, and so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs, of the Quality and Quantity of the said Spices, so intended to be imported, and the Place in which they intend to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, for the landing and importing thereof as aforesaid; which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant without any Fee or Reward, or any other Charge to the Person demanding the same; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Raisins, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Snuff, hereby charged or intended to be charged as aforesaid, shall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Custom-house, in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the said Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon, shall be secured or paid, as this Act doth require, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the same first signed by the Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively; That all such imported Raisins, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Snuff, as shall be so landed and put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, (to wit) one Moiety of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform, or sue for the same, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Raisins, Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, Cinnamon, and Snuff, upon which the said new Duties, by this Act granted, are paid, or secured to be paid, be again exported at any Time or Times within eighteen Months by British Merchants, or within nine Months by Aliens, to be accounted from the respective Times of the Sight or Entry of the said Goods Inwards, and that due Proof be first made, upon Oath, That the said Raisins, Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, and Cinnamon, or Snuff, so exported, be the same for which the said Duties are paid, or secured to be paid as aforesaid; That then and in every such Case, and not otherwise, the same Duties so paid, shall, without any Delay or Reward, be wholly repaid out of any the Duties on imported Commodities by this Act granted, or the Security of such of the said Duties as shall be secured, shall be vacated (on a Debenture or Debentures, regularly certified and sworn to) as to so much of the said Raisins, Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, and Cinnamon, or Snuff, as shall be so exported; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said new Duties upon Raisins, Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, Cinnamon, and Snuff, by this Act imposed, during the said whole Term of thirty-two Years therein granted, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered and answered, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such other Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Allowance for Damage, as the other Duties upon the same Goods respectively are, by any Law or Statute now in Force, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered or answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

XVII. And for preventing the Frauds which may be practised in unshipping, to be landed, any Pepper, Raisins, Mace, Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, Snuff, or any other Sort of Goods whatsoever, subject to the Payment of Duties, without paying the same, as also to hinder the Importation of any Sort of prohibited Goods into Great Britain; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Pepper, Raisins, Mace, Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, Snuff, or any other Sort of Goods whatsoever, liable to the Payment of Duties, shall be unshipped, with Intention to be laid on Land (Customs, and other Duties, not being first paid or secured) or if any prohibited Goods whatsoever, shall be imported into any Part of Great Britain, then not only the said uncustomed and prohibited Goods shall be forfeited and lost, but also the Persons who shall be assisting, or otherwise concerned in the unshipping the said prohibited and uncustomed Goods, or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come, after the unshipping thereof, shall forfeit Treble the Value thereof, together with the Vessels and Boats, and all the Horses, and other Cattle and Carriages whatsoever, made use of in the landing, removing, Carriage, or Conveyance of any of the aforesaid Goods; one Moiety of all which Forfeitures and Penalties shall be to the Use of her Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that will seize or sue for the same, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XVIII. And

XVIII. And whereas several Merchants and other wholesale Traders and Dealers in Pepper, have or may have, on the eighth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, several Stocks or Quantities of Pepper; it is hereby further enacted, That all and every such Merchants, Traders, and Dealers, having on the said eighth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons in Trust for him, her or them, or for his, her or their Use, Benefit or Account, any Stock or Quantity of Pepper, as aforesaid, within the Realm of Great Britain, being for Sale, shall yield and pay unto her Majesty, for every Pound of such Pepper, one Shilling and six Pence, to be paid within six Months after the said eighth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine.

Merchants to pay 1s. 6d. for Pepper in their Custody on 8 Feb. 1709.

XIX. And to the end the said Stocks of Pepper may be known, and the Duties thereupon duly ascertained and secured; it is hereby enacted, That all and every the said Merchants, Traders, and Dealers in Pepper, shall, on or before the eighth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ten, make a just Entry thereof at the Custom-house nearest the Place where such Pepper doth remain as aforesaid, and permit the proper Officers of the Customs thereunto to be appointed, at any Time before the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, to enter into his her, or their Warehouses or other Places, where such Stocks of Pepper are to be found, and to view, weigh, and take account of the same; and if any such Merchant, Trader, or Dealer shall neglect to make such Entry at the Custom-house within the Time aforesaid, or shall refuse to permit such Officer to enter into his, her or their Warehouses or other Places (if thereunto required) there to view the said Stock as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, or shall hide, remove, or convey away the said Stock of Pepper, with Intent to defraud her Majesty, or shall not pay her Majesty's Dues for the same, according to the true Meaning of this Act; then for every or any such Offence the Merchant, Trader, or Dealer respectively, so offending, shall forfeit and lose his, her or their said Stocks of Pepper, or the Value thereof, to be recovered and distributed as aforesaid.

How the Stock in Hand shall be ascertained.

6 Geo. 1. c. 21. f. 45.

8 Geo. 1. c. 15. f. 15.

And 8 Geo. 1. c. 18. f. 21.

XX. Provided, That if such Persons so chargeable for any Stocks of Pepper, shall pay her Majesty's Duties for the same before the End of the said six Months, then he, she or they, shall be allowed for such prompt Payment, after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum for every Sum so advanced, and in case of Exportation thereof, or any Part thereof, within eighteen Months after Entry made as aforesaid, the said Duties payable by this Act for such Stocks of Pepper shall be discharged or repaid.

10 l. per Cent. for prompt Payment.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, That if any Dispute shall arise whether any Snuff chargeable by this Act upon the Importation thereof, be of the Produce or Manufacture of her Majesty's Plantations, the Onus probandi shall lie upon the Owner or Claimer thereof.

Onus probandi.

XXII. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said several Duties arising by this Act upon exciseable Liquors in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall from Time to Time be under the Management and Government of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being; and the said Duties upon exciseable Liquors to arise in Scotland, shall from Time to Time be under the Management and Government of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the Time being; and that such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Commodities as shall arise in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management and Government of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being; and such of the said Duties on imported Commodities as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management and Government of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being; and that the Commissioners of Excise in England, and the Receiver General of the Customs in England for the Time being, shall pay all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties (the necessary Charges of receiving, levying, managing, paying, and accounting for the same, excepted) into her Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer, distinct and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenue weekly (to wit) on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then on the next Day after that is not an Holiday, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities herein after mentioned; and that such of the said Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money by this Act imposed, as shall arise in Scotland (the necessary Charges of receiving, levying, managing, paying, and accounting for the same, excepted) shall from Time to Time be transmitted and paid by the Commissioners of Excise, and Receiver General of the Customs in Scotland, for the Time being respectively, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinct and apart as aforesaid, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities herein after mentioned.

New Duties on Excise to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, &c.

and Customs under the Commissioners of the Customs.

To be paid in to the Exchequer distinct, &c.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said several Duties by this Act granted, as well for and upon such exciseable Liquors, as for and upon such Pepper, Raisins, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Snuff, to be imported, and the said Stocks of Pepper as aforesaid, shall be liable to and charged and chargeable with the yearly Fund herein after mentioned, and all the Annuities of what Kind soever, to be payable out of the same, in Pursuance of this Act, during the whole Term of thirty-two Years herein after expressed in that Behalf; and all the same Rates and Duties (except the necessary Charges before mentioned) are and shall be appropriated thereunto in such Manner, that all the Monies which shall from Time to Time be or remain due, or in Arrear, for or upon the said Annuities, or any of them, or for any Arrears thereof, (if any such be) shall from Time to Time, in the first Place, be paid and satisfied out of the said several and respective Rates and Duties by this Act granted, or some of them, with Preference to any other Payments, that shall or may hereafter be charged upon the same Rates and Duties, or any of them, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are hereafter in this Act contained in that Behalf.

rity aforesaid, That from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners of the Customs and Excise, and other Officers, as shall be proper and necessary for the raising and levying the respective Duties and Sums of Money by this Act granted or chargeable, and for keeping and rendring the Accounts of the same; and that all Receivers General, Collectors, and other Officers, who are or shall be concerned in the raising, collecting, receiving, and paying the said respective Duties hereby granted, or any of them, and keeping and rendring the several Accounts thereof, shall perform the several Duties therein, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the said Monies, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum, not exceeding two millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties on Salt, and upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

XXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of thirty-two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, the full Sum of eighty-one thousand Pounds per Annum, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money by this Act granted, or chargeable, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, as aforesaid, in case the same shall extend thereunto, shall be the whole and entire yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer, of or for the said Rates and Duties, shall not amount to eighty-one thousand Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same will extend, shall be Part of the yearly Fund for or towards the answering or paying of all the several and respective Annuities herein after mentioned; and in case the said Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money by this Act granted, shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer, for or upon Account of the same Rates and Duties shall not amount to so much as eighty-one thousand Pounds, or to so much as shall be sufficient to discharge and satisfy all the Annuities by this Act appointed or intended to be paid within or for the same Year respectively, That then and so often, and in every such Case, so much as shall be deficient or wanting to make up the said Fund for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good from time to time out of the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies which, for such Year respectively, shall arise by the Rates and Duties granted by an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing Part of the Duties on Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and granting new Duties upon Houses having twenty Windows or more, to raise the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, by way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, after all the Annuities, Charges and Payments directed or authorized by that Act, until the End of such Year respectively, shall be fully satisfied, paid and discharged, or Monies sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose (which Surplus or Remainder was reserved to be disposed by Authority of Parliament;) and in Default of such Surplus or Remainder, then the said Deficiency shall be supplied or made up from time to time out of the first Aid to be granted in Parliament, next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall from time to time be transferred thereunto, as soon as such Aid shall be granted.

XXVI. And it is hereby declared, That so much of the said Duties hereby granted as shall come into the Exchequer before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall go in Aid of the said yearly Fund after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, for Payment of the Annuities which shall become payable upon this Act.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties hereby granted, and Provisions hereby made for Payment of the several Annuities which shall be payable upon this Act, shall be fairly and duly entred in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells, for that Purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all seasonable Times, shall have free Access, without Fee or Charge.

XXVIII. And for the raising any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of nine hundred thousand Pounds, for carrying on the said War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute, advance and pay into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, for her Majesty's Use, at or before the respective Days and Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the said Sum of nine hundred thousand Pounds for the absolute Purchase of any certain Annuity or Annuities, to be paid and payable, during the full Term of thirty-two Years to be reckoned from the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten; which certain Annuities shall be computed at the Rate of nine Pounds per Annum for every one hundred Pounds, and proportionably for any greater Sum so to be advanced or paid; and the Purchase Money for every such Annuity, at Rate aforesaid, is hereby appointed to be paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer, at or before the respective Days and Times herein after limited; that is to say, One fourth Part thereof on or before the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the first Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the first Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the first Day of November in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten: All which Annuities so to be purchased, shall not exceed in the whole the Sum of eighty-one thousand Pounds per Annum, and shall be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts, or Days of Payment in the Year; that is to say the Feasts of the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of St. John Baptist, and St. Michael the Archangel, by even and equal Portions; the first Payment thereof to be due at the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, That in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells, in the Exchequer severally, there shall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which there shall be fairly entred the Names of all who shall be contributors for such certain Annuities, as aforesaid, and of all Persons by whose Hands the said Contributors shall pay in any of the said Sums upon this Act, and also the Sum so paid for such Annuities: To which Book it shall be lawful for the said respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, from time to time, and at all seasonable Times, to have Resort, and to inspect the same, without Fee or Reward.

An Act for clearing, preſerving, and maintaining the Harbour of Cat-Water, lying near Plymouth, in the County of Devon; and for the cleaning and keeping clean the Pool, commonly called Sutton Pool, lying in Plymouth aforeſaid.

‘ WHEREAS the ancient Borough of Plymouth in the County of Devon, is very conſiderable for ‘ the Port there, and is of great Importance, as well for advancing her Maſteſty’s Service and Re‘ venue, as for promoting and carrying on the Trade of this Kingdom; near unto which Borough hath ‘ been Time out of Mind, and yet is a Harbour commonly called Cat-water, the which was a very com‘ modious and ſafe Station, as well for her Maſteſty’s Ships of War, as for other Ships employed by Mer‘ chants, until of late that ſeveral Shoals and great Banks of Sand have been cauſed there by the Tides
 ‘ and Violence of Storms; which Shoals and Banks have yearly increaſed, whereby the ſaid Harbour is ‘ not only at preſent rendered unſafe to Ships in their going into and out of the ſaid Harbour, but is like to ‘ be entirely ruined, unleſs a timely and effectual Care be taken to prevent the ſame: And whereas the Pool ‘ of Water, commonly called Sutton Pool, (lying in the Boſom of the ſaid Town of Plymouth, and there-
 ‘ by of great Uſe and Advantage, as well to her Maſteſty’s Ships for their Supply of Proviſions, as to all ‘ Merchants, who have Occaſion to bring up their Veſſels to lade or unlade their Cargoes at the Cuſtom-‘ houſe, and other Keys lying within the ſaid Town) hath been of late Years, ſo filled and choaked up
 ‘ with Oufe and Mud, as that, by Means thereof the ſaid Pool is likely to become wholly unſerviceable
 ‘ for the Uſes aforeſaid, if due care be not forthwith taken for preſerving the ſame, by deepning thereof,
 ‘ and cleaning the ſame: And whereas Benjamin Foules of Plymouth aforeſaid, hath made Propoſals for the ‘ deepning and cleaning, and for the keeping clean and clear the ſaid Harbour and Pool, at his own pro‘ per Coſts and Charges, ſo and in ſuch Manner, as that the doing thereof will be a great Benefit to the ‘ Publick:’ To the end therefore, that ſo good a Work may be effected, and that the ſaid Harbour and Pool may be reſtored to their former Uſefulneſs, and may continue the ſame, and that the ſaid Benjamin Foules

Tallow Candles imported, 2 q.

Wax Candles made here, 4 d.
Tallow Candles, 2 q.

Candles landed before Entry, &c. forfeited, &c.

How these Duties shall be raised.

Candles imported to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

MAY it please your most Excellent Majesty; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, duly considering your Majesty's great Occasions for Money to defray the Expences of the present War, and other necessary Services, have for that End and Purpose cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty, as well the several Duties for and upon all Candles made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, as also the several Duties or Rates upon Monies to be given, or agreed to be given, with such Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, as are herein after-mentioned, for and during the respective Terms herein after expressed; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Candles which, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of five Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties already imposed thereupon) the several and respective Duties herein after-mentioned; that is to say, For all Candles made of Wax, or usually called or sold for Wax Candles (notwithstanding the Mixture of any other Ingredients therewith) which shall be so imported, the Sum of four Pence, for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Candles made of Tallow, and other Candles whatsoever (except the Wax Candles before charged) which shall be so imported, one Halfpenny, for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said several Duties for and upon all imported Candles, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, before the landing of the same respectively; and there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Candles, which at any Time or Times, within or during the said Term of five Years, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the several and respective Duties herein after-mentioned; that is to say, For all Candles of Wax, or usually called or sold for Wax Candles (notwithstanding any Mixture as aforesaid) which shall be so made in Great Britain, the Sum of four Pence, for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Candles of Tallow, and other Candles whatsoever (except the Wax Candles before charged) which shall be so made in Great Britain, one Halfpenny, for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said several Duties for the said Candles so to be made in Great Britain, to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case any of the said imported Candles shall be landed, or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Custom-house in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the said Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon shall be duly paid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the same, first signed by the Commissioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively; that all such imported Candles of what Kind soever, as shall be so landed and put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, to wit, one Moiety of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons, as will seize, inform or sue for the Candles so imported and forfeited, or the Value thereof, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by Action, Bill, Suit or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon imported Candles, by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered and answered for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Candles imported, or any of them, are by any Law or Statute now in force, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered or answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

IV. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Candles, as shall arise, in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England for the time being; and such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Candles, as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in Scotland for the time being; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the time being, shall, from time to time, pay, or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties for imported Candles (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are to be inflicted in this Act, for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for Repayment of Loans or Satisfaction of Interest Monies, as is herein after mentioned.

V. And for the better ascertaining, charging, collecting, levying, raising, and securing the several Rates and Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all sorts of Candles made in Great Britain, during the Term aforesaid, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and for preventing of Frauds concerning the same, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as are chargeable upon Candles made in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Excise in England for the time being; and such of the Duties as are imposed by this Act upon Candles made in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Excise in Scotland for the time being; and that all the Monies arising by the said Duties upon Candles made in Great Britain (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are to be inflicted by this Act, for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for Repayment of Loans, or Satisfaction of Interest Monies, as is herein after mentioned.

Candles made in Great Britain, under the Commissioners of Excise.

VI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who, on or before the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall make any Candles for Sale, or not for Sale, shall, on or before the same first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, give Notice in Writing, at the Office of Excise next to the Place where such Candles shall be made, of every Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, and other Place, by him, her, or them respectively made use of for the making or keeping of such Candles, or for the melting or keeping any Wax, Tallow, or other Materials proper to be made into Candles, and also of all Coppers, Furnaces, Moulds, or other Vessels by them made use of for the melting of Wax, Tallow, or other Materials to be made into Candles: And that from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Candles, no maker of Candles shall erect, set up, alter, change, enlarge, or make use of any Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place for the making or keeping of Candles, or for the melting or keeping any Wax, Tallow, or other Materials proper to be made into Candles, or use any Copper, Furnace, Moulds, or other Vessel for the melting of Wax, Tallow, or other Materials to be made into Candles, without first giving Notice thereof in Writing, or unless Notice thereof shall have been before given in Writing, at the next Office of Excise: And if any Maker of Candles shall erect, set up, alter, enlarge, or make use of any Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place for the making or keeping of Candles, or for the melting or keeping any Wax, Tallow, or other Materials proper to be made into Candles, or shall use any Copper, Furnace, Moulds, or other Vessels for the melting of Wax, Tallow, or other Materials to be made into Candles, without giving such Notice thereof, as aforesaid, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act; then, and in every such Case, the Offender therein, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds, the one Moiety thereof to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who will inform, or sue for the same.

and not to alter, &c. the same, without like Notice, at the next Office, any Candles in any other Part of Great Britain, shall within six Weeks after he, she or they shall make or ought to have made such Entry, as aforesaid, pay and clear off all the said Duties for Candles, which shall be due from him, her or them respectively; and that all and every such Makers of Candles, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so refused or neglected; and that no such Maker of Candles, after such Default in Payment made, shall sell, deliver or carry out any Candles, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty as aforesaid, on Pain to forfeit double the Value of such Candles so delivered or carried out.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties, shall, at all Times, by Day or by Night, and if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, be permitted upon his or their Request, to enter the House, Melting-house, Ware-house, or other Place whatsoever, belonging to, or used by any Person or Persons who, within or during the said Term of five Years, shall be a Maker or Makers of any Candles whatsoever, and by Weighing or Tale of the Candles, or otherwise, as to such Officer shall seem most proper and convenient, to take an Account of the just Quantity of the Candles which shall have been made by such Maker or Makers of Candles from time to time; and shall thereof make Return or Report in Writing to the respective Commissioners of Excise, or such as they shall respectively appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy (if demanded) of such Report in Writing under his Hand, with or for such Maker or Makers of Candles respectively; and such Report or Return of the said Officer or Officers shall be a Charge upon such Maker or Makers of Candles respectively; and if the said Officer shall refuse or neglect to give or leave a true Copy of his Report in Writing with or for such Maker or Makers of Candles, at the Time of taking such Account, upon demand, as aforesaid, every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings to every such Maker or Maker of Candles respectively.

XI. Provided always, That every Officer who shall be empowered to make such Charge, as aforesaid, shall in the first Place be sworn for the due and faithful Execution of his Office, and the Oath in that Behalf shall and may be administered by all or any the Commissioners of Excise, or by any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who shall give to such Officer a Certificate thereof; and all and every such Maker and Makers of Candles respectively are hereby required to keep sufficient and just Scales and Weights at the Place or Places where he, she or they do make such Candles, and permit and assist the Officer to make use thereof, for the Purposes in this Act, under the Penalty of ten Pounds, to be forfeited and lost for not keeping such Scales and Weights, or for not permitting and assisting the Officer to use the same, as aforesaid.

XII. And the better to prevent any Frauds and Concealments, whereby her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, may be injured or deprived of the Duties upon Candles granted by this Act; It is hereby likewise enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties upon Candles, shall also be permitted to take an Account, by gaging, weighing, or otherwise, of the Quantities of Wax, Tallow, and other Materials, proper to be made into Candles, that shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Maker of Candles, during the Continuance of the said Duties hereby granted; and in case such Officer or Officers shall miss any Quantity or Quantities of such Wax, Tallow, and other Materials aforesaid, which he had taken an Account of at the last Time he was at such Makers of Candles, and shall not upon reasonable Demand receive Satisfaction what is become of such Wax, Tallow, and other Materials so missing; then and in every such Case, it shall be lawful for such Officer to charge such Maker of Candles, with such Quantity of Candles as such Wax, Tallow, and Materials so missing, in his Judgment would reasonably have made, not exceeding one hundred and eight Pounds of Candles, for every one hundred and twelve Pounds of Wax, Tallow, and other Materials so missing, as aforesaid, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if any Maker or Makers of Candles shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this Act, for the ascertaining and securing the said Duties upon Candles, the Person or Persons offending therein shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XIV. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Maker or Makers of Candles, after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Candles, shall (under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Offence) remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away, any Candles by him, her, or them made, of which no Account shall have been first taken by the proper Officer for the said Duties, from the Place where the same Candles shall have been made, without giving to the proper Officer or Officers, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, twenty-four hours Notice at the least, and to the proper Officer or Officers, in other Parts of Great Britain, two days Notice at least, of his, her or their Intention to remove, carry or send away the same, that so the said Officer, without his own wilful Neglect or Default may have Time to take an Account thereof.

XV. And for the better ascertaining the said Duties upon Candles, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Makers of Candles shall from time to time keep all the Candles by them to be made, and which shall not have been surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers for the said Duties on Candles, separate and apart from all other their Candles, which shall have been surveyed and taken an Account of by such Officers, for the Space of twenty-four Hours after the making thereof, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or for the Space of two Days after the making the said Candles in any other Parts of Great Britain, unless such Candles shall have been sooner surveyed and taken taken an Account of by the said Officers respectively, on Pain to forfeit for every Offence therein the Sum of five Pounds.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Makers of Candles shall fraudulently hide, or conceal, or cause to be hid or concealed, any Candles chargeable by this Act, or any the Materials for making the same, to the Intent to deceive her Majesty of her just Duties by this Act granted, that then and in every such Case, the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

forfeit 20 l.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Candles, Wax, Tallow, and other Materials for making Candles, which shall be found in any private Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, and other Place, and all private Coppers, Furnaces, and other Vessels, for which no Entry shall be made, or Notice given, as aforesaid, shall be forfeited and lost, and the same, or the value thereof, shall and may be seized and recovered by the said Officer or Officers for the said Duties upon Candles, to her Majesty's Use.

Candles, &c.
found in private Melting-house,
&c. forfeited.

XVIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Duties upon Candles hereby granted, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall use, or cause, procure or suffer to be used, in the Inside of his, her or their Dwelling-house, any Lamp or Lamps, wherein any Oyl or Fat (other than Oyl made of Fish within Great Britain) shall be burnt for giving Light, under the Penalty of forty Shillings for every Offence therein; and that no Persons during such Continuance of this Act, shall expose to Sale any Candles, unless it be in his, her, or their Shops or Warehouses publicly used for that Purpose, or in some publick Fair or Market, under the Penalty of five Pounds for every Offence in so doing; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons in Trust for him, her or them, or for his, her or their Use, shall be possessed of, or interested in, upon the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, for Sale, there shall be yielded and paid to her Majesty, the like respective Rates as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Candles to be made after the said first Day of May; and that all and every the said Wax Chandlers, Tallow Chandlers, or other Sellers and Dealers in Candles, and all and every other Person and Persons, who, in Trust for them, or any of them, or for the Use of them, or any of them, shall be possessed of or have in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in his, her or their Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place or Places whatsoever, upon the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, any Stock, Parcel, or Quantity of Wax Candles, Tallow Candles, or other Candles whatsoever, for Sale, shall, on or before the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, make a true and particular Entry thereof at the Excise Office, within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, and the Candles for which no such Entry shall have been made; and within six Days after he, she or they shall have made, or ought to have made such Entries as aforesaid, shall pay down the Duties hereby payable for such Candles, or within the said six Days shall give Security to the proper Officers, for paying the same Duties to her Majesty's Use within three Months then next ensuing; and in case the said Duties for such Stock of Candles be paid down within the said six Days, then there shall be allowed out of the same Duty, for such prompt Payment, an Allowance after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Time of three Months; and that all and every such Chandlers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Candles, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment, or to give such Security for Payment of the said Duties for his, her or their said Stock of Candles, within the time by this Act limited for that Purpose, shall forfeit double the Sum of the said Duty which should have been so paid or secured by him, her or them as aforesaid; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officers for the said Duties respectively, to take a true and particular Account of all such Stock or Quantity of Candles, as any such Chandlers, or other Sellers and Dealers in Candles, or any in Trust for them, shall, on the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, have or be possessed of; and for that Purpose shall be permitted, in the Day-time, to enter into any Shop, Ware-house, Melting-house, or any Dwelling-house, Out-house, or other Places belonging to such Chandlers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Candles, and every of them, who are hereby required to permit such Officer and Officers, upon his or their Request, to make such Entrance on the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, or afterwards, at any Time before the Duty last mentioned shall be paid or secured, and to take an Account of the Quantity of such Candles, under the Penalty of twenty Pounds; and if any Person or Persons having on the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, in his, her or their Custody or Possession, any Stock or Quantity of Candles chargeable by this Act with the said Duty for Stock as aforesaid, shall clandestinely remove or carry away, or cause or suffer to be removed or carried away the same, or any Part thereof, before her Majesty's Duties thereupon shall be paid or secured as aforesaid, or shall fraudulently conceal or hide, any Part of his, her or their said Stock of Candles, that then, and in every such Case, he, she or they so offending, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in all and every such Case and Cases, the Stock or Quantity of Candles which shall be so clandestinely removed or carried away or fraudulently concealed or hid, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any the said Officers for the said Duties on Candles; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody such Stock of Candles shall be found, who shall not, before the Discovery thereof, give Notice at the next Office for the said Duties upon Candles of the Stock or Quantity of Candles so in his, her or their Custody, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of five Shillings for every Pound Weight.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesty's Duties by this Act payable for any Quantity of Candles whatsoever, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who shall buy or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Candles from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesty's Duties for the same, to export such Candles for any foreign Parts by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, That the particular Quantity of Candles which shall be intended to be exported as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same, or any Part thereof, shall not be re-landed or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customer or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation is hereby directed and authorized to take in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use.

XXV. Provided always, That if after the shipping of any such Candles to be exported as aforesaid, and the giving or tendering such Security as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the Candles so shipped to be exported, or any of them, shall be re-landed in any Part of Great Britain, that then and in every such Case, over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesty's Use, all the Candles which shall be landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

XXVI. And it is also hereby enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any Candles to any foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation as aforesaid, That the Duty of such Candles hath been paid or secured according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Collector who received the said Duty is hereby required and impowered to administer) and thereupon the said Collector for the said Duty upon Candles, shall give to such Person or Persons gratis a Certificate or Certificates, expressing the Kinds and Quantities of such Candles, and the Duties paid or secured to be paid for the same, pursuant to this Act, which Certificate being produced to the Customer or Collector of the Port where the said Candles shall be exported, and Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, being also made made by the Exporter before the said Customer or Collector of the Port (who is hereby also authorized and required to administer the same, without Fee or Charge) that the Candles so exported are the same mentioned in the said Certificate; then the said Customer or Collector of the Port where such Candles shall be exported, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture expressing the true Quantity of the Candles so exported; which Debenture being produced to the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Candles, in such County or Place where the said Candles were exported, he shall forthwith pay the said Duty which shall have been received upon this Act, to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay the same, then the said respective Commissioners of Excise are hereby required to pay the said Debenture out of the Duties upon Candles arising by this Act, or if the Duty of such Candles so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Securities for the same; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in Force relating to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, settled, or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the said Duties upon Candles hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in relation to the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Candles, shall be sued for, levied, and recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

XXIX. And whereas Candles are, or often may be cracked, or spoiled in making, and unfit for Sale; it is hereby provided and enacted, That upon shewing the same to the Officer appointed for charging the said Duties upon Candles, such Officer shall quite deface such cracked or spoiled Candles, and make an Allowance of the Duty hereby chargeable for the Candles so by him utterly defaced; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXX. And whereas standing Contracts may have been made before the fourteenth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nine, by Chandlers or other Dealers in Candles, for serving Publick Offices, Societies, or other Persons with Candles, to be delivered in Point of Time after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten; It is hereby enacted, That the Persons serving such Candles, after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, in pursuance of such former Contracts, shall be allowed to add the Duties hereby charged upon such Candles to the Price thereof, and shall be intitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

XXXI. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to charge the Duties herein before mentioned, on such small Rush Lights as shall be made by any Persons, to be used in their own Houses only, so as none of them be sold or delivered out, or be made for Sale; and so as such small Rush Lights be only once dipped in, or once drawn throw Grease or Kitchen-stuff, and not at all through any Tallow melted or refined; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLV. And be it declared and further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, and during the said five Years, where any Thing or Things, not being lawful Money of Great Britain, shall directly or indirectly be given, assigned, conveyed, delivered, contracted for or secured, to or for the Use or Benefit of any Master or Mistress, with or in Respect of any such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant for whom a Duty is chargeable by this Act; the Duties hereby granted and last-mentioned shall be answered and paid for the full Value or Values of such Thing or Things, and the same Duties for the said Values shall be secured and answered in the same Manner and Form, and under the like Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures and Incapacities as are before in this Act provided for securing the said Rates upon Monies given or paid, or agreed to be given or paid, with such Clerks, Apprentices or Servants as aforesaid.

XLVI. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for any Person and Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend unto her Majesty, at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, upon Credit of the said several Duties, Rates and Sums of Money by this Act granted, and to be raised in the several Parts of Great Britain as aforesaid, any Sums which shall not exceed in the whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, and to have and receive for the Forbearance thereof, Interest after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum; and moreover, That no Money to be lent upon the Security of this Act, shall be rated or assessed by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of Parliament whatsoever.

XLVII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who shall lend any Money upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the same into the said Receipt of Exchequer, shall immediately have a Tally of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his, her or their Repayment, bearing the same Date with his, her or their Tallies; in or upon which Order shall be also contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for the Forbearance thereof, at the Rate aforesaid, and to be paid every three Months, until the Repayment of the Principal; and that all such Orders for Repayment of Money to be lent, shall be registred in Course, according to the Dates respectively, without other Preference of one before another; and that all and every Person and Persons shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registred in the said Register Books, so as the said Person, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, who shall have Order or Orders first entred in the said respective Books of Register, shall be taken and accounted the first Person to be paid out of the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act; and he or they who shall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively and in Course; and that the Monies to come by this Act, of or for the said several Duties, Rates and Sums of Money to be raised in Great Britain as aforesaid, shall be in the same order liable to the Satisfaction of the Monies to be lent as aforesaid, to the respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns respectively, without undue Preference of one before another, and not otherwise, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after mentioned; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any her Majesty's Subjects, for providing or making of any such Books or Registers, or any Entries, Views or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Interest thereof as aforesaid, by any of her Majesty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies; on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party aggrieved by the Party offending, with Treble Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take or demand any such Fee or Reward, then he shall also lose his Place or Office; and if any undue Preference of one before another shall be made, either in Point of Registry or Payment, or if any of the said Money shall be diverted or misapplied contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Case, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Costs to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged of his Office or Place; and if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Directions or Privity of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages and Costs, and shall be for ever after incapable of his Place or Office; and in Case the Auditor of the Receipt shall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make Payment according to each Person's due Place and Order as before directed, then he or they shall be adjudged to forfeit, and the respective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to such Action, Debt and Costs in such Manner as aforesaid; all which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Costs to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Restraint shall be in any wise granted or allowed.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that several Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment as aforesaid, bear Date, or be brought the same Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be registred, then it shall be interpreted no undue Preference which of those be entred first, so as he enters them all the same Day.

XLIX. Provided also, That it shall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay subsequent Orders to Persons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders before other Persons.

sons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Course, so as there be so much Money reserved as will satisfy precedent Orders, which shall not be otherwise disposed, but kept for them, Interest upon Loan being to cease from the Time Money is so reserved and kept in Bank for them.

L. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons to whom any Money shall be due for Loans to be registred by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Register, as aforesaid, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by proper Words of Assignment, to be endorsed and written upon his Order, may assign or transfer his Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit of such Order, or any Part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforesaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof also made in the Book of Registry aforesaid for Orders, which the Officers shall, upon Request, without Fee or Charge, accordingly make, shall entitle such Assignee, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereupon; and such Assignee may, in like Manner Assign again, and so toties quoties, and afterwards it shall not be in the Power of such Person or Persons who have or hath made such Assignments, to make void, release, and discharge the same, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof. MOST gracious Sovereign; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, for the better enabling your Majesty to defray the Charge of this present War, and to finish the same as successfully as the said War hath hitherto (through the Divine Goodness) been carried on, and for other your Majesty's most necessary and important Occasions, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the several and respective Subsidies, Impositions and Duties herein after particularly described, for and during the Terms herein after expressed; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the several Impositions and Duties upon Wines and Vinegar, granted by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King JAMES the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar imported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five and the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which said Act by several subsequent Acts of Parliament since made, was continued, and is to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall by virtue of this Act be further continued, and be payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, and Vinegar, which shall be imported into Great Britain from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and no longer; and that the said Act so made in the first Year of the Reign of the said late King JAMES the Second, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles and Clauses therein contained, for or concerning the said Impositions on Wines and Vinegar, shall continue and be in full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and shall be applied practised, and executed, for raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties upon Wines and Vinegar hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Matters and Things in the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of the said King JAMES the Second contained, had been again in this Act repeated and particularly enacted.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rates, Duties, and Impositions upon all Sorts of Tobacco, granted by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the said late King JAMES the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Tobacco and Sugar imported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which said Act, as for and concerning the said Duties and Impositions upon Tobacco only, by several subsequent Acts of Parliament since made, was continued, and is to continue until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall by virtue of this Act be further continued and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Tobacco to be imported into Great Britain from the said last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and no longer.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Tobacco, which shall be imported within the Times by this Act limited, and all Arrears thereof, shall be secured, collected, raised, levied, answered and paid to her Majesty, in such Method, and with such Discount and Allowances, and according to such Rules and Directions, and under such Penalties, as are mentioned, referred to, or prescribed (as to the Duties or Impositions on Tobacco) in and by the Act made in the Parliament holden in the seventh Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, (of glorious Memory) intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine, Vinegar, and Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and not otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several additional and other Rates, Impositions, Duties and Charges upon the several Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes granted by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act

for granting to their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East India Goods and Merchandizes, and upon all wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandizes to be imported after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety, and which thereby, and by several Acts of Parliament already made, have Continuance until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall be further continued and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon the like Commodities to be imported into Great Britain, from the said last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixteen to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and no longer; and that the said Act made in the second Year of their late Majesties Reign concerning East India Goods, and other Things therein charged, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles and Clauses therein contained, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, answering and paying the said respective Duties hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said last-mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, had been again repeated and particularly enacted; except only as to such Part of the said Acts concerning the said Impositions on Wines, Vinegar, Tobacco, East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, touching which other Provisions or Alterations are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force; which other Provisions or Alterations are to be observed, and to continue during the Continuance of this Act, and the said Act, intitled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine and Vinegar, and upon Tobacco and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and every Article, Clause, Matter, and Thing therein contained, for the raising, levying, securing, answering, and paying the Impositions and Duties on the Merchandizes and Commodities thereby charged, and which are by this Act continued, shall be of full Force and Effect until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty.

After the Principal, &c. of the former Acts are discharged, the several Duties appropriated for the Uses of this Act.

' said, until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, in the Manner therein mentioned, and are thereby made subject and liable (together with such other Duties as are therein expressed) to the Satisfaction of several principal Sums which were borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed, upon those Acts respectively, and the Interest due, and to be due for the same, which Principal and Interest are to be duly paid off and discharged in the first Place: Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies, which by the said former Acts, or any of them, are charged or chargeable on the several Impositions and Duties last particularly mentioned (jointly with other Duties) as aforesaid, shall be fully paid off and satisfied according to the true Meaning of the said former Acts, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose; then all the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise by the said Impositions upon Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco, which were first granted to King JAMES the Second in the first Year of his Reign, and the said Impositions on East India Goods, and other Goods charged therewith, which were first granted to their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY in the second Year of their Reign, and the said additional Impositions which were first granted to them in the fourth Year of their Reign, and the said Duties on Whale Fins imported, which were granted to his late Majesty King WILLIAM in the ninth Year of his Reign, for the Remainders of the Terms formerly granted, and therein then to come and unexpired (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer distinctly, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

Borrowing Clause at 6l. per Cent.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance or lend to her Majesty, at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, as well upon Credit of the above-mentioned Impositions and Duties by this Act granted or continued, as also upon Credit of the Monies which by the said former Acts, after Satisfaction of the Principal and Interest thereupon, as aforesaid, shall arise by the Impositions and Duties thereby granted, any Sums which shall not exceed in the Whole one million two hundred and ninety-six thousand five hundred fifty-two Pounds nine Shillings and eleven Pence three Farthings, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; and that all the Lenders of such Sums respectively shall have and receive Interest, for the Forbearance thereof, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum; and that no Money to be lent upon the Security of this Act, shall be taxed, rated or assessed by any Act of Parliament whatsoever.

Lenders to have Tallies and Orders.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons, who shall lend any Money upon such Credit, as aforesaid, and pay the same into the Receipt of the Exchequer, shall immediately have a Tally of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his, her or their Repayment, bearing the same Date with his, her or their Tallies; in or upon which Order shall also be contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for the Forbearance thereof, at the Rate aforesaid, and to be paid every three Months, until Repayment of the Principal; and that all such Orders for Repayment of Money to be lent, shall be registred in Course, according to their Dates respectively, without other Preference of the one before another; and that all and every Person or Persons shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registred in the said Register Book, so as the said Person, Native or Foreigner, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, who shall have his, her or their Order or Orders first entred in the said respective Books of Register, shall be taken and accounted the first Person to be paid out of the Monies to come in by this Act; and he, she or they who shall have his, her or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively and in Course; and that the Monies to come in, of or for the several Impositions or Duties by this Act granted or continued, as aforesaid, as also the Monies, which by the said former Acts (after Satisfaction of the Principal and Interest thereupon, as aforesaid) shall arise by the Impositions and Duties thereby granted, as aforesaid, shall be liable in the same Order to the Satisfaction of the Monies to be lent, as aforesaid, to the respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns respectively, without undue Preference of one before another, and not otherwise; and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any of her Majesty's Subjects, for providing or making of any such Books or Registers, or any Entries, Views or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Interest thereof, as aforesaid, by any of her Majesty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Treble Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take or demand any such Fee or Reward, then he shall also lose his Place or Office; or if any undue Preference of one before another shall be made either in Point of Registry or Payment, or if any of the said Money shall be diverted or misapplied contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Case, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Costs to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged of his Office and Place; and if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without the Direction or Privy of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages and Costs, and shall be for ever after incapable of his Place and Office; and in Case the Auditor of the Receipt shall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment according to each Person's due Place and Order, as before directed, then he or they shall be adjudged to forfeit, and the respective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to such Action, Debt and Costs, in such Manner as aforesaid; all which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Costs, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any of their Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Suit or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Restraint, shall in any wise be granted or allowed.

No Fee for Entries, &c.

No undue Preference, &c.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That if it happen that several Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforesaid, bear Date, or be brought the same Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be registred, then it shall be interpreted no undue Preference which of those he entred first, so as he enters them all the same Day. Provided also, That it shall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Tellers do pay subsequent Orders to Persons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Persons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Course, so as that there be so much Money reserved as will satisfy precedent Orders, which shall not be otherwise disposed, but kept for them, Interest upon Loan being to cease from the Time the Money is so reserved and kept in Bank for them.

What shall not be interpreted undue Preference.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons to whom any Money shall be due for Loans to be registred by Virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Register, as aforesaid, his Executors, Administrators or Assigns, by proper Words of Assignment, to be indorsed and written upon his Order, may assign or transfer his Right, Title, Interest and Benefit of such Order or any Part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforesaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof also made in the Book of Registry aforesaid, for Orders, which the Officer shall, upon Request, without Fee or Charge accordingly make, shall entitle such Assignee, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon; and such Assignee may, in like Manner, assign again, and so toties quoties; and afterwards it shall not be in the Power of such Person or Persons who have or hath made such Assignment, to make void, release and discharge the same, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

Orders assignable.

XII. And whereas in and by one Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, a Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding eight hundred twenty-two thousand three hundred eighty-one Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence Farthing; and by another Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign a further Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding seven hundred twenty-nine thousand and sixty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings and six Pence three Farthings; and by another Act of the seventh Year of her Majesty's Reign a further Credit was given for any Sums, not exceeding six hundred forty-five thousand Pounds, to be borrowed upon those Acts respectively, at an Interest after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties in the same Acts respectively mentioned; and the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are by the same Acts respectively authorized and directed to cause the Officers of the Exchequer to receive from time to time, by way of Loan, at the like Interest, at the said Receipt, any further Sum or Sums of Money, as should be sufficient to make good the Payment of all the Interest Monies appointed or allowed by the same Acts respectively, every three Months, until the Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties therein mentioned should come into the Exchequer, and be sufficient for that Purpose, pursuant to the Intent and true Meaning of the same Acts respectively: Now it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to the taking away, altering or lessening the said Power and Direction of borrowing Monies to make the Payment of the said Interest Monies every three Months, until the said Subsidies, Impositions and Duties, in the said respective Acts mentioned, shall come in, and be sufficient for that Purpose, as aforesaid, or in any wise to alter or prejudice the Security given by the said several Acts of the fifth, sixth and seventh Years of her Majesty's Reign, or any of them, for the Payment and Satisfaction of the same, or any other Principal and Interest Monies, which were secured, or intended to be secured by the same Acts respectively; but that the Orders for the same shall be registred in Course, and paid in the same Manner, upon each and every of those Acts, as if this Act had never been made; this present Act, or any thing therein contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

1 Annæ, stat. 1. c. 13.

After all the Monies secured by the Act 1 Annæ, are paid off, then the Duties on Salt, &c. by 7 & 8 W. 3. shall be applied to this Act.

it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies secured by the said Act of the first Year of her said Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preserving the publick Credit, shall be fully paid off and satisfied, or that sufficient Monies shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, then all the Monies which from thenceforth until the said first Day of August, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall arise, or be due, or payable, or be secured, or in Arrear, of and for the foresaid Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, granted or continued by the said Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third as aforesaid (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall, from time to time be paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, and shall be issued and applied, so far as the same will extend, to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of the Interest which shall, from time to time, grow due for the Monies which shall be lent upon or in pursuance of this Act, or of any the Powers or Clauses therein contained, and to none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clause of Loan to secure the intermediate Interest.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the Exchequer for the time being (or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being) and they are hereby authorized and directed to cause the Officers of the said Receipt of the Exchequer to receive, from time to time, by way of Loans, from any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, willing to make the same at the said Receipt, such further Sum and Sums of Money (over and above the Sums which shall be lent for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions as aforesaid) as shall be sufficient, together with the Monies coming in by the Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt as aforesaid, to compleat and make good the full Payment of all the Interest-Monies due or payable by this Act, or by any Clause therein contained, every three Months, until the said Impositions and Duties granted by this Act, or the Arrears arising by the said former Acts, or any of them, first happening, shall come into the Exchequer, and be sufficient for that Purpose, pursuant to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and that the Loans so to be made for the said intermediate Interest, shall bear the like Interest, and shall be free from Taxes, and the Principal thereof shall be paid in Course, according to the Dates of the respective Tallies for the same, and the Interest thereof, every three Months, out of the Duties granted, and other Provisions made by this Act, in the same Manner, and as fully and effectually as if such Loans were Part of the said Sum not exceeding one million two hundred ninety-six thousand five hundred fifty-two Pounds nine Shillings and eleven Pence three Farthings, hereby authorized to be lent as aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Oversea Duties on Coals in British Bottoms, after 25 Dec. 1710. to cease, 6 Annæ, c. 22.

Concerning Duty on Coals, see farther 9 Ann. c. 6. § 22. 12 Ann. § 2. c. 9. 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. 22 Geo. 2. c. 37. 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. § 28.

XV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties therein mentioned upon Coffee, Chocolate, Spices, Pictures, and Muslins, and additional Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and certain Duties upon Callicoes, China Wares, and Drugs, and for continuing the Duties called the two Third Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, for preserving the publick Credit; and for ascertaining the Duties of Coals exported to Foreign Parts; and for securing the Credit of the Bank of England; and for passing several Accounts of Taxes raised in the County of Monmouth; and for promoting the Consumption of such Tobacco as shall have paid her Majesty's Duties; it is amongst other Things enacted, That all Coals exported beyond the Seas, from and after the End of the then present Session of Parliament until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, from Great Britain in British Bottoms, shall only pay three Shillings the Chaldron, and after that Rate for greater or lesser Quantities; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding, as by the same Act more at large may appear: And whereas the said Duty is a great Hindrance to the British Navigation, and lessens the Exportation of Coals from Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of December in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, the said Duty of three Shillings per Chaldron shall cease, and be no longer paid; any thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XVI. And whereas by the Laws of this Realm, every Person importing Tobacco, and other Foreign Goods, from any Part of Great Britain, is intituled to a Drawback of Part of the Duties paid or secured at the Importation thereof; and it hath been found by Experience, that great Quantities of such Tobacco and other Foreign Goods after they have been shipped for Exportation, have been privately re-landed in this Realm; and the Remedies already provided by Law, have not been sufficient to obviate a Practice so very prejudicial to her Majesty's Revenue, and to all fair and honest Traders in such Goods: For the better Prevention whereof for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the seven and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, in case any Tobacco, or other Foreign Goods, contained or specified in any Certificate whereupon any such Drawback is to be made, or whereupon any Debenture is to be made forth for any such Drawback, shall not be really and bona fide shipped and exported (the Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) or shall be landed again in any Part of Great Britain, unless in case of Distress to save the Goods from perishing, which shall be presently made known to the Person or Persons which are or shall be appointed by her Majesty to manage her Customs, or principal Officers of the Port; then not only all such Tobacco and other certificate Goods shall be forfeited and lost, but also the Person or Persons (being the Exporters, or any others) who shall bring back, or cause, or procure to be re-landed such Tobacco, and other certificate Goods, or any of them, in any Part of Great Britain, or be assisting, or otherwise concerned in the unshipping the same, or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come, after the unshipping thereof, or by whose Privy, Knowledge or Direction the said Tobacco and other Goods, or any Part thereof, shall be be so re-landed, shall forfeit double the Amount of the said Drawback for such Goods, together with the Vessels and Boats, and all the Horses or other Cattle and Carriages whatsoever, made use of in the Landing, Removing, Carriage or Conveyance of the same; one Moiety of all which Penalties or Forfeitures shall be to the Use of her Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall inform, seize or sue for the same, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, at any Time or Times within five Years after the Offence shall be committed; wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Such Goods re-landed, forfeited, and double the Value of the Drawback, with the Vessel, &c. Se zures made by Virtue of this Act, to be determined by two Justices of the Peace, 8 Geo. c. 13. §. 16.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, That if any Officer of the Customs shall connive or assist in any Fraud, relating to such certificate Goods as aforesaid, such Officer (over and above any other Penalties to which he is or may be liable by this or any other Act) shall forfeit his Office, and be rendered incapable of serving her Majesty for the future, and suffer six Months Imprisonment, without Bail or Mainprize; and if any Master, Commander or other Person belonging to any Ship or Vessel, shall assist in, or connive at the fraudulent landing any such certificate Goods as aforesaid, he, she or they (over and above all other Penalties provided by this or any other Act or Acts now in force) shall for every such Offence suffer Imprisonment by the Space of six Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

Officers conniving, incapacitated, and imprisoned for 6 Months. Master conniving, imprison for 6 Months.

XVIII. And for preventing the running of Tobacco into this Kingdom, under Pretence of exporting the same to Ireland; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Debenture shall be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported from any Port of Great Britain, to the Kingdom of Ireland, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of the Customs of any Port in Ireland, or any two of them, where such Goods shall be landed, testifying the landing thereof, (the Danger of the Seas or Enemies excepted) any Law to the contrary notwithstanding; which Certificate the Collector, Comptroller, and Searcher of the Customs, or any two of them, of each Port in Ireland, are impowered and required to deliver forthwith, upon the Discharge of such Tobacco, and not to take above one Shilling Fee for making out and Delivery of such Certificate.

No Debenture for Tobacco to Ireland, till a Certificate from the Collector, &c. in Ireland, of the landing of the same there, by 6 Geo. 1. c. 21. §. 48. 2 l. per Cent. to be paid.

allowed for Tobacco exported to Ireland in case of Waste. Fees 1 s.

XIX. And as a further Security of her Majesty's Revenues, both in Great Britain and Ireland; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of every Ship carrying such certificate Goods to Ireland, shall demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port of Great Britain, a Duplicate of his Content in Writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (which said Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain, are hereby required to deliver to every Master, without Fee or Reward) and such Master shall be obliged to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he be permitted to land such Goods there.

Master carrying certificate Goods to Ireland to take a Duplicate of his Content from the Collector, &c.

XX. And whereas an illegal Trade is usually carried on in small Vessels or Boats; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Debenture shall be made forth, nor any Drawback be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported to any Place, in any Ship or Vessel under the Burthen of twenty Tuns; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Debenture for Tobacco exported in any Ship under 20 Tuns.

XXI. And whereas by an Exception or Clause contained in an Act made in the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty a further Subsidy on Wines and Merchandizes imported, it was provided, That such Corans as should be imported in English built shipping, navigated according to Law, should be exempted from paying the Two thirds Subsidy granted by the said Act: And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the fourth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for continuing an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, it was amongst other Things enacted and declared, That the Exception contained in the aforesaid Act, whereby Corans imported in English built Shipping, navigated according to Law, were exempted from the said Duty, should be extended to such Corans as, after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, should be imported in Ships belonging to any of the Subjects of the Republick of Venice, so that they also should be exempted from Payment of the Two thirds Subsidy granted by the aforesaid Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for continuing the several Duties therein mentioned, the said Two thirds Subsidies were continued for three Years, from the seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eight, with an Exception as to Corans imported in English built Shipping, according to the said Act of the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, and no Notice is taken of the Explanation thereof in the said Act of the fourth of her Majesty's Reign, as to Venetian Shipping also, whereby some Doubts have arisen, whether Corans imported in Venetian Shipping ought to be exempted from the Continuation of the Two thirds Subsidy, according to the Provision before recited in the said Act of the fourth Year of her Majesty's Reign, extending the Exemption to them: For preventing which Doubts, and in Regard it would be very hard to restrain the Subjects of Venice from importing the Goods of their own Growth in their own Shipping; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause in the Act of the fourth Year of the Queen's Reign, for exempting Corans imported in Venetian Shipping from paying the Duty of Two thirds Subsidy, was intended, and is to be understood, from the time of passing the same Act, to be a perpetual Clause attending the Continuation of that Duty, and not limited unto the first Grant thereof; any thing in the said Act of the sixth, or in any other subsequent Act, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

'granting to her Majesty an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage for three Years, and for laying a further 'Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for ascertaining the Value of unrated Goods imported 'from the East Indies, it is therein, amongst other Things, enacted, That all English Merchants should,
'from and after the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and three, have eighteen Months
'Time allowed them from the Entry inwards for the Exportation of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper,
'Bugles, Cast and Bar Iron, Dying Wood, Dying Wares, and Drugs, and should have the like Benefit
'and Drawback by such Exportations, as if the same had been exported within twelve Months: And
'whereas the Time allowed to Foreigners for Exportation of such Goods is limited to nine Months,
'which by Experience is found to be too short, and very inconvenient to Trade; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Foreign Merchants, or all British Merchants commissioned by them, shall from and after the seven and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, have fifteen Months Time from the Entry Inwards of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles, Cast and Bar Iron, Dying Wood, Dying Wares, and Drugs (already imported or to be imported) allowed them to export the same, and shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within nine Months, according to the second Rule in the Book of Rates; the said Rule, or any other Law or Custom now in Force relating thereunto notwithstanding: Provided Certificates be taken forth, and Oath made, and all other Requisites performed, according to the Laws now in Being.

'XXIII. And whereas the Laws of this Realm do require, That for Ships trading to or in her Majesty's 'Plantations, lading Sugars and other enumerated Commodities there, Bonds be given, which are com'monly called Plantation Bonds, with Condition to bring the same Goods to Great Britain, or to some 'other of her Majesty's Plantations, or to that effect: Now to prevent the Discouragement which Persons
'trading to and from the said Plantations do or may lie under by the said Bonds lying out against them,
'although the Conditions thereof are or shall have been performed; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the said Plantation Bonds as have been entered into at any Time or Times before the eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the Hands of any of her Majesty's Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof before the eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, or if upon such Prosecution Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty before the eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, then such of the said Plantation Bonds, so already entered into, shall (for want of such Prosecution or Judgment) be void; and as to such Plantation Bonds as shall be entered into after the said eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, within three Years after the Dates thereof, or if upon such Prosecution as is last-mentioned Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty within the Space of two Years after the same Prosecution commenced; then every such Plantation Bond, which shall hereafter be entered into as aforesaid (in Default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the Times before limited) shall also be void: And all the said Plantation Bonds so made void by this Act, shall be delivered up by the Officers having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled, without Fee or Reward.

'XXIV. And whereas by an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King
'King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the
'Manufactures of this Kingdom, upon the Exportation of wrought Silks, and other Commodities therein
'mentioned, Security is to be taken in the Manner therein exprest: Now in Regard it may happen some 'of these Goods may be vended in Foreign Parts, from which no Certificate can be produced, as the said 'Act requires, to discharge the Security last-mentioned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the Securities last-mentioned, as have been entered into at any Time or Times, before the Eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the Hands of any of her Majesty's Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, before the eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, or if upon such Prosecution Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty before the eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifteen; then such of the said Securities so already entered into upon Exportation of such Silks, and other Commodities last-mentioned, shall (for want of such Prosecution or Judgment) be void; and as to such Securities as shall be entered into, after the said eight and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, upon Exportation of such wrought Silks, and other Commodities as are last-mentioned, in Case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, within three Years after the Dates thereof, or if upon such Prosecution as is last-mentioned, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty within the Space of two Years after the same Prosecution commenced; then every such Security relating to wrought Silks or such other Goods as are last-mentioned, which shall hereafter be entered into as aforesaid, (in Default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the Times before limited) shall also be void; and all such Securities so made void by this Act, shall be delivered up by the respective Officers, having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled without Fee or Reward.

'XXV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer of her Majesty's Revenue, having the Custody of any of the Bonds by this Act required to be delivered up to be cancelled as aforesaid, aforesaid, shall upon reasonable Demand refuse or neglect to deliver up such Bonds, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, then the Officer so offending shall for every such Offence be and is hereby made liable to answer to the Party grieved all his Damages, together with Treble Costs of Suit.

XXVI. And in regard the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage on Merchandizes exported is to determine from and after the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten, but it is nevertheless necessary, that the respective Officers of the Customs, as well outwards as inwards, do continue to perform the Duties of their respective Offices, as well to prevent Frauds in Relation to the Drawbacks upon certificate Goods, as to hinder the Exportation of Goods prohibited to be exported, and for other Causes wherein the publick Service is or may be concerned; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fees of the Officers of the Customs, as well in the Port of London as in other Ports of Great Britain, which were established or allowed by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, or by any of the Rules annexed thereunto, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament since made, touching any such Fees, and which may lawfully be taken by any such Officers, or their Deputies, from any her Majesty's Subjects or Strangers, until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ten, for any Cocquets, Certificates, Entries, Clearings, Bonds, Debentures, Endorsements, Sufferances, Transfers, Lett-pasies, Warrants, and other Matters and Things relating to the Duties of their Respective Offices, shall after the said last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten continue, and be paid and payable for the same, until the said Fees, or any of them shall be altered by the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament, as fully as if the said Fees, or any Table or Tables thereof formerly allowed, were particularly set down, or referred to in the Body of this Act; the Determination of the said Subsidy outwards, or any Act or Acts of Parliament, or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall, contrary to his Duty, imbezil any Goods or Merchandizes lodged in any Warehouse, in his or their Custody or Possession, such Officer and Officers, for every such Offence, shall forfeit double the Value of the Goods so imbezilled, to the Parties grieved, with full Costs, to be recovered as other Penalties by this Act are recoverable.

XXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies lent and to be lent unto her Majesty, on one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty, to be raised by a Land Tax in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, and so much Money (if any such be) of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise, and remain after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, and the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for the raising the said Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Monies lent and to be lent unto her Majesty, upon another Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for charging and continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, and so much Money of the said Duties of Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, thereby granted, as shall arise and remain, after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charge thereby allowable for raising the said Duties thereby granted, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Money arisen or to arise by another Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing Part of the Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and granting new Duties upon Houses having twenty Windows or more, to raise the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, by Way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and all the Money arisen or to arise by another Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty new Duties of Excise, and upon several imported Commodities; and for establishing a yearly Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, to raise nine hundred thousand Pounds, by Sale of Annuities; and (in Default thereof) by another Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and all the Monies lent or to be lent unto her Majesty upon one other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Candles, and certain Rates upon Monies to be given with Clerks and Apprentices, towards raising her Majesty's Supply for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the Sums intended to be raised by Loans, in pursuance of this present Act; shall be appropriated for or towards the several Uses and Purposes herein after expressed: That is to say, For or towards the defraying the Charges of the Ordinary of her Majesty's Navy, and for Victuals, Wages, Wear and Tear, and other Services of the Navy, and the victualling thereof, performed and to be performed; and for the Sea Service in the Office of the Ordnance, performed and to be performed; and for or towards the Land Service, performed and to be performed by the Office of the Ordnance, including the Charge of the Fortifications of Gibraltar, and to and for Subsistence, Off-reckonings and Clearings for one Year, from the three and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and nine, to her Majesty's Guards and Garrisons in Great Britain, and the contingent Charges of the same, and for Payment of Invalids for the said Year, beginning from the said three and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and nine; and for or towards the defraying the Charges of her Majesty's Army, and such Forces as are or shall be added thereunto in the Low Countries, or Germany, within or for one Year, to be reckoned from the said three and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and nine, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging; and for or towards her Majesty's Proportion of the Charge of three thousand Palatines, formerly taken into the Service of her Majesty and the States General for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and for or towards her Majesty's Proportion of the Charge of four thousand six hundred thirty-nine Saxons, formerly taken into the Service of her Majesty, and the States General, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and for or towards her Majesty's Proportion of the Charge

XXIX. And whereas in several Acts of Parliament that have passed since her Majesty's Accession to the Throne, upon or by virtue whereof certain Annuities for Lives, Years, or in Perpetuity, have been purchased, obtained, or secured to be paid at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, it has been specially provided or enacted to the Purport or Effect following; that is to say, That in case the Duties or Revenues, settled or established by the said respective Acts to be the Fund or Funds upon which such Annuity or Annuities, or any of them, are severally charged, should at the End of any Year of the respective Terms, Estates, or Interests by the said Acts severally granted, of and in such Annuities, exceed, by their Income into the said Exchequer within such Year, all the Monies due for or upon the same Annuity or Annuities, in or for the same Year respectively, and all Arrearages thereof, such Excess or Surplus should be disposable, from Time to Time, by Authority of Parliament, for the publick Use and Service, and not otherwise, as in and by the said several Acts, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas some Doubt has arisen, whether the Monies not being Monies of the said Funds, or any of them, which have been, or may be directed to be applied, from Time to Time, to aid the Deficiency or Deficiencies of any of the Funds upon which the said Annuity or Annuities, or any of them, are severally charged, can or may be made good again out of the Excess or Surplus, remaining undisposed by Authority of Parliament, of the particular Fund or Funds aided by such Monies or Surplus, when such Excess or Surplus shall at the End of every Year happen to arise: For Remedy whereof, it is hereby enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or for any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, by Warrant under his or their Hands, at any Time or Times hereafter, to charge the said undisposed Surplus or Excess which shall remain at the End of every or any Year, of the Fund or Funds which have been or shall hereafter happen to be deficient, with the Repayment and Satisfaction of such Sum and Sums of Money as have been, or shall, from Time to Time, be applied to aid or make good such particular Deficiency; and all and every such Sum and Sums of Money shall and may, from Time to Time, be retained and kept out of every such Excess and Surplus, and be issued and applied to such Uses and Purposes as the Monies, so from Time to Time issued to aid or make good such particular Deficiency or Deficiencies, should or might have been applied in case such Deficiency or Deficiencies had not happened; any Clauses, Matters, or Things in the said Acts, or any of them, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Clause to encourage the raising Naval Stores in her Majesty's Plantations.

3 & 4 Annæ,
c. 10.

XXX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesty's Plantations in America, the Sum of four Pounds per Ton is allowed, as a Premium or Encouragement for importing of Pitch and Tar; and three Pounds per Ton for importing of Resin and Turpentine from the said Plantations into this Kingdom; as likewise six Pounds per Ton for all water-rotted Hemp, bright and clean; and one Pound per Ton for all Masts, Yards, and Bowsprits imported as aforesaid; and in Regard it is by Experience found, That the said Premiums and Encouragements are defective, and that the good and profitable Ends by the said Act of Parliament proposed, cannot be attained without sufficient Numbers of skilful People, and proper Utensils and Materials necessary to be employed for raising such Naval Stores; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty to apply any Sum or Sums out of the Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament, not exceeding the Sum of ten thousand Pounds in the whole, for and towards the Subsistence and Employment of a Number of skilful People, and for furnishing of fit Utensils and Materials for effectually carrying on the said good and profitable Designs of raising such Naval Stores from the Growths and Products of the said Plantations.

XXXI. And

‘ XXXI. And whereas several Officers and other Proprietors of Debentures made forth by the late Paymaster of the Army, Commissioners for Transports, and by the Commissioners of Accounts in that behalf authorized respectively, have omitted to register the said Debentures within the Times limited by Acts of Parliament for that Purpose: For the Relief therefore of all such Officers and other Proprietors of the said unregistered Debentures, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all such Officers and other Proprietors of the said unregistered Debentures, who have not registered the same, to register their Debentures on or before the nine and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ten; which said Debentures being so registered, shall and are hereby intitled to all the Benefit of Interest, and other Advantages, as if registered on or before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and nine.

Unregistered Debentures may be registered before 29 Dec. 1710.

C A P. XIV.

An Act for the better Security of Rents, and to prevent Frauds committed by Tenants.

FOR the more easy and effectual Recovery of Rents reserved on Leases for Life or Lives, Term of Years, at will or otherwise; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, no Goods or Chattels whatsoever, lying or being in or upon any Messuage, Lands or Tenements, which are or shall be leased for Life or Lives, Term of Years, at Will or otherwise, shall be liable to be taken by Virtue of any Execution on any Pretence whatsoever, unless the Party at whose Suit the said Execution is sued out, shall before the Removal of such Goods from off the said Premises, by Virtue of such Execution or Extent, pay to the Landlord of the said Premises or his Bailiff, all such Sum or Sums of Money as are or shall be due for Rent for the said Premises at the Time of the taking such Goods or Chattels by Virtue of such Execution; Provided the said Arrears of Rent do not amount to more than one Year's Rent; and in case the said Arrears shall exceed one Year's Rent, then the said Party, at whose Suit such Execution is sued out, paying the said Landlord or his Bailiff, one Year's Rent, may proceed to execute his Judgment, as he might have done before the making of this Act; and the Sheriff or other Officer is hereby impowered and required to levy and pay to the Plaintiff as well the Money so paid for Rent, as the Execution Money.

After the first of May 1710. no Goods, &c. shall be taken in Execution, &c. unless the Party before Removal of the Goods, &c. pay the Landlord the Rent due. 52 H. 3. c. 4. 13 Ed. 1. c. 37. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 12. 2 W. & M. stat. 1. c. 5. Provided it amount to no more than 1 Year's Rent.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Lessee for Life or Lives, Term of Years, at Will or otherwise, of any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, upon the Demise whereof any Rents are or shall be reserved or made payable, shall, from and after the said first Day of May, fraudulently or clandestinely convey or carry off or from such demised Premises his Goods or Chattels, with Intent to prevent the Landlord or Lessor from distraining the same for Arrears of such Rent so reserved as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Lessor or Landlord, or any Person or Persons by him for that Purpose lawfully impowered, within the Space of five Days next ensuing such conveying away or carrying off such Goods or Chattels as aforesaid, to take and seize such Goods and Chattels where-ever the same shall be found, as a Distress for the said Arrears of such Rent; and the same to sell or otherwise dispose of, in such Manner, as if the said Goods and Chattels had actually been distrained by such Lessor or Landlord, in and upon such demised Premises for such Arrears of Rent; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

The Sheriff, &c. to levy the Rent as well as the Execution Money. If any Lessee, &c. shall fraudulently carry off Goods, &c. the Lessor, &c. may within 5 Days after seizure of such Goods, &c. and sell the same as if they had been distrained.

III. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to impower such Lessor or Landlord to take or seize any Goods or Chattels as a Distress for Arrears of Rent, which shall be sold bona fide, and for a valuable Consideration, before such Seizure made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provido, such Lessor, &c. shall not seize any Goods, &c. which shall be 11 Geo. 2. c. 19.

‘ IV. And whereas no Action of Debt lies against a Tenant for Life or Lives, for any Arrears of Rent, during the Continuance of such Estate for Life or Lives, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, having any Rent in Arrear or due upon any Lease or Demise for Life or Lives, to bring an Action or Actions of Debt for such Arrears of Rent, in the same Manner as they might have done, in case such Rent were due and reserved upon a Lease for Years.

Debt may be brought against Tenant for Life for Rent.

V. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Distresses hereby impowered to be made as aforesaid, shall be liable to such Sales, and in such Manner, and the Monies arising by such Sales to be distributed in like Manner, as by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for enabling the Sale of Goods distrained for Rent, in case the Rent be not paid in reasonable Time, is in that Behalf directed and appointed.

Distresses liable to such Sales, and to be distributed, as by the Act 2 W. & M. ff. 1. c. 5.

‘ VI. And whereas Tenants pur auter vie and Lessees for Years or at Will, frequently hold over the Tenements to them demised, after the Determination of such Leases: And whereas after the Determination of such, or any other Leases, no Distress can by Law be made for any Arrears of Rent that grew due on such respective Leases before the Determination thereof; It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, it shall and may be lawful, for any Person or Persons, having any Rent in Arrear or due upon any Lease for Life or Lives, or for Years, or at Will, ended or determined, to distrain for such Arrears, after the Rent in Arrear upon a Lease for Life, &c. expires, may be distrained for after the Determination of the Lease.

Determination of the said respective Leases, in the same Manner as they might have done, if such Lease or Leases had not been ended or determined.

VII. Provided, That such Distress be made within the Space of six Kalendar Months after the Determination of such Lease; and during the Continuance of such Landlord's Title or Interest, and during the Possession of the Tenant from whom such Arrears became due.

This Act shall not hinder the Queen, &c. to levy, &c. any Debts, Fines, &c. due to the Crown.
See 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. and 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. containing farther Provisions concerning Distresses.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to let, hinder or prejudice her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in the levying, recovering or seizing any Debts, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, that are or shall be due, payable or answerable to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors; but that it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, to levy, recover, and seize such Debts, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, in the same Manner as if this Act had never been made; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for explaining and enlarging an Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Security of her Majesty's Person and Government.

6 Annæ, c. 14.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the sixth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, it is amongst other Things enacted, That all Officers, Civil and Military, in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, who were obliged and required to take in Scotland an Oath, called the Oath of Allegiance and Assurance, before the Privy Council there, should be obliged, on or before the twentieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and eight, to take and subscribe the Oath by the said Act appointed, before the Privy Council while it should continue, and after the Determination thereof before and in the Court of Session, or the Court of Justiciary, or the Court of Exchequer there; and that all others then in any of the Affairs aforesaid, who in Respect thereof had used and been obliged to take the said Oath of Allegiance and Assurance in any other Court and Place, should be obliged to take and subscribe the same at the next Quarter-Sessions of the Peace that should be held for any County or Place in which any such Officer should be resident or abiding; and that all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who should after be admitted into any Office, Civil or Military, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, should, within three Months after his Admittance into any such Office, be obliged to take the Oath appointed by the said Acts in the respective Courts above mentioned, according to the Distinction therein and above mentioned, for Persons then in Office: And whereas several Persons bearing such Offices, and who were likewise Members of Parliament, or otherwise necessarily absent, were at the Time of making the said Act, detained in England, by their Service in Parliament, and upon other publick and important Occasions, so that they were rendered incapable of repairing to the Courts aforesaid, within the Time in the said Act directed: And whereas it may happen, that Persons provided to Offices in Scotland, may, for attending the publick Service, or for other important Causes, be detained in England, and thereby cannot take the Oaths in Scotland, within the Time required by the Laws: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons that have been or are in any Office, Civil or Military in Scotland aforesaid, shall, on or before the eight and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, take and subscribe the Oath of Abjuration in the aforesaid Act mentioned, and shall also take and subscribe the Oath of Allegiance, and subscribe the Assurance in the Words following, viz.

Any Officer, either Civil or Military, in Scotland, may before 28 June 1710, take and subscribe the Oath of Abjuration, &c. and likewise subscribe the Assurance.

I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ANNE.

So help me God.

I A. B. do in the Sincerity of my Heart, assert, acknowledge, and declare, That her Majesty Queen ANNE is the only lawful undoubted Sovereign of this Realm, as well de Jure, that is, of Right Queen, as de Facto, that is, in the Possession and Exercise of the Government: And therefore I do sincerely and faithfully promise and engage, That I will, with Heart and Hand, Life and Goods, maintain and defend her Majesty's Title and Government, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and his Adherents, and all other Enemies, who either by open or secret Attempts, shall disturb or disquiet her Majesty in the Possession and Exercise thereof.

In any of the Courts of Westminster,

And that either in her Majesty's Courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer at Westminster; the same shall be, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, as effectual as if such Person or Persons had taken the Oaths by the said Act appointed, within the Time, and at the Places therein mentioned.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Time coming all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall be admitted into any Office, Civil or Military, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who by reason of such Office are obliged to take the Oaths before-mentioned in Scotland, shall within three Months after his Admittance into any such Office, take and subscribe the Oaths, and subscribe the Assurance aforesaid, either in her Majesty's Courts of Session, Justiciary, or Exchequer in Scotland, or at the Quarter-Sessions there, for the City or County where such Person or Persons inhabit or dwell, or in any other Court where the Oaths have usually been administered in Scotland, or in her Majesty's Courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer at Westminster.

Officers in Scotland to take the Oaths, &c. there, within three Months after Admittance into their Offices, in the Courts of Session, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer at Westminster, shall, from time to time, administer to such Persons as shall tender themselves to take and subscribe the aforesaid Oaths, and subscribe the said Assurance for Offices, Civil and Military, and in the same Manner that other Oaths of the like Nature have been in Use to be assured; and they shall give to all and every Person or Persons taking the Oaths as aforesaid, a Certificate of their having taken the same, for which there shall be paid a Sum not exceeding two Shillings.

The Courts at Westminster to administer the Oaths to all Persons offering to take them, and to give a Certificate thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person who shall be employed in any Office, Civil or Military, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and who, by virtue of this present Act, takes the Oaths before and in the Courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer at Westminster, shall be obliged to transmit, within the Space of three Months, to the Courts of Session of Justiciary, or Exchequer in Scotland, or to any the principal Clerks of Session, the principal Clerk of Justiciary, or the Queen's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, the Certificate they shall receive in Manner above-mentioned; where the said Certificate shall be kept, and to which all Persons shall have free Access, without Fee or Reward.

Officers in Scotland, who shall take the Oaths at Westminster, must transmit the Certificate to the Courts of Session, &c. in Scotland, within three Months.

V. Provided always, That every such Person or Persons who shall neglect or refuse to take and subscribe the Oaths, and subscribe the Assurance aforesaid, either in her Majesty's Court of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer at Westminster, or in the proper Courts in Scotland, and shall after such refusal or Neglect execute any Office, for and in respect of which the Oaths and Assurance aforesaid ought to be taken and subscribed, shall incur the Penalties, Disabilities and forfeitures in the said Act mentioned.

Persons neglecting or refusing to take the Oaths, &c. shall incur the Penalties in the Act, 6 Annæ, c. 14.

VI. Provided also, that every such Person or Persons, who having taken and subscribed the Oaths, and subscribed the Assurance aforesaid, in her Majesty's Courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer at Westminster, shall, within the Space of three Months, neglect to transmit the Certificate given by the said Courts in Manner above mentioned, shall forfeit his Office, and also the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same, by summary Process in the said Court of Session.

who will sue for it in the

Taking the Oaths, &c. and neglecting to transmit the Certificate, shall forfeit his Office, and 100 l. to any Court of Session.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, that is or shall be employed in any Office or Offices in Scotland aforesaid, to take the Oath de Fidei, or Oaths for the due Execution of his or their Office or Offices, before one of the Judges of England; and that such Oath or Oaths so taken, shall to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes, be as effectual as if such Oath or Oaths had been taken before any Judge or Judges of either of her Majesty's Courts in Scotland aforesaid, or otherwise howsoever.

Officer in Scotland may take the Oath de Fidei, before one of the Judges of England.

VIII. And whereas Henry Newton Doctor of Laws, her Majesty's Envoy extraordinary to the Great Duke of Tuscany, being appointed Master of St. Catherine's Hospital near the Tower of London, cannot return home till the Time for qualifying himself, by receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, taking the Oaths, and making the Declaration and Subscriptions required by Law, will be expired; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the said Henry Newton shall receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper within three Months after his Return from beyond the Seas, and shall take the Oaths, and make the Declaration and Subscriptions required by Law, in one of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster the next Term, or at the next Quarter-Sessions held for the County of Middlesex, after the said three Months, the same shall be good and available to the said Henry Newton, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes whatsoever; and the said Henry Newton shall be deemed to have qualified himself as fully and effectually as if he had taken the said Oaths, and made the said Declaration and Subscriptions within the precise Time required by Law; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Clause for allowing Dr. Newton, Envoy to the Great Duke of Tuscany, three Months after his Return to England, to take the Oaths as Master of St. Catherine's Hospital.

An Act for discharging the Attendance of Noblemen, Barons, and Freeholders, upon the Lords of Justiciary in their Circuits, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for abolishing the Method of exhibiting criminal Informations by the porteous Roll.

WHEREAS since the Union of the two Kingdoms, the Attendance of Noblemen, Barons, and Freeholders, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, upon the Lords of Justiciary in their Circuits, in the Manner the same was heretofore used, is now become burthenfome and unnecessary; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of

After 1 May 1710. none to attend the Lords of Justiciary in their Circuits, except the Sheriff, &c. at the Place and Time where the Circuit Courts are held;

and except such as are summoned to give Evidence, or on a Jury; or such as are bound to appear, or such as shall make Presentments.

Justices of Peace may depute one of their Number.

Except also those who attend by the Duty of their Offices.

the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, no Person whatsoever shall be obliged, by himself, his Tenants, or Servants, to attend the Lords of Justiciary, either in going to, or coming from the respective Places where the Circuit Courts are held, except the Sheriff, or his Deputies, and their Officers; and that no Sheriff, by himself, or his Deputies, or his Officers, be obliged to attend the said Lords of Justiciary at any Time or Place out of the Bounds of the respective County whereof such Person is Sheriff, except at the Place, and during the Time, where the several Circuit Courts of the respective Districts shall be held.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May no Person whatsoever shall be obliged to attend at the Place where the Circuit Court is held, during such Time as the said Court shall continue there, except such Person or Persons who shall be summoned upon any Grand or Petty Jury, or who shall be summoned or bound to give Evidence in any Matter or Cause before the said Court, or who shall be bound over to appear at such Justice Court, or such Person or Persons as shall make Presentments, in order to Trials before the said Justices at their Circuits: Provided, That when Presentments are made by the Justices of Peace at their Quarter-Sessions, or at the yearly Meetings in July and February after mentioned, it shall be lawful to the said Justices to depute one or more of their Number to attend in Place of the whole; and except such other Person or Persons, who, by the Duty of his or their Offices or Trusts, are bound to attend the said Court.

6 Annæ, c. 6.

The Manner of taking up Dittay, &c. abolished.

Informations, &c. to be by Presentments, by the Justices in their Quarter-Sessions, &c.

The Sheriffs, &c. to meet twice in the Year to receive such Informations, and to make up Accounts of Crimes to be tried in the Circuits.

The Informations to be signed by 2 Justices, &c. and to be transmitted to the Lord Justice Clerk, &c.

III. And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the rendering the Union of the two Kingdoms more entire and complete, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Justices of the Peace in Scotland may do, use, and exercise over all Persons within their several Bounds, whatever doth appertain to the Office and Trust of a Justice of Peace, by Virtue of the Laws and Acts of Parliament made in England before the Union, in Relation to or for the Prefermentation of the publick Peace; by virtue of which Powers and Privileges vested in them for the Purposes aforesaid, they have sufficient Authority to receive Information concerning Crimes committed within the respective Counties, and to commit such Offenders, or take Security or Recognizance, and to do other necessary Acts for the effectual Prosecution of the said Crimes, in Consequence whereof the old Method of taking up Dittay, and exhibiting Informations against Delinquents by the Strefs and porteous Roll, as the same was grievous, is now become unnecessary; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May, the said Method of taking up Dittay, and exhibiting Information by the Strefs and porteous Roll, shall be and is hereby totally discharged and abolished to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Informations in order to making up of Dittays, concerning Crimes to be tried in the said Circuits in Scotland, from and after the said first Day of May next, shall be by Presentments to be made by the Justices of Peace at their Quarter-Sessions, or upon Informations to be taken by the Sheriffs, Stewarts, Baillies of Regalities, and their Deputies, Magistrates of Boroughs, or other inferior Judges and Magistrates within the Jurisdiction of the respective Circuits, concerning such Crimes as are to be tried before the Lords of Justiciary in their Circuits, in the Months of July and February yearly; and the said Justices of Peace, at least two of them, are hereby required and authorized to meet at the head Burgh of the respective Shires within which they are Justices, and at the ordinary Place and Hour of Meeting, upon the twenty-first Day of the said Months of July and February respectively yearly, being lawful Days, or on the next lawful Day thereafter, there to receive such Informations as shall be offered, concerning Matters criminal to be tried in the Circuits, and to revise such Informations as have been taken before the Time of the said Meetings by two or more of the Justices of the Peace, otherwise than at their Quarter Meetings; and the said Sheriffs, Stewarts, Baillies of the Regalities, and their Deputies, Magistrates of Boroughs, and other inferior Judges and Magistrates respectively, shall meet upon the twenty-second Days of the said Months of July and February respectively, yearly, being lawful Days, or on the next lawful Day thereafter, at the ordinary Places and Hour of their Meetings, there to receive such Informations as shall be offered concerning Matters criminal, to be tried in the Circuits; and the said Justices, Sheriffs, Stewarts, Baillies of Regalities, and their Deputies, Magistrates of Burghs, and other inferior Judges and Magistrates, are hereby required and authorized to make up particular Accounts of such criminal Facts happening within their respective Bounds, as are to be tried before the respective Circuits, containing the Names and Designation of the Offenders, the Facts committed, with the Circumstances of Time and Place, and others that may serve to discover the Truth; containing also the Names and Designations of the Witnesses, and Titles of such Writes as are to be made use of at the Trials; which Informations are hereby appointed to be signed by the said Justices, or at least two of them, and their Clerk, or by the said Sheriffs, Stewarts, Baillies of Regalities, or their Deputies and Clerks, or by Magistrates of Boroughs, or other inferior Judges or Magistrates, and their Clerks respectively; and being so signed, the respective Clerks are also hereby required and authorized to transmit the same, together with such Writes or other Evidence or Proof, as are to be made use of in the Trials before the Judges at the respective Circuits, to the Lord Justice Clerk, or his Deputies at Edinburgh, at least forty Days before the holding of the respective Circuit Courts; that being given to her Majesty's Advocate, or such as discharge that Trust in Scotland, Libels and Indictments may be raised and executed against Parties, Assysers, and Witnesses, according to the former Laws and Custom.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Magistrates of such Cities and Boroughs, where the respective Circuit Courts are held, shall be obliged to attend the said Lords of Justiciary, during their Abode in their respective Cities and Boroughs; and that they prepare convenient Benches and Places for the Justices of the Peace to sit on, and be present at the said Courts; who are hereby declared to have and enjoy the same Privileges in Court, as the Justices of Peace now enjoy in England.

VI. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to restrain her Majesty's Advocate, or his Successors in Office, in her Majesty's Name, or any Person or Persons, to inform and prosecute any criminal Action or Cause before the Circuit Court, in the same Way and Manner as is in Use to be done before the Justiciary Court at Edinburgh, or to alter or innovate the Method of returning Jurymen or Assysers by the Sheriffs, upon Precepts directed to them as formerly.

The Magistrates of Cities, &c. shall attend the Lords of Justiciary, in their respective Cities, &c. and prepare Benches, &c. The Queen's Advocate shall not be restrained to prosecute any criminal Action, Juries to be returned as formerly.

C A P. XVII.

An Act for explaining and making more effectual an Act for the better enabling the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of Trinity House to rebuild the Light House on the Edystone Rock.

WHEREAS in and by one Act of Parliament made in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of her present Majesty QUEEN ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better enabling the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of Trinity House to rebuild the Light House on the Edystone Rock; It is enacted, That from and after the placing a Light useful for Shipping, in the Light House intended to be rebuilt on the said Rock, there shall be paid to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, their Successors, and Assigns, by the Masters and Owners of all English Ships, Hoys and Barques, which shall pass by the same (except Coasters) the Duty of one Penny per Ton outwards bound, and also one Penny per Ton inwards bound; that is to say, of the Merchant one Moiety, and of the Owner of the Ship, Hoy or Barque, the other Moiety; and of all such Strangers or Aliens Ships and Vessels as shall happen to pass by the said Light House, the Sum of two Pence for every Tun of the Burden of the said Ship or Vessel; and that every Coaster passing by the said Light House shall pay the Duty of two Shillings, and no more, for every Time they shall pass by the said Light House; the said Duties to be collected by such Persons as the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or their Successors, shall appoint, in such Port or Place whence such Ship, Hoy or Barque shall set forth, or where such Ship, Hoy or Barque shall arrive, before they load or unload the Goods therein; and to be recovered by Action of Debt, in any Court of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Wager of Law, or Protection shall be allowed, nor more than one Imparllance: And whereas the said Master, Wardens and Assistants, having a due Regard to the Safety and Preservation of the Shipping and Navigation of this Kingdom, did, soon after the passing the said Act, cause the said Light House to be begun, and to be rebuilt, and by the great Care and Diligence of the Persons employed therein, the said Work was carried on with such Expedition, that a Light useful for Shipping was placed therein on the eight and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eight; and the said Light House hath since, with much Hazard and Difficulty, and a very great Expence, been fully built and compleated, to the great Satisfaction of the Flag Officers and Commanders of her Majesty's Fleet and Ships of War, and of all others concerned in Trade and Navigation: And whereas since the rebuilding of the said Light House, several Foreign Ships that passed by, and had the Benefit of the said Light, and arrived in some of the Ports of the Kingdom of Ireland, have avoided Payment of the said Duties, upon Pretence that the said Act did not extend to the said Kingdom of Ireland: For Prevention whereof, and to the End a Work of that publick Nature, and so greatly beneficial to Navigation, may have all due and proper Encouragement; Be it enacted, &c.

4 Annæ, c. 20.

See 8 El. c. 13.

The respective Duties in the said Act, to be paid by the Master of every Ship, &c. passing by the Edystone Light House, &c. How the said Duties to be recovered. No Custom House Officer to make out any Cocquet, &c. till the Duties are paid, and an Acquittance produced to him. Such Persons as are mentioned in the former Act, may go on board any Foreign Ship, &c. to receive the Duties; and distrain for Non-payment. The Distress to be appraised and sold, if the Duties be not paid in three Days; rendering the Overplus to the Master, &c. This and the former Act to be allowed as Publick Acts in Great Britain and Ireland. P. R.

An Act to regulate the Price and Affize of Bread.

WHEREAS by the Statute made in the one and fiftieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Third, intituled, [Affisa Panis et Cervisie] Provision was made, amongst other Things, for settling the Affize of Bread; but the said Statute is expressed in Terms so obscure and impracticable in these Times, that many Doubts and Difficulties have arisen, and daily do arise, in the Construction thereof, whereby little or no Observance hath in many Places been made, either of the due Affize, or reasonable Price of Bread; and covetous and evil-disposed Persons taking Advantage of the same, have, for their own Gain and Lucre, deceived and oppressed her Majesty's Subjects, and more especially the poorer Sort of people: For Remedy whereof for the future, and that a plain and constant Rule and Method may

So much of the said Statute, intituled, Affisa Panis et Cervisie, as relates to the Affise of Bread, repealed.

And after May 1, 1710. the Lord Mayor of London, &c. and the Mayor, &c. of other Cities, &c. and Justices of the Peace, in Places where there is no Mayor, &c. shall set may henceforward be duly observed and kept, in the making and assizing of the several Sorts of Bread made for Sale; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Statute, [intituled, Affisa Panis et Cervisie] as relates to the Affise of Bread, shall be and is hereby repealed, annulled and made void; and that from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, by the Order of the said Court, and the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen or other Chief Magistrates for the time being, of any other City, Town Corporate or Borough, or two or more Justices of the Peace, in such Towns and Places where there shall be no such Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen or Chief Magistrates, shall severally and respectively, and from time to time, as there shall be Occasion, set, ascertain and appoint, within their several and respective Jurisdictions, the Affise and Weight of all Sorts of Bread, to be sold or exposed to Sale by any Baker or other Person whatsoever, within the Limits of their several Jurisdictions, having Respect to the Price, the Grain, Meal or Flour, whereof such Bread shall be made, shall bear in the several publick Markets, in or about the City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Place where such Affise shall be so set, and making reasonable Allowance to the Bakers for their Charges, Pains and Livelihoods; which said Affise shall be set in Averdupois, and not Troy Weight.

the Affise and Weight of all Sorts of Bread, having respect to the Price of the Grain, &c.

After the said first of May, no Person shall sell any Bread, other than such as shall be allowed by the Lord Mayor, &c. Bread to be made according to the Table following,

II. And that the said Affise may be the more easily ascertained and appointed; Be it likewise enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May no Person or Persons whatsoever shall make for Sale, or sell or expose to Sale, any Sort or Sorts of Bread, other than the several Sorts of Bread herein after-mentioned; that is to say, White, Wheaten and Household, and such other Sort and Sorts of Bread as shall be publickly licensed and allowed by the said Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen within the said City of London and Liberties thereof, or by the said other Chief Magistrates or Justices of the Peace within their several and respective Jurisdictions; all which several Sorts of Bread shall be made in their several and respective Degrees, according to the Goodness of the several Sorts of Grain, whereof the same ought to be made, and the Affise and Weight of the said White, Wheaten and Household Bread made of Wheat, shall be set and ascertained according to the Table hereafter following.

EXPLANATION:

In the First and Last Columns is the Price of the Bushel of Wheat, from 2s. to 15s. the Bushel, the Allowance of the Magistrates to the Baker for Baking being included: And in the other Columns is the Weight of the several Loaves. So that (for Example) if the Price of Wheat is 5s. the Bushel, and the Magistrates allow 1s. 6d. the Bushel to the Baker for Baking, then even with the 6s. 6d. in the First or Last Column, will be found the Weight of the several Loaves; but if the Price is 3s. the Bushel, and the Allowance 1s. then the Weight of the said Loaves will be found even with 4s.

NOTE, That the White Loaves are one Half, and the Wheaten three Quarters of the Weight of Household Loaves.

III. And to the Intent that the good Design of this Act may be effectually complied with, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every common Baker, and every Person, who shall make or bake for Sale, or any Ways expose to Sale, any Sort of Bread whatsoever, shall, from and after the said first Day of May, fairly imprint or mark, or cause to be fairly imprinted or marked, on every Loaf so by him made or exposed to Sale, the Sort, Price, and Weight of such Loaf, or any other Mark as shall be appointed by the said Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, or by the said other Chief Magistrates and Justices of the Peace respectively, within the Limits of their said several Jurisdictions; and the said Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and the said other Chief Magistrates or Justices of the Peace, within the Bounds of their several Jurisdictions, shall have full Power and Authority, from time to time, to limit, direct and appoint, how and in what Manner each Sort of Bread shall be marked, for knowing the Baker or Maker, Price, Weight and Sort thereof; and to make and set down any other reasonable Rules and Orders for the better regulating the Mystery of baking Bread, and the Sorts, Affize, Price, and Weight thereof, and all things concerning the same, as in their Judgments they shall find necessary and convenient; and if any Baker or Bakers, or other Person or Persons baking or making Bread for Sale, or exposing Bread to Sale, shall not observe the Affize, to be ascertained by virtue of this Act, or shall bake or make for Sale, or sell or expose to Sale, any Bread wanting the due Weight, or that shall not be marked according to the Direction of this Act, or shall break such Regulations and Orders as shall from time to time be made by virtue of this Act, or shall in any Sort or Way break or infringe any of the Matters or Things before appointed by this Act, he or they so doing, being thereof convicted by the Confession of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before the said Lord Mayor or any one or more of the said Aldermen, or before the said Chief Magistrate or Magistrates, or one of them, or in such Towns and Places where there are not any such Magistrate or Magistrates, before one or more Justices of the Peace of the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, or the Party offending apprehended, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings, to be levied by Way of Distress upon the Goods and Chattels of every such Offender, by Warrant from the said Lord Mayor, Alderman or Aldermen, or Chief Magistrate or Magistrates Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be made; the said Forfeitures to be given to the Informer or Informers.

IV. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Convictions made as aforesaid, upon this Act, shall be certified to the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the county or Place where such Convictions were made, to be there kept upon Record by the respective Clerks of the Peace, to be seen without Fee or Reward.

V. Provided always, That no Person shall be convicted in Manner aforesaid, for any of the before-mentioned Offences, unless the Prosecution, in Order to such Conviction, be commenced within three Days next after the Offence committed.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person so convicted shall think him or herself aggrieved, he or she shall and may make his or her Appeal in Writing to the next Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the City, Town or County where such Conviction shall be made, where the same shall be heard, and finally determined; and if the said Person so appealing shall not make good such his or her Appeal, or prosecute it with Effect, the said Court of Sessions shall award such Costs as they shall think reasonable to the Prosecutor or Informer, and commit the Offender to the Common Gaol, until he or she shall make Payment of the said Costs, and also of the Penalty adjudged on the Conviction, to the Informer; but in case the said Appellant shall make good his Appeal, and be discharged of his or her said Conviction, the like reasonable Costs shall be awarded for the Appellant against such Informer, who should (in case of Conviction) have been intitled to the said Penalty, to be recovered as aforesaid.

VII. Provided also, That if any Baker or Seller of Bread shall put into any Bread by him sold or exposed to Sale, any mixture of any other Grain than what shall be appointed by the Affize settled in the Place where such Bread shall be so sold or exposed to Sale, every such Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be had and recovered in the Manner and Form herein before-mentioned; and if any Mayor, Alderman or Justice of the Peace, shall, on any Information made to him of any Offences committed against this Act, wilfully and wittingly omit the Performance of his Duty thereupon, in the Execution of this Act, he shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered by Action, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Impar lance.

VIII. And that the good Design of this Statute may be the more effectually accomplished, Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, or any one of them, within the said City and Liberties thereof, and also to and for the said Chief Magistrate or Magistrates, or Justices of Peace, or any one of them, within the Limits of their several Jurisdictions, at all Times hereafter, in the Day-time, to enter into any House, Shop, Stall, Bake-house, Ware-house or Out-house, of or belonging to any Baker or Seller of Bread, there to search for, view, weigh and try, all or any the Bread of such Person, or which shall there be found; and if any Bread shall there be found wanting, either in the Goodness of the Stuff, whereof the same shall be made, or be deficient in the due baking or working thereof, or shall be wanted in the due Weight, or shall not be truly marked according to the Directions of this Act, or shall be of any other Sort than shall be allowed by virtue Bakers to mark their Bread.

Lord Mayor, &c. to direct how the Bread shall be marked.

Penalty of Offenders.

Revealed as to the Penalty, by 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 26. §. 5. and farther Provisions relating hereto.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 29. §. 2. Offenders are to pay 10s.

To be given to the Informer.

Convictions to be certified to the Quarter-Sessions.

Prosecution to be within 3 Days.

Party grieved may appeal to the Sessions, whose determination shall be final.

And they may allow Costs, and commit the Offender till Payment.

If the Appellant make good his Appeal, the Informer shall pay Costs.

Penalty of selling Bread mixed with other Grain than appointed by the Affize. Penalty of any Magistrate neglecting his Duty.

The Lord Mayor, &c. may enter the Houses of Bakers to view the Bread, and if it be found wanting, in Goodness, Baking, Weight, &c.

tue of this Act; that then and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Lord Mayor, Alderman or Aldermen, Chief Magistrate or Magistrates, Justices or Justice of the Peace, to seize and take the Bread so found, and cause the same to be forthwith given and distributed to the Poor of the Parish where such Seizure shall be made; and if any Baker or Seller of Bread, or other Person or Persons, shall not permit or suffer such Search or Seizure to be made, or shall oppose, hinder or resist the same, he or they so doing, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings to the Informer or Informers, to be had and recovered in the summary Manner and Form herein before-mentioned.

may seize and give it to the Poor.

Penalty on Baker, &c. opposing such Search.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced or brought against any Mayor, Chief Magistrate, Justice of Peace, Constable or any other Officer or Person whatsoever, for doing or causing to be done, any Thing in Pursuance or Execution of this Act, or relating thereunto, the Defendant in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, or a Verdict be given for the Defendant, or Judgment be otherwise given for the Defendant, every such Defendant shall have Double Costs.

In Actions brought for the Execution of this Act, Defendant may plead the General Issue, &c.

and shall have Double Costs.

X. Provided always, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall extend to prejudice any Right or Custom of the City of London, or the Practice there used, or of the Lord or Lords of any Leet, to set, enquire and punish the Breach of Assize of Bread within their respective Leets or Views of Frankpledge, nor of the Clerk or Clerks of the Market.

This Act shall not prejudice the Rights of the City of London, &c.

XI. Provided nevertheless, That no Person punished by this Act, shall be for the same Offence prosecuted by any other Law, Statute, Usage or Custom whatsoever.

Persons punished by this Act shall not be prosecuted by any other Law, &c.

XII. And whereas there have been great Abuses in assizing of Bread, by the variety of Bushels and other Measures used in different Places, and though to rectify such Abuses, several good Laws have been made pursuant to the great Charter, That there shall be but one Measure to be used throughout all the Realm, particularly one Act made in the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for ascertaining the Measures of Corn and Salt, and another Act made in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An additional Act for ascertaining the Measures of Corn and Salt, yet the said good Laws have not hitherto been observed as they ought to have been; Therefore for the better and stricter Observation of the same, all Justices of the Peace, Constables and other Officers, are hereby strictly commanded and required to see the said several Acts put in due Execution, and all Justices of Assize, and Justices of the Peace, are in their several and respective Charges at their Assizes or Sessions of the Peace, to enforce and press the Execution of the said Laws, and to use all legal Methods to make the said Laws, and also this present Act, to be effectually practised and observed.

The Act made 22 Car. 2. c. 8. and the Act 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 12.

to be put in Execution, and Judges, &c. to give them in Charge.

XIII. Provided always, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice the ancient Right or Custom of the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge or either of them, or their Clerks of the Market, or the Practice within the several Jurisdictions there used, to set, ascertain and appoint the Assize and Weight of all Sorts of Bread to be sold or exposed to Sale, within their several Jurisdictions; but that they shall and may severally and respectively, from time to time, as there shall be occasion, set, ascertain and appoint, within their several and respective Jurisdictions, the Assize and Weight of all Sorts of Bread to be sold or exposed to Sale, by any Baker or other Person whatsoever, within the Limits of their several Jurisdictions, and shall and may enquire and punish the Breach thereof, as fully and freely in all Respects as they used to do, as if this Act had never been had or made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

This Act shall not prejudice the Rights of either University.

XIV. Provided always, That this Act shall continue for three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

To continue for 3 Years, &c.

Continued by 5 Geo. 1. cap. 25. for five Years.

And farther continued by 3 Geo. 2. c. 29. sect. 1. until March 1738.

By 12 Geo. c. 13. and amended; and by 22 Geo. 2. c. 46. to 24 June 1757. and to the End of the next Session and amended.]

Farther Provisions relating hereto 31 Geo. 2. c. 29. 32 Geo. 2. c. 18.

C A P. XIX.

An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by vesting the Copies of printed Books in the Authors or Purchasers of such Copies, during the Times therein mentioned.

WHEREAS Printers, Booksellers and other Persons have of late frequently taken the Liberty of printing, reprinting and publishing, or causing to be printed, reprinted and published, Books and other Writings, without the Consent of the Authors or Proprietors of such Books and Writings, to the their very great Detriment, and too often to the Ruin of them and their Families: For preventing therefore such Practices for the future, and for the Encouragement of learned Men to compose and write useful Books; may it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ten, the Author of any Book or Books already printed, who hath not transferred to any other the Copy or Copies of such Book or Books, Share or Shares

After 10 April 1710. the Authors of Books already printed, who have not transferred their Rights, and the Booksellers, &c. who have purchased Copies, shall have the sole Right of printing them for the Term of 21 Years:

And the Authors of Books not printed, to have the sole Right of printing for 14 Years. Punishment of Bookseller, &c. printing without Consent of the Proprietor, Copies of Books to be entered before Publication in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers; which may be inspected at any Time without Fee. Clerk of the Company to give a Certificate of such Entry. Penalty of the Clerk refusing so to do.

After 25 March 1710. the Archbishop of Canterbury, &c. to settle the Prices of Books, upon Complaint made that they are unreasonable.

thereof, or the Bookseller or Booksellers, Printer or Printers, or other Person or Persons, who hath or have purchased or acquired the Copy or Copies of any Book or Books, in order to print or reprint the same, shall have the sole Right and Liberty of printing such Book and Books for the Term of one and twenty Years, to commence from the said tenth Day of April and no longer; and that the Author of any Book or Books already composed, and not printed and published, or that shall hereafter be composed, and his Assignee or Assigns, shall have the sole Liberty of printing and reprinting such Book and Books for the Term of fourteen Years, to commence from the Day of the first publishing the same, and no longer; and that if any other Bookseller, Printer or other Person whatsoever, from and after the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ten, within the Times granted and limited by this Act as aforesaid, shall print, reprint or import, or cause to be printed, reprinted or imported, any such Book or Books, without the Consent of the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof first had and obtained in Writing, signed in the Presence of two or more credible Witnesses; or knowing the same to be so printed or reprinted, without the Consent of the Proprietors, shall sell, publish or expose to Sale, or cause to be sold, published or exposed to Sale, any such Book or Books, without such Consent first had and obtained as aforesaid: Then such Offender or Offenders shall forfeit such Book or Books, and all and every Sheet or Sheets, being Part of such Book or Books, to the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Copy thereof, who shall forthwith Damask and make Waste Paper of them; and further, That every such Offender or Offenders shall forfeit one Penny for every Sheet which shall be found in his, her or their Custody, either printed or printing, published or exposed to Sale, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; the one Moiety thereof to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to any Person or Persons that shall sue for the same, to be recovered in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Wager of Law, Effoin, Privilege or Protection, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

II. And whereas many Persons may through Ignorance offend against this Act, unless some Provision be made, whereby the Property in every such Book, as is intended by this Act to be secured to the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, may be ascertained, as likewise the Consent of such Proprietor or Proprietors for the printing or reprinting of such Book or Books may from time to time be known; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to subject any Bookseller, Printer or other Person whatsoever, to the Forfeitures or Penalties therein mentioned, for or by Reason of the printing or reprinting of any Book or Books without such Consent, as aforesaid, unless the Title to the Copy of such Book or Books hereafter published shall, before such Publication, be entered in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers, in such Manner as hath been usual, which Register Book shall at all Times be kept at the Hall of the said Company, and unless such Consent of the Proprietor or Proprietors be in like Manner entered as aforesaid, for every of which several entries six Pence shall be paid, and no more; which said Register Book may, at all seasonable and convenient Times, be resorted to, and inspected by any Bookseller, Printer or other Person, for the Purposes before-mentioned, without any Fee or Reward; and the Clerk of the said Company of Stationers shall, when and as often as thereunto required, give a Certificate under his Hand of such Entry or Entries and for every such Certificate may take a Fee not exceeding six Pence.

III. Provided nevertheless, That if the Clerk of the said Company of Stationers for the time being, shall refuse or neglect to register, or make such Entry or Entries, or to give such Certificate, being thereunto required by the Author or Proprietor of such Copy or Copies, in the Presence of two or more credible Witnesses, That then such Person and Persons so refusing, Notice being first duly given of such Refusal, by an Advertisement in the Gazette, shall have the like Benefit, as if such Entry or Entries, Certificate or Certificates had been duly made and given; and that the Clerks so refusing shall, for any such Offence, forfeit to the Proprietor of such Copy or Copies the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Wager of Law, Effoin, Privilege or Protection, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Bookseller or Booksellers, Printer or Printers, shall after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, set a Price upon, or sell, or expose to Sale, any Book or Books at such a Price or Rate as shall be conceived by any Person or Persons to be too high and unreasonable; it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to make Complaint thereof to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the time being, the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer for the time being, the Vice-Chancellors of the two Universities for the time being, in that Part of Great Britain called England; the Lord President of the Sessions for the time being, the Lord Justice General for the time being, the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer for the time being, the Rector of the College of Edinburgh for the time being, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; who, or any one of them, shall and have hereby full Power and Authority, from time to time, to send for, summon or call before him or them such Bookseller or Booksellers, Printer or Printers, and to examine and enquire of the Reason of the Dearness and Inenhancement of the Price or Value of such Book or Books by him or them so sold or exposed to Sale; and if upon such Enquiry and Examination it shall be found, that the Price of such Book or Books is enhanced, or any wise too high or unreasonable, then and in such case the said Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper, Bishop of London, two Chief Justices, Chief Baron, Vice-Chancellors of the Universities, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and

and the said Lord President of the Sessions, Lord Justice General, Lord Chief Baron, and Rector of the College of Edinburgh, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or any one or more of them, so enquiring and examining, have hereby full Power and Authority to reform and redress the same, and to limit and settle the Price of every such printed Book and Books, from Time to Time, according to the best of their Judgments, and as to them shall seem just and reasonable; and in case of Alteration of the Rate or Price from what was set or demanded by such Bookseller or Booksellers, Printer or Printers, to award and order such Bookseller and Booksellers, Printer and Printers, to pay all the Costs and Charges that the Person or Person so complaining shall be put unto, by Reason of such Complaint, and of the causing such Rate or Price to be so limited and settled; all which shall be done by the said Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper, Bishop of London, two Chief Justices, Chief Baron, Vice-Chancellors of the two Universities, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and the said Lord President of the Sessions, Lord Justice General, Lord Chief Baron, and Rector of the College of Edinburgh, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or any one of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, and thereof publick notice shall be forthwith given by the said Bookseller or Booksellers, Printer or Printers, by an Advertisement in the Gazette; and if any Bookseller or Booksellers, Printer or Printers, shall after such Settlement made of the said Rate and Price sell or expose to Sale any Book or Books, at a higher or greater Price than what shall have been so limited and settled as aforesaid, then and in every such Case such Bookseller and Booksellers, Printer and Printers, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds for every such Book so by him, her or them sold or exposed to Sale; one Moiety thereof to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to any Person or Persons that shall sue for the same, to be recovered with Costs of Suit, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Wager of Law, Essoin, Privilege or Protection, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

and if altered from the Price set, may order him to pay Costs to the Party complaining.
Penalty on Booksellers selling at higher Rates.
This Clause repealed by 12 Geo. 2. c. 36.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That nine Copies of each Book or Books, upon the best Paper, that from and after the said tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ten shall be printed and published as aforesaid, or reprinted and published with Additions, shall, by the Printer and Printers thereof, be delivered to the Warehouse-keeper of the said Company of Stationers, for the Time being, at the Hall of the said Company, before such Publication made, for the Use of the Royal Library, the Libraries of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, the Libraries of the four Universities in Scotland, the Library of Sion College in London, and the Library commonly called the Library belonging to the Faculty of Advocates at Edinburgh respectively; which said Warehouse-keeper is hereby required, within ten Days after Demand by the Keepers of the respective Libraries, or any Person or Persons by them or any of them authorized to demand the said Copy, to deliver the same, for the Use of the aforesaid Libraries; and if any Proprietor, Bookseller or Printer, or the Warehouse-keeper of the said Company of Stationers, shall not observe the Direction of this Act therein, that then he and they so making Default in not delivering the said printed Copies as aforesaid, shall forfeit, besides the Value of the said printed Copies, the Sum of five Pounds for every Copy not so delivered, as also the Value of the said printed Copy not so delivered; the same to be recovered by the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and by the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of any of the said Universities, and by the President and Fellows of Sion College, and the said Faculty of Advocates at Edinburgh, with their full Costs respectively.

After 10 April 9 Copies of each Book shall be delivered to the Warehouse-keeper of the Company of Stationers, for the Use of the University Libraries, &c.
Warehouse-keeper to deliver the Books 10 Days after Demand.
Penalty of Proprietor, &c. not observing the Directions of this Act.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons incur the Penalties contained in this Act, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, they shall be recoverable by any Action before the Court of Session there.

Penalties in Scotland how recoverable.

C A P. XXI.

An Act for vesting certain Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in Trustees, for the better fortifying and securing the Harbours and Docks at Portsmouth, Chatham and Harwich.

7 ANNÆ, c. 26.

‘ WHEREAS in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh Year of her now Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for appointing Commissioners to treat and agree for such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as shall be judged proper to be purchased for the better fortifying Portsmouth, Chatham and Harwich, her Majesty was pleased by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the seventeenth Day of June in the eighth Year of her Reign, to authorize certain Persons therein mentioned, or any five or more of them, to make Surveys of and particularly describe all such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as are proper to be purchased for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid, and to execute all Powers, Directions, Clauses, Matters and Things in the said Act contained: And whereas five or more of the said Commissioners have made Surveys of, and particularly described by Lines, Stakes, Boundaries and Plans, such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as they judged proper to be purchased for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act mentioned, and have likewise treated and agreed with several of the Owners and others interested in the said Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, who were able and willing to treat and agree for the same: And whereas several Proprietors of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in the respective Places of Portsmouth, Chatham and Harwich, which were by five or more of the said Commissioners judged proper to be purchased, have insisted upon extravagant Rates, and refused to agree with the said Commissioners, without unreasonable Gain to themselves; and other Proprietors by Reason of Nonage, Coverture, or especial Limitations in Settlements, were disabled to treat and agree as aforesaid; for which Reasons five or more of the said Commissioners, pursuant to the said Act, issued out their Warrants to the Sheriffs of each County, where the said several Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments respectively lay, to impanel and return before them, at such Times and Places as by such Warrants were appointed, a sufficient Jury, and at such Times and Places respectively, a sufficient Jury appeared, who upon their Oaths did enquire into, and present the true Value of all such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the Estates and Interests therein, as the said Commissioners could not agree for as aforesaid; which several Verdicts or Inquisitions have been returned and certified, with the whole Proceedings thereupon, to her Majesty, into the High Court of Chancery, pursuant and according to the said Act of Parliament; and it being highly necessarily, that all and singular the Proprietors, Owners and Possessors should be paid their several and respective Sums agreed for, and the several Sums assessed by the Juries on Oath as aforesaid, and that the several Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments should, upon Payment of the said Sums, be vested in her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, to and for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid; Be it enacted, &c.

“ After 10 April 1710, the Messuages, &c. specified by Inquisitions returned, are settled in Trustees, for the Use of the respective Owners. The Queen may appoint Commissioners, who may determine all Rights, &c. The Commissioners to enter their Decrees in Books, &c. Which Decrees shall be certified to the Clerk of the Crown, and be final. The Commissioners shall give 30 Days Notice of their Meeting. How the Proprietors shall be paid for their respective Estates. No private Buildings to be erected on any such Lands. If any House, &c. shall belong to Persons disabled to receive the Money, the Commissioners may order it to be paid for their Use, and laid out for purchasing other Lands for the Parties interested; and till such Purchase can be had, the Commissioners to place out the Money at Interest, to be paid to the respective Parties. II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend to make the eldest Son, or Heir Apparent of any Peer, or Lord of Parliament, or of any Person qualified by this Act to serve as Knight of a Shire, incapable of being elected and returned, and sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons in any Parliament.

This Act not to extend to the eldest Son of a Peer, or of a Person qualified to serve as Knight of a Shire.

III. Pro-

The Universities may elect and return Members as formerly.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to either of the Universities in that Part of Great Britain called England, but that they, and each of them may elect and return Members to represent them in Parliament, as heretofore they have done; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

None to be qualified by virtue of any Mortgage, unless the Mortgagee have been in Possession seven Years before the Election.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person whatsoever shall be construed to be qualified to sit in the House of Commons, within the Meaning of this Act, by virtue of any Mortgage whatsoever, whereof the Equity of Redemption is in any other Person or Persons, unless the Mortgagee shall have been in Possession of the mortgaged Premises, for the Space of seven Years before the Time of his Election; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Every Candidate, at the Request of another Candidate, or of two of the Voters, shall take the following Oath;

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person (except as aforesaid) who from and after the Determination of this present Parliament, shall appear as a Candidate, or shall, by himself or any others, be proposed to be elected to serve as a Member for the House of Commons, for any County, City, Borough, or Cinque Port in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall, and he is hereby enjoined and required, upon reasonable Request to him to be made (at the Time of such Election, or before the Day to be prefixed in the Writ of Summons for the Meeting of the Parliament) by any other Person who shall stand Candidate at such Election, or by any two or more Persons having Right to vote at such Election, take a Corporal Oath in the Form, or to the Effect following:

The Oath

“ I A. B. do swear, That I truly and bona fide have such an Estate in Law or Equity, to and for my own Use and Benefit, of or in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments (over and above what will satisfy and clear all Incumbrances that may affect the same) of the annual Value of six hundred Pounds, above Reprizes, as doth qualify me to be elected and returned to serve as a Member for the County of _____ according to the Tenor and true Meaning of the Act of Parliament in that Behalf; and that my said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are lying or being within the Parish, Township, or Precinct of _____ Or, in the several Parishes, Townships, or Precincts of _____ in the County of _____ Or, in the several Counties of _____ (as the Case may be)

If the Candidate be for a City, &c. the Oath shall relate only to 300 l. per Ann. mutatis mutandis.

VI. And in case such Candidate or Person is to serve for any City, Borough, or Cinque Port, then the said Oath shall relate only to the said Value of three hundred Pounds per Annum, and be taken to the same Effect, mutatis mutandis, as is hereby prescribed for the Oath of a Person to serve as a Member for such County as aforesaid.

The Oath to be administered by the Sheriff, &c. who shall within three Months after the taking thereof, certify the same into the Queen's Bench or Chancery, or forfeit 100 l.

VII. And it is hereby enacted that the respective Oaths aforesaid shall and may be administered by the Sheriff, or Under Sheriff, for any such County as aforesaid, or by the Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officer or Officers for any City, Borough, or Port, to whom it shall appertain to take the Poll, or make the Return at such Election for the same County, Borough, or Port respectively, or by any two or more Justices of the Peace within England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed; and the said Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officers, and the said Justices of the Peace respectively, who shall administer the said Oaths, are hereby required to certify the taking thereof into her Majesty's High Court of Chancery, or the Queen's Bench, within three Months after the taking the same, under the Penalty of forfeiting the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to wit, One Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety thereof to such Person or Persons as will sue for the same, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and if any of the said Candidates or Persons proposed to be elected as aforesaid, shall wilfully refuse, upon reasonable Request to be made at the Time of the Election, or at any Time before the Day upon which such Parliament by the Writ of Summons is to meet, to take the Oath hereby required, then the Election and Return of such Candidate or Person shall be void.

One Moiety to the Queen, the other to him, who will sue &c. with Costs. Candidate refusing to take the Oath, his Election to be void.

One Shilling only for administering the Oath, 2 s. for Certificate, and 2 s. for filing; Penalty 20 l.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, That no Fee or Reward shall be taken, for administering any such Oath, or making, receiving, or filing the Certificate thereof, except one Shilling for administering the Oath, and two Shillings for making the Certificate, and two Shillings for receiving and filing the same, under the Penalty of twenty Pounds, to be forfeited by the Offender, and to be recovered and divided as aforesaid.

C A P. VI.

An Act for reviving, continuing, and appropriating certain Duties upon several Commodities to be exported; and certain Duties upon Coals to be water-born and carried Coastwise; and for granting further Duties upon Candles, for thirty-two Years; to raise fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, by Way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and eleven; and for suppressing such unlawful Lotteries, and such Insurance Offices, as are therein mentioned.

MAY it please your most Excellent Majesty; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous, by the most speedy, easy, and effectual Ways and Means, to raise the necessary Supplies for prosecuting the present War (in which your Majesty hath been for several Years engaged) against the French King, and for enabling your Majesty, at the End thereof, to establish a good and lasting Peace, have for that End and Purpose given and granted, and do by this present Act give and grant unto your Majesty, the several Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties, for and upon such several Goods, Merchandizes, and Commodities to be exported, or which shall be shipped to be exported from or out of Great Britain, as are herein after expressed; and such Duties upon Coals, Culm and Cynders, which are or shall be water-born and carried from any Port or Place of Great Britain to any other Port or Place of the same; and such further Duties upon Candles made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, as are hereafter in this Act more particularly mentioned; and we do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, in Form following: Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second (of blessed Memory) commonly called The Act of Tonnage and Poundage (amongst other Things therein contained) a certain Subsidy of Poundage for and upon all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes to be carried out of the Realm of England, or any the Dominions to the same belonging, that is to say, twelve Pence of the Value of every twenty Shillings, of the same Goods and Merchandizes, according to the several and particular Rates and Values thereof, as they were particularly and respectively rated and valued in the Book therein mentioned and referred unto, and other Duties, were granted to his said late Majesty, during his Life, except as therein is excepted: And whereas after granting the said Subsidy, as aforesaid, several other Acts of Parliament have been made, whereby the said Subsidy of Poundage, or some Part or Parts of the said Subsidy of Poundage, for and upon several of the said Goods, Merchandizes, and Commodities, exported or to be exported as aforesaid, were (together with several Customs or Duties upon Goods and Merchandizes imported) granted for several Terms successively, the last of which Terms was granted by an Act of the first Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and preserving the publick Credit, and continued until the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the said Subsidy of Poundage, as to several Goods, Merchandizes, and Commodities exported, which were originally charged therewith by the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, hath been, by several Acts of Parliament, since taken away, lessened, or altered: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Subsidy of Poundage, and other Duties (first granted by the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second as aforesaid) on several Goods and Merchandizes exported, as did remain or had Continuance until the first Day of August in this present Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, or which by Force or virtue of the said Act of the first Year of her Majesty's Reign, For making good Deficiencies, and the Act of the fifth Year of her Majesty's Reign, For the Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating thereto, were payable or existent on the last Day of July in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, for any Goods or Merchandizes exported, shall, by Force and virtue of this Act be revived, and be further continued, and be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon the like Goods and Merchandizes respectively to be exported from Great Britain, from and after the eighth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, at any Time or Times, within or during the Term of thirty-two Years from thence next ensuing (other than and except such Duties as were formerly granted to be paid upon the Exportation of Sea Coals for Parts beyond the Seas, instead whereof other Duties are imposed by this present Act.)

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Subsidy of Poundage, and other Duties upon Goods and Merchandizes exported, hereby revived and continued, during all the Term of Years therein granted as aforesaid, and all Arrearages of the same, shall and may, from time to time, be raised, received, levied, and recovered, by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances for Goods lost or taken at Sea, and such other Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the like Subsidy of Poundage and other Duties, which continued until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ten, were or might be raised, received, levied, or recovered by any Law or Statute which was in Force on the said last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten; and that so much of the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and of the Order of the Commons in Parliament assembled, bearing Date the seventeenth Day of May one thousand six hundred and sixty-two, for settling of Officers Fees, and all such Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters Subsidy of Poundage, &c. Outwards, reviv'd and continued for 32 Years from 8 March 1710. made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1. 5 Annæ, c. 8. See 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 7.

12 Car. 2. c. 4.

Matters and Things, contained in the Act last-mentioned, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever, as on the said last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ten were in Force for the raising, receiving, levying, or recovering, or for making Allowances out of the said Subsidy of Poundage and other Duties on Goods or Merchandizes exported, which had Continuance until the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred ten, shall be revived, practised and put in Execution, for raising, receiving, levying and recovering, or making Allowances out of the Subsidy of Poundage and other Duties hereby imposed on Goods and Merchandizes to be exported, during the said Term of thirty-two Years, and all Arrearages of the same, as fully and effectually, as if they were particularly and at large recited and set down in the Body of this present Act.

Subsidy, &c. taken away or diminished by Acts of Parliament, not revived.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That where the Subsidy of Poundage, or other Duties formerly granted as aforesaid, on Goods or Merchandizes exported, have been taken away, in Part, or in the whole, upon any particular Goods or Merchandizes so exported, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or by any Clause or Clauses contained in any such Act or Acts formerly made for taking away or diminishing the same, in all such Cases, the Subsidy or Duty, or such Part of the said Subsidy or Duty so taken away, shall not be revived or continued by virtue of this present Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Leather, &c. may be exported, paying 12 d. per Cent. for 32 Years.

Made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1.

Concerning Leather, see farther ch. 11. and likewise 10 Ann. c. 26. 12 Ann. St. 2. c. 9. 3 Geo. 1. c. 4. 5 Geo. 1. c. 2. 12 Geo. 2. c. 25.

IV. And it is hereby also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for and during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, to buy in open Fair or Market, and to export and transport from Great Britain into Ireland, or any Foreign Parts beyond the Seas, all Sorts of Leather Sheep-skins or Calves-skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, paying for each hundred Weight of all Sorts of Leather, Sheep-skins, and Calves-skins, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, the Sum of twelve Pence, and no more; any former Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Duty upon Coals shipped to be exported; made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1.

What to be paid for Coals carried from Scotland to Ireland, or the Isle of Man. 9 Annæ, c. 23. §. 901

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Rates and Duties herein after mentioned (and none other) shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Coals, which at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to commence from the eighth Day of March in the present Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall be exported, or shipped to be exported beyond the Seas (that is to say) For all Coals of Wales, or the West of England, which shall be shipped for Exportation to Ireland, or the Isle of Man, the Sum of one Shilling for every Chaldre (reckoning the Chaldre to consist of thirty-six Bushels Winchester Measure) and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; for every Chaldre (like Winchester Measure) of Coals, which shall be shipped for Exportation to any of her Majesty's Plantations, the Sum of two Shillings, and proportionably for any greater or lesser Quantity; and for every Chaldre of Coals (Newcastle Measure) which shall be shipped for Exportation to any Parts beyond the Seas (other than as aforesaid) in Foreign built Bottoms, twelve Shillings, and in English built Bottoms, three Shillings; and after those Rates for greater or lesser Quantities; and for such Coals which at any Time during the said Term of thirty-two Years shall be so exported, or shipped to be exported as aforesaid, for Ireland, or the Isle of Man, or for the Plantations, or other Parts beyond the Seas (in case they are such Coals as are usually sold by Weight) the proportional Rates following: videlicet, For such Coals to be exported for Ireland, or the Isle of Man, eight Pence per Tun, reckoning the Tun to be twenty hundred Weight, and for such Coals shipped for Exportation to the Plantations, sixteen Pence for every such Tun; and for every such Tun of such Coals which shall be shipped for Exportation to any other Parts beyond the Seas, one third Part of the said Rates charged thereupon, in case they were shipped by Newcastle Measure as aforesaid, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities: The said respective Duties on Coals exported to be raised, levied, uplifted, and recovered in the same Manner, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and by such Rules, Ways, and Methods, as any other Customs or Duties, payable to her Majesty upon the Exportation of any Goods or Merchandizes, are by this Act, or by any other Law or Statute now in force, to be raised, levied, uplifted, or recovered in England or Scotland respectively.

Security to be given for Coals shipped for Ireland, or the Isle of Man, &c. The Duties on Coals 15 Car. 2. c. 7. and 6 Annæ, c. 22. not to be charged during this Act.

Additional Duties are laid on Coals exported in Foreign Bottoms, by 12 Annæ, stat. 2. c. 9 §. 9. and perpetuated by 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 1.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That good Security shall be given to the Officers of the Customs in the respective Ports where any of the said Coals shall be shipped for Exportation to Ireland, the Isle of Man, or any of the said Plantations, for landing such Coals in Ireland, the Isle of Man, or such Plantations respectively, and not elsewhere (Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) and in case the Ship or Vessel, on which the Coals for which such Security ought to be given, shall depart or go out of Port without giving the same, then such Ship or Vessel, and the Coals therein, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be recovered, to wit, One Moiety thereof to the Use of the Queen, and the other Moiety thereof to the use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform or sue for the same.

VII. And it is hereby provided and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Term of thirty-two Years last-mentioned, no Duties shall be charged or raised to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for or upon the Exportation of any Coals to or for any of her Majesty's Plantations, by the Act for the Encouragement of Trade, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of the said late King CHARLES the Second, or for any Coals to be exported in Foreign Bottoms, by an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign in that Behalf, or for any Coals whatsoever, upon the Exportation thereof to Parts beyond the Seas, other than the several and respective Rates and Duties by this Act imposed upon the same, during the Continuance thereof; any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that for and during the Term of thirty-two Years, commencing from the said eighth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, and no longer, there shall be raised, levied, uplifted, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Coals, Culm, and Cynders (except Charcoal made of Wood) which shall be shipped or water-born, and carried from any Port or Place in Great Britain, to any other Port or Place within the same, in such Manner as is herein after expressed; and for all Coals (if any such be) which shall be imported into Great Britain from any Foreign Parts, the several and respective Impositions, Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money herein after mentioned (over and above all such Duties as are already granted or payable for or in Respect of the same Coals, Culm, and Cynders, so water-born, and carried Coastwise, and in Respect of the said Coals so imported, or any of them) that is to say, For all Coals which at any Time or Times, within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years last-mentioned, shall be imported or brought into the said Kingdom of Great Britain from any Part beyond the Sea (in case they are such Coals as are most usually sold by Weight) the Sum of two Shillings for every Tun (reckoning the Tun to consist of twenty hundred Weight, and every Hundred to consist of one hundred and twelve Pounds Weight of Averdupois) and after that Rate for any greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Coals so imported from any Part beyond the Sea, being most usually sold by the Chalder, or by any other Measure whatsoever reducible to the Chalder, the Sum of three Shillings for every Chalder, reckoning each Chalder to consist of thirty-six Bushels Winchester Measure as aforesaid, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity of such Coals so imported, or brought in from any Foreign Parts; the said Duties for Foreign Coals imported, or brought in as aforesaid, to be paid by the respective Importer or Importers thereof: And for all Sorts of Coals from time to time shipped, or water-born in order to be shipped, or laid on board any Ship or Vessel to be carried by Sea, and which shall be carried by Sea, in any Ship or Vessel from any Port or Place within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, and which at any Time or Times, within or during the same Term, shall be imported, brought or landed in any other Port or Place within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, being most usually sold by the Chalder, or by any other Measure whatsoever reducible to the Chalder, the Sum of two Shillings for every Chalder, to be reckoned as aforesaid, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Sorts of Coals from time to time so shipped, or water-born in order to be shipped, and carried by Sea from any Port or Place of the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which at any Time or Times during the same Term shall be imported, brought or landed in any other Port or Place of the same (in case they are such as are most usually sold by Weight) the Sum of sixteen Pence for every Tun, and according to that Proportion for more or less, the said several Duties for Coals so shipped, or water-born to be shipped and carried by Sea as aforesaid, from time to time to be paid at the respective Ports and Places of Importation, or landing of such Coals, and to be charged on the respective Owner and Owners, Master or other Persons having the Charge of every such Ship or Vessel, or of the Coals so carried, imported, or brought in the same: And for all Culm whatsoever, which at any Time during the same Term of thirty-two Years, shall be water-born in order to be shipped within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, or brought into the same, the Sum of four Pence, and eight tenth Parts of a Penny, for every such Chalder as aforesaid, and after that Rate to be paid at the respective Ports and Places of Importation or landing of such Culm, and to be charged on the respective Owner and Owners, or Master or Masters, or other Persons having the Charge of the Ship or Vessel, or of the Culm so carried, imported or brought in the same: And for all Cynders made of Pit-coal, which at any Time or Times during the same Term of thirty-two Years shall be shipped, or water-born in order to be shipped within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, or brought into the same, the Sum of two Shillings for every Such Chalder as aforesaid, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid at the respective Ports and Places of Importation or landing such Cynders, and to be charged upon the respective Owner and Owners, Master and Masters, or other Persons having the Charge of the Ship or Vessel in which the said Cynders shall be carried, imported or brought.

Duty upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders carried Coastwise, or imported into Great Britain; made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1.

Duty on Coals imported from Foreign Parts. Made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1.

On Coals carried Coastwise.

Duty on Culm.

Duty on Cynders.

IX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Duties by this Act imposed, within and throughout the said Kingdom of Great Britain, for and upon such Coals, Culm and Cynders which shall be water-born, and carried Coastwise, or from one Part of Great Britain to any other Part of the same as aforesaid, during all the Time and Term by this Act granted therein, and all Arrearages thereof, shall and may be raised, levied, collected, and recovered in such or the like Manner and Form, and subject to such Allowances and Repayments, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, and according to such Rules and Methods, and Directions, as by the Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and certain Duties upon Coals, Culm and Cynders; and additional Duties of Excise; and for settling and establishing a Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, for Payment of Annuities, to be sold for raising a further Supply to her Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and six, and other Uses therein mentioned, or by any other Law or Statute whatsoever were prescribed or appointed for the raising, levying, securing, collecting, or recovering the Duties upon the like Coals, Culm, and Cynders, which had Continuance until the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Clauses, Matters and Things, which were contained in the said Act of the fourth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or were or are in any other Acts or Statutes thereby referred unto; for the managing, raising, levying, securing, collecting, recovering, or accounting for the said Duties, upon Coals, Culm and Cynders, which were granted or continued until the said thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten as aforesaid, shall be and are, by Force and Virtue of this present Act, revived, and shall be in full Force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, securing, curing, recovering and accounting for the Duties upon the like Coals, Culm and Cynders by this Act granted, for and during the whole Term hereby granted of and in the same, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Clauses, Matters and Things, were again expressed, and particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

These Duties on Coals, &c. to be levied as by the Act 4 Annæ, c. 6.

4 ANNÆ, c. 6.

Coals carried from Sterling to Dunbar or Redhead not chargeable.

For Duties on Coals see farther, 9 Ann. c. 23. 12 Ann. st. 2. c. 9. 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. 22 Geo. 2. c. 37. 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. f. 28.

X. And whereas a Doubt may arise whether Coals, Culm or Cynders carried from the Bridge of Sterling, which is on the Firth of Forth, to the Town of Dunbar, or to Redhead, are liable to the Duties by this Act imposed, as if they were carried to Sea; It is hereby provided, enacted and declared, That such Coal, Culm and Cynders, so carried from the Bridge of Sterling to the Town of Dunbar, or to Redhead, or to any Part betwixt them, shall not, by Reason of such Carriage, be liable to the Duties by this Act imposed; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties on Candles for 32 Years from 2; March 1711. Made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Candles which at any Time or Times, within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, or made within the same, (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, Duties of Excise, or other Duties already imposed thereupon, or to be paid for the same, by or during the Continuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf) the further Duties herein after mentioned; that is to say, For all Candles made of Wax, or usually called or sold for Wax Candles, (notwithstanding the Mixture of any other Ingredients therewith) which shall be so imported, the Sum of four Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Candles made of Tallow, and other Candles whatsoever, (except the Wax Candles before charged) which shall be so imported, one Half-penny for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said several Duties for and upon all imported Candles to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, before the landing of the same respectively; and there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Candles, which at any Time or Times, within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years last mentioned, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the further Duties herein after mentioned; that is to say, For all Candles of Wax, or usually called or sold for Wax Candles, (notwithstanding any Mixture as aforesaid,) which shall be so made in Great Britain, the Sum of four Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Candles of Tallow, and other Candles whatsoever, (except the Wax Candles before charged) which shall be so made in Great Britain, one Half-penny for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said several Duties for the said Candles, so to be made in Great Britain, to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

Duty on Candles to be levied as by 8 Annæ, c. 9.

XII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed for and upon all Candles imported or made as aforesaid, for and during all the Term of Years hereby granted, of and in the same, and all Arrearages thereof, shall and may from time to time, be raised, received, levied, recovered and secured, by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of making Compositions, and other Powers, and subject to such Allowances, Drawbacks, Rules and Directions, and in such Methods, Manner and Form, as the like Duties upon Candles granted by an Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, whereby certain Duties were laid upon Candles, towards raising her Majesty's Supply for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, are by that Act, or by any Law or Statute thereby referred unto, prescribed, appointed or enacted to be raised, received, levied, secured or recovered, during the Continuance thereof; and that the Act last mentioned, and all the Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Matters and Things therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, compounding, paying or accounting for the said Duties upon Candles thereby granted, during the Continuance thereof, or any Arrearages of the same, are and shall be by Force and Virtue of this Act continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, compounding, paying and accounting for the Duties upon Candles by this Act granted, and making Allowances out of the same, during the said Term of thirty-two Years hereby granted, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were particularly and at large repeated in the Body of this present Act.

Stock in Hand 25 March 1711.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Candles which any Wax Chandler, Tallow Chandler or other Sellers and Dealers in Candles in Great Britain, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her or them, or for his, her or their Use, shall be possessed of, or interested in, upon the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for Sale, there shall be yielded and paid to her Majesty, (over and above the Duties before this Time imposed thereupon) the like respective Rates, as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Candles to be made after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven; and that all the Directions, Powers, Penalties, Forfeitures, Rules and Clauses whatsoever, contained in the said Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, relating to the Stock of Candles which was in the Hands of any Chandlers, or other Sellers or Dealers in Candles, or of others in Trust for them or any of them, or to their Use, on on the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall by Force and Virtue of this Act be exercised, practised and put in Execution, in and for ascertaining, securing, charging, levying, recovering and paying the Rates by this Act imposed upon the Stock of Candles, which shall be in the Hands of any such Persons as aforesaid, on the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and for making Allowances and Drawbacks in respect thereof.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who by virtue or in pursuance of the Act before-mentioned of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or of this present Act, have made or shall make any Composition for the Duties on their Candles by that Act and this present Act or either of them granted, shall from time to time, during the Continuance of the said respective Duties, continue such their Composition for the Duties thereby and by this Act granted, and pay their Composition Money, according to the Purport, true Intent and Meaning of the same Acts, or in Default thereof shall be and are hereby charged and made liable to pay unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the several and respective Duties by the said Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign and this present Act charged upon all Candles, which he, she or they, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her or them, shall be possessed of at the Time of the Determination of such Composition; and that and every such Person and Persons who have or hath made, or shall make such Composition for their said Duties upon Candles as aforesaid, and shall make Default in continuing the same, shall, within ten Days after making such Default, make true and particular Entries upon Oath, and in case such Person be a Quaker, then upon his, her or their Affirmation, of all such Candles as they, or any of them, or any Person or Persons in Trust for them or any of them, shall be possessed of, or have in his or their Custody or Possession, at the Office of Excise, within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit; upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, and the Candles of which no such Entry shall be made; and within six Days after he, she or they shall have made, or ought to have made, their respective Entries as aforesaid, shall pay down to the Person appointed to receive the same, the Duties hereby and by the said Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign charged upon the same, or in Default thereof shall forfeit and lose double the Value of the said Candles; and that the Houses, Outhouses and other Places belonging to such Compounders, who shall make Default in continuing such their Compositions as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby made liable to the Search and View of any Officers for the said Duties, in the same Manner, and under the same Penalties and Forfeitures, as other Persons making Candles for Sale are liable unto.

8 Annæ, c. 9.

XV. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend to charge the Duties on Candles herein before-mentioned, on such small Rush Lights as shall be made by any Persons, to be used in their own Houses only, so as none of them be sold or delivered out, or be made for Sale, and so as such small Rush Lights be only once dipped in, or once drawn through Grease or Kitchen-stuff, and not at all through any Tallow melted or refined; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Small Rush Lights once dipped, not chargeable.

XVI. And whereas several People, who have made Candles for their own private Use only, have through Ignorance or Inadvertency, contrary to an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty on Candles, neglected giving due Notice in Writing to the next Office of Excise, as the said Act requires, and as they ought to have done; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Person or Persons, shall be and are hereby freed and discharged of and from all and every the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures of the said Act, not recovered before the six and twentieth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ten: Provided, that such Person or Persons, having so neglected and offended as aforesaid, do, before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eleven, pay or cause to be paid (unto the proper Officer as the said Act directs) the Duty which by him, her or them respectively, ought to have been paid by virtue of that Act; and in Default thereof, such Person or Persons respectively shall lose the Benefit of the Indemnity granted by this Act.

8 Annæ, c. 9.

Persons ignorantly having made Candles, and not given Notice to the next Office, indemnified, paying the Duty by 1 May 1711.

Concerning Duties

on Candles see farther, 10 Ann. c. 26. 11 Geo. 1. c. 30. 23 Geo. 2. c. 21. and 26 Geo. 2. c. 32.

XVII. And for the better levying and raising the several Duties and Sums of Money by this Act granted, which are to arise upon the Exportation or Importation of any Goods, Merchandizes or Commodities whatsoever, or upon such Coals, Culm and Cynders, as shall be waterborn and carried Coastwise as aforesaid; It is hereby enacted, That such of the same Duties and Sums of Money as shall arise or be due or payable in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall, from time to time, be under the Management and Government of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the time being, who shall cause those Duties from time to time to be raised, levied, collected and paid to the Receiver or Receivers General of the Customs in England for the time being; and that such Receiver or Receivers General in England for the time being, shall pay all the Money arising thereby (such additional Charges as shall be necessary for receiving, levying, managing, paying and accounting for the same, excepted) into her Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer, distinct and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenue, weekly, to wit, on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not an Holy-day, and if it be, then on the next Day after that is not an Holy-day, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after-mentioned; and that such of the said Duties and Sums of Money by this Act granted, which shall arise or be due or payable in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, upon the Exportation or Importation of any Goods, Merchandizes or Commodities whatsoever, or upon such Coals, Culm and Cynders, as shall be waterborn or carried Coastwise as aforesaid, shall from time to time be under the Management and Government of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being, who shall cause those Duties, from time to time, to be raised, levied, collected and paid to the Receiver or Receivers General of the Customs in Scotland for the time being; and that such Receiver or Receivers General of the Customs in Scotland for the time being shall transmit and pay, or cause to be paid, all the Monies arising thereby (such additional Charges as shall be necessary for receiving, levying, managing paying and accounting for the same, excepted) into her Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer in England, distinct and apart as aforesaid, from time to time, as such Receiver or Receivers General in Scotland shall have received any such Monies as aforesaid, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after-mentioned.

The duties arising by Exportation or Importation, to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs, &c.

XVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs, and by the said Act of Union relating thereunto, it is provided, that every Merchant or other Person who shall export any Goods or Merchandizes from any Port of this Kingdom, capable of a Ship or Vessel of two hundred Tuns, upon an ordinary full Sea, to any Port or Place of the Mediterranean Sea, beyond the Port of Malaga, in any Ship or Vessel that hath not two Decks, and doth carry less than sixteen Pieces of Ordnance mounted, together with two Men for each Gun, and other Ammunition proportionable, shall pay for all the Wares and Merchandizes so exported or imported, an additional Duty of one per Cent. as is thereby prescribed; and by an Act of the sixth Year of her now Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Dressing and Dying of Woollen Cloths within this Kingdom, by laying a Duty upon Broad Cloth exported White, it is enacted, That a Duty of five Shillings shall be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for every White Woollen Cloth, commonly called Broad Cloth, which shall be exported out of this Kingdom into Foreign Parts, as by that and several Acts may more fully appear. Now it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which at any Time or Times, within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the said eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall arise, or be due or payable, as well of or for the said additional Duty of one per Cent. for Goods to be exported in such Ships as aforesaid, as of or for the said Duty on White Woollen Cloths, formerly granted or imposed as aforesaid, shall also be under the Government and Management of the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, in England and Scotland respectively, who shall also cause those Duties from time to time to be raised, levied, collected and paid to the said respective Receiver or Receivers General for the time being; and that the said Receiver General in England for the time being, shall also pay the Monies thereof which he shall receive (necessary Charges excepted) into her Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer in England, weekly as aforesaid, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after mentioned; and the said Receiver General in Scotland for the time being, shall likewise pay or transmit the Money which he shall receive of the particular Duties last mentioned (necessary Charges as aforesaid excepted) into the same Receipt of Exchequer in England, from time to time, as he shall have received the same, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after-mentioned.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Subsidy of Poundage upon several Goods and Merchandizes to be exported; and the said Duty to arise upon the Exportation of Leather, Sheep-skins, and Calve-skins tanned, tawed or dressed; and the said several Duties to arise upon Coals, to be exported for Parts beyond the Seas, and the said several Duties to arise by Coals, Culm and Cynders, which shall be waterborn, and carried from one Part of Great Britain to any other Part of the same; and the Money hereby appointed to be brought into the Exchequer of or for the said additional Duty of one per Cent. on Goods exported in such Ships as aforesaid; and the said Duty on White Woollen Cloths; and the said Duties upon Candles made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and all other the Duties and Sums of Money by this Act granted, shall be liable to, and charged and chargeable with the yearly Fund herein after-mentioned, and to and with all the Payments to be made out of the same in pursuance of this Act, during the whole Term of thirty-two Years herein after expressed; and all the same Subsidies, Duties and Sums of Money (except the necessary Charges for Execution of this Act) are and shall be appropriated thereunto in such Manner, that all the Monies which shall, from time to time, be or remain due or in Arrear for Principal or Interest upon this Act, shall from time to time, be paid and satisfied out of the said several and respective Duties by this Act granted or appointed for the Payments thereof, without being diverted to any other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as are hereafter in this Act contained in that Behalf.

XX. And to the End all the Monies arising by the said Subsidy of Poundage upon several Goods and Merchandizes to be exported; and by the said Duty upon Leather and such Skins to be exported, as aforesaid; and by the said several Duties to arise upon Coals to be exported from Parts beyond the Seas; and by the said several Duties to arise upon Coals, Culm and Cynders, to be waterborn, and carried Coastwise as aforesaid; and by the said additional Duty of one per Cent. on Goods exported to the Mediterranean Sea as aforesaid; and by the said Duty upon White Woollen Cloths to be exported; and by the said Duties upon Candles made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; or by any other the Duties by this Act granted or appropriated, and every of them, may be duly and certainly raised and brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer for the Purposes aforesaid; It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed and kept, such and so many Commissioners of Customs and Excise, Receivers General, Collectors, Surveyors, and other judicial and ministerial Officers, as shall be proper and necessary for managing, governing, adjudging, levying, receiving, collecting and paying the said respective Duties by this Act granted or appropriated, and for keeping and rendring the Accounts of the same; and that the said Receivers General, Collectors, Surveyors and other Officers, who are or shall be concerned in the raising, collecting, receiving and paying paying the same respective Duties or any of them, and keeping, and rendering the several Accounts thereof, shall perform their several Duties therein, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the said Monies, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties upon Salt, and upon stampd Vellum, Parchment and Paper thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

c. 44.

XXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly, and every Year, during the Term of thirty-two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, the full Sum of one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the several Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money by this Act granted or appropriated, or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer as aforesaid, in case the same shall extend thereunto, shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer for the said Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money so granted or appropriated, shall not amount to the Sum of one hundred and thirty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same shall extend, shall be Part of the yearly Fund, for and towards the answering and paying of all and every the Principal Sums herein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of one Million nine hundred twenty-eight thousand five hundred and seventy Pounds principal Money, together with Interest for the same, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, as herein after is mentioned; and in case the said Duties by this Act granted or appropriated shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year, to be reckoned as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer, for or upon Account of the same Duties, shall not amount to as much as one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds, That then, and so often, and in every such Case, so much as shall be wanting to make upon the said Fund, or Sum of one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good, from Time to Time, out of the first Aid or Supply to be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall, from Time to Time, be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same shall be granted; and in case no such Aid or Supply shall be granted, then by and out of any publick Money which shall be in the said Receipt of Exchequer, not appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by Act of Parliament; and the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby strictly enjoined and required to make up such Deficiency accordingly, out of such unappropriated publick Money, without any further or other Warrant or Authority for the same.

40 Ells of Linen Cloth to pay 6*s.* on Exportation.

"LIII. And whereas a Doubt may arise whether all Pieces of Linen Cloth under forty Ells exported, are liable to the Duty of six Pence, by this Act or any former Act imposed, and hereby revived; It is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That only forty Ells of Linen Cloth, exported to foreign Parts, shall pay six Pence, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity of Ells; any Thing in this or any former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Coals for melting Copper in Cornwall, &c. to have a Drawback of the Duty.

"LIV. And whereas all the Copper Ores found within the County of Cornwall, are carried to be melted at such Places where Coals pay no Duty; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, all Coals that shall be used for melting Copper and Tin Ores within the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, for which Duties have been first answered, shall upon Proof by Oath made before the Customer or Collector of the said Duties (which Oath he is hereby impowered to administer) have a Drawback for all the Duties on the said Coals, to be paid by the Collector of the Duties to such Person so making Proof as aforesaid.

Iron, &c. imported, and afterwards exported, to have no Drawback.

"LV. And, for the Encouragement of the Iron Manufacture of Great Britain, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, there shall not be allowed any Drawback, or Re-payment of Customs or Duties charged upon any Iron or Steel that hath or shall be imported into Great Britain, and afterwards exported to or for her Majesty's Plantations or Colonies in America; any Clause in any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act 10 W. 3. c. 17. concerning Lotteries, to be put in Execution. Amended and enforced by 12 Geo. 2. c. 28.

"LVI. And whereas, notwithstanding an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for suppressing of Lotteries, and the Prohibitions and Penalties therein, several Persons of late have presumed, contrary to the Intent of the said Act, to set up Lotteries in Imitation of the Lottery directed to be drawn by Virtue of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, and other Lotteries, which are prejudicial to the Publick, and tend greatly to defraud her Majesty's Subjects; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act of the tenth Year of the late King WILLIAM, shall be put in Execution: And for the more effectual suppressing and preventing such unlawful Lotteries, the Justices of the Peace, and all Mayors, Bailiffs, Head Officers, Constables, and other her Majesty's Civil Officers, within their respective Jurisdictions, are hereby impowered and required to use their utmost Endeavours to prevent the Drawing of any such unlawful Lottery, heretofore or hereafter to be set up, by all lawful Ways and Means; and that every Person who after the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten shall set up, or shall by Writing or Printing, publish the setting up any such unlawful Lottery, with Intent to have such Lottery drawn, shall forfeit for every such Offence one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Information, Bill, Plaint or Action at Law, in any of her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Wager of Law, nor any more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; one third Part thereof to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; one other third Part thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed; and the other third Part thereof, together with full Costs, to the Party who shall inform, and sue for the same.

Persons setting up such Lotteries forfeit 100*l.* See farther 10 Ann. c. 26. f. 109. 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. f. 43. 8 Geo. 1. c. 2. f. 36. 9 Geo. 1. c. 19. 6 Geo. 2. c. 35. 12 Geo. 2. c. 28. 13 Geo. 2. c. 19. 29 Geo. 2. c. 7. f. 26.

"LVII. And

‘ LVII. And whereas several ill-disposed Persons, with Design to defraud her Majesty’s Subjects, have of late presumed to erect and set up Offices or Places, for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings or Service, which Practices are also prejudicial to the Publick, and tend to defraud her Majesty’s Subjects;’ Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons, who after the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten shall erect or set up any Office or Place, for making Assurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings and Service or on any of them, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and distributed in such Manner, as the Penalty of two hundred Pounds last mentioned is to be recovered and distributed; and every Person or Persons, who after the said eighth Day of March, in any Office or Place, before the said eighth Day of March erected or set up, for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings and Service or on any of them, shall make or suffer to be made therein any new Insurances, or Contracts for new Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings and Service or on any of them, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and distributed in like Manner.

Contracting for new Insurances in Offices already set up, forfeits 100 l.

LVIII. Provided nevertheless, That such Offices and Places erected, set up, or used before the said eighth Day of March, for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings and Services or on any of them, may be continued after the said eighth Day of March, for making good, and executing only such Insurances or Contracts for Insurances therein respectively made before the said eighth Day of March, as they might have continued if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Offices set up before 8 March, may be continued, for making good their former Insurances only.

‘ LIX. And whereas some Doubt hath arisen, whether Long Pepper might not be chargeable with the additional Duty of one Shilling and six Pence per Pound, chargeable upon all and all Manner of Pepper, by Virtue of the Act made the last Session of Parliament, for granting to her Majesty new Duties of Excise upon several imported Commodities;’ For preventing therefore of any Disputes concerning the same; be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Long Pepper shall not be deemed, construed or taken to be charged or chargeable with the said Duty of one Shilling and six Pence per Pound; any thing in the said last mentioned Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

and thereupon the said Governor and Company have humbly proposed, That in case a sufficient Fund should be granted to your Majesty for Payment of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum to the said Governor and Company, by quarterly Payments, from the Time their Undertaking in this Behalf shall commence, until the one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen ; and if a like Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, to commence and take Effect from the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and to be also payable quarterly out of the Funds established by the said Acts, or some of them, for the Payment of the said Interest and Allowance, and for discharging and cancelling the said Exchequer Bills, shall (after the Payment of such Interest and Allowance, and with Preference to the cancelling or discharging any of the said Bills) be appropriated and continued to the said Governor and Company, until such Time as all the said quarterly Exchequer Bills, made or to be made for Interest or Allowance as aforesaid, upon the said Bills for two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds, together with a million of the said Bills for two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds, shall be paid and cancelled, or until such Time as of the said Bills for two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds, and quarterly Bills taken together, there shall not be standing out and uncanceled more than one million nine hundred thousand Pounds in the whole, they the said Governor and Company in Consideration thereof, (for the publick Service, further than the Acts before mentioned require) are willing to undertake, and be obliged, after such Time as should be agreed on, to exchange for ready Money all such of the said Exchequer Bills, as from Time to Time, and at all Times then after, should be in the Hands of any Person or Persons, and be demanded of the said Governor and Company to be exchanged for ready Money, whether such Bills or any of them should or should not have passed, or had a Currency in your Majesty’s Revenue or Taxes as aforesaid : The said Governor and Company at the same Time also proposing, that they may be empowered to contract and agree with any Persons for advancing to the said Governor and Company, from Time to Time, such Sums on such Terms as they shall find necessary for the more secure making good such Undertaking ; and that they might have such other Clauses granted them as might be reasonable for enabling them to perform the same : Now to the end the Undertaking so offered may obtain its full and due Effect for the Advantage and Service of your Majesty and and your Subjects, we your Majesty’s said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That for the better enabling the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, to perform such Undertaking, the full Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, or so much Money as shall be after the Rate of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, shall be well and truly paid and satisfied, by such Ways and Means, and during such Time as are herein after expressed, unto and for the Use of the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, without any Account, Imprest, or other Charge to be set upon them for the same or any Part thereof, and without any Abatement for Taxes, or other Cause or Occasion whatsoever ; and that the said Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum or after that Rate, shall commence and take Effect from such Time as shall be prefixed by the Commissioners of her Majesty’s Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or by the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissions of the Treasury for the Time being, in Writing under his or their Hands to be publickly affixed on the Royal Exchange of London, and to be also notified in the London Gazette, for the Commencement of the said Undertaking ; and shall continue, and be paid, and payable from thenceforth, until such Time as all the said quarterly Exchequer Bills, made or to be made for Interest or Allowance as aforesaid, upon the said Bills for two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds, together with a million of the said Bills, for two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds, shall be paid off and cancelled, or until such Time as there shall not be standing out and uncanceled more than one million nine hundred thousand Pounds in the whole of the said Bills for two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds, and quarterly Bills taken together, (which of the Limitations aforesaid shall first happen) and that so much of the said yearly Sum, after the Rate of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, as is to be reckoned by the Day, for so many Days as shall incur from the Day of the Commencement of the said Undertaking exclusively, until the one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven inclusively, shall be paid and satisfied unto the said Governor and Company, on the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven ; and that from and after the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Term of three Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, the said yearly Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds shall be paid and satisfied to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, by quarterly Payments ; that is to say, on the one and thirtieth Day of October, the one and thirtieth Day of January, the thirtieth Day of April, and the one and thirtieth Day of July yearly, by even and equal Portions ; and that all the Payments so to be made of or for the said yearly Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds, or after that Rate, from the Commencement of the said Undertaking, until the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven inclusively, and from thence until the End of the said Term of three Years, to wit, until the one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen inclusively, shall be and are, by Force and Virtue of this present Act, charged and chargeable upon, and shall be discharged and satisfied fied out of all and every, or any the Aids or Supplies granted or to be granted to her Majesty in this Session of Parliament, for the carrying on the War, or other her Majesty's Occasions, and are not or shall not be actually applied thereunto on or before the twelfth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby directed, authorized, and required (without any further or other Warrant or Authority to be sued for, had or obtained in that Behalf) from time to time, as the said Payments shall incur or grow due, at or before the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, to discharge and satisfy the same out of the Aids and Supplies last-mentioned, and to cause so much of the same Aids or Supplies, in Monies, Tallies, or Orders, as shall be sufficient for that Purpose, to be reserved and set apart, and to be applied thereunto from time to time, as the said Payments shall incur and become due.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Payments which shall grow due by or in pursuance of this Act, of or for the said Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, or after that Rate, from and after the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, during so long Time as the same is to continue as aforesaid, according to this Act, shall from time to time be well and truly made and satisfied, as from time to time the same Payments shall incur and grow due, unto the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, out of the Duties, Revenues or Funds, or some of them, which were by the Acts of Parliament above recited or mentioned, or any of them, settled, established, or appropriated, as well for paying the said Interest after the Rate of two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said Allowance after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum as for discharging and cancelling the said Exchequer Bills in the Manner and Form herein after specified, that is to say, When and as soon as any Payment shall, after the said one and thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, become due by virtue of this Act, of or for the said Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, or after that Rate, the Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall, from time to time, within ten Days then next ensuing, cause an exact Account to be taken of so much as shall be due to the said Governor and Company upon the said Allowance, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum for Circulation, and an Estimate to be made as near as they can, of so much as shall be then due or demandable, for the said Interest at two Pence per Centum per Diem; and after the Payment of the same Allowance and Interest Money, as the said former Acts do direct, or reserving from time to time Money sufficient to discharge the same, shall issue out of the said Duties, Revenues and Funds last-mentioned, unto the said Governor and Company, from time to time, the Money, which upon the taking of every such Account, shall be due to them of or for the said Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, or after that Rate as aforesaid: It being the Intent and true Meaning of this Act, that the same Allowance for Circulation, and the said Interest Monies, shall take Place and be preferred in Point of Payment out of the said Funds, before the said Sum of or after the Rate of forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum; and that the said forty-five thousand Pound per Annum shall, from time to time, take place, and be preferred in Point of Payment, before the said yearly Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, which was intended and settled by the said former Acts, or some of them, for cancelling and discharging the said Exchequer Bills; the said former Acts, or any of them, or any thing therein contained, or any other Law or Statute whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay so much as shall, from time to time, be incurred, and grown due for or upon the said Interest after the Rate of two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said several Allowances after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and forty-five thousand Pounds per Annum as aforesaid, the said yearly Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds, intended by the said former Acts for discharging and cancelling the Principal Money contained or to be contained in all the said Exchequer Bills, or so much thereof as the said Funds shall produce for that Purpose, shall and may be applied, from time to time, for discharging and cancelling the said Exchequer Bills, until they shall be entirely discharged and cancelled according to the said former Acts; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said former Acts above recited or mentioned, and all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, and Advantages, Rules, Directions, Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses of Redemption, and other Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained (being now in Force) touching or concerning the said Exchequer Bills, or any the Funds thereof, or any Way relating thereunto (such Alterations as are therein made by this Act only excepted) shall continue and be used, exercised, inflicted, raised, levied and put in Practice and Execution, to all Intents and Purposes, in the same Manner and Form as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And it is hereby declared, That the said yearly Sum of forty-five thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, shall not be liable to any Tax or Assessment whatsoever.

12 Car. 2. c. 35.

MOST gracious Sovereign; Whereas by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, a General Post Office was erected and established in that Part of Great Britain called England, and by the twentieth Act of the fifth Session of the first Parliament of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, a General Post Office was erected and established in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and several Rates of Postage were thereby severally appointed to be received, under several different Powers and Authorities; which two Kingdoms being since united, it is most likely that a Correspondence by Post will be best managed and ordered for the publick Good, by uniting also the said two Post Offices under one Postmaster General: And whereas also Posts have at great Charges been established by Packet Boats between that Part of Great Britain called England and the West Indies, and also on the main Land in North America, through most of her Majesty's Plantations and Colonies in those Parts, as also to divers Parts in Europe, to which no Packet Boats were till lately settled, and more Posts may yet be settled and established for the publick Good and Welfare of all your Majesty's Subjects: And whereas the several Rates of Postage may in many Parts, with little Burthen to the Subject, be encreased, and other new Rates granted, which additional and new Rates may, in some Measure, enable your Majesty to carry on and finish the present War, so as suitable Powers and Authorities be made for collecting the same, and sufficient Provision be made, as well for preventing the undue collecting the Delivery of Letters by private Posts, Carriers, Higlers, Watermen, Drivers of Stage Coaches, and other Persons, as all other Frauds to which the Revenue might otherwise be liable; which cannot be well and properly done, to answer the Ends aforesaid, without the Authority of Parliament in a new Act to be made for the said Office, and for the Revenues to arise thereby: We therefore your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Act made in England in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for erecting and establishing a Post Office, and the said Act made in Scotland in the fifth Session of the first Parliament of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act anent the Post Office, and every Article, Clause, and Thing therein or in either of them contained, shall be, and is and are hereby, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, actually repealed, except as is herein after mentioned.

II. And to the End a General Post Office may be established for and throughout her Majesty's Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, her Colonies and Plantations in North America, and the West Indies, and all other her Majesty's Dominions and Territories, in such Manner as may be most beneficial to the People of these Kingdoms, and her Majesty may be supplied, and the Revenue arising by the said Office better improved, settled, and secured to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in such Manner as is herein after mentioned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, there be from thenceforth one General Letter Office and

One General Post Office to be erected,

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Postmaster General shall be at Liberty to keep and maintain Packet Boats to go weekly (Wind and Weather permitting) to and from Donaghadee, or some other convenient Port in Ireland, to Port Patrick, or some other convenient Port in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for Conveyance of Letters and Packets for the Convenience of Trade and Commerce between the said Kingdoms, paying over and above the Inland Rates hereby rated and appointed to be received for such Letters and Packets, at the Place where such Letter or Letters are delivered in to be sent by such Packet Boats, according to the Rates following; that is to say, For every such Single Letter two Pence, Double four Pence, Treble six Pence, Ounce eight Pence.

Packet Boats to go from Donaghadee to Port Patrick.

X. And for as much as it may be convenient to erect some cross Stages for the better maintaining of Trade and Commerce, and mutual Correspondencies, and to settle the Rates for all By or Way Letters and Packets conveyed by Post in any of the said Kingdoms; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General for the time being, so constituted as aforesaid, to erect and set up cross Stages to and from any Place or Places whatsoever; and thereupon such Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto sufficiently authorized, shall and may lawfully demand, have, receive and take for the Postage and Conveyance, as well of all such Letters and Packets which he or they shall so convey, carry, or send Post as aforesaid, in any such cross Stages, as for all By or Way Letters and Packets, the same Rates in Proportion to the Distances of the Places to which they shall be directed from the Places at which they shall be put in, as Letters and Packets conveyed and re-conveyed to and from London, are rated to pay.

Postmaster to erect cross Stages, &c.

XI. And for the better reducing all Miles in both the said Kingdoms throughout all the Post Roads within one Hundred Miles distance from the said Chief Offices, and in the cross Roads now settled, or hereafter to be settled, to one and the same Measure and Standard; and for preventing Disputes touching the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person and Persons as the Postmaster General for the time being shall appoint, to measure or cause to be measured, by the Wheel, all Roads, except such Roads where Stages are already settled; and that such Person or Persons so to be authorized, shall cause fair Surveys or Books to be made for each of the said Kingdoms; one of each whereof to be left with her Majesty's Postmaster General in London; another of each to be left at the chief Post Office in Edinburgh, with the Postmaster General's Deputy there; another of each to be left at the chief Post Office in Dublin, with the Postmaster General's Deputy there, to remain in the said Post Offices; and each of which said Books shall be signed by such Person or Persons making the same, and by the Postmaster General for the time being, and his Deputies in such General Offices in each Kingdom, and the Comptrollers and Surveyors belonging or to belong to the said General Post Offices in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin: Which Books or Surveys shall ascertain and determine the Distances on all the said Roads.

A Survey to be taken of the Distances of the Roads.

XII. Provided always, That such Person or Persons who shall be authorized to measure the said Distances, and every of them, shall be sworn to perform the same, according to the best of their Skill and Judgment; which Oath shall and may be administered by any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the said Kingdoms respectively, who shall make a Certificate thereof in Writing, to be entred in the three General Post Offices aforesaid, without Fee or Charge.

Surveyor to be sworn.

XIII. Provided always, That all Merchants Accounts not exceeding one Sheet of Paper, and all Bills of Exchange, Invoices and Bills of Lading are, and shall hereby be understood to be allowed without Rate in the Price of the Letters; and likewise the Covers of Letters, not exceeding one fourth Part of a Sheet of Paper, sent by the Way of Vienna, Marseilles, Venice or Leghorne, to be sent to or from Turkey, shall be understood to be allowed to pass without Rate or Payment for the same.

Proviso for Merchants. 6 Geo. 1. c. 21. §. 52. This Proviso is restrained to Merchants Accounts, &c. sent beyond Sea, &c.

XIV. And in Regard the said Postmaster General and his Deputies are obliged, as well for performing the Duties of the several Stages of Great Britain and Ireland, as for furnishing such as ride Post with Horses and Furniture, to be at great Charge to maintain a convenient Number of Servants, Horses and Furniture; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Postmaster General and his Deputy and Deputies, to ask, demand, take and receive of every Person, that he or they shall furnish and provide with Horses and Furniture, or with Horses, Furniture and Guide, to ride Post in any of the Post Roads as aforesaid, three Pence of British Money for each and every Horse-hire or Postage for every English Mile, and four Pence of like Money for the Person riding as Guide for every Stage; and the Deputy or Deputies of such Postmaster General shall not charge any Person riding Post, for the carrying of any Bundle or Parcel of Goods, carried along with them, in their Way of Travel, so as any such Bundle or Parcel of Goods do not exceed the Weight of eighty Pounds Averdupois, to be laid on the Horse rid by the Guide, and no Deputy shall be obliged to carry above that Weight for any Person riding Post.

Rates for riding Post.

XV. And whereas, upon the Arrival of Ships from Parts beyond the Seas, into several Ports within her Majesty's Dominions, many Letters directed to several Merchants and others, have been either imbezilled or long detained, to the great Damage of the Merchants and others, to whom the same were directed, in Want of that speedy Advice and Intelligence, which they might had, if the same had been forth-forthwith dispatched by the settled Posts, and sometimes such Letters have been delivered by the Masters or Passengers of such Ships, to ignorant and loose Hands that understand not the Ways and Means of speedy Conveyance and Delivery of Letters, whereby great Prejudice hath accrued to the Affairs of Merchants and others, as well by the Miscarriage of many Letters so brought, as oftentimes by the opening the same, to the Discovery of the Correspondency and Secrets of the Merchants; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Letters and Packets, that by any Master of any Ship or Vessel or any of his Company or any Passengers therein, shall or may be brought to any Port Town, or which shall arrive or touch at any Port belonging to any Port * Town, within any her Majesty's Dominions or any the Members thereof, or which shall be on board any Ship or Vessel, that shall or do touch or stay at any such Port Town (other than such Letters as are before excepted, or may be sent by common known Carriers in Manner aforesaid, or by a Friend as aforesaid) shall by such Master, Passenger or other Person or Persons, be forthwith delivered unto the Deputy or Deputies only of such Postmaster General for the Time being, by him appointed, for such Place or Port Town, and to be by such Deputy or Deputies sent Post unto the said General Post Office, to be delivered according to the several and respective Directions of the same; upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Pounds of British Money, for every several Offence against the Tenor of this present Act.

XVI. And for the Encouragement of all such Masters of Ships or Vessels, or such other Persons, on their Arrival at such Ports as aforesaid, from any Parts beyond the Seas, to deliver unto the Deputy or Deputies of such Postmaster General for such Place or Port Town at which they shall so touch or arrive, all such Letters and Packets as they shall respectively have on board such Vessel or Vessels, every such Master or other Person, for every Letter or Packet of Letters he or they shall so deliver unto such Deputy or Deputies, shall receive the Sum of one Penny, of such Deputy or Deputies, he or they signing a Certificate of the Number of Letters delivered, and by what Vessel they came, and of the Time when he or they delivered the same to such Deputy or Deputies, and giving a Receipt for such Number of Pence as he or they shall receive of such Deputy or Deputies; which Certificate and Receipt shall be by such Deputy by the next Post returned to the said Postmaster General, together with the Letters so delivered, who shall have Credit on his Account for so much Money as any such Deputy shall pay on the Account.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, or Body Politick or Corporate, in any Part of these Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, or other her Majesty's Plantations and Colonies in the West Indies and America, other than such Postmaster General as shall, from Time to Time, be nominated and appointed by her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and constituted by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain as aforesaid, and his Deputy and Deputies or Assigns, shall presume to receive, take up, order, dispatch, convey, carry, recarry or deliver any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets of Letters (other than as before excepted) or make any Collection of Letters, or set up or employ any Foot Post, Horse Post or Packet Boat, or other Vessel or Boat or other Person or Persons, Conveyance or Conveyances whatsoever for the receiving, taking up, ordering, dispatching, conveying, carrying, recarrying or delivering any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets of Letters, by Sea or by Land or on any River, within her Majesty's Dominions or by Means whereof any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets of Letters, shall be collected, received, taken up, ordered, dispatched, conveyed, carried, recarried or delivered, by Sea or Land, or on any River, within her Majesty's Dominions (other than as before excepted) or shall presume to keep, provide and maintain Horses, or Furniture for the horsing of any Person or Persons riding Post; that is to say, riding several Stages upon a Post Road, and changing Horses, or shall let to hire, or furnish any Person or Persons whatsoever with Horses or Furniture for riding Post as aforesaid, on any of the Post Roads or Stages now or hereafter to be appointed, with or without a Guide or Horn, for Hire or Reward, or on any Agreement or Promise of Reward, or whereby he or they may have any Profit or Advantage; on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Pounds of British Money for every several Offence against the Tenor of this present Act, and also of the Sum of one hundred Pounds of like British Money for every Week that any Offender against this Act shall collect, receive, take up, order, dispatch, convey, carry, recarry or deliver any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets of Letters, by Sea or Land, or on any River, within her Majesty's Dominions (other than as before excepted) or that shall presume to set up, continue or employ any Foot Post, Horse Post or Packet Boat, or other Vessel or Boat, or any other Person or Persons, Conveyance or Conveyances whatsoever, for the receiving, taking up, ordering, dispatching, conveying, carrying, recarrying or delivering of any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets of Letters, by Sea or Land, or on any River, within her Majesty's Dominions as aforesaid.

XVIII. And whereas divers deputy Postmasters do collect great Quantities of Post Letters called By or Way Letters, and by clandestine and private Agreements amongst themselves, do convey the same Post in their respective Mails, or By-Bags, according to their several Directions, without accounting for the same, or endorsing the same on their Bills, to the great Detriment of her Majesty's Revenues: For preventing whereof for the Time to come; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time hereafter, any Person or Persons employed as a Deputy Postmaster or otherwise, in these Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of her Majesty's Dominions and Territories in the West Indies or in North America, shall not duly answer and account to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for all such By or Way Letters as such Deputy or Deputies, or any by his, her or their Order shall receive the Post for, or that shall not on his or her Post Bills exactly mention all the By or Way Letters he, she or they shall or do receive, or which shall come to his, her or their Hand or Hands, Custody or Power, distinguishing them severally whether single, double, treble or Ounce Weight, or that shall destroy or embesil any such By Letter or By Letters, Packet or Packets of Letters; every such Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence, such Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Persons herein before prohibited, setting up or employing other Posts, or collecting, carrying, recarrying, ordering, dispatching or delivering Letters and Packets contrary hereunto, are enacted to forfeit and pay.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, That all and singular the said several Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed on any Offender or Offenders against the same or any Part thereof, shall and may be sued for and recovered by Action or Actions of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection or Wager of Law shall be admitted; and the said several and respective Penalties and Forfeitures, that shall happen from Time to Time to be recovered, shall be and remain, the one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to such Person or Persons who shall or will inform against the Offender or Offenders against this present Act, and shall and will sue for the said Penalties and Forfeitures upon the same; and on every such Recovery, such Person or Persons so informing, and prosecuting for the said Penalties and Forfeitures, shall recover, and have also taxed and paid their full Costs of Suit.

Penalties how to be recovered.

XX. Provided always, That if any Postmaster of any respective Stages on any Post Roads, in any her Majesty's Dominions, now settled or hereafter to be settled, doth not or cannot furnish any Person or Persons riding in Post, with sufficient Horses within the Space of one half Hour after Demand, that then such Person or Persons is and are hereby understood to be left at Liberty to provide themselves as conveniently as they can to the next Stage, and so at every Stage where he or they shall not be furnished as aforesaid; and the Person or Persons who shall furnish such Horses, shall not therefore be liable to any Penalties or Forfeitures contained in this Act by Reason thereof.

Proviso, when Postmaster doth not furnish Horses in one half Hour.

XXI. Provided always, That if through Default or Neglect of the Postmaster General or his Deputy for the Time being, any Person or Persons riding in Post shall fail as aforesaid, of being furnished with a sufficient Horse or Horses, for his or their Use after Demand as aforesaid, that then and in every such Case the Postmaster General or his Deputy so offending, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling; the one Moiety to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall sue for the same in any Court of Record, to be recovered and divided as aforesaid.

Penalty on Postmaster not providing.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be understood to prohibit the carrying or recarrying of any Letters or Packets, to or from any Town or Place, to or from the next respective Post Road or Stage appointed for that Purpose, above six Miles from the said General Post Office, or the chief Offices of Edinburgh and Dublin, but that every Person shall have free Liberty to send and employ such Person or Persons as they shall think fit for to carry the said Letters or Packets as aforesaid, without any Forfeiture or Penalty therefore; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Letters may be sent from any Place to the next Stage, above six Miles from the General Office.

XXIII. Provided always nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to give Licence to any Person or Persons whatsoever, to make Collection of Letters in or near the City of London or Suburbs thereof, under Pretence of conveying the same to any Parts or Places in the said City or Suburbs, or to the General Office of the said City, without the Licence and Leave of the Postmaster General for the Time being: And any Person or Persons acting contrary hereunto shall forfeit and pay as Persons collecting, receiving, carrying, recarrying, and delivering Letters contrary to this Act, are hereby enacted to forfeit and pay, to be recovered as aforesaid, and with full Costs of Suit.

None may collect Letters in London, &c. without Licence, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, That if the Packet or Mail shall be carried out of Great Britain into any Part or Place beyond the Seas, in any Ship or Vessel which is not a free Ship, and navigated with such Seamen as, by the Laws of this Land, the same are required to be, that then, and in every such Case, the Postmaster General for the Time being shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, the one Moiety to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall sue for the same in any Court of Record, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or other Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager at Law shall be allowed.

The Packet not to be carried out of Great Britain in Foreign Ships.

XXV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Postmaster General, and all Officers and Deputies acting under him, and all Officers belonging to the said General Post Office, within that Part of the said united Kingdom called England, receiving the Sacrament according to the Usage of the Church of England, and taking, making and subscribing the Test, and the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy and Abjuration, appointed by any of the Laws of the said Part of the said united Kingdom, to be taken, made, and subscribed by Officers in publick Places of Trust in the Government, and within such Times, and in such Places as are particularly appointed by any of those Laws for doing the same, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficiently qualified to act in their respective Stations and Duties, and to execute their respective Employments throughout the said whole united Kingdom, and all other her Majesty's Dominions, and shall not incur any Penalties, Forfeitures or Disabilities, for not taking the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and subscribing the Assurance appointed by any the Laws of that Part of the said united Kingdom called Scotland or by any Law or Laws of the said united Kingdom of Great Britain, to be taken and made by any Person in publick Trust, notwithstanding such Postmaster General, and such Deputies and Officers, shall exercise their respective Offices and Employments within all and every the Parts and Places of that Part of the said united Kingdom called Scotland: And all Deputies and Agents acting under such Postmaster General within that Part of the said united Kingdom called Scotland, taking and making the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and subscribing the same, with the Assurance appointed by any of the Laws of the said Part of the said united Kingdom called Scotland, or by any Law or Laws of the said united Kingdom of Great Britain, to be taken and made by any Person in publick Trust, and within such Times, and at such Places, as are particularly appointed by any of those Laws for doing the same, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficiently qualified to execute and exercise their respective Employments in the said Office throughout the said whole united Kingdom, and all other her Majesty's Dominions; any Act or Acts of Parliament in either of the said united Kingdoms at any Time heretofore made to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXVI. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Letter or Packet Post shall twice every Week come by the Way of Truro and Penryn to the Town of Penzance, in the County of Cornwall; and once a Week to Kendall, by the Way of Lancaster; and to the Town of Penrith in Cumberland, by the Way of Newcastle and Carlisle; and to the City of Lincoln and the Borough of Grimby, in the County of Lincoln; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The Postmaster to observe such Orders as her Majesty shall make.

XXVII. And for the better Management of the said Post Office, and that the People of these Kingdoms may have their Intercourse of Commerce and Trade the better maintained, and their Letters and Advices conveyed, carried and recarried with the greatest Speed, Security and Conveniency that may be; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Postmaster General so nominated, appointed and constituted as aforesaid, and his Deputies, shall, from Time to Time, observe and follow such Orders, Rules, Directions and Instructions for and concerning the Settlement of Posts and Stages upon the several Roads in Great Britain and Ireland, and other her Majesty's Dominions, and the providing and keeping a sufficient Number of Horses at the several Stages, as well for the carrying and conveying the said Letters and Packets, as for the horsing of all Persons riding in Post by Warrant, or otherwise as aforesaid, as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall, from Time to Time, in that Behalf make and ordain.

No Horses to be seized without the Owners Consent.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall have Power to take, use or seize any Horses for the Services mentioned in this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Owners thereof; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Post to pay nothing for passing Ferries in North America.

XXIX. And so far as much as the Post must necessarily pass several Ferries in North America, in which the Ferry-men give great Delays, and sometimes have endeavoured to exact Money from them, notwithstanding the same have always been free for the Post; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Deputy or Agent of such Postmaster General, travelling with any Mail of Letters, shall pay any Thing for passing or repassing any Ferry within any of the Colonies or Plantations of her said Majesty in North America aforesaid; but such Ferry-men shall forthwith, within one half Hour after Demand, convey such Deputies, on Pain of forfeiting for every Offence the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered in any Court of Record within any of the Provinces or Colonies in North America, by Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed; one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, towards the Support of the Government of the said Provinces, and the contingent Charges thereof; and the other Moiety to the Postmaster General, who shall sue and prosecute for the same, together with full Costs of Suit.

Debts for Postage to be recovered as small Tithes are.

XXX. And whereas many Persons having received their Letters, refuse to pay for the same or often run in Debt for the Postage of their Letters, or having received some small Sum for the Port of Letters, which Sums being very small in Particulars, are properly to be recovered in a summary Way; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Sum and Sums of Money, not exceeding five Pounds, that now is or shall be due from any Person or Persons for Letters or Packets, or any Letter or Packet, to them delivered by any Deputy or Deputies of such Postmaster General, or which now is, or shall be due from any Person or Persons for the Port of Letters or Packets to them delivered by any Deputy or Agent of such Postmaster General, not exceeding the said Value, or which have been or shall be received for the Port of Letters, not exceeding the same Value, without answering or paying the Monies so due and owing to the Receiver General of the said Revenues for her Majesty's Use, shall be recovered before Justices of the Peace, in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, as small Tithes are, by the Laws of England, to be recovered; and such Debt or Sums of Money shall be preferable in Payment by the Person owing the same, or from whose Estate the same is or shall be due, before any Debt of any Sort to any private Person whomsoever.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6.

Inland Letters to pay where delivered.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Inland Letters sent by any Packet Post established by this Act as aforesaid, do and shall pay the Rates and Prices before mentioned at such Stages at which they are last delivered only, unless the Party that doth put in the Letters desireth to pay elsewhere, and unless any such Letters are directed on board any Ship or Vessel, or to any Person in the Army, or are sent by the Penny Post, and unless they be Letters or Packets going out of Great Britain, which have usually paid the Rates in England; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Proviso for the two Universities.

XXXII. Provided always, That this Act or any Thing therein contained, shall not in any wise be prejudicial to the Privileges of the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge or either of them, or to the Chancellors or Scholars of the same or their Successors, but that they may use and enjoy such Privileges as heretofore they have lawfully used and enjoyed, and that all Letters and other Things may be sent or conveyed to or from the said two Universities in Manner as heretofore hath been used; any Thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

By Bags for By Letters.

XXXIII. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General for the Time being, his Deputy and Deputies, to continue By Bags for collecting and delivering of By Letters as hath been heretofore accustomed; such Deputy and Deputies duly accounting to, and paying the respective Ports thereof to the Receiver General of the said Revenue for the Time being, for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors.

Sums due on 1. June 1711. how recoverable.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may be due and owing to her Majesty on the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for the Duties and Revenues that have arisen, or shall or may may arise to that Time by Posts, or by Reason of the Duties and Revenues granted by either of the said former Acts, shall be paid to the Receiver General of the said Revenue, for her Majesty's Use, and be recovered and recoverable in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, as the same were recoverable before the making of this present Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXV. And towards the Establishment of a good, sure, and lasting Fund, in order to raise a present Supply of Money for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's most necessary Occasions; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for and during the whole Term of thirty-two Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, the full, clear, and intire weekly Sum of seven hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, out of all the Duties and Revenues, from time to time, arising by virtue of this Act, shall be brought and paid by the Postmaster General, the Receiver General of the Post-Office, or such other Person or Persons who, for the Time being shall have the Receipt of the said Duties and Revenues, who are hereby respectively enjoined and required to bring and pay the same accordingly into the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon Tuesday in every Week, if it be not an Holy-day, and if it be, then upon the next Day that is not an Holy-day, as one Week shall successively and immediately follow and succeed another; and in case in any Week or Weeks the whole Receipt of Monies of the said Duties or Revenues hereby charged as aforesaid, shall not be sufficient to answer the said weekly Payment or Payments hereby directed for such particular Week or Weeks, that then and so often the Deficiency and Deficiencies thereof shall be supplied and made good out of the whole Receipt of the said Duties or Revenues arising in the next Week or Weeks, when the Receipt or Receipts shall be sufficient to bear the same; all which Payments into the Exchequer shall be made for the Purposes, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities hereafter in this Act expressed.

XXXVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Postmaster General for the Time being, at the Head Office in London, shall, from time to time, cause an Account to be kept by an Accountant General of all the Monies arising by Virtue of this Act, of or for the Duties or Revenues aforesaid, and every or any of them, as the same shall from time to time arise, be paid or brought into the said Office, to the Hands of the Receiver General for the Time being, who is or shall be appointed, from time to time, to receive the same; and that such Receiver General for the Time being shall, out of the Monies so arising, make the said weekly Payments into the Exchequer, in Manner as aforesaid; and if the said Postmaster General for the Time being shall refuse or neglect to appoint or keep such Accountant General, or if such Accountant General shall neglect to keep a just and true Account as aforesaid, or if such Receiver General shall at any Time refuse or neglect to make any such weekly Payments as aforesaid, into the Exchequer, according to the true Meaning of this Act, or if the said Postmaster General, Accountant General and Receiver General for the Time being, or any of them, or any other Officer of the said Duties, shall divert or misapply any of the Monies which should make good the said weekly Payments, or any of them, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, at any Time or Times, during the said Term of thirty-two Years, then and in any such case they and every of them so offending shall forfeit their several Offices and Places, and be incapable to serve the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Place of Trust or Profit, and shall be liable for every such Offence, to pay double the Value of the Money so diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons who shall or may be grieved by Reason of such Offence, and will inform or sue for the same by Action of Debt, or of the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be granted or allowed.

XXXVII. And to the End the said weekly Sum of seven hundred Pounds may be made a Fund or Security for the Purposes in this Act expressed; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, one Book, in which all the Monies which shall be paid in weekly as aforesaid, for or upon Account of the said weekly Sums out of the said Duties, shall be entred apart and distinct from all other Monies which shall be brought and paid to the said Receipt upon any other Account whatsoever.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That the said weekly Sum of seven hundred Pounds for the Purposes aforesaid, shall, from time to time, during all the said Term of thirty-two Years, be paid into the Exchequer as aforesaid, out of the whole Produce of the Duties and Revenues arising by virtue of this Act, with Preference to all other Payments which are, shall, or may be charged or chargeable thereupon, the necessary Charges for managing the said Post-Office, and the Duties thereof, and for receiving, answering, and accounting for the Revenues arising thereby, only excepted; and that the said Duties and Revenues arising by this Act, (after Deduction, from time to time, to be first made of so much as shall be then due and incurred, or in Arrear of or for the said weekly Payments, at any Time within or during the Term aforesaid, and after the Allowance of such necessary Charges as aforesaid, and not otherwise) shall, from time to time, be subject and liable to such Annuities, and other Payments and Incumbrances, which by any Act of Parliament now in Force were lawfully charged upon the Revenues of the Post-Office, or any of them, granted by the said former Acts hereby repealed as aforesaid, or which having been charged by any Grant upon the said Revenues, have been saved by Act of Parliament, of and for such Estate and Estates in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, and subject to such Conditions, Limitations, Restrictions, and Appointments, and in such or the like Manner and Form (and not otherwise) as the said Revenues, payable by the said former Acts, or any of them, would have been subject or liable if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred forty and three, the same Rates and Prices only, and no more, shall be taken or paid for the Carriage, Conveyance, and Delivery of all Letters and Packets sent by the Post from one Part of Great Britain to another, as also for all Letters brought to Great Britain, or sent from thence, from or to any Parts beyond the Seas, than were authorized or allowed to be taken by the Postmaster General, or his Deputy or Deputies, for the Postage of such Letters, by the said several Acts hereby repealed.

No Letters to be opened, detained, or delayed.

XL. And whereas Abuses may be committed by wilfully opening, imbezilling, detaining and delaying of Letters or Packets, to the great Discouragement of Trade, Commerce, and Correspondence: For Prevention thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, no Person or Persons shall presume wittingly, willingly, or knowingly, to open, detain, or delay, or cause, procure, permit, or suffer to be opened, detained, or delayed, any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, after the same is or shall be delivered into the General or other Post-Office, or into the Hands of any Person or Persons employed for the receiving or carrying Post Letters, and before Delivery to the Persons to whom they are directed, or for their Use; except by an express Warrant in Writing under the Hand of one of the Principal Secretaries of State for every such opening, detaining, or delaying; or except in such Cases where the Party or Parties, to whom such Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, shall be directed, or who is or are hereby chargeable with the Payment of the Port or Ports thereof, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same; and except such Letters or Packets as shall be returned for want of true Directions, and where the Party, to whom the same is or are directed, cannot be found; and that every Person or Persons offending in Manner aforesaid, or who shall imbezil any such Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; the said Penalties for any such Offence committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, to be recovered by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and for any such Offence committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to be recovered in the Court of Sessions, or Exchequer there; such Penalties respectively to be recovered by such Person or Persons as will inform or sue for the same, together with full Costs of Suit; and over and above such Penalty as aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, shall be for ever incapable of having, using, exercising, or enjoying any Office, Trust or Employment in or relating to the Post Office, or any Branch thereof.

Exception.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall, after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, be capable of having, using, or exercising the Office or Offices of Postmaster General, or any Part thereof, or any other Employment relating to the Post Office, or any Branch thereof, or be any way concerned in receiving, sorting, or delivering of Letters or Packets, unless such Person or Persons shall first have taken the following Oath before some one Justice of the Peace for the County or Place where such Person resides, which said Oath such Justice of Peace is hereby authorized to administer in the following Words:

The Oath.

I A. B. do swear, That I will not wittingly, willingly, or knowingly open, detain, or delay, or cause, procure, permit, or suffer to be opened, detained, or delayed any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, which shall come into my Hands, Power, or Custody, by Reason of my Employment in or relating to the Post Office; except by the Consent of the Person or Persons to whom the same is or shall be directed, or by an express Warrant in Writing under the Hand of one of the principal Secretaries of State for that Purpose; or except in such Cases, where the Party or Parties to whom such Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets shall be directed, or who is or are hereby chargeable with the Payment of the Port or Ports thereof, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same; and except such Letters or Packets as shall be returned for Want of true Directions, or when the Party or Parties to whom the same is or shall be directed, cannot be found: And that I will not any Way imbezil any such Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets as aforesaid.

by Parliament.

XLII. And it is further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from the said first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, one third Part of the Surplus of the yearly Produce arising by the said Letter or Post Office, or Duties upon Postage of Letters and Packets by this Act granted, over and above the Sum of one hundred and eleven thousand four hundred sixty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence, which was the amount of the gross Receipt of the Duties arising by virtue of the said former Acts of Parliament (which are now repealed) for one Year ended the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, and over and above the said Sum of seven hundred Pounds per Week, shall be and is by this Act reserved to the Disposal of Parliament for the Use of the Publick, and shall not be divertible or diverted to any other Use, Intent or Purpose, other than according to such Disposal.

not alienable, &c.

XLIII. And to the Intent the Inheritance of such Part of the said Duties and Revenue arising in and by the said General Letter Office or Post Office, which is hereby vested in her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, undeterminable as aforesaid, may be preserved in the Crown, for the future Benefit thereof; Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the same, or any Part thereof, shall not hereafter be alienable, chargeable or grantable by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for any Estate, Term, or Time whatsoever, to endure longer than the Life of her Majesty, or of such King or Queen as shall make such Alienation, Charge, or Grant respectively; and that all Gifts, Grants, Alienations, and Assurances whatsoever, to be had or made of, and Charges upon the said Duties or Revenue, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Provision of this Act, shall be null and void, without any Inquisition, Scire facias, or other Proceeding to determine or make void the same.

XLIV. And

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Postmaster or Postmasters General, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, or any Person employed by or under him or them, in the receiving, collecting, or managing the Revenue of the Post Office, or any Part thereof, shall, by Word, Message, or Writing, or in any other Manner whatsoever, endeavour to persuade any Elector to give or dissuade any Elector from giving his Vote for the Choice of any Person to be a Knight of the Shire, Citizen, Burgess, or Baron of any County, City, Borough, or Cinque Port, to serve in Parliament; and every Officer or other Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for the said Offences committed in England and Scotland respectively, wherein no Esloin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or any more than one Imparllance shall be allowed; and every Person convicted on any such Suit of the said Offence, shall thereby become disabled and incapable of ever bearing or executing any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever under her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors.

Goods landed before entry, &c. forfeited, or the Value.

any of the same Commodities or Manufactures shall be landed or put on Shoar out any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Custom-house in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the said Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon shall be duly paid, or without a Warrant for the Landing or Delivering the same first signed by the Commissioners, Collectors or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively, that all such imported Commodities and Manufactures by this Act chargeable as aforesaid, as shall be so landed or put on Shoar, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true meaning hereof, or the value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, to wit, one Moiety of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform or sue for such Commodities or Manufactures chargeable by this Act, as shall be so imported and forfeited, or the Value thereof, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by Action, Bill, Suit or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed.

After Duty paid Skins, &c. to be marked.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Duties hereby granted upon such imported Hides or Skins shall be paid and satisfied, the Officer or Officers of the Customs of the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, shall cause every such Hide or Skin to be marked with such distinct Mark as this Act directs to be provided and used, to denote the Payment of the Duty of such imported Hides or Skins as aforesaid.

How these Duties shall be raised.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties on all such Commodities and Manufactures chargeable by this Act, as shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, during the Continuance thereof, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, uplifted, levied, recovered and answered, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form as her Majesty's Duties, called the Subsidies upon Poundage Goods imported or any of them, are by any Law or Statute now in Force to be ascertained, secured, raised, uplifted, levied, recovered or answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

Imported Goods that pay ad Valorem, how to be ascertained.

VIII. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That the Values of such of the said imported Commodities and Manufactures chargeable by this Act, as are to pay Duty ad Valorem, upon the Importation thereof, shall in all Cases be taken to be so much as such Imported Kinds are really worth to be sold at the Port of Importation, without any Abatement for the Duties thereupon charged by this or any former Act; and that the respective Customer or Collector, or other Person or Persons, Officer or Officers of the Customs for the time being, shall receive and levy the said Duty, payable ad Valorem, upon the Oath of the Merchant or Importer accordingly; and such Oath shall and may be administred, and all other Matters done for ascertaining the said Duties so payable ad Valorem, in the same Manner and Form as are lawfully used and practised, or ought to be practised, for ascertaining any other the Duties payable ad Valorem, upon the Importation of Leather.

These Duties to be under the Government of the Commissioners of the Customs.

IX. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the Duties imposed by this Act for or upon the said Commodities or Manufactures to be imported as aforesaid, as shall arise in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England for the time being; and such of the Duties imposed by this Act on the said Commodities and Manufactures to be imported as aforesaid, as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in Scotland for the time being; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the time being shall from time to time pay, or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties on the said Commodities and Manufactures to be imported as aforesaid (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities as are to be inflicted by this Act, for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act required to be paid into the Exchequer.

3 Jac. 1. c. 22.

X. And whereas in the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the First of happy Memory, a good and wholesome Statute was made concerning Tanners, Shoemakers, Curriers and other Artificers in Leather wherein ample Provision was made for the true and well Tanning, Currying and Working of Leather, and for and concerning the Buying and Selling of Leather, Red and Unwrought, in open Fairs and Markets, and for such other Matters and Things relating to Leather, as in the said Statute are plainly and largely expressed, the due Execution whereof hath been and is of great Importance to the publick Good and Service of this Realm, and will very much contribute to the Ascertaining and Collection of several of the Duties by this Act intended to be granted: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Mayors, Bailiffs or other Head Officers for the time being, in the several Cities, Boroughs and Market Towns of this Realm; and the respective Lords of Liberties, Fairs and Markets; and the Masters and Wardens of the several Companies in the said Act expressed; and all Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers, and other Artificers, and all and every other Person and Persons whatsoever, who are or ought to be concerned in the Execution of the said Statute, or to give Obedience thereunto, shall (under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures as are therein severally expressed) duly execute, observe and comply with the same Statute, and all the Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, in relation to the Tanning, Dressing, Making, Buying, Selling, Trying, Sealing, Registring or other Matters concerning Leather, other than such as have been altered by any Law or Statute since that Time made, and now in Force.

Mayors, Bailiffs, &c. and all Tanners, &c. are to execute, and comply with the Stat. 3 Jac. 1. c. 22.

Penalty on gashing Hides or Skins.

XI. And for the better preventing the Gashing and Cutting of any Hides in Flaying thereof, whereby the same shall be impaired or hurt; It is hereby enacted, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, if the Raw Hide of any Ox, Bull, Steer or Cow, or the Skin

Skin of any Calf, shall wilfully or negligently be gashed, slaughtered or cut in the Flaying thereof, or being gashed, slaughtered or cut as aforesaid, shall be offered to Sale by any Butcher, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, then and in every such Case, the Butcher or other Person, who impaired or hurt the said Hide by Gashing, Slaughtering or Cutting as aforesaid, or the Person offering the same to Sale, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence for every such Hide, and one Shilling for every such Calve-skin, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Poor of the Parish where the same shall be found or offered to Sale, and the other Moiety thereof to such Persons as will seize, inform or sue for the same.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Tanner or other Person or Persons, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall shave or cause to be shaved any Hide or Calve-skin whatsoever, before the same be thoroughly tanned, whereby such Hide or Skin shall be impaired, and her Majesty's Duty thereby diminished, every such Hide or Skin or the value thereof, shall be forfeited; one Moiety to the Queen, and the other Moiety to him or them that will inform or sue for the same.

Penalty on shaving Hides, before the same be thoroughly tanned.

XIII. And for the better Ascertaining, Charging and Securing the Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, which within and during the said Term of thirty-two Years shall be tanned, tawed or dressed within Great Britain, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and for preventing Frauds concerning the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, or to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, on her Majesty's Behalf, in Writing to commissionate and appoint such and so many Commissioners or Persons as they shall think fit, by one or more Commission or Commissions, from time to time, to be her Majesty's Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Duties by this Act set or imposed upon all Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, or to be tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain; which said Commissioners or the major Part of them respectively, shall, and have hereby Power, by Commissions under their respective Hands and Seals, to substitute and appoint under them such Receivers General, Collectors, Comptrollers, Surveyors and other Officers, as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners so to be appointed, and all the Officers for the said Duties, shall have out of the same such Salaries and Rewards for their respective Services in relation to the said Duties, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall think reasonable to establish or allow in that Behalf; and that the said Commissioners for the said Duties respectively, for the time being, shall from time to time cause all the Monies to arise by or for the said Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, to be tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain, and for the said Vellum and Parchment to be made in Great Britain (the necessary Charges of managing, collecting and raising the same excepted) to be paid from time to time, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after expressed.

Her Majesty, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, to appoint Commissioners for these Duties; Who may substitute other Officers.

The Money to be paid into the Exchequer.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Value of such Hides and Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain, as are to pay Duty ad Valorem as aforesaid, shall in all Cases be taken to be so much as they respectively shall then be really and bona fide worth to be sold for, or will yield at the next Market, without Respect to the Duty hereby granted; and that the Collector for the time being shall receive the said Duties payable ad Valorem accordingly, upon the Oath of the Tanner, Tawer, Dresser or Maker respectively, to be administered as is herein after directed.

The Duty on Hides, &c. dressed in Great Britain, that pay ad Valorem, how to be ascertained.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Tanner, Bazil Tanner, Currier, Tawer, Spanish Leather Dresser, and all other Dressers of Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, to be tanned, tawed or dressed in Wooze, Mill, Allom, Salt, Oil, Meal or other Materials whatsoever, and all and every Maker of Vellum and Parchment in Great Britain, shall, before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven, give Notice in Writing to some one or more of the proper Officer or Officers to be appointed for the next Market to the Place where any Tan-house, Tan-yard, Work-house, Mill, or other Place, shall be made use of for the Tanning, Tawing or Dressing any such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or making any such Vellum or Parchment as aforesaid, of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and of every such Tan-house, Tan yard, Workhouse, Mill or other Place, for the Tanning, Tawing, or Dressing any such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum and Parchment as aforesaid, by them respectively used, and of the Number and Situation of Pits and Fats in them or any of them, and of the Numbers and Kinds of the Hides and Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, then being in the said Pits and Fats respectively; and that all and every such Tanner, Tawer, Currier, Dresser and Maker as aforesaid, as often as he, she or they shall change their Places of Tanning, Tawing or Dressing of such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, or making such Vellum or Parchment, and all and every Person and Persons, who shall at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, be the Tanner, Tawer, Currier or Dresser of any such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or be the Maker of any such Vellum or Parchment as aforesaid, shall give or leave the like Notice of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and of their Tan-houses, Yards, Work-houses, Mills, or other Places where they shall tan, taw or dress, or intend to tan, taw or dress any such Hides or Skins, or Pieces thereof, or make any such Vellum or Parchment as aforesaid, before they or any of them do presume to make use of such Tan-house, Yard, Work-house, Mill or other Place, or any Pits or Fats therein, to the End the said Officers may, from time to time, have due Knowledge of all such Tan-houses, Tan-yards, Work-houses, Mills or other Places, with the Number and Situation of Fats and Pits where such Hides or Skins, or Pieces thereof, shall be tanned, tawed or dressed, and where the said Vellum or Parchment

XVI. And the better to prevent any Frauds or Concealments, whereby her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, may be injured or deprived of her or their Dues; Be it further enacted, That the several Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, and Makers aforesaid, during the Continuance of this Act, shall not make Use of any Place or Places for the drying or keeping the said Hides or Skins, or any Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, chargeable by this Act, other than such Place or Places whereof he, she or they shall first have given Notice to the proper Officer of the said Duties, to be the usual Place or Places for his, her or their drying and keeping the same; and that the respective Tanners, Tawers, Dressers and Makers aforesaid, shall, from time to time, give or send Notice in Writing to the proper Officer for the said Duties, of the Time when such Tanner, Tawer, Maker, or Dresser shall take his, her or their Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or any of them, or any Vellum or Parchment, out of the Mill, Wooze, Liquor, Oil, or other Materials, wherein the same shall be tanned, tawed, steeped, or dressed, in order to be dried; which Notice shall, from time to time, be given or sent two Days at the least, before the taking such Hides or Skins, or Pieces thereof, or the said Vellum or Parchment, out of the said Wooze, Mill, Liquor, Oil, or other Materials, or before the hanging up or disposing the same to be dried; and that the respective Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, and Makers aforesaid, shall, from time to time, permit and suffer the proper Officers of the said Duties, and they are hereby impowered, to take an Account of the Number and Quality of all Hides and Skins, and Pieces thereof, Vellum and Parchment, which any such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker, by or for himself or themselves, or by or for any other Person or Persons, shall (at any Time or Times from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the said Term of thirty-two Years) take out of Wooze, Mill, Liquor, Oil, or other Materials, wherein the same shall have been tanned, tawed, steeped, dressed or made, in order to be dried; and shall within two Days after the taking out of the said Wooze, Mill, Liquor, Oil, or other Materials aforesaid, and before the carrying away the same from the usual Place or Places, where such Hides or Skins, or Pieces thereof, or such Vellum or Parchment, are or shall be usually dried, make true Entry, with the proper Officer or Officers, of the Number and Quality of the Hides, Skins, and the Pieces of Hides and Skins so taken out to be dried, and shall verify such Entry upon Oath, which Oath any Justices of the Peace, or the Collectors or Supervisors, that shall be appointed for the said Duty, in their respective Districts, are hereby impowered to administer, to the end the respective Duties for the same may be answered, as is herein after directed; and that no Tanner, Tawer, Dresser or Maker of such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or such Vellum or Parchment, so taken out of the Wooze, Mill, Liquor, or Materials aforesaid, after the said four and twentieth Day of June, at any Time or Times during the Term aforesaid, shall remove, carry or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried or sent away, the same, or any Part thereof, from their respective Yards, Work-houses, or other Places where they shall usually dry such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or such Vellum or Parchment, unless the Duty payable by this Act for such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, and for such Vellum and Parchment respectively, so to be removed, be first charged and entred, and a Mark be put thereupon to denote the Charge and Entry thereof, as this Act directs.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officer and Officers so to be appointed, at all seasonable Times in the Day-time to enter into any Tan-yard, Work-house, Warehouse, Mill, or other House or Place used by any such Tanner, Tawer, Currier, or Dresser of any Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or by any Maker of Vellum or Parchment, chargeable by this Act, or where any such shall be lodged, to search and see what Quantities of such Hides and Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, are taken out of the Wooze, Mill, Liquors or other Materials as aforesaid, in order to be dried, or made fit for Sale or Use; and if any Owner or Occupier of any such Tan-yard, Work-house, or other Place as aforesaid, shall at any Time or Times, refuse Entrance to the Officer or Officers as aforesaid, he, she or they shall for every such Refusal forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds; one third Part thereof to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other two Thirds to the Use of him or them who will inform or sue for the same; and if any Tanner, Tawer, Currier, or Dresser of any Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or any Maker of Vellum or Parchment, chargeable by this Act, shall endeavour to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any Duty by this Act payable, by using any private Tan-yard, Work-house, Pit, Fat, Mill, or Place, for the tanning, tawing, steeping, dressing, drying, or keeping the same, contrary to this Act; or by not giving or sending such timely Notice of taking his, her or their Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, out of the Wooze, Mill, Liquor, Oil, or other Materials, as this Act requires; or by not making due Entries, and giving an Account of the said Hides and Skins, or Pieces thereof as aforesaid; or by removing, sending, or carrying away the same, or any Part thereof, contrary to this Act; or shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause to be hid or concealed, any of the said Hides or Skins, or Pieces thereof, Vellum or Parchment, chargeable by this Act, to the Intent to deceive her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of her or their just Dues for the same; that then and in every such Case, for every such Offence, the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; one Moiety whereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform or sue for the same; and moreover, in all such Cases, all such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, which shall be found in any such private Tan-yard, Work-house, Ware-house, House, Mill, or Place,

Place, or for which no such Entry shall be made, or that shall be so unlawfully removed, sent or carried away, contrary to this Act, or shall be fraudulently hid or concealed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons who will seize, inform, or sue for the same.

XVIII. And for the better Collection, receiving and levying of the said Rates and Duties upon the said several Kinds of Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, and upon Vellum and Parchment, by this Act severally charged as aforesaid; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who at any Time or Times, within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years, shall tan, taw, or dress any Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins whatsoever, chargeable by this Act, shall, at their several Yards or Places by them respectively used for drying the same, provide and keep, at their own Costs and Charges, sufficient and just Scales and Weights for weighing of all such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, which they respectively shall tan, taw, or dress, and for which the said Duties are to be paid by Weight as aforesaid; and that such and so many sworn Officers for the said Duties as shall be sufficient and necessary for the weighing the said Hides and Skins, and Pieces thereof, and performing such other Matters and Things as are to be performed by such Officer or Officers at every such Yard or Dressing-place, shall be appointed, and give due Attendance for that Purpose.

Tanners, &c. to keep Scales and Weights.

Sworn Officers to be appointed for weighing.

XIX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Tanner, Tawer, or Dresser of any such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, and every Maker of Vellum or Parchment, shall, from time to time, before any such Hides or Skins, Pieces of Hides or Skins, or such Vellum or Parchment shall be removed from his, her or their Yards, Work-houses, Places of dressing, drying, or keeping the same respectively, give Notice in Writing, by the Space of two Days, to the proper Officer or Officers for the said Duties, of all Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, and all such Vellum and Parchment, as he, she or they shall intend to remove, to the Intent that the Officers for the said Duties may ascertain the Duties payable for the same (for the giving of which Notice, he, she or they shall not be obliged to go further than the next Market Town) and every such Tanner or Dresser shall permit all such Hides or Skins, for which the Duties are to be charged and paid by Weight, to be weighed by the proper Officer or Officers at the Yard or Place where the same shall be dried or kept, before the same shall be removed as aforesaid, and shall bring or cause the same to be brought to the Scales, and assist in weighing thereof, and shall also permit the Officer for the said Duties to take an Account of the Numbers and Qualities of all such Skins and Hides, or Pieces of Skins and Hides, Vellum and Parchment, so intended to be removed, whereof the Duty is to be paid by Tale, and shall likewise ascertain the Value of all such Skins and Hides, or Pieces of Skins and Hides, so intended to be removed, whereof the Duty is to be charged and paid ad Valorem, by the Oath of the said respective Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, or Makers thereof as aforesaid: Which Oath any Justice of the Peace, for the said respective Officer or Officers, are hereby impowered to administer, before any such Skins or Hides, or Pieces of Skins or Hides, be removed from the Places of drying or keeping the same respectively.

Tanners, &c. to give Notice to the Officers two Days before Removal of Hides, &c.

and to permit and assist the Officer in weighing or telling the same, and to ascertain the Value.

XX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Duties of the said Skins and Hides, Pieces of Skins and Hides, Vellum and Parchment, so intended to be removed, shall be ascertained by Weight, Tale, or ad Valorem as aforesaid, the proper Officer or Officers for the said Duties shall fairly enter in a Book to be kept by him or them for that Purpose, the respective Weights, Tales, and Value of all such Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, whereof the Duties shall have been so ascertained as aforesaid, and shall make thereof a Return or Report in Writing to the respective Commissioners, or the Collectors, or other Persons by them appointed to receive the same, leaving a true Copy thereof under his Hand with the respective Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, and Makers of such Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment: Which Return or Report of the said Officer or Officers shall be a Charge upon the Tanners, Tawers, Dressers and Makers of such Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment respectively.

Officer to make a Return in Writing, see 5 Geo. 1. c. 3. §. 10.

and leave a Copy thereof, with the Tanner, &c.

XXI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Duty of the said Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, so intended to be removed, shall be ascertained by Weight, Tale, or ad Valorem as aforesaid, and an Entry made thereof in a Book to be kept by the said Officer or Officers as aforesaid, the said Officer or Officers who shall so have ascertained the same, shall cause every Hide or Skin, and every Piece of a Hide or Skin, and all Vellum and Parchment, whereof the Duty shall be so ascertained, to be marked with such Mark as this Act directs to be provided and used, to denote the charging of such Duty as aforesaid.

Officer to mark each Hide, &c.

XXII. Provided always, That in case any such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker of such Hides or Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum or Parchment, shall desire the said Mark to be made upon any particular Part thereof, then the Officer or Officers so appointed to mark the same, shall mark the same accordingly.

Officer to mark the Hide, &c. where Tanner, &c. desires.

XXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, and Makers of such Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, shall pay off and discharge all the Duties of the said Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, so marked as aforesaid, in Manner herein after mentioned (that is to say) Such of the said Duties as shall arise within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, to the Receiver of the said Duties at the Head Office of the said Commissioners, within fourteen Days after the same shall be marked as aforesaid; and such of the said Duties as shall arise and be payable in the other Parts of Great Britain, within six Weeks after the same shall be so marked and stamped as aforesaid, to the respective Collectors that shall be appointed to receive the same: And the Officers to be appointed for collecting and receiving the Duties hereby granted shall, and they are hereby required to give Receipts under their Hands gratis, and without delay, for all the Monies they shall, from time to time, receive, by virtue of this Act, to or for the Use of such Person or Persons as shall pay the same.

Persons in London, &c. to discharge the Duties in 14 Days, in any other Parts in 6 Weeks.

Payment to be made at the next Market Town.

XXIV. Provided always, That no Person or Persons shall be obliged, for the Payment of the said Duties, to go farther than the next Market Town to the respective Places where the same shall be so marked as aforesaid.

Penalty on Non-payment, double the Sum, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker of such Hides and Skins, Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, chargeable with the said Duties, who shall neglect or refuse to make such Payment as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence, double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so refused or neglected: And that no such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker, or other Person, after such Default made, shall send, deliver, or carry out any Hides or Skins, Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, until he, she or they have or hath paid and cleared off his, her or their Duty as aforesaid; on Pain to forfeit double the Value of such Hides or Skins, Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, so delivered or carried out.

Tanner not keeping just Scales, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker of any Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, chargeable by this Act, shall not at their respective Yards, or other Places for drying the same, keep just Scales and Weights, as this Act directs, or shall not permit his, her or their Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, which are to be weighed at such Yards or drying Places as aforesaid, to be there weighed; or neglect or refuse to bring the same to the Scales, or assist at the weighing of the same, as this Act requires; or if any Tanner, Tawer, or Dresser of Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, or any Maker of Vellum or Parchment chargeable by this Act, shall remove or convey, or cause or procure to be removed or conveyed from his, her or their Yard or drying Place, any of the said Hides and Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, or any such Vellum or Parchment, before the said Duties shall be fully charged by Weight, or Tale, or ad Valorem, as this Act in the said respective Cases doth require, and before the same Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, and such Vellum and Parchment respectively, shall be marked, to denote the charging of the Duty as this Act directs; or if any Buyer or Contractor shall take or carry away, or cause or procure to be carried away, from any such Yard or drying Place, any of the Kinds of Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, before the same shall be marked as this Act directs; that then and in every such Case, all and every such Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, Makers, Buyers, Contractors, or other Persons respectively, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety to him or them that will inform or sue for the same; and moreover, that all the Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, which shall be sold or removed, contrary to this Act, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any of her Majesty's Officers, for her Majesty's Use.

or before marking,

and the Buyer or Contractor, to forfeit 50l. and the Hides, &c. so removed.

Tanner, &c. to account with the proper Officer once in three Months,

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Tanner, Tawer and Dresser of any Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, and every Maker of Vellum and Parchment in Great Britain, shall once in every three Months at the least, make an Account with the proper Officer of every Division or District respectively, of and for all the Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, which such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker respectively, by himself, or any other, within the Time of every such Account, shall have taken out of the Wooze, Mill, Liquor, or Ingredients, used for tanning, tawing, steeping, dressing, or making the same, and of his Entries thereof with the Officer, and shall at the same Time balance the said Account, by Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, for which the Duty shall then have been charged as aforesaid, and by such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, then remaining in his Possession unmarked, for which the Duty shall not have been charged as aforesaid; which Account (if demanded) every such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker, shall truly and faithfully make, from time to time, under the Penalty of fifty Pounds, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform or sue for the same; and that every such Officer, upon the taking of every such Account, shall inform himself concerning the Truth or Falshood thereof, to the End and Purpose, that if such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, or Maker, shall have unlawfully conveyed away any of the said Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, contrary to this Act, or shall have defrauded her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any Part of the Duties hereby payable for the same, he may be proceeded against in such Manner and Form, and for such Penalties or Forfeitures, as are by this Act prescribed for such Offence.

on Penalty of 50l.

Collar-makers, &c. who dress Skins, to be accounted Tawers.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Collar-makers, Glovers, Bridle-cutters and others who dress any Skins or Hides, or Pieces of Skins or Hides, in Oil, Allom, and Salt, or Meal or with other Ingredients, and who cut and make the same into Wares, shall be accounted Tawers or Dressers within this Act, and shall be subject to such Rules and Directions, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures for securing the Duties of the Hides and Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, which they shall so dress, as are by this Act prescribed in that Behalf, and shall be charged with the Duties for the same (by Weight, Tale, or ad Valorem, as this Act in the respective Cases doth direct) before such Hides and Skins, or Pieces of Hides and Skins, shall be respectively cut or converted into made Wares.

XXIX. And whereas several Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, Curriers, Sellers of Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, Shoemakers, Coach-makers, Collar-makers, Bridle-cutters, Sadlers, Trunk-makers, Bottle-makers, Merchants, and other Dealers in Hides or Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed, and several Makers of Vellum and Parchment, Stationers, Book-binders, the Commissioners and Officers for the Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and other Traders or Dealers

Dealers in Vellum or Parchment respectively, have or may have, on the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, several Stocks or Quantities of such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, (not made into Wares) and several Stocks and Quantities of Vellum and Parchment, all which are respectively of the Produce of Great Britain, or imported into the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Tanner, Tawer, Dresser, Currier, Seller, Shoe-maker, Coach-maker, Trunk-maker, Bottle-maker, Merchant and other Dealer in such Hides or Skins, and all and every such Makers of Vellum and Parchment, Commissioners and Officers of the Stamp Duties, Stationers, Book-binders and other Traders and Dealers in Vellum and Parchment, having on the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons, for his, her or their Use, Benefit or Account, any Stock or Quantity of such Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, (not made into Wares) or any Stock or Quantity of Vellum or Parchment, within the Realm of Great Britain being for Sale, shall yield and pay to her Majesty for the same, so much Money as one half Part of the Rates or Duties by this Act imposed on the like respective Commodities to be tanned, tawed, dressed or made in Great Britain, or to be imported into the same after the Commencement of this Act, shall amount unto; the said half Part for the said Stocks to be paid within three Months after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven.

XXX. And to the end the said Stocks may be known and discovered, and the said Rates for the same may be ascertained and answered; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the said Tanners, and others before mentioned, shall deliver or cause to be delivered, on or before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven, to the proper Officer to be appointed in this Behalf, a particular in Writing, signed by themselves or their Appointments, of their several Stocks before-mentioned, describing the whole Quantities of each Kind as follows; that is to say, By the Weight and Tale of such of the said Commodities as are to be charged with the said Duty by Weight, and by the Tale of such of the said Commodities as are to be charged with the said Duties by Tale only, and by the Quantities and Values of such of the said Commodities in the said Stock, as are by this Act to pay Duty ad Valorem, and shall verify the said particular upon Oath, to the best of his Knowledge and Judgment; which Oath shall and may be administered by any Justice of the Peace, or by the Collector or Supervisor for the said Duties: And the said Officers to be appointed to this Purpose, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any Shops, Warehouses or other Places whatsoever, where any such Stock shall be or remain, there to view the same, and to take an Account thereof: And all and every the said Person or Persons chargeable as aforesaid, for their respective Stocks, shall be obliged, by Force and Virtue of this Act, if thereunto required, to permit and suffer the proper Officer to make such Entrance and View as aforesaid; and if any such Person or Persons shall refuse to permit or suffer such Officer to enter into their Shops, Warehouses or other Places, (if thereunto required) there to view the said Stock as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, then every such Person, for such Refusal, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform or sue for the same.

XXXI. And it is hereby enacted, That the Collector, upon the Receipt of any such Duties for Stock shall give a Receipt for the same gratis; and in case such Duties for Stock shall not be paid on or before the four and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, or if before that Time the same be not secured to be paid on or before the four and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, (which Security the proper Officers are hereby impowered to take by Bond in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use) then such Officer or Officers shall and may, by Virtue of this Act, levy such Duties for the said Stock that shall not be paid or secured, by Distress of the Good and Chattels of the Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, liable thereunto, and for Non-payment may sell such Distress within ten Days, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner, after Satisfaction of the Duty and Charges of the said Distress.

XXXII. Provided always, That if any such Person or Persons chargeable for such Stock, shall pay or cause to be paid, his or their Duties for the same, within the said Space of three Months, he, she or they shall be allowed for such prompt Payment, after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum for every Sum so advanced.

XXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Tanners, Tawers, Dressers, Curriers, Sellers, Shoe-makers, Coach-makers, Collar-makers, Bridle-cutters, Merchants, Trunk-makers, Bottle-makers, and other Dealers in Hides or Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, or any of the said Makers of Vellum and Parchment, Commissioners, Officers, Stationers, Book-binders, and other Traders or Dealers in Vellum and Parchment, having on the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons for his, her or their Use, Benefit or Account, any such Stock as aforesaid, shall neglect to give a Particular of the same in such Manner and Form as aforesaid, on or before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eleven, or shall wittingly or willingly omit or leave out of the same any Part of his, her or their said Stock, to the Intent to defraud her Majesty, or shall fraudulently remove, carry away or conceal his, her or their said Stock, or any Part thereof, before her Majesty's Duties thereupon shall be paid or secured as aforesaid; then and in every such Case, he, she or they so offending, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform or sue for the same; and in all and every such Case and Cases, the Stock or Quantity of Hides or Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, for which no such Particular shall have been given, or which shall be fraudulently omitted out of the same, or which shall be so concealed or carried away before her Majesty's Duties shall Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fee or Reward shall be had or taken by any of the said Officers, from any of the said Tanners, Tawers, Curriers, Dressers, Buyers or Sellers of Hides or Skins or others, for any Entries, Accounts, Permissions, Certificates, Marks or Receipts before in this Act mentioned, or any of them, under the Penalty of five Pounds to be forfeited to the Party grieved for every such Offence.

Two Justices
may hear and determine.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the Time being, residing near to the Place where any Forfeiture upon this Act shall be incurred, or any Offence against this Act shall be committed, in any wise relating to the said Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, chargeable by this Act, or any the Duties thereupon, or the Powers and Authorities hereby granted, or where any Offence shall be committed against the said recited Act of the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the First, to hear and determine the same: Which said Justices of the Peace, are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited, or Complaint made in that Behalf, within three Months after any Seizure made, or such Offence committed, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and upon the Appearance or Contempt of the Party accused, in not appearing, (upon Proof of Notice given) to proceed to the Examination of the Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer) and to give Judgment or Sentence accordingly; and where the Party accused shall be convicted of the Offence alledged against him, to award and issue Warrants under their Hands for the levying any Pecuniary Penalty or Penalties so adjudged, on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within six Days, rendering the Party the Overplus (if any): And if either Party shall find himself aggrieved, or remain unsatisfied in the Judgment of the said Justices, then he or they shall or may, by Virtue of this Act, complain or appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions for that County, Riding or Place, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same, and in case of Conviction, to issue Warrants for levying the Penalties as aforesaid.

1 Jac. 1. c. 22.

Appeal to Quarter-Sessions final.

Justices may mitigate Penalties.

XXXVII. Provided nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said respective Justices, where they shall see cause, to mitigate or lessen any such Penalties, in such Manner as they in their Discretion shall think fit, the reasonable Cost and Charges in the Officers, as well in making the Discovery as in the Prosecution of the same, being always allowed over and above such Mitigation, and so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Penalties to less than one fourth Part thereof, over and above the said Costs and Charges; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners to have the same Power as the Commissioners
of Excise.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That such Commissioners or Persons as shall be appointed in Pursuance of this Act to be the Commissioners for the said Duties upon Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain, shall and may have and exercise the same Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and shall and may adjudge, determine, mitigate, and order in all Cases and Matters relating to the said Duties on Hides and Skins, and Pieces thereof, tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain, and to the said Duties on Vellum and Parchment, made in Great Britain, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, may or lawfully can exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate or order, in the like Cases and Matters relating to the said Duties of Excise, by any Law or Statute now in Force.

XXXIX. And to the End that all and every Person and Persons, who shall export any Hides or Calveskins, tanned, tawed or dressed, which shall have been duly marked with such Mark or Stamp as aforesaid, denoting the charging of the Duty payable by this Act for the same as aforesaid, (any Hides or Calveskins, being Part of the said Stock in Hand always excepted) and that all and every Person and Persons, who shall export any Boots, Shoes, Gloves or other Manufactures, made of any Kind of Leather chargeable by this Act to pay a Duty by Weight, may respectively upon the Exportation of such Hides or Calveskins or any such made Wares as are last mentioned, receive such respective Allowances as are herein after expressed; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the shipping of any such Hides or Calveskins, (except before excepted) or any of the made Wares last mentioned, for Exportation into foreign Parts, and upon sufficient Security to be first given to the Customer or Collector of the Customs of the Port from whence such Exportation shall be made, (which Security they have hereby Power to take in the Name and to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors) that such Hides, Calveskins and such made Wares last before mentioned, so shipped or any Part thereof, shall not be re-landed or brought on Shore again, in any Port or Part of Great Britain, the said Customer or Collector shall give to the Exporter thereof a Certificate or Debenture in Writing of the Kinds and Quantities and Weight of the Hides, Calveskins, and such made Wares so exported, for which Security shall have been given as aforesaid.

On Exportation of Hides or Calveskins, or Leather Manufactures, on Security, &c. Customer, &c. to give the Exporter a Certificate of the Kinds, Quantities and Weight.

For the Drawback on tanned Leather exported, see 12 Annæ, Stat. 2. c. 9. §. 64.

XL. And it is hereby enacted, That upon producing such Certificate or Debenture for any Quantity of such Hides or Calve-skins so exported, to the Collector of the said Duties at the Port where the said Hides or Calve-skins shall be exported, in every such Case the same Collector shall forthwith, out of the Monies in his Hands for her Majesty's Use of the same Duties, and in Default thereof, then the Commissioners for the same Duties shall repay or cause to be repaid to the Person or Persons who shall produce such Certificate or Debenture from the said Customer or Collector of the Port aforesaid, two thirds of the Duties which were before charged for the said Hides or Calve-skins so exported or shipped to be exported as aforesaid, (such Hides and Calve-skins as shall have been charged as Stock in Hand as aforesaid, always excepted).

On producing such Certificate, Collector, &c. to repay two thirds of the Duties.

XLI. And it is hereby further enacted, That upon producing a Certificate or Debenture of the said Customer or Collector of such Port as aforesaid, of any Quantity of such Boots, Shoes, Gloves or such other Manufactures as are before described or mentioned, which shall be so shipped to be exported for foreign Parts, to the Commissioners who shall be appointed for the Management of the said Duties upon Leather, or to the Collector of the same Duties at the said Port of Exportation; in every such Case the said Commissioners or such Collector, shall out of the Monies which shall be in his or their Hands of the said Duties by this Act granted pay to the Person or Persons who shall bring such Certificate or Debenture of the said Customer or Collector of the Port, an Allowance after the Rate of two thirds of the Duty which by this Act was chargeable by Weight upon the Leather of which such Boots, Shoes, Gloves or other Manufactures shall have been made, although the Mark or Stamp to denote the charging or Payment of the Duty cannot or do not appear upon such made Wares respectively; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Such Repayment to be made, though the Mark to denote the charging of the Duty, do not appear on such made Wares.

XLII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Hides, Calve-skins, Boots, Shoes, Gloves or other Manufactures of Leather, shipped to be exported as aforesaid, shall be relanded or put on Shore again within Great Britain, the same and treble the Value thereof shall be forfeited, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majesty, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who will seize, inform or sue for the same.

Such Goods relanded, forfeited and treble the Value.

XLIII. Provided always, That no Wares made of Hides or Skins shall be entitled, by this Act, to any Drawback as made Wares, in respect only of their being curried or dressed by the Currier; any Thing in this or any former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Goods curried only, not entitled to a Drawback.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, shall on or before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, provide such and so many Marks or Stamps of the same Kind, with which all the Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins imported as aforesaid, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be markt or stamped, upon Payment of the Duties thereof as aforesaid; and shall cause the said Marks or Stamps to be distributed amongst the respective Officers of the Customs for that Purpose; and that the respective Commissioners to be appointed for managing the said Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain, and the said Duties upon Vellum and Parchment made in Great Britain, shall on or before the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven provide such and so many Marks or Stamps of one and the same Kind, (but differing from the Marks or Stamps last before mentioned) with which all the Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins tanned, tawed or dressed in Great Britain, and all the Vellum and Parchment made in Great Britain, during the Continuance of this Act, upon the charging of the said respective Duties for the same, shall be stamped and marked; and also so many Stamps and Marks of one other Kind, with which all the Stock of Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, and all Vellum and Parchment in Great Britain, on the said four and twentieth Day of June, upon Payment or securing the said Duties as aforesaid, shall be stamped and marked; and shall cause the said respective Marks or Stamps to be distributed to the respective Officers for the several Purposes before mentioned; which Officers are hereby enjoined and required in using the same, to do no Hurt or Damage, or the least Damage that may be, to the Hide or Skin, or the Piece of an Hide or Skin, or to the Vellum or Parchment to be so marked; and the said respective Commissioners, in providing the said respective Marks or Stamps, shall take Care that they be so contrived, that the Impression thereof may be durable, and so as the same may be least liable to be forged or counterfeited; and that the said Marks and Stamps or any of them, shall or may be altered or renewed, from Time to Time, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors shall think fit; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall at any Time or Times hereafter counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark, to resemble any Stamp or Mark which shall be provided or made in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same upon any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, or any Vellum or Parchment, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties hereby granted, or shall utter, vend or sell any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, Vellum or Parchment, with such counterfeit Mark or Impression thereupon, knowing such Mark or Impression to be counterfeited, then every such Person so offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

pointed a Commissioner as aforesaid, and to the said Officers respectively by any one of the said Commissioners, or by one Justice of the Peace, who shall give to the Officer a Certificate thereof gratis.

XLVI. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such small Pieces as have been commonly called Pates and Tails, and are tanned after they are cut off from the Hides, shall not be charged with the said Duty to be paid by Weight, but shall be chargeable with the said Duty of fifteen Pounds per Centum ad Valorem, to be paid before they be removed from the Place of drying or keeping the same; and that the Collector, upon receiving the said Duty ad Valorem, for such Pates and Tails, shall give an Acquittance expressing the Number thereof, without marking them or any of them; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLVII. Provided, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Bill, Complaint or Information shall be brought or sued forth in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, for any Offence against this Statute, touching or concerning the Duties hereby granted, for or upon any Hides or Skins, or Pieces of Hides or Skins, Vellum or Parchment, tanned, tawed, dressed, or made in Great Britain, in Cases where such Offences are by this Act cognizable by Justices of the Peace; nor shall any Certiorari be brought or allowed to remove any the Proceedings of the Justices of the Peace relating to the same Offences, or any Forfeitures or Penalties for the same, but that the Determination of the Justices of the Peace in the County where such Offence or Offences shall be committed, shall, in Manner and Form aforesaid, be final, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XLVIII. And to the End all the Rates and Duties by this Act granted for and upon such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum and Parchment, as are above-mentioned, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of raising and managing the said Duties, and otherwise in Execution of this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer, according to the true Meaning hereof; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for managing, raising, collecting, and paying the said Rates and Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, chargeable by this Act, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein shall perform their several Duties, in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect, relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last-mentioned.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commissioner, Officer, or other Person, concerned or employed in the charging, collecting, receiving, or managing any of the Duties granted by this Act, shall by Word, Message or Writing, or in any other Manner, endeavour to persuade any Elector to give, or dissuade any Elector from giving his Vote for his Choice of any Person to be a Knight of the Shire, Commissioner, Citizen, Burgess or Baron, for any County, City, Borough or Cinque Port; and every Officer or other Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offence shall be committed, to be recovered by any Person that shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in which no Essoin, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; and every Person convict on any such Suit shall thereby become disabled and incapable of ever bearing or executing any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever under her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors.

C A P. XII.

An Act for laying a Duty upon Hops.

MOST gracious Sovereign; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for the better enabling your Majesty to support the publick Credit, and for other your Majesty's most necessary Occasions, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty, such several and respective Duties, for and upon all Hops to be imported into Great Britain, and for and upon all Hops growing or to grow within the same, as are herein after mentioned, for and during the Term herein after expressed; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Hops which, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of four Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties imposed upon or payable for for the same) the Sum of three Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said Duty for and upon all imported Hops to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof before the landing of the same respectively; and for and upon all Hops growing or to grow in Great Britain, which at any Time or Times within or during the said Term of four Years shall be cured and made fit for Use, the Sum of one Penny for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said Duty for and upon the said Hops of the Growth of Great Britain, to be paid by the respective Owners or Possessors thereof, from time to time, within six Months after such Hops respectively shall be cured, and shall or ought to be put into Bags, as is herein after mentioned and required.

British Hops 1d. per Pound Weight.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said imported Hops shall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Custom-house, in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the said Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon, shall be duly paid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the same, first signed by the Commissioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively, that all such imported Hops, of what Kind soever as shall be so landed and put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, to wit; one Moiety of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform, or sue for the Hops so imported and forfeited, or the Value thereof, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by Action, Bill, Suit or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Imported Hops landed before Entry, &c. forfeited, or the Value.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon imported Hops by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, uplifted, levied, recovered, and answered, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Hops imported, or any of them, are by any Law or Statute now in force to be ascertained, secured, raised, uplifted, levied, recovered, or answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

How these Duties shall be levied.

IV. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Hops, as shall arise in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England for the time being; and such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Hops as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the Time being, shall, from time to time, pay or cause to be paid all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties for imported Hops (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are to be inflicted by this Act, for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for the Purposes herein after mentioned.

Hops imported to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs.

V. And for the better ascertaining, charging, collecting, levying, raising, uplifting, and securing the several Rates and Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Sorts of Hops of the Growth of Great Britain, which shall be cured, and which shall or ought to be bagged within or during the Term aforesaid, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and for preventing of Frauds concerning the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the same Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as are or shall be chargeable upon such Hops of the Growth of England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of Excise in England for the Time being; and such of the Duties as are imposed by this Act on Hops of the Growth of Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of Excise in Scotland for the Time being; and that all the Monies arising by the said Duties on Hops of the Growth of Great Britain (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities as are to be inflicted by this Act, for diverting or misapplying any the Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed, as is herein after mentioned.

British Hops to be under the Commissioners of Excise.

VI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who, on or before the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall have any Hops planted or growing within or upon any Ground whatsoever in Great Britain, for Sale or not for Sale, shall, on or before the same first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, give or send Notice in Writing under his, her or their Hands, at the Office of Excise next to the Place, or to the Officer for the said Duties of the District, where such Hops are or shall be planted or growing, of all the Hop Grounds then in his, her or their Possession, and of the Name or Names of the Parish, Township, or Place, Parishes, Townships, or Places, wherein the same do lie, and the Name or Names of the Owners, Tenants, or Occupiers thereof respectively; and that from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Hops, all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall plant or cause to be planted, or shall have growing any Hops upon any Ground whatsoever in Great Britain, for Sale or not for Sale, shall yearly, on or before the first Day of August in every Year, give or send like Notice of all the Hop Grounds wherein any Hops shall be growing in every such Year; and if any Person or Persons, who shall plant, or cause to be planted or grow, any Hops within or upon any Ground whatsoever in Great Britain, shall neglect to give or send such Notice in Writing, of his, her or their Hop Grounds as aforesaid, within such Time as is before-mentioned, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act; then and in every such Case, the Offender therein, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Shillings, for every Acre, by Estimation, of such Ground, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity.

VII. Provided always, That the Person or Persons who are to give such Notice as aforesaid, shall not be obliged, for the doing thereof, to go or send farther than the next Market Town to the Place where the said Hops shall be planted or growing; and the Officer who shall receive the said Notice shall, within five Days after such Notice shall be given or sent to him, from time to time, enter the same in a Book to be kept at the said next Office for that Purpose, upon Pain of forfeiting, for every Neglect therein, the Sum of forty Shillings to the Party whose Notice shall not be so entered.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, shall at any Time or Times, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Hops, make use of any Oust, Store-house, or other Place, or of any Kiln, for curing or keeping of Hops, chargeable with any the Duties aforesaid, unless Notice of such Oust, Store-house, Place, or Kiln, shall have been before given, or sent in Writing as aforesaid, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds for every Offence.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Hops as in any Year, during the Continuance of this Act, shall grow in Great Britain as aforesaid, shall by the respective Owners or Planters thereof, within six Weeks after the gathering or picking of the same, be brought to be cured and bagged at such Ousts, or other Places to be notified as aforesaid, and none other; upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Shillings for every Pound Weight of the said Hops, which shall not be so brought, cured and bagged, as aforesaid.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Planters or Owners of the said Hops to grow in Great Britain, or their Agents, before the bagging of the same, shall give or send Notice in Writing under his or their Hands to the next Office of Excise, or to the proper Officer for the said Duty, of the precise Day or Time on which he, she or they shall bag his, her or their Hops: Which Notice, as to such Hops as shall be bagged within the first Week after the Planter or Owner first begins to bag his Hops, shall be given or left at least four and twenty Hours before every Day's bagging of the same; and as to the Remainder of his Hops for that Year shall be given or left at least eight and forty Hours before every Day's bagging of the said Remainder, to the End some one or more of her Majesty's sworn Officers of Excise may (without his or their own wilful Neglect or Default) be present at the Bagging, Weighing, and Marking of the same, as are herein after prescribed, under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds for every Neglect or Default of any such Planter or Owner, in not giving or sending such Notice as aforesaid.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the proper Officer of Excise for the District in which the said Hops shall grow, or some other sworn Officer of Excise, by Appointment of the Commissioners of that Revenue, shall attend and be present at the Bagging of every Parcel of such Hops as aforesaid, and at the Weighing of the same, and shall cause the true Weight of every Bag or Pocket of the said Hops, great or small (such Tare of the Bag as is allowable by this Act only excepted) to be plainly and visibly marked in one or more Places upon every Bag of the said Hops; and shall then also cause an Entry of the said Weight (the Tare being abated) to be made in his Book, and shall thereof make Return or Report in Writing to the respective Commissioners of Excise, or such as they shall respectively appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy (if demanded) of such Report in Writing under his Hand, with or for such Planter or Owner respectively; and such Return or Report of the said Officer or Officers shall be a Charge upon the said Planters or Owners respectively; and if the said Officer or Officers shall refuse or neglect to give or leave a true Copy of such Report in Writing, with or for such Planters or Owners respectively, at the Time of taking such Account (upon Demand as aforesaid) every such Officer for such Offence shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds to every such Planter or Owner respectively.

XII. Provided always, That every Officer, who shall be empowered to make such Charge as aforesaid, shall, in the first Place, be sworn to the due and faithful Execution of his Office; and the Oath in that Behalf shall and may be administered by all or any of the Commissioners of Excise, or by any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace; who shall give to such Officer a Certificate thereof.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That an Allowance after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum, shall be made upon the Weight of every Bag or Pocket of the Hops to be weighed as aforesaid, great or small, for the Tare of the same Bag; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall be the Planters or Owners of the said Hops, shall, within six Months after the Time in which every Parcel of the said Hops shall or ought to be cured, bagged and weighed, as aforesaid, pay and clear off all the said Duties of Hops of the Growth of Great Britain, that shall be due from him, her and them respectively; and that all and every such Planters and Owners, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose to her Majesty, for every such Offence, double the Sum of the said Duty, whereof the Payment shall be so refused or neglected, that is to say, two third Parts of the said double Duties to the Use of the Queen, and the other third Part to the Use of the Informer or Prosecutor.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers of the said Duty, shall at all Times, by Day or by Night, and (if in the Night) then in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, be permitted, upon his or their Request, to enter into the Oust, Store-house, or other Place, made use of by any Person or Persons, within or during the said Term, for the Growing, Curing or Keeping of Hops, whereof such Notice shall or ought to have been given as aforesaid, in order to his viewing the same, and discovering any Frauds in Relation to her Majesty's Duties thereupon; and if any Planter or Owner of Hops shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this Act, for the ascertaining and securing the said Duties upon Hops, the Person or Persons offending therein, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Officer may enter any Oust, &c. to view, &c. on Pain of 20l.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Planter or Owner of Hops, after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Hops, shall (under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds for every Offence) remove, carry or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried or sent away, from his, her or their Oust, Store-house, or other Place (whereof Notice shall or ought to be given as aforesaid) any Hops chargeable with the Duty by this Act imposed, until the same shall have been cured, bagged and weighed, and the Duties thereof shall be ascertained according to the true Meaning of this Act, unless in such Cases where the Officers of the said Duties (having due Notice first given or left as aforesaid) shall nevertheless neglect to attend the Bagging and Weighing of the same.

Hops not to be removed before the Duty is ascertained, on Pain of 50l.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Planters or Owners of Hops shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause or procure to be hid or concealed, any Hops chargeable by this Act, to the Intent to deceive her Majesty of the just Duties by this Act granted; that then, and in every such Case, the Party so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, and all the Hops so concealed and hid, to her Majesty's Use.

Fraudulently concealing forfeits 20l. &c.

XVIII. And whereas great Numbers of poor and indigent Persons are commonly employed in the gathering and picking of Hops, who may clandestinely carry off, and convey such Hops from the Places where they gather and pick the same, and thereby defraud her Majesty of the Duties hereby granted, without the Privy or Consent of the Proprietor of such Hops: For Prevention whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Picker or Gatherer of Hops, or any other Person or Persons, shall privately carry off, or convey any Hops from the Place of growing, or the Place where the same shall be put in Order to be cured, bagged, and weighed, with an Intent to defraud her Majesty of her said Duties, and the Owner of the said Hops; then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons offending therein shall forfeit and lose the Sum of five Shillings for every Pound of Hops so clandestinely carried off and conveyed; and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of the said Duties, not only to seize the Hops so clandestinely carried off and conveyed, but also to apprehend the said Offender or Offenders, and carry him or them before one of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such Offence shall be committed; and in case the said Offence shall be proved before the said Justice of the Peace, and the Offender or Offenders shall not forthwith pay down the Penalties by this Act imposed on such Offender or Offenders, for the Offences so proved on him, her or them respectively as aforesaid, and no sufficient Distress can be found to levy the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice of the Peace to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding one Month; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers for the said Duties, in the Execution of his or their Offices, or the Powers given them by this Act, or shall beat or abuse the said Officers, or any of them, in the Execution of his or their Offices, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of five Pounds; and in Default of Distress, whereby to levy the same, it shall and may be lawful for any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, upon due Proof of such Offence, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding one Month.

Picker of Hops carrying off any such Hops forfeits 5s. per lb. or sent to hard Labour for a Month.

Persons obstructing Officer forfeits 5l. or sent to hard Labour for a Month.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, That all the Hops in the Custody of any Planter or Owner of Hops, or any other Person or Persons, to the Use of, or in Trust for such Planter or Owner, shall be liable and subject to, and are hereby made chargeable with all the Debts and Duties for Hops in arrear and owing by such Planter or Owner respectively, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Planter or Owner, for any Offence against this Act; and that it shall and may be lawful in all such Cases to levy Debts and Penalties, and use such Proceedings as may lawfully be done by this Act, in case the Debtor or Offender were the true and lawful Owner of the same.

Hops chargeable with all Duties in Arrear, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Hops, whether Foreign or of British Growth, which any Hop Merchant, or other Sellers and Dealers, Factors in Hops, or common Brewers in Great Britain, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her or them, or for his, her or their Use, shall be possessed of, or interested in, upon the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, there shall be yielded and paid to her Majesty the like respective Rates as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Hops imported or grown in Great Britain, after the said first Day of June; and that all and every the said Hop Merchants, Sellers and Dealers, Factors in Hops, common Brewers, and all and every other Person or Persons, who in Trust for them or any of them, or for the Use of them or any of them, shall be possessed of, or have in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in his, her or their Oust, Store-house, Ware-house, or other Place or Places whatsoever, upon the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, any Stock, Parcel or Quantity of Hops whatsoever, for Sale, shall on or before the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, make a true and particular Entry thereof at the Excise Office within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, habit, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, and the said Hops, for which no such Entry shall have been made; and within six Days after he, she or they shall have made or ought to have made such Entries as aforesaid, shall pay down the Duties hereby payable for such Hops, or within six Days shall give Security to the proper Officers, for paying the same Duties to her Majesty's Use within three Months then next ensuing; and in case the said Duties for such Stock of Hops be paid down within the said six Days, then there shall be allowed out of the same Duties for such prompt Payment an Allowance after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Time of three Months; and that all and every such Hop Merchant, Sellers, and Dealers in Hops, Factors and Common Brewers, who shall refuse or Neglect to make such Payment, or to give such Security for Payment of the said Duties for his, her or their said Stock of Hops, within the Time by this Act limited for that Purpose, shall forfeit double the Sum of the said Duty which should have been so paid or secured by him, her or them as aforesaid; and that the proper Officers of the said Duties shall be permitted to take a true and particular Account of all such Stock or Quantity of Hops, as any such Hop Merchant, or other Sellers or Dealers in Hops, Factors, common Brewers, or any in Trust for them, shall, on the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, have or be possessed of, by weighing the same on the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, or afterwards, at any Time before the Duty last mentioned shall be paid or secured; upon pain of forfeiting twenty Pounds, and the Value of the Hops whereof the Officers shall not be permitted to take an Account as aforesaid; and if any Person or Persons, having on the said first Day of June in his, her or their Custody and Possession, any Stock or Quantity of Hops, chargeable by this Act with the said Duty for Stock as aforesaid, shall clandestinely remove or carry away, or cause or suffer to be removed or carried away, the same or any Part thereof, before her Majesty's Duties thereupon shall be paid or secured as aforesaid, or shall fraudulently conceal or Hide any Part of his, her or their said Stock of Hops; that then, and in every such Case, he, she or they so offending, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in all and every such Case and Cases, the Stock or Quantity of Hops, which shall be so clandestinely removed or carried away, or fraudulently concealed or hid, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any of the Officers for the said Duties; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody such Stock of Hops shall be found, who shall not, before the Discovery thereof, give Notice at the next Office of Excise, of the Stock or Quantity of Hops so in his, her or their Custody, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Shillings for every Pound Weight.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesty's Duties, by this Act payable for any Quantity of Hops, whatsoever of British Growth, and to and for any other Person or Persons who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Hops of British Growth, from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesty's Duties for the same, to export such Hops, being of British Growth, for Ireland, by Way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantity of Hops, which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same, or any Part thereof, shall not be re-landed or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customer or Collector of the respective Ports for such Exportation is hereby directed and authorized to take in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use: Provided always, That if after the shipping of any such Hops to be exported as aforesaid, and the giving or tendering such Security in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the Hops so shipped to be exported, or any of them, shall be re-landed in any Part of Great Britain, then, and in every such Case, over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesty's Use, all the Hops which shall be so landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

XXII. And it is also hereby enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any Hops of British Growth to or for Ireland, shall or may make Oath that he believes the same Hops are all of British Growth, without any Mixture of Foreign Hops, that the Duty of such Hops hath been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath the Collector, who received the said Duty, is hereby required and impowered to administer) and thereupon the said Collector for the same Duties upon Hops shall give to such Person or Persons gratis, a Certificate or Certificates, expressing the Kinds and Quantities of such Hops, and the Duties paid, or secured to be paid for the same, pursuant to this Act; which Certificate being produced to the Customer or Collector of the Port where the said Hops shall be exported, and Oath being also made by the Exporter before the said Customer or Collector of the Port (who is hereby also authorized and required to administer the same without Fee or Charge) that the Hops so exported are the same mentioned in the said Certificate, then the said Customer or Collector shall give to the Exporter a Debenture, expressing the true Quantity of the British Hops so exported; which Debenture being produced to the Collector appointed to receive the said Duty upon Hops in such County or Place where the said Hops did pay Duty, he shall forthwith repay the said Duty which he shall have received upon this Act to the Persons, or their Agents, so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay the same, then the said respective Commissioners of Excise are hereby required to pay the said Debenture out of the Duties upon Hops, arising by this Act; or if the Duty on such Hops so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the said Duties shall be discharged upon the Securities for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, That no Person whatsoever shall, during the Continuance of this Act, take any Hops of Foreign Growth out of the Bags in which they are imported, and rebag the same in British Bagging, in order to sell, dispose, or export the same as British Hops, under the Penalty of ten Pounds for every hundred Weight, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and if any Person son or Persons shall endeavour to defraud her Majesty of her Duties hereby granted, by using twice, or oftner, the same Bag, with the Officers mark thereupon, such Person or Persons, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of forty Pounds.

‘XXIV. And in Regard it is found by Experience, That Hops used in the making of Malt-Drinks are more wholesome for those that drink or consume the same, and of greater Advantage to the Drink itself, than any other bitter Ingredient that can be used instead thereof,’ It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of this Act, no common Brewer, Inn-keeper, or Victualler, shall use any Broom, Wormwood, or any other bitter Ingredient (to serve instead of Hops) in brewing or making any Beer or Ale to be brewed or made by him, her or them, for Sale in any Part of Great Britain, under the Penalty of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence; the infusing of Broom or Wormwood into Beer or Ale, by the Retailer, after the same is brewed and tunned, to make the same Broom or Wormwood Ale, or Broom or Wormwood Beer, always excepted.

Brewer, &c. not to use room, &c. on Pain of 20 l.

Exception.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Method, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law in Force relating to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, settled or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering and paying the said Duties upon Hops hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Powers, &c. in 12 Car. 2. c. 24. and other Laws of Excise, to be in Force.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, in Relation to the said Duties by this Act imposed on Hops, except in such Cases where other Provisions are made by this Act, shall and may be sued for, levied and recovered, or mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty and Forfeiture, is or may be recovered or mitigated, by any Laws of Excise now in Force, and not by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty and Forfeiture (unless in Cases otherwise prescribed by this Act) shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Fines, &c. how recoverable.

‘XXVII. And in Regard the Growth of Hops, in several Parts of Great Britain, is very much increased of late Years,’ It is hereby further provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That none of the Duties by this or any former Act granted upon any Hops whatsoever, (except Hops of British Growth) shall be repaid or drawn back upon the Exportation thereof for Ireland; and that no Person or Persons whatsoever shall import or cause to be imported into the said Kingdom of Ireland from Flanders or any other Parts whatsoever (other than from Great Britain) any Hops whatsoever, upon Pain of forfeiting all the Hops which shall be so imported into Ireland, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or the Value of the same, and also of the Ship or Vessel in which they shall be so imported, with her Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, that is to say, two third Parts thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish in Ireland, where such Hops shall be seized or discovered, and the other third Part thereof to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform or sue for the same, or for the Value thereof, in any her Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin in the said Kingdom of Ireland. And it is hereby declared, That the Importation of any Foreign Hops into Ireland (other than from Great Britain) contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, is and shall be adjudged a common Nuisance.

No Drawback on Foreign Hops for Ireland.

Hops imported from Fladers, &c. to Ireland, forfeited, and the Ship, &c. What is to be done before Hops are landed in Ireland.

1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 12. §. 6.

‘XXVIII. And whereas standing Contracts may have been made before the ninth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eleven, by Planters, Hop-Merchants, Dry Salters, and other Dealers in Hops, for serving of Hops to certain Persons or Societies in Great Britain, to be delivered in Point of Time after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven;’ It is hereby enacted, That the Person serving such Hops, after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, in Pursuance of such former Contracts, shall be allowed to add the Duties hereby charged upon such Hops to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

On Contracts before 9 May 1711. Planter may add the Duty to the Price.

XXIX. And to the End all the Monies arising by the Duties on Hops hereby granted (the necessary Charges of raising, paying, and accounting for the same, only excepted) may be duly and certainly raised and brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer; It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for the raising, paying and accounting for the said Duties; and that the same Officers respectively shall perform their several Duties therein, as to them shall respectively appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the said Monies, as are prescribed and to be inflicted, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties upon Salt, Commissioners, Officers, &c. liable to the Act 9 W. 3. c. 44.

Salt, and upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

180,000 l. may be borrowed on this Act at 6 l.
per Cent. Tax-free.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person and Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend to her Majesty, at the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, upon the Credit of the said several Rates, Duties and Sums of Money, by this Act granted, and to be raised in the several Parts of Great Britain as aforesaid, any Sums which shall not exceed in the whole the Sum of one hundred and eighty thousand Pounds, and to have and receive, for the Forbearance thereof, Interest after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum; and moreover, that no Money to be lent upon the Security of this Act, shall be rated or assessed, by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of Parliament whatsoever.

Lenders to have Tallies and Orders,

XXXI. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons, who shall lend any Money upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the same into the Receipt of the Exchequer, shall immediately have a Tally of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his, her or their Repayment, bearing the same Date with his, her or their Tallies; in or upon which Order shall be also contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for the Forbearance thereof, at the Rate aforesaid, to be paid every three Months until Repayment of the Principal; and that all such Orders for Repayment of Money to be lent, shall be registred in Course, according to the Dates respectively, without other Preference of one before another; and that all and every Person and Persons shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registred in the said Register Books, so as the said Person, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Administrators or Assigns, who shall have his Order or Orders first entred in the said respective Books of Register, shall be taken and accounted the first Person to be paid out of the Monies to come in by Virtue of this Act; and he or they who shall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively and in Course; and that the Monies to come in by this Act, of or for the said several Rates, Duties and Sums of Money to be raised in Great Britain as aforesaid, shall be in the same Order, liable to the Satisfaction of the Monies to be lent as aforesaid, to the respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns respectively, without undue Preference of one before another and not otherwise; and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any her Majesty's Subjects, for providing or making of any such Books or Registers, or any Entries, Views or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Interest thereof as aforesaid, by any of her Majesty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party aggrieved, by the Party offending, with treble Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take or demand any such Fee or Reward, then to lose his Place also; and if any undue Preference of one before another shall be made, either in Point of Registry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable by Action of Debt or on the Case, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Costs, to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged of his Office or Place; and if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Directions or Privy of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages and Costs, and shall for ever be incapable of his Place or Office; and in case the Auditor of the Receipt shall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment according to each Person's due Place or Order as before directed, then he or they shall be adjudged to forfeit, and the respective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages and Costs in such Manner as aforesaid; all which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Costs, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any other Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Restraint, shall be in any wise granted or allowed.

No undue Preference.

Tallies dated the same Day, no undue Preference:

XXXII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that several Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Repayment as aforesaid, bear Date, or be brought the same Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be registred, then it shall be interpreted no undue Preference which of those be entred first, so as he enters them all the same Day.

Nor if subsequent Orders be paid before such as were not demanded in Course.

XXXIII. Provided also, That it shall not be interpreted any due Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay subsequent Orders of Persons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Persons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Course, so as there be so much Money reserved as will satisfy precedent Orders; which shall not be otherwise disposed, but kept for them; Interest upon Loan being to cease from the Time the Money is so reserved and kept in Bank for them.

Orders assigna-
ble.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, to whom any Money shall be due for Loans, to be registred by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Register as aforesaid, his Executors, Administrators or Assigns, by proper Words of Assignment, to be endorsed and written upon his Order, may assign or transfer his Right, Title, Interest and Benefit of such Order or any Part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforesaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof also made in the Book of Registry aforesaid, for Orders which the Officers shall upon Request, without Fee or Charge accordingly make, shall entitle such Assignee, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon; and such Assignee may in like Manner assign again, and so toties quoties, and afterwards it shall not be in the Power of such Person or Persons who have or hath made any such Assignments, to make void, release and discharge the same, or any the Monies thereby due or any Part thereof.

An Act for the taking, examining and stating the publick Accounts of the Kingdom.

‘ WHEREAS many Aids and Provisions have been raised and assigned for the necessary Defence of your Majesty and these Kingdoms, in this great and important War, and for the Support of the Government; to the end therefore, that both your Majesty and this whole Kingdom may be satisfied, and truly informed that the same have been applied to the Uses and Purposes for which they were given and granted;’ May it please your most Excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c. E X P.

C A P. XIV.

An Act for the better preventing of excessive and deceitful Gaming.

‘ WHEREAS the Laws now in Force for preventing the Mischiefs which may happen by Gaming, have not been found sufficient for that Purpose;’ Therefore for the further preventing of all excessive and deceitful Gaming, be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eleven, all Notes, Bills, Bonds, Judgments, Mortgages or other Securities or Conveyances whatsoever, given, granted, drawn or entred into, or executed by any Person or Persons whatsoever, where the whole or any Part of the Consideration of such Conveyances or Securities, shall be for any Money, or other valuable Thing whatsoever, won by gaming or playing at Cards, Dice, Tables, Tennis, Bowls or other Game or Games whatsoever, or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do game at any of the Games aforesaid, or for the reimbursing or repaying any Money knowingly lent, or advanced for such gaming or betting as aforesaid, or lent or advanced at the Time and Place of such Play, to any Person or Persons so gaming or betting as aforesaid, or that shall, during such Play, so play or bett, shall be utterly void, frustrate, and of none Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Statute, Law, or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; and that where such Mortgages, Securities or other Conveyances, shall be of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or shall be such as incumber or affect the same, such Mortgages, Securities or other Conveyances, shall enure and be to and for the sole Use and Benefit of, and shall devolve upon such Person or Persons as should or might have, or be intitled to such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in case the said Grantor or Grantors thereof, or the Person or Persons so incumbering the same, had been naturally dead, and as if such Mortgages, Securities or other Conveyances, had been made to such Person or Persons so to be intitled after the decease of the Person or Persons so incumbering the same; and that all Grants or Conveyances to be made for the preventing of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, from coming to or devolving upon such Person or Persons hereby intended to enjoy the same as aforesaid, shall be deemed fraudulent and void, and of none Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

33 H. 8. c. 9. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 9. 16 Car. 2. c. 7. After 1 May 1711. all Notes, &c. Mortgages, &c. where the Consideration is for Money won by gaming, or for Repayment of Money lent at such gaming, &c. shall be void. And where such Mortgages, &c. shall incumber any Lands, &c. they shall devolve to such Person as should have been intitled to them, in case such Grantor had been dead, &c. And all Conveyances to hinder such Lands from devolving, &c. shall be void.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eleven, any Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall at any Time or Sitting, by playing at Cards, Dice, Tables or other Game or Games whatsoever, or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do play at any of the Games aforesaid, lose to any one or more Person or Persons so playing or betting in the whole, the Sum or Value of ten Pounds, and shall pay or deliver the same or any Part thereof, the Person or Persons, so losing and paying or delivering the same, shall be at Liberty within three Months then next, to sue for and recover the Money or Goods so lost, and paid or delivered or any Part thereof, from the respective Winner and Winners thereof, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt founded on this Act, to be prosecuted in any of her Majesty’s Courts of Record, in which Actions or Suits no Effoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; in which Actions it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to alledge, that the Defendant or Defendants are indebted to the Plaintiff, or received to the Plaintiff’s Use, the Monies so lost and paid, or converted the Goods won of the Plaintiff to the Defendant’s Use, whereby the Plaintiff’s Action accrued to him, according to the Form of this Statute, without setting forth the Special Matter; and in case the Person or Persons who shall lose such Money or other Thing as aforesaid, shall not within the Time aforesaid, really and bona fide, and without Covin or Collusion, sue, and with Effect prosecute for the Money or other Thing, so by him or them lost, and paid or delivered as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, by any such Action or Suit as aforesaid, to sue for and recover the same, and treble the Value thereof, with Costs of Suit, against such Winner or Winners as aforesaid; the one Moiety thereof to the Use of the Person or Persons that will sue for the same, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed.

The Loser of 10 l. at Cards, &c. may sue for the Money within three Months.

And if the Losers do not sue, &c. any other Person may;

and recover with treble Value; one Moiety to the Informer, the other to the Poor.

III. And for the better Discovery of the Monies or other Thing so won, and to be sued for and recovered as aforesaid, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Person or Persons, who by Virtue of this present Act shall or may be liable to be sued for the same, shall be obliged

The Person sued shall answer upon Oath, to discover the Money won.

The Person who shall so discover and repay, shall be indemnified from further Punishment.

Any Person winning by Fraud, &c. above 10*l*. at one Sitting, and convicted thereof on Indictment, &c. shall forfeit 5 Times the Value, be deemed infamous, and suffer as in Cases of wilful Perjury.

Two Justices may cause Persons who have no visible Estate, &c. to be brought before them, and unless they make it appear that they do not maintain themselves by Gaming, shall find Sureties for their good Behaviour for 12 Months or be committed.

Persons so finding Sureties and playing for 20*s*. during the Time, shall forfeit their Recognizance.

Assaulting, &c. on Account of Money won at Play, to forfeit all his Goods, and be imprisoned two Years.

This Act shall not extend to prevent Gaming in any of the Queen's Palaces during her Residence there, &c.

Farther Provisions concerning Gaming, 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. sect. 9. 10 Geo. 2. c. 19. 10 Geo. 2. c. 28. 12 Geo. 2. c. 28. 13 Geo. 2. c. 34. 25 Geo. 2. c. 36. 30 Geo. 2. c. 24.

obliged and compellable to answer upon Oath such Bill or Bills as shall be preferred against him or them, for discovering the Sum and Sums of Money, or other Thing so won at Play as aforesaid.

IV. Provided always, and be it nevertheless enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Discovery and Repayment of the Money, or other Thing so to be discovered and repaid as aforesaid, the Person or Persons who shall so discover and repay the same as aforesaid, shall be acquitted, indemnified and discharged from any further or other Punishment, Forfeiture or Penalty, which he or they may have incurred by the playing for, or winning such Money or other Thing so discovered and repaid as aforesaid; any former or other Statute, Law or Usage, or any thing in this present Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, at any Time or Times, after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eleven, do or shall, by any Fraud or Shift, Cousenage, Circumvention, Deceit or unlawful Device or ill Practice whatsoever, in playing at or with Cards, Dice or any the Games aforesaid, or in or by bearing a Share or Part in the Stakes, Wagers or Adventures, or in or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do or shall play as aforesaid, win, obtain or acquire to him or themselves, or to any other or others, any Sum or Sums of Money or other valuable Thing or Things whatsoever, or shall at any one Time or Sitting, win of any one or more Person or Persons whatsoever, above the Sum or Value of ten Pounds; that then every Person or Persons so winning by such ill Practice as aforesaid, or winning at any one Time or Sitting above the said Sum or Value of ten Pounds, and being convicted of any of the said Offences, upon an Indictment or Information to be exhibited against him or them for that Purpose, shall forfeit five Times the Value of the Sum or Sums of Money, or other Thing so won as aforesaid; and in case of such ill Practice as aforesaid, shall be deemed infamous, and suffer such Corporal Punishment, as in Cases of wilful Perjury; and such Penalty to be recovered by such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same by such Action as aforesaid.

VI. And whereas divers leud and dissolute Persons, live at great Expences, having no visible Estate, Profession or Calling to maintain themselves, but support those Expences by Gaming only; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any two or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in any County, City or Liberty whatsoever, to cause to come or to be brought before them, every such Person or Persons within their respective Limits, whom they shall have just Cause to suspect to have no visible Estate, Profession or Calling to maintain themselves by, but do for the most part support themselves by Gaming; and if such Person or Persons shall not make it appear to such Justices, that the Principal Part of his or their Expences is not maintained by Gaming, that then such Justices shall require of him or them sufficient Securities for his or their good Behaviour for the Space of twelve Months; and in Default of his or their finding such Securities, to commit him or them to the common Gaol, there to remain until he or they shall find such Securities as aforesaid.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Person or Persons so finding Sureties as aforesaid, shall, during the Time for which he or they shall be so bound to the good Behaviour, at any one Time or Sitting, play or bett for any Sum or Sums of Money or other Thing, exceeding in the whole the Sum or Value of twenty Shillings, that then such Playing shall be deemed or taken to be a Breach of his or their Behaviour, and a Forfeiture of the Recognizance given for the same.

VIII. And for the preventing of such Quarrels as shall and may happen upon the Account of Gaming; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall assault and beat, or shall challenge or provoke to fight any other Person or Persons whatsoever, upon Account of any Money won by gaming, playing or betting at any of the Games aforesaid, such Person or Persons assaulting and beating, or challenging or provoking to fight such other Person or Persons upon the Account aforesaid, shall being thereof convicted upon an Indictment or Information to be exhibited against him or them for that Purpose, forfeit to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, all his Goods, Chattels and Personal Estate whatsoever, and shall also suffer Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize, in the common Gaol of the County where such Conviction shall be had during the Term of two Years.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent or hinder any Person or Persons from gaming or playing at any of the Games aforesaid, within any of her Majesty's Palaces of St. James or Whitehall, during such Time as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall be actually resident at either of the said two Palaces, or in any other Royal Palaces, where her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall be actually resident, during the Time of such actual Residence, so as such Playing be not in any House, Lodging, or other Part of any of the said Palaces, the Freehold or Inheritance whereof is or shall be out of the Crown, or is or shall be in Lease to any Person or Persons, during such Time as such Freehold and Inheritance shall be out of the Crown, or such Lease shall continue, and so as such Playing be for ready Money only.

An Act to make an Attempt on the Life of a Privy Counsellor, in the Execution of his Office, to be Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

3 Hen. 7. c. 14.

WHEREAS Anthony de Guiscard, commonly called Marquis de Guiscard, a French Papist, residing in England under her Majesty's Protection, and subsisted by her Majesty's Bounty for some Years past, was charged with holding a traitorous Correspondence with France, and being taken into Custody for such his Treason by Nathan Wilcocks, of the Parish of St. James Westminster in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, one of her Majesty's Messengers in Ordinary, by virtue of a Warrant of the Right Honourable Henry Saint John Esquire, one of her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and on the eighth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, being under Examination before a Committee of her Majesty's most honourable Privy Council for the same, perceiving his said Treason to have been fully detected, being conscious of his Guilt, and dreading the Pain and Infamy of his approaching Punishment, in Hopes of preventing the same, and in Revenge for the Discovery of the said Offence, did, with a Penknife, in a barbarous and villainous Manner, stab the Right Honourable Robert Harley Esquire, Chancellor of her Majesty's Exchequer, and one of her Majesty's Privy Council, then present, and assisting in that Committee, and endeavoured to wound others of her Majesty's Privy Council there: And whereas in the preventing further Mischief from the Rage of the said Anthony de Guiscard, and in apprehending and securing him, he the said Anthony de Guiscard was necessarily and unavoidably bruised and wounded, and is since dead in the Prison of Newgate in the City of London: And whereas no sufficient Punishment is provided for assaulting or wounding a Privy Counsellor in the Execution of his Office, by any Law now in Being; To the end that all Persons may be deterred from committing such Offences, and for preventing the like Mischiefs for the Time to come; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall unlawfully attempt to kill, or shall unlawfully assault and strike or wound any Person, being one of the most honourable Privy Council of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, when in the Execution of his Office of a Privy Counsellor in Council, or in any Committee of Council, that then the Person or Persons so offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be and are hereby declared to be Felons, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without the Benefit of Clergy.

After 1 May 1711. whoever shall attempt to kill, &c. a Privy Counsellor in the Execution of his Office, declared a Felon, and shall suffer Death as such without Clergy.

Nathan Wilcocks, &c. saved harmless.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Nathan Wilcocks (who by an Inquisition taken the seventeenth Day of the said Month of March, before George Rivers Esquire, Coroner of the said City of London, on View of the Body of the said Anthony de Guiscard, then and there lying dead) is found to have given him the said Anthony de Guiscard several mortal Bruises of which he died, and all and every every other Person and Persons, who were assisting in the Defence of the said Robert Harley, and in the apprehending and securing the said Anthony de Guiscard, and did, in so doing, assault, bruise, or wound the said Anthony de Guiscard, shall be, and are hereby indemnified and saved harmless therefore; and such their Actings and Doings are hereby declared to have been necessary and lawful.

C A P. XVII.

An Act for the Preservation of White and other Pine Trees growing in her Majesty's Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, and Connecticut, in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, for the Masting her Majesty's Navy.

WHEREAS there are great Numbers of White or other Sort of Pine Trees, fit for Masts, growing in her Majesty's Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, and Connecticut, in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, fit for the Masting her Majesty's Royal Navy: And whereas the same growing near the Sea, and on navigable Rivers, may commodiously be brought into this Kingdom for the Service aforesaid: Wherefore, for the better Preservation thereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, no Person or Persons within the said Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, Connecticut in New England, and New York and New Jersey, or any of them, do or shall presume to cut, fell, or destroy any White or other Sort of Pine Tree fit for Masts, not being the Property of any private Person, such Tree being of the Growth of twenty-four Inches Diameter and upwards at twelve Inches from the Earth, without her Majesty's Licence for so doing first had and obtained; on the Penalty or Forfeiture of one hundred Pounds Sterling for every such Offence, on Proof thereof to be made by one or more credible Witnesses on Oath before one of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace there, within or nearest to such Place where such Offence shall be committed; one Moiety of such Penalty or Forfeiture to be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the other Moiety to the Informer who shall sue for the same within six Months, to be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice of the Peace.

II. And whereas the Surveyor General of her Majesty's Woods in those Parts is, by himself or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, by her Majesty's Commission, authorized and directed to mark with the broad Arrow all such Trees as now are, or hereafter shall be fit and proper to be taken for the Use of her Majesty's Royal Navy, and to keep a Register for the same, thereby to prevent the Destruction of such Trees: And whereas several Persons, not lawfully thereto authorized, as aforesaid, have presumed to mark such Trees with the broad Arrow, thereby to deter others her Majesty's good Subjects from getting Logs for Lumber and other Uses, and to make to themselves a Property in such Trees, though growing on common Lands; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, no Person or Persons within the said Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, Connecticut in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, or any of them, other than the said Surveyor General for the time being, his Deputy or Deputies, or such Person as shall be authorized thereto by Warrant under the said Surveyor General's Hand, do or shall presume to mark any such White or other Sort of Pine Trees, with the broad Arrow, on the Penalty or Forfeiture of five Pounds Sterling for every such Offence, to be recovered and levied in such Manner, and on such Proof, and to be distributed, as aforesaid; any thing herein before, or in any former Act, contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

at any one Time travel, be drawn, or go in any common or publick Highway or Road with above six Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, except up Hills, upon Pain that every Owner of such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Pounds; one Moiety whereof shall be to the Surveyors of the Highways of the Town, Village, Hamlet, or Place, where any of the said Offences shall be committed, to be employed in the Repairs of the said Highways, and the other Moiety thereof to him that shall discover and prosecute for any of the said Offences, (provided such Discoverer or Prosecutor be an Inhabitant of such Town, Village, or Place) the said Penalty to be levied by Distress of all or any the said Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one Justice of the Peace: And whereas the restraining the Discovery and Prosecution of the said Offence, to an Inhabitant of the Town or Place where the Offence shall be committed, and the said Penalties being appointed to be levied by Distress of the said Horses, Oxen, or Beasts only, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one Justice of the Peace, do render the said Act in a great Measure ineffectual; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, to seize or distrain any or all of the Horses, Oxen, or Beasts of any Person or Persons offending against the said Act, by drawing with more than six Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, and forthwith to deliver the said Horses, Oxen, or Beasts so seized and distrained to the Surveyor of the Highways, or other Parish Officer of the Town, Village, Hamlet, or Place where the Offence shall be committed; and in case the said Penalty be not paid within three Days, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Surveyor of the Highways, or other Parish Officer, by Warrant under Hand and Seal of one Justice of the Peace, to sell the said Distress, and deliver the Money raised thereby to the said Justice, who is hereby authorized and required to distribute the Penalties as by the said Act is directed, rendering the Overplus, if any be, to the Owner, the Charges being first deducted; or if the Offender or Offenders shall immediately pay the said Penalty to the Person or Persons so seizing or distraining, or to the Surveyor or other Parish Officer where the Offence shall be committed, then the Person so receiving the same shall deliver it to the next Justice of the Peace, to be by him distributed, as aforesaid.

II. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time refuse or neglect to carry any of the said Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, by him so seized or distrained, to the Surveyor, or other Parish Officer, as aforesaid, he shall forfeit for such Refusal or Neglect, the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be levied upon his Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one Justice of the Peace; and for want of sufficient Distress, the Person or Persons so offending shall be sent to the Common Gaol of the County, City, Town Corporate, or Liberty where such Offence shall be committed, there to remain till the said Sum of twenty Pounds, by him so forfeited, shall be fully paid; one Moiety of which said Sum shall, by Order of the said Justice of the Peace, be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety be laid out in repairing the Highways of the Parish, Town, or Hamlet where the Seizure was made; and if any Surveyor of the Highways, or other Parish Officer, shall refuse or neglect to deliver any Sum of Money or Penalty by him received to the said Justice, he or they, for such Refusal or Neglect, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be levied and disposed of, as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person employed by any Carrier or other Person subject to the Penalties mentioned in the said Act, shall drive, or assist in the Driving of any Travelling Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, with more than six Horses, Oxen, or Beasts, the Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied and disposed of in like Manner as the Forfeitures before mentioned are directed and appointed.

IV. And whereas the Allowing of drawing up any Hills by the said Act with more than six Horses, or Beasts, has been found very prejudicial to the Highways, by giving Opportunity of drawing in other Places with more than six Horses, or Beasts; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the Drawing up Hills with more than six Horses, or Beasts, from the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall stand absolutely repealed, and is hereby repealed.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That where the Horses allowed to draw any Cart or Waggon, shall not be sufficient to draw the same up any steep Hill, or out of any foul Place, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to take, add, and join any Horse or Horses, from another Cart or Waggon then travelling that Road, by and with the Consent of the Owner or Driver of such Cart or Waggon, to help such insufficient Horses up such steep Hill, or out of such foul Place; any thing herein, or in any other Act, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XX.

An Act for rendring the Proceedings upon Writs of Mandamus, and Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, more speedy and effectual; and for the more easy Trying and Determining the Rights of Offices and Franchises in Corporations and Boroughs.

WHEREAS divers Persons have of late illegally intruded themselves into, and have taken upon themselves to execute the Offices of Mayors, Bailiffs, Portreeves and other Offices, within Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs and Places, within that Part of Great Britain called England and Wales; and where such Offices were annual Offices, it hath been found very difficult, if not impracticable, by the Laws now in Being, to bring to a Trial and Determination the Right of such Persons to the said Offices within the Compass of the Year; and where such Offices were not annual Offices, it hath been found difficult to try and determine the Right of such Persons to such Offices, before they have done divers Acts in their said Offices, prejudicial to the Peace, Order and good Government within such Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs and Places, wherein they have respectively acted: And whereas divers Persons, who had a Right to such Offices, or to be Burgeses or Freemen of such Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs or Places, have either been illegally turned out of the same, or have been refused to be admitted thereto, having in many of the said Cases no other Remedy to procure themselves to be respectively admitted or restored to their said Offices or Franchises of being Burgeses or Freemen, than by Writs of Mandamus, the Proceedings on which are very dilatory and expensive, whereby great Mischiefs have already ensued, and more are likely to ensue, if not timely prevented: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of Trinity Term in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, where any Writ of Mandamus shall issue out of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Courts of Sessions of Counties Palatine, or out of any the Courts of Grand Sessions in Wales, in any of the Cases aforesaid, such Person or Persons, who by the Laws of this Realm are required to make a Return to such Writ of Mandamus, shall make his or their Return to the first Writ of Mandamus.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of Trinity Term, as often as in any of the Cases aforesaid, any Writ of Mandamus shall issue out of any of the said Courts, and a Return shall be made thereunto, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons suing or prosecuting such Writ of Mandamus, to plead to, or traverse all or any the material Facts contained within the said Return; to which the Person or Persons making such Return shall reply, take Issue, or demur; and such further Proceedings, and in such Manner shall be had therein, for the Determination thereof, as might have been had if the Person or Persons suing such Writ had brought his or their Action on the Case for a false Return; and if any Issue shall be joined on such Proceedings, the Person or Persons suing such Writ shall and may try the same in such Place as an Issue joined in such Action on the Case should or might have been tried; and in case a Verdict shall be found for the Person or Persons suing such Writ, or Judgment given for him or them upon a Demurrer, or by Nil dicit, or for want of a Replication or other Pleading, he or they shall recover his or their Damages and Costs in such Manner as he or they might have done in such Action on the Case as aforesaid; such Costs and Damages to be levied by Capias ad Satisfaciendum, Fieri Facias, or Elegit; and a preceptory Writ of Mandamus shall be granted without Delay, for him or them for whom Judgment shall be given, as might have been, if such Return had been adjudged insufficient; and in case Judgment shall be given for the Person or Persons making such Return to such Writ, he or they shall recover his or their Costs of Suit, to be levied in Manner aforesaid.

III. Provided always, That if any Damages shall be recovered by virtue of this Act against any such Person or Persons making such Return to such Writ, as aforesaid, he or they shall not be liable to be sued in any other Action or Suit, for the making such Return; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of Trinity Term, in case any Person or Persons shall usurp, intrude into, or unlawfully hold and execute any of the said Offices or Franchises, it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer in each of the said respective Courts, with the Leave of the said Courts respectively, to exhibit one or more Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, at the Relation of any Person or Persons desiring to sue or prosecute the same, and who shall be mentioned in such Information or Informations to be the Relator or Relators against such Person or Persons, so usurping, intruding into, or unlawfully holding and executing any of the said Offices or Franchises, and to proceed therein in such Manner as is usual in Cases of Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto; and if it shall appear to the said respective Courts, that the several Rights of divers Persons to the said Offices or Franchises may properly be determined on one Information, it shall and may be lawful for the said respective Courts to give Leave to exhibit one such Information against several Persons, in order to try their respective Rights to such Offices or Franchises, and such Person or Persons, against whom such Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto shall be sued or prosecuted, shall appear and plead as of the same Term or Sessions in which the said Information or Informations shall be filed, unless the Court where such Information shall be filed, shall give further Time to such Person or Persons, against whom such Information shall be exhibited, to plead; and such Person or Persons, who shall sue or prosecute such Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, shall proceed thereupon with the most convenient Speed that may be, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

After the first Day of Trinity Term 1711, Returns to Writs of Mandamus out of the Queen's Bench, &c. shall be made to the first Writ.

As soon as the Return is made, the Prosecutor in such Writ may plead, &c. to which the Person returning may reply, &c.

How the Proceedings shall be.

V. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of Trinity Term, in case any Person or Persons, against whom any Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto shall in any of the said Cases be exhibited in any of the said Courts, shall be found or adjudged Guilty of an Usurpation, or Intrusion into, or unlawfully holding and executing any of the said Offices, or Franchises, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Courts respectively, as well to give Judgment of Ouster against such Person or Persons, of and from any of the said Offices or Franchises, as to fine such Person or Persons respectively, for his or their usurping, intruding into, or unlawfully holding and executing any of the said Offices or Franchises; and also it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Courts respectively, to give Judgment, That the Relator or Relators, in such Information named, shall recover his or their Costs of such Prosecution; and if Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants in such Information, he or they, for whom such Judgement shall be given, shall recover his or their Costs therein expended against such Relator or Relators; such Costs to be levied in Manner aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Courts respectively, to allow to such Person or Persons respectively, to whom any Writ of Mandamus shall be directed, or against whom any Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall be sued or prosecuted, or to the Person or Persons who shall sue or prosecute the same, such convenient Time respectively, to make a Return, plead, reply, rejoin, or demur, as to the said Courts respectively shall seem just and reasonable; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the said first Day of Trinity Term, an Act made in the fourth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Justice, and all the Statutes of Jeofayles, shall be extended to all Writs of Mandamus, and Informations in Nature of a Quo Warranto, and Proceedings thereon, for any the Matters in this Act mentioned.

VIII. And whereas in divers Counties, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, and Cinque-Ports, where the Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officer or Officers, to whom it belongs to preside at the Election, and make Return of any Member to serve in Parliament, ought to be annually elected, the same Person hath been re-elected into such Office for several Years successively, which hath been found inconvenient; Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons, who hath been or shall be in such annual Office for one whole Year, shall be capable to be chosen into the same Office for the Year immediately ensuing; and where any such annual Officer or Officers is or are to continue for a Year, and until some other Person or Persons shall be chosen and sworn into such Office, if any such Officer or Officers shall voluntarily and unlawfully obstruct and prevent the choosing another Person or Persons to succeed into such Office at the Time appointed for making another Choice, shall forfeit one hundred Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered with Costs of Suit, by such Person as will sue for the same in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record before mentioned, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparance; one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same.

MOST gracious Sovereign; Whereas notwithstanding the many and great Supplies granted to Your Majesty for carrying on the present War, the following Debts and Deficiencies are computed to remain still due and unprovided for, (that is to say) the Sum of five millions one hundred and thirty thousand five hundred thirty-nine Pounds five Shillings and five Pence, for the Debt of Your Majesty's Navy, and for Services performed by the Navy on Account of Land Forces, to the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, (exclusive of the Debt for the Register of Seamen) and the Sum of one hundred fifty-four thousand three hundred twenty-four Pounds fifteen Shillings and eight Pence Farthing, for the Debt of Your Majesty's Office of Ordnance, to the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the Sum of four hundred twenty-four thousand seven hundred ninety-one Pounds five Shillings and four Pence Farthing, for Transport Service, to the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten; and the Sum of one million and eighteen thousand six hundred fifty-six Pounds seventeen Shillings and nine Pence Farthing, for the Principal and Interest Money, due to the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, on Army and Transport Debentures, made out for the Service of the last War; and the Sum of twelve thousand twenty-five Pounds and one Shilling for the Principal Money and Interest, to the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, of deficient Tallies and Orders for Money lent on an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (of glorious Memory) and another Act made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, for laying Duties on Coals, Culin, and Cynders; and the Sum of three hundred seventy-eight thousand eight eight hundred fifty-nine Pounds five Shillings and eight Pence Farthing, computed for Debts incurred between the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, and the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ten, in the several Offices of the Navy, Victualling, and Transport, and for Interest on the said Army and Transport Debentures in that Time; and the Sum of nine thousand three hundred seventy and five Pounds, to satisfy the Money due upon Account of Subsidies to the Elector of Hanover and Duke of Zell, pursuant to a Treaty, bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety and six: All which several Sums so computed to be due and owing, as aforesaid, do amount in the whole to the Sum of seven millions one hundred twenty-eight thousand five hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings and eleven Pence, and the Interest of such Part of the said several Debts as do carry Interest from the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ten, to the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, are computed to amount to the Sum of eighty five thousand Pounds; which being added to the said Sum of seven millions one hundred twenty-eight thousand five hundred seventy one Pounds, ten Shillings and eleven Pence, makes the Total of the said Debts amount to the Sum of seven millions two hundred and thirteen thousand five hundred and seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings and eleven Pence: And whereas there has been lent and advanced into the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer, pursuant to an Act made in the said eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign (among other Things) for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, the Sum of one million two hundred ninety-six thousand five hundred fifty-two Pounds nine Shillings and eleven Pence three Farthings: And whereas the Funds by the said last-mentioned Act settled for Payment of the Interest of the said Money lent, in Pursuance of the said Act, do not yet take place, so that no Interest hath yet been paid upon or for the said Money lent or advanced in pursuance of the said Act, and the Interest due upon the said Money on the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, is computed to amount to the Sum of seventy-four thousand eight hundred seventy-five Pounds nineteen Shillings and one Penny Farthing; and the said Principal and Interest Money, so lent and due on the said last-mentioned Act, do amount together, by Computation, to the Sum of one million three hundred seventy-one thousand four hundred twenty-eight Pounds nine Shillings and one Penny; which being added to the above mentioned Sum of seven millions two hundred and thirteen thousand five hundred seventy-one Pounds ten Shillings and eleven Pence, above computed to be the total Amount of the before-mentioned Debts and Deficiencies, will make the said Debts and Deficiencies, and the Principal and Interest Money, to the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, due upon the said Act of the eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign, amount together in the whole to the Sum of eight millions five hundred eighty-five thousand Pounds; the Interest of which said Sum of eight millions five hundred eighty-five thousand Pounds, from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, to the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, being computed at the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, doth amount unto the Sum of three hundred eighty-six thousand three hundred and twenty-five Pounds; which being added to the said Sum of eight millions five hundred eighty-five thousand Pounds, makes the Sum Total of the said Debts, Sums of Money and Interest, to the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, amount to the Sum of eight millions nine hundred seventy-one thousand three hundred twenty-five Pounds: And whereas great Part of the Tallies and Orders struck, made, and signed for the said Money, lent in pursuance of the said Act made in the said eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign, are in the Hands of the respective Treasurers or Paymasters of your Majesty's Navy, and Land Forces, and of your Majesty's Ordnance, and Transport Service, or other publick Offices, and cannot be disposed of without great Loss and Discount, and to the Damage of the publick Credit; and other Part of the Tallies and Orders, struck, made out, and signed for other Part of the said Monies lent or advanced in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act, are or may be in the Hands of such Person or Persons as may be better pleased with the perpetual Interest, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and the Privilege of Trade, and other Privileges and Advantages by this Act granted: Now your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being duly affected with the deepest Sense of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious and wise Administration, and being truly desirous to do all that becomes dutiful and faithful Subjects, to render happy and glorious the Reign of the best of Sovereigns, and having taken into our most serious Consideration all the said Debts and Deficiencies, and the many ill Consequences which may arise to the Publick thereby (if not timely remedied) and being heartily zealous to preserve the Honour of your Majesty and the Nation, and to establish the publick Credit, and to enable your Majesty to prosecute the present War, (so necessarily entred into) with the utmost Vigour, until such a Peace shall (by the Blessing of Almighty God) be obtained, as may be for the Honour of your Majesty, and the lasting Security of your Kingdoms, and your Allies, have agreed (in order to make a Provision for the said Debts, Deficiencies, and Sums of Money, before computed to amount to the said Sum of eight millions nine hundred seventy-one thousand three hundred and twenty-five Pounds, and for raising the further Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds for the Service of this present Year, which makes the total Sum, computed to be provided for by this Act, to amount to the Sum of nine millions four hundred seventy-one thousand three hundred and twenty-five Pounds) to give and grant to your Majesty such Supplies as are herein after mentioned, for paying an Interest or Annuity after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum for all the said Sums of Money, Debts, and Deficiencies, until the Principal Money shall be paid, as herein after is mentioned, which, by the Computation aforesaid, doth amount unto the annual Sum of five hundred eighty thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings; and that a good, sure, and lasting Fund may be settled and established for paying the said Interest or Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum

And also the Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, 8 Annæ, c. 13. These Duties were repealed 2 Geo. 2. c. 20. and afterwards

II. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Tobacco, which shall be imported within the Times by this Act limited, and all Arrears thereof, shall be secured, collected, raised, levied, answered, and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in such Method, and with such Discount and Allowances, and according to such Rules and Directions, and under such Penalties, as are mentioned, referred to, or prescribed (as to the Duties or Impositions on Tobacco) in and by the Act made in the Parliament holden in the seventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine, Vinegar, and Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, and not otherwise.

III. Provided also, That in all Cases where any other Provision or Alteration is made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being, in or about any other Matter or Thing contained in the said Acts of Parliament hereby continued, or any of them, such other Provisions or Alterations shall be observed for ever; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Surplus Monies arising in the Receipt of the Exchequer, on or for the said Duties hereby continued, and such other Duties as are mentioned and contained in the former Acts, whereby the said Duties hereby continued were granted or continued to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, after Payment of all such Principal Money and Interest, as by the said former Acts are charged thereupon, and which by the said Act in the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign are appropriated and applied to the Purposes in that Act mentioned, shall be, and by virtue of this Act are, appropriated and made applicable to the Uses and Purposes in this Act mentioned and contained, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; any thing in the said last-mentioned Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And whereas by the said Act made in the said eighth Year of her said Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, That immediately from and after the Time that all Principal and Interest Monies, secured by an Act of the first Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preserving the publick Credit, should be fully paid off and satisfied, or that sufficient Monies should be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, then all the Monies which from thenceforth, until the first Day of August, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, should arise, or be due or payable, or be secured or in Arrear, of and for the Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt therein mentioned (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall, from time to time, be paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, and shall be issued and applied, so far as the same will extend, to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of the Interest which shall, from time to time, grow due for the Monies which shall be lent upon, or in pursuance of the said Act of the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, or any of the Powers or Clauses therein contained, and to none other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Now it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies secured by the said last-mentioned Act of the said first Year of her said Majesty's Reign, shall be fully paid off and satisfied, or that sufficient Monies shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, that all the Monies which from thenceforth for ever shall arise, or be due or payable, or be secured, or in Arrear, of and for the said Duties of Salt and Rock Salt, (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall, from time to time, for ever be paid into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be issued and applied for the Purposes in this Act contained, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; any thing in the said Act of the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies that shall come into the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon or for all and every the Rates, Duties, Impositions, and additional Impositions, which were granted or continued by the said Act of the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, from the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, to the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and all Arrears thereof, shall be applied and appropriated, and they are hereby appropriated to the Uses and Purposes of this Act, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; any thing in the said Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said Rates, Duties, Impositions, and additional Impositions, and every of them respectively, shall be raised, levied, collected, answered, and paid, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and subject to, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as is and are contained in the said Act of the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Duties upon Candles, which by an Act made in the said eighth Year of her said now Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Candles, and certain Rates upon Monies to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, and Servants, towards raising her Majesty's Supply, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, were granted to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for the Term of five Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall, by virtue of this Act, be further continued, and be payable, as well upon all Wax Candles and Candles called or sold for Wax Candles (notwithstanding the Mixture of any other Ingredients therewith) as upon all Tallow Candles, to be imported into, or made in any Part of Great Britain, from and after the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, for ever; and also that the said several Rates upon Monies to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, and Servants, which were granted to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by the said last-mentioned Act, for the Term of five Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, shall be further continued, and be payable for and upon all Monies or other Consideration to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, or Servants, as in the same Act are mentioned, from and after the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, for ever; and that the said Act last-mentioned, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, as well for and concerning the said Duties upon Candles, and the said Rates upon Monies or other Consideration to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, and Servants, shall continue, and be in full Force for ever, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying, as well the said Duties upon Candles, as the said Rates upon Monies or other Consideration to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, or Servants, hereby continued, and all Arrears thereof, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Powers, Matters, and Things in the same Act contained, had been again in this Act repeated and particularly enacted.

VIII. And whereas the said Duties and Impositions on Candles, and Rates on Monies or other Consideration to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, or Servants, which were granted by the last-mentioned Act, are thereby made subject and liable to the Satisfaction of certain principal Sums which were borrowed upon the same Act, and the Interest due and to be due for the same, (which Principal and Interest are to be duly paid off and discharged in the first Place) Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies, which by the said last-mentioned Act are charged or chargeable on the several Duties on Candles, and Rates on Money or other Consideration to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, and Servants, shall be fully paid off and satisfied, according to the true Meaning of the said last-mentioned Act, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose; then all the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise by the said Impositions on Candles, and Monies or other Consideration to be given with Clerks, Apprentices, or Servants, which were granted by the said last-mentioned Act, as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting, and accounting for the same) shall, from time to time, be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer distinctly, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

IX. And for the better securing the Payment of the said Interest Monies or Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon and for all the said Debts, Deficiencies, and Sums of Money, intended to be provided for by this Act; and that all Persons and Corporations, concerned and to be concerned therein, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns respectively, may have, receive, and enjoy, certain Annuities or yearly Payments, to be computed after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the several and respective Monies to them respectively due, and to grow due, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and such special Benefit of Trade, and other Advantages as are hereafter in this Act expressed, subject nevertheless to such Power of Redemption, as in this Act is provided in that Behalf; be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the time being, at their respective Offices, from time to time, shall separate and keep apart, all and every Sum and Sums of Money arising by such Part of the several Rates and Duties, Impositions, and additional Impositions, and Sums of Money, hereby granted, continued, or appropriated, for the Purposes in this Act mentioned, as is or shall be under the Care or Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, as the same shall, from time to time, arise or be paid into the respective Offices of the said Receiver General of the Customs, by the Collectors of the same, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever; and in like Manner that the respective

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be, from time to time, for ever, provided and kept in the Exchequer, (that is to say) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, several Books, in which all the Monies which ought to be paid in weekly, or otherwise, as aforesaid, and which shall be brought into the same Receipt, shall be entred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatsoever.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if the said Receivers General of the Customs, Commissioners, or Governors of the Revenue or Receipt of the Excise, or the said Commissioners for marking of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or for managing the Duties thereupon, for the time being respectively, shall refuse or neglect to pay, or cause to be paid into the Exchequer, all or any the Sums appointed to be paid by them severally, as aforesaid, in such Manner as they are respectively required by this Act, or shall divert or misapply any Part of the same, then they and every of them so offending, shall forfeit their several Offices and Places, and shall be incapable to serve her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Place of Profit or Trust whatsoever, and shall be liable to pay double the Value of all and every Sum and Sums of Money so diverted or misapplied, with full Costs of Suit, to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, who shall be entitled to any Annuity or Payment out of the Fund by this Act settled, and will sue for the same Forfeiture by Action of Debt, or of the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, founded upon this Act, in any Court of Record of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege whatsoever, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance, shall be granted or allowed.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Head Offices of the Customs and Excise, and the chief Office for the marking of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall for ever be severally and respectively continued, with a sufficient Number of Commissioners, and a Comptroller in each and every of them, for performing and executing such Matters and Things as are by this Act enjoined to be done or performed by such Commissioners and Comptrollers respectively, according to the true Meaning hereof.

XIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Comptrollers in the said respective Offices for the time being, shall keep perfect and distinct Accounts in Books fairly written, of all the Monies which shall arise of or for the said several and respective Impositions, additional Impositions, Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money, by this Act granted, continued, or appropriated, as the same shall from time to time arise, or be raised; to which Books all Persons concerned shall have free Access at all reasonable Times, without Fee or Charge; and if any such Comptroller or Comptrollers, as aforesaid, shall neglect his or their Duty therein, then he or they so offending shall forfeit his or their Office or Offices, and Places, and be rendered incapable, as aforesaid, and shall also forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, entitled to any Annuity or Payment by this Act, and that will sue for the same, as aforesaid, together with Full Costs of Suit, to be recovered, as aforesaid.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Collector or Receiver of any the Impositions, additional Impositions, Duties, Rates, or Sums of Money, by this Act granted, continued, or appropriated, shall detain all or any Part of the Monies by him collected or received, contrary to his Duty, then he or they, for such Offence, shall be dismissed from his or their Employment, and be charged with Interest for the Monies so by him or them detained, after the Rate of twelve Pounds per Centum per Annum, and be liable to answer treble Damages to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, that shall be grieved by such Detention, and who will sue for the same, in Manner as aforesaid: And if any Collector or Receiver of any of the said Impositions, additional Impositions, Duties, Rates, or Sums of Money, hereby granted, continued, or appropriated, shall divert or misapply all or any Part of the Monies by him or them collected or received, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, then he or they, for every or any such Offence, shall be dismissed from his Employment, and rendered incapable to serve her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, as aforesaid, and shall moreover forfeit double the Sum or Sums so by him or them diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be entitled to any Annuity or Payment out of the Fund by this Act settled, and will sue for the same, as aforesaid.

XV. And to the end the Sums by this Act appropriated, may not be diverted or applied to any other Purposes than are hereby directed or intended; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules and Directions appointed and enacted in one Act made in the first Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties an Aid of two Shillings in the Pound for one Year, for the speedy Payment of Money thereby granted into the Receipt of Exchequer, by the Collectors and Receivers, and for the Distribution and Application thereof, and keeping distinct Accounts of the same, and all other Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures thereby enacted, in case of Diversion or Misapplication of any Money thereby appropriated, are hereby revived and enacted to be in Force, and shall be applied, executed, and put in Use, for and concerning the Distribution and Application of the said Sums hereby appropriated, as fully, amply, and effectually, as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted.

XVI. And whereas the Funds hereby settled and appropriated will not be sufficient to pay all the said Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for all the Debts, Deficiencies, and Sums of Money intended to be provided for by this Act, until the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen; to the Intent a full, sufficient, and unquestionable Provision may be made for all the said Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Quarterly in every Year, until the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, that is to say, on or within twenty Days next after every five and twentieth Day of March, four and twentieth Day of June, nine and twentieth Day of September, and five and twentieth Day of December, which shall be before the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall cause a true and exact Account to be made of all the Monies, which on or before the said respective Quarter-Days last mentioned, shall have come or be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, for or upon the said Funds hereby appointed (the first of which Accounts shall be made on or within twenty Days next after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twelve;) and if upon making every or any such Accounts, so much Monies as shall appear to have come into the Receipt of Exchequer, upon or for the said Funds hereby appointed, shall fall short of one fourth Part of the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or of such proportionable Part thereof as shall be due, as herein after is mentioned, within or for the preceding Quarter of a Year: And then and so often, and in every such Case, it is hereby declared and enacted, That every such Deficiency and Deficiencies shall, immediately after the same shall appear, be provided for, answered, and made good, by or out of any such publick Money, Tallies, Orders, or other Parliamentary Securities, as shall be then in the Hands or Power of the Treasurer or Paymaster of her Majesty's Navy for the time being, when such Deficiency shall happen, upon which there shall not be at that Time an actual Direction; and in case there shall not be then sufficient of such publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, or other Parliamentary Securities, in the Hands or Power of the said Treasurer or Paymaster of the Navy, as aforesaid, to make good and complete such Deficiency, then and in such Case, all the publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, and Parliamentary Securities, which shall (at the Time of such Deficiency happening) be in the Hands or Power of the Treasurer or Paymaster of her Majesty's Navy for the time being, upon which there shall not at that Time be an actual Direction, so far as the same will extend, shall be immediately paid and applied towards making good every such Deficiency; and the Residue and Remainder of every such Deficiency shall be made good, paid, and discharged by and out of the first and next publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, or Parliamentary Securities, which shall come to the Hands or Power of the Treasurer or Paymaster of her Majesty's Navy for the time being (after every such Deficiency shall happen) and the same shall not be applied or diverted to any other Use; and the Treasurer or Paymaster of her Majesty's Navy for the time being, is and are hereby authorized and required to make such Payment and Application for and towards making good such Deficiency and Deficiencies, as aforesaid, when and as often as the same shall happen, without Fee or Charge, and without any further or other Warrant or Authority, to be sued for, had, or obtained in that Behalf from her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever; the said Payment and Application to be made and paid to the Cashier or Treasurer of the said Company or Corporation, to be erected in Pursuance of this Act, for the Use of the said Company or Corporation.

XVII. And to the end the Service of the Navy may not be lessened, or prejudiced by such Application of the Money, Tallies, Orders, or other publick Securities, which shall be in the Hands or Power of the Treasurer or Paymaster of the Navy, and which shall be by him applied to the making good such Deficiency, as aforesaid; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in the Month of January, yearly and every Year, until the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall cause an Estimate or Computation to be made by a Medium of the three preceding Years, how much the Funds hereby settled and appointed for Payment of the said Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, will produce for the ensuing Year, commencing from the five and twentieth Day of December next ensuing such Estimate or Computation, and how much the same will fall short of answering and paying the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred

XVIII. And to the end the Treasurer or Paymaster of her Majesty's Navy, for the time being may be regularly discharged of all such publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, and other Parliamentary Securities, as he or they shall pay and apply towards making good any such Deficiency of the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or of such proportionable Part thereof, as shall be due, as herein after is mentioned; It is enacted, That the Treasurer or Cashier of the Company or Corporation to be erected in Pursuance of this Act, shall from time to time give a Receipt or Receipts in Writing to the said Treasurer or Paymaster of the Navy, for all such publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, and other Parliamentary Securities, as he shall so apply or pay towards making good such Deficiency, as aforesaid; which Receipt and Receipts shall be a good and sufficient Voucher and Vouchers to the said Treasurer and Paymaster of the Navy for the same, and shall, in the Passing of his and their Accounts, be admitted and taken accordingly by the Auditors of her Majesty's Imprests for the Time being.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Treasurer or Paymaster of her Majesty's Navy for the Time being, shall refuse or delay to make such Payment and Application, as aforesaid, of any of the publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, or other publick Securities, as shall be in his or their Hand or Hands, or Power, for or towards making good such Deficiency and Deficiencies of the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or of such proportionable Part thereof, as shall be due, as herein after is mentioned, when and so often as such Deficiency or Deficiencies shall happen, such Treasurer and Paymaster of the Navy shall incur the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as any of the Officers of the Exchequer are hereby subjected and made liable to for diverting or misapplying any of the Monies, which shall come into the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon or for the Funds hereby appointed for Payment of the said Annuities after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and to be recovered in like Manner.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year for ever, reckoning the first Year to begin from the five and twentieth Day of December, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, the full annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or such proportionable Part thereof as shall be due, as is herein after mentioned, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said several Duties, as well upon Salt and Rock Salt, as upon Wine, Vinegar, Tobacco, East-India Goods, Raw-Silks, and other Goods and Merchandizes imported, granted, continued, or appropriated, and every of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, in case the same Payments shall extend thereto; and in case the said weekly or other Payments shall not amount to five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings per Annum, or such proportionable Part thereof as shall be due, as herein after is mentioned, then the said weekly Monies, or other Payments, so far as the same will extend, shall be Part of the yearly Fund for and towards the answering and paying the several and respective Annuities, or yearly Payments, in this Act hereafter expressed.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all the Sums of Money arising by the said Rates, Duties, Impositions, additional Impositions, and Sums of Money, by this Act granted, continued, or appropriated, as aforesaid, which shall, from time to time, be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to make up and complete the said yearly Fund of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or such proportionable Part thereof, to be due, as herein after is mentioned, shall be appropriated, set apart, and applied, and the same are hereby appropriated for and towards the raising and making good the said yearly Fund of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or such proportionable Part of the same, and shall be issued and paid out of the said Receipt of Exchequer by the respective Officers of the same, as herein after is mentioned, without Fee or Charge, and without any further or other Warrant to be sued for, had, or obtained from her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in that Behalf, and shall be applied to and for the Uses and Purposes in and by this Act expressed and intended, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; and that the respective Officers in the Exchequer, who shall make any Delay in issuing or paying the said Money to the said Uses by this Act intended, or shall be guilty of diverting or misapplying any of the said Monies to any other Use or Purpose, contrary to this Act, for any such Offence, shall be adjudged from their respective Offices and Places, and be rendered incapable to serve her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever, and also shall be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums so delayed to be paid, or so diverted or misapplied, as aforesaid, to any Corporation, or other Person or Persons that shall be grieved thereby, and who will sue for the same, to be recovered as aforesaid.

XXII. And

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the said Duties arising or appropriated by this Act shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year, to be reckoned from and after the five and twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, the said weekly or other Payments upon the same Rates or Duties, shall not amount to so much as shall be sufficient to discharge and satisfy the said yearly Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or such proportionable Part thereof, as aforesaid, by this Act appointed, or intended to be paid within or for the same Year respectively, that then, and so often, and in every such Case, it is hereby declared and enacted, That every such Deficiency and Deficiencies shall be provided for, answered, and made good by or out of the next Aids to be raised and granted by Parliament, and shall be appropriated and applied for and towards making good the Deficiency which shall so happen of the said yearly Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or such proportionable Part thereof, as aforesaid, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

Deficiency to be made good by Parliament.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties, and Sums of Money granted or appropriated by this Act, at the End of any one Year after all the said Annuities, Charges, and Payments, directed or authorized by this Act, shall be fully satisfied, paid, and discharged, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall be applied, from time to time, for and towards paying and discharging the principal Money of the said Capital Stock of the said intended Company, so far as the same will, from time to time, extend; and that the said yearly Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or such proportionable Part thereof, as is intended by this Act to be provided for, shall be, from time to time, lessened and abated in Proportion to such Part of the said Principal or Capital Stock of the said Company, which shall be so paid off; that is to say, that out of the yearly Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, to be annually payable to the said Company by virtue of this Act, and according to the true Meaning thereof, there shall be deducted so much Money yearly and every Year, as shall be after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum for the Principal Sum, which shall be so paid off and discharged, or which the Capital Stock of the said Company shall really and bona fide consist of, for the time being, less than the said Principal or Capital Stock, or Sum of nine millions four hundred seventy-one thousand three hundred and twenty-five Pounds; such Deduction and Deductions to begin and be made from such respective Time and Times as such Principal Money shall be so paid off and discharged, or the said Capital Stock so lessened, as aforesaid: It being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that the Annuity so to be paid, by virtue of this Act, unto the said intended Company or Corporation to be erected in Pursuance of this Act, shall be after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum for every hundred Pounds, which the Principal or Capital Stock of the said Company or Corporation shall, for the time being, consist of, and proportionably for a lesser Sum than one hundred Pounds, and not any further or other Sum or Sums in respect of the said Annuity.

Surplus to be applied towards discharging Principal.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That at any Time, upon one Year's Notice, after the five and twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, upon Repayment by Parliament of the Principal Sum, of which the Capital Stock of the said intended Company shall, for the time being, consist, unto the respective Contributors of the same, or to such Person or Persons as by, from, or under them, shall be entitled to the said Annuity or Shares of the said yearly Fund or Capital Stock, in respect of the same, and of all Arrears of the said Annuities or yearly Payments, or upon Payment out of such Surplus Money, as aforesaid, of all the said Principal or Capital Stock of the said intended Company, and all Arrears of the said Annuity payable to them, as aforesaid; then and from thenceforth all and every the Impositions, and additional Impositions, Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money hereby granted, continued, or appropriated, shall and may be disposed of by Parliament; and also the said yearly Fund charged thereupon, and the said Annuities issuing out of the same, shall absolutely cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On One Year's Notice, after 25 Dec. 1716. and Repayment, Annuities to cease. Explained by 10 Annæ, c. 30.

XXV. And soasmuch as it will be for the great Ease and Advantage of the Persons concerned in the said Debts and Deficiencies, that they should be made one Society or Company, and that the Payments from the Exchequer will be much easier made to such Society, or their Cashiers, for the Use of, and to by them distributed to the respective Persons interested in the said Debts, Deficiencies, and other Monies, intended to be hereby charged on the said Funds, than if the same were to be paid in the usual Forms of the Exchequer to every Person concerned; and to the End and Intent that the Trade to the South Seas, and other Parts within the Limits herein after-mentioned, may be carried on for the Honour and Increase of the Wealth and Riches of this Realm; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to incorporate all and every the Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who are and shall be interested in or intitled unto any of the Bills, Tickets, Debentures, or Certificates, or other Publick Debts, Deficiencies, or Sums of Money, intended to be provided for by this Act, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title, derived or to be derived from, by, or under the original Proprietors, at any Time or Times hereafter, shall have and be entitled to any Part, Share, or Interest of or in the said yearly Fund by this Act settled, as aforesaid, so long as they respectively shall have any such Part, Share, or Interest therein, to be one Body Politick or Corporate, in Deed and in Name, and by such Name as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors shall think fit, and by that Name to have perpetual Succession, and a common Seal, with Power, from time to time, to choose their Governors, Directors, and other Officers, in such Manner, and under such Qualifications, as to the Electors and elected, as shall be directed in such Letters Patents; the first Governor and Directors to be nominated by her Majesty, jefty, her Heirs and Successors in the said Letters Patents, the said first Governor and Directors being so qualified, as all subsequent Governors and Directors shall be qualified, and to continue in their respective Offices for one Year only; and that the Persons so incorporated and their Successors, by the same Name, shall be able and capable in Law to have, purchase, receive, enjoy, possess, and retain, to them and their Successors, Lands, Rents, Tenements, and Hereditaments, not exceeding the yearly Value of one thousand Pounds, together with such Powers, Capacities, Privileges, Immunities, and Advantages, and subject to and under such Rules, Conditions, Limitations, and Restrictions, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in her or their great Wisdom shall think fit, and to do and execute all and singular Matters and Things by the same Name that to them shall or may appertain to do.

Her Majesty by Letters Patents may incorporate the Company.

Her Majesty by the said Letters, or by Commission, to direct the Ordering of the Tallies,
Joint-Stock, &c.

XXVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by the said Letters Patents of Corporation, or by any Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to be granted before or after the said Letters Patents, to direct and appoint how and in what Manner the Tallies and Orders, Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, intended to be provided for by this Act, and also the Money hereby intended to be made Part of the Capital Stock of the said Corporation, upon Account of the Publick, shall or may be subscribed, admitted, or taken into, or be made Part of the said Capital Stock of the said Company or Corporation; and also to direct how and in what Manner such Part of the Stock of the said Corporation, which is hereby intended to be for the Use of the Publick, shall and may be disposed and applied to the Use of the Publick, and accounted for; and also how and in what Manner the said Tallies, Orders, Tickets, Certificates, Bills, or Debentures, intended to be taken into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, shall or may be disposed of, discharged, and accounted for; and also how the Property of all Persons interested in the said Tallies, Orders, Tickets, Certificates, Bills, or Debentures, shall or may be ascertained, adjusted, and settled; and also that her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall and may, in and by such Commission and Commissions as is last mentioned, direct the Commissioners therein to be named, how and in what Manner to proceed in the Execution of such Commission or Commissions; and also that it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in and by the said Letters Patents of Incorporation, or by such Commission or Commissions, as aforesaid, to direct how and in what Manner the proper Officers of the Exchequer for the time being may know and be informed how much the Capital Stock of the said Company doth, for the time being, consist of, and all other Things requisite thereunto, that so the proper Officers of the Exchequer may know whether they are to pay to the Cashier of the said Company, to the Use of the said Company, the said whole annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or only a proportionable Part thereof.

XXVII. And whereas great Part of the Debt of the Navy and Victualling, and for Transport Service, and of the Office of Ordnance, is ascertained by Bills or Debentures payable in Course, and other Part of the Debt of the Navy is also ascertained by Tickets made out for Wages to Seamen, and others who served on Board any of her Majesty's Ships, but great Part of the said Debt is for Wages due to the Seamen and Workmen in her Majesty's Docks and Yards, for which the respective Persons, to whom the same is due, have no Bills, Tickets, or Debentures to ascertain the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Navy for the time being shall and are hereby required forthwith to cause an exact and true Account to be made up and delivered unto the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, of the respective Sums due from the said Navy Office, as well upon Bills in Course upon the second Register Book, as for the Bills in Course in the present Register Book, on or before the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, as well for Principal as for Interest, and also of all Tickets made out, on or before the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for the Wages of Seamen, or others, who have served on Board any of her Majesty's Ships; and also that the Commissioners of the Victualling, and the Commissioners of Transports, and the Officers of her Majesty's Office of Ordnance respectively, shall and are hereby required forthwith to cause a true and exact Account to be made up and delivered to the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, of all the several and respective Sums due from those several and respective Offices, to the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven inclusive, for which Certificates or Debentures, payable in Course, are or shall have been made forth: And the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall and are hereby required to cause all the said Debts of the said several Offices of the Navy, Victualling, Transport, and Ordnance, for which such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures are, or, as aforesaid, shall have been made out, to be cast up into one total Sum, and shall likewise cause to be cast up in one total Sum, the several Sums herein before mentioned to be computed to be the Debt of all those several Offices; and shall add to the said last mentioned total Sum, the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds herein before mentioned and agreed to be charged upon the Funds hereby settled as Part of the Provision for this present yearly Service; and shall cause to be deducted out of the Sums last mentioned, the Sum total which all the Debts of the Offices of the Navy, Victualling, Transport, and Ordnance, to the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven inclusive, as well for Principal as Interest, shall amount to, and for which such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures are or shall have been made out; and so much as shall remain of the total Sum herein computed to be the Debt of the said Offices, and of the said five hundred thousand Pounds for this Year's Service, added together, after such Deduction thereof, as aforesaid, shall be, and be deemed and taken to be publick Money, and shall be made Part of the Capital Stock of the Company, to be erected by virtue of this Act, for the Use of the Publick, in such Manner as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, by the said Letters Patents of Incorporation, or any Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal of Great Britain, or by Privy Seal or Sign Manual, shall think fit and direct; and the same, and Persons having Tallies on 8 Annæ, c. 9. (except in the Hands of the Treasurers of the publick Offices on 1 May 1711.) may be admitted into the Joint Stock before 25 Dec. 1711.

Directors may admit, after 25 Dec. 1711. such Persons into the Joint Stock.

Tallies, &c. not taken into the Joint Stock, to be paid out of the Monies arising by 8 Annæ, c. 9.

Till 25 Dec. 1713. the annual Sum of 5682-9 l. 10 s. to be paid to the Corporation.

In 30 Days after Directors to cause an Account to be made of the Sum total of the Capital Stock, &c. to be transmitted to the Auditor of the Receipt, &c.

Annuity or Fund payable to the said Corporation, and of all other Privileges and Advantages granted to the said Corporation, in such Manner as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, by the said Letters Patents of Incorporation, or by such Commission or Commissions, as aforesaid, shall direct or appoint.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who are or shall be possessed of, interested in, or entitled unto, any of the Tallies and Orders made forth in pursuance of the said first herein recited or mentioned Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, (other than of such of the said Tallies and Orders made out in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act, as were, on the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eleven, in the Hands or Power of the Treasurers and Paymasters of the publick Offices, which are already herein before directed to be taken into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation) and shall be minded and desirous to bring such Tallies and Orders into the said Joint Stock of the said Corporation, and shall signify such their Mind and Desire in Writing, to the Managers or Directors of the said Corporation, on or before the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, every such Person and Persons so signifying their Mind and Desire to be admitted into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, for or in Respect of the said Tallies and Orders, shall, for so much as the Principal and Interest of such Tallies and Orders, (which they shall so desire to be taken into the said Joint Stock) to be computed in such Manner as is herein before directed concerning the Computation to be made of Principal and Interest upon and for such of the Navy and Victualling Bills as do carry Interest, be admitted into and made Members of the said intended Corporation, and shall have and be entitled unto a proportionable Part of the yearly Annuity or Fund payable to the said Corporation, and of all other Privileges and Advantages granted to the said Corporation, in such Manner as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, by the said Letters Patents of Incorporation, or by such Commission or Commissions, as aforesaid, shall direct or appoint.

XXXII. Provided always nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Managers and Directors of the said intended Corporation, at any Time after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, if they shall so think fit, to admit into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, or to purchase, pay off, and discharge, (in order to the Admission into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, and to admit the same accordingly into the said Joint Stock) all or any of the Tallies and Orders made forth in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act of the said eighth Year of her said Majesty's Reign; and the said Tallies and Orders shall be taken and admitted into the said Joint Stock, for such Sum as the Principal and Interest, which shall be due upon the same respectively, shall amount unto, at the Time or Times of their Admission into the said Joint Stock; and all the Tallies and Orders made forth in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act of the eighth Year of her said Majesty's Reign, which shall, as well before as after the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, be taken or admitted into the said Joint Stock of the said Corporation, shall from thenceforth be discharged from being payable in course out of the Funds settled by the said Act; and the respective Owners and Proprietors thereof shall from thenceforth, in lieu thereof, have and be entitled to an Annuity, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the respective Sums they shall amount unto, and proportionably for a lesser Sum than one hundred Pounds, to be paid out of the annual Fund by this Act made payable to the said Company, until the said Fund shall be redeemed, as in this Act is mentioned.

XXXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until all the Tallies and Orders, made forth in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act of the said eighth Year of her said Majesty's Reign, shall be taken and admitted into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, a distinct and separate Account shall be kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, of all the Monies which shall arise or come into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, which, by the said last-mentioned Act of the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, were applicable or appropriated to the Payment of the Principal or Interest upon the said Tallies and Orders made forth in pursuance of that Act; and the respective Owners and Proprietors of the said Tallies and Orders, which shall not be taken or admitted into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, shall have and receive, and be entitled to have and receive the Interest and Principal upon and for such Tallies and Orders, by and out of the Monies arising and coming into the Receipt of the Exchequer, which by the said last-mentioned Act of the said eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, were applicable or appropriated to the Payment of Principal and Interest upon or for the Tallies and Orders made forth in pursuance of that Act, in such and the like Manner, Proportion, and Course of Payment, as the same might or should have been paid, had not this Act been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until the five and twentieth Day of December, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, the whole and entire annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, shall be paid to the said Corporation in such Manner as in and by this Act is directed, without any Addition to, or Deduction or Abatement out of the same; and that within thirty Days after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, the Managers or Directors of the said intended Company or Corporation shall cause an exact Account to be made of the Sum total which the Capital Stock of the said Company shall then consist of, and also of the particular Tallies and Orders, Bills, Tickets, Certificates, and Debentures, which shall have been taken or admitted into the said Joint Stock, and the Sums for which respectively they were so taken or admitted; and also how much of the said Capital Stock shall have been subscribed or admitted for the Use of the Publick, as is herein before directed; and shall transmit such Account or Accounts, or Duplicate thereof, under the Hands of three or more of the Directors and chief Accountant of the said Company, for the time being, to the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, and Clerk of the Pells, to be registered and recorded among the Registers and Records of the said respective Offices; and the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, and Clerk of the Pells, Pells, are hereby required to return such Duplicates, or true Copies of them, under their respective Hands, (being first registred and recorded in their said respective Offices) so soon as conveniently may be, to the Managers or Directors of the said Company, for the Use of the said Company, without Fee or Charge; and if by such Account it shall appear that the annual Sum which unto that Time should have been paid to the said Company, according to the true Meaning of this Act, was really less than the annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, that then, and in such Case, so much Money as shall have been paid unto the said Company, more than by such Account shall appear should or ought to have been paid to them, shall be deducted and abated to the said Company by and out of the next accruing Payment or Payments of the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, or out of the proportionable Part thereof; and in such Case, from and after the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, there shall be paid and payable to the said Company, only such proportionable Part of the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, as shall be equal to the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for such Sum as the whole real Capital Stock of the said Company shall, by such Account, appear to be, or as shall be added to the said Capital Stock after the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, by such Ways and Means as are herein and hereby directed: And if by such Accounts it shall appear, the Joint Stock of the said Company shall amount to more than the afore-mentioned Sum of nine Millions four hundred seventy-one thousand three hundred and twenty-five Pounds, so that the Annuity for the same Capital Stock, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall amount to more than the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, that then, and in such Case, so much Money as shall then have been paid to the said Company less than after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the then whole real Capital Stock of the said Company, shall be immediately paid and made good to the said Company, in such Method and Manner, and by such Ways and Means, as is herein and hereby directed for Payment of the said Annuity, until the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen; and that from thenceforth, and at all Times after, there shall be added to the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, so much more Money as shall make the same amount to six Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon and for so much and such Sum as the whole real Capital Stock of the said Corporation shall then consist of; which additional Annuity shall, from the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, to the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, be paid and payable in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, as is herein before directed or prescribed for the paying and providing for the Annuity payable to the said Corporation, until the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen; and that from and after the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, such additional Annuity shall be and is hereby charged and chargeable upon, and made payable out of the said Funds hereby settled for Payment of the said annual Sum of five hundred sixty-eight thousand two hundred seventy-nine Pounds and ten Shillings, so and in such Manner as if the same had been in every Place throughout this Act added thereunto; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: It being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, That there shall be paid and payable to the said Corporation an Annuity after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and proportionably for a less Sum than one hundred Pounds, for the whole Sum, and no more nor less than the whole Sum, which the Capital Stock of the said Corporation shall, for the time being, amount unto.

If Joint Stock amount to less, then so much to be abated out of the next Payment.

If Joint Stock amount to more, then to be made good, &c. till 23 Dec. 1716.

Afterwards to be charged upon the Funds hereby settled.

8000l. per Annum to be paid to the Cashier of the Company, for their Charges, above the annual Sum.

Her Majesty by Commission to appoint how Shares shall be transferred.

Stock in the Company a personal Estate.

XXXV. Provided nevertheless, for as much as the said intended Company cannot be carried on, without a very great Charge, which if the same be wholly born by the Members of the said Company, would lessen their annual Interest, and may prove a great Discouragement to them; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That over and above the said annual Sum hereby settled, to be paid to the said Company, there shall be paid and payable to the said Company, to be erected by virtue of this Act, and their Successors, until the said annual Sum herein before settled shall be redeemed, as aforesaid, or to such Cashier or Cashiers, Person or Persons, as shall be authorized under the Common Seal of the said Company to receive the same, for the Use of the said Company, the further annual Sum of eight thousand Pounds, for and towards the Charge of Management of the said Company; which annual Sum of eight thousand Pounds is hereby charged and chargeable upon, and made to be paid and payable by and out of the same Funds, and at such Time and Times, and in such Manner, and by the same Ways, Means, and Methods as is and are herein and hereby prescribed, settled, or appointed for Payment of the said Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the total Amount of the said Capital Stock of the said Company.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by any such Commission, Charter, or Letters Patents, as aforesaid, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to limit, direct, and appoint, how, and in what Manner and Proportions, and under what Rules and Directions, the Shares of all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, in the said yearly Fund, and of and in the Stock of the said intended Company or Corporation, and every or any Part or Proportion thereof, shall and may be assignable or transferrable to such Person or Persons only, as shall freely and voluntarily accept of the same, and not otherwise; and that all Assignments and Transferences made in such Manner, and no other, shall be good and available in the Law.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Estates, Interests and Stocks of Money of the said intended Company or Corporation, to be created or established in pursuance of this Act, and the Share and Interest of each and every particular Member thereof, and therein, and of and in the Capital Stock of the said Company, shall be, and be adjudged, taken, and accepted, in Construction of Law, by all Judges, and in Courts of Law and Justice, and in all Courts and Places whatsoever, to be a Personal, and not a Real Estate, and shall go to the Executors or Administrators of the Person or Persons dying possessed thereof, or entitled thereunto, and not to the Heirs of such Person or Persons; any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Stock exempted from Taxes.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Annuities or Payments issuing out of the said yearly Fund, or the Shares, Parts, or Interests of any Members of the said intended Company or Corporation, of and in the Principal or Capital Stock of the same, or of or in the Benefit of Trade to be annexed thereunto, in pursuance of this Act, or the Stock or Money to be raised for that Purpose, during the Continuance of the same, shall be and are hereby exempted from any Taxes, Rates, Assessments, or Impositions whatsoever, by Act of Parliament or otherwise.

XXXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Infants shall, by the Gift, Devise, or Decease of the Parent or other Relation of such Infants, become entitled to any of the said Tallies, Orders, Bills, Certificates, or Debentures, intended to be provided for by this Act, in such Case the Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees of such Infant or Infants, shall or may be, and they are hereby, impowered and required, for the Benefit of such Infant or Infants, to subscribe or put into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation to be erected, as aforesaid, all such Tallies, Orders, Bills, Certificates, or Debentures, to which such Infant or Infants shall be so entitled, and to make the Payment for such Subscription and Subscriptions in the same Bills, Orders, Certificates, or Debentures; and such Infant and Infants shall, on making such Subscriptions and Payment, be and be deemed and become the Contributor thereof, and the said Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees, shall be discharged from the same; any thing herein contained, or any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Executors, Administrators, Trustees, and Mortgagees, to subscribe such Bills, &c. as they shall be possessed of.

XL. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons, who, as Executor or Administrator, Trustee or Mortgagee, shall be or become possessed of, interested in, or entitled unto any of the Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures intended to be provided for by this Act, shall and may, and they are hereby required to subscribe and put such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, as they shall be so possessed of, interested in, or intitled unto, into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation; and as to Executors or Administrators, the Stock they shall be entitled to, for or by Means of such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, shall be the same Assets in their Hands, as the said Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, were or would have been, had they not been put into the Joint Stock of the said Company; and as to Trustees and Mortgagees, the Stock which they shall be entitled unto in the said Company, for or in respect of such Trust or mortgaged Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, which they shall so put into the Joint Stock of the said Company, shall be subject and liable to the same Trusts, and Equity of Redemption, as such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures were or would have been, had they not been so put into the Joint Stock of the said Company.

How Bills, &c. coming into her Majesty's Hands
by Extent, &c. or belonging to several Persons jointly, shall be put into the Joint Stock.

XLI. And forasmuch as several of the said Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, or several Parts or Shares of and in some of them, have been seized or come into her Majesty's Hands by Extent or otherwise, and the other Part and Parts of the same do belong to several private Persons; and several other of the said Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, do or may belong to several Persons jointly, which has proved and may prove very prejudicial (for want of a Method of dividing and proportioning the same) to the several Persons concerned therein, according to their several and respective Proportions: Now therefore be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any of the said Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, either for the Whole or any Part thereof, are or shall be in the Hands of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, the same shall be put into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, in such Manner as any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being shall, by Writing under their Hand or Hands, direct; and the Stock of the said Company, which shall be had for and in lieu of such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, or Parts or Shares of such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures last mentioned, and the Produce thereof, upon Sale or otherwise, shall be applicable and applied to such Use and Uses as the same Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, and such Parts and Shares thereof, should or might have been applied, had not the same been put into the Joint Stock of the said Company; and the other Parts and Shares of such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, shall and may be put into the Joint Stock of the said Corporation, by the respective Owners and Proprietors of such other respective Parts and Shares, in his, her, or their own respective Name and Names; and they shall and may be accordingly respectively admitted into, and become Members of the said Company, for so much as their said respective Parts or Shares of or in such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, shall amount unto; and that in all Cases where any of the said Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, do or shall belong jointly to several Persons, each and every respective Person interested in, or entitled unto any Part or Parts, Share or Shares of or in such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, shall and may subscribe or put his, her, or their respective Part or Parts, Share or Shares of and in such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, into the said Joint Stock of the said Company, in his, her, or their own respective Name or Names, and shall and may be accordingly respectively admitted into, and become Members of the said Corporation, for so much as their said respective Parts or Shares of or in such Bills, Tickets, Certificates, or Debentures, shall amount unto.

Members of the Company may be Members of Parliament, and not liable to be Bankrupts, or to foreign Attachment.

XLII. And be it enacted, That no Member of the said intended Company, to be erected in pursuance of this Act, shall, in respect of his or her being a Member, Governor, Director, or Manager thereof, or having any Stock therein only, or by reason of any other Matter or Thing in this Act contained, be disabled from being or continuing a Member of Parliament, nor shall be or be adjudged liable to be a Bankrupt within the Intent or Meaning of all or any the Statutes made against or concerning Bankrupts; and that no Stock in the said intended Company shall be subject or liable to any foreign Attachment, by the Custom of the City of London, or otherwise.

XLIII. And for the better securing the Privilege of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, granted to them by Parliament, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful to or for the Corporation to be erected in pursuance of this Act, to borrow, owe, or take up any Sum or Sums of Money on their Bills or Notes payable at Demand, or at any less Time than six Months from the Borrowing thereof; and that it shall not be lawful for the Corporation to be erected by virtue of this Act, to discount any Bills of Exchange, or other Bills or Notes whatsoever, or to keep any Books or Cash for any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatsoever, other than and only the proper Books, Money, and Cash of the said Corporation to be erected by virtue of this Act.

Company not to borrow Money on Bills, payable at Demand, &c. nor to discount Bills, &c.

XLIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That the said yearly Fund hereby established, shall (under the like Penalties, as aforesaid) be issued at the said Receipt of Exchequer, to the said Company to be erected by virtue of this Act, or to such Treasurer or Treasurers, Cashier or Cashiers, Person or Persons, as shall be appointed, under the Common Seal of the said Company, to receive the same; and that the Payment thereof shall and may be made weekly, as fast as the Funds and Duties, hereby appointed for Payment thereof, shall produce Money into the Exchequer for the same, so as by such weekly or other Payments, the Whole of the Annuities, due to the said Company at the End of any one Quarter, be not exceeded.

The yearly Fund to be paid weekly to the Treasurer, &c.

XLV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Persons to be named Commissioners, in pursuance of this Act, or any of them, shall not incur or be subject to any Incapacity, Forfeiture, or Penalty whatsoever, for or in regard of their or any of their being named Commissioners, or acting in or upon such Commission, or any ways relating thereunto (except for Breach of Trust;) any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Commissioners not subject to any Incapacity, Forfeiture, or Penalty, except for Breach of Trust.

XLVI. And whereas it is of the greatest Consequence to the Honour and Welfare of this Kingdom, and for the Increase of the Strength and Riches thereof, and for the Vending the Product and Manufacture, Goods and Merchandizes of or brought into this Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor, that a Trade should be carried on to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, within the Limits herein after mentioned; which cannot so securely and successfully be begun and carried on, as by a Corporation with a Joint Stock, exclusive of all others: Now for the better Encouragement of all and every the Person and Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be or become Members of the said Company or Corporation, to be erected, as aforesaid; and to the End and Intent that a Trade to the South Seas, and other Parts of America within the Limits herein after mentioned, may be carried on and promoted, for the Advantage and Honour of this Kingdom; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Corporation to be erected in pursuance of this Act, and their Successors, shall have and be entitled unto, and they are hereby entitled unto and vested, from the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for ever, in the sole Trade and Traffick into, unto, and from all the Kingdoms, Lands, Countries, Territories, Islands, Cities, Towns, Ports, Havens, Creeks, and Places of America, on the East Side thereof, from the River of Aranca to the Southermost Part of the Terra del Fuego; and on the West Side thereof, from the said Southermost Part of the said Terra del Fuego, through the South Seas, to the Northermost Part of America; and into, unto, and from all Countries, Islands, and Places within the said Limits, which are reputed to belong to the Crown of Spain, or which shall hereafter be found out or discovered within the said Limits, not exceeding three hundred Leagues from the Continent of America, between the Southermost Part of Terra del Fuego, and the Northermost Part of America, on the West Side thereof, (except the Kingdom of Brazil, and such other Places on the said East Side of America, as are now in the actual Possession of the Crown of Portugal, and the Country of Surinam in the Possession of the States-General of the United Provinces;) it not being intended that the sole Trade to any Part of the East Side of America, now in the actual Possession of the Crown of Portugal, or the States-General, shall be granted or construed to be granted by this Act; but that it may be and remain lawful for all, and every, or any the Subjects of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, to trade and traffick to any Part of the East Side of America, now in the actual Possession of the Crown of Portugal, or the States-General, (but to no other Part of America within the Limits aforesaid) as fully and freely, in all Respects, as they might or could do if this Act had not been made; any Clause, proviso, Power, Privilege, Matter or Thing, herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The Limits of the Company's Charter in the South Seas in America.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Company to be erected in pursuance of this Act, and their Successors, for ever, and all and every Person and Persons, who from time to time shall be licensed by the said Corporation, to be erected in pursuance of this Act, to trade in the Stead of them, shall and lawfully may, for ever, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, or by such Factors, Agents, or Servants, as they shall think fit to intrust, and to and for no other Person or Persons whatsoever, freely to traffick and use the Trade of Merchandize, into, unto, and from the said South Seas, and other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid (except as aforesaid) and into, unto, and from all or any the Kingdoms, Lands, Territories, Islands, Cities, Towns, Ports, Havens, Creeks, and Places of America, or any of them, within the Limits aforesaid (except before excepted) where any Trade or Traffick of Merchandize is or may be used or had, and to and from every of them.

None else to traffick within their Limits.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, by her said Charter or Charters of Incorporation, to empower the said Company or Corporation, and their Successors, to make reasonable Laws, Constitutions, Orders, and Ordinances, from time to time, for the good Government of the said Trade to the South Seas, and other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid (except before excepted) and of the Traders, Factors, Agents, Officers, and others concerned in the same, and to inflict reasonable Penalties and Punishments by Imprisonments, Mulcts, Fines, and Amerciaments, for any Breach or Breaches thereof, and to levy such Mulcts, Fines, and Amerciaments, to the Use of the said Company or Corporation.

Her Majesty may empower the Company to make Laws for the good Government of the Trade.

Other Persons frequenting the South Seas, forfeit Ship and Lading, &c.

XLIX. And to the end the said South Seas, or the Kingdoms, Lands, Islands, Havens, Ports, Cities, Towns, and Places, within the Limits aforesaid, or any of them, shall not, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, be visited, frequented, or haunted by any other of the Subjects of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Subjects of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of what Degree or Quality soever they be, other than the said Company or Corporation, or their Factors, Agents or Servants, or other Persons by them licensed thereunto, according to the true Meaning of this Act, shall directly or indirectly visit or frequent, trade, traffick, or adventure, into, unto, or from the said South Seas, or other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or shall hire, freight, or fit out any Ship or Ships, or lade or put on board any Ship or Ships any Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever, with Intent to haunt, frequent, traffick, trade, or adventure into, unto, or from the said South Seas, or other Parts within the Limits aforesaid, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act; every such Offender and Offenders shall incur the Forfeiture and Loss of all Ships and Vessels which shall be employed in such Trade, with the Guns, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture thereunto belonging, as also all the Goods and Merchandizes laden thereupon, and all the Proceed and Effects of the same, and also double the Value thereof, viz. one fourth Part thereof to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, one other fourth Part thereof to such Person or Persons as will seize, inform, or sue for the same, and the other two fourth Parts thereof to the Use of the Company or Corporation to be erected in pursuance of this Act; such Forfeiture and Penalty to be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record, in Manner as aforesaid.

Commanders of Ships, &c. not conforming to the Company's Rules, incapacitated, &c.

LII. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the Commanders, or other Officers of such Ships of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, as shall be used or employed in or for the obtaining, promoting, securing or carrying on the said Trade, shall not in all Things lawful, during their being so employed, conform themselves to such Rules, Directions or Instructions, as they shall receive from the Managers or Directors of the said Company, or the major Part of them, in Writing under their Hands; every such Commander and Officer shall be for ever incapable to serve her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Place of Trust or Profit, and shall be liable to answer and pay to the said Company, and their Successors, double the Value of all such Loss or Damage as the said Company or their Successors shall suffer or sustain sustain by the Breach of such Orders, Directions or Instructions, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, in any Court of Record of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in Manner aforesaid.

LIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Persons as shall be born on board any of the Ships of War, or other Ships to be employed in or about the said Trade, or who shall be born in any the Lands, Territories, Countries, Islands, Ports, Cities, Towns or Places, which shall be discovered or possessed by the said Company, as aforesaid, or any of their Dependencies, shall be, and be adjudged, deemed and taken to be born within the Allegiance of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and shall be, and be deemed, and shall have and enjoy all the Privileges of the natural-born Subjects of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors.

Persons born on board any Ship, or in any Place, belonging to the Company, to be natural-born Subjects.

LIV. And so far as the said Trade does in a great Measure depend upon the timely Dispatch from 'Great Britain of the Ships which shall be employed therein;' Be it further enacted, That no Ship or Ships which shall belong to, or be hired, freighted, or employed by the said Company to be erected, as aforesaid, or such Persons as shall be licensed by them to trade within the Limits aforesaid, shall be, or be liable to be stopped or detained by any Embargo, or other Restraint whatsoever, unless such Ship or Ships be particularly mentioned or named in such Embargo, or Order for Restraint.

No Embargo on Company's Ships, unless particularly mentioned.

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, by or in the said Letters Patents, or Charter of Incorporation, or by any other Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, from time to time, to give and grant unto the said Company, to be erected, as aforesaid, such further and other Powers, Privileges, Immunities, Exemptions, and Advantages, as she or they in her or their great Wisdom shall think fit and convenient for the further and better promoting and encouraging the carrying on the said Trade hereby granted, and the maintaining and preserving the same; so always nevertheless as such Powers, Privileges, Immunities, Exemptions, and Advantages, be not contrary to the known Laws of this Realm, or the Prerogative of the Crown, or the Privileges of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

Her Majesty may grant further Powers, &c. to the Company by Charter.

Exception.

LVI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That upon any Importation of any Goods or Merchandizes by the said Company to be erected by virtue of this Act, and in all other Cases where Security is or shall be required to be given by the said Company to the Crown, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs, for the time being, and all other Person and Persons, who are to take such Security for the Crown, and they are hereby required, from time to time, to take such Security, by accepting and taking one or more Bond or Bonds, under the Common Seal of the said Company, as well for all such of the Customs and Duties chargeable and to be charged upon the Goods and Merchandizes so to be imported, as are bondable, and upon which Bonds have been usually given, as for all such other Matters and Things for which Security is to be given to the Crown by the said Company, as aforesaid; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers of the Customs, &c. to take the Company's Bonds for Customs, &c.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That all Bonds or Obligations under the Common Seal of the said Company, shall charge as well the annual Fund payable to the said Company, by virtue of this Act, as the other Stock, Effects, and Estate of the said Company, for the time being; and that all Bonds or Obligations, under the Common Seal of the said Company, whereby the said Company shall oblige themselves or their Successors to pay any Sum or Sums of Money, shall be assignable at Law, by Endorsement to be made upon such Bond or Obligation under the Hand or Hands of the respective Person or Persons to whom such Money shall, in such Bond or Obligation, be made payable, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and not otherwise; and that such Assignment and Assignments shall vest the Property of such Bond or Obligation, and of the Money due or to be due thereupon, in the Assignee or Assignees, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, from and immediately after the making of such Assignment; and every such Assignee or Assignees, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall and may, in Failure of Payment of the Money payable upon, or by virtue of such Bond or Obligation, bring and maintain his, her, or their Action of Debt at Law against the said Company, or their Successors, for the Money which shall be due upon such Bond or Obligation, in all Respects, as if such Bond or Obligation had been originally made unto, and the Money thereon due had been made payable therein unto such Assignee and Assignees, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: And that if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit the Common Seal of the said Company, or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter any Bond or Obligation under the Common Seal of the said Company, or shall offer to dispose of or pay away any such forged, counterfeited, or altered Bond, (knowing the same to be such) or shall demand the Money therein contained or pretended to be due thereon, or any Part thereof, of the said Company, or any of their Officers, (knowing such Bond or Obligation to be forged, counterfeited, or altered) with Intent to defraud the said Company, or their Successors, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever; every such Person and Persons so offending, (and being convicted thereof in due Form of Law) shall be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

Company's Bonds to charge their annual Fund and Stock, &c. and may be assigned.

Such Assignment to vest the Property in the Assignee.

Felony to counterfeit Company's Common Seal or Bonds.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Company to be erected by virtue of this Act, or their Successors, Agents, or Factors, or any Person or Persons licensed by them, to proceed, sail, navigate, or go into any the Limits before-mentioned, beyond the Southernmost Part of Terra del Fuego, except only through the Straights of Magellan, or round Terra del Fuego, nor to go from thence into any Part of the East Indies, nor return to Great Britain, or any other Port or Place in Europe, Asia, Africa, or America, by any other Way except through the said Straights of Magellan, or by Terra del Fuego aforesaid, under the Penalties and Forfeitures to be sued for and recovered, as is herein after mentioned; and also that it shall not be lawful for the said Company, or their Successors, Agents, or Factors, or any Person or Persons licensed by them, to trade, traffick, or adventure in any Goods, Wares, Commodities, or Merchandizes whatsoever, of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East Indies, Persia, China, or any other the Countries, Ports, or Places within the Limits granted to, or now vested in the united Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, and not hereby granted or intended to be granted to the Corporation to be erected by virtue of this Act, or with any Ships or Vessels coming from the Countries or Places aforesaid, (such East India Goods, Wares, Commodities, or Merchandize, as shall be actually exported from Great Britain, and also such Gold, Silver, and wrought Plate, Goods, and Commodities that are the Produce, Growth, or Manufactures of the West Indies, or Continent of America, only excepted) under the Penalties and Forfeitures to be sued for and recovered, as is herein after mentioned; and further, that it shall not be lawful for the said Company intended to be erected, as aforesaid, or their Successors, Agents, or Factors, or any Person or Persons licensed by them, to send, employ, or use any Ship, Vessel, Boat, or Bark whatsoever, within the said South Seas, from Terra del Fuego to the Northernmost Part of America, above three hundred Leagues to the Westward of and distant from the Lands, Countries, and Shores of Chili, Peru, Mexico, California, or any other the Lands and Shores of Southern or Northern America, contained between the said Terra del Fuego and the said Northernmost Part of America; upon Pain and Penalty that all such Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Barks whatsoever, going in or returning from the South Seas, otherwise than as aforesaid, or sent, employed, or used, failing, proceeding, or being, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, and all the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes on board them, together with their Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, and likewise all the Goods, Wares, Commodities, and Merchandizes of the East Indies, Persia, China, or other the Limits aforesaid, so traded in, as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) shall and may be seized and forfeited, and double the Value thereof shall also be forfeited by the Owners, Masters, or Employers thereof, or Traders therein; one third Part of all which Forfeitures to be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other two third Parts thereof to the said united Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; to be recovered with full Costs of Suit in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information.

' LIX. And for as much as nothing can more conduce to the Encrease of the Strength and Riches of this Kingdom, and the breeding able Seamen to serve her Majesty, as well in Time of War as Peace, than the preserving and enlarging the Fishery of this Realm; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in and by her said Letters Patents of Incorporation, or by any other Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to direct a Stock to consist of twenty Shillings upon every hundred Pounds of the Capital Stock of the said intended Company, to be raised by the Members thereof, in Proportion to their Stock, at such Times, and in such Manner, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, by such Letters Patents shall think fit and direct, so as no other of her Majesty's Subjects be thereby excluded from the Fishing Trade; the said Stock to be kept apart, and always employed in the improving, enlarging, and carrying on the Fishery of this Realm, or other Fishery, for the Use and Benefit of the Members of the said Company, in Proportion to their Stock.

LX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Money shall be called in from the Members of the said Corporation, to be erected in pursuance of this Act, for carrying on the Fishery, or other Trade hereby granted, but by the Order and Direction of a General Court of the said Company to be called for that Purpose, and whereof there shall be at least fourteen Days Notice in the London Gazette.

LXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall be capable of being elected a Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Director, of the said intended Corporation, during the Time that he shall be a Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Director of either of the respective Corporations of the Bank of England, or of the united Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; and every Person who shall be elected a Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Director of the said intended Corporation, shall, during the Time he shall be such Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Director, be incapable of being chosen a Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Director of either of the said respective Corporations of the Bank of England, or of the united Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies.

LXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it may be lawful for any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to order and direct any of the Tickets made out for the Pay of any Seamen, or others on board any of her Majesty's Ships, and which shall appear not to have been sold, disposed of, or parted with, to be paid ready Money, or to make any reasonable Advance or Allowance in Consideration of such Tickets being put or admitted into the Joint Stock of the said intended Corporation; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LXIII. And whereas by an Act made in the third and fourth Years of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, it is provided, That it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty's Subjects to trade with the Subjects of Spain, so as the said Liberty shall not be construed to extend to permit or allow the carrying of the several Goods and Commodities therein particularly enumerated, among which Commodities Iron is mentioned, which by Experience is found necessary to be traded in with the Subjects of Spain; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any of her Majesty's Subjects to carry unwrought Iron, and trade in the same with any of the Subjects of Spain; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXIV. And whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of his late Majesty King William the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the Encrease and Encouragement of Seamen, it was enacted, That such Seamen, and others, as are therein mentioned, who should be willing to enter and register themselves for Service in the Royal Fleet or Navy, should and might, by themselves or others, deliver in their Names, with their Ages and Places of Abode, and should be entred and registred, as by that Act is prescribed; and that every Seaman so registred, or such a Number of them as are therein mentioned, should have from his said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, (whether in actual Service or not) a yearly Bounty of forty Shillings apiece; and divers other Benefits, Exemptions, Privileges, and Advantages ‘vantages were thereby given, or intended to be given to the Seamen and others so registred, as in the said Act is expressed: And whereas by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of the said late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to enforce the Act for Encrease and Encouragement of Seamen, divers other Provisions are made, and Directions given touching the said registred Seamen, as by the said several Acts, Relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear: And whereas the same Acts, or either of them, have not had the good Effects, which were intended thereby for the Service of the Crown, or for the Encouragement of Seamen, but on the contrary have occasioned much Charge, Vexation and Trouble; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act, intituled, An Act for the Encrease and Encouragement of Seamen, and the said Act, intituled, An Act to enforce the Act for the Encrease and Encouragement of Seamen, and either of them, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things in them, and either of them contained, so far forth only as the same do or may concern the registering Seamen, or Persons who were thereby allowed or intended to be registred, or the Seamen or Persons so registred, or the giving any Bounty Money, or other Advantages in Respect thereof, are and shall be, by Force and Virtue of this present Act, repealed, and utterly void; any thing in the said former Acts, or either of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘LXV. And whereas several Persons, (who have, since the Commencement of the said Rates or Duties upon Monies, given, paid, or contracted for with Clerks and Apprentices, taken Clerks and Apprentices, and received and contracted for Sums of Money, with or in Respect of the taking such Clerks and Apprentices) have, through Neglect or Inadvertency, omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties payable in that Behalf, and to have the Indentures or Contracts stampd, within the Times for those Purposes respectively limited by the Act of Parliament in that Case made, whereby such Clerks and Apprentices will, according to that Act, be disabled to follow or exercise the intended Trades, Professions, or Employments, unless some further Provision be made: Now for Relief of such Clerks and Apprentices, and compelling the Masters and Mistresses duly to pay, for the future, the Rates and Duties last-mentioned; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Payment of the respective Rates and Duties which have been so omitted or neglected to be paid, as aforesaid, on or before the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, to such Person or Persons, to whom the same ought to be paid according to the said former Act, and tending to be stamped such Indentures or Contracts so omitted to be stamped, on or before the five and twentieth Day of December in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and eleven, the same Indentures or Contracts shall be stamped, and shall be good and available in Law or Equity, and the Clerks or Apprentices therein named shall be capable of following and exercising the respective intended Trades, Professions, or Employments, as fully as if the Rates or Duties so omitted to be paid, had been duly paid, and the Indentures or Contracts stamped within the respective Times in the same Act for those respective Purposes limited; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clause for Relief of Clerks, &c. whose Masters have omitted to pay the Duties, and to have their Indentures stamped.

‘LXVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Master or Mistress shall hereafter neglect to pay the said Rates or Duties last-mentioned, within the respective Times herein, and by the said former Act for that Purpose limited, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the same, every such Master and Mistress shall, for every such Neglect, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; the one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof with full Costs of Suit, to such Person or Persons as shall inform and sue for the same, in any of the Courts at Westminster, for such Neglect committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for any such Neglect there, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or any more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

that is to say, From and after the said fourteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, for all such Sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing thirty-six Bushels Winchester Measure, the Sum of two Shillings; and for such Sort of Coals as are sold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof, containing twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of two Shillings; and from and after the eight and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the eight and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, there shall be paid for every such said Chalder of Coals and Culm and Tun of Coals, the Sum of three Shillings; which said Sum of two Shillings for the first Part of the said Term, and three Shillings for the Remainder thereof, for every Chalder of Coals and Culm and Tun of Coals, shall, from time to time, during the full Term first before mentioned, be raised, levied, collected, and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner, Method, and Form, and at such Places, and by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expressed, or referred unto, in and by any Act, Law, or Statute, Acts, Laws, or Statutes now in Force for raising, levying, collecting, or answering any other Duty or Duties now payable to her Majesty for or upon upon any Coals or Culm whatsoever imported or brought Coastwise into the said Port of London; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Articles, Rules, and Clauses, in the same Acts, Laws, and Statutes, or any of them, mentioned or contained (except such and so much of them for and concerning which it is otherwise provided in this present Act) shall be of such Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, for the raising, levying, collecting, and answering the Impositions hereby granted, for and during the said Term and Terms herein before limited, as if the same were particularly and at large set down and enacted by this Act.

be paid into the Exchequer, and appropriated for building 50 New Churches, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Sum and Sums of Money, which shall be raised, collected, and levied, by Virtue of this Act (the necessary Charges of raising, managing, and accounting for the same always excepted) shall, from time to time, be brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, and by Force and Virtue of this Act, are and shall be appropriated, issued, applied, and disposed, for the Building of fifty New Churches of Stone and other proper Materials, with Towers or Steeples to each of them; and for purchasing of Sites of Churches and Church-yards, and Burying-places, in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof; and for making such Chapels Churches as are already built, and capable thereof, Parish Churches, and for purchasing Houses for the Habitations of the Ministers of the said Churches, and for applying the Sum of four thousand Pounds per Annum out of the said Duties and Impositions, towards the repairing and finishing the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster, and the Chapels of the same; and also for applying the Sum of six thousand Pounds per Annum out of the said Duties and Impositions arising by this Act, towards the finishing Greenwich Hospital, and the Chapel thereunto belonging, and to or for none other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

Fifty New Churches, whereof Greenwich to be one,
to be erected.
Chapels already erected, if fit, to be converted into Parish Churches.

III. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be erected and built, of Stone and other proper Materials, fifty Churches, with Towers or Steeples to each of them, whereof one shall be erected in the Parish of East Greenwich in the County of Kent.

IV. And whereas in several Parishes in or near the said Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, there are some Chapels erected by well-disposed Persons at their own Charge, for the publick Worship of God, as established in the Church of England, which are fit to be converted into Parish Churches, and to have Districts or Bounds of Parishes allotted and assigned to each of them; but several of them being built upon Terms for Years, under certain Ground Rents, and therefore are not consecrated, and there being several Deficiencies in their Constitutions, which are necessary in a Parish Church; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Chapels as are fit or proper, may be made Parish Churches.

Her Majesty, by Letters Patent, to nominate Commissioners.

V. And to the end the said New Churches, so to be erected, may be more conveniently situated, and the said Chapels, that are fit for Parish Churches, may be accommodated and provided with all Things necessary for those residing in the said Parishes, who stand most in need thereof; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, by Letters Patents, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute, and appoint such Persons as her Majesty shall think fit to be Commissioners for the Purposes herein after mentioned; which said Commissioners, or such or so many of them as shall, by the said Commission, be authorized, shall, within twenty Days after they shall be so constituted, as aforesaid, meet, and so, from time to time, as often as there shall be Occasion, with or without Adjournments, and shall enquire and inform themselves in what Parishes the said New Churches, except that for Greenwich, are most necessary to be built, and of proper Places for the Sites of the said respective New Churches, and also a Cemetery, or Church-yard, for each of the said Churches, for the Burial of Christian People, to be purchased; and also which of the said Chapels are fit to be made Parish Churches; and shall ascertain the several Houses, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the Bounds and Limits which in their Judgment or Opinion may be fit to be made distinct Parishes, and to enquire and inform themselves by the best Means they can, of the Value of such Houses, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and of the respective Estates and Interests therein, which the said Commissioners, or such or so many of them as shall be authorized, as aforesaid, shall think necessary to be purchased for the said Sites and Cemeteries, and for Houses for the Habitations of the respective Ministers; and the said Commissioners, or such or so many of them as shall be authorized, as aforesaid, shall, on or before the four and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, report or certify to her Majesty in Writing, under their Hands and Seals, such Matters and Things as shall appear to them, upon their Inquiries aforesaid, with their Opinions thereupon, and present a Duplicate of such Report or Certificate to each of the two Houses of Parliament, to the end such further Directions may be given thereupon, as may be pursuant to her Majesty's pious Intentions in the Premises.

VI. Provided

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from time to time, to direct the Officers at the Receipt of Exchequer to receive by Way of Loan, from any Person or Persons willing to make the same upon Credit of this Act, such Sum and Sums of Money as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors shall, from time to time, or at any Time or Times, think necessary, for the Beginning, carrying on, or effecting all or any the Services by this Act intended, and to allow Interest after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Forbearance thereof; and that the Money so lent shall not be taxed or assessed by any Act of Parliament whatsoever; and that such Lenders shall have Tallies of Loan, and Orders for their Repayment, with such Interest, as aforesaid, out of the Duties granted by this Act, the Principal to be paid in Course, according to the respective Dates of the Tallies, and the Interest every three Months till the Repayment of the Principal; and that no Fee or Reward shall be demanded or taken of any her Majesty's Subjects, in or for the Payment thereof; and that the Money of the said Duties shall be liable to satisfy such Orders accordingly, without being diverted from the same to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose, upon Pain of forfeiting Treble Damages, and Full Costs, to the Party grieved by the Party offending; and that such Orders shall be assignable by Endorsements thereupon, according to the Course in such Cases used in the Exchequer.

VII. Provided always, That such Sums as at any Time or Times before the said fourteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall become due for Interest of Money to be lent upon this Act, shall and may be satisfied as the said Interest shall, from time to time, become due, out of any Monies whatsoever, which shall come into the Exchequer by Way of Loan, on the Credit aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, during the Continuance of this Act, to charge or lay any of the Duties or Impositions hereby imposed upon such Coals (not exceeding one hundred Chalders by the Year) as shall be brought into the Port of London, from Newcastle upon Tyne, or any other Place, for the only Use and Service of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the eighth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for completing the building and adorning the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London, and for repairing the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, it was (among other Things) enacted, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, the annual Stipend or Allowance to the Person who was or should be Supervisor or Surveyor General of the Building of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's should be paid in the Manner and Proportions following, that is to say, one Moiety thereof yearly, and the other Moiety in one entire Sum, within Six Months after the finishing the said Cathedral Church; It is hereby declared, That the said Cathedral Church, so far as by the said Act was required to be done and performed by the said Surveyor General, is finished; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said suspended Salary shall be paid to the said Surveyor, on or before the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven; and that all other standing Salaries to any Officers employed only for the carrying on or finishing the said Building, shall, from the said five and twentieth Day of December, cease and determine. Ancient Coachmen, &c. to be first licensed.

Commissioners not to license above 800 Coaches, and 200 Chairs.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners which shall be so appointed, shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby impowered and required, under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of the major Part of them, from time to time, to license all such Persons, who from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, at any Time or Times within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years, shall drive or keep any Hackney Coach or Coach Horses within the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs of the same, or within the Parishes comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; and the Number of all Hackney Coaches so to be licensed, shall not, at any one Time, within or during the said Term, exceed eight hundred; and upon every of the said Licences, there shall be reserved and made payable unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the Weekly Sum of five Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid monthly from the Commencement of every such Licence, during the Continuance thereof respectively without any Deduction or Abatement for any Matter, Cause, or Thing whatsoever, with such Covenants, Conditions, and Provisoos therein to be inserted, for the more effectual Payment thereof, as the said Commissioners, in their Discretions, shall think fit.

III. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches now being, and the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches for the time being, or the major Part of them, shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby impowered and required, under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of the major Part of them, to license all such Hackney Chairs, which from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, shall be kept and used for Hire, within the said Cities of London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof, and within all and every the Parishes and Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; and that the Number of all such Chairs so to be licensed, shall not at any one Time, within or during the Term last-mentioned, exceed two hundred; and upon every one of the said Licences, so to be granted, for keeping and using for Hire an Hackney Chair, there shall be reserved and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the annual Sum of ten Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid quarterly, at the four most usual Feasts in the Year, by equal Portions, during the Continuance of every such Licence for a Chair, with such Covenants, Provisoos, and Conditions, for the more effectual Payment thereof, as the said Commissioners, in their Discretions, shall think fit and reasonable; the first of the said quarterly Payments to begin and to be made at such of the said Feast Days as shall next happen after the granting of every such Licence for a Chair respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, during the said Term of two and thirty Years from thence next ensuing, no Person or Persons shall presume to drive, or lett to Hire, by the Hour or Day, or otherwise, any Hackney Coach, or Coach Horses, within the Cities of London or Westminster, or Suburbs of the same, or within the Parishes or Places comprized within the Bills of Mortality, without such Leave or Licence first obtained from the said Commissioners, as aforesaid, upon Pain to forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds; and that from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the said Term of thirty-two Years from thence next ensuing, no Person or Persons shall presume to carry for Hire, in any Hackney or common Chair, any Person or Persons whatsoever, within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs of the same, or within any of the Parishes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, without such Licence to be first obtained for so doing from the said Commissioners, as aforesaid, upon Pain to forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of forty Shillings; and that no Horse, Gelding, or Mare, to be used with any Hackney Coach, shall be under the Size of fourteen Hands high, according to the Standard; and that every Coach and Chair respectively, so licensed, shall have a Mark of Distinction, by Figure or otherwise, as the said Commissioners shall think fit, and the said Mark shall be placed on each Side of every such Coach and Chair respectively, in the most convenient Manner to be taken Notice of, to the end that they may be known, if any Complaints shall be made of them; and that if any Person shall be licensed to keep more than one Hackney Coach, or more than one Hackney Chair at the same Time, every one of them shall have several Figures or Marks of Distinction, in the same Manner as if they did belong to several Persons; and that no Person shall put the same Figure or Mark of Distinction upon his Coach or Chair that is appointed for any other Coach or Chair, or shall blot out, obliterate, alter, or deface the Figure or Mark of Distinction appointed by the said Commissioners for his Coach or Chair, under the Forfeiture of five Pounds for every of the Offences last-mentioned; one Moiety whereof shall be to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; and the said Commissioners for regulating and licensing Coaches and Chairs, are hereby required, in the first Place, to license all such Persons as have been ancient Coachmen, or ancient Chairmen, or the Widows of any of them, unless they shall neglect or refuse to take such Licences upon the respective Terms hereby allowed, within a reasonable Time to be limited by the said Commissioners, not less than twenty Days.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Commissioner so appointed, shall grant Licences for more than the Number of eight hundred Hackney Coaches, or two hundred Chairs, to be in being at any one and the same Time, he shall forfeit, for every such Offence, one hundred Pounds, to be prosecuted and recovered by any Person who will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Hackney Coachman so to be licensed in pursuance of this Act, nor the Driver of such Coach, shall presume to take for his Hire, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or within ten Miles thereof, above the Rates of ten Shillings for a Day, reckoning twelve Hours to the Day, and by the Hour not above eighteen Pence for the first Hour, and twelve Pence for every Hour after; and that no Gentleman or other Person shall pay from any of the Inns of Court or thereabouts, to any Part of St. James's, or City of Westminster, (except beyond Tuttle Street) above twelve Pence; and the same Prices from the same Places to the Inns of Court, or Places thereabouts; and from any of the said Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to the Royal Exchange, twelve Pence; and if to the Tower of London, or Bishopsgate Street, or Aldgate, or thereabouts, one Shilling and six Pence; and so from the same Places to the said Inns of Court, as aforesaid; and the like Rates from and to any Place at the like Distance with the Places before-mentioned.

Rates of Hackney Coaches.

VII. Provided always, That no Gentleman or other Person shall be obliged to pay above twelve Pence for the Use of an Hackney Coach for any Distance, (not particularly set down in this Act) so as the same do not exceed one Mile and four Furlongs; and that no Gentleman or other Person shall be obliged to pay above one Shilling and six Pence for the Use of an Hackney Coach for any Distance, (not particularly set down in this Act) being above one Mile and four Furlongs, and not exceeding two Miles; and that the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall cause to be admeasured, and published in Writing to be fixed at the Royal Exchange in London, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, the several Distances between the most noted Places within the Limits of the said Weekly Bills, (not particularly set down in this Act) according to which the said Rates of twelve Pence, and one Shilling and six Pence respectively ought to be paid, as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person whatsoever shall be obliged to pay to the Chairmen for an Hackney Chair carried any Distance within the Limits aforesaid, more than the Rate by this Act allowable for an Hackney Coach driven two third Parts of the same Distance; and that the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall cause to be admeasured, and published in Writing, to be affixed, as aforesaid, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, the several Rates allowable by this Act to Chairmen, as aforesaid, for their Carriage to and from the most noted Places where such Chairs are commonly used in the City and Limits aforesaid; and if any Hackney Coachman or Chairman shall refuse to go at, or shall exact more for his Hire than the several Rates hereby limited, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings.

Rates of Chairmen.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall appoint such other Officer or Officers under them, as they shall find necessary for carrying on the said Service, with such moderate Allowances as shall be thought fit; and the said Commissioners, and other Officers under them, and every of them, are hereby required not to take or demand, directly or indirectly, of any Person, for their Licences, any Sum of Money, or other Gratuity or Consideration whatsoever, other than what is herein directed to be paid to her Majesty, nor to take or demand any Fee or Reward from any Person or Persons, for any Thing by them to be done in Execution of their respective Offices or Employments, other than from her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, upon Pain to forfeit, for every such Offence, their respective Offices and Employments, and to be incapable of any Grant thereof, or of any other Office; except only that it shall be lawful for the Clerks, for their Pains in writing and ingrossing each Licence, to have and receive the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence, and no more.

Commissioners to appoint Under Officers.

Clerks to have 2s. 6d. for each Licence.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for licensing Hackney Coaches and Chairs, and every of them, and every Officer to be appointed under them, shall before two or more of the said Commissioners take an Oath for the due and faithful Execution of their Offices and Employments; and that no Person or Persons shall be capable of intermeddling with the Execution of the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted, and any of them, other than the Power of administering the aforesaid Oath to their fellow Commissioners, until they shall have taken the said Oaths, as aforesaid.

Commissioners and Officers to be sworn.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Sums of Money, Rents and Revenues by this Act arising, over and above what shall be sufficient for Salaries and other incident Charges for collecting or managing the same, shall, from time to time, be paid by the said Commissioners, or such other Person or Persons as shall be appointed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord Treasurer for the time being, to receive the same, into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and the said Commissioners shall, upon Oath, deliver Books of Accounts fairly written, containing all the Licences granted, and the Names and Surnames of the respective Persons, to whom such Licences are granted, and the Rents and Profits thereby accrued, unto the Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, once in every Year, or oftener, if required.

Commissioners to pay into the Exchequer, and account annually.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said Weekly and other Rents and Sums of Money, to be reserved or payable, as aforesaid, for the said Licences respectively, and all Forfeitures and Penalties that shall grow due or payable by virtue of this Act, or Breach of any Orders or By-Laws that shall be made by the said Commissioners, in Pursuance of the Authority to them given by this Act for that Purpose, (the said Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred by the said Commissioners themselves, or any of them, excepted) shall be levied by Distress of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, which shall be sold within ten Days, and the Overplus shall be returned to the Owner, the Charges of making and selling the Distress being first deducted and allowed, together with the Charge of the Warrant for the Distress, if upon seven Days Notice they do not pay the Fines and Penalties incurred, without such Warrant; and in Default of Distress for any such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, as aforesaid, except before excepted, the Offenders neglecting or refusing to pay the same, shall by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, be committed to Prison, there to continue without Bail or Mainprize, till he, she, or they have paid such Fine or Forfeiture, or Penalty, as was due from him, her, or them; and in case any such Weekly or other Rent or Payment for any Hackney Coach or Chair, as aforesaid, shall be behind and unpaid for the Space of fourteen Days, after the same shall become due, and ought to be paid, as aforesaid, in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for regulating and licensing the said Coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, for the time being, (without any Demand to be first made of the said Arrear) to revoke and countermand the Licence upon which such Arrears shall be incurred, and instead thereof to license any other Hackney Coachman or Chairman in the Manner by this Act prescribed; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Offences to be heard in a summary Way by the Commissioners.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Offences against this Act, or any thing therein contained, (other than the Offences of the Commissioners themselves) shall be heard and determined in a summary Way by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses, (the Party accused being summoned to make his Defence) or upon Confession of the Party offending; and one Moiety of all the Forfeitures and Penalties to be incurred by this Act, shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Informer.

Persons sued, may plead the General Issue, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, he or they shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon Demurrer, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonsuited, discontinued or forbear prosecuting their said Actions, then such Defendant and Defendants shall have Double Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have such Remedy as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

No Certiorari.

XV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari shall supersede Execution, or other Proceeding upon any Order or Orders made by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act, but that Execution and other Proceedings shall and may be had and made thereupon; any such Writ or Writs or Allowance thereof notwithstanding.

Commissioners may make By-Laws. By 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 57. §. 1. Renters of Licences, and Drivers of Coaches are bound by the Commissioners By-Laws.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better regulating and ordering such Persons who shall be licensed to keep Hackney Coaches or Chairs, as aforesaid, and to prevent any Disturbances, and other Inconveniencies in the Streets and Highways, where such Coaches or Chairs shall stand or be driven, or such Chairs shall stand or be carried, and for punishing thereof; it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, from time to time, to make such Orders, By-Laws and Ordinances to bind such Persons only, who shall have Licences to keep Hackney Coaches or Chairs, and to annex such reasonable Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as to them in their Discretions shall seem fit, so as such Orders, By-Laws, or Ordinances be made agreeable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and be for the better putting in Execution thereof, and for the good Government and Regulation of the Persons licensed to keep Coaches and Chairs, and so as they do not contain any thing repugnant to the Laws of the Realm.

By-Laws to be approved by Lord Chancellor, &c. and executed by Justices of Peace, &c.

XVII. Provided nevertheless, and it is enacted, That such Rules, Orders, and By-Laws, so to be made by the said Commissioners, shall be allowed and approved by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being, and the Chief Justice of either Bench, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, or any three of them; and after such Allowance the same shall be printed and made publick; and the Breach of any of the Rules and Orders appointed by this Act, and the Penalties thereupon, and the Rules, Orders and By-Laws to be made by the said Commissioners, and allowed, as aforesaid, and the Forfeitures and Penalties thereupon, shall be punishable, and inflicted, and put in Execution, by any Justice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magistrate of the County, City, or Place where such Offence shall be committed, in as full and ample Manner as the said Commissioners, hereby to be appointed, might do the same, and as if the said By-Laws, Rules, and Orders were particularly inserted in this present Act; but no Person shall be twice punished for the same Offence.

The Queen's Part of Penalties to be transmitted to the Receiver General of these Duties.

XVIII. Provided always, That all Penalties which shall be levied by any Justice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magistrate, in pursuance of this Act, or any By-Laws to be made, as aforesaid, or the Queen's Part of the same, shall, from time to time, be transmitted by them to the Receiver General of the said Revenues arising by Hackney Coaches and Chairs, and a Certificate thereof to the said Commissioners for licensing and regulating the same, from time to time, within ten Days after the levying any such Penalties, upon Pain of forfeiting double the Value of the Sum which should be so transmitted and certified, that is to say, two Third Parts thereof to the Use of the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Third Part to him or them that will inform or sue for the same.

On Misbehaviour, Commissioners may revoke Coachman's Licence, &c.

XIX. And for the better preventing the Misbehaviour of any Coachman or Chairman, to be licensed in pursuance of this Act, it is hereby declared and enacted, That upon Complaint of any Gentleman, or other Person, the said Commissioners for granting Licences pursuant to this Act, or the major Part of them, shall and may summon the Coachman and Chairman respectively, to answer the said Complaint; and upon his or their being heard, or making Default of Appearance, shall and may (in case they see Cause) revoke the Licence of such Coachman or Chairman, for such Misbehaviour, in giving abusive Language, or otherwise, and license another Coachman or other Chairman in his Stead.

Coachmen, &c. may ply on the Lord's Day. 29 Car. 2. c. 7.

XX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and other Acts formerly made for the better Observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, the standing to hire, and driving Hackney Coaches, and the standing to hire, and carrying of Chairs, on the Lord's Day, are or may be understood to be forbidden or restrained: And whereas the said Refrstraint is many Times found inconvenient, as well in order to the Observation of the ‘Day, as otherwise.’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Licensed Hackney Coachman, or his Driver, or any Chairmen, to ply and stand with their Coaches and Chairs, and to drive and carry the same, respectively, on the Lord’s Day, within the Limits of the said Weekly Bills of Mortality; the said former Acts, or any of them, or any Contrivance thereupon to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. And it is hereby further enacted That an Account of the Profits and Duties arising by virtue of this Act, by licensing Coaches and Chairs, shall every Year during the Continuance thereof, be made up before the Auditors of the Imprests.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay any Coachman or Chairmen the Money justly due to him or them for carrying in his or their Coach or Chair, or shall wilfully cut, deface, or break any such Coach or Chair, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of the Peace where such Refusal shall be made, or Damage done, upon Complaint thereof, to grant a Warrant to bring before him the Person against whom such Complaint shall be made, and upon Proof made upon Oath, (which such Justice hath hereby Power to administer) to award reasonable Satisfaction to the Party grieved for his Damage and Costs, and upon Refusal to pay or make such Satisfaction, to bind over the Party refusing to the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the City or County where the Offence shall be committed; and the Justices in such Quarter-Sessions have hereby Power finally to hear and determine the Matter of the said Complaint and to award Satisfaction to the Party grieved, and for Non-payment to levy the same by Distress upon his Goods and Chattels.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for the several and respective Things herein after mentioned, which shall be ingrossed, printed or written, the several and respective Rates, Duties, Charges and Sums of Money herein after expressed, in Manner following; that is to say,

For every Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written any Certificate or Debenture for drawing back any Customs or Duties, or any Part of any Customs or Duties, for or in respect of the re-shipping or exporting of any Goods or Merchandizes, which at any Time or Times, within or during the Term of two and thirty Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall be exported, or shipped to be exported from Great Britain, for any Parts beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Person for whose Benefit, or at whose Instance such Debenture or Certificate shall be obtained, the Sum of eight Pence.

For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written any Note or Bill of Lading, which shall be signed for any Goods or Merchandizes to be exported at any Time or Times within or during the Term last mentioned, the Sum of four Pence.

For every Almanack or Kalendar for any one particular Year, or for any Time less than a Year, which shall, (within or during the same Term) be printed on one Side only of any one Sheet or Piece of Paper only the Sum of one Penny.

For every other Almanack or Kalendar, for any one particular Year, which shall be printed within or during the said Term, the Sum of two Pence.

Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Almanack or Kalendar shall, during the Term last mentioned, be made to serve for several Years, that then the respective Rates aforesaid shall be paid for every such Year.

For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which shall, at any Time or Times within or during the Term last mentioned, be ingrossed or written any Licence for retailing of Wine, the Sum of four Shillings.

For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which shall (during the same Term) be ingrossed or written any Licence for selling of Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors by Retail, the Sum of one Shilling.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better and more effectual levying, collecting, and paying unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the said several Duties hereby granted and made payable for or in respect of the said Certificates, Debentures, Bills or Notes of Lading, Almanacks, and Licences, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commissioners for the time being, appointed to manage the Duties payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and charged on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to cause all such further new Stamps to be provided to denote the Duties last mentioned, as shall be requisite; and to do all other Things necessary to be by them done for the putting this Act in due Execution with relation to those Duties.

XXV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Vellum, Parchment and Paper, upon which any such Certificate, Debenture, Bill or Note of Lading, Almanack or Licence, as aforesaid, shall, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, be ingrossed, written or printed, shall before such Ingrossing, Writing, or Printing, be brought to the Head Office for stamping or marking of Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and the said Commissioners, by themselves, or by their Officers employed under them, shall, and they are hereby impowered and required, forthwith, upon Demand to them made by any Person or Persons, from time to time, to stamp or mark, as this Act directs, any Quantities or Parcels of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, he or they paying to the Receiver General

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all publick Officers who shall, from time to time, have in their Custody, any of the said Debentures, or any publick Books, Files, Records, Remembrances, Dockets, or Proceedings, the Sight or Knowledge whereof may tend to the securing of these or any her Majesty's Stamp Duties, or to the Proof or Discovery of any Fraud or Omission in relation thereto, or to any of them, shall at any seasonable Time or Times, permit any Officer or Officers thereunto authorized by the Commissioners, for the time being, appointed to manage those Duties, or the major Part of them, to inspect and view all such Books, Files, Records, Remembrances, Dockets, and Proceedings, as aforesaid, and to take thereout such Notes and Memorandums as shall be necessary for the Purposes last-mentioned, without Fee or Reward, upon Pain that such Clerk or other Officer or Officers, who shall refuse or neglect so to do, upon reasonable Request in that Behalf made, shall, for every such Refusal and Neglect, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds with full Costs of Suit.

Commissioners,
&c. to be sworn.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Commissioner and Officer, who shall act in or about the managing or collecting the Duties last-mentioned, and hereby granted, shall, before he shall act in or about the same, take the Oath following, that is to say,

Their Oath.

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute the Trust reposed in me, pursuant to the Act of Parliament, whereby certain Duties are charged upon Certificates, Debentures, Bills of Lading, Almanacks, and certain Licences, to be stamped as is therein mentioned, without Fraud or Concealment; and shall, from time to time, true Account make of my Doings therein, and deliver the same to such Person or Persons as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall appoint to receive such Account; and shall take no Fee, Reward, or Profit, for the Execution or Performance of the said Trust, or the Business relating thereto, from any Person or Persons, other than such as shall be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or some other Person or Persons under her or them to that Purpose authorized.’

Which Oath shall and may be administered by any two or more of the Commissioners last-mentioned, or any Justice of the Peace.

Commissioners to observe the Orders of the Treasury.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners for managing the said Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and all other Officers who shall be employed in or about the collecting or managing of the Duties last-mentioned, and hereby granted, shall, in and for the better Execution of their said Offices and Trusts, observe and perform such Rules, Methods, and Orders as they respectively shall, from time to time, receive from the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being; and that no Fee or Reward shall be demanded or taken by any her Majesty's Officers, relating to the said

Stamp

Stamp Duties, from any of her Majesty's Subjects, for any Matter or Thing to be done in pursuance of this Act; and in case any Officer intrusted, or to be intrusted in the Execution of this Act, in Relation to the said Stamp Duties, shall refuse or neglect to perform any Matter or Thing by this Act required to be done or performed by him, whereby any of her Majesty's Subjects shall or may sustain any Damage whatsoever, such Officer so offending, shall be liable by any Action to be founded on this Statute, to answer to the Party grieved all such Damages with treble Costs of Suit.

XXXI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties last-mentioned and hereby granted, shall be all paid, from time to time, into the Hands of the Receiver General, for the time being, of the said Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who shall keep a separate and distinct Account thereof, and pay the same into the Receipt of the Exchequer of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, weekly, on Wednesday in every Week, unless it be an holyday, and then the next Day after that shall not be an Holyday, for the Purposes in this Act expressed.

Separate Account, and weekly Payment.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as often as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall think fit to alter or renew the said Marks or Stamps, to be provided or used in pursuance of this Act, or any of them, it shall be lawful for all Persons, who shall at that Time have in their Custody or Possession, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper marked with the Stamp or Stamps which shall be so altered or renewed, and upon which none of the Matters or Things hereby charged shall be engrossed, written, or printed, at any Time within the Space of sixty Days after such Intention of renewing or altering shall be published by Proclamation, to bring or send such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper to the said Commissioners at the said Head Office, or to such Officers as shall be appointed in that Behalf; and the said Commissioners and Officers respectively are hereby required to deliver, or cause to be delivered to the several Persons, who shall so bring and deliver any Quantity of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, the like Quantity of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and as good in Quality, stamp with such new Stamps, without demanding or taking, directly or indirectly, for the same, any Sum of Money or Consideration whatsoever, under the Penalty of forfeiting, for every such Offence, one hundred Pounds, to be sued for, recovered, and divided, in such Manner as the other Penalties in this Act, relating to the said Duties hereby charged on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, are directed to be sued for, recovered, and divided; and in case any Person shall neglect or refuse, within the Time aforesaid, to bring or cause to be brought and delivered to the said Commissioners or Officers as aforesaid, any such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, the same is hereby declared to be of no other Effect or Use than if it had never been stamped; and that all Matters or Things charged with the Duties last-mentioned, and hereby granted, which shall after that Time be engrossed or written thereon, shall be of no other Effect than if they had been engrossed or written on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper not marked or stamped at all; and all Persons, who shall engross or write any the Matters or Things hereby charged on such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper after the said Time, shall forfeit and suffer, as herein before is enacted for Persons writing or engrossing on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or stamped.

Upon altering Stamps those who have Paper, &c. marked by them, may have it changed in 60 Days.

Paper, &c. not brought in of no Use, &c.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as often as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall think fit to alter the said Stamps, or any of them, that the Proclamation which is hereby intended to be made for the giving all Persons due Notice thereof, shall, within twenty Days after the Date thereof, be sent to the Mayor, Chief Magistrate, or other Head Officer of every City, Corporation, Borough, and Market Town, throughout her Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain; which Officers respectively shall cause the same to be published to the Inhabitants of such City, Corporation, or Town, either on the next Market Day, or next Sunday in the Church, immediately after the Time of Divine Service, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Proclamation for altering Stamps to be sent to the Mayors, &c. in 20 Days.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, at any Time or Times hereafter, counterfeit, or forge any Stamp or Mark, to resemble any Stamp or Mark which shall be provided, made, or used in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or shall utter, vend, or sell any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with such counterfeit Mark or Stamp thereupon, knowing such Mark or Stamp to be counterfeit; or if any Person whatsoever shall privately and fraudulently use any Stamp, provided or used, or to be provided or used in pursuance of this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, so as thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any Duty payable by this or any such former Act or Acts of Parliament; then every such Person so offending, and being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Counterfeiting Stamps, &c. Felony. By 6 Geo. I. c. 21. §. 60. it is Felony to procure Vellum, &c. to be marked with counterfeit Stamps. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, for the time being, appointed to manage the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall take care that the several Parts of the Kingdom of Great Britain shall, from time to time, be sufficiently furnished with Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, stamped and marked, as aforesaid, so as the Subjects of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, may have it in their Election to buy the same of the Officers or Persons to be employed by the said Commissioners at the usual and most common Rates above the said Duties, or to bring their own Vellum, Parchment, or Paper to be stamped, as aforesaid, or to furnish themselves or others that shall have done the same.

XXXVI. And for the better Distribution of the said Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and that the Subjects may have the same with more Convenience, and at an easy Rate; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, and the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall once in every Year, at least, set the Prices of stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, that it shall be sold at; and that the said Commissioners for the said Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall stamp the said Price so set upon every every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, so by them to be sold; and that the said Commissioners shall likewise allow and pay to every Person that shall bring Vellum, Parchment, or Paper to the said Head Office to be stamped in pursuance of this Act (the Duty whereof hereby imposed shall amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or upwards) after the Rate of six Pounds in the Hundred Pounds per Annum, for six Months, upon present Payment of the said Duty upon the said Vellum, Parchment, or Paper so by them brought, over and above the like Allowance upon the same Quantity by the said former Acts; and that any Persons that shall buy of the said Commissioners, or their Agents, Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, at the Head Office for stamping the same, the Duty whereof amounts to the like Sum of ten Pounds, or upwards, shall have the same Allowance.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties hereby imposed, relating to the said Duties upon stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall be, the one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with Full Costs of Suit, to such Person or Persons as shall inform and sue for the same, in any of her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and in her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or any more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

XXXVIII. And in Regard of the Uncertainty how many Almanacks for any one Year will be sold, it is hereby provided and enacted, That the Commissioners for managing the said Stamp Duties, shall and may deliver to the Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, by or for whom any Almanack or Almanacks is or are to be printed or published, Paper marked or stampd, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, for the printing such Almanack or Almanacks, upon his, her, or their giving sufficient Security to pay the Amount of the Duties hereby charged thereupon, within the Space of three Months after such Delivery; and that the said Commissioners, upon bringing to them any Number of the Copies of such Almanacks, within the said Space of three Months, and Request to them in that Behalf made, shall cancel all the Stamps upon such Copies, and abate to such Person or Persons so much of the Money due upon such his or their Security or Securities, as such cancelled Stamps shall amount unto; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Term of thirty-two Years from thence next ensuing, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for all playing Cards and Dice, which within or during the Term last-mentioned, shall be made fit for Sale or Use in Great Britain, or imported into the same, the Duties following; that is to say, for every Pack of such Cards the Sum of Six-pence, and for every Pair of such Dice the Sum of five Shillings, to be paid by the Makers or Importers thereof respectively.

XL. And it is hereby enacted, That the Duties upon such Cards and Dice imported shall be levied and brought into the Exchequer, in such Manner and Form, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as any her Majesty's Customs or Duties on Subsidy Goods Inwards, are, by any Laws now in Force, to be levied and brought into the said Exchequer.

XLI. And it is hereby enacted, That all Makers of Playing Cards or Dice, in Great Britain, after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eleven, before they respectively shall begin to make any such Cards or Dice, shall give or send Notice in Writing of the usual House or Place where they respectively shall make, or intend to make the same; which Notice shall be given to the said Commissioners for the Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or to their Officers next adjacent to the Place where such Cards or Dice shall be made; and the like Notice shall be given or sent, by every such Maker of Cards or Dice during the Term last mentioned, as often as they respectively shall change their Places for that Purpose; and as often as any Person or Persons shall set up, or exercise the Employment of making Cards or Dice, in any House or Place whatsoever in Great Britain, during the last mentioned Term, the like Notice shall be given or sent; upon Pain that every Person making Default in giving such Notice, as aforesaid, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; and that all and every Person and Persons, who shall, during the Term last mentioned, make any Cards or Dice in any House or Place not notified, as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; and that all and every such Person and Persons shall permit the proper Officers for the said Duties to enter such House or Place for making of Cards and Dice, and take an Account of the Cards and Dice there made, under the Penalty of ten Pounds for every Refusal thereof; and that no Maker of such Cards and Dice, chargeable with the said Duties by this Act, shall remove or suffer to be removed the same from the House or Place of making thereof, from time to time, until such Mark upon the Dice, and such Seal upon the Paper and Thread enclosing every Pack of Cards, shall be put thereupon, as the Commissioners for the said Duties on stampd Vellum, Parchment and Paper, for the time being, shall, from time to time, devise and appoint, in Writing under their Hands, to denote the charging the said Duties, upon Pain of forfeiting all such Cards and Dice, and treble the Value thereof, as shall be removed contrary to this Act.

XLII. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Makers of Cards and Dice, during the Term last mentioned, shall, once in every twenty-eight Days, make true Entry upon Oath with the said Commissioners for the Duties on stampd Vellum, Parchment and Paper, or with their Officer next adjacent to their said Place of making, (which Oath the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, or the said Officer, have hereby Power to administer) of all the Cards and Dice by such Makers thereof respectively made, within the time for which every such Entry ought to be made; and shall, once in every six Weeks, clear all the Duties owing from every such Maker, by paying the same to the Receiver General for stampd Vellum, Parchment and Paper, or to the proper Officer for the time being, for collecting the said Duties, for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Default in making such Entry, and double the Duty for Non-payment thereof.

XLIII. And

XLIII. And it is hereby enacted, That every Maker of Cards and Dice, who shall endeavour to defraud her Majesty by any Concealment, shall for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds: And that all the Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, in relation to the said Duties on Cards and Dice, shall be divided, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to such Person or Persons as will seize, inform or sue for the same; and shall and may be recovered in the same Manner and Form, as any Penalties or Forfeitures by this Act imposed, for any Offence relating to the said Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, are to be recovered: And that all the Monies arising by the said Duties on Cards and Dice (the necessary Charges of raising the same excepted) shall, from time to time, be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, for the Purposes in this Act expressed.

Duty on Rock-Salt exported to Ireland, for 32 Years from 11 June 1711, 9 s. per Ton, made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1. to be paid by the Exporter, &c.

XLIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for and during the Term of thirty-two Years thence next ensuing, there shall be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the Sum of nine Shillings for every Tun of Rock Salt which shall be put on board any Ship or Vessel in any Part of Great Britain, and exported to Ireland, or entred out for such Exportation, over and above the present Duties payable for the same, and so in Proportion for every greater or lesser Quantity; and the same shall be paid by the Exporter thereof upon Entry out for such Exportation, to the proper Officer of the Port where such Rock Salt shall be so put on board, or entred out, and before any Cocket shall be allowed or granted for the same; and the said Officer shall sign a Certificate or Receipt for such Sum of Money as shall for such Quantity of Rock Salt therein specified be paid for by such Exporter.

XLV. And for better securing her Majesty's said Duty last mentioned, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Drawback shall be allowed or paid to such Exporter or his Assigns, for Duties formerly granted on Rock Salt, which, from and after the said eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall be landed in Ireland, unless such Certificate or Receipt herein before mentioned, for Payment of the Duty hereby granted, shall be first produced and delivered up to the proper Officer authorized to pay or allow such Drawback; any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Drawbacks for Ireland.

XLVI. Provided always, That in case any Ship or Vessel carrying Rock Salt to Ireland, shall either be lost at Sea, or taken by the Enemy, upon due Proof made thereof upon Oath, and producing the Certificate or Receipt before mentioned, that the Duty hereby granted on such Rock Salt, was actually paid upon Entry out of the same in Great Britain, the Officer who signed the said Certificate or Receipt, and received the said Money, shall repay the same without Fee or Reward.

Proviso for Ships lost, &c. at Sea.

XLVII. And it is hereby also enacted, That all the Monies arising by the said Duties on Rock Salt, (the necessary Charges of collecting and raising the same excepted) shall likewise be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Purposes in this Act expressed.

Duties on Rock Salt to be paid into the Exchequer.

XLVIII. And to the end all the Revenues, Duties, and Sums of Money by this Act payable upon Licences for Hackney Coaches and Chairs, and the said new Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and upon Cards and Dice, and upon the Exportation of Rock Salt for Ireland, by this Act granted, as aforesaid, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of raising and managing the same Duties and otherwise in the Execution of this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer, according to the true Meaning hereof; It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers, as shall be proper and necessary for managing, raising, collecting, and paying the said Revenues, Duties, and Sums of Money last-mentioned, and hereby granted, as aforesaid, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein shall perform their several Duties in Relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like, Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last-mentioned.

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, who shall drive a Coach, or carry a Chair for Hire, not being interested himself in a Licence so to do, but shall act under the Licence of another Person, as his or her Servant, or otherwise, shall be guilty of any Misbehaviour in his Employment, by demanding more than his Fare, or by giving abusive Language, or any other rude Behaviour, every such Person so offending, and being thereof convicted by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witneses, either before the major Part of the Commissioners for granting Licences, according to this Act, or before any one or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the City of London, and Liberty of Westminster, or Counties of Middlesex and Surrey (who are hereby empowered to enquire into such Misbehaviour, and to issue forth their Summons or Warrants, and administer Oaths accordingly) shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings, to be paid to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed; and if any Person so convicted, as aforesaid, shall not be able, or refuse to pay the said Sum so imposed, as aforesaid, he shall be committed to her Majesty's Workhouse of Bridewell, or some other House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of seven Days, and receive the publick Correction of the House, before he be discharged the same.

or sent to the House of Correction for 7 Days, &c.

Salvo for the Universities;

L. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice any Right the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or either of them, have, or claim to have, to the licensing any Taverns, Inns, or Alehouses, within their several Jurisdictions, but that the said Universities may, from time to time, grant Licences for any Taverns, Inns, and Alehouses, within their several Jurisdictions, subject to the several Duties aforesaid, in as ample Manner as they respectively might lawfully have granted the same, if this Act had never been made; any thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

and for St. Alban's;

LI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not in any wise extend to debar or hinder the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of St. Alban's in the County of Hertford, or their Successors, from the using, exercising, and enjoying of all such Liberties, Privileges, Powers and Authorities to them heretofore granted (by the Name of Mayor and Burgesses) by several Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, by Queen ELIZABETH, and King JAMES the First, of famous Memories, for the erecting, appointing, and licensing three several Wine Taverns within the said Borough, for and towards the Maintenance of the Free School there; but that the same shall remain freed and discharged of and from the Duty of four Shillings a Licence chargeable by this Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

and for Proprietors in Printing Almanacks;

LII. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice any Right the two Universities, or either of them, or the Company of Stationers, or any Person or Persons have, or claim to have, to the printing or reprinting any Almanack or Calendar subject to the several Duties aforesaid.

And for the Calendar in the Book of Common Prayer, &c.

LIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to charge any Calendar or perpetual Almanack in any Bible or Common Prayer Book; or to charge any other Calendar or Almanack, with more than the Duty that would be payable by this Act for such other Calendar or Almanack, in case it were made for three Years only.

9 Annæ, c. 10.

LIV. And whereas by an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for establishing a General Post Office for all her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions, it is enacted, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, for and during the whole Term of thirty-two Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, the full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of seven hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, out of all the Duties and Revenues, from time to time, arising by virtue of that Act, shall be brought and paid into the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer, in the Manner therein mentioned, and under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities in that Act expressed: And by another Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for prosecuting the War, and other her Majesty's most necessary Occasions, several Rates and Duties for and upon such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, as are therein mentioned, are granted or made payable to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, for the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, with such other Duties as in the same Act are expressed, and all the Monies arising by virtue of the Act last-mentioned, (the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, paying, and accounting for the same, only excepted) are thereby required to be also paid, from time to time, into the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer, in the Manner and Form, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are thereby prescribed, as by the two Acts last-mentioned, Relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear: And whereas it is intended, That the said weekly Sum of seven hundred Pounds, to arise out of the said Revenue of the Post Office, and all the said Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, granted by the two Acts last-mentioned, and the Revenue to arise by licensing Coaches and Chairs, and the said new Duties to arise by stamp'd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and upon Cards and Dice, and upon the Exportation of Rock Salt for Ireland, shall all together be made a Fund or Security, for raising any Sum not exceeding two Millions, towards your Majesty's Supply, for the Service of the War, and other your Majesty's most necessary Occasions, by such Methods, and in such Manner and Form as are herein after mentioned:

9 Annæ, c. 10, 11.

Now we your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for and towards the raising the said Sum of two Millions, do further most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of thirty-two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, the full Sum of one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise as well of or for the said weekly Sum of seven hundred Pounds out of the Revenues of the General Post Office, and of or for all the said Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money upon Hides, and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, by virtue of the said other Acts, or either of them, and by or out of the Monies of the said Revenue on Licences for Hackney Coaches and Chairs, and of the said new Duties upon stamp'd Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and upon Cards and Dice, and upon the Exportation of Rock Salt for Ireland, by this Act granted, and by or out of the Monies to arise by all the said Branches, every or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, from time to time, in case the same shall extend to the said Sum of one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds, shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer of or for all the Duties, Revenues, and Branches charged, as aforesaid, shall not amount to one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same shall extend, shall be Part of the said yearly Fund of one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds

Made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. 700l. per Week out of the Post Office, and all the Duties on Leather, and all the Duties by this Act granted, appropriated for the Purposes of this Act.

per Annum, for and towards the answering and paying of all and every the principal Sums herein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of two millions six hundred and two thousand two hundred Pounds principal Money, together with Interest for the same, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, as herein after is also mentioned; and in case the said Monies by this Act appointed, as aforesaid, shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer, for all the Duties, Revenues, and Branches charged, as aforesaid, shall not amount to so much as one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds, that then, and so often, and in every such Case, so much as shall be wanting to make up the said Fund or Sum of one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good, from time to time, out of the first Aid or Supply to be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall, from time to time, be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same shall be granted; and for want of such Aid or Supply, then such Deficiency shall be supplied and made good by and out of any publick Money which shall be in the said Receipt of Exchequer, not appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by Act of Parliament; and the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are hereby strictly enjoined and required to make up such Deficiency accordingly out of such unappropriated publick Money, without any further or other Warrant of Authority for the same.

Deficiency to be made good out of the first Aids to be granted in Parliament, &c.

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute for or towards advancing the said Sum of two millions, by paying at or before the respective Days and Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, to any Receiver or Receivers to be appointed for that Purpose, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, or diverse intire Sums of one hundred Pounds upon this Act; and that for the raising the said Sum of two Millions, any Person, who will become a Contributor or Adventurer, shall and may advance the Sum of one hundred Pounds, for which Sum so advanced, he, she, or they shall be entitled to receive such principal Money and the Interest thereof, and such Premiums, as herein after is expressed, to be paid by and out of the said yearly Fund by this Act appropriated; and that every Contributor or Adventurer may advance as many entire Sums of one hundred Pounds, as he, she, or they shall think fit; and for every such Sum of one hundred Pounds so advanced, he, she, or they is or are to be interested in one Lot or Share of and in the said yearly Fund by this Act appointed, and the same entire Sums of one hundred Pounds each are hereby appointed to be paid unto such Receiver and Receivers, at or before the respective Days and Times, and in the respective Proportions herein after mentioned (that is to say) One fourth Part thereof on or before the five and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, on other fourth Part thereof, on or before the fifteenth Day of August in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, one other fourth Part thereof, on or before the six and twentieth Day of September in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and the remaining fourth Part thereof, on or before the sixth Day of November in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven. An Act for Relief of the Creditors and Proprietors of the Company of Mine Adventurers, by establishing a Method for settling the Differences between the Company and their Creditors, and for uniting them, in order to an effectual Working the Mines of the said Company.

WHEREAS the Governor and Company of the Mine Adventurers of England (by the great Expences in working and manufacturing their Mines and Minerals, and by other Charges incident to so great and difficult an Undertaking) have contracted so great a Debt, that by their Stock or Produce of the said Mines, or Sale or Mortgage thereof, the said Company is altogether unable to pay the same: And whereas by the unhappy Differences and Disputes that have arisen amongst the Members of the said Company, and also between the said Company and their Creditors, the working and managing the said Mines is almost totally interrupted, whereby the large Sums of Money expended in bringing them to their present State and Condition, are in great Danger of being entirely lost: And whereas the Mines belonging to the said Company are so rich and valuable, that if the same were settled and established under good Management, and a regular Constitution, they might, besides answering the Charge of working them, turn more to the Satisfaction of all Persons interested or concerned therein, and likewise great Benefit would accrue to the Publick by so profitable a Manufactory: And whereas an Expedient hath been proposed for satisfying the Debts, and composing the Differences of the said Company and their Creditors, by an Union or Coalition of their respective Debts and Interests in and upon the said Mines, under one Denomination, and for raising a Stock for effectually working and manufacturing the said Mines and Minerals; and for discovering all unwarrantable Practices that have been therein, and for preventing the like for the future, by settling the Management under a more regular Establishment, it is therefore humbly prayed, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Grants, Contracts, Bargains, Sales, Leases, Mortgages, Conveyances, and Assurances, made of any Mines, Minerals, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Stocks, Goods, and Chattles, by the said Governor and Company of Mine Adventurers of England, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, since the Time the said Governor and Company of Mine Adventurers of England first stopt or postponed Payment of their Bills or Bonds, or by any Person or Persons seized or possessed of any Mines, Minerals, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Stock, Goods, and Chattles, in Trust for the said Governor and Company of Mine Adventurers of England, shall and are hereby declared to be absolutely void and of none Effect.

All Grants, &c. made by the Company of Mine Adventurers, since they first stopt Payment of their Bills, &c. void.

"All new Shares above the 6012 allowed by Charter, void, &c. Money advanced on the Call 15 Feb. 1708, &c. allowed. Bargains, &c. made since the Company stopt Payment, good. C A P. XXVI.

An Act for the better Preservation and Improvement of the Fishery within the River of Thames, and for regulating and governing the Company of Fishermen of the said River.

WHEREAS the Preservation of the Fishery of the River of Thames, and the good Government of the Company of Fishermen of the said River, are not only highly necessary for furnishing her Majesty's Subjects inhabiting within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Parts adjacent, with good, wholesome, cheap, and seasonable Fish, but likewise advantageous to her Majesty, and the Trade of this Kingdom, in breeding up able-bodied Sea-faring Men, and preventing Frauds committed in running of Goods and Merchandizes, whereby the Revenues of the Crown have been much lessened; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Assistants of the said Company for the time being, or the major Part of them present, to make such By-Laws and Ordinances for the good Rule and Government of the said Company, as they shall think fit, so as the same be always first approved of, or from time to time altered or amended by the Court of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, and likewise allowed and confirmed, according to the Form of the Statute in that Behalf made and provided; and that from and after the said tenth Day of June, there shall be yearly and every Year elected and chosen by the next Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, to be held after the said tenth Day of June, out of the six Wardens of the said Company, for the time being, to be nominated by the said Court of Assistants, one fit Person to be a Master of the said Art or Mystery of Fishermen; and also out of twelve Assistants to be nominated, as aforesaid, six fit Persons to be Wardens of the said Art or Mystery, (whereof the Water Bailiff of the City of London, for the Time being, shall be one) and in like Manner out of sixty of the Commonalty to be nominated, as aforesaid, thirty fit Persons to be Assistants of the said Company; which said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any sixteen of them, together with three of the said Wardens, shall be, and are hereby constituted the Court of Assistants of the said Company, for the time being, and shall meet and assemble together, from time to time, on the first Thursday in every Calendar Month in the Year, in the Hall of the said Company, in order to form the said Court of Assistants, and keep the same, for regulating and reforming Abuses committed in the said Fishery, and for the due ordering and Governance of the said Company; to the holding of which Court the said Water Bailiff shall be always duly summoned to attend; and the said Court of Assistants, or the major Part of them present, shall, from time to time, call before them all and every such Person and Persons as shall use to fish or drudge within the Limits of the said Fishery as common Fishermen or Drudgermen, and cause every such Person and Persons, being duly qualified, or having served on board her Majesty's Navy for the Space of two Years, to have his or their Name or Names entred and registered in a Book or Books to be kept by the said Court of Assistants for that Purpose, together with his and their respective Places of Abode, and the Name of every Apprentice or Servant belonging to him or them, in using the Trade of fishing or drudging within the said Limits; and shall likewise cause some Mark of Distinction, by Figure or otherwise, to be placed on every Boat, Vessel, and Craft, which shall, after the said tenth Day of June, be used in fishing or drudging within the Limits aforesaid; which said Figure men, and cause their Names to be registred, &c. shall cause Marks to be put on every Boat.

Every Person summoned, &c. and refusing to appear, shall be sent on board the Fleet, and disabled from fishing for 2 Years.

No Spawn, &c. to be killed, &c.

nor Fish caught out of Season.

No Salmon to be taken between 24 Aug. and 21 Nov.

The Lord Mayor, &c. may order Stakes to be fixed in the River, to preserve the Fry.

No Fish shall be sold more than once within Billingsgate Market, &c. and none to sell Fish in the said Market, except free Fishmongers, Fishermen, &c.

The Court of Assistants to pay 30l. per Ann. to the Water Bailiff.

No Fish to be sold in the said Market, &c. before 3 in the Morning from Lady Day to Michaelmas, and 5 from Michaelmas to Lady Day.

The Lord Mayor, &c. shall have Power to determine Complaints, and impose a Fine on Offenders, not above 20l. nor less than 5s. to be levied by Distress, unless paid immediately, or Security given to abide the Order of the said or Mark of Distinction shall not be changed, altered, or defaced, to the end, that from time to time, and at all Times hereafter, every such Person and Persons, Apprentice, and Servant, as shall offend, contrary to the Meaning of this Act, may the better be detected, and that her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, may the better be enabled to know what Number of able-bodied Seamen the said Company can furnish for publick Service; and that every Person and Persons being duly summoned by the Direction of the said Court of Assistants, to be and appear before them, in order to be entred and serve on board her Majesty's Navy, who shall, without lawful Cause, refuse or neglect to appear, according to the Tenor of such Summons, shall be sent on board her Majesty's Navy, and be disabled from fishing on the said River of Thames for the Space of two Years.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the said tenth Day of June, wilfully kill, or expose to Sale, any Spawn, Fry, or Brood of Fish, or Spatt of Oysters, or any unfizable, small, or unwholsome Fish, or catch, kill, or destroy any Fish out of Season, or expose such Fish to Sale, or wilfully or knowingly buy, harbour, receive, or use as Food for Hogs, or otherwise, any such Spawn, Fry, Brood of Fish, or Spatt of Oysters, unfizable, small, or unwholsome Fish, or any Fish caught out of Season, on Pain of being punished as herein after is mentioned; and that Salmon Fish, which are become very scarce by destroying great Quantities of Salmon, and Salmon-kind Fish, betwixt the twenty-fourth Day of August and the eleventh Day of November in every Year, when they are out of Season, or spawning, may become very plentiful and common in the said Fishery, as they were formerly, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall presume to fish for, or take and wilfully kill, hurt, or destroy any Salmon, or Salmon-kind Fish within the said Limits, at any Time or Times betwixt the said twenty-fourth Day of August and the said eleventh Day of November in any Year, from and after the said tenth Day of June; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, upon Application to him by the said Court of Assistants, to order and direct any Number of Stakes to be driven and fixed in any Place within the said River, betwixt the London Mark Stone above Stains Bridge and London Bridge, as by him and them shall be thought most convenient for preserving the Fry, Spawn, and Brood of Fish, so as the same be no ways prejudicial to the Navigation of the said River; and that no Person or Persons whatsoever shall presume, without lawful Authority, to remove, loosen, or pluck up the same, on Pain of being punished as herein after is mentioned.

III. And to the Intent the Publick may be served with Fish cheap, and at the first Hand, and for a more speedy Way to punish Offenders, who daily regrate great Quantities of unfizable and unseasonable, as also other Fish, in and at the Market of Billingsgate; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fish shall be sold more than once within the said Market, or within one hundred and fifty Yards of Billingsgate Dock, to which all Sorts of Fish are usually imported; nor shall any Person or Persons, other than free Fishmongers, in their Houses and Shops, situate and being within the Distance of the said one hundred and fifty Yards of the said Dock, and not in the Market of Billingsgate aforesaid, and other than Fishermen, or the first Importers of, or Persons bringing up such Fish to the said Market, their Wives, Apprentices, Factors, or Servants, for the time being, actually hired for that Purpose, presume to sell, or expose to Sale, any Manner of Fish whatsoever in or at the said Market, or within one hundred and fifty Yards of the said Dock, after the said tenth Day of June, on Pain of being punished as herein after is mentioned.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Court of Assistants shall yearly and every Year, by even and equal Portions, on the Feast Days of Easter and Michaelmas, pay or cause to be paid unto the said Water Bailiff, or his Assigns, the Sum of thirty Pounds, free from all Taxes and other Incumbrances, in Lieu and Satisfaction of such ancient Fees as were due to him, and which will be diminished or taken away, by virtue of this Act, except the granting Licences for taking Fish in their several Seasons, according to Custom, the Benefit whereof is hereby intended to be continued and saved unto the said Water Bailiff for the time being, over and above the said Sum of thirty Pounds per Annum.

V. And for the further preventing forestalling, regrating, and engrossing Fish, at unseasonable Hours, in the Market of Billingsgate; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fish whatsoever shall be sold or exposed to Sale, on board or on shore, (within the Limits of the said Market, or within one hundred and fifty Yards of the said Dock, as aforesaid) by any Person or Persons whatsoever, before the Hours of Three a Clock in the Morning from Lady Day to Michaelmas, and before the Hours of Five a Clock in the Morning from Michaelmas to Lady Day, and so annually; and that the proper Officer do ring the Bell appointed for that Purpose, at the Time and Place aforesaid, under the Penalties to be inflicted by this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, or any one of them, for all Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Lord Mayor, as Conservator of the said River of Thames, and the Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties, or any one of them, for all Offences committed in the said Limits, and out of the Jurisdiction of the said Conservator, shall have full Power, upon View, or upon Complaint made to them, or any one of them, to examine, hear and determine, by the Oath of any Person, or by Confession of the Party offending, all Complaints and Offences committed against the Intent of this Act, and upon Conviction of such Offender, to impose a Fine upon him or her, proportionable to the Offence so committed, not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds, nor less than the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied by Distress, or otherwise, on such Offender's Goods and Chattels, at the Discretion of the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen, or Justices, or any one of them, unless such Offender shall immediately pay such Fine, or give good and sufficient Security to such Magistrate or Magistrates before whom he or she shall be so convicted, to stand to and abide such Order as shall be made by the Court of Conservancy, held by the said Lord Mayor, as Conservator, as aforesaid, upon such Conviction as shall be made by the said Lord Mayor and Aldermen, or any one of them, or at the General Quarter-Sessions, by the Justices of the Peace holding the same, upon any such Conviction.

Conviction made before them, or any one of them, in case the Offender shall think fit to appeal to the said Court of Conservancy, or to the said Quarter-Sessions; and in case no Distress or Distresses can be found, the Offender or Offenders shall be sent to the House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Main-prize, and to be kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding two Months; and that all and singular the Forfeitures and Penalties arising by this present Act, for any Offences contrary thereunto, committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Conservator, shall, from time to time, be paid, the one Moiety to the Informer, the other Moiety unto the said Lord Mayor, as Conservator of the said River of Thames; and that all the Forfeitures and Penalties arising by this present Act, for any Offences contrary thereunto, committed out of the Jurisdiction of the said Conservator, shall, from time to time, be paid, the one Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, and the other Moiety to such Person who shall prosecute the said Offender.

Court of Conservancy, &c.
If no Distress, the Offender to be sent to the House of Correction for 2 Months.

How the Forfeitures shall be applied.

VII. Saving always to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her heirs and Successors, and all Bodies Politick or Corporate, and to the High Court of Admiralty, and the Court of Conservancy, and all other Courts and Persons, all Fines, Forfeitures, Penalties, Amerciaments, and Wreck of Sea, which of Right have been reserved, and become due and payable to the said Courts and Persons respectively, for and in respect of the said Fishery or Drudging, or otherwise, and all Rights, Titles, Estates, Jurisdictions, Privileges, Franchises, or Demands whatsoever, in as full and ample Manner as the same were or have been before the making of this Act.

Saving to the Crown, &c. all Fines, Forfeitures, &c.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice or derogate from the Rights, Privileges, or Authorities of the City of London, exercised by the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, as Conservator of the said River of Thames and Waters of Medway, or elsewhere, or any of the Rights of the Admiralties or Vice-Admiralties of Kent or Essex, or the Piscaries or Fishings belonging or appertaining to the said City of London, or any other City or Town Corporate, or any Lords of Manors, Proprietors, Owners, or Occupiers of any Rivers, Creeks, Streams, or Fisheries, adjacent to, or within any Part of the said Limits, or to the Rights of any other Person or Persons within the Limits aforesaid.

This Act shall not prejudice the Rights, &c. of London, nor of the Admiralties of Kent or Essex, &c. nor of any Lords of Manors, &c.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Fishermen or Drudgermen, who now do, or shall hereafter inhabit or dwell in any of the Cinque Ports, or their Members, or in the City of Rochester, or Towns or Places of Strood, Chatham, Finbury, Gillingham, Milton, Queenborough, Faversham, Whitstable, or the Places adjacent; but that such Fishermen and Drudgermen shall and may use and exercise their Trades of Fishing and Drudging, and Selling, in as full and ample a Manner as they have heretofore lawfully done, to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had never been made.

Nor shall it extend to Fishermen who dwell in the Cinque Ports, Rochester, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be, and is hereby declared to be a Publick Act of Parliament, of which all Judges, Justices, and other Persons are to take Notice; and in case any Action, Bill, Complaint, Suit, or Information shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for what he or they shall do in pursuance, or by virtue of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence; and the Defendant or Defendants shall, in case the Plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, or that a Judgment upon a Demurrer, or a Verdict pass against the Plaintiff, recover his or their full Costs of Suit, for which the said Defendant or Defendants shall have the like Remedy as in such Cases where Costs by the Laws of this Realm are given to Defendants.

It shall be taken as a Publick Act; and if an Action, &c. be brought, the Defendant may plead the General Issue, &c. and shall recover full Costs.

XI. Saving also unto Margaret Cage, Widow, her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, out of all Monies arising to the said Company by this Act, and the other Profits and Income of the said Company, one Annuity granted unto her, under the Common Seal of the said Company, for her Life, and all Arrears thereof, with Interest.

Saving to Margaret Cage her Annuity for Life.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America.

E X P.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America; it is, among other Things, enacted, That the Flag-Officers, Commanders, and other Officers and Seamen of any Ship or Vessel of War in her Majesty's Pay or Service, and the Owner or Owners of any Private Ship of War, authorized and appointed by Commission or Commissions according to the said Act, during the present War, to attack, surprize, seize, and take any Ship, or other Private Ship or Ships of War, or Vessels, Goods, Ammunition, Arms, Stores of War, or Merchandizes, belonging to, or possessed by any of her Majesty's Enemies, in any Sea, Creek, Haven, or River in America, (except as therein is excepted) shall have the sole Interest and Property of and in all and every such Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandizes, being first adjudged lawful Prize, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Admiralty, and subject to the Customs and Duties payable to her Majesty, as if the same had been first imported to any Part of Great Britain, and from thence exported, for and in respect of all such Goods and Merchandizes, to be divided and disposed of as in the said Act is directed; in pursuance of which Act several Bonds and other Securities have been given for the Payment of such Customs and Duties for Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America, and adjudged to be lawful Prize; but by Experience it is found that the subjecting such Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America, to such Customs and Duties, as if the same had been imported into any Part of Great Britain, and from thence exported, hath been very prejudicial to her Majesty's Plantations and Colonies, and hath, in a great Measure, prevented the Importation thereof into those Plantations and Colonies; Be it therefore enacted, &c.

After 1 June 1711. all Prize Goods, &c. taken in America, shall be liable to Duties. See 10 Annæ, c. 22. and 10 Ann. c. 26. § 113.

II. And whereas several Bonds and other Securities have been obtained at Jamaica, for the Payment of Duties chargeable by virtue of the said Clause in the Act of the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, upon Cocoa, Sugars, Indico, Snuff, Tobacco, Piemento, and other Commodities of the Growth of America, which are usually afterwards imported into this Kingdom, and pay the full Duties here; and also for Wines and Brandies which are seldom sent from Great Britain, which may reasonably be discharged of the said British Duties, because the said several Commodities are, upon their Importation into Jamaica, liable to pay large Customs towards the Support of that Government; Be it therefore, &c.

All Bonds, &c. at Jamaica, to which Captors are liable for Duties on Cocoa, Sugar, &c. shall not be prosecuted till the End of the next Sessions of Parliament. The Tenor, &c. of the said Bonds, &c. to be certified to the Commissioners of the Customs in England, who shall make Report thereof to the Commons in next Parliament. All Prize Goods imported into Great Britain, made liable to the same Duties as if they had not been Prize.

Contracts between Coal Owners, &c. for engrossing Coals, &c. illegal.

Penalty on Coal Owners, &c. after 1 June 1711. keeping up such Contracts, &c.

Fitters Certificates to the Ship Master,

WHEREAS the Cities of London and Westminster, and other Places, are chiefly supplied with Coals brought by Sea from the Counties of Durham, Northumberland, and Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, and the having the same at cheap and reasonable Prices, tends greatly to the Improvement of the Manufactures and Increase of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, by breeding and employing many thousands of skilful Mariners for the Service of her Majesty, and Defence of the Realm, and to the Relief of the Poor; and for that End, and for the better advancing of the Duties upon Coals granted to her Majesty for the carrying on the present War against the Common Enemy, it is necessary the same should not be monopolized, but that the Coal Trade should be free and open, and that all Prejudices, Hindrances, and Obstructions, that may any ways affect the said Trade, should be removed, prevented, and hindered; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Contract or Contracts, Covenants or Agreements, whether the same be in Writing or not in Writing, and whether heretofore made or entered into, or hereafter to be made or entered into, by or between any Coal-Owners, Lightermen, Fitters, Masters, or Owners of Ships or Vessels, Crimps, Coal Factors, or other Person or Persons whatsoever concerned in the said Coal Trade, for engrossing Coals, or for restraining or hindring any Person or Persons whomsoever from freely selling, buying, loading or unloading, navigating or disposing of Coals, in such Manner as they lawfully may, shall be, and are hereby declared to be illegal, null, and void, to all Intents and Purposes: And further, that if any Coal Owners, Lightermen, Fitters, Masters, or Owners of Ships or Vessels, Crimps, Coal Factors, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, at any Time or Times, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, keep up, continue, act in, make, enter into, sign, seal, or be knowingly interested or concerned in any Contract or Contracts, Covenants or Agreements, before by this Act declared to be illegal, null, and void, or shall erect or keep up any Office or Offices, Chamber or Chambers, or other Place or Places for the Management of such Contract or Contracts, Covenants or Agreements, as Party or Parties to, or knowingly interested in the same, or shall any ways act or officiate therein, as Officer, Clerk, Agent, or Servant to or for the Persons so contracting, agreeing, or acting, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay as follows; that is to say, every Coal Owner or Owners, or Proprietor of or in any Pit or Mine, Pits or Mines of Coal, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and every Fitter, whether acting by himself, his Agent or Servant, the Sum of fifty Pounds; and every Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel, the Sum of twenty Pounds; and every Officer, Clerk, Agent, or Servant, as aforesaid, the Sum of twenty Pounds.

II. And for the further Encouragement of the said Coal Trade, and for preventing of Frauds and Abuses therein; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Fitter or other Person, vending or delivering Coals, or some or one of them, shall give a full, true, and ample Certificate or Certificates to each and every Ship Master every Voyage, signed by his or their Hand Writing, containing the Day of the Month, and Year of such Loading, the Masters and Ships Names, and the exact Quantity, and the usual Names of the several and respective Collieries out of which the said Coals are and shall be wrought and gotten, and the Price paid by the Master or Masters for each and every Sort of Coals that each and every Fitter or other Person, vending or delivering Coals, as aforesaid, his or their Agent or Servant, hath sold and loaded on board each and every Ship or Vessel; which said Certificate or Certificates shall, upon the Arrival Arrival of the said Ship at the Port of London, or any other Delivering Port, be registred, if delivered in the Port of London, at the Cocquet Office, always kept and appointed by the Lord Mayor of London, for the time being; and if delivered in any other Delivering Port, then at the Custom-house, with the Keeper of the Cocquets there, for registering whereof no more than six Pence shall be paid; to which said Register any Person or Persons shall and may have Recourse to see and examine without Fee or Reward: And in case any Person or Persons omit or refuse to give such Certificate or Certificates, as aforesaid, or shall give or make any false Certificate or Certificates, or any Master or Masters of any Ship or Vessel shall knowingly give in any false Certificate or Certificates to be registred, or shall not, within forty-eight Hours after Entry of his Ship at the Custom-house of London, or other Delivering Port, give in his or their Certificate or Certificates to be registred in Manner aforesaid; or if the Person or Persons who ought to register, file, or enter such Certificate or Certificates, or his or their Clerk or Deputy, officiating in such Office or Offices, shall neglect to register the same for the Space of four and twenty Hours after the delivering such Certificate or Certificates into such Office or Offices, or shall make a false Entry of such Certificate or Certificates, or refuse to shew and produce such Certificate and Certificates, and Register thereof, to any Person or Persons, coming at the usual Office-hours to see and inspect the same; every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

to be registred at the Cocquet Office in London, or with the Keepers of Cocquets in other Ports.
Refusing to give Certificate, &c.

III. And whereas several Lightermen, Masters of Ships, Crimps, Coal Factors, or other Persons dealing or being concerned in the Coal Trade, in the Port of London, or other Ports, have received Salaries, Gratuities, Rewards, or Sums of Money, either by the Year or Chalder, or otherwise, from the Coal Owners, Fitters, or Masters of Ships, in the Port of London, or elsewhere, to the Discouragement of the said Coal Trade; For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Lighterman or Lightermen, Master or Masters of Ships, Crimp, Coal Factor, or other Person or Persons, buying or selling, or dealing in Coals, or otherwise concerned in the Coal Trade, by him or themselves, his or their Agent or Servant, or any other Person or Persons, shall, at any Time or Times, from and after the first Day of June aforesaid, receive or take, for the Use or Benefit of such Lighterman or Lightermen, Master or Masters of Ships, Crimp, Coal Factor, or other Person or Persons, any Salary, Gratuity, Reward, Allowance, Sum or Sums of Money, from any Coal Owner, Fitter, Master of Ships, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, for contracting, buying, vending, selling, or disposing of any particular Sorts of Coals, in Preference of any other Sorts of Coals, or for the Loading of any Ship or Vessel, or for the Dispatch, Delivery, or Disposal of the Coals from on board of any Ship or Ships, or Vessels, before other Ship or Ships, or Vessels, or shall knowingly sell one Sort of Coals for and as a Sort which they really are not; every Person offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Five hundred Pounds are forfeited, over and above the Penalty hereby inflicted.
3 Geo. 2. c. 26.
§. 4.

IV. And for the better Discovery of all or any the Offences in this Act mentioned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person that shall be guilty of any the said Offences, and shall, within three Months after the Offence committed, make Discovery of any Coal Owner or Owners, or Proprietor of any Coal Pit or Pits, or of any Fitter, their Officer, Clerk, Agent or Servant, or of any Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Lighterman, Crimp, Coal Factor, or other Person concerned in the Coal Trade, so as he or they shall be convicted of any of the said Offences, such Discoverer shall be discharged of and from the Penalties and Forfeitures for such Offences, and shall receive the same Benefit and Advantage as any other Person or Persons shall be entitled unto, by virtue of this Act, for such Discovery or Information.

Offender discovering, indemnified, and rewarded.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Number of Ships, being laden with Coals, and bound for the Port of London, or any other Port where the said Coals shall be delivered, exceeding fifty in the Whole, shall, after they are laden, continue in the Port of Newcastle, or in any other Port or Place between Newcastle and London, above the Space of seven Days, unless they shall be unloaden in such Port or Place, or prevented by Wind and Weather, or for Want of necessary Repairs, Convoy, or some other unavoidable Cause, every Master of every Ship, so continuing, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Above fifty Coal Ships, continuing in Port 7 Days, Masters forfeit 50*l*. each.

VI. And whereas the exporting Coals to Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, tends very much to the Improvement and Increase of the British Navigation; To the End therefore that all reasonable Encouragement may be given to such Exportation; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Ship Master, whose Ship is laden with Coals only, and has entred into Bond to deliver the said Coals in some Port of Great Britain, may, upon producing his Coast Cocquet, and making Oath of the true Quantity of Coals aboard his Ship (such Quantity not being less than is expressed in the said Cocquet) before the proper Officer of the Customs, in any Port of Great Britain, pay the Custom or Over-Sea Duty for such Coals, and shall, on such Payment, receive a Certificate, signed and sealed by the Customer and Comptroller of such Port, for such Duty so paid; which Certificate, being given into the Custom-House of the Port where such Coals were laid on board, shall discharge the Coast Bond given by such Ship Master, in the same Manner as if the said Coals had been landed in some Port of Great Britain.

Ship Master, paying Over-Sea Duties for Coals, to have Coast Bond discharged.

VII. And whereas several Persons acting as Crimps, Husbards, Agents, or Factors for Masters of Ships importing Coals into the Port of London, under Colour of such their Employments, do often fraudulently vend the Coals intrusted to them by the said Ship Masters, as aforesaid, to their own Agents, Partners, Servants, or other Persons, for their own Use and Benefit, and at Rates below the Market Price, and when so sold do again greatly advance the Rates thereof, to the Prejudice and Discouragement of the said Ship Masters, and great Oppression and Hindrance of the Manufacturers, and other Consumers of Coals; For Remedy whereof, and preventing the like Mischief for the future; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, acting as Crimp, Husband, Agent, or Factor for any Ship Master importing Coals into the said Port of London, shall, from and after the said first Day of June, vend or sell to his or their own Agents, Partners, or Servants, or to any other Person or Persons whomsoever, in Trust for him or them, or for his or their own Use or Benefit, the Coals, or any Part thereof thereof intrusted by any Ship-Master to him or them so to be sold, as aforesaid; every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Fitters, &c. laying Coals aboard Keels not gauged; forfeit 10l.

VIII. And I do swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ANNE, and her will defend, to the utmost of my Power, against all traitorous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against her Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my best Endeavour to disclose and make known to her Majesty, and her Successors, all Treasons and traitorous Conspiracies which I shall know to be against her, or any of them. And I do faithfully promise, to the utmost of my Power, to support, maintain, and defend the Succession of the Crown against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands settled by an Act, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown, to her present Majesty, and the Heirs of her Body being Protestants; and as the same, by one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands settled and entailed, after the Decease of her Majesty, and for Default of Issue of her Majesty, to the Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutches Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge and swear, according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion, or secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Abjuration, Renunciation, and Promise, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.

Provided always, That the Parents who have their Children christened by Episcopal Ministers, be hereby obliged to enter the Birth and Christning of their Children in the Register Books for Christnings belonging to the respective Parishes in which they live: And provided likewise, That no Episcopal Minister or Ministers, residing within that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, presume to marry any Persons, but those whose Bans have been duly published three several Lord's Days in the Episcopal Congregations which the two Parties frequent, and in the Churches to which they belong as Parishioners, by virtue of their Residence; and that upon the same Pains and Punishments as are already inflicted by the Laws of Scotland in Cases of clandestine Marriages; and the Ministers of the Parish Churches are hereby obliged obliged to publish the said Bans; and in case of Neglect or Refusal, it shall be sufficient to publish the said Bans in any Episcopal Congregation alone; any Law, Statute, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. Provided always, and it is the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that all the Laws made against Prophaneness and Immorality, and for the frequenting of Divine Services on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, shall be still in Force, and executed against all Persons that offend against the said Laws, or shall not resort either to some Church, or to some Congregation or Assembly of Religious Worship allowed and permitted by this Act.

VIII. Provided likewise, That neither this Act, nor any Clause, Article, or Thing herein contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend to give any Ease, Benefit, or Advantage to any Papist or Popish Recusant whatsoever, or to any Person that shall deny in his Preaching or Writing, the Doctrine of the Blessed Trinity.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, at any time after the twenty-fifth Day of March next to come, shall willingly, and of Purpose, maliciously or contemptuously, come into any Congregation or Assembly of Religious Worship, permitted by this Act, and disquiet or disturb the same, or give any Disturbance to the said Congregation at the Doors or Windows, or misuse any Minister or Pastor of such Congregation, such Person or Persons, upon Proof thereof before two Justices of the Peace, by two or more sufficient Witnesses, shall find two Sureties to be bound by Recognizance in the penal Sum of fifty Pounds Sterling, for his or their Appearance at the next General or Quarter Sessions, or before the Court of Justiciary, or other Judge or Judges competent, and in Default of such Sureties shall be committed to Prison, and upon Conviction of the said Offence, at the said General or Quarter Sessions, or before the said Court of Justiciary, or other Judge or Judges competent, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, the other to be disposed of for the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed; and if the Magistrates of any Town or Place, or others pretending to have Authority or Jurisdiction any where in Scotland, shall, in Contempt of this Law, forbid or hinder those of the Episcopal Perswasion from meeting or assembling together for Divine Worship, in the Places subject to their Jurisdiction, or shall shut up, or cause to be shut up, the Doors of the Houses, or other Places where such Episcopal Assemblies are held, or intended to be held, such Magistrates and others so offending, upon Proof thereof before the Court of Justiciary, by two or more sufficient Witnesses, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, to be distributed, as aforesaid.

X. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Civil Pain or Forfeiture, or Disability whatsoever, shall be in any ways incurred by any Person or Persons, by Reason of any Excommunication or Prosecution in order to Excommunication by the Church Judicatories in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and all Civil Magistrates are hereby expressly prohibited and discharged to force or compel any Person or Persons to appear when summoned, or to give Obedience to any such Sentence when pronounced; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Minister and Preacher as well of the established Church in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by this Act, shall, at some Time during the Exercise of the Divine Service in such respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, pray, in express Words, for her most Sacred Majesty Queen ANNE, and the most Excellent Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutches Dowager of Hanover, while living, and all the Royal Family: And every such Minister or Preacher neglecting so to do, shall for the first Offence forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds Sterling, to be recovered and distributed in such Manner as touching the other Penalties in this Act is herein before directed; and for the second Offence every Minister of the established Church in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, being thereof convicted by the Oaths of two sufficient Witnesses before the Lords of Justiciary, shall be ipso facto deprived, and declared incapable of any Church or Ecclesiastical Living, during the Space of three Years; and every Episcopal Minister allowed and protected by this Act, being thereof in like Manner convicted, shall from thenceforth forfeit and lose the Benefit of this Act, and be declared incapable of officiating as Pastor of any Episcopal Congregation, during the Space of three Years.

XII. Provided always, That no Minister or Preacher offending herein, shall suffer such Penalties, or either of them, unless he be prosecuted for the same within the Space of two Months after the Offence is committed.

An Act for enlarging the Time given to the Commissioners appointed by her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties on Coals, for building Fifty new Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned; and also for giving the said Commissioners farther Powers for better effecting the same; and for appointing Monies for rebuilding the Parish Church of St. Mary Woolnoth in the City of London.

9 Annæ, c. 22.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties upon Coals, for building Fifty new Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute, and appoint such Persons as her Majesty should think fit, to be Commissioners to inquire and inform themselves in what Parishes the said new Churches (except one for Greenwich) were most necessary to be built; and of proper Places for the Sites of the said respective new Churches; and also a Cemetery or Church Yard for each of the said Churches; also which of the said Chapels within the said Parishes are fit to be made Parish Churches; and that they should ascertain the several Houses, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the Bounds and Limits which in their Judgment or Opinion might be fit to be made distinct Parishes; and should also inform themselves, by the best Means they could, of the Value of the Houses, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and of the respective Estates and Interests therein, which the said Commissioners should think necessary to be purchased for the said Sites and Cemeteries, and for Houses for the Habitations of the respective Ministers; and that the said Commissioners should, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven, report or certify to her Majesty in Writing, under their Hands and Seals, such Matters and Things, as should appear to them upon their Enquiries aforesaid, with their Opinions thereupon, to the end such further Directions might be given thereupon, as might be pursuant to her Majesty's pious Intentions in the Premises; in pursuance whereof her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, did nominate, constitute, and appoint, several Commissioners for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, with such Powers and Authorities as in the said recited Act are expressed: And whereas the said Commissioners did apply themselves to the Execution of the Powers therein mentioned, but could not perfect within the Time limited, what was by the said Act intended; which they humbly represented to her Majesty, under their Hands and Seals, on the eighteenth Day of December last past: To the end therefore, that a Work so much for the Honour of God, the Spiritual Welfare of her Majesty's Subjects, the Interest of the established Church, and the Glory of her Majesty's Reign, may be carried on and perfected; be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That notwithstanding the Time limited by the said Letters Patent is expired, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, so appointed by the said Letters Patent, or any five or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and required to meet, from time to time, as often as there shall be Occasion, either with or without Adjournments, and to enquire and inform themselves of all and every the Matters and Things therein committed to them, or any five or more of them, and do and perform all and every the Matters and Things in or by the

the said former or this present Act intended to be by them performed, until they shall have compleated and finished the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and impowered to contract, agree for, and purchase all such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rights, and Interests, as they shall think proper for the said new Churches, Church-yards, or Cemeteries for the Burial of the Dead, and for Houses for Habitations of the respective Ministers of the respective new Parish Churches, intended to be erected or made.

The Commissioners may contract for, and purchase Lands, &c.

III. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That such Lands, Tenements, Rights, and Interests, so to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, shall be conveyed unto the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and their Heirs, for the respective Purposes aforesaid; and the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorized and impowered to cause such Churches to be built upon such Sites so by them to be purchased, as aforesaid; and also cause such Chapels already erected, as they, or any five or more of them, shall think proper to be made fit and convenient for Parish Churches, and to provide such Houses for the Habitations of the respective Ministers of the said intended Parishes, and to cause such Church-Yards and Cemeteries to be made and inclosed for such new Parishes, as by the said former or this present Act are intended.

The Lands so purchased shall be conveyed to the Commissioners, &c. who shall cause the Churches to be built, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, (where they shall see Occasion) shall provide more Cemeteries than one for any of the said intended new Parishes respectively; and wherever they shall purchase Ground for Cemeteries for any of the said intended new Parishes, without the Bounds and Limits of such new Parishes, the Ground so purchased for that Use, shall for ever after the purchasing and consecrating thereof, be deemed and taken to be Part of the Parish for the Use of which it shall be so purchased and consecrated, and shall be for ever discharged from any Rates or Taxes to the other Parish out of which it shall be so taken.

They may provide Cemeteries, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, without any further or other Warrant or Authority to be sued for, had, or obtained in that Behalf, from time to time, to direct the Officers at the Receipt of the Exchequer, to receive by way of Loan from any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, willing to make such Loan or Loans upon Credit of the several Duties upon Coals by the said former Act granted, such Sum and Sums of Money as any five or more of the Persons appointed by her Majesty's Commission or Letters Patent before-mentioned, shall, from time to time, or at any Time or Times, think necessary, and shall by Writing under the Hands of them, or any five or more of them, desire to be raised (by way of Loan, as aforesaid) for the beginning, carrying on, or effecting all or any the Services by the said recited Act, or this present Act intended, and to allow Interest not exceeding the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Forbearance thereof; and that the Monies so lent, shall not be taxed or assessed by any Act of Parliament whatsoever; and that such Lenders shall have Tallies of Loan, and Orders for their Repayment, with such Interest, as aforesaid, out of the Duties granted by the said recited Act, the Principal to be paid in Course, according to the respective Dates of the Tallies, and the Interest every three Months, until the Repayment of the Principal, and that no Fee or Reward shall be demanded or taken, in or for the Payment thereof; and that the Money arising on the said Duties shall be liable to satisfy such Orders accordingly, without being diverted from the same to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose, upon Pain of forfeiting Treble Damages, with Full Costs of Suit, to the Party grieved by the Party offending; and that such Orders shall be assignable by Indorsements thereupon, according to the Course in such Cases used in the Exchequer; any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Treasury may direct the Officers of the Exchequer to receive by Way of Loan such Sums of Money as 5 of the Commissioners shall think necessary, &c.

9 Annæ, c. 22. and to allow Interest at 6l. per Cent.

The Money so lent shall not be taxed, and the Lenders shall have Tallies of Loan and Orders, &c.

The Interest to be paid every three Months. The Orders to be assignable.

VI. Provided always, That such Sums as, at any Time or Times before the Fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall become due for Interest of Money to be lent upon this Act, shall and may be satisfied as the said Interest shall, from time to time, become due, out of any Money whatsoever which shall come into the Exchequer by way of Loan on the Credit aforesaid; any thing in this or the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Sums due for Interest before 15 May 1716, to be satisfied from time to time, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer now being, and the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, and they are hereby directed and authorized, (without any further or other Warrant or Authority to be sued for, had, or obtained in that Behalf) from time to time, to issue and pay, or cause to be issued and paid, out of any the Monies to arise by way of Loan, or otherwise, by virtue of this or the said former Act, (such Money as is to be applied for Repayment of Principal, and Satisfaction of the Interest of the Loans to be made, as aforesaid, only and always excepted) such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be thought necessary by the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, for the purchasing such Lands, Tenements, Rights, and Interests for the Purposes aforesaid, and for building such new Churches, and converting Chapels into Parochial Churches, and for providing Houses for the Habitations of the respective Ministers, and for making and inclosing Cemeteries or Church-yards for such new intended Parishes, or any other Purposes by the said former or this present Act prescribed or allowed, and for recompensing and rewarding such Person and Persons as have been or shall be necessarily employed under them, for their Labour and Pains, in such Manner and Proportion as the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall think fit; which Monies so to be issued, as aforesaid, shall be paid unto such Person and Persons, not being of the Number of the said Commissioners, for the Ends and Purposes aforesaid, as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall, from time to time, direct and appoint to be the Treasurer or Treasurers in this Behalf; and shall be received by him or them by Way of Imprest, and accounted for only by such Treasurer or Treasurers; and shall be disbursed, expended, and applied by such Treasurer and Treasurers respectively, according to such Orders and Warrants as he or they shall receive, from time to time, from the said and be exempt from the Parish from whence taken.

The Commissioners may take a District out of any large Parish where any new Church shall be made, and add it to a lesser Parish adjoining, which shall be deemed as Part of the Parish to which it is so added, &c.

There shall be a Rector in every new Church, &c. and a perpetual Succession of Rectors. The Morning Preacher in any Chapel converted into a new Church shall be the first Rector. In every other new Church the Queen shall nominate the first Rector. Stepney is excepted by 12 Annæ, stat. 1. c. 17. §. 4. The Freehold shall be in him, and he may purchase, &c. Lands to the Value of 200 l. per Annum.

The Commissioners impowered to enquire of the Right of Patronage, &c.

and agree with him who hath the Right for said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, for all or any the Uses or Services by this or the said former Act prescribed or allowed in that Behalf, and not otherwise, or to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; which said Treasurer and Treasurers respectively shall be accountable in the Exchequer for the same, and shall give such sufficient Security as shall be approved of by the Lord Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, before he or they enter upon his or their Office, for making such Account.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, by one or more Instrument or Instruments in Writing on Parchment under their Hands and Seals, to be inrolled in her Majesty's High Court of Chancery, to describe and ascertain the true Limits and Bounds of the Site of and belonging to each such new Church and House for the Habitation of the Minister of such new Church, and for such Church-yards or Cemeteries for each respective Parish, and also the District and Division of each Parish that shall be appointed for every Church to be erected or constituted, pursuant to this Act, or the said former Act; and every such District or Division so set out, ascertained, and appointed, as aforesaid, for a new Parish, shall, from and for ever after the Inrolment of such Instrument, and the Consecration of such new Church, appointed or intended for such District or Division, be, and be deemed and taken to be of itself a distinct Parish, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, except as touching Church Rates, the Relief of the Poor, and Rates for the Highways, as is herein after provided; and the Inhabitants within the distinct Limits of every such new Parish, shall from thenceforth be the Parishioners thereof, and subject and liable to such Taxes, Assessments, Rates for the Poor, cleansing the Streets, and other Duties within the said new Parish, in like Manner as Inhabitants in the Parish from which such new Parish, or the greater Part thereof, was divided and taken, are subject or chargeable to the same; and shall within the Space of one Month next after the Consecration of such new Church, in every such new intended Parish respectively, be divided and exempt from such Parish or Parishes from which the same shall be so taken, and from bearing any such Offices or Charges, and from all Dependencies and Contributions for or in respect thereof, except as is hereby otherwise enacted or provided.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, (if they shall think it requisite) by one or more Instrument or Instruments under their Hands and Seals, to be inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, to separate, divide, and take a particular District or Part out of any of the large Parishes in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, where any new Church or Churches shall be erected or made, and add, annex, and unite the same to any other lesser Parish next adjoining thereto, wherein a Church is already erected; and in such case the same shall afterwards, to all Intents and Purposes, (except as is herein otherwise enacted or provided) be deemed and taken as Part of the Parish to which the same shall be so added or annexed; and that the several Inhabitants within such particular District, so divided and added to another Parish, shall from thenceforth be liable in like Manner to bear all Parochial Offices within the Parish to which the same shall be added; and such Inhabitants shall, from and after Tuesday in Easter Week next after such Instrument shall be made and inrolled, be in like Manner discharged and exempted from bearing any Offices in the former Parish to which they did belong.

X. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be a Rector of every new Church and Parish to be made or constituted, pursuant to this Act, and a perpetual Succession of Rectors there, to have Cure of the Souls of the Inhabitants of such new Parish; and where there now is a certain Morning Preacher in any Chapel which shall be converted into a Parochial Church, who shall have usually officiated there for the Space of one Month next before the Consecration thereof, such Minister, from and immediately after such Consecration, shall be and is hereby declared to be the first Rector of such new Church and Parish, without any Admission, Institution, or Induction to the same; but shall nevertheless be and continue complete Rector thereof in the same and as ample Manner as if he had been instituted and inducted thereunto; and in every other new Church and Parish, to be erected or constituted pursuant to this Act, the first Rector shall be nominated and appointed by her Majesty of and in such new Church and Parish; and every such new Rector hereby declared, or to be nominated, as aforesaid, and his Successors, shall be and are hereby incorporated, and shall be named and called the Rector of such new Church respectively, by the Name which shall be given to such Church respectively in the Act or Instrument of Consecration thereof; and shall be, and are hereby enabled to sue and be sued in all Courts and Places of this Realm; and the Freehold and Inheritance of the Lands and Hereditaments to be purchased for such new Church, Church-yards, or Cemetery or Cemeteries, and such Mansion or Dwelling-house of such Rector, shall be vested, by virtue of this Act, in such Rector of each such new Parish, and his Successors respectively; and he and they shall be seized thereof, as in his and their Demesne as of Fee, in Right of the Church, in such Manner as other Rectors be now seized of their respective Churches and Glebe; and every such new Rector and his Successors respectively, shall be and are hereby enabled to purchase and take any other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments to such Rector, for the time being, and his Successors, Rectors of the same Church, not exceeding together the clear yearly Value of two hundred Pounds per Annum, for each such Church respectively.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and impowered to enquire and inform themselves, by all lawful Ways and Means, of the Right of Advowson, Patronage, and Nomination, of or to the present Church in every Parish, from which any Part or District shall be divided or taken by virtue or in pursuance of this Act; and in what Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, the same, or any Estate or Interest therein, is, or at the Time of such Enquiry, shall be, and to treat and agree with all such Persons having any Right or Interest in such Advowson, Patronage, or Nomination, for the more effectual dividing and separating such present Parish, and the Tithes, Oblations, Dues, and and Revenues belonging to the present Church, and the Charges and Dependencies thereof, and apportioning the same, to take place and effect from and immediately after the first Avoidance of such present Church respectively, in any Parish from which any Part or District shall be divided or taken, and for ascertaining and settling for ever the Right of Patronage of every new Church or Chapel made parochial, to which such District or Part so divided shall be appointed or annexed; and all Agreements and Settlements, which shall be so made, for such further Division, with the Assent of the respective Ordinary or Ordinaries, or for settling such Right of Patronage, by any Instrument or Instruments in Writing on Parchment, under the Hands and Seals of such Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and under the Seals of the Parties having any Right or Interest in such Patronages, or of any Person or Persons by such Parties respectively authorized and inrolled in the said High Court of Chancery, shall from thenceforth be binding and conclusive, as well to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, as to and against all other Persons for ever.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all Bodies Politick and Corporate, Guardians to Infants under Age, Committees of Lunaticks and Idiots, Executors, Administrators, and Trustees, and they are hereby enabled and empowered to contract with the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and to sell and convey the same, and the respective Estates or Interests in them respectively vested of and in the same, and to agree with the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, for the limiting and settling the Right of Patronage and Presentation of the succeeding Rectors of such new intended Parish Churches; and such Sale, Conveyance, and Settlements shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, and so deemed and allowed in all Courts of Law or Equity, and elsewhere, to bind all such Corporations, Infants, Lunaticks, Idiots, and the Cestui que Trusts; and all such Guardians, Committees, Executors, Administrators, and Trustees, are hereby indemnified for so doing.

XIII. Provided that such Bargains and Contracts be upon a Petition to be preferred by or on Behalf of such respective Corporation, Infant, Lunatick, Idiot, or Cestui que Trust, interested therein, examined, and approved by the High Court of Chancery; which Court shall also order and direct how the Monies arising by such Sale shall be applied or employed for the Benefit of such Corporation, Infant, Idiot, Lunatick, or Cestui que Trust respectively.

and approved by the Chancery, who shall order the Application of the Monies, &c.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in every such new Parish, to be erected or constituted by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, in the mean Time, and until such Agreement and Settlement can be made concerning the Patronage thereof respectively, to name, from time to time, the Rector of such new Churches to succeed therein.

XV. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That as well the first Rector, as all other succeeding Rectors of every such new Parish Church (except the present preaching Ministers of such Chapels, as aforesaid) shall be presented and instituted, or collated, and also inducted, as other Rectors and Vicars are and ought to be, and shall observe and perform all other Matters and Things for the qualifying or entitling themselves thereto, as other Rectors ought to do; and the new Churches, which shall be erected or made in pursuance of this Act, and the respective Rectors thereof, with the Church-wardens belonging to the same, shall be under and subject to the Jurisdiction of the respective Ordinary, within whose Diocese or District such new Church respectively is situated, and shall be visited by such Ordinary respectively, in such Manner as other Churches, Rectors, and Church-wardens, within their respective Jurisdictions, have been, or may be visited.

XVI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend to deprive the Successors of the present Rectors, Vicars, and other Ecclesiastical Persons having Cure of Souls, of or in the present Parish Churches, out of which any Part or District shall be divided or taken, of any Tithes, Dues, or Profits belonging to any of them respectively, until such Agreements or Settlements, for the more effectual dividing and separating any such Parish respectively, to be made and inrolled, and take effect, as aforesaid, with Relation to such Successors respectively; but that the Successors of the present Incumbents, till such Agreements and Settlements be made and take Effect, shall and may have, hold, and enjoy the said respective Rectories, Vicarages, and Curacies, and the Tithes, Dues, and Profits thereof, in as ample Manner as if this Act had not been made, and as the present Rectors and other Ecclesiastical Persons, who are to hold and enjoy the same, during their respective Incumbencies, are of Right to hold and enjoy the same.

XVII. Provided also that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice or alter the Property or Interest of any Proprietor or Proprietors of, in, or to any of the Chapels which shall be made or appointed Parish Churches, in pursuance of this Act, or of or in any of the Pews within the same, without the Consent of such respective Proprietor or Proprietors first had and obtained in Writing under his and their respective Hands and Seals; but that they and their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, shall hold and enjoy the same, in such and the same Manner, as if this Act had not been made.

XVIII. Provided nevertheless, That if any of the said Proprietors shall be minded to sell or dispose of their said Properties in any of the Pews in any of the said Chapels, the same shall be sold and disposed of only to such Inhabitants of the respective Parishes for which such Chapels shall be so made or appointed Parish Churches, and to no other Person or Persons whatsoever.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the first Church-wardens and Overseers for the Poor, Scavengers, and Surveyors for the Highways, and other Parish Officers for every such new Parish, shall, by the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, be nominated and elected out of the Inhabitants of such new Parish respectively, within the Space of one Month after the Consecration of such Church;

the effectual dividing the Parish, &c. and for ascertaining the Right of Patronage, &c. and all Agreements, &c. to be binding.

Any Person, &c. may contract with the Commissioners for any Lands, &c. and for settling the Right of Patronage, &c. and such Sale, &c. to be good in Law, to bind all Corporations, &c.

Provido, such Bargains, &c. to be upon a Petition preferred, &c.

The Crown shall present till such Settlement of the Right of Patronage.

The first and succeeding Rectors (except the present Preacher in a Chapel) to be presented, &c. as other Rectors are, and they and the Church-wardens shall be subject to the Ordinary.

This Act shall not deprive the succeeding Rectors, &c. of any Tithes, &c. till such Agreements, &c. be made and inrolled.

This Act shall not prejudice any Proprietor of a Chapel, or his Interest in any Pews, &c.

If any Proprietor shall sell his Interest in any Pew, it shall be sold to a Parishioner.

The first Church-wardens, &c. shall be elected by 5 of the Commissioners, and shall have the like Powers, &c. as the like Officers in London, &c. And all succeeding Church-wardens, &c. shall be chosen annually.

The Commissioners may name a Vestry, who shall have the same Powers as the Vestrymen of the Parish out of which such new

All parochial Customs, &c. shall continue in both Parishes.

The Commissioners, &c. with Consent of the present Rectors, &c. may make a perpetual Division of such Parishes, &c. as to Church Rates, &c.

and such Division, &c. shall be binding.

Till such Agreement, the Church Rates, &c. shall be levied, through all Parts of the present Parish. The Parish Officers, &c. shall meet yearly on Tuesday in Easter Week, and assess the Rates for the Poor, &c.

which Rates, &c. shall be levied by the proper Officers, &c.

Church; and the said Officers so elected, shall be invested with the like Powers and Authorities, and subject to the Laws now in force in that Behalf, as any other like Officers in any other Parish within the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof; and all the succeeding Church-wardens, Overseers for the Poor, Scavengers, and Surveyors of the Highways, and other Parish Officers, shall be nominated, chosen, and appointed, sworn, constituted, and admitted annually within every such Parish, according to the Laws now in force.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, with the Consent of the Bishop or Ordinary of the Place, by Instrument under their Hands and Seals, to be inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, to name a convenient number of sufficient Inhabitants in each such new Parish respectively, to be the Vestrymen of such new Parish, who shall have and exercise the like Powers and Authorities for ordering and regulating the Affairs of such new Parish, as the Vestrymen of the present Parish, out of which such new Parish, or the greater Part thereof shall be taken, now have or exercise; and if there be no select Vestry in such present Parish, then as the Vestrymen of the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields within the Liberty of the City of Westminster in the County of Middlesex, now have or exercise; and from time to time, upon the Death, Removal, or other Voidance of any such Vestryman, the rest or the Majority of them may elect a fit Person, being an Inhabitant and Householder in the said Parish, to supply the same.

Parish shall be taken; and upon the Death, &c. of any Vestryman, the Majority shall chuse another.

XXI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That all parochial Customs, Usages, By-Laws, and Privileges, as are now in Force or Use within any present Parish which shall be divided by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, shall and may at all Times after, and notwithstanding such Division, continue and be in Force, as well in and for every new Parish, of which the Whole or the greater Part shall be taken out of such present Parish, as in and for such Parish as shall remain to the present parochial Church, and be used, enjoyed, and observed by the Inhabitants thereof respectively, so far as the same shall not be repugnant to, or inconsistent with the Laws of this Realm, and the Intent of this present Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, with the Consent of the respective Rectors, Vicars, or Ministers, Church-wardens, and Overseers of the Poor, and of the Vestry, or twenty of the principal Inhabitants of any present Parish in which there shall be no select Vestry, from which any Part or District shall, by virtue and in pursuance of this Act, be taken, and of such Parish or Parishes to which any such District or Division so taken, shall be appointed or belong, or else to or for such respective Rectors, Vicars, Ministers, Church-wardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Vestrymen, or principal Inhabitants, with Consent of their respective Ordinary or Ordinaries, at any Time or Times hereafter, by Instrument in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to be inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, to make an effectual and perpetual Division of such Parishes or Districts so divided, as to the Church Rates, Relief of the Poor, and Rates for the Highways, and other Parish Rates within the same respectively, and to limit and settle any certain annual Sum or Consideration for or in respect thereof, or for Equality of such Division, where there shall be Occasion; and such Division and Settlement so made, shall be for ever after binding, effectual, and conclusive, to all Persons, Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in the mean Time, and until such Agreement for such Rates respectively shall be made and take Place, the Church Rates, Poor Rates, and Rates for the Highways, and other Parish Rates, shall be assessed and levied within and through all Parts and Districts which do now belong to such present Parish.

XXIV. And for the better ordering, dividing, collecting, and distributing, from time to time, such Rates within the present Limits of every Parish which shall be divided, pursuant to this Act, in the mean Time, and until such further and perpetual Divisions shall be made, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor, with the Vestry or principal Inhabitants of each Parish respectively, as aforesaid, to which any Part or District of such present Parish, after any Division thereof to be made, pursuant to this Act, shall remain or belong, to assemble and meet together in the present Parish Church or Vestry Room, annually, upon Tuesday in Easter Week in the Forenoon, or oftner, from time to time, as Occasion shall require; and Notice thereof shall be given on the Lord's Day next before in the Church of each such Parish immediately after the Morning Service; and to and for them, or the major Part of them so assembled, to agree upon or ascertain the Monies or Rates to be assessed within the Limits of such present Parish, for the Relief of the Poor, or Repair of the Highways, and other Parish Rates within such Limits, or the Repair of any Church to which any Part or District of such present Parish shall, when divided, belong; and to divide, ascertain, and apportion such Monies and Rates to and upon every Part or District of such present Parish so divided respectively, with Regard to the Value of the Lands and Estates therein assessable to the same; which Monies or Rates so to be divided or apportioned, shall be assessed, levied, and collected in each such District accordingly, by the proper Officers of the respective Parish to which such District shall remain or belong, and by such Ways and Means as the Officers of the present Parish might have assessed, collected, or levied the same, if such Division or this Act had not been made; and also to divide, ascertain, and distribute such Monies and Rates so assessed and collected through the present Limits of such Parish, in just and reasonable Proportions, to and for every such Part and District respectively, as the same shall be divided, separately and apart, for the Relief of the Poor, and Repair of the Highways, and other Parish Rates within such Part or District, and for the Repair of the respective Church to which such Part or District shall remain or belong, with Regard to the Wants and Occasions of each such Part or District, for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid respectively; and all such Proportions so to be distributed, shall be employed and applied to the proper Uses and Purposes for which the same was assessed, and shall be distinctly distinctly accounted for by the Officers of the respective Parish to which such District shall remain or belong.

XXV. Provided always, That in all such Cases when and so often as such annual or other Agreements shall not be had or made for the apportioning and distributing such Rates, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Churchwardens of the present Parish Church, and the Overseers of the Poor, and Surveyors of the Highways for the Parish or District then remaining to such present Church, to assess, collect, and levy of the Inhabitants within and throughout the present Limits of such Parish, for the Relief of the Poor, and Repair of the Highways within the present Limits of such Parish, and the Repair of the present Church, all such Rates and Taxes, as the Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Surveyors of the Highways of such Parish might have done before any Division made; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That neither this Act, nor any thing herein contained, shall extend to invalidate or avoid any Ecclesiastical Law or Constitution of the Church of England, or to destroy any of the Rights or Powers belonging to the Bishop of London, and his Successors, or any other local Ordinary, or to any Archdeacon, Chancellor, or Official.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That he and they respectively may at all Times hereafter visit, institute, and exercise Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in all Parishes to be erected or divided by virtue and in pursuance of this Act, or in any Part or Place within the same, as amply as they or any of them may now do therein, and in such Manner as in any other Parishes or Places within his or their Diocese or Jurisdiction respectively; the Admission and Institution of such present preaching Ministers in such Chapels as shall be consecrated and converted into Parochial Churches, only excepted.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one of the said fifty new Churches shall be erected in East-Greenwich in the County of Kent, as in the said former Act is directed.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, at any time before the twenty-ninth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute and appoint such Persons to be Commissioners to execute all and every the Powers in the said recited Act, and in this Act mentioned, as her Majesty shall think fit; and from such Appointment so made, the Powers hereby granted to the Commissioners, in the said former Letters Patent, shall determine.

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies to be issued by or in pursuance of this or the said former Act for Building the said Churches, and other the Uses therein mentioned, shall be issued and paid without Fee or Charge to be demanded or taken for the same.

XXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Burial shall, at any time hereafter, be in or under any of the Churches by this Act intended to be erected, and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, to ascertain the Sum of Money that shall be paid to the Rector, and each Officer belonging to each Church, for every Burial in any of the Cemeteries or Churchyards, by this Act intended to be purchased.

XXXII. And whereas, by the said Act made in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, That out of the Sums of Money which should be raised by virtue of the said Act, there should be applied the Sum of Four thousand Pounds per Annum towards the Repairing and Finishing the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster, and the Chapels of the same: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of Four thousand Pounds per Annum, during the Continuance of the said former Act, shall be issued and paid unto the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, and the Dean of the said Collegiate Church, for the time being, who are hereby constituted and appointed Commissioners for repairing the said Collegiate Church and Chapels of the same, by equal Quarterly Payments; the first Payment to commence and be made on the thirtieth Day of December in the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixteen: Which said Sums of Money so to be paid to the said Chancellor of the Exchequer, Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, and Dean of the said Collegiate Church, shall be by them laid out and expended in and towards the Repairing the said Collegiate Church and Chapels of the same; and Books of Accounts shall be kept by them, the said Chancellor of the Exchequer, Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, and Dean of the said Collegiate Church, or by their Deputies or Officers, of all Monies which, from time to time, shall be received, paid, disbursed, and applied towards the Repairing of the said Collegiate Church and Chapels of the same; the said Books to be inspected by all Persons gratis, and also Abstracts of such Books of Account shall be by them, the same Commissioners, or any two of them, before the End of Michaelmas Term in every Year, transmitted and delivered into her Majesty's Remembrancer's Office in the Court of Exchequer, to be there received, kept and viewed without Fee or Reward, in such Manner as is directed by an Act made in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for completing the Building and Adorning the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, London, and for Repairing the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster.

XXXIII. And whereas by an Act made in the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Additional Act for the Rebuilding the City of London, Uniting of Parishes, and Rebuilding of the Cathedral and Parochial Churches within the said City; the Number of Parish Churches to be rebuilt was fifty-one, and the Church of St. Mary Woolnoth is one of the said fifty-one Churches directed to be rebuilt, for which Purpose several Duties upon Coals imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or River of Thames within the Liberty of the said City upon the said River, were granted; and by one other Act made in the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the Second, a further Duty was laid upon Coals imported, and Power thereby given to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and to the Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, to appropriate, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, such Part of the Imposition, thereby granted, as should in their

In Default of such yearly Agreements, &c. the Parish Officers for such District, &c. shall assess all Rates, &c.

This Act shall not invalidate any Ecclesiastical Law, &c. nor destroy the Rights of the Bishop of London, &c.

The said Bishop, &c. may visit, &c. in all such new Parishes, &c.

One of the new Churches shall be built at Greenwich. Before 29 Sept. 1712. the Queen, &c. may appoint Commissioners to execute this Act.

All Monies to be issued without Fee. No Burial to be in any of the new Churches, and the Commissioners may ascertain what shall be paid for burying in the Church Yards.

9 Annæ, c. 22.

The yearly Sum of 4000 l. shall be paid to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, &c. for repairing Westminster Abbey, &c. who are constituted Commissioners, &c. And they to keep Books of Accounts, &c. And deliver Abstracts thereof into the Remembrancer's Office, &c. as directed by the Act of 8 and 9 W. 3. c. 14.

Ja. 1. c. 25.

8 W. 3. c. 14.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, &c. may appropriate so much out of the Surplus Money arising by the Duty of 12 d. per Chalden on Coals, as shall be sufficient to build the Church of St. Mary Woolnoth. See further concerning Duty, &c. on Coals, 12 Ann. stat. 2. c. 9. 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. and 19. 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. 13 Geo. 1. c. 21. 22 Geo. 2. c. 37. 32 Geo. 2. c. 19. Sect. 28.

Discretion seem sufficient for the Compleating of any the said Parochial Churches that might happen to remain unfinished, so as the same did not in any one Year exceed one fifth part of the same duty: And whereas by one other Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, a Duty or Imposition of Twelve Pence for every Chalden or Tun of Coals imported or brought in, as aforesaid, from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred, and before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, was granted, and Power given thereby to the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any two of them, to appropriate the Money to be thereby raised for the Purposes in the said Act of the first Year of the said late King JAMES mentioned, except as in and by the said late recited Act is otherwise particularly directed and appointed: And whereas also the Parish Church of St. Mary Woolnoth was, for the Conveniency of the Inhabitants there, only repaired, and not rebuilt, as by the said Act was directed, and the old Walls, East, West, and South, and the Roof thereof, together with the Tower or Steeple, are now become so ruinous, that there is a Necessity of Rebuilding and Finishing the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, or any two of them, to appropriate, by Warrants under their Hands and Seals, out of the Surplus of the Monies arising by the said Duties and Impositions of twelve Pence per Chalden, or twelve Pence per Tun on Coals, applicable for the Purposes in the said Act of the first Year of the late King JAMES the Second, after the said Cathedral Church shall be finished and adorned, and other Charges upon the said Duties discharged, so much Money as shall be sufficient for the Rebuilding and Finishing of the said Parish Church of St. Mary Woolnoth, and the Tower thereof, as shall be necessary; any thing herein, or in the said recited Acts, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XII.

An Act to restore the Patrons to their ancient Rights of presenting Ministers to the Churches vacant in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

The recited Act concerning Patronages, so far as it relates to Presentations by Heretors, &c. made void. The other recited Acts repealed. And the Rights of Patrons restored. After 1 May, 1712. the Crown, and others who have Right to Patronages, may present qualified Ministers, and the Presbyteries shall receive them.

Not to restore the Right of Presentation to

WHEREAS by the antient Laws and Constitutions of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Presenting of Ministers to vacant Churches did of Right belong to the Patrons, until by the twenty third Act of the second Session of the first Parliament of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, held in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety, intituled, Act concerning Patronages, the Presentation was taken from the Patrons, and given to the Heretors and Elders of the respective Parishes; and in Place of the Right of Presentation, the Heretors and Life Renters of every Parish were to pay to the respective Patrons a small and inconsiderable Sum of Money, for which the Patrons were to renounce their Right of Presentation in all Times thereafter: And whereas by the fifteenth Act of the fifth Session, and by the thirteenth Act of the sixth Session of the first Parliament of the said King WILLIAM, the one intituled, An Act for Encouraging of Preachers at Vacant Churches be-north Forth, and the other intituled, Act in Favours of Preachers be-north Forth; there are several Burthens imposed upon vacant Stipends, to the Prejudice of the Patrons Right of disposing thereof: And whereas that Way of calling Ministers has proved inconvenient, and has not only occasioned great Heats and Divisions among those who by the aforesaid Act were entitled and authorized to call Ministers, but likewise has been a great Hardship upon the Patrons, whose Predecessors had founded and endowed those Churches, and who have not received Payment or Satisfaction for their Right of Patronage from the aforesaid Heretors or Life Renters of the respective Parishes, nor have granted Renunciations of their said Rights on that Account; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the aforesaid Act made in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety, intituled, Act concerning Patronages, in so far as the same relates to the Presentation of Ministers by Heretors and others therein mentioned, be and is hereby repealed and made void; and that the aforesaid fifteenth Act of the fifth Session, and thirteenth Act of the sixth Session, of the first Parliament of King WILLIAM, be and are hereby likewise repealed and made void; and that in all Time coming, the Right of all and every Patron or Patrons to the Presentation of Ministers to Churches and Benefices, and the Disposing of the vacant Stipends for pious Uses within the Parish, be restored, settled, and confirmed to them, the aforesaid Acts, or any other Act, Statute, or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and that from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twelve, it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and for every other Person or Persons, who have Right to any Patronage or Patronages of any Church or Churches whatsoever, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, (and who have not made and subscribed a formal Renunciation thereof under their Hands) to present a qualified Minister or Ministers to any Church or Churches whereof they are Patrons, which shall, after the said first Day of May, happen to be vacant; and the Presbytery of the respective Bounds shall and is hereby obliged to receive and admit in the same Manner such qualified Person or Persons, Minister or Ministers, as shall be presented by the respective Patrons, as the Persons or Ministers presented before the making of this Act ought to have been admitted.

II. Provided always, That in case any Patron or Patrons have accepted of, and received any Sum or Sums of Money from the Heretors or Life Renters of any Parish, or from the Magistrates or Town Council of any Borough, in Satisfaction of their Right of Presentation, and have discharged or renounced the same under under their hand, that nothing herein shall be construed to restore such Patron or Patrons to their Right of Presentation; any thing in this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Patron of any Church aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to present any qualified Minister to such Church that shall be vacant the said first Day of May, or shall happen to be vacant at any Time thereafter, for the Space of six Months, after the said first Day of May, or after such Vacancy shall happen, that the Right of Presentation shall accrue and belong for that Time to the Presbytery of the Bounds where such Church is, who are to present a qualified Person for that Vacancy tanquam jure devoluto.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Patronage and Right of Presentations of Ministers to all Churches which belonged to Archbishops, Bishops, or other dignified Persons, in the Year one thousand six hundred eighty-nine, before Episcopacy was abolished, as well as those which formerly belonged to the Crown, shall and do of Right belong to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, who may present qualified Ministers to such Church or Churches, and dispose of the vacant Stipends thereof for pious Uses, in the same Way and Manner as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, may do in the Case of other Patronages belonging to the Crown.

V. Declaring always, That nothing in this present Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal and make void the aforesaid twenty-third Act of the second Session of the first Parliament of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, excepting so far as relates to the calling and presenting of Ministers, and to the disposing of vacant Stipends in Prejudice of the Patrons only.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Patron and Patrons, who have not taken, or shall not take, at any Time before his or their presenting a Minister or Ministers to any Church or Churches aforesaid, the Oath appointed to be taken by Persons in publick Trust, by an Act made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, shall, and are hereby obliged, at their signing such Presentation, to take and subscribe the aforesaid Oath before the Sheriff of the Shire, Stewart of the Stewartry, or before any two or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such Patron resides; and in case such Patron or Patrons, who have not formerly taken the aforesaid Oath, refuse or neglect to take the same at the signing of such Presentation, that the same shall be and is hereby declared to be void, and the Right of Presentation, and of the disposing the vacant Stipends for that Time, shall belong to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, who may present a qualified Person to such Church or Benefice, at any Time within the Space of six Months after such Neglect or Refusal; any thing in this present Act, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And whereas the Right of Patronage of Churches may belong to Papists; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons, known or suspected to be Papists; and who have a Right of presenting Ministers, shall be obliged, at or before his or their signing any Presentation, to purge himself of Popery, by taking and signing the Formula contained in the third Act of the Parliament of Scotland, held in the Year one thousand seven hundred, intituled, Act for preventing the Growth of Popery; and in case such Popish Patron or Patrons shall refuse to take and subscribe the Formula aforesaid, the same being tendred to him or them by the Sheriff of the Shire, Stewart of the Stewartry, or any two or more Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdiction, who are hereby empowered to administer the same, the Presentation, and the Right of disposing the vacant Stipends shall for that Time belong to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, who may present any qualified Person or Persons within six Months after such Neglect or Refusal; any thing in this present Act, or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XIII.

An Act for repealing Part of an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled, Act for discharging the Yule Vacance.

WHEREAS by the twenty-second Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, Anno one thousand six hundred and ninety, intituled, Act for discharging the Yule Vacance, the annual Vacation of the Court of Session, and all other inferior Courts of Judicature, is thereby discharged, and the Senators of the College of Justice, or Court of Session, are ordained to meet and sit for the Administration of Justice, from the first Day of November to the first of March yearly, without any Interruption; which has been by Experience found Inconvenient and Burthensome to the Subject in that Part of the Kingdom; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, so far as the same relates to the discharging the Yule Vacance, be and is hereby repealed, annulled, and made void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

II. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Christmas Vacation of the Session or College of Justice, and all other inferior Courts of Justice, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall yearly and in all Time coming continue and endure from the twentieth of December to the tenth of January, both inclusive; the said Law or any other Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Repealed by 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 28.]

C A P. XIV.

An Act for the reviving and continuing several Acts therein mentioned, for the preventing Mischief which may happen by Fire; for building and repairing County Gaols; for exempting Apothecaries from serving Parish and Ward Offices, and serving upon Juries; and relating to the returning of Jurors.

WHEREAS divers Temporary Laws, which by Experience have been found Useful and Beneficial, are expired and near expiring, therefore for reviving and continuing the same, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Clause herein after mentioned in the Act made in the sixth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Mischief that may happen by Fire, videlicet; And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Action, Suit, or Process whatsoever, shall be had, maintained, or prosecuted against any Person in whose House or Chamber any Fire shall, from and after the said first Day of May, accidentally begin, or any Recompence be made by such Person for any Damage suffered or occasioned thereby; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Action shall be brought for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence; and in case the Plaintiff become nonsuit, or discontinue his Action or Suit, or if a Verdict pass against him, the Defendant shall recover Treble Cost: Which Clause being made temporary, and being expired, shall be, and are hereby revived and made perpetual.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to enable Justices of the Peace to build and repair Gaols in their respective Counties, which was to continue for ten Years, being expired, shall be and is hereby revived and continued, and shall be in Force, from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twelve, for and during the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

This Clause is made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 19. §. 1.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the sixth and seventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for exempting Apothecaries from serving the Offices of Constable, Scavenger, and other Parish and Ward Offices, and from serving upon Juries, which Act was to continue for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; which Act was by an Act made in the first Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for reviving the Act, intituled, 'An Act for exempting Apothecaries from serving the Offices of Constable, Scavenger, and other Parish and Ward Offices, and from serving upon Juries,' continued for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; which Act will expire at the End of the next Session of Parliament, after the eleventh Day of February one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be and remain in full Force from and after the Expiration thereof, for the Space of eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

IV. And whereas in an Act made in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for reviving, continuing, and explaining several Laws therein mentioned, which are expired and near-expiring, there are several good Clauses and Provisions relating to the returning of Jurors, which Clauses and Provisions were by the said Act to continue in Force for three Years, from the first of May one thousand six hundred ninety-three, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; which said Clauses and Provisions were, by an Act made in the seventh and eighth Years of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Ease of Jurors, and better regulating of Juries, continued for seven Years, from the first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-six, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer; which said last-mentioned Act was also to continue but for the said Term of seven Years, from the said first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-six, and to the End of the next Session of Parliament; but was by another Act made in the first Year of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for continuing former Acts for exporting Leather, and for Ease of Jurors, and for reviving and making more effectual an Act relating to Vagrants, continued further for seven Years from the Expiration thereof, and to the End of the next Session of Parliament: And whereas several other Clauses and Provisions, relating to the Returns and Service of Jurors, were made in another Act made in the Session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth Years of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making perpetual an Act for the more easy Recovery of small Tithes; and also an Act for the more easy obtaining Partition of Lands in Coparcenary, Joint Tenancy, and Tenancy in common; and also for making more effectual and amending several Acts relating to the Return of Jurors; and were only to continue in Force during the Continuance of the said Act; all which Clauses, Provisions, and Act, are near expiring; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said Clauses, Provisions, and Act, shall be, and are hereby continued, and shall be in Force from the Expiration thereof, for and during the Space of eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

V. And whereas by the said Act made in the seventh and eighth Years of the said King WILLIAM, it is enacted, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-six, no Person shall be returned or summoned to serve upon any Jury of the Assizes, or general Gaol Delivery to be holden for the County of York, or at any Sessions of the Peace to be holden for any Part thereof (the City of York, and County of the said City, and Town and County of Kingston upon Hull, excepted) above once in four Years, and some Doubt having arisen on what is to be understood by any Sessions of the Peace to be holden for any Part thereof; therefore for explaining the same Words, and avoiding any Dispute that may hereafter be made touching the Construction thereof; Be it enacted and declared, That the same shall be construed to extend, not only to any Sessions of the Peace to be holden for any of the Ridings within the said County of York, but also to any Sessions of the Peace that shall be holden by Adjournment for any Part of the said Ridings, or any of them.

VI. Provided nevertheless, That if any Person interested in such Estate, as will qualify him to serve on Juries, of the clear yearly Value of one hundred and fifty Pounds, or of any greater yearly Value, shall serve as a Juror at any of the said Sessions or Adjournments, he shall not thereby be exempted from serving as a Juror at the Assizes or general Gaol Delivery to be holden for the said County of York, for the said Term of four Years, or any other Term; any thing in the said recited Acts, or any of them, or in this present Act, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Not to extend to exempt any Persons from serving as Jurors at the Assizes for the said County.

VII. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act be construed to extend to repeal or alter any of the Powers or Privileges granted or confirmed to the Justices of the Peace of the County of Devon, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for ratifying several Purchases lately made with the publick Stock of the County of Devon; and for making further Purchases for the Use of the said County with the publick Stock thereof; and also for regulating and better Employment of the publick Stock of the said County.

Nor to repeal any Power granted to the Justices of Devon, by the private Act of 9 Annæ, c. 4.

C A P. XV.

An Act for repealing a Clause in the Statute made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the First, intituled, An Act for the further Description of a Bankrupt, and Relief of Creditors against such as shall become Bankrupts, and for insisting corporal Punishment upon the Bankrupts, in some special Cases, which makes Descriptions of Bankrupts; and for the Explanation of the Laws relating to Bankruptcy, in case of Partnership.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the one and twentieth Year of the Reign of King JAMES the First, intituled, An Act for the further Description of a Bankrupt, and Relief of Creditors against such as shall become Bankrupts, and for insisting corporal Punishment upon the Bankrupts, in some special Cases; it is, (amongst other Things) enacted, That all and every Person or Persons using, or that should use the Trade of Merchandize, by way of bargaining, exchange, bartering, chevance, or otherwise, in gross or by retail, or seeking his or her Living by buying and selling, or that should use the Trade or Profession of a Scrivener, receiving other Mens Monies or Estates into his Trust or Custody, who, at any Time after the End of the said Session of Parliament, being indebted to any Person or Persons in the Sum of one hundred Pounds or more, should not pay or otherwise compound for the same within six Months next after the same should grow due, and the Debtor be arrested for the same, or within six Months after an original Writ sued out to recover the said Debt, and Notice thereof given unto him, or left in Writing at his or their Dwelling-house or last Place of Abode, or being arrested for the Sum of one hundred Pounds or more of just Debt or Debts, should, at any Time after such Arrest, procure his Enlargement by putting in common or hired Bail, should be accounted and adjudged a Bankrupt to all Intents and Purposes, and in the said Cases of Arrest, or getting forth by common or hired Bail, from the Time of his or her said first Arrest: And whereas it is found by Experience, That many and great Mischiefs and Inconveniences have happened, especially of late, to Trade and Credit in general, by reason of the said Descriptions of a Bankrupt: For Remedy thereof for the future; Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Act, and also all and every other Act and Acts of Parliament whatsoever, so far forth as they relate to the said Descriptions of a Bankrupt, be, from and after the twentieth Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, repealed and made void; and that no Person or Persons whatsoever, within the said Descriptions, or any of them, shall, from and after the said twentieth Day of April, for or by Reason of the same, be taken or adjudged to be within the Statute or Statutes of Bankrupt whatsoever.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Act, Sale, or Disposition of any the Estate of such Persons within the said Descriptions, or any Distribution of the same, by or under any Commission or Commissions of Bankruptcy, before the said twentieth Day of April, taken out against such Person or Persons, shall be hereby impeached or frustrated, but that the same shall be enjoyed for and towards Satisfaction of the Debts for which the same have been disposed or distributed.

Not to frustrate any Act, Sale, &c. of the Estates of such Persons, by any Commission taken out before the said 20th of April.

III. And whereas a Doubt has arisen upon an Act made in the fourth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds frequently committed by Bankrupts, whether the Discharge of a Bankrupt, by virtue of that Act, should be construed to discharge the Partners of such Bankrupt from the same Debt; Be it therefore further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That by the Discharge of any Bankrupt or Bankrupts, by force of the said Act, or any other Acts relating to Bankrupts, from the Debts by him, her, or them due and owing at the Time that he, she, or they did become a Bankrupt, shall not be construed, nor was meant or intended to release or discharge any other Person or Persons who was or were Partner or Partners with the said Bankrupt in Trade, at the Time he, she, or they became a Bankrupt, or then stood jointly bound, or had made any joint Contract together with such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, for the same Debt or Debts from which he was discharged, as aforesaid, but that notwithstanding such Discharge, such Partner and Partners, joint Obligor and Obligors, and joint Contractors

C A P. XVI.

An Act for regulating, improving, and encouraging the Woollen Manufacture of mixt or Medley Broad Cloth, and for the better Payment of the Poor employed therein.

WHEREAS by the ill Practices of some Makers of Mixture or Medley Broad Cloth, and the Unskilfulness of others, by excessive straining such Clothes, and other Abuses committed in working the same, great Damages and Disappointments have happened, not only to the Buyers and Wearers of the said Cloth, but much to the Disreputation of the said Manufacture both at home and abroad, and the Workers or poor Labourers, employed in working and making up the said Manufacture, have been impoverished, and are daily discouraged by imposing on them Goods and Wares of several Kinds for their Labour instead of ready Money, which Practices have been great Discouragements to the good Makers of, and fair Dealers in the said Mixture or Medley Broad Cloth: For Remedy therefore of the said ill Practices or Abuses, and in order to the reviving and preserving the Reputation of the said Cloth both at home and abroad, and for the Improvement thereof, and Encouragement of all good Makers and fair Dealers therein, may it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, all Mixture or Medley Broad Cloth to be made, shall be measured at the Fulling Mill, after the same shall be fully milled and scoured, and thoroughly wet, by the Master, Owner, or Occupier of every such Fulling Mill, who shall, and he is hereby obliged to take an Oath before some Justice of the Peace near to such Fulling Mill, that he will well and truly perform such measuring, (which Oath such Justice of Peace is hereby authorized and required to administer, and thereof to give such Master, Owner, or Occupier of such Fulling Mill, a Certificate of his having so done) and that every such Master of every Fulling Mill shall affix, or cause to be affixed, at the Head-end of every such Cloth, before it shall be carried from the Mill, a Seal of Lead, (to be furnished by the Clothier) and the Master or Occupier of every such Fulling Mill shall rivet the same on every such Cloth, and stamp his Name thereupon, mentioning in Figures the Length and Breadth of every such Cloth, for which he shall be paid by the Owner of every such Cloth one Penny, and no more; and the Length and Number of Yards so stamped on such Seal, shall be a Rule of Payment for every such Cloth by the Buyer of the same. Provided always, That if it shall happen, that after any Cloth hath been milled, sealed, and stamped, as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, shall by any Accident be damaged and taken off, such Part of the same, as shall not be damaged, shall be again measured, sealed, and stamped, as is before directed.

After June 24, 1712. Medley Broad Cloth shall be measured at the Fulling Mill, by the Master, &c. who shall take an Oath truly to perform such measuring, and shall affix a Seal to each Cloth, mentioning the Length, Breadth, &c.

If damaged after measuring, it shall be measured, &c. again.

Neglecting to measure, counterfeiting the Seal, &c. forfeits 20 s. for each Cloth.

Penalty of overstretching, &c.

Method to be observed in measuring.

II. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Master or Occupier of such Fulling Mill shall refuse or neglect to fix such Seal, as aforesaid, upon the Head-end of the said Cloth; or if any Person shall afterwards take off such Seal, or deface, counterfeit, or alter the Figure of any such Seal, before the Cloth is sold, and if the Buyer of such Cloth or Clothes shall refuse to accept or take the same, pursuant and according to the Measures herein before directed to be taken; every such Person and Persons that shall so offend, and be thereof lawfully convicted upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, shall, for every such Neglect or Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings for every such Cloth to be recovered and distributed as in this Act is afterwards provided for.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Clothier or Cloth-worker or any Person or Persons employed by him, after any mixt or Medley Broad Cloth is fully wet, sealed, and stamped, as aforesaid, shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, stretch or strain any such mixt or Medley Broad Cloth above one Yard in twenty Yards Length thereof, or above one Nail of a Yard in the Breadth thereof; and that every Person or Persons offending therein, shall, for every Offence, (being duly convicted thereof before such mixt or Medley Broad Cloth is sold, or exposed to Sale) forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered and distributed as in and by this Act is afterwards directed.

IV. And to prevent any Objection that may arise from the different Method or Manner of measuring any Mixture or Medley Broad Cloth; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, every Mill-man, Owner, or Occupier of every Fulling Mill, shall have in some convenient Place in his said Mill, one Table or Board twelve Foot long, and three Foot wide at least, whereon the said Cloth shall be doubled or creased, and laid plain, with the Length of a Yard nailed or marked thereupon, to which shall be added one Inch more, which shall be used instead of that which is commonly called a Thumb's Breadth, so that the same Length shall contain thirty-seven Inches, to prevent any Dispute in respect of such measuring by the Yard; and in Default of such Table or Board being provided and constantly kept for the Use thereof, every Person neglecting the same, shall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered and distributed in such Manner as in this Act is afterwards provided.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to any Stock of the said Mixture or Medley Broad Cloth, which hath been made before, and which upon the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be in hand and unfold, it shall and may be lawful for any Clothier

Cloth made before the said 24th of June, and unfolded may be Clothier to take any or every such Cloth or Clothes so then in hand unfold, and to throw the same into the Water to shrink the same, in order to its being measured and sealed, as by this Act is before directed.

shrink and measured as by this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, every Clothier, Cloth-worker, Card-maker, or any other Person concerned in the Trade of the Woollen Manufacture, shall make Payment in Money to all and every Person and Persons any ways employed or concerned in the Woollen Manufacture, for all Work to be done in Relation thereunto, and shall not, in lieu of Payment, impose or deliver to them any Sort of Goods or Wares for such Work; and in case any Person or Persons shall, in lieu of Payment, so impose on or deliver to any Workmen or poor Labourers, any Goods or Wares, for or instead of Money, every Person or Persons so offending therein shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered and distributed in such Manner as in and by this Act is directed.

shall pay their Workmen in Money.

Penalty 20 s.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Offences against this Act shall be heard and determined by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City, or Place where the same shall be committed, provided such Justice or Justices be not concerned in the Matter of the said Complaint, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses; which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace is hereby empowered to administer; and that all and every the said Penalties, and Forfeitures, which shall happen by virtue of this Act, shall be the one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place where the Offence shall be committed; and in case any Offender shall neglect or refuse to pay any such Penalties and Forfeitures by the Space of fourteen Days after the Conviction for such Offence, that then (and not before) it shall and may be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom such Conviction was made, and such Justice or Justices is and are hereby required to issue out one or more Warrant or Warrants, under his or their Hands and Seals, to the Constable or Constables of the Parish, Town, or Place where such Offender doth inhabit, or can be found, within the Limits of his or their respective Jurisdictions, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, returning the Overplus (if any be) to the Offender; and where no sufficient Distress can be found, to commit the Offender to the Gaol or House of Correction for the County or Corporation, to be kept to hard Labour for such Time as the Justice or Justices of the Peace, before whom such Conviction shall be made, shall direct, not exceeding, for any one Offence, three Months.

30 Days.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons find him or themselves aggrieved by any Order or Warrant made by any Justice or Justices of the Peace upon any Conviction before him or them in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County or Place where such Conviction shall be made, giving sufficient Notice of such Appeal; and if the Justices at such next General Sessions shall think fit to confirm or disannul the said Order or Warrant, they shall allow such Costs and Charges to the Party grieved thereby, as they shall think reasonable, to be levied and paid in such Manner as is usual in other Cases of Appeal from the Orders of Justices of the Peace to the General Quarter-Sessions.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to Quarter-Sessions.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall hereafter be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons by this Act authorized to put the same in Execution, all and every Person and Persons so sued, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or a Verdict to pass against him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his and their treble Costs, for which he and they shall have like Remedy as in Cases wherein Costs by Law are given to Defendants. And this Act shall be taken and allowed a Publick Act in all Courts within this Kingdom, and all Judges and Justices are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such, without special pleading of the same.

If sued, may plead the General Issue, and recover

treble Costs.

VI. And whereas it is, and hath of late been the Use and Practice of divers Masters or Commanders, Owners or Part Owners of divers Outward bound Merchant Ships or Vessels, to enter into, or sign a certain Writing or Contract, whereby the Mariners debar themselves from their Wages, until some certain Time after the said Ship or Vessel's Arrival from off the said Voyage in the same Port from which they did first put to Sea, although the said Ships or Vessels do make Delivering Ports in Foreign Parts, whereby their Wages would otherwise come due by Law; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no such Contracts, nor any other private Contracts or Agreements, made or entered into by any Seaman or Mariner, shall extend, or be construed to extend, in any Ways to debar, obstruct, or delay the Payment of the Duties aforesaid, which by this or any other Act are appropriated to the Use of the said Hospital.

No Contracts by Seamen shall obstruct the Payment of the Duty.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and every Part thereof, shall be taken and deemed to be a Publick Act; and if, at any Time or Times hereafter, any Person or Persons shall be sued for any Matter or Thing done in the Execution of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if upon Trial the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs of Suit.

A Publick Act.
General Issue.

VIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act do extend to oblige the Payment of the six Pence per Mensen, by any Masters, Servants, or Apprentices of the Hoys, Smacks, or other Vessels belonging to the Port of London, and employed within the North Foreland, in bringing Corn, Fish, or other Provisions for the said Port of London, during the Time they shall be so employed; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nor to extend to Hoys, &c. employed in bringing Corn, Fish, &c. to London.

IX. And whereas in and by one other Act made at Westminster in the sixth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better securing the Trade of this Kingdom by Cruizers and Convoys, amongst other Things therein contained, it is enacted, That after the Sale or Sales of such Prize or Prizes as shall be taken from the Enemy, Publick Notification should be given by the Persons or Agents appointed for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors; after which Publick Notification, if any Shares shall remain in the Hands of the Persons or Agents appointed, as by the said Act is directed, either belonging to such Men as shall die or run from the Service, or such as shall not legally be demanded within three Years, then such Share or Shares so remaining in the Persons or Agents Hands, shall go to, and be paid to the Use of Greenwich Hospital: In which said Act it is likewise, amongst other Things, further enacted and declared, That as well the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Value of such Prize or Prizes that shall be taken into her Majesty's Service, as the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty thereby granted to the Commanders, Officers, Seamen, and others, for taking any of the Enemies Ships of War or Privateers, shall be made payable to such Person or Persons as shall be authorized and appointed to appraise or dispose of such Prize so taken from the Enemy, by the Commander, and by the Majority of the Officers, and the major Part of such Ships Company, and others as shall have taken the same, to be distributed and divided by the said Person or Persons, so authorized and appointed, amongst the Captors, in such Manner, Form, and Proportion as is thereby directed; the several Shares of which Captors (if not legally demanded within three Years after Publick Notification) shall go to the Use of Greenwich Hospital: In which said Act, no sufficient Provision being made to oblige such Agents or other Persons to discover or duly to account for the Monies remaining in their Hands due to the said Hospital;

6 Annæ, c. 13.

Now for the better and more effectual preserving and securing all such Interests and Shares so given and granted by the said Act, to and for the Use of the said Hospital, and for the better and more certain collecting the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, Agent and Agents, and others who hath sold or disposed of, or shall hereafter sell or otherwise dispose of any such Prize or Prizes so taken, or that shall hereafter be so taken from the Enemy, shall within the Space of three Calendar Months next after the first Payment or Distribution to the Captors of such Prize or Prizes, made in pursuance of such Publick Notification, make out, transmit or deliver unto the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, for the time being, or to such Person or Persons as he shall for that Purpose depute or appoint, a true State and Account of the Produce of such Prize and Prizes, together with an Account of the Payments of the several Shares to the Captors, as shall then have been really and bona fide by him or them paid; and also that all and every Person and Persons authorized and appointed by the said Act to receive Bills for the Value of such Prize Ship or Ships as are or shall be taken into her Majesty's Service, in Pursuance of the said Act, and all and every Person and Persons authorized and appointed to receive Bills for the Bounty granted by the said Act, shall, within the like Space of three Calendar Months, next after the first Payment or Distribution of such Bills, for the Value of such Prize Ships, taken into her Majesty's Service, and of the Bills for Bounty, as aforesaid, in like Manner make out, transmit, or deliver to the Treasurer for the time being of the said Hospital, or to his sufficient Deputy, a true State and Account of the Payment and Distribution of such Bills; and further, That all and every Person and Persons, Agents and others, that by virtue of the said Act hath sold and disposed of, or that

All Persons disposing of Prizes, or appointed by the recited Act to receive Bills for the Value of Prize Ships, or for the Bounty granted by that Act; and also Persons disposing of any Prize taken by Ships of War, shall respectively in three Months deliver to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital Accounts thereof, &c.

shall hereafter sell or dispose of any Prize or Prizes taken from the Enemy, or that shall at any time hereafter be taken from the Enemy by any of her Majesty's Ships of War or Privateers, or that shall receive and dispose of any Bill or Bills for the Value of such Prizes as shall be taken into her Majesty's Service, or Bills for Bounty, such Person and Persons, Agents and others, so selling or disposing thereof, shall, within the Space of three Calendar Months next after the Expiration of the Term of three Years, limited by the said Act, make out an exact Account of the Produce of such Prize or Prizes, and Bills for Bounty, as also for the Payments of the several Shares to the respective Captors, together with a true and just Account upon Oath of all such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be then remaining in such Agent or Person's Custody, Power, or Possession; and shall at the same Time deliver, or cause to be delivered to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, for the time being, or to his sufficient Deputy or Agent, the said Accounts so attested upon Oath, as aforesaid, together with all such remaining Sum and Sums of Money then so left and remaining in his or their Hands, as aforesaid, taking his or their Acquittances for the same.

The Person neglecting to transmit such Accounts shall forfeit 100l. to the said Hospital.

X. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Person and Persons hereby directed to transmit or deliver all or any the Accounts before mentioned, who shall neglect or refuse to transmit or deliver all or any such Account or Accounts, within the Times before limited or appointed, in such Manner and Form as is herein before mentioned, or who shall neglect or refuse to pay over all and every such Sum and Sums of Money as shall remain in his or their Hands, Power, Custody, or Possession, after the Term of three Years, to be accounted, as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to the Use of the said Royal Hospital the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, in which no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

Persons convicted of Fraud in stating Accounts to forfeit 100l. one Half to the Hospital, the other to the Prosecutor.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Fraud, Collusion, or Deceit shall be wittingly or willingly made, used, committed, permitted, done, or suffered, in the making, stating, or balancing any such Accounts, then every Person or Persons, who shall be thereof duly convicted, and his and their Aiders and Abettors, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, over and above the Penalties and Punishments to be inflicted by any other or former Law, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; one Moiety whereof to be to the Use of the said Hospital, and the other Moiety to the Informer who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, in which no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

Clause for limiting a Time for Captors to demand their Shares.

XII. And whereas her Majesty by her most gracious Declaration for Encouragement of her Ships of War and Privateers, bearing Date the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and two, was pleased to direct, That in case any of her Ships of War, or Merchant Ships employed in her Service, or any Private Man of War, should take in Fight, sink, fire, or by any other Means destroy any Ship of War, or Private Man of War belonging to, or in the Service of the Enemy, they should have, as a Reward for such Service, for each Piece of Ordnance, whether Iron or Brass, in any Ship of War, or Private Man of War, so taken or destroyed, ten Pounds, to be paid out of her Majesty's Share of Prizes, and to be shared and divided as in the said Declaration is specified: And whereas the Flag Officers, Captains, and other Officers, and Companies of several of her Majesty's Ships of War, did take and destroy several Ships of War and Privateers belonging to, or in the Service of the Enemy, before the Commencement of the said Act of Parliament passed in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, and thereby became entitled to such Reward, as aforesaid, by virtue of the said Declaration; but no Money remaining of her Majesty's Share of Prizes in the Receivers Hands, they are like to be deprived of the Benefit of her Majesty's said gracious Intention of rewarding such Service, unless some Provision be made by Parliament for supplying the same: And whereas the Sums of six thousand Pounds, and one thousand two hundred Pounds, Part of the Money remaining due to the several Captors for their Shares of Prizes, by virtue of the said Declaration, have been paid by the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes into the Receipt of the Exchequer, where the same lie uncalled for, though Publick Notice for Payment thereof hath long since been published in the Gazettes; and it being requisite that some certain Time should be limited for the Captors to make their Claims to their Shares of Prizes, by virtue of the said Declaration, and in Default thereof to be barred the same, in order to have the Accounts of such Shares finally adjusted, and that so much thereof as shall remain uncalled for within such limited Time, may be applied to and for the Uses and Purposes herein after mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such Shares belonging to any Captors of Prizes, by virtue of the said Declaration, of the Day appointed for the Payment whereof Publick Notice hath been given in the Gazette for three Years or more since past, and which shall not be legally demanded before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve, such Captors, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be for ever barred from all Right and Claim to the same; and as to any other Shares belonging to any Captors, as aforesaid, if the said Shares shall not be legally demanded on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, such Captors, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall then be for ever barred from all Right and Claim to the same.

Treasury may order the 6000l. and 1200l. remaining in the Exchequer, to be paid to the Treasurer of the Hospital.

XIII. And whereas there are remaining in the Hands of the said Receivers several Sums of Money which may probably be sufficient to answer all Demands of Captors, and also to pay the said Rewards, over and besides the said Sums of six thousand Pounds, and one thousand two hundred Pounds, paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforesaid, which said last mentioned Sums may be presently applied for the Benefit of the said Hospital; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall and may, and are hereby authorized and directed to order the Payment of the said Sums of six thousand Pounds, and one thousand two hundred Pounds, to be forthwith issued and paid to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, to be by him applied to the Uses and Purposes herein after mentioned; and as to all the Monies which now is or hereafter shall be in the Hands of any Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Persons appointed for the same, their Executors or Administrators, belonging to any Captors for their Shares of Prizes, by virtue of the said Declaration, the same shall be issued and applied in the first Place for or towards the Payment of the Captors, who shall demand the same within the respective Times aforesaid; and after the Payment of such Captors, then after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, shall be issued and applied for or towards the Payment of the Rewards before mentioned, in such Proportions as by the said Declaration is directed, to and among the Flag Officers, Captains, and other Officers and Companies of her Majesty's said Ships, their Executors or Administrators, entitled thereunto, as aforesaid, if the same shall be decreed unto them by the High Court of Admiralty; and Lists of the Ships which shall be intitled to such Reward by such Decree, shall be transmitted to the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twelve, and be by them afterwards claimed of the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve; and Publick Notice is hereby directed to be given in the Gazette by the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Persons appointed for the same, within fourteen Days after the Royal Assent shall be given to this Bill, of the respective Times appointed for the Captors, and the Persons entitled to such Rewards, as aforesaid, to make their respective Claims; and the Surplus of the said Monies, after the Payment of such Rewards, or so much of the same as shall be legally demanded, as aforesaid, shall immediately after the Times before limited for such Demand, be issued and paid to the Use of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich; such Allowances being first made out of the said Surplus for the necessary Charges of Officers attending for Payment of such Captors on Recals, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of six hundred Pounds, as to the Lord Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall seem reasonable; any thing in the said Declaration, or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

How the Monies remaining in the Hands of the Receivers of Prizes shall be applied.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum and Sums of Money so to be paid and distributed to and amongst the said Claimers, for and towards Satisfaction of such Rewards, shall not exceed the Sum of four thousand Pounds; and in case it shall so happen that the several Sums so decreed and demanded for such Rewards, at or before the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall amount in the whole to more than four thousand Pounds, then in such case the said Sum of four thousand Pounds shall be divided and distributed to and amongst the said several Claimers, by way of Average, in Proportion to their respective Interests and Demands, which is and shall be in full Recompence, Discharge, and Satisfaction of their said Claims of such Rewards from her Majesty; which said Average and Proportion shall be made up and adjusted by the Receiver of the Prizes, or Person appointed to receive the same, by the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, who shall from thence forthwith pay such Monies as shall be due for such Rewards.

The Sums to be paid to the Claimers of Rewards, not to exceed 4000l. and if the Money claimed amount to more, the 4000l. shall be distributed by Way of Average. By 12 Annæ, stat. 2. c. 9. §. 66. Lists are to be made of the Persons entitled to Rewards, &c.

XV. Provided also, That in case any Person or Persons, who are or shall be entitled to receive any Money for or upon Account of such Rewards, as aforesaid, shall not himself, or by his lawful Attorney, come to such Receiver, or Person or Persons appointed to pay the same, to receive such Money, before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, then every such Person and Persons shall from thenceforth be barred and excluded from any Right to any such Money.

Persons entitled to Rewards, not coming to receive them before 24 June 1713, shall be excluded.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That from and immediately after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, the Receiver and Receivers of Prizes, and Person and Persons appointed to receive the same, shall pay to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, for the Use of the said Hospital, all and every such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be then remaining in his or their Hands of the Captors Money, over and above the said Sum of four thousand Pounds, if the whole shall be decreed and claimed by the Time before limited, and also over and above such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be necessary for defraying the Charges of attending and making such Payments, as aforesaid, (not exceeding the Sum of six hundred Pounds before mentioned) to be paid in such Manner as the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall order and direct; and also, that from and immediately after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve, such Receiver and Receivers of Prizes, and Person or Persons appointed to receive the same, shall pay to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, for the Use of the said Hospital, all and every such Sum and Sums of Money of the said four thousand Pounds, as shall not before that Time be decreed and claimed for such Rewards; and also shall, from and immediately after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, pay to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, for the Use of the said Hospital, all and every such Sum and Sums of Money of the said four thousand Pounds, as shall not before that Time be demanded to be paid, as aforesaid, by the Person entitled thereto, or by his lawful Attorney.

After 25 March 1713, Receiver of Prizes shall pay the Treasurer all the Captors Money in his Hands above 4000l.

And after 25 Dec. 1712, so much of the said 4000l. as shall not be then claimed.

And after 24 June 1713, all that shall not be then demanded.

XVII. Provided likewise, That in case any other Monies due to Captors, by virtue of her Majesty's said Declaration, shall be received by such Receiver or Receivers, or Person or Persons appointed to receive the same, or shall come to, or be in the Hands of any other Person or Persons, at any Time after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, the same shall be paid to the Treasurer of the said Hospital for the time being, for the Use of the said Hospital.

Any other Money due to Captors, in the Receivers Hands, after 25 March 1713, shall be paid to the Treasurer for the Use of the Hospital.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer of the said Hospital, to pay and dispose of so much of the said Monies as shall be paid unto him, as aforesaid, for the Use of the said Hospital, as the Commissioners for the said Hospital at their General Court shall order and direct; which Order or Orders of the said Court shall be a good and sufficient Dis-

The Treasurer shall pay the Money, as directed by the Commissioners charge of the Hospital.

for the Use of the Hospital.

'XIX. And whereas considerable Sums of Money may be remaining in the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Persons appointed for the same, during the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, their Executors or Administrators, belonging to several Captors in the Service of his said late Majesty, for their Shares of Prizes taken during the Reign of his said late Majesty, which have not been legally called for, or demanded in all this Time; and it will therefore be fit that the same should be discharged, and some Disposition made thereof: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Monies as shall be so remaining, as aforesaid, in the Hands of any Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Persons appointed for the same, their Executors or Administrators, shall be paid on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, to be applied to the Use of the said Hospital; and such Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Persons appointed for the same, their Executors and Administrators, are hereby required and authorized to pay the same accordingly; and the said several Captors, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, are hereby barred from all Right and Claim thereunto.

Who may be admitted into the Hospital.

'XX. And whereas no Seamen have hitherto been admitted into the said Hospital, but such only as have served in the Royal Navy, notwithstanding great Sums have been constantly paid towards the Support of the said Hospital from the Wages of Seamen employed in Merchants Service; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, or whoever else shall, from time to time, have Power to direct the Admission of any Seamen into the said Hospital, shall consider, as being fully qualified for an Admission into the said Hospital, any Seaman, who shall offer himself to be admitted, and who shall produce an authentick Certificate of his having been wounded, maimed, or hurt in defending any Ship belonging to the Subjects of her Majesty, against the Enemies of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or in taking any Ship from the Enemy, and thereby disabled for Sea Service; any Law, Custom, Usage, or Order to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

'XXI. Whereas it is become a common Practice, that Merchants Ships and Vessels carrying Merchandise, do very often stop and ride at the Moorings appointed and laid out for the Use of her Majesty's Ships and Vessels, and at her Majesty's Ships and Hulks in Harbour, near and adjoining to her Majesty's Dock Yards, Store-houses and Magazines, such Merchant or trading Ships or Vessels not being forced thereto by any Necessity or Want of Tide, by which Means her Majesty's Ships, Vessels, and Magazines are subjected to Accidents by Fire, and other Damages, through the Carelessness of the Persons left on board such Merchant Ships, as well as to Charges, by weakening and wearing the Moorings; and the Persons left on board such Merchant Ships, by their long staying at such Moorings, have great Opportunities of running of Goods and imbezilling her Majesty's Naval Stores: For Prevention whereof, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant Ship, or any other Ship or Vessel, not being one of her Majesty's Ships of War, or belonging to her Majesty's Royal Navy, or employed in her Majesty's Service, or such Ships as shall come to deliver Stores into her Majesty's Yards, during their Delivery thereof, shall stop or fasten to any of her Majesty's Moorings, or fix themselves to any of her Majesty's Ships or Hulks, the Captain, Master, Commander, or Person, having the Care or Command of such Merchant Ship or Vessel, that shall be then on board, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds for each and every Tide such Merchant Ship or Vessel shall stay at the said Moorings, unless it shall appear that such Merchant Ship or Vessel was necessitated so to do, by want of Tide, Stress of Weather, or other unavoidable Accidents; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be to the Use of the aforesaid Hospital, the other Moiety thereof to the Use of him or them that shall sue for the same, together with Costs of Prosecution, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, Injunction, or more than one Imparllance shall be allowed.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to give further Time for inrolling such Leases granted from the Crown, as have not been inrolled within the respective Times therein limited; and for making the pleading of Deeds of Bargain and Sale inrolled, and of Fee Farm Rents, more easy.

WHEREAS several Leases or Grants have been made by her Majesty, or her Royal Predecessors, under her or their Great Seals, or under the Exchequer Seal, the Seals of the Dutchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, or some of them, of several Manors, Messuages, Lands, Woods, Tenements, Tithes, Profits, and other Hereditaments, within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to take Effect in Possession, Reversion, or Expectancy, or by way of future Interest, for one, two, or three Lives now in being, or for some Term or Terms of Years, determinable upon one, two, or three Lives now in being, or for some certain Term or Terms, not exceeding fifty Years, to take effect from the Date or making thereof, or for such other Estate or Term as (together with the Estate or Estates in Possession of and in the Premises so leased or granted respectively) was not to exceed three Lives, or the Term of fifty Years, from the Date or making of every such particular Lease or Grant: And whereas there are several Provisoes, Conditions, or Covenants inserted in the said several Leases, or some of them respectively, importing that the same should be inrolled before the proper Auditor of each County within a Time limited in that Behalf, to the end the Rents or Duties thereby reserved or payable might be put in Charge, and duly answered and paid, or performed: And whereas notwithstanding the said Provisoes, Conditions, or Covenants in the said Leases, yet several of the Lessees or Farmers therein named, or those claiming under them, have omitted and neglected inrolling, or causing to be inrolled, their said Leases, within the respective Times limited for that Purpose, as aforesaid, whereby the said Rents or Duties are not only in Likelihood of being lost, but the Leases are for that Cause void or voidable, or the Lessees, or those claiming under them, are liable to Payments Nomine pœnæ, or other Penalties or Damages: Now to the end the said Lessees, and the Persons claiming under them, may be relieved in the Premises, and that the Rents due and reserved upon such Leases may hereafter be duly put in Charge, answered and satisfied, her Majesty is graciously pleased, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, having at any Time or Times before the third Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, made such Default or Omission of Inrollment of any such Lease or Leases, as aforesaid, or any Person or Persons claiming or pretending any Right, Title, or Interest under them, or any of them, shall and may, on or before the third Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, bring, or cause to be brought, such Lease and Leases to the proper Auditor to be inrolled, who is hereby authorized and required to inrol the same, and to put the Rents thereupon reserved in Charge, as if such Lease or Leases had been brought to be inrolled within the respective Times thereby limited in that Behalf; and that in every such Case, the Lease so inrolled within the said Time limited by this Act, shall upon such Inrollment thereof, and Payment of all Arrears of Rent then due thereupon (and not otherwise) be adjudged to continue and have its being, as if no Forfeiture, or cause of Forfeiture (for want of Inrollment only) had been had or made; and the Lessee or Lessees in every such Lease so inrolled pursuant to this Act, and all Persons claiming under them respectively, shall be, and is and are hereby exonerated and discharged of and from all Penalties and Damages which might be occasioned for want of such Inrollment; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to affirm or give Continuance or Being to any Lease or Leases, which in any Court of Law or Equity have been adjudged or decreed to be forfeited or avoided for want of such Inrollment, as aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And for supplying a Failure in pleading or deriving the Title to Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, conveyed by Deeds of Bargain and Sale, indented and inrolled according to the Statute made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, for Inrollment of Bargains and Sales, where the original Indentures of Bargain and Sale, to be shewed forth or produced, are wanting, which often happens, especially where divers Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are comprized in the same Indenture, and afterwards derived to different Persons; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where in any Declaration, Avowry, Bar, Replication, or other Pleading whatsoever, any such Indenture of Bargain and Sale inrolled, shall be pleaded with a Profert in Curia, or offer to produce the same, the Person or Persons so pleading, shall and may produce and shew forth, and be suffered and allowed to produce and shew forth, by the Authority of this Act, to answer such Profert, as well against her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, as against any other Person or Persons, a Copy of the Inrollment of such Bargain and Sale; and such Copy examined with the Inrollment, and signed by the proper Officer, having the Custody of such Inrollment, and proved upon Oath to be a true Copy, so examined, and signed, shall be of the same force and effect, to all Intents and Constructions of Law, as the said Indentures of Bargain and Sale were and should be of, if the same were in such Case produced and shewn forth.

IV. And for as much as the Fee Farm Rents, and other Rents purchased under an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the advancing the Sale of Fee Farm Rents, and other Rents, and one other Act made in the twenty-second and

All Persons having before 3 March 1711. omitted to inroll Leases made by the Crown, shall before 3 March 1712. cause them to be inrolled, and the Lease so inrolled shall be adjudged to have its being, as if no Forfeiture had been made for want of such Inrollment.

This Act shall not continue any Lease adjudged to be forfeited.

If a Bargain and Sale be pleaded, a Copy thereof signed by the proper Officer and proved on Oath, shall be of the same Effect as if the original Indenture had been produced.

' MOST gracious Sovereign; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, finding it absolutely necessary to raise large Supplies of Money to carry on the present War, until your Majesty shall be enabled to establish a good and lasting Peace, and for defraying your Majesty's other extraordinary Expences, have, for those Ends and Purposes, given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the several and respective Rates and Duties for and upon all Sope made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and for and upon all Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and for and upon all the chequered and striped Linens to be imported into Great Britain; and for and upon certain Silks, Callicoës, Linens, and Stuffs, printed, painted, stained, or dyed, as are herein after mentioned; and for and upon such stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and other Things, as are hereafter in this Act more particularly described; for and during such Term and Terms of Years, and in such Manner and Form, as are herein after expressed: And we do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Sope which, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties already imposed thereupon) the Sum of two Pence for every Pound Weight, consisting of sixteen Ounces Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, from time to time, before the Landing of the same: And that there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Sope of what Kind soever, which at any time or times within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny for every such Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, the same to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said imported Sope shall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Custom-house in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon, shall be duly paid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the same, first signed by the Commissioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively, that all such imported Sope, of what Kind soever, as shall be so landed or put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof; to wit, One Moiety of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform, or sue for the Sope so imported and forfeited, or the Value thereof, in any her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in her Majesty's Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, by Action, Suit, Bill, or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon imported Sope, by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, and answered, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Sope imported, or any of them, are by any Law or Statute now in Force to be ascertained, secured, levied, raised, recovered and answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

How these Duties shall be raised.

IV. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Sope, as shall arise in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England for the time being; and such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Sope, as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in Scotland for the time being; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the time being, shall, from time to time, pay or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties for imported Sope (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches in the Publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities as are to be inflicted by this Act, for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for any the Purposes herein after mentioned.

Duties on Sope imported to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

V. And for the better ascertaining, charging, and securing the Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Sorts of Sope made in Great Britain, during the Term aforesaid, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and for preventing of Frauds concerning the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain now being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall, from time to time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose appoint, shall be her Majesty's Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all the Sope made within Great Britain chargeable by this Act; which said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall and have hereby Power, by Commissions under their respective Hands and Seals, to substitute and appoint under them such Receivers General, Collectors, Comptrollers, Surveyors, and other Officers, as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners so to be appointed, and all the Officers for the said Duties on Sope, shall have out of the same such Salaries and Rewards for their respective Services, in relation to the same Duties, as the said High Treasurer now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall think reasonable to establish or allow in that Behalf; and that the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Sope to be made in Great Britain, for the time being, shall, from time to time, cause all the Monies to arise by or for the said Duties on Sope to be made in Great Britain, during the Term aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of managing, collecting, raising, paying, and accounting for the same excepted) to be paid, from time to time, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities herein after expressed.

Her Majesty or Treasury to appoint Commissioners for Sope made in Great Britain.

Which Commissioners may appoint Receivers General, &c.

The Money arising by this Duty to be paid into the Exchequer.

VI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who, on or before the tenth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall make any Sope in Great Britain, for Sale or not for Sale, shall, on or before the same tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, give Notice in Writing at the Office for the said Duties on Sope next to the Place where such Sope shall be made, of their respective Names, and of every Boiling-house, Work-house, Store-house, Ware-house, Shop, Room, and other Place by him, her, or them respectively made use of for the making, or keeping of such Sope, or for the boiling or keeping any Oil, Tallow, Pot-ash, Lime, or other Materials proper to be made into Sope; and also of all Coppers, Kettles, Furnaces, Fats, Cisterns, Troughs, or other Vessels used in the boiling or making of Sope; and that from and after the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Sope, no Maker of Sope shall erect, set up, alter, change, enlarge or make use of any Boiling-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place for the making or keeping of Sope, or for the boiling or keeping any Oil, Tallow, Pot-ash, Lime, or other Materials proper to be made into Sope, or use any Copper, Kettle, Furnace, Fat, Cistern, Trough, or other Vessel for the boiling or making of Sope, without first giving Notice thereof in Writing, or unless Notice thereof shall have been before given in Writing at the next Office, as aforesaid; and if any Maker of Sope shall erect, set up, alter, enlarge, or make use of any Boiling-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place for the making or keeping of Sope, or for the boiling or keeping any Oil, Tallow, Pot-ash, Lime, or other Materials proper to be made into Sope, or shall use any Copper, Kettle, Furnace, Fat, Cistern, Trough, or other Vessel for the boiling or making of Sope, without giving such Notice thereof, as aforesaid, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, then, and in every such Case, the Offender therein, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds.

VIII. And it is hereby declared, That every Barrel of Sope doth or ought to contain two hundred fifty and six Pounds; every Half Barrel, one hundred twenty and eight Pounds; every Firkin sixty and four Pounds; and every Half Firkin thirty and two Pounds Averdupois, besides the Weight or Tare of the Cask: And that all Sope to be made during the said Term, shall be put by the Maker into such Cask, and none other, upon the making thereof, upon Pain of forfeiting five Pounds for every Offence or Neglect therein.

IX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Sope hereby granted, all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Sope in London or Westminster, or in any Parts within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall Monthly, and every Month, and all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Sope in any other Part of Great Britain, shall, once in every six Weeks, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office for the said Duties, of all the Sope by him, her, or them severally made within such Month or six Weeks respectively; which said Entries shall contain the Weight of all Sope mentioned therein respectively, and what Quantity thereof was made at each Boiling in the several Weeks to which such Entries shall relate, on Pain to forfeit for every Neglect of Entry the Sum of fifty Pounds: Which Entries shall be made upon Oath by the Makers of such Sope, or by their chief Workman or Servant employed in making the same, according to the best of their Knowledge and Belief, unless such Maker, Workman, or Servant, be a known Quaker, and the solemn Affirmation of such Maker, Workman, or Servant to the same Effect, in case he or she be a known Quaker, shall and may be taken instead of such Oath; and the said Entries, Oaths, and Affirmations to verify the same, shall, for such Sope as shall be made within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, be made with and administered by such Officer or Officers as shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the said Duties in England, or the major Part of them, for the time being, who shall attend at a General Office in London or Westminster for that Purpose, and for all Sope made in all other Parts of Great Britain, with and by the Collectors and Supervisors of the District or Division within which the respective Makers of Sope shall inhabit, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded or taken for the same.

X. Provided always, That no Maker of Sope shall be obliged to go or send further than the Market Town where his or her Sope is made, or the next Market Town to the Place where his or her Sope is made, for the making of such Entries, as aforesaid.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Sope in London, Westminster, or within the Limits of the said Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall, within four Weeks, and all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Sope in any other Part of Great Britain, shall within six Weeks after he, she, or they shall make, or ought to have made such Entry, as aforesaid, pay and clear off all the said Duties for Sope which shall be due from him, her, or them respectively; and that all and every such Makers of Sope, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment, as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence, double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so refused or neglected; and that no such Maker of Sope, after such Default in Payment made, shall sell, deliver, or carry out any Sope, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty, as aforesaid, on Pain to forfeit double the Value of such Sope so delivered or carried out.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties on Sope, shall, at all Times, by Day or by Night (and if in the Night-time, then in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace) be permitted, upon his or their Request, to enter the House, Boiling-house, Ware-house, or other Place whatsoever, belonging to, or used by any Person or Persons, who within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years, shall be a Maker or Makers of any Sope whatsoever, and by gauging or weighing of the Sope, or otherwise, as to such Officer shall seem most proper and convenient, to take an Account of the just Quantity of the Sope which shall have been made by such Maker or Makers of Sope, from time to time; and shall thereof make Return or Report in Writing to the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Sope, or such as they respectively shall appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy (if demanded) of such Report in Writing under his Hand, with or for such Maker or Makers of Sope respectively; and such Report or Return of the said Officer or Officers shall be a Charge upon such Maker or Makers of Sope respectively; and if the Officer shall refuse or neglect to give or leave a true Copy of his Report in Writing with or for such Maker or Makers of Sope at the Time of taking such Account, upon Demand, as aforesaid, every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings to every such Maker and Makers of Sope respectively.

XIII. Provided always, That every Officer who shall be empowered to make such Charge, as aforesaid, shall in the first Place be sworn for the due and faithful Execution of his Office; and the Oath in that behalf shall and may be administered by all or any the Commissioners of the said Duties on Sope, or by any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who shall give to such Officers a Certificate thereof; and all and every such Maker or Makers of Sope respectively, are hereby required to keep sufficient and just Scales and Weights at the Place or Places where he, she, or they do make such Sope, and permit and assist the Officer to make Use thereof, for the Purposes aforesaid, under the Penalty of ten Pounds, to be forfeited and lost for not keeping such Scales and Weights, or for not permitting and assisting the Officer to use the same, as aforesaid.

XIV. And the better to prevent any Frauds and Concealments, whereby her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, may be injured or deprived of the Duties upon Sope granted by this Act; it is hereby likewise enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties upon Sope, shall also be permitted to take an Account by gauging, weighing, or otherwise, of the Quantities of Oil, Tallow, Pot-ashes, Lime, and other Materials proper to be made into Sope, that shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Maker of Sope, during the Continuance of the said Duties hereby granted; and and in case such Officer or Officers shall miss any Quantity or Quantities of such Oil, Tallow, Pot-ash, and other Materials aforesaid, which he had taken an Account of at the last Time he was at such Makers of Sope, and shall not, upon reasonable Demand, receive Satisfaction what is become of such Oil, Tallow, and other Materials so missing, then, and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer to charge such Maker of Sope with such Quantity of Sope, as such Oil, Tallow, and Materials so missing, in his Judgment would reasonable have made, not exceeding fourteen Gallons of such Ingredients mixt or unmixt (besides the Lees) for every Barrel of Sope consisting of two hundred and fifty-six Pounds Weight Averdupois, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Maker or Makers of Sope shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this Act, for the ascertaining and securing the said Duties upon Sope, the Person or Persons offending therein, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Obstructing Officer, forfeits 20l.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Maker or Makers of Sope, after the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Sope, shall (under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Offence) remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away any Sope by him, her, or them made, of which no Account shall have been first taken by the proper Officer, for the said Duties, from the Place where the same Sope shall have been made, without giving to the proper Officer or Officers, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, twenty-four Hours Notice at the least, and to the proper Officer or Officers in other Parts of Great Britain, two Days Notice at the least, of his, her, or their Intentions to remove, carry, or send away the same, that so the said Officer (without his own wilful Neglect or Default) may have Time to gauge, weigh, or otherwise take an Account thereof.

Makers not to remove Sope without due Notice to proper Officer, on Pain of 20l.

XVII. And for the better ascertaining the said Duties upon Sope, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Makers of Sope, shall, from time to time, keep all the Sope by them to be made, and which shall not have been surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers for the said Duties on Sope, separate and apart from all other their Sope which shall have been surveyed and taken an Account of by such Officers, for the Space of twenty-four Hours after the making thereof, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or for the Space of two Days after the making such Sope in any other Part of Great Britain, unless such Sope shall have been sooner surveyed, and taken an Account of by the said Officers respectively, on Pain to forfeit for every such Offence therein the Sum of five Pounds.

Sope not surveyed, to be kept separate, on Pain of 5l.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Makers of Sope shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause to be hid or concealed, any Sope chargeable by this Act, or any of the Materials for making the same, to the Intent to deceive her Majesty of the just Duties by this Act granted, that then, and in every such Case, the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

Sope concealed, forfeits 20l. By 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 36. §. 14. it forfeits 500l. &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Sope, Oil, Tallow, and other Materials for making Sope, which shall be found in any private Boiling-house, Work-house, Ware-house, or other Place, and all private Coppers, Kettles, Furnaces, Troughs, and other Vessels, for which no Entry shall be made, or Notice given, as aforesaid, shall be forfeited and lost, and the same, and the Value thereof, shall and may be seized and recovered by the said Officer or Officers for the said Duties upon Sope, to her Majesty's Use.

Sope, &c. found in private Boiling-houses, &c. forfeited.

XX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Sope, and all the Materials and Utensils for the making of Sope, in the Custody of any Maker or Makers of Sope, or of any Person or Persons, to the Use of or in Trust for such Maker or Makers of Sope, shall be liable and subject to, and are hereby made chargeable with all the Debts and Duties for Sope in Arrear and owing by such Maker or Makers, for any Sope made by him, her, or them, or in his, her, or their Working-houses or Places aforesaid; and shall also be subject to all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Person or Persons so using such Work-house or other Place, for any Offence against this Act, relating to the said Duties upon Sope; and that it shall and may be lawful in all such Cases, to levy Debts and Penalties, and use such Proceedings as may lawfully be done by this Act in relation to Sope, in case the Debtor or Offender were the true and lawful Owner of the same.

All Sope, Materials, &c. chargeable with the Duties for Sope in Arrear.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Sope which any Sope-boilers, Chandlers, or other Sellers and Dealers in Sope in Great Britain, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, shall be possessed of or interested in, upon the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, for Sale, there shall be yielded and paid to her Majesty the like respective Rates, as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Sope respectively to be made or imported after the said tenth Day of June; and that all and every the said Sope-boilers, Chandlers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Sope, and all and every other Person and Persons who, in Trust for them, or any of them, or for the Use of them, or any of them, shall be possessed of, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in his, her, or their Boiling-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place or Places whatsoever, upon the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, any Stock, Parcel, or Quantity of Sope of Foreign or British Manufacture for Sale, shall, on or before the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, make a true and particular Entry thereof at the Office for the said Duties within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, and the said Sope for which no such Entry shall have been made; and within six Days after he, she, or they shall have made or ought to have made such Entries, as aforesaid, shall pay down the Duties hereby payable for such Sope, or within the said six Days shall give Security to the proper Officers for paying the same Duties to her Majesty's Use within three Months then next ensuing; and in case the said Duties for such Stock of Sope be paid down within the said six Days, then there shall be allowed out of the said Duty for such prompt Payment an Allowance after the Rate of Stock in Hand on 10 June, to pay.

Stock in Hand to be entered at the proper Office, on Forfeiture of 50l. and the Sope not entered, and the Duty to be paid or secured within 6 Days.

Clandestinely removing Stock, &c. forfeits 20 l.

Sope that hath paid the Duty may be exported on Security, &c.

Such Sope re-landed, forfeited.

On Oath that the Duty has been paid, and on Debenture from the Collector, &c. Collector to receive the Duties.

All the Powers in 12 Car. 2. c. 24. and other Excise Acts, to be in force for managing these Duties.

ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Time of three Months; and that all and every such Sope-boilers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Sope, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment, or to give such Security for Payment of the said Duties for his, her, or their said Stock of Sope, within the Time by this Act limited for that Purpose, shall forfeit double the Sum of the said Duty which should have been so paid or secured by him, her, or them, as aforesaid; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officers for the said Duties respectively to take a true and particular Account of all such Stock or Quantities of Sope as any Sope-boilers, Chandlers, or other Sellers and Dealers in Sope, or any in Trust for them, shall, on the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, have or be possessed of; and for that Purpose shall be permitted, in the Day-time, to enter into any Shop, Ware-house, Boiling-house, or any Dwelling-house, Out-house, or other Places belonging to such Sope-boilers, Chandlers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Sope, and every of them, who are hereby required to permit such Officer and Officers, upon his or their Request, to make such Entrance on the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, or afterwards, at any Time before the Duty last-mentioned shall be paid or secured, and to take an Account of the Quantity of such Sope, under the Penalty of twenty Pounds; and if any Person or Persons, having on the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Stock or Quantity of Sope chargeable by this Act with the said Duties for Stock, as aforesaid, shall clandestinely remove or carry away, or cause or suffer to be removed or carried away the same, or any Part thereof, before her Majesty's Duties thereupon shall be paid or secured, as aforesaid, or shall fraudulently conceal or hide any Part of his, her, or their said Stock of Sope, that then, and in every such Case, he, she, or they so offending, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in all and every such Case and Cases the Stock or Quantity of Sope, which shall be so clandestinely removed or carried away, or fraudulently concealed or hid, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any of the said Officers for the said Duties on Sope; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody such Stock of Sope shall be found, who shall not, before the Discovery thereof, give Notice at the next Office for the said Duties on Sope of the Stock or Quantity of Sope so in his, her, or their Custody, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of five Shillings for every Pound Weight.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesty's Duties by this Act payable for any Quantities of Sope whatsoever, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Sope from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesty's Duties for the same, to export such Sope for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of Sope which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same or any Part thereof, shall not be re-landed or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain, which Security the Customer or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation, is hereby directed and authorized to take in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use.

XXIII. Provided always, That if after the Shipping any such Sope to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tendering such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after-mentioned, the Sope so shipped to be exported, or any Part thereof, shall be re-landed in any Part of Great Britain, that then and in every such Case (over and above the Penalty of the Bond which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesty's Use) all the Sope which shall be landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

XXIV. And it is also hereby enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any Sope to any Foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof, upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, that the Duty of such Sope hath been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Collector who received the said Duty is hereby required and impowered to administer) and thereupon the said Customer or Collector of the said Port of Exportation, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of the Sope so exported; and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Sope in such County or Place where the said Sope was exported, (upon producing the said Debenture so-certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act for the Sope so exported to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duties of Sope are hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture out of any Duties upon Sope arising by this Act; or if the Duty of such Sope so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Securities for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, settled or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them, (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the said Duties upon Sope hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses

Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, in relation to the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Sope, shall be sued for, levied and recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture, (except the said Penalty of forty Shillings on the Officer) shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

All Fines, &c. to be sued for as by the Laws of Excise.

XXVII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Persons as shall be, in pursuance of this Act, appointed Commissioners for the Duties on Sope to be made in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall and may have and exercise the same or like Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and may adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order, in all Cases and Matters relating to the said Duties on Sope arising within the Limits aforesaid, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, may or lawfully can exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order in the like Cases or Matters in relation to the said Duties of Excise, by any Law or Statute now in force.

Commissioners for these Duties to have the same Jurisdiction as Commissioners of Excise, XXVIII. And whereas it may frequently happen, That stale or rotten Sope, and also the Cuttings of good Sope, (for which the Duties upon this Act shall first have been duly paid or charged) may be put again into the Copper or Pan to be refreshed or made new, and the Sope newly made from the same, or from a Mixture of the same with other Ingredients, will be chargeable with a new Duty by this Act; It is therefore hereby provided and enacted, That in case such stale or rotten Sope, or Cuttings, be put into the Copper or Pan, in the Presence of an Officer for the said Duties, to be refreshed or made new, as aforesaid, such Officer shall, from time to time, make an Allowance of the Duty of the stale or rotten Sope, or Cuttings so put in, and certify every such Allowance upon his Report to be returned to the Head Office, as aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Allowance to be made for stale or rotten Sope, or the Cuttings of good Sope, put into the Copper to be refreshed. By 11 Geo. 1.

XXIX. And whereas Sope is more or less used in washing, scouring, or preparing the Sheeps Wool, or Lambs Wool, to be converted into the Woollen Manufactures of this Realm, and in making or finishing the same Manufactures, or some of them; and it being judged reasonable to give an Ease or Incouragement to Persons who shall be employed in the preparing, making, or finishing the said Woollen Manufactures, whether the same be for Exportation or Home Consumption: It is hereby further provided and enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who, after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Sope, shall employ, spend, and consume any Quantity or Quantities of Sope in the making of any Cloths, Serges, Kerseys, Bays, Stockings, or other Manufactures of Sheeps, or Lambs Wool only, or in the finishing of the said Manufactures, or preparing the Wool for the same, or to and for his, her, or their chief Workman employed under him, her, or them, in those Works, or any of them, from time to time, to make Proof in Writing by the Affidavit of the said Person or Persons who shall so employ, spend, and consume the said Sope, or of his, her, or their chief Workman, unless he, she, or they be a known Quaker or Quakers, and by the solemn Affirmation of such Quaker or Quakers, before the Collector and Supervisor of the District or Division where such Sope shall be so employed, spent, and consumed, or either of them, (who are hereby respectively impowered and required to administer the same upon the Request of the Manufacturer, or his, her, or their chief Workman aforesaid) which said Affidavit or Affirmation shall specify the Kinds and Quantities of the Manufactures so made, finished, or prepared, and the Days between which, and the Places where the same were so made, finished, or prepared respectively, and the Quantities and Kinds of the Sope which were actually employed, spent, and consumed therein; and that no Allowance, by virtue of this Act, was before made to such Manufacturers respectively, or for his, her, or their Benefit, of the Duties payable by this Act for the Sope so specified in such Affidavit or Affirmation, or any Part thereof; and that upon the making of every such Affidavit or Affirmation, the said Collector, out of the Money in his Hands of the said Duties upon Sope by this Act granted, shall pay to the said Manufacturers respectively, so much as one third Part of the Duties granted by this Act for the Sope specified in every such Affidavit or Affirmation taken by the said Collector and Supervisor jointly, or by the said Collector singly, doth amount unto, without any Delay; and in case the same were administered by the Supervisor only, then upon a Certificate thereof, made and signed by the said Supervisor (which he is hereby required to make and sign upon Demand) the said Collector shall out of any Monies in his Hands of the said Duties on Sope, forthwith pay to the said Manufacturers respectively the said third Part of the said Duties so payable by this Act for the Sope so spent and consumed, as aforesaid; and in case the Collector shall not then have Money sufficient in his Hands to satisfy such Payments, that then and in every such case the Commissioners for the said Duties on Sope, for the time being, upon a Certificate thereof from the said Collector, (who is hereby enjoined and required to make and sign such Certificate) shall forthwith cause such Payments to be made out of any Monies arising by the said Duties on Sope, without any further Delay.

c. 30. §. 37. Notice is to be given of the putting in stale Sope, &c.

Allowance to be made of a third Part of Sope spent in making Cloths, Serges, &c. on Oath, &c. of the Worker.

XXX. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Affidavits, Affirmations, and Certificates, touching the said Allowance to the Woollen Manufacturers aforesaid, shall and may be written or printed upon Paper not stamped or marked for any the Duties charged by this or any other Act upon stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper; and that no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatsoever, shall be required, demanded, or taken from any the said Manufacturers, for making any the Payments of the said Allowance for Sope consumed in the Woollen Manufactures, or for making, or taking any the said Affidavits, Affirmations, or Certificates relating thereunto, (except four Pence for writing every such Affidavit, Affirmation or Certificate) upon Pain that any of the said Officers offending therein, shall for every such Offence pay Such Affidavit, &c. not to be stamped.

And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Ream of Paper chargeable by this Act, whether the same be imported or made in Great Britain, shall be understood to consist of twenty Quires, and each Quire of four and twenty Sheets; and that all Sorts of Paper of the respective Dimensions and Value of the Paper chargeable by this Act, under the respective Denominations aforesaid, with the respective Rates and Duties hereby granted, shall be charged and chargeable with the same respective Rates and Duties, although the same Denominations (by which they are now usually known) should be altered, or by whatsoever other Name or Names, the same or any of them, now are, or during the said Term shall or may be called or known.

XLI. And for the better ascertaining, charging, and securing the Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Sorts of Paper, and the said Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards made in Great Britain, and upon the said printed, painted, and stained Paper, during the Term aforesaid, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and for preventing of Frauds concerning the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, now being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, shall, from time to time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose appoint, shall be her Majesty's Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards made within Great Britain, and upon the said printed, painted, and stained Paper chargeable by this Act: Which said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall and have hereby Power, by Commission under their respective Hands and Seals, to substitute and appoint under them such Receivers General, Collectors, Comptrollers, Surveyors, and other Officers, as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners so to be appointed, and all the Officers for the said Duties upon Paper, shall have out of the same such Salaries and Rewards for their respective Services in Relation to the same Duties, as the said High Treasurer now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall think reasonable to establish or allow in that Behalf; and that the said respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Paper, for the time being, shall, from time to time, cause all the Monies to arise by or for the said Duties on the said Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, and for the said printed, painted, and stained Paper, to be made or wrought in Great Britain, during the Term aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of managing, collecting, raising, paying, and accounting for the same excepted) to be paid, from time to time, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities herein after expressed.

XLII. And

The Duty on Paper that pays ad Valorem, how to be ascertained.

XLII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Values of such of the said Paper made in Great Britain as is to pay Duty ad Valorem, as aforesaid, shall in all Cases be taken to be so much as such Paper shall be worth to be sold (so soon as the same is perfectly made, from time to time) at the next Market Town, without Respect to the Duty hereby charged thereupon; and that the Collector for the time being shall receive the said Duties payable ad Valorem for such Paper accordingly, upon the Oath of the Maker or Makers of such Paper, or of his or their Chief Workman or Servant employed in making the same, according to the best of their Knowledge or Belief, unless such Maker, Workman, or Servant, be a known Quaker, and the solemn Affirmation of such Maker, Workman, or Servant, to the same Effect, in case he or she be a known Quaker, shall and may be taken instead of such Oath; which Oaths and Affirmations to ascertain the Value of such Paper so to be charged, shall and may be administered by the proper Collector or Supervisor of the District or Division within which such Maker of Paper doth inhabit, without any Fee or Charge for the same.

Makers of Paper, Pastboard, &c. before 24 June 1712, to give Notice of their Names and Places of Abode, and of their Work-houses, &c. on Pain of 50*l*. By 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 36. §. 17. Officers are to take an Account of the Quantities, &c. of Paper, before Printing, &c.

XLIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who, on or before the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall make any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, or shall print, paint, or stain any Paper in Great Britain, as aforesaid, for Sale, or not for Sale, shall, on or before the said four and twentieth of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, give or leave Notice in Writing at the Office for the said Duties on Paper next to the Place where such Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard shall be made, or where such Paper shall be made, printed, painted, or stained, of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and of the Place or Places where every such Person or Persons do usually make or print, paint, or stain any such Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard; and that all and every such Maker or Makers, as often as he, she, or they shall change their Places of making, printing, painting, or staining of Paper, or making of Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, and all and every Person and Persons who shall at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Paper, be a Maker or Makers of Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard or Scaleboard, or shall print, paint, or stain any Paper as aforesaid, shall give or leave the like Notice of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and the Places where they shall respectively make, or intend to make any such Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, or to print, paint, or stain any such Paper, as aforesaid, before they respectively do presume to make, print, paint, or stain the same, in any such new or other Place or Places, to the end the said Commissioners, or other Officers for the said Duties on Paper, may, from time to time, have due Knowledge of all the Places where such Goods shall be made or wrought, and be the better enabled to secure the Duties hereby granted thereupon; and if any such Person or Persons who shall make, print, paint, or stain any Paper, or make any Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, for which a Duty ought to be paid by this Act, shall neglect to give or leave such Notice, as aforesaid, he, she, or they, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of thirty Pounds.

XLIV. And the better to prevent any Frauds or Concealments, whereby her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, may be injured or deprived of his, her or their Dues; be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person whatsoever, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Paper, shall use any Place for drying the same, or making it fit for Use, other than such common Place or Places whereof he, she, or they shall first have given or left Notice in Writing at the proper Office for the same Duties, to be the Place or Places for his, her, or their drying or finishing the same, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

Entry to be made once in 6 Weeks upon Oath, &c.

XLV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Paper, all and every Person and Persons who shall make any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard in Great Britain, or print, paint, or stain any Paper, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, shall, once in every six Weeks, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office for the said Duties upon Paper, of all the Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards by him, her, or them severally made fit for Use, within such six Weeks respectively; which Entries shall contain the just Kinds and Quantities thereof, on Pain to forfeit, on every Neglect of such Entry, the Sum of fifty Pounds: Which Entries shall be made upon Oath, or upon an Affirmation; as aforesaid, to be respectively taken and administered as this Act prescribes, in Cases where the Value of any unrated Paper is to be ascertained, as aforesaid, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded or taken for the same.

Penalty 50*l*.

Entries, &c. to be at the next Market Town.

XLVI. Provided always, That no Person who shall make, print, paint, or stain any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, shall be obliged to go or send farther than the Market Town, where his or her Paper is made, printed, painted, or stained, or such Boards are made, or the next Market Town to the Place of making, printing, painting, or staining the same respectively, for the making of such Oaths, Affirmations, or Entries, as aforesaid.

Duty to be cleared off in 6 Weeks after Entry, on Pain of double the Duty.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall make any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard in Great Britain, or print, paint, or stain any Paper in Great Britain, shall, from time to time, within six Weeks after he, she, or they shall make or ought to have made such Entry, as aforesaid, pay and clear off all the said Duties for all such Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, as shall by or for them respectively be made, and for all such Paper as shall by them respectively be printed, painted, or stained, so as to be fit for Use or Sale, upon Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so refused or neglected; and that no such Person, after such Default in Payment made, shall sell, deliver, or carry out any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty, as aforesaid, on Pain to forfeit double the Value of the Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard, so delivered or carried out.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers of the said Duties on Paper, shall, at all Times, by Day or by Night, and if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, be permitted, upon his or their Request, to enter into the House, Mill, Yard, Drying-house, Ware-house, or other Place belonging to or used by any Person or Persons, who, within or during the Term of Years last-mentioned, shall make any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard in Great Britain, or shall print, paint, or stain any Paper for Hangings, or other Uses, as aforesaid, and to take a just Account of the Kinds and Quantities of the Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, which shall have been made, printed, painted, or stained by such Person or Persons, from time to time; and shall thereof make a Report or Return in Writing, to the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Paper, or such as they respectively shall appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy, if demanded, of such Report in Writing under his Hand, with or for the said Makers of Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, or the Persons that shall print, paint, or stain such Paper respectively; and such Report or Return of the Officer or Officers last-mentioned, shall be a Charge upon such Maker or Makers of Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, and upon the Persons who shall print, paint, or stain Paper, as aforesaid, respectively; and if the said Officer shall refuse or neglect to give or leave a true Copy of his Report in Writing, at the Time of taking such Account, being demanded, as aforesaid, every such Officer for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings to every such Maker or Person respectively.

Night into any Mills, Yards, &c.

to take Account of the Kinds of Paper, &c. made and Report to the Commissioners, leaving a Copy thereof with the Maker, on Pain of 40 s.

Officers to be sworn.

XLIX. Provided always, That every Officer, who shall be impowered to make such Charge as is last-mentioned, shall, in the first Place, be sworn for the due and faithful Execution of his Office, and the Oath in that Behalf shall and may be administered by all or any the Commissioners of the said Duties on Paper, or by any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who shall give to such Officers a Certificate thereof.

L. And for the better preventing of Frauds, it is hereby enacted, That all and every the Officers of the said Duties on Paper, shall also be permitted to take an Account of the Quantities of Rags, Cordage, and other Materials for making the said Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, chargeable by this Act, which shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Maker, and of all Paper in the Possession of any Person using the Art of printing, painting, or staining Paper, and of their respective Proceedings in making, printing, painting, or staining the same; and if any such Maker or other Person shall obstruct or hinder any the said Officers in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this Act, for ascertaining and securing the said Duties relating to Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, or the printing, painting, or staining thereof, the Offenders therein for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Officers to take an Account of Rags, Cordage, &c. in Makers Custody, &c.

LI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons who shall be a Maker or Makers of Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard, or shall print, paint, or stain any Paper chargeable by this Act, shall (under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence) remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away any Paper, by him, her, or them made, printed, painted, or stained, or any Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, by him, her, or them made, of which no Account shall have been first taken by the proper Officer, from the Ware-house, Work-house, or other Place where such Goods shall have been first put, after their being dried and fit for Use, without giving to the proper Officer two Days Notice at the least, of his, her, or their Intentions to remove, carry, or send away the same, that so the said Officer (without his own wilful Neglect or Default) may have Time to take an Account thereof.

No Paper Makers, &c. to keep their Goods before an Account has been taken thereof by the Officer, &c. on Pain of 20 l.

LII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall be Makers of Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, or Printers, Painters, or Stainers of any such Paper, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, keep all the Paper by them respectively made, printed, painted, or stained, and all the Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard by him or them respectively made, and which shall not have been surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers for the said Duties thereupon, separate and apart from all other their Paper and other Commodities aforesaid, which shall have been surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers, for the Space of eight and forty Hours, after the making, printing, painting, or staining thereof, unless such Paper, and other the Goods last-mentioned, shall have been sooner surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers respectively, on Pain to forfeit for every such Offence therein, the Sum of five Pounds.

Paper Makers &c. to keep their Goods not surveyed, separate, on Pain of 5 l.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Makers, Printers, Painters, or Stainers, shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause to be hid or concealed any Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard made, or any Paper printed, painted, or stained, chargeable by this Act, or any the Materials for making the same, to the Intent to deceive her Majesty of the just Duties by this Act granted thereupon, that then, and in every such Case, the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

Concealing Paper, &c. forfeits 20 l.

LIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Paper, Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards, and all Materials and Utensils for making them, or any of them, or printing, painting, or staining such Paper, as aforesaid, which shall be found in any private Ware-house, Work-house, Drying-room, or other Place for making, or keeping, or for printing, painting, or staining the same, for which no Entry shall be made, or Notice given, as aforesaid, shall be forfeited and lost, and the same or the Value thereof shall and may be seized and recovered by the said Officer or Officers for the said Duties upon Paper, to her Majesty's Use.

Paper, Pastboards, &c. found in private Work-house unentered, forfeited, or the Value.

LV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard, and all the Materials and Utensils for the making thereof, and for printing, painting, or staining such Paper, as aforesaid, in the Custody of any Maker or Makers, or of any such Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper, as aforesaid, or of any Person or Persons, to the Use of, or in Trust for them, or any of them, shall be liable and subject to, and are hereby made chargeable with all the Debts and Duties for Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard, made, or for such Paper printed, painted, or stained, as aforesaid aforesaid, in Arrear and owing by such Person or Persons for any such Goods, so made, printed, painted, or stained, by him, her, or them, or in his, her, or their Ware-houses, Working-houses, or Places aforesaid, and shall be also subject to all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Person or Persons so using such Work-house or other Place, for any Offence against this Act, relating to the said Duties upon such Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard; and it shall and may be lawful, in all such Cases, to levy Debts and Penalties, and use such Proceedings as may lawfully be done by this Act, in Relation to Paper, in case the Debtor or Offender were the true lawful Owner of the same.

Stock in Hand, on 24 June
1712, to pay.

LVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Paper (whether the same be of Foreign or British Manufacture) and for all Pastboards, Mildboards, and Scaleboards which any Merchants, Stationers, Wholesale Sellers, Retailers, Printers, Paper-makers, or other Dealers in Paper in Great Britain, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, shall be possessed of, and interested in upon the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, being for Sale, and for all Paper printed, painted, or stained, as aforesaid, which shall be in the Hands of any Person or Persons for Sale, on the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, there shall be yielded and paid to her Majesty the like Rates as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard respectively to be made or imported, or Paper to be printed, painted, or stained, as aforesaid, after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve; and that like Entries shall be made, and the Duties paid down, or secured to be paid within three Months, and the like Allowance shall be made for prompt Payment, and all Matters and Things shall be done and permitted to be done for ascertaining and securing the said Duties for such Stocks of Paper, and other Commodities last-mentioned, and the like Penalties and Forfeitures shall be inflicted for any Fraud, Concealment, Refusal, Neglect, or other Offence relating thereunto, as are by this Act provided, in Relation to the Stocks of Sope which any Dealers therein shall have upon the said tenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, or in Relation to the Duties thereof.

The same Entries, Allowances, Penalties, &c. as for Stock on Sope.

Paper, &c. that hath paid the Duty, may be exported, on Security, &c.

LVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesty's Duties by this Act payable for any Quantity of Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard whatsoever, made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, or for any such printed, painted, or stained Paper, as aforesaid, and to and for any other Person or Persons who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Paper, or any other the Goods last-mentioned, from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesty's Duties for the same, to export such Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, or printed, painted, or stained Paper, for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Commodities which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported; and that the same, or any Part thereof, shall not be relanded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain: Which Security the Customer or Collector of the respective Port of such Exportation, is hereby directed and authorized to take, in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use.

Paper, &c. relanded, forfeited, or the Value.

LVIII. Provided always, That if after the Shipping any such Paper, or other the Commodities last-mentioned, to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tending such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after-mentioned, the Paper or other Commodities so shipped to be exported, or any Part thereof, shall be relanded in any Part of Great Britain, that then, and in every such Case (over and above the Penalties of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesty's Use) all the Paper and Commodities which shall be so landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

On Oath that the Duty has been paid or secured, and on Debenture from the Customer, &c. Collector to repay the Duties.

LIX. And it is also hereby enacted, That any Person or Persons, who shall export any Paper, or any Pastboard, Mildboard, or Scaleboard, or any such printed, painted, or stained Paper, as aforesaid, to any Foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, that the Duties thereof have been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Collector who received the said Duties is hereby required and empowered to administer) and thereupon the said Customer or Collector of the said Port of Exportation, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Quantities and Kinds of such Commodities so exported, and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Paper in such County or Place where the same were exported (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act, for the Paper, Pastboard, Mildboard and Scaleboard so exported, to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the said respective Commissioners for the said Duties of Paper, are hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture out of any Duties upon Paper arising by this Act; or if the Duty of such Commodities aforesaid so exported, were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged, upon the Security for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

All the Powers in 12 Car. 2. c. 24. and other Excise Acts, to be in Force for managing these Duties.

LX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force, relating to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, are provided and established for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties hereby granted, or any of them (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties and Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be practised, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the said Duties upon Paper, and other the Commodities last mentioned hereby granted, during during the Continuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated in this present Act.

LXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in Relation to the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Paper, and upon printed, painted, and stained Paper, and upon Pastboard, Mildboard, and Scaleboard, shall be sued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Exchequer of Scotland respectively, as aforesaid; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture (the said Penalty on the Officer for not giving or leaving a Copy of his Charge, as aforesaid, only excepted) shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

All Fines, &c. to be sued for as by the Laws of Excise.

LXII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That such Persons as, in pursuance of this Act, shall be Commissioners for the said Duties on the several Sorts of Paper, and other the Commodities last mentioned, to be made, printed, painted, or stained in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall have the same Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and may adjudge, determine, mitigate, and order, in all Cases and Matters relating to the same Duties arising within the Limits aforesaid, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer, and other Liquors, may or can lawfully exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order in the like Cases or Matters, in Relation to the said Duties of Excise, by any Law or Statute now in Force.

Commissioners for these Duties to have the same Jurisdiction as Commissioners of Excise.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the Encouragement of Learning, so much Money as shall, from time to time, be paid for the Duties granted by this Act, for any Quantities of Paper, which, during the Continuance of the said Duties, shall be used in the Printing any Books in the Latin, Greek, Oriental, or Northern Languages, within the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or either of them, by Permission of the Vice Chancellors of the same respectively, shall and may be drawn back and repaid in Manner following; that is to say, The chief Manager of the Press in each of the said Universities, shall and may, from time to time, make Proof by Oath in Writing before the Vice-Chancellor (who is hereby empowered to administer the same) expressing therein the Kinds and Quantities of the Paper so used, and how much the Duties thereof, payable by this Act, doth amount to; which said Oath in Writing being certified by the said Vice-Chancellor, and produced to the Lord Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall forthwith, from time to time, issue his or their Orders or Warrants to the respective Commissioners, who by this Act are to manage the Duties upon Paper, to cause Payment to be made of so much Money, as the Duties payable by this Act for the Paper so used in the Printing of the said Books in the said Universities, as aforesaid, shall amount to; the same Payment to be made (without Fee or Charge whatsoever, and without Delay) to such Person or Persons as the said respective Vice-Chancellors shall authorize and appoint to receive the same, out of any of the Duties upon Paper arising by this Act; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Books printed at Oxford or Cambridge in Latin, Greek, Oriental or Northern Languages, to have a Drawback of the Duty on Paper.

LXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the Encouragement of Learning, so much as shall, from time to time, be paid for the Duties granted by this Act, for any Quantities of Paper, which, during the Continuance of the said Duties, shall be used in the Printing any Books in the Latin, Greek, Oriental, or Northern Languages, which within the Universities of Scotland, or any of them, by Permission of the Principal of the same respectively, shall and may be drawn back and repaid in Manner following; that is to say, The chief Manager of the Press in the said Universities shall and may, from time to time, make Proof by Oath in Writing before the Principal (who is hereby empowered to administer the same) expressing therein the Kinds and Quantities of the Paper so used, and how much the Duty thereof payable by this Act doth amount to; which Oath in Writing being certified by the said Principal, and produced, the Lord Treasurer of Great Britain, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall forthwith, from time to time, issue his or their Orders or Warrants to the respective Commissioners, who by this Act are to manage the Duties upon Paper, to cause Payment to be made of so much Monies as the Duties so used in the Printing of the said Books in the said Universities of Scotland shall amount to; the same Payments to be made without any Fee or Charge whatsoever, and without Delay, to such Person or Persons as the said respective Principals shall authorize and appoint to receive the same, out of any of the Duties upon Paper arising by this Act in Scotland; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And in the Universities of Scotland.

LXV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That Pastboard made in Great Britain, of Paper which shall have paid the Duties charged and chargeable by this Act, shall not be charged with any further or other Duties by virtue of this Act, upon the pasting or annexing together the Sheets of such Paper, and its receiving thereby the Denomination of Pastboard or Pasted Paper.

Pastboard made of Paper that has paid the Duty not chargeable.

LXVI. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all chequered and striped Linens, and upon all Linens printed, painted, stained or dyed, after the Manufacture, or in the Thread or Yarn before the Manufacture, in any Foreign Parts, which at any time or times, within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, and may lawfully be used or worn there (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties imposed upon or payable for the same) a Duty after the Rate of fifteen Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof, to be paid by the importers respectively.

LXVII. And it is hereby enacted, That the said Duty upon such imported Linens chargeable by this Act, shall, from time to time, be managed, ascertained, paid, secured, raised, levied, and brought into the Exchequer, in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as the abovesaid Duties upon imported Paper are by this Act to be managed, ascertained, paid, secured, raised, levied, and brought in, as aforesaid; and that all the Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in this Act, for managing, ascertaining, paying, securing, raising, levying, and bringing in the said Duties upon Paper imported, or any of them, shall be applied, practised, and put in Execution, for managing, ascertaining, paying, raising, securing, levying, and bringing in the said Duties upon the Importation of such Linen, as aforesaid, as fully and effectually as if the same were again repeated in this present Act.

LXVIII. And moreover it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Duties hereby granted upon the said chequered, striped, printed, painted, stained, and dyed Linens imported, as aforesaid, from time to time, shall be paid to her Majesty's Use, the respective Commissioners, Officer and Officers of the Customs of the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, shall cause every Piece and Parcel thereof to be marked or stamped with a distinct Seal or Mark, to be provided and used as this Act directs, to denote the Payment of the Duties for the same.

LXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, of what Kind soever, which, at any time or times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain, (such Callicoes, Linens, and Fustians, as shall be dyed throughout of one Colour only, and Stuffs made of Woollen, or whereof the greatest Part in Value shall be Woollen, always excepted) the several and respective Rates and Duties herein after expressed (over and above the Duties payable upon the Importation of them or any of them) that is to say,

For and upon all Silks so printed, stained, or painted in Great Britain (Silk Handkerchiefs excepted) the Sum of six Pence for every Yard in Length, reckoning half a Yard for the Breadth.

And for all Silk Handkerchiefs so printed, stained, or painted in Great Britain, the Sum of three Pence for every Yard square, and in those Proportions for wider or narrower Silks.

For and upon all Callicoes to be so printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain, (except as aforesaid) the Sum of three Pence for every Yard in Length, reckoning one Yard wide, and after that Proportion.

And for and upon all Linen and Stuffs (except before excepted) to be printed, stained, painted, or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, within or during the Term last mentioned, the Sum of three Half-pence for every Yard in Length, reckoning Yard wide, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity.

LXX. And for the better ascertaining, charging, and securing the said Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Silks, Callicoes, Linen, and Stuffs, (except before excepted) which shall be printed, painted, stained, or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, within or during the Term last mentioned, and for preventing of Frauds concerning the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain now being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall, from time to time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose appoint, shall be her Majesty's Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Duties set and imposed upon all such Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, printed, painted, stained, or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, as are chargeable by this Act; which said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall and have hereby Power, by Commission under their respective Hands and Seals, to substitute and appoint under them such Receivers General, Collectors, Comptrollers, Surveyors, and other Officers, as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners so to be appointed, and all the Officers for the Duties last-mentioned, shall have out of the same, such Salaries and Rewards for their respective Services in relation to the same Duties, as the said High Treasurer now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall think reasonable to establish or allow in that Behalf; and that the said respective Commissioners for the said Duties last-mentioned, for the time being, shall, from time to time, cause all the Monies to arise by or for the same Duties, during the Continuance thereof (the necessary Charges of managing, collecting, raising, paying, and accounting for these Duties excepted) to be also paid, from time to time, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the Penalties and Forfeitures, and Disabilities herein after expressed.

LXXI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who, on or before the twentieth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall print, stain, paint, or dye any of the said Goods, so that a Duty shall be payable by this Act upon the printing, staining, painting, or dyeing the same, as aforesaid, shall, on or before the said twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, give or leave Notice in Writing, at the next Office for the same Duties, of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and of the Place or Places where every such Person or Persons do usually print, paint, stain, or dye, as aforesaid, any such Silks, Linens, Callicoes, or Stuffs, or dry the same; and that all and every such Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer, as often as he, she, or they shall change their Places of printing, painting, staining, or dyeing any the said Goods, or for drying the same; and all and every Person and Persons who shall, at any Time or Times during during the Continuance of this Act, be a Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer of any such Silks, Callicoos, Linens, or Stuffs, or shall print, paint, stain, or dye any such Goods, as aforesaid, shall give or leave the like Notice of their respective Names, and their Places of Abode, and the Rooms and Places where they shall respectively work, or intend to work in such printing, painting, staining, or dying, and the Places where they respectively shall dry or intend to dry any such Goods, as aforesaid, before they respectively do presume to work in any such new or other Place or Places, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of thirty Pounds for every Neglect or Default, by not giving such Notice, as aforesaid.

on Forfeiture

LXXII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of this Act, all and every Person and Persons who shall print, paint, stain, or dye in Great Britain, as aforesaid, any Silks, Callicoos, Linens, and Stuffs, upon the printing, painting, staining, or dying whereof a Duty is chargeable by this Act, shall once in every six Weeks make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office for the same Duties, of all such Silks, Callicoos, Linens, and Stuffs so by him, her, or them severally printed, painted, stained, or dyed within every such six Weeks respectively; which Entries shall contain the just Kinds and Quantities thereof: And if such Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer be not the true Owner of such Goods or any of them, so printed, painted, stained, or dyed, then, and in every such Case, he, she, or they, in every such Entry, shall specify the Names and Places of Abode of the Persons who are the Owners thereof, or for whose Account they respectively do print, paint, stain, or dye the same, on Pain to forfeit for every Neglect of such Entry, the Sum of fifty Pounds; which Entry shall be made upon the Oath of the Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer, or of his, her, or their chief Workman employed, to the best of their Knowledge or Belief, unless he, she, or they be a known Quaker, and the solemn Affirmation of a known Quaker, to the same Effect, shall be taken instead of such Oath; and the said Oaths and Affirmations to verify such Entries, shall and may be administered by the proper Collector or Supervisor of the District or Division within which such Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer, doth inhabit, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded or taken for the same.

Such Printers to make Entries,
&c. once in 6
Weeks, on Forfeiture of 50 l.

LXXIII. Provided always, That no Person for the making such Entries, Oaths, or Affirmations as are last-mentioned, shall be obliged to go or send further than the Market Town where his or her Silks, Callicoos, Linen, or Stuffs are printed, painted, stained, or dyed, or the next Market Town to the Place of printing, painting, staining, or dying the same.

Entries, &c. to be made at the next Market Town.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons who shall print, paint, stain, or dye, as aforesaid, any Silks, Callicoos, Linens, or such Stuffs, as aforesaid in Great Britain, shall, from time to time, within six Weeks after he, she, or they shall make, or ought to have made such Entry, as aforesaid, clear of all the said Duties which shall be then due or remain unpaid, for all such Silks, Callicoos, Linens, and Stuffs, as shall have been printed, painted, stained, or dyed by him, her, or them respectively, as aforesaid, upon Pain of forfeiting for every Default therein double the Sum of the same Duties whereof the Payment shall be so neglected; and that no such Person, after such Default in Payment made, shall deliver or carry out, or cause to be delivered or carried out, any such printed, painted, stained, or dyed Goods, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty, on Pain to forfeit double the Value of the Goods, so delivered or carried out.

Printers of Silk,
&c. once in 6
Weeks to clear off the Duties,

LXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons, who shall print, paint, stain, or dye, any Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, chargeable with the said Duties by this Act, shall remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away, any the Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, by him, her, or them printed, painted, stained, or dyed respectively, until such Time as the proper Officer shall have taken an Account of every particular Quantity of such Goods so to be carried away, and until every particular Piece and Parcel, or Remnant of such Goods, be duly marked with a Stamp or Seal, denoting the charging of the Duty, as this Act directs, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence; and that all the printed, painted, stained, or dyed Silks, Callicoes, Linen, and Stuffs, so carried away, without being marked with a Stamp or Seal, denoting the charging of the said Duties, and being found in the Possession of any Draper, or other Trader or Dealer therein, or any Person for the Use of such Draper, Trader, or Dealer, for Sale, shall and may be seized, or the Value thereof shall and may be recovered, to wit, one Moiety thereof for the Use of her Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Seizor, or Informer.

See 5 Geo. 1.
c. 11. §. 15.

Receipts gratis.

LXXX. And it is hereby ordained and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Payment of the said Duties for any Quantity of the said printed, painted, stained, or dyed Goods, the Receiver or Collector shall give a Receipt for the same gratis.

Silks not surveyed, to be kept separate on Pain
of 5*l*.

LXXXI. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every the said Printers, Painters, Stainers, and Dyers of the said Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and such Stuffs, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, keep so much of the same Goods as shall not have been surveyed and taken an Account of by the proper Officers, separate and apart from all others of the same Kinds, which shall have been surveyed and taken an Account of by such Officers, on Pain to forfeit, for every Offence therein, the Sum of five Pounds.

Such Silks con-
20*l*. &c.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Printers, Painters, Stainers, or Dyers, shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause to be hid or concealed, any Silk, Callico, Linen, or Stuffs, before or after the same are printed, painted, stained, or dyed, with Intent to deceive her Majesty of her just Duties by this Act granted, then, and in every such Case, the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence; and all the Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, which shall be found in any private Work-house, or other Place, whereof no Notice shall have been given, as aforesaid, or the Value thereof, shall and may be seized and recovered, to wit, one Moiety thereof, to the Use of her Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Seizor, or Informer, as aforesaid.

XCIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That such Persons as, in pursuance of this Act, shall be Commissioners for the said Duties on the said Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, printed, painted, stained, or dyed in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall have the same Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and may adjudge, determine, mitigate, and order, in all Cases and Matters relating to the same Duties arising within the Limits aforesaid, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, may or can lawfully exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order in the like Cases or Matters in relation to the said Duties of Excise, by any Law or Statute now in Force.

XCIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesty's Duties by this Act payable for any of the said imported Linens, or for any Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such imported Linens, or any such Goods, printed, painted, stained, or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, from the Person or Persons, who actually paid her Majesty's Duties payable by this Act for the same, to export any such Goods for which the Duty was so paid for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof, that the particular Quantities so intended to be exported, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and not to be re-landed or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customer or Collector of the Port of Exportation shall take in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use.

XCV. Provided always, That if after the Shipping of any such Goods, and the giving or tending such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after-mentioned, the same, or any Part thereof, shall be re-landed in any Part of Great Britain, that then, and in every such Case (over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesty's Use) all the said Goods, which shall be so landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

XCVI. And it is also hereby enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any such chequered, striped, printed, painted, stained, or dyed Goods, as aforesaid, to or for any Foreign Parts, shall and may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, that the Duties thereof have been paid or secured according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation, the Customer or Collector of the Port of Exportation is hereby required and empowered to administer) and thereupon the said Customer or Collector of the said Port of Exportation shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of the chequered and striped Linens, and of the said printed, painted, stained, and dyed Goods so exported; and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon such chequered and striped Linens, printed, painted, stained, and dyed Goods, in the County or Place where such Exportation was made (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act for the Goods so exported, to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on chequered and striped Linens, printed, painted, stained, and dyed Goods, are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid the said Debenture out of any the Duties upon chequered and striped Linens, printed, painted, stained, and dyed Goods, arising by this Act; or if the Duty of the Goods so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Security for the same; any thing in this Act contained notwithstanding.

XCVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the respective Commissioners of the Customs in Great Britain, shall, on or before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, provide or cause to be provided such and so many Seals or Stamps with which all the said imported Linens, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be marked, upon Payment of the Duties thereof, as aforesaid, and shall cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officers of the Customs for that Purpose; and that the respective Commissioners to be appointed for managing the said Duties upon Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Great Britain, shall, on or before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, provide proper Seals or Stamps, of another Kind, for marking such of the said Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Great Britain, as aforesaid, during the Continuance of this Act, as are to be stamped and marked, for and in order to the charging of the respective Duties for the same, and also so many Seals or Stamps, of a third Kind, with which all the said Stocks or Quantities of chequered and striped Linens, and of such printed, painted, stained, or dyed Goods, as aforesaid, on the said twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, upon paying or securing the said half Duties for the same, are to be marked or stamped, and shall cause the said respective Seals or Stamps to be distributed to the respective Officers for the several Purposes before mentioned; which Officers are hereby enjoined and required, in using the same, to do no Hurt or Damage, or the least Damage that may be, to the Goods to be so marked or stamped; and the said respective Commissioners, in providing the said respective Seals or Stamps, shall take Care that they be so contrived, that the Impression thereof may be durable, and so as the same may be least liable to be forged or counterfeited; and that the said Stamps, or any of them, shall or may be altered or renewed, from time to time, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall think fit; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, at any Time or Times hereafter, counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Seal to resemble any Stamp or Seal which shall be provided or made in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same upon any of the said Commodities chargeable by this Act, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties hereby granted, then every such Person so offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be judged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; and if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of this Act, sell any printed, painted, stained, or dyed Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or other Stuffs, as aforesaid, with a counterfeit Stamp thereupon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, terfeited, and with an Intent to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, all and every such Offender and Offenders, their Aiders, Abettors, and Assistants (being duly convicted, as aforesaid) shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, and shall be adjudged to stand in the Pillory in some publick Place for the Space of two Hours.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of this Act, upon Oath made by any credible Person or Persons, that he, she, or they have reason to suspect or believe, that any printed, painted, stained, or dyed Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, as aforesaid, for which a Duty ought to have been paid or charged by this Act, are or shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Draper, or other Person or Persons trading or dealing therein, or of any Person or Persons, for the Use or Account of such Draper, or other Trader or Dealer, for Sale, without having thereupon such Marks or Stamps as are by this Act required, to denote the Payment or Charging of the said Duties thereupon; it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners, who shall be appointed for the said Duties upon Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Great Britain, or the major Part of them, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or any two Justices of the Peace in any other Parts of the Kingdom of Great Britain, from time to time, to issue their respective Warrants or Orders, thereby authorizing and requiring any Officer or Officers for the same Duties (with the Assistance of a Constable, or other Officers of the Peace) in the Day-time, to search for the same, and to open Doors, Chests, Trunks, and Package, and to seize such Goods, and to bring them to the Office for the said Duties next to the Place where they shall be so seized, in order to a further Proceeding thereupon according to this Act; and that every such Warrant and Order shall and may be obeyed and executed accordingly.

XCIX. And for the more easy collecting the Duties, and preventing Disputes that may arise from the Difference of the Breadths of Callicoes which are or shall be printed, painted, or stained; Be it enacted and declared, That all such Callicoes which are or shall be printed, painted, or stained, and which shall be within one Eighth Part of a Yard of Yard Broad, or not exceeding one Eighth Part of a Yard of Yard Broad, shall pay as Yard Broad, and no more nor less; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C. And moreover be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for the several and respective Things herein after-mentioned, which, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be ingrossed, printed, or written, the several and respective Rates, Duties, Charges, and Sums of Money herein after expressed, in Manner following; that is to say,

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the Term last mentioned, any Surrender of or Admittance to any Copyhold Land or Tenement within those Parts of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any Grant or Lease by Copy of Court Roll, or any other Copy of the Court Roll of any Honour or Manor within the same Parts of Great Britain, or any of them, (other than and except the original Surrender to the Use of a Will, and the Court Roll or Book wherein the Proceedings of the Court are entred or inrolled) the Sum of two Shillings and three Pence Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the same Term, any principal or original Instrument of Surrender, or Resignation of any Messuages, Houses, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tithes, Mills, Fishings, and other Heretable Rights, or any of them, to be made to any of her Majesty's Subjects, who are or shall be the Superiors thereof, or to any City, Town, Burgh, or Corporation, or to any Magistrates or others who have Power to receive such Surrenders or Resignations in Scotland, the Sum of two Shillings and three Pence Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the same Term, any Charter or Resignation, Confirmation, Novodamus, or Charter upon Apprising, or Adjudication made or granted by such Superior, or others, as aforesaid, in Scotland, the Sum of two Shillings three Pence Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the same Term, any principal or original Retour of any Service of Heirs, or any Precept of Clare Constat of Lands or Tenements holding of any Subject, as aforesaid, in Scotland, the Sum of two Shillings and three Pence Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the same Term, any principal or original Saisine, taken or following upon any Mortgage, Wadset, Heretable Bond, Alienation or Disposition, or upon any Charter, Precept of Clare Constat, Retours, Apprisings, or Adjudications of Lands or Tenements holding of any Subject, as aforesaid, in Scotland, the Sum of two Shillings three Pence Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the same Term, any principal or original Instrument of Surrender, or Resignation, Service, or Cognition of Heirs, Charter or Saisine of any Houses, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments holding Burgage, or of Burgage-Tenure in Scotland, the Sum of two Shillings three Pence Sterling.

And for every Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, upon which shall be written at any time or times, within or during the Term last mentioned, any Transfer of Stock in any Company, Society, or Corporation Stock.

Duty on Pamphlets, &c.
Evasions of these Duties prevented by 11 Geo. I. c. 8. §. 14.

CI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Books and Papers commonly called Pamphlets, and for and upon all News Papers, or Papers containing publick News, Intelligence or Occurrences, which shall, at any time or times within or during the Term last mentioned, be printed in Great Britain, to be dispersed and made publick, and for and upon such Advertisements as are herein after mentioned, the respective Duties following; that is to say, Half Sheet.

For every such Pamphlet or Paper contained in Half a Sheet, or any lesser Piece of Paper, so printed, the Sum of one Half-penny Sterling.

One whole Sheet.

For every such Pamphlet or Paper (being larger than Half a Sheet, and not exceeding one whole Sheet) so printed, a Duty after the Rate of one Penny Sterling for every printed Copy thereof.

Larger Pamphlets.

And for every such Pamphlet or Paper, being larger than one whole Sheet, and not exceeding six Sheets in Octavo, or in a lesser Page, or not exceeding twelve Sheets in Quarto, or twenty Sheets in Folio, so printed, a Duty after the Rate of two Shillings Sterling for every Sheet of any kind of Paper which shall be contained in one printed Copy thereof.

Advertisements.

And for every Advertisement to be contained in the London Gazette, or any other printed Paper, such Paper being dispersed or made publick weekly, or oftner, the Sum of twelve Pence Sterling.

Salvo for Acts of Parliament, &c.

CII. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend to charge any Acts of Parliament, Proclamation, Order of Council, Forms of Prayer and Thanksgiving, or any Acts of State which shall be ordered by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, to be printed, or the printed Votes, or other Matters which are or shall be ordered to be printed by either House of Parliament, with any of the said Duties on Pamphlets or News Papers, or to charge any Books commonly used in any the Schools of Great Britain, or any Books containing only Matters of Devotion or Piety, with the said Duties on Pamphlets, or to charge any single Advertisement printed by itself, or the daily Accounts or Bills of Goods imported and exported, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, (so as such Accounts or Bills do contain no other Matters than what have been usually comprized therein) with any the Duties aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners of the Stamps to manage these Duties.

CIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better and more effectual levying, collecting, and paying unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the said several Duties hereby granted and made payable for or in Respect of the said several and respective Matters and Things to be ingrossed, written, or printed, as aforesaid, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commissioners for the time being, appointed to manage the Duties payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and charged on stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to cause all such further new Stamps to be provided, to denote the Duties last mentioned, as shall be requisite, and to do all other Things necessary to be by them done, for the putting this Act in due Execution with Relation to those Duties.

Vellum, &c. to be stamped before written on, &c.

CIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Vellum, Parchment and Paper, upon which any of the last mentioned several and respective Matters and Things shall, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be respectively ingrossed, written, or printed (the Paper to be used in printing the said Pamphlets exceeding one Sheet, as aforesaid, only excepted) shall before such ingrossing, writing, or printing, be brought to the Head Office for stamping or marking of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and the same Commissioners by themselves or by their Officers employed under them, shall, and they are hereby impowered and required forthwith, upon Demand to them made by any Person or Persons from time to time, to stamp or mark, as this Act directs, any Quantities or Parcels of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, he or they paying to the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties for the time being, or to his Deputy or Clerk, for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the respective Duties payable for the same by this Act, without any other Fee or Reward, and without Delay; which Stamp or Mark to be put thereupon in pursuance of this Act, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the several and respective Duties hereby payable for the said Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, which shall be so stamped or marked.

Penalty on Persons writing on Vellum, &c. before stamped, &c.

CV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, or Corporation, shall, from and after the said First Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, within or during the Term last mentioned, write, ingross, or print, or cause to be written, ingrossed, or printed, or sign any of the last mentioned several and respective Matters and Things, or sell, utter, or expose to Sale any such Pamphlet or News Paper, as aforesaid, (the said Pamphlets exceeding one Sheet, as aforesaid, only excepted) before the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereupon the same shall be respectively ingrossed, written, or printed, shall appear to have been so duly stamped or marked, as aforesaid, That then every such Person or Corporation, so offending in any of the Particulars before mentioned, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, together with Full Costs of Suit; and every Steward, or other Officer, or his Deputy, offending herein, and being convicted of any such Offence, shall (over and besides the Forfeiture or Penalty aforesaid) forfeit and lose his Office and Employment, and be incapable to hold the same; and that if any of the said several and respective Matters and Things, so to be ingrossed or written, as aforesaid, shall, during the Term last mentioned, be written or ingrossed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not appearing to have been duly stamped or marked according to Law, that then and in every such Case there shall be due, answered and paid to her Majesty, Steward or Officer offending forfeit Places, &c.

Majesty, her Heirs and Successors (over and above the Duties hereby payable) for every such Matter and Thing respectively, the Sum of five Pounds; and that no such Matter or Thing shall be available in Law or Equity, or be given in Evidence, or admitted in any Court, unless as well the said Duties hereby charged, as the said Sum of five Pounds, shall be first paid to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and a Receipt produced for the same under the Hand of the Receiver General for the time being, of the Stamp Duties, or of his Deputy or Clerk, and until the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, on which such Matter or Thing is so written or ingrossed, shall be marked or stamped, according to the Tenor and true Meaning hereof; and the said Receiver General, and his Deputy or Clerk, are hereby enjoined and required, upon Payment or Tender of the said Duty, payable by virtue hereof, and of the said Sum of five Pounds, to give a Receipt for such Money; and the other proper Officers are thereupon required to mark or stamp such Matter or Thing with the proper Mark or Stamp requisite in that Behalf.

No Writing before Paper be stamped, good, till 5l. paid to the Queen, and the Duty be paid.

CVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Commissioner and Officer, who shall act in or about the Managing or Collecting the Duties last mentioned, and hereby granted, shall, before he shall act in or about the same, take the Oath following, that is to say,

Commissioners to be sworn.

I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute the Trust reposed in me, pursuant to the Act of Parliament, whereby certain Duties are charged upon Surrenders of, and Admittances to Copyhold Lands or Tenements, and other the Matters and Things thereby directed to be stamped, as is therein mentioned, without Fraud or Concealment; and shall, from time to time, true Account make of my Doings therein, and deliver the same to such Person or Persons, as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall appoint to receive such Account; and shall take no Fee, or Reward, or Profit for the Execution or Performance of the said Trust, or the Business relating thereto, from any Person or Persons, other than such as shall be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, or some other Person or Persons by her or them, to that Purpose authorized.

Their Oath.

Which Oath shall and may be administered by any two or more of the Commissioners last mentioned, or any Justice of the Peace.

CVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners for managing the said Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and all other Officers, who shall be employed in or about the Collecting or Managing of the Duties last mentioned, and hereby granted, shall, in and for the better Execution of their said Offices and Trusts, observe and perform such Rules, Methods and Orders, as they respectively shall, from time to time, receive from the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain now being, or from the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being; and that no Fee or Reward shall be demanded or taken by any her Majesty's Officers relating to the said Stamp Duties, from any of her Majesty's Subjects, for any Matter or Thing to be done in pursuance of this Act; and in case any Officer intrusted, or to be intrusted, in the Execution of this Act, in Relation to the said Stamp Duties, shall refuse or neglect to perform any Matter or Thing by this Act required to be done and performed by him, whereby any of her Majesty's Subjects shall or may sustain any Damage whatsoever, such Officer so offending shall be liable by any Action to be founded on this Statute, to answer to the Party grieved all such Damages with Treble Costs of Suit.

Commissioners to observe the Orders of the Treasury.

No Fee to be taken.

CVIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties by this Act granted on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and the said Duties upon News Papers and Pamphlets, shall be all paid, from time to time, into the Hands of the Receiver General, for the time being, of the said Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper; who shall keep a separate and distinct Account thereof, and pay, from time to time, all the Monies arising thereby (the necessary Charges of raising, paying, and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of the Exchequer of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for the Purposes in this Act expressed.

These Duties to be paid to the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties.

CIX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That as often as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to alter or renew the said Marks or Stamps to be provided and used for Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, in pursuance of this Act, or any of them, it shall be lawful for all Persons, who shall at that Time have in their Custody or Possession any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, marked with the Stamp or Stamps which shall be so altered or renewed, and upon which none of the Matters and Things hereby charged, shall be ingrossed, written or printed, at any time within the Space of sixty Days after such Intention of renewing or altering, shall be published by Proclamation, to bring or send such Vellum, Parchment or Paper to the Commissioners last mentioned at the said Head Office, or to such Officers as shall be appointed in that Behalf; and the same Commissioners and Officers respectively are hereby required to deliver, or cause to be delivered to the several Persons who shall so bring and deliver any Quantity of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, the like Quantity of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and as good in Quality, stamped with such new Stamps, without demanding, or taking directly or indirectly for the same, any Sum of Money or Consideration whatsoever, under the Penalty of forfeiting for every such Offence, one hundred Pounds, to be sued for, recovered and divided in such Manner as the other Penalties in this Act, relating to the said Duties hereby charged on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, are directed to be sued for, recovered, and divided; and in case any Person shall neglect or refuse within the Time aforesaid, to bring or cause to be brought and delivered to such Commissioners or Officers, as aforesaid, any such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, the same is hereby declared to be of no other Effect or Use than if it had never been stamped; and that all Matters or Things charged with the Duties last mentioned, and hereby granted, which shall after that Time be ingrossed or written thereon, shall be of no other Effect than if they had been ingrossed or written on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper not marked, or stamped at all; and all Persons who shall ingross, write, or print any the Matters or Things hereby charged on such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, Upon Renewal of Stamps those who have Paper stamped by them, may have it changed in 60 Days.

Penalty on Officer refusing to change, 100l.

Paper not brought in within that Time, of no Use, &c.

after the said Time, shall forfeit and suffer as herein before is enacted, for Persons writing, ingrossing, or printing on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or stamped.

Proclamation for altering Stamps, to be sent to the Mayors, &c.

Penalty for not publishing it.

A printed Copy of every Pamphlet above 1 Sheet, published in London, &c. to be brought to the Stamp Office within 6 Days after printing, &c.

If printed elsewhere, to be brought to some Head Collector in 14 Days, to be entered, &c.

If the Duty be not paid, &c. Author, &c. to lose all Property therein.

and also forfeit 20l.

Pamphlets to have the Printer's or Publisher's Name printed thereon, on Pain of 20l.

Pamphlets unfolded to be cancelled by the Commissioners, and the like Number of other Sheets stamped gratis to be changed for them.

CX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as often as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall think fit to alter the said Stamps, or any of them, that the Proclamation which is hereby intended to be made for the giving all Persons due Notice thereof, shall, within thirty Days after the Date thereof, be sent to the Mayor, chief Magistrate, or other Head Officer of every City, Corporation, Borough, and Market Town, throughout her Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain; which Officers respectively shall cause the same to be published to the Inhabitants of such City, Corporation, Borough or Town, either on the next Market Day, or next Sunday in the Church immediately after the Time of Divine Service, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

CXI. And for the better collecting and securing the Duties hereby charged on such Pamphlets containing more than one Sheet of Paper, as aforesaid; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one printed Copy of every such Pamphlet, which, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, and during the said Term of thirty and two Years, from thence next ensuing, shall be printed or published within the Cities of London or Westminster, or within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall, within the Space of six Days after the Printing thereof, be brought to the said Head Office for marking or stamping of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and the Title thereof, with the Number of Sheets contained therein, and the Duty hereby charged thereon, shall be registred or entered in a Book there to be kept for that Purpose, which Duty shall be thereupon paid to the said Receiver General of the Stamp Duties, or his Deputy or Clerk, who shall thereupon forthwith give a Receipt for the same, on such printed Copy, or the same shall be stamped to denote the Payment of the Duty hereby charged on such Pamphlet: And that one printed Copy of every such Pamphlet, as last mentioned, which during the same Term, shall be printed or published in any Part of Great Britain, not being within the Limits last before mentioned, shall, within the Space of fourteen Days after the Printing thereof, be brought to some Head Collector of the said Stamp Duties, who is hereby required forthwith to enter the Title thereof, with the Number of Sheets contained therein, and the Duty hereby charged thereon, in a Book to be by him kept for that Purpose; which Duty shall be thereupon paid to such Collector, who shall thereupon give a Receipt for the same on such printed Copy.

CXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Pamphlet containing more than one Sheet of Paper, as aforesaid, shall, during the last mentioned Term of two and thirty Years, be printed or published, and the Duty hereby charged thereon shall not be duly paid, and the Title thereof registred, and one Copy thereof stamped, where required so to be, within the respective Times herein before for those several Purposes limited, that then the Author, Printer, and Publisher of, and all other Persons concerned in or about the Printing or Publishing of such Pamphlet, shall lose all Property therein, and in every Copy thereof, although the Title thereto were registred in the Book of the Stationers in London, according to the late Act of Parliament in that Behalf, so as any Person (notwithstanding the said Act) may freely print and publish the same, paying the Duty payable in Respect thereof by virtue of this Act, without being liable to any Action, Prosecution or Penalty for so doing; any thing in the said Act of Parliament for vesting the Copies of printed Books in the Authors or Purchasers of such Copies, or in any By-Law contained, or any Custom or other Thing to the contrary notwithstanding: And the Printer and Publisher of such Pamphlet, and every other Person concerned in the Printing or Publishing thereof, shall, in such Case, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, with Full Costs of Suit.

CXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the same Term of two and thirty Years, no Person whatsoever shall sell, or expose to Sale, any such Pamphlet, without the true respective Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode, of some known Person or Persons, by or for whom the same was really and truly printed or published, written or printed thereupon, upon Pain that every Person offending herein, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, with Full Costs of Suit.

CXIV. And in Regard of the Incertainty how many Copies of the said printed News Papers or Pamphlets to be contained in one Sheet, or in a less Piece of Paper, may be sold; and to the Intent the Duties hereby granted thereupon may not be lessened by printing a less Number than may be sold, out of a Fear of a Loss thereby, in printing more such Copies than will be sold; it is hereby provided and enacted, That the Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, or the major Part of them, or such Head Officers as they shall appoint in this Behalf, shall and may cancel, or cause to be cancelled, all the Stamps upon such Copies of any Impressions of such News Paper or Pamphlet, as last mentioned, as shall really and truly remain unfold in the Hands of the Person or Persons by or for whom the same shall be printed or published, and upon Oath or Oaths made before the same Commissioners, or the major Part of them, or such Head Officer (who are hereby empowered to administer the same, and to examine into all Circumstances relating to the selling or disposing of the printed Copies of such News Paper or Pamphlet) to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners or Head Officer, that all such Copies, so cancelled, shall be really and truly remaining unfold in the Hands of the Person or Persons by or for whom the same were printed or published, and that none of them shall have been fraudulently returned or rebought after the same shall have been sold or disposed of, shall and may cause the like Number of other Sheets, Half Sheets, or less Pieces of Paper, to be stamped with the same respective Stamps (gratis, and without paying any Duties for the same) for the Person or Persons who paid the Duties for such Stamps as shall be on such Copies so remaining unfold; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And the same Commissioners, or the major Part of them, are hereby empowered to make such Rules and Orders for regulating the Methods, and limiting the Times for such Cancelling and Allowances, as aforesaid, with Respect to such several and respective News Papers or Pamphlets, as last mentioned, as they shall, upon Experience and Consideration of the several Circumstances, find necessary or convenient for the effectual securing the Duties on such News Papers Papers and Pamphlets, and doing Justice to the Persons concerned in the Printing and Publishing thereof.

CXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, at any Time or Times hereafter, counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark which shall be provided, made, or used, in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or shall utter, vend, or sell any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper with such counterfeit Mark or Stamp thereupon, knowing such Stamp or Mark to be counterfeit, or if any Person whatsoever shall privately and fraudulently use any Stamp or Mark, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any Duty upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper hereby granted, then every Person so offending, and being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Counterfeiting
Stamps Felony.

CXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners for the time being, appointed to manage the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall take Care that the several Parts of the Kingdom of Great Britain shall, from time to time, be sufficiently furnished with Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, stamped and marked as aforesaid, so as the Subjects of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, may have it in their Election to buy the same of the Officers or Persons to be employed by the said Commissioners at the usual and most common Rates above the said Duties, or to bring their own Vellum, Parchment, or Paper to be stamped, as aforesaid, or to furnish themselves or others that shall have done the same.

Commissioners
to furnish stamp

Provided nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said respective Justices, where they shall see Cause, to mitigate or lessen any such Penalty, in such Manner as they in their Discretion shall think fit, the reasonable Costs and Charges of the Officers or Informers being always allowed over and above such Mitigation, and so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Penalty to less than one fourth Part thereof over and above the said Cost and Charges; any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who shall be employed as a Broker or Brokers, Solicitor or Solicitors, or otherwise, in the Behalf of any other Person or Persons, to make any Bargain or Contract for the buying or selling of any Tallies, Orders, Exchequer Bills, Exchequer Tickets, Bank Bills, or any Share or Interest in any Joint Stock erected by Act of Parliament, or by Letters Patents under the Great Seal, or Bonds of any Company thereby erected, who shall, after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, take or receive, directly or indirectly, any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Reward, exceeding the Sum of two Shillings and nine Pence for every hundred Pounds, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Sum, for his or their Service in soliciting or procuring such Contract or Bargain, shall forfeit for every such Offence twenty Pounds, with Full Costs of Suit, to such Persons as shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

CXXII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person, who shall be appointed a Commissioner for all or any the Duties granted by this Act, and every subordinate Officer under such Commissioners, who shall receive any Salary or Allowance in Respect of his Office, (the several Commissioners and Officers of the Customs excepted) shall before his acting in his respective Trust, take an Oath for his due and faithful Execution of the same, according to this Act, which Oath shall and may be administered to any such Commissioner by any other Person who shall be appointed a Commissioner, as aforesaid, and to the said Officers respectively by any one of the said Commissioners, or by one Justice of the Peace, who shall give to the Officer a Certificate thereof gratis.

CXXIII. And it is hereby enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested or prosecuted for any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person and Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff shall discontinue his Action, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him upon Demurrer, or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff.

CXXIV. And to the end all the said Rates and Duties upon Sope, Paper, chequered and striped Linens, and upon printed, painted, stained, or dyed Goods, and upon stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or otherwise howsoever before granted by this Act, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of executing this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer, according to the true Meaning hereof; it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, That, from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for managing, raising, collecting, and paying the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same, and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein, shall perform their several Duties, in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum, not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies, which were granted or appropriated by the Act last-mentioned.

CXXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of thirty-two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twelve, the full Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the several Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money by this Act herein before granted or appropriated, or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforesaid, (in case the same shall extend thereunto) shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer for the same Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money, so granted or appropriated, shall not amount to the Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds

Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising (so far as the same shall extend) shall be Part of the yearly Fund for and towards the answering and paying off all and every the principal Sums herein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of two Millions three hundred forty-one thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds, principal Money, together with Interest for the same, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, as herein after is mentioned; and in case the same Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money by this Act granted or appropriated shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year, to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising in the Exchequer, for or upon Account of the same Duties, shall not amount to as much as one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds, that then and so often, and in every such Case, so much as shall be wanting to to make up the said Fund or Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds, for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good, from time to time, out of the first Aid or Supply to be granted in Parliament, next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall, from time to time be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same shall be granted; and in case no such Aid or Supply shall be granted, then by and out of any publick Money which shall be in the said Receipt of Exchequer, not appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by Act of Parliament; and the Lord High Treasurer now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are hereby strictly enjoined and required to make up such Deficiency accordingly, out of such unappropriated publick Money, without any further or other Warrant or Authority for the same.

Deficiency to be made good out of the first Aid to be granted in Parliament, or out of any Publick Monies in the Exchequer unappropriated.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute for or towards advancing the Sum of eighteen hundred thousand Pounds for carrying on the said War, by paying at or before the respective Days and Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, to any Receiver or Receivers to be appointed for that Purpose, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of ten Pounds, or divers entire Sums of ten Pounds upon this Act; and that for the raising the said Sum of eighteen hundred thousand Pounds, any Person, who will become Contributor or Adventurer, shall and may advance the Sum of ten Pounds, for which Sums so advanced, he, she, or they shall be entitled to receive, by virtue of this Act, such principal Money, and the Interest thereof, to be paid, as herein after is mentioned, by and out of the said yearly Fund settled by this Act; and that every Contributor or Adventurer may advance as many entire Sums of ten Pounds, as he, she, or they shall think fit, and for every such Sum of ten Pounds so advanced, he, she, or they, is or are to be interested in one Lot or Share of and in the said yearly Fund, by virtue of this Act; and the same intire Sums of ten Pounds each, are hereby appointed to be paid unto such Receiver or Receivers, at or before the respective Days and Times, and in the respective Proportions herein after mentioned, (that is to say) one fourth Part thereof, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, one other fourth Part thereof, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of July in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, one other fourth Part thereof, on or before the twenty-third Day of August in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, and the remaining fourth Part thereof, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of September in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve.

9 Annæ, c. 33. Cards and Dice made before 12 June 1711 in the Hands of the Makers, to pay for every Pack one Half-penny, and for every Pair 6*d.*

“ CLX. And whereas in and by the said Act made in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign (amongst other Things therein contained) it was enacted, That from and after the eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Term of thirty-two Years from thence next ensuing, there shall be raised and paid unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for all playing Cards or Dice, which, within or during the same Term, should be made fit for Sale or Use in Great Britain, or imported into the same, the Duties following, (that is to say) for every Pack of such Cards, the Sum of six Pence, and for every Pair of such Dice, the Sum of five Shillings: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all playing Cards and Dice which now remain unsold in the Hands of any Person or Persons trading or dealing therein, and which were actually and completely made before the twelfth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and and eleven, and for which no Duty charged by the same former Act of Parliament hath been paid, the several and respective Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money hereafter mentioned (that is to say) for and upon every Pack of such Cards, the Sum of one Half-penny, and for and upon every Pair of such Dice, the Sum of six Pence.

CLXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such playing Cards and Dice as were made and finished in Great Britain before the said twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall, before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be brought to the said Head Office for marking and stamping of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and upon Oath made that the same were actually made and finished in Great Britain, before the said twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven (which Oath the Commissioners for the Stamp Duties, or any of them, or any Officer or Officers by them, or the major Part of them, thereunto to be appointed, is and are hereby impowered to administer) and upon Payment of the Duties hereby charged on the same to the Receiver General last-mentioned, or his Deputy or Clerk, the same Commissioners or their Officers, shall cause such Cards and Dice as are last-mentioned, to be sealed, marked or stamped with such Seal, Mark, or Stamp as the same Commissioners shall provide, to denote the Duties hereby charged on such Cards and Dice, and which the same Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to provide accordingly; and that all playing Cards and Dice which shall not be brought to the said Head Office to be sealed, marked, and stamped, as aforesaid, and for which the Duties hereby charged, shall not be paid, and touching which such Oath, as aforesaid, shall not be made before the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be adjudged and deemed to be Cards and Dice made since the eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and to be charged accordingly with the full Duties imposed by the said former Act.

Such Cards and Dice to be brought to the Stamp Office before 1 Aug. 1712. to be marked, &c.

CLXII. And for the better securing her Majesty's Duties on playing Cards and Dice, and preventing the defrauding her Majesty thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of those Duties, no playing Cards or Dice shall be sold or exposed to Sale, or used in Play in any publick Gaming-house, unless the Paper and Thread inclosing, or which shall have inclosed the same, shall have been respectively sealed and stamped, or marked according to the said former Act in that Behalf, and unless one of the Cards of each Pack or Parcel of Cards so sold, shall be also marked or stamped on the spotted or painted Side thereof, with such Mark or Marks as the Commissioners for the time being, appointed to manage the said Stamp Duties, shall direct or appoint; upon Pain that every Person or Persons who shall, from and after that Time, and during the Continuance of the same Duties, sell or expose to Sale any such Cards or Dice which shall not have been so respectively sealed, marked, and stamped, as hereby, and by the former Act of Parliament relating to the said Duties, is respectively required, shall forfeit for every Pack or Parcel of such Cards, and every one of such Dice so sold or exposed to Sale, the Sum of five Pounds, besides Full Costs of Suit, to be recovered and distributed as the Penalties relating to the growing Duties imposed by the said former Act on Cards and Dice, are to be recovered and distributed.

No Cards or Dice to be sold or used in any Gaming House, before marking, on Penalty of 5l.

9 Annæ, c. 23.

CLXIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times hereafter counterfeit or forge any Seal, Stamp, or Mark to resemble any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, which, in pursuance of the said former Act, hath been provided, or in pursuance of the same, or of this present Act, shall be provided, to denote the Payment or charging of any the Duties on Cards or Dice by this or the said former Act payable, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same upon any Card or Dice, or any Thread or Paper inclosing any Cards, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any the said Duties upon Cards or Dice, or shall utter, vend, or sell any Cards or Dice with such counterfeit Seal, Stamp or Mark, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately and fraudulently use any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, provided and used, or to be provided and used in pursuance of this Act, or the said former Act, relating to the said Duties upon Cards and Dice, so as thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties upon Cards or Dice; then every such Person so offending, and being thereof convicted in the Form of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Counterfeiting those Marks, Felony.

CLXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Cards and Dice as were made in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, before the said twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall and may, at any Time before the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be brought to the Head Office at Edinburgh, appointed or to be appointed for collecting her Majesty's Stamp Duties there, and by him stamped or marked with such respective Stamps or Marks as shall denote the respective Duties hereby charged thereupon (which Stamps or Marks the said Commissioners for managing her Majesty's Stamp Duties are hereby impowered and required to provide and send to such Officer or Collector for that Purpose) upon Oath taken, That such Cards or Dice were actually made in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, before the said twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and upon Payment of such respective Duties to such Officer or Collector, and that such Cards or Dice, being so stamped or marked, shall and may be sold, or exposed to Sale, or used in Play; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Cards and Dice made in Scotland before 12 June 1712, to be brought to the Head Office at Edinburgh, before 1 August 1712, to be marked.

CLXV. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies to arise, as well by Rents of the said additional Number of Hackney Chairs, so to be licensed in pursuance of this Act, as by the said Duties for Cards and Dice made before the twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven (the necessary Charges of raising the same excepted) shall be added to the Funds settled by the said Act of the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, and applied towards the Payment of the Principal and Interest Monies therein mentioned, in like Manner, and under the like Penalties as the other Rents of Hackney Chairs, and Duties on Cards and Dice appropriated.

Justices may determine Pecuniary Forfeitures, not exceeding 20l.

CLXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twentieth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twelve, if any Person whatsoever shall make, or cause to be made, any Cards or Dice, in any House, Room, or Place, before he shall have given due Notice of his or her Intention to make Cards or Dice in such House or Place, according to the Form and Effect of the said former Act, such Person shall, over and above the Penalties imposed by that Act, forfeit all the Cards and Dice, and all Materials and Utensils for making Cards and Dice, which shall be found in such House or Place, or which shall have been made or manufactured there, before such due Notice shall have been given; and that no Materials whatsoever begun to be wrought for or towards the making of Cards or Dice, shall be removed from the Place wherein the same shall have been so begun to be wrought, until the same shall have been completely made and worked into Cards or Dice, or the Duties for the Cards or Dice therewith intended to be made, shall be paid or secured; upon Pain that every Person, who shall remove, or cause or permit to be removed, any such Materials, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, shall forfeit double the Amount of the Duty on the Cards or Dice, which might be made from or with such Materials, with Full Costs of Suit.

CLXVII. And whereas by an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of King EDWARD the Fourth, 'playing Cards and Dice are prohibited to be imported into England or Wales;' Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act, and all Matters therein contained, relating to playing Cards or Dice, shall and do stand and be in full Force and Effect, and so shall be construed, deemed, and adjudged, as to every Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain; any thing in any other Act, touching the said Duties on Cards and Dice, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

CLXVIII. And to prevent the evading the Payment of the said Duties on Dice by new Inventions of any Thing used or to be used in Play instead of Dice; Be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Pieces of Ivory, Bone, or other Matter, made or used for any Game or Play, with any Letters, Figures, Spots, or other Marks thereupon, to denote any Chance or Chances, are and shall be construed, deemed, and adjudged to be Dice, and to be charged accordingly with the full Duties on Dice; and if there shall be more than six Chances signified on any one of such Pieces of Ivory, Bone, or other Matter, then such one Piece shall be and is hereby charged with the full Duty of five Shillings payable for a Pair of Dice; and if there shall be more than the Number of Chances usually in a Pair of Dice, then such one Piece shall be and is hereby charged with a further Duty, proportionate to the Number of Chances exceeding those of one Pair of Dice.

CLXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers thereunto appointed by the said Commissioners for the said Stamp Duties, to enter into any House or Place where Cards or Dice are or shall be made, sold, or exposed to Sale, or suspected to be privately made, or into any publick Gaming-house, Room, or Place, and there to search and see what Quantity of Cards or Dice shall be making, and whether the Cards or Dice so sold, or exposed to Sale, or so used in Play, be duly sealed, marked, and stamped, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and of the said former Act; and if the Owner or Occupier of any House or Place, where Cards or Dice are or shall be made, sold, or exposed to Sale, or if any such publick Gaming-house, as aforesaid, shall, at any Time or Times, refuse Entrance or Liberty of Search to such Officer or Officers, such Owner or Occupier shall, for every such Refusal, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, with Full Costs of Suit, to be recovered and divided, as aforesaid.

CLXX. And for encouraging the Exportation of Cards and Dice into Foreign Parts, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to remove any Cards or Dice from the Place where the same are or shall be made, without sealing, marking, or stamping the same, or paying any the Duties payable for the same by this or any former Act of Parliament; provided that within one Month after the same shall be made, and before the same shall be so removed from the Place of making thereof, a Bond be entered into to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, with sufficient Surety or Sureties, in a Penal Sum of double the Duties on such Cards or Dice, with a Condition for the exporting such Cards or Dice into some Part or Port beyond the Seas, within a Time to be limited in such Bond, and that the same, or any of them, shall not be relanded in any Part of Great Britain, and that such Bond be left in the Hands of the said Commissioners for the Stamp Duties, and a Certificate be given by them, or such Officer as shall be in that Behalf appointed, that such Bond is entered into with relation to such Cards or Dice; any thing in the said former Act for imposing Duties on Cards and Dice to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXXI. Provided always, That such Boards of Cards as were actually made in Great Britain, and printed or spotted, and ready to be cut into Cards before the said twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and whereof an Account has been already taken by the Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, or their Officers, shall be charged only after the Rate of one Half-penny per Pack; any thing in this Act, or in the said former Act, for charging the Duties on Cards and Dice, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the time being, residing near to the Place where any Pecuniary Forfeitures, not exceeding twenty Pounds upon this or any of the Acts of Parliament, touching any the Duties under the Management or Care of the said Commissioners for managing her Majesty's Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall be incurred, or any Offence against any of the same Acts shall be committed, in any wise relating to the same Duties, or any of them, by which any Sum of Money only may be forfeited, to hear and determine the same; which said Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited, or Complaint made in that Behalf, within one Year after Seizure made, or such Offence committed, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and upon the Appearance or Contempt of the Party accused, shall be convicted of the Offence alledged against him, and to award and issue out Warrants under their Hands and Seals, for levying any Pecuniary Penalties so adjudged, on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within six Days, rendring to the Party the Overplus, if any; and if any Party shall find himself aggrieved, or remain unsatisfied in the Judgment of the said Justices, then he or they shall or may, by virtue of this Act, complain or appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for that County, Riding, or Place, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same, and in case of Conviction, to issue Warrants for levying the Penalties, as aforesaid.

Party aggrieved
may appeal to the Quarter-Sessions.

CLXXIII. Provided nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said respective Justices, where they shall see Cause, to mitigate or lessen any such Penalties, as they in their Discretions shall think fit, the reasonable Costs and Charges of the Officers and Informers, as well in making the Discovery, as in the Prosecution of the same, being always allowed over and above such Mitigation, and so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Penalties to less than double the Duties over and above the said Costs and Charges; any thing contained in this Act, or any other Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justices may mitigate Penalties.

CLXXIV. Provided also, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari shall supersede Execution, or other Proceedings, upon any Order or Orders made by the Justices aforesaid, in pursuance of this Act; but that Execution, and other Proceedings, shall be had and made thereupon; any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithstanding.

No Writs of Certiorari.

CLXXV. And for the better ascertaining and securing her Majesty's Duties on Calendars and Almanacks, be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Books and Pamphlets, serving chiefly to the Purpose of an Almanack, by whatsoever Name or Names entitled or described, are and shall be charged with those Duties, by virtue of the Act in that Case made in the first Session of this present Parliament, but not with any of the Duties charged by this Act on Pamphlets or other printed Papers; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

All Books serving to the Purpose of an Almanack, to be charged as such.

CLXXVI. And whereas great Loss hath happened of the Duties already laid upon stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and other Inconveniencies daily grow, from clandestine Marriages; For Remedy thereof for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Parson, Vicar, or Curate, or other Person in Holy Orders, beneficed or not beneficed, who shall, after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, marry any Person in any Church or Chapel, exempt or not exempt, or in any other Place whatsoever, without Publication of the Banns of Matrimony between the respective Parties according to Law, or without Licence first had and obtained from the proper Ordinary for the said Marriage, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be allowed; one Moiety thereof to the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall sue for the same; and if such Offender shall be a Prisoner in any Prison or Gaol (other than a County Gaol) at the Time of such Offence committed, and shall be duly convicted of such Offence, by Action or Information, as aforesaid, then upon Oath made of such Imprisonment before any Judge of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and upon producing a Copy of the Record of such Conviction, to be likewise proved upon Oath before the said Judge (which Oaths the said Judge is hereby empowered to administer) the said Judge is hereby required to grant his Warrant to the Keeper of the Gaol or Prison where such Offender is a Prisoner (which Warrant such Keeper is hereby required to obey) to remove such Offender to the Gaol of that County where such Offender is a Prisoner, there to remain charged in Execution with the Penalty inflicted by this Act, and with all and every the Causes of his former Imprisonment; and if any Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall be privy to, or knowingly permit any Marriage to be solemnized in his said Prison, before Publication of Banns, or Licence obtained, as aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and distributed, as aforesaid.

CLXXVIII. Provided always, That the said Provision for Marriages do not extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Not to extend to Scotland,

CLXXIX. And whereas it has been found necessary for Dispatch in the stamping or marking of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, to have several Dies or Stamps with the same Mark, Type, and Device on each of them, and denoting the same Duty; and it has also been found necessary to distinguish each of the said Dies or Stamps by several Letters, viz. One several Letter on each of them, whereupon some Doubt has arisen, whether in respect of the Addition of such one Letter, such Mark, Type, or Device, be the very same Mark, Type, or Device, appointed, provided, or published by Proclamation, in pursuance of the Act or Acts in that Behalf made, or any of them, as the Mark, Type or Device to denote such Duty; and in that respect, whether such Die or Stamp were a lawful Die or Stamp; Be it therefore declared and further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Dies or Stamps, and the Impressions thereby made, and to be made (notwithstanding the Addition of such Letter) are and shall be lawful Marks and Stamps according to the respective Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; and that all Stamps and Marks heretofore made or provided, and hereafter to be made or provided, in pursuance of this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, shall (notwithstanding the Addition of any Letter or Letters, or Numerical Figure or Figures, to distinguish one Die or Stamp from another of the same Type or Device, Clause for borrowing Money upon Stock (Part of the Capital of the South Sea Company) for the Use of the Publick.

By 12 Annæ, Stat. 2. c. 3. any Person may lend Money on Stock.

‘CLXXX. And whereas some Doubt has arisen, whether the Judges are judicially to take Notice of the Proclamation issued by their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, in pursuance of an Act made in the fifth Year of their said Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties several Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper, for four Years, towards carrying on the War against France; and of the Types, Marks, or Stamps thereby published;’ Be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Courts of Justice and Judges whatsoever ought without any Proof or Allegation in that Behalf, judicially to take Notice of the said Proclamation, and of all the Types, Marks, and Stamps thereby published, and which shall hereafter be published by any Proclamation of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Stamp Duties, or any of them, as and for the true and lawful Types, Marks, and Stamps made and provided, or to be made and provided, in pursuance of this and other the respective Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made.

‘CLXXXI. And whereas by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made, the Commissioners for managing the said Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, are to keep their Head Office in some convenient Place within the Cities of London or Westminster;’ Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for the time being, appointed to manage those Duties, may keep their Head Office for the same Duties, or any other Duties under their Care, in any convenient Place in any Part of the four Inns of Court, or of the Parishes of Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Clement Danes, Saint Paul Covent Garden, or Saint Giles in the Fields, although the same be not within either of those Cities; any thing in the said former Acts, or any of them, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commissioner, Officer, or other Person concerned or employed in the charging, collecting, receiving, or managing any of the Duties granted by this Act, shall, by Word, Message, or Writing, or in any other Manner, endeavour to persuade any Elector to give, or dissuade any Elector from giving his Vote for his Choice of any Person to be Knight of the Shire, Commissioner, Citizen, Burgefs, or Baron for any County, City, Borough, or Cinque Port; and every Officer or other Person offending therein, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offence shall be committed; to be recovered by any Person that shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in which no Effoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Impar lance shall be allowed; and every Person convicted on any such Suit, shall thereby become disabled and incapable of ever bearing or executing any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, under her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors.

‘CLXXXV. And whereas by the Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of her Majesty’s Reign (amongst other Things) for making good Deficiencies, and satisfying publick Debts, it was provided, That several Shares or Parts of the Capital Stock of the Corporation which was to be erected, in pursuance of that Act, and is since erected by the Name of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, should be ascertained, and be disposed and disposable for the Use of the Publick, in such Manner and Form, and by such several Ways and Means as in the said Act are expressed in that Behalf, and as by the same may more at large appear;’ Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Treasurers of the Navy and Ordnance, and the respective Paymasters of the Guards, Garrisons, and Land Forces, for the time being, or any other Officers or Persons who are or shall be intitled to any Parts or Shares of the said Capital Stock, for the publick Use and Benefit (not being absolutely sold, applied, or disposed for some of the publick Uses in that Act mentioned) from time to time, by any Warrant or Warrants in Writing from the High Treasurer of Great Britain, now being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being (and not otherwise) to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money from any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who are or shall be willing to advance or lend the same, upon Credit of the said publick Stock, or any Part thereof, and to allow Interest, not exceeding the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum for the forbearance thereof, to be paid every three Months from the respective Times of making such Loans or Advances, until the respective Times of Repayment of the Principal Monies; and to assign, mortgage, and transfer such respective Shares of the said Stock, whereupon such Sums of Money shall be agreed to be so lent, to the respective Lenders thereof, or such as they severally and respectively shall appoint, and to their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns respectively, upon such Conditions of Redemption, and under such Agreements for the Sale of the Stock so mortgaged, for making Default in the Repayment of the Monies to be borrowed thereupon, or for Nonpayment of the Interest thereof, and subject to such other Conditions, and in such Manner and Form, as in such Warrant and Warrants respectively shall be prescribed in that Behalf.

CLXXXVI. Pro-

CLXXXVI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That all the Money which shall be borrowed upon the Credit of such Stock, as aforesaid; shall be applied and disposed by the said Treasurers, Paymasters, or others respectively chargeable therewith, to such publick Uses whereunto the said Stock so to be mortgaged would have been applicable by or in pursuance of the said Act, if no such Mortgage, Assignment, or Transfer had been made, and to no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; and that the said Treasurers, Paymasters, and other Officers, who shall borrow the said Monies, as aforesaid, shall be answerable for the Application thereof accordingly; and that the said Company shall not be responsible for permitting the Stock to be so transferred, as if the same were unduly transferred; and that the Lenders of such Money shall not be chargeable with the Application thereof to the said Uses.

Money so borrowed to be applied to the Use of the Publick.

C A P. XX.

An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, by obliging their Creditors to accept the utmost Satisfaction they are capable to make, and restoring them to their Liberty.

C A P. XXI.

An Act to prevent Abuses in making Linen Cloth, and regulating the Lengths, Breadths, and equal sorting of Yarn, for each Piece made in Scotland, and for whitening the same.

‘ WHEREAS divers Abuses and Deceits have of late Years been used in the Manufactures of Linen Cloth in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, with Respect to the Lengths, Breadths, and unequal sorting of Yarn, which tends to the great Debasing and Undervaluing of the said Linen Cloth, both at Home and in Foreign Parts, where the said Cloths are vended:’ For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, all Sorts of Linen Cloth made in Scotland, shall be made of well sorted Yarn for each Piece, and equally wrought and fine from the one End of the Piece to the other; and that all Linen Cloth be made by the Standard Yard Wand, of the Lengths and Breadths following, each Piece of Linen Cloth, commonly called Saint Johnstons Cloth, when brown or green, and all other plain, brown, or green Linen Cloth made for whitening, shall be made full Yard and Nail, or full three Quarters of a Yard and Nail, that when whitened, it may be full Yard or full three Quarters of a Yard in Breadth; and that all other Sorts of plain Linen Cloth, whether white, brown, or green, shall be full Yard, or full three Quarters of a Yard in Breadth; and every such Piece of plain, brown, or green Linen Cloth, shall be in Length eighty-four Yards, the Half Piece forty-two Yards, the Quarter Piece one and twenty Yards; and every Piece of plain white Linen Cloth shall be in Length forty Yards, the Half Piece twenty Yards; and all Linen Checks shall be made Yard and Half a Quarter, or full Yard, or full three Quarters of a Yard in Breadth; and all striped Linen Cloth shall be made full Yard and Quarter, or full Yard, or full three Quarters of a Yard in Breadth; and all Linen for Neckcloths shall be made, the Piece to contain twelve Neckcloths, the Half Piece to contain six Neckcloths; and all Sorts of Ticking shall be made full Yard, or full three Quarters of a Yard in Breadth; and that all white, brown, or green Linen Cloth whatsoever shall be fold in that Part aforesaid, in the Water-fould, or in Foulds of one Yard or Half Yard in each Fould of Length, and not rolled or battered.

28 H. 8. c. 4. 1 Eliz. c. 12. 1 Ann. stat. 2. c. 8.

The Lengths and Breadths of Linen Cloth made in Scotland.

Dornick, &c. made in Scotland provided for by 12 Annæ, Stat. 2. c. 20.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Weaver, or other Person, shall, from and after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, make, or cause to be made any of the aforesaid Linen Cloth, otherways than according to the respective Lengths and Breadths aforesaid, and with well sorted Yarn, and equally wrought and fine, from the one End of the Piece to the other, every such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof convicted by the Oath of any Overseer or Searcher of Linen Cloth, appointed or to be appointed within the several Boroughs Royal, Counties, Stewartries, Boroughs of Regality and Barony, in that Part of Great Britain aforesaid, or by the Oath of two or more credible Witnesses before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates, or other Judge or Judges competent within their respective Jurisdictions (which Oath they or any of them are hereby empowered to administer) shall, for every Inch the said respective Linen Cloth shall be less than the said respective Breadths, and for every Half a Quarter the three Quarters Yard and Nail plain Cloth shall exceed the said Breadths, shall forfeit the Sum of five Shillings Sterling; and for every Yard the said respective white, brown, or green plain Linen Cloth shall be less in Length than the said respective Lengths, shall forfeit the like Sum of five Shillings Sterling; and for every Piece of all Sorts of Linen Cloth whatsoever, that is not made of well sorted Yarn, and equally wrought and fine from the one End of the Piece to the other, shall forfeit the Sum of five Shillings Sterling; and if any Person or Persons shall buy or expose to Sale, or bring to any Town or Place, in order for Sale, any of the aforesaid Cloth, in that Part aforesaid, not being made of well sorted Yarn, equally wrought and fine from the one end of each Piece to the other, and of the Lengths, Breadths, and Fouldings aforesaid, such Person or Persons so offending and being thereof convicted in any time not exceeding six Months after the Time of Sale, or exposing the same to Sale, shall forfeit for each Piece the Sum of five Shillings Sterling.

Penalty on Weavers, &c. making Linen Cloth otherwise than according to the aforesaid Lengths and Breadths.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Owners of all Sorts of Linen Cloth whatsoever made in Scotland, before exposing the same to Sale, shall bring the same to any Borough pre it to Sale, shall bring it to be stamp'd, on Forfeiture of 5s. Sterling for each Piece.

Owners of Linen Cloth, before they ex-

rough Royal, Town, or Place where Stamps are appointed, or to be appointed and kept, and there receive the Stamp of the Borough, Town, or Place; for the which Stamp the Stamp Master shall be paid for each Piece of all Sorts of Linen Cloth, the Sum of one Penny, the Half Piece Half-penny, the Quarter Piece one Farthing, and no more; and if any Person or Persons shall expose to Sale, or carry to the Water-side, in order for exporting or transporting any of the aforesaid Linen Cloth, after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, in or from any Borough, Town, or Place in Scotland, before the Stamp is affixed thereto, or is not made, as aforesaid, such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof convicted, as aforesaid, shall forfeit for each Piece the Sum of five Shillings Sterling.

Magistrates to cause Stamps to be made, and appoint Persons for stamping, who shall be sworn and give Security.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Magistrates of each Borough Royal in Scotland, shall be and are hereby impowered and appointed, from time to time, to cause make a Stamp or Stamps, bearing the Arms of the respective Boroughs, and to appoint a fit Person or Persons for inspecting and stamping all Linen Cloth brought to be stamped, being of the Lengths, Breadths, and Qualities aforesaid; which Person or Persons so nominated, shall before his or their Admission to that Office of Stamp Master, be obliged to take an Oath de fidei, and likewise find Surety for the faithful Administration and Execution of his Office, for such Sum of Money as the said Magistrates shall appoint; and in like Manner, the Justices of the Peace, in their respective Counties and Stewartries, shall be and are hereby impowered and ordained, from time to time, at their Quarterly Sessions in Scotland, to appoint a Stamp or Stamps to be made and kept at some proper Place or Places where Linen Cloth is sold, within their respective Counties, as their Justices of the Peace shall think proper; and the said Justices of the Peace are hereby impowered and ordained to nominate and appoint a qualified Person or Persons for stamping of Linen Cloth, brought to be stamp'd within their respective Counties and Stewartries aforesaid; who shall be obliged in like Manner to take an Oath de fidei, and likewise find such Surety for the faithful Administration and Execution of his Office, for such Sum of Money as the said Justices of the Peace shall appoint; and that no Stamp Master shall, for himself, or any other Person or Persons, buy or dispose of any Linen Cloth, direct or indirect, or shall stamp any Linen that is not made of well sorted Yarn, equally wrought, and of equal Fineness from the one End of the Piece to the other, and of the Breadths and Fouldings aforesaid (and not rolled or battered) he or they so neglecting or offending, shall forfeit for each Piece of Linen Cloth the Sum of five Shillings Sterling, and made incapable of serving in any such Office for the future; and if any Person or Persons in that Part of Great Britain aforesaid, shall buy, export, or transport, or carry to the Water-side, in order to be exported or transported, any Linen Cloth of Scotland, after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, before the Stamp be fixed, as aforesaid, he or they so offending, and being thereof convicted in Scotland, shall for each Piece of Linen Cloth whatsoever, forfeit the Sum of five Shillings Sterling; and if any Person or Persons shall affix or counterfeit any Stamp without the Authority aforesaid, such Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit respectively the Sum of fifty Pounds Sterling, or one Year's Imprisonment if found insolvent.

Justices of the Peace to do the like at their Quarter-Sessions.

Stamp Master not to buy or sell any Linen Cloth, nor stamp any not made of well sorted Yarn, &c. on Penalty of 5s. per Piece, and disabled.

Buying or exporting before Stamp'd forfeits 5s. per Piece. Counterfeiting Stamps forfeits 50l. or a Year's Imprisonment if insolvent.

Using Lime or Pidgeons Dung in whitening, forfeits 20s. Sterling for each Piece.

V. And whereas sundry Persons of late Years have made Use of Lime or Pidgeons Dung for bleaching and whitening Linen Cloth, to the great Prejudice of the said Cloth; For preventing whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, make use of any Lime or Pigeons Dung, for whitening or bleaching any Sort of Linen Cloth, and being thereof convicted by the Oath of two or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or by the Oath of the Offender or Offenders, and before any Judge or Judges competent within their respective Jurisdictions, in that Part of Great Britain aforesaid, such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof convicted, as aforesaid, shall forfeit for each Piece of Linen so bleached or whitened, the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling; and if any Offender or Offenders shall after being convicted within Scotland, and shall refuse and neglect to pay any Forfeiture incurred by Reason of this Act, then it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Judges competent, before whom such Conviction shall be made, as aforesaid, and such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Judges competent, are hereby impowered and required to issue out one or more Warrants, under his or their Hands and Seals, to the Constable or Constables, Officer or Officers of the Town or Place where such Offender doth inhabit or can be found, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, returning the Overplus, if any be, to the Offender, and where no sufficient Distress can be found, to commit the Offender to the House of Correction, or Gaol of the Borough, Town, or County, to be kept at hard Labour for such Time as the Judge or Judges, before whom such Conviction is made, shall direct, not exceeding twelve Months; and all Forfeitures and Penalties that shall be recovered in that Part of Great Britain aforesaid, by Reason of this Act, shall be the one Half to the Informer who shall sue for and recover the same, the other Half for the Poor of the Parish where the Offence is committed.

Forfeitures, how to be recovered and disposed.

VI. Provided always, That all Linen Cloth which shall be made in Scotland at any Time before the said nine and twentieth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall and may be sold, exported, or transported, as the Owner or Owners of the said Linen Cloth shall judge proper, at any Time or Times before the fifteenth Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirteen; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. An Act for the Relief of Merchants importing Prize Goods from America.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made the ninth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, 9 Annæ, c. 27, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America, it is among other Things enacted, That all Prize Goods and Commodities which, after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, shall be imported into any of the Ports of Great Britain, shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the same Duties as those Goods and Commodities would have paid in case they had not been Prize: And whereas before the making the said Act, Prize Goods, being of the Growth and Produce of Foreign Plantations not belonging to her Majesty or her Subjects, were subject upon their Importation into Great Britain, to pay only such Duties and Customs as were payable on the seventeenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and three, for the like Goods of the Produce of her Majesty's Plantations imported by English Shipping: And whereas several considerable Quantities of Prize Cocoa, Sugars, Indigo, and other Prize Goods, of the Growth and Produce of such Foreign Plantations, have been already imported into this Kingdom, and are now in several Warehouses under the Queen's Locks, and other Quantities of the like Goods are on Board divers Ships or Vessels, now imported, and more are daily expected, and if the same should pay the Duties they were to pay in case they had not been Prize, the same will not be worth Freight, Custom, and Charges; which will be not only a great Loss and Detriment to the Importers thereof, but also a great Prejudice to the Trade of this Kingdom: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Cocoa, Sugars, Indigo, and other Goods, taken and condemned as Prize Goods, of the Growth and Produce of such Foreign Plantations, which are already imported into this Kingdom of Great Britain, or shall at any Time hereafter, before the twenty-ninth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be imported into the said Kingdom, or which now are in any Warehouses under the Queen's Locks, or on Board any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, now imported, having Certificates to prove the same Prize Goods, shall be subject and liable to pay only such Duties and Customs as the same would have paid if the said Goods had been of the Growth and Produce of the Plantations, Islands, or Colonies in America, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain.

Prize Goods of the Growth of Foreign Plantations, brought into Great Britain before 29 May 1712, shall pay only such Duties as those of the Growth of Plantations belonging to the Crown.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Prize Goods, being of the Growth and Produce of such Foreign Plantations, which shall at any Time after the twenty-ninth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be imported into any Part of Great Britain, from any of the Plantations, Islands, or Colonies in America aforesaid, upon producing a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer at the Port or Place where such Goods were embarked or put on Board in America, are the same Goods as were condemned in the High Court of Admiralty within such Plantation, Island, or Colony in America aforesaid, as shall appear to the said Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer there, by Affidavit made by the Person or Persons exporting such Prize Goods, and also an Affidavit made before the proper Officer of the Customs of such Port or Place in this Kingdom where the said Goods shall be imported, by the Master, or Purser, or other Person commanding the Ship or Vessel importing the same, that the Goods so imported are the same Goods for which the said Certificate was made by the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer in America, as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to, and shall pay such Duties only in Great Britain, as in case they had been of the Growth and Produce of the Plantations, Islands, or Colonies in America, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain; any thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act, or any Usage or Custom, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Prize Goods of the Growth of such Foreign Plantations, imported after 29 May 1712, from any of the Plantations in America, on producing a Certificate, &c. shall pay such Duties only as if they had been of the Growth of British Plantations. Prize Cocoa from the Plantations, how to be charged. 10 Annæ, c. 26. §. 113.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act for the more effectual preventing fraudulent Conveyances, in order to multiply Votes for electing Knights of Shires to serve in Parliament.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs and other Officers in the electing and returning such Members, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That all Conveyances of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in any County, City, Borough, Town Corporate, Port, or Place, in order to multiply Voices, or to split and divide the Interest in any Houses or Lands amongst several Persons, to enable them to vote at Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, shall be void and of none Effect; and that no more than one single Voice shall be admitted for one and the same House and Tenement: and whereas (notwithstanding this Provision to the contrary) many fraudulent and scandalous Practices have been used of late to create and multiply Votes at the Election of Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament, to the great Abuse of the antient Law and Custom of that Part of Great Britain called England, to the great Injury of those Persons who have just Right to elect, and in Prejudice of the Freedom of such Elections; Therefore for the more effectual preventing of such undue Practices, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Estates and Conveyances whatsoever made to any Person or Persons in any fraudulent or collusive Manner, on Purpose to qualify him or them to give his or their Vote or Votes at such Elections

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25.

All Conveyances fraudulently made to qualify any Person to vote (subject to Conditions to defeat the same) shall be discharged of such Conditions, &c.

And all Bonds, &c. for defeating such Estate shall be void.

Persons making &c. such Conveyance, or voting by Colour thereof, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit 40l.

After 1 May 1712. no Persons shall vote for a Knight of a Shire, in Right of Lands which have not been charged to publick Taxes, &c. and for which such Person has not received the Rents for one Year before; unless such Lands came to him by Descent, &c. This Clause explained 12 Annæ, stat. 1. c. 5. on Penalty of 40l. Repealed by 18 Geo. 2. c. 18.

The Oath required by the Act 7 W. 3. c. 25. repealed.

Freeholders to be sworn;

Their Oath. Another Oath appointed by 18 Geo. 2. c. 18.

To be administered by the Sheriff, &c. Freeholder committing wilful Perjury, or any Person suborning him so to do, shall incur the Penalties of 5 Eliz. c. 9.

The Elector's Name, &c. to be entered.

of Knights of the Shire (subject nevertheless to Conditions or Agreements to defeat or determine such Estate, or to reconvey the same) shall be deemed and taken, against those Persons who executed the same, as free and absolute, and be holden and enjoyed by all and every such Person or Persons to whom such Conveyance shall be made, as aforesaid, freely and absolutely acquitted, exonerated, and discharged, of and from all Manner of Trusts, Conditions, Clauses of Re-entry, Powers of Revocation, Provisoes of Redemption, or other Defeazances whatsoever, between or with the said Parties, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for them; and that all Bonds, Covenants, Collateral or other Securities, Contracts or Agreements, between or with the said Parties, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for them, or any of them, for the redeeming, revoking, or defeating such Estate or Estates, or for the restoring, or reconveying thereof, or any Part thereof, to any Person or Persons who made or executed such Conveyance, or to any other Person or Persons in Trust for them, or any of them, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that every Person who shall make and execute such Conveyance or Conveyances, as aforesaid, or being privy to such Purpose, shall devise or prepare the same, and every Person who, by Colour thereof, shall give any Vote at any Election of any Knight or Knights of a Shire to serve in Parliament, shall, for every such Conveyance so made, or Vote so created or given, forfeit the Sum of forty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, together with Full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be admitted or allowed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, no Person shall vote for the electing of any Knight of a Shire within that Part of Great Britain called England, in Respect or in Right of any Lands or Tenements which have not been charged or assessed to the publick Taxes, Church Rates, and Parish Duties, in such Proportion as other Lands or Tenements of forty Shillings per Annum, within the same Parish or Township where the same shall lie or be, are usually charged, and for which such Person shall not have received the Rents or Profits, or be entitled to have received the same, to the full Value of forty Shillings, or more, to his own Use, for one Year before such Election, unless such Lands or Tenements came to such Person within the Time aforesaid by Descent, Marriage, Marriage Settlement, Devise, or Presentation to some Benefice in the Church, or by Promotion to some Office unto which such Freehold is affixed; and if any Person shall vote in any such Election, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of forty Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Poor of the Parish or Parishes where the Lands or Tenements lie, for which such Person shall vote, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, or more than one Imparllance.

III. And whereas by the above recited Act, it is also further enacted, That upon every Election to be made of any Knight or Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament, every Freeholder, before he is admitted to poll at the same Election, shall (if required by the Candidates, or any of them) first take the Oath therein after mentioned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act, as to so much only as concerns the said Oath, shall be and is hereby repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon every Election to be made of any Knight or Knights of a Shire within that Part of Great Britain called England, to serve in Parliament, every Freeholder, before he is admitted to poll at the same Election, shall (if required by the Candidates, or any of them, or any other Person having a Right to vote at such Election) first take the Oath following, viz.

YOU shall swear, That you are a Freeholder in the County of _____ and have Freehold Lands or Hereditaments lying or being at _____ in the County of _____ of the yearly Value of forty Shillings above all Charges payable out of the same; and that such Freehold Estate hath not been made or granted to you fraudulently, on Purpose to qualify you to give your Vote; and that the Place of your Abode is at _____ in _____ and that you have not been polled before at this Election.

Which Oath the Sheriff, by himself, his Under Sheriff, or such sworn Clerk or Clerks (as shall be by him appointed for the taking the Poll, pursuant to the said recited Act) is hereby required to administer; and in case any Freeholder, or other Person, taking the said Oath hereby appointed, shall thereby commit wilful and corrupt Perjury, and be thereof convicted, or if any Person do unlawfully and corruptly procure or suborn any Freeholder, or other Person, to take the said Oath, in order to be polled, whereby he shall commit such wilful and corrupt Perjury, and shall be thereof convicted, he and they, for every such Offence, shall incur the like Pains and Penalties as are in and by one Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of the late Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act for Punishment of such Persons as shall procure or commit any wilful Perjury, enacted against all such who shall commit wilful Perjury, or suborn or procure any Person to commit any unlawful or corrupt Perjury contrary to the said Act.

V. And the better to detect and punish any Offenders against this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in taking the Poll, the Sheriff, or his Under Sheriff, and Clerks, shall enter not only the Place of the Elector's Freehold, but also the Place of his Abode, as he shall declare the same at the Time of the giving his Vote, and shall also make or enter Jurat against the Name of every such Voter who shall be tendered and take the Oath hereby required; and that the said Sheriff, or returning Officer, shall, within the the Space of twenty Days next after such Election, faithfully deliver over upon Oath (which Oath the two next Justices of the Peace, one of whom to be of the Quorum, are hereby enabled and required to administer) unto the Clerk of the Peace of the same County, all the Poll Books of such respective Elections, without any Imbezilment or Alteration; and in such Counties where there are more than one Clerk of the Peace, then the original Poll Books to one of such Clerks of the Peace, and attested Copies thereof to the rest, to be carefully kept and preserved among the Records of the Sessions of the Peace of and for the said County.

Poll Books to be delivered up on Oath to the Clerk of the Peace to be kept among the Records of the Sessions.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of the County of York, for the time being, shall be and is hereby required to appoint seven convenient Tables or Places for taking the Poll of the said County upon any new Election of a Knight or Knights of the Shire for the said County, at the proper Costs and Charges of the Candidates for the same, to continue till the Poll be concluded.

Sheriff of Yorkshire to appoint seven Tables for taking the Poll, at the Costs of the Candidate: Sheriff of Cheshire to do the like.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of the County Palatine of Chester, for the time being, against every Election of a Knight or Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament for the said County, shall and is hereby required to cause seven convenient Tables or Places, and no more, to be made at the Costs and Charges of the Candidates, within the Shire Hall of the said County, for taking the Poll at such Elections, that is to say, two at the Upper End, two at each Side, and one at the Lower End of the said Hall, and shall at such Place take the Poll at such Elections till the same be concluded.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person being a Quaker, during the Continuance of an Act passed in the seventh Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act that the solemn Affirmation and Declaration of the People called Quakers, shall be accepted instead of an Oath in the usual Form, shall upon such Election, as aforesaid, if required by the Candidates, or any of them, declare the Effect of the said Oath upon his solemn Affirmation, in such Manner and Form as is directed by the said Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act that the solemn Affirmation and Declaration of the People called Quakers, shall be accepted instead of an Oath in the usual Form; every such Quaker shall be capable and admitted to give his Vote for the Election of any such Member, as aforesaid, to serve in the House of Commons within that Part of Great Britain called England; and every Sheriff, by himself, or such his proper Officer, as aforesaid, is hereby authorized and required to accept such Affirmation instead of the said Oath, and shall also make or enter Affirmat against the Name of every such Quaker; and in case any such Quaker shall be convicted, wilfully, falsely and corruptly to have affirmed or declared any Matter or Thing, which, if the same had been in the usual Form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, every such Quaker so offending, shall incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein before enacted against Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Quakers declaring the Effect of the Oath on their Affirmation, as directed by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34. shall be admitted to vote.

And affirming any Thing false shall incur the Penalties before enacted against Perjury.

The said several Duties on Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, to be dressed in Oil within Great Britain, to be paid by the Oil Leather Dressers respectively.

Duty on Vellum and Parchment imported or made in Great Britain. Made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 1.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Vellum and Parchment which shall, at any Time or Times within or during the said Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be made in Great Britain, or imported into the same (over and above all other Duties by any Act or Acts of Parliament or Law whatsoever imposed upon or payable for the same) the several and respective additional Rates or new Duties herein after expressed, that is to say, For and upon all Vellum so imported an additional Rate of three Shillings for every Dozen; and for all Parchment so imported, an additional Rate of two Shillings for every Dozen, and proportionally for greater or lesser Numbers or Quantities, to be paid by the Importers thereof respectively; and for and upon all Vellum which shall be made in Great Britain, as aforesaid, an additional Duty after the Rate of two Shillings for every Dozen; and for all Parchment which shall be made in Great Britain, as aforesaid, an additional Duty after the Rate of one Shilling for every Dozen, to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

These new Duties to be raised as the Duties on Leather.

9 Annæ, c. 11.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective additional or new Rates and Duties by this Act imposed or chargeable for and upon all or any such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, as aforesaid, for and during the said Term of Years hereby granted, of and in the same, shall and may, from time to time, be ascertained, raised, received, levied, recovered, and secured, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, and by the same or different Stamps and Marks, and under such Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Powers of adjudging the said Duties, and adjudging and mitigating the said Penalties and Forfeitures, or any of them, and other Powers, and subject to proportional Allowances, Drawbacks, and Repayments, and to such Rules and Directions, and in such Methods, Manner, and Form, as the respective Duties upon the like Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, granted by an Act in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for prosecuting the War and other her Majesty's most necessary Occasions, are by that Act, or any Law or Statute thereby referred unto, prescribed, appointed, or enacted, during the Continuance thereof, to be ascertained, raised, received, levied, secured, or recovered; and that the Act last-mentioned, and all the Clauses, Pains of Death, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Matters and Things, therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, paying, or accounting for the said Duties thereby granted, or any Arrearages of the same, or any Way relating to the same Duties, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, by that Act chargeable, by force and virtue of this present Act, be continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, paying, and accounting for the Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, by this Act granted, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were particularly and at large repeated in the Body of this present Act.

9 Annæ, c. 11.

‘ V. And whereas some Doubts have arisen upon the said Act of the ninth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, whether a Debenture could be given in pursuance of the said Act by the Customer or Collector of the Customs for two Thirds of the Duties upon Hides and Calve Skins shipped for Exportation, unless the Marks or Stamps denoting the charging the Duty payable by that Act did appear to them thereupon; and it being often found inconvenient that the Exporters should be obliged to open their Bails or Packs of Leather at the Port of Exportation;’ it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Oath made by the Exporter, unless such Exporter be a known Quaker, and if he be, then upon the solemn Affirmation of such Quaker (which Oath or Affirmation the Customer or Collector is hereby empowered to administer) that all the Hides or Skins contained in such Bails or Packs respectively, were marked with the Marks or Stamps denoting the charging of the Duties payable by this Act and the said former Act, or either of them, and expressing particularly how much the Duty so denoted to have been paid or charged by the said former Act for such Hides or Skins doth amount unto, exclusive of the Duty upon the Stock in Hand; and also how much the Duties so denoted to have been paid or charged by this Act for such Hides or Skins doth amount unto, and expressing the Weight of the Hides and Calve Skins so exported or shipped for Exportation, in such Oath or Affirmation; then and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the Customer or Collector (such Security being given as the said Act requires) to make forth a Debenture for the two third Parts of the said Duties payable by the said former Act and this present Act, or either of them, for the Hides and Calve Skins already exported, or shipped to be exported, for which no Drawback hath already been paid, and for the like Hides and Calve Skins which shall hereafter be exported, or shipped to be exported, and for which a Drawback ought to be made, according to the true Meaning of this or the said former Act; and every such Debenture being verified by the Certificate of the Searcher, attesting the shipping of such Hides and Skins, shall be satisfied according to this and the said former Act, as fully as if the Marks or Stamps on the said Hides and Skins had been seen by the proper Officers of the Customs; any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ VI. And whereas by the said Act made last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides, and Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for prosecuting the War, and other her Majesty’s most necessary Occasions, there is Provision made in the said Act, that a Drawback be allowed upon all tanned or rough Hides and Calve Skins, upon their Exportation, but no Allowance is made for a Drawback on Hides or Calve Skins that are dressed or curried: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Hides or Calve Skins that are or shall be dressed, or curried, shall be entitled to a Drawback upon their Exportation, of one Penny per Pound Weight, as they shall weigh at the Custom-house, to be paid and allowed in the same Manner, and under such Cautions, Rules, and Security, as the Drawback upon rough tanned Hides and Calve Skins is to be paid or allowed.

See farther concerning Hides, &c. 5 Geo. 1. c. 2. 12 Geo. 2. c. 25.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Starch which, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties already imposed thereupon) the Sum of two Pence for every Pound Weight, consisting of sixteen Ounces Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, from time to time, before the landing of the same; and for and upon all Starch of what Kind soever, which at any Time or Times within or during the same Term of thirty-two Years, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny for every such Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity: The same to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon imported Starch shall be raised, levied, recovered, answered, and paid, and be brought into the Receipt of her Majesty’s Exchequer in England, (to and for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and with such Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon imported Sope, granted by one other Act of the present Session of Parliament, or by any Laws and Statutes therein referred unto, are to be raised, levied, recovered, answered, and paid.

IX. And for the better ascertaining, charging, and securing the Duties by this Act set and imposed upon all Sorts of Starch made in Great Britain, during the Term last-mentioned, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and for preventing of Frauds concerning the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or the high Treasurer of Great Britain now being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall, from time to time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose appoint, shall be her Majesty’s Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Duties set and imposed upon all the Starch made within Great Britain chargeable by this Act; which said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall and have hereby Power, by Commissions under their respective Hands and Seals, to substitute and appoint under them such Receivers General, Collectors, Comptrollers, Surveyors, and other Officers, as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners so to be appointed, and all the Officers for the said Duties on Starch, shall have out of the same such Salaries and Rewards for their respective Services, in Relation to the same Duties, as the said High Treasurer now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall think reasonable to establish or allow in that Behalf; and that the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Starch to be made in Great Britain, for the time being, shall, from time to time, cause all the Monies to arise by or for the said Duties on Starch to be made in Great Britain, during the Term aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of managing, collecting, and raising the same excepted) to be paid, from time to time, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities herein after expressed.

Starch-makers to give Account of their Names and Places of Abode, and of their Work-houses, &c. at the next Office, on Forfeiture of 50 l.

X. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who, on or before the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall make any Starch in Great Britain, for Sale or not for Sale, shall, on or before the same first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, give Notice in Writing at the Office for the said Duties on Starch, next to the Place where such Starch shall be made, of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and of every Work-house, Store-house, Room, and other Place by him, her, or them respectively made use of in or for the making, drying, and keeping of such Starch, or of Flour, Meal, or other Materials proper to be made into Starch, and also of all the Fats, Troughs, Boxes, Kilns, Stoves, Utensils, and Vessels, used in the making of the same; and that from and after the said first Day of August, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Starch, no Maker of Starch shall erect, set up, alter, change, enlarge, or make use of any Work-house, Store-house, Room, or other Place, for the making, drying, or keeping of Starch, or for the converting or keeping any Flour, Meal, or other Materials proper to be made into Starch, or use any Fat, Trough, Box, Stove, Utensil, or other Vessel, for the making of Starch, without first giving Notice thereof in Writing, or unless Notice thereof shall have been before given in Writing at the next Office, as aforesaid; and if any Maker of Starch shall erect, set up, alter, enlarge, or make use of any Work-house, Store-house, Room, or other Place, for the making, drying, or keeping of Starch, or for the keeping or converting of any Flour, Meal, or other Materials proper to be made into Starch, or shall use any Fat, Trough, Kiln, Stove, Box, Utensil, or other Vessel, for the making of Starch, without giving such Notice thereof, as aforesaid, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, then, and in every such Case, the Offender therein, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Starch-makers in London, &c. to make Entry on Oath Monthly, in all other Places in 6 Weeks, on Forfeiture of 50 l.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, That from and after the said first Day of August, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Starch hereby granted, all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Starch in London, Westminster, or in any Parts within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall monthly and every Month, and all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Starch in any other Part of Great Britain, shall once in every six Weeks, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office for the said Duties, of all the Starch by him, her, or them severally made within such Months or six Weeks respectively; which said Entries shall contain the Weight of all the Starch mentioned therein, and what Quantity thereof was made at a Time in the several Weeks to which such Entry shall relate, on Pain to forfeit for every Neglect of Entry the Sum of fifty Pounds; which Entry shall be made upon Oath, by the Makers of such Starch, or by their chief Workman or Servant employed in making the same, according to the best of their Knowledge and Belief, unless such Maker, Workman, or Servant be a known Quaker, and the solemn Affirmation of such Maker, Workman, or Servant to the same Effect, in case he or she be a known Quaker, shall and may be taken instead of such Oath; and the said Entries, Oaths, and Affirmations to verify the same, shall for such Starch as shall be made within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, be made with, and administered by such Officer or Officers as shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the said Duties in England, or the major Part of them, for the time being, who shall attend at a General Office in London or Westminster, for that Purpose; and all for Starch made in all other Parts of Great Britain, with and by the Collectors and Supervisors of the District or Division within which the respective Makers of Starch shall inhabit, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded or taken for the same.

Entries to be at the next Market Town.

XII. Provided always, That no Maker of Starch shall be obliged to go or send further than the Market Town where his or her Starch is made, or the next Market Town to the Place where his or her Starch is made, for the making of such Entries, as aforesaid.

Persons in London, &c. to clear off the Duty in 4 Weeks, in any other Parts in 6 Weeks, on Forfeiture of double the Duty, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall make any Starch in London, Westminster, or within the Limits of the said Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall, within four Weeks, and all and every Person and Persons whatsoever who shall make any Starch in any other Part of Great Britain, shall, within six Weeks, after he, she, or they shall make, or ought to have made such Entry, as aforesaid, pay and clear off all the said Duties for Starch, which shall be due from him, her, or them respectively; and that all and every such Makers of Starch, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment, as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, double the Sum of the said Duty, whereof the Payment shall be so refused or neglected; and that no such Maker of Starch, after such Default in Payment made, shall deliver, or carry out any Starch, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty, as aforesaid, on Pain to forfeit double the Value of such Starch, so delivered or carried out.

Officers to enter Ware-houses, &c. to take Account of Starch,

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties on Starch, shall at all Times, by Day or by Night (and if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace) be permitted, upon his or their Request, to enter the House, Work-house, Ware-house, or other Place whatsoever, belonging to, or used by any Person or Persons, who, within or during the last-mentioned Term of thirty-two Years, shall be a Maker or Makers of any Starch whatsoever, and by gauging or weighing of the Starch, or gauging the Boxes and other Utensils, or otherwise, as to such Officer shall seem most proper and convenient, to take an Account of the just Quantity of the Starch which shall have been made by such Maker or Makers of Starch, from time to time; and shall thereof make Return or Report in Writing to the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Starch, or such as they respectively shall appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy (if demanded) and to make a Return in Writing to the Commanded) of such Report in Writing under his Hand with or for such Maker or Makers of Starch respectively; and such Report or Return of the said Officer or Officers shall be a Charge upon such Maker or Makers of Starch; and if the said Officer shall refuse or neglect to give or leave a true Copy of his Report in Writing with or for such Maker or Makers of Starch, at the Time of taking such Account, upon Demand, as afore said, every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings to every such Maker and Makers of Starch respectively.

XV. Provided always, That if such Charge be made by gauging the said Starch before it be dried in the Stove, then, and in every such Cafe, every Box of green Starch, or Starch before it be so dried, containing fifty seven Inches in Length, and ten Inches in Breadth, (or by a Medium of the Breadth) and eight Inches in Depth, or in the Whole, four thousand five hundred and sixty solid Inches, shall be esteemed one hundred and twelve Averdupois Pounds Weight of Starch dried and perfectly made, and shall be charged accordingly by this Act, and proportionably for greater or lesser Quantities.

and 8 in Depth, or 4560 solid Inches, to be charged as 112 lb. of Starch.

XVI. Provided also, That every Officer, who shall be empowered to make such Charge, as afore said, shall in the first Place be sworn for the due and faithful Execution of his Office; and the Oath in that Behalf shall and may be administred by all or any the Commissioners of the said Duties on Starch, or by any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who shall give to such Officers a Certificate thereof; and all and every such Maker or Makers of Starch respectively, are hereby required to keep sufficient and just Scales and Weights at the Place or Places where he, she, or they do make such Starch; and permit and assist the Officer to make Use thereof, for the Purposes afore said, under the Penalty of ten Pounds to be forfeited and lost for not keeping such Scales and Weights, or for not permitting and assisting the Officer to use the same, as afore said.

XVII. And the better to prevent any Frauds and Concealments, it is hereby likewise enacted and declared by the Authority afore said, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties upon Starch, shall also be permitted to take an Account by gauging, weighing, or otherwise, of the Quantities of Flour, Meal, and other Materials proper to be made into Starch, that shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Maker of Starch, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Starch hereby granted; and in case such Officer or Officers shall miss any Quantity or Quantities of such Flour, Meal, or other Materials afore said, which he had taken an Account of at the last Time he was at such Makers of Starch, and shall not, upon reasonable Demand, receive Satisfaction what is become of such Flour, Meal, and other Materials so missing; then, and in every such Cafe, it shall and may be lawful for every such Officer to charge such Maker of Starch with such Quantity of Starch as such Flour, Meal, and other Materials so missing, in his Judgment, would reasonably have made, not exceeding twenty-five Pounds Weight of Starch for every Bushel of such Ingredients mixed or unmixed, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Maker or Makers of Starch shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officer in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this Act, for the ascertaining and securing the said Duties upon Starch, the Person or Persons offending therein shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XIX. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Maker or Makers of Starch, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Starch, shall (under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Offence) remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away, any Starch by him, her, or them made, of which no Account shall have been first taken by the proper Officer for the said Duties, from the Place where the same Starch shall have been made, without giving to the proper Officer or Officers within the Limits of the said Weekly Bills of Mortality, twenty-four Hours Notice at the least, and to the proper Officer or Officers in other Parts of Great Britain, two Days Notice at the least, of his, her, or their Intentions to remove, carry, or send away the same; that so the said Officer (without his own wilful Neglect or Default) may have Time to weigh, or otherwise take an Account thereof.

XX. And for the better ascertaining the said Duties upon Starch; be it further enacted by the Authority afore said, That all Makers of Starch shall, from time to time, keep all the Starch by them to be made, and which shall not have been surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers for the said Duties on Starch, separate and apart from all other their Starch which shall have been surveyed and taken an Account of by such Officers, for the Space of twenty-four Hours after the making thereof within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or for the Space of two Days after the making such Starch in any other Part of Great Britain, unless such Starch shall have been sooner surveyed and taken an Account of by the said Officers respectively, on Pain to forfeit for every such Offence therein the Sum of five Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Makers of Starch shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause to be hid or concealed, any Starch chargeable by this Act, or any the Materials for making the same, to the Intent to deceive her Majesty of the just Duties by this Act granted, that then, and in every such Cafe, the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority afore said, That all Flour and Meal, and other Materials for making Starch, which shall be found in any private Work-house, Ware-house, or other Place, and all private Utensils and Vessels for making or keeping Starch, for which no Entry shall be made, or Notice given as afore said, shall be forfeited and lost, and the same, or the Value thereof, shall and may be seized and recovered by the said Officer or Officers for the said Duties on Starch, for her Majesty's Use.

XXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority afore said, That all the Starch, and all the Materials, and Utensils for the making of Starch, in the Custody of any Maker or Makers of Starch, or of any Person or Persons to the Use of, or in Trust for such Maker or Makers of Starch, shall be liable and subject to, and are hereby made chargeable with all the Debts and Duties for Starch in Arrear and owing by

Officer missing any Flour, &c. may charge the Maker with 25 lb. of Starch for every Bushel missing.

Starch-makers not to remove Starch, of which no Account hath been taken, on Pain of 20 l.

Makers to keep Starch of which no Account hath been taken separate, on Pain of 5 l.

Fraudulently hiding Starch, forfeits 20 l.

Materials for making Starch found in private Workhouse, forfeited, &c.

Starch Materials, &c. liable to the Duties in Arrear, &c.

by such Maker or Makers for any Starch made by him, her, or them, or in his or their Working-houses or Places aforesaid, and shall also be subject to all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Person or Persons so using such Work-house, or other Place, for any Offence against this Act relating to the said Duties upon Starch; and that it shall and may be lawful, in all such Cases, to levy Debts and Penalties, and use such Proceedings as may lawfully be done by this Act, in relation to Starch, in case the Debtor or Offender were the true and lawful Owner of the same.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Starch which any Starch-makers, or other Sellers and Dealers in Starch in Great Britain, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, shall be possessed of, and interested in, upon the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, for Sale, there shall be yielded and paid to her Majesty the like respective Rates as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Starch respectively to be made or imported after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve; and that all and every the said Starch-makers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Starch, and all and every other Person and Persons, who, in Trust for them, or any of them, or for the Use of them, or any of them, shall be possessed of, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in his, her, or their Work-house, Warehouse, Store-house, Shop, Room, or other Place or Places whatsoever, upon the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, any Stock, Parcel, or Quantity of Starch, of Foreign or British Manufacture, for Sale, shall, on or before the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, make a true and particular Entry thereof, at the Office for the said Duties on Starch, within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, and the Starch for which no such Entry shall have been made; and within six Days after he, she, or they shall have made, or ought to have made such Entries, as aforesaid, shall pay down the Duties hereby payable for such Starch, or within the said six Days, shall give Security to the proper Officers for paying the same Duties to her Majesty's Use, within three Months then next ensuing; and in case the said Duties for such Stock of Starch be paid down within the said six Days, then there shall be allowed out of the same Duty for such Prompt Payment, an Allowance after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Time of three Months, and that all and every such Starch-makers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Starch, who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment, or to give such Security for Payment of the said Duties, upon his, her, or their said Stock of Starch, within the Time by this Act limited for that Purpose, shall forfeit double the Sum of the said Duty which should have been so paid or secured by him, her, or them, as aforesaid; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officers for the same Duties respectively, to take a true and particular Account of all such Stock or Quantities of Starch as any Starch-makers or other Sellers and Dealers in Starch, or any in Trust for them, shall, on the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, have or be possessed of; and for that Purpose shall be permitted in the Day-time to enter into any Shop, Warehouse, Work-house, or any Dwelling-house, Out-house, or other Places belonging to such Starch-makers, and other Sellers and Dealers in Starch, and every of them, who are hereby required to permit such Officer and Officers, upon his or their Request, to make such Entrance on the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, or afterwards, at any Time before the Duty last mentioned shall be paid or secured, and to take an Account of the Quantity of such Starch, under the Penalty of twenty Pounds; and if any Person or Persons, having on the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Stock or Quantity of Starch, chargeable by this Act with the said Duties for any Stock of Starch, as aforesaid, shall clandestinely remove or carry away, or cause or suffer to be removed or carried away the same, or any Part thereof, before her Majesty's Duties thereupon shall be paid or secured, as aforesaid, or shall fraudulently conceal or hide any Part of his, her, or their said Stock of Starch; that then, and in every such Case, he, she, or they so offending, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in all and every such Case and Cases, the Stock or Quantity of Starch which shall be so clandestinely removed or carried away, or fraudulently concealed or hid, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any the said Officers for the said Duties on Starch; and the Person or Persons, in whose Custody such Stock of Starch shall be found, who shall not, before the Discovery thereof, give Notice at the next Office for the said Duties on Starch, of the Stock or Quantity of Starch, so in his, her, or their Custody, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Pound Weight.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesty's Duties by this Act payable for any Quantities of Starch whatsoever, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Starch from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesty's Duties for the same, to export such Starch for any Foreign Parts, by Way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of Starch, which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same, or any Part thereof, shall not be reloaded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customer or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation, is hereby directed and authorized to take, in her Majesty's Name; and to her Use.

XXVI. Provided always, That if after the Shipping any such Starch to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tendering such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after-mentioned, the Starch so shipped to be exported, or any Part thereof, shall be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain, that then, and in every such Case (over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesty's Use) all the Starch which shall be landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

XXVII. And it is also hereby enacted, That any Person or Persons, who shall export any Starch to any Foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, That the

On Oath that the Duty hath been paid, and

the Duty of such Starch hath been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Customer or Collector of the Port of Exportation is hereby empowered to administer) and thereupon the said Customer or Collector of the said Port of Exportation, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of the Starch so exported, and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Starch in such County or Place where the said Starch was exported (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act, for the Starch so exported, to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duties of Starch are hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture out of any Duties upon Starch arising by this Act; or if the Duty of such Starch so exported, were only secured and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Securities for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof; or by any other Law now in Force, relating to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, settled, or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the said Duties upon Starch hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in relation to the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Starch, shall be sued for, levied, and recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture (not otherwise directed by this Act) shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety, besides Full Costs of Suit, to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Persons as shall be, in Pursuance of this Act, appointed Commissioners for the Duties on Starch to be made in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall and may have and exercise the same, or like Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and may adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order, in all Cases and Matters relating to the said Duties on Starch arising within the Limits aforesaid, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, may or lawfully can exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order in the like Cases or Matters, in relation to the said Duties of Excise, by any Law or Statute now in Force.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, no Perfumer, Barber, or Sellers of Hair Powder, shall mix any Powder of Alabaster, Plaster of Paris, Whiting, Lime, or other Matter or Thing of the like Nature (Sweet Scents only excepted) with any Starch or Powder of Starch, to be made use of for the making of Hair Powder, under Pain of forfeiting all the Hair Powder so made, and the Sum of fifty Pounds for every such Offence; the one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety (besides Full Costs of Suit) to the Seizor or Informer, to be recovered as any other Penalties concerning the Duties on Starch are by this Act recoverable; and if any Perfumer, Barber, Maker or Seller of Powder shall, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, presume to expose or offer to Sale, or sell, vend, or utter any Hair Powder, which shall be mixed or wrought up with any such Powder of Alabaster, Plaster of Paris, Whiting, Lime, or other Matter or Thing of like Nature (Sweet Scents only excepted) that then, and in such Case, all and every such Perfumer, Barber, Maker or Seller of Powder, and such other Person or Persons, shall not only lose and forfeit all such Powder so exposed or offered to Sale, as aforesaid, but also the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered and divided in like Manner.

XXXII. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, answered and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Coffee, Tea, and Drugs of what Kind soever (Dying Drugs imported from any Foreign Parts, and Turpentine imported from the British Plantations, excepted) which at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties imposed upon or payable for the same, or any of them) the several new Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money following; that is to say, For all Coffee imported, as aforesaid, twelve Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and proportionally for great or lesser Quantities: For all Kinds of Tea imported from any Place or Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East India Company, two Shillings for every such Pound Weight; and for all Kinds of Tea imported from any other Place or Places, five Shillings for every such Pound Weight, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities of Tea: And on Debenture from the Customer, &c. Collector to repay the Duties. Concerning the Duties on Starch, see further 12 Ann. stat. 2. c. 9. 1 Geo. 1. stat. 1. c. 2. 3 Geo. 1. c. 4. 4 Geo. 2. c. 14.

All the Powers in 12 Car. 2. c. 24. and other Excise Acts, to be in Force for managing these Duties on Starch.

All Fines to be sued for as by the Laws of Excise.

Moiety to the Crown, Moiety to the Informer.

Commissioners for these Duties to have the same Jurisdiction as Commissioners of Excise.

No Perfumer, Barber, &c. to mix Alabaster, &c. with any Powder, on Forfeiture of the Powder, and 50 l.

Exposing such Mixture to Sale forfeits the Powder and 20 l.

5 Geo. 1. c. 11.
§. 5.

What shall be deemed clandestine Importation of Coffee and Tea.

XXXV. And for preventing all clandestine importing or bringing of Coffee or such Tea, as aforesaid, into this Kingdom of Great Britain; be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, from and after the said sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Coffee and Tea, shall import or bring any Coffee, or such Tea as is to be secured in such Warehouses, as aforesaid, into Great Britain, and shall not make due Entries thereof, and bring the same into the said Warehouse or Warehouses, as aforesaid, the same shall be and is hereby adjudged to be clandestine running, and unlawful Importation thereof; and such Person and Persons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, offending therein, and their Abettors, shall forfeit all the Coffee and Tea so clandestinely run, and the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and divided; one Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety, together with Full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons that shall seize, inform, or sue for the same in any of her Majesty's Courts aforesaid.

deemed clandestine carrying out of Coffee
and Tea.

XXXVI. And for preventing the clandestine carrying any the said Coffee or Tea out of the said Warehouses; be it enacted, That the Keeper or Keepers of the said Warehouse and Warehouses (who shall be appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs, and be at the Charge of the Importers) shall keep one or more more Book or Books, wherein he or they shall fairly enter or write down an exact particular and true Account of all Coffee and Tea which shall be brought into, and carried out of his or their said Warehouse and Warehouses, and the Days and Times when the same was so brought in and carried out, and how much thereof was delivered out to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, and how much for Exportation, as aforesaid, and shall at the End of every six Months transmit in Writing an exact Account thereof, upon Oath, to the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, together with an exact Account of how much shall be remaining in his or their said Warehouse or Warehouses respectively; and the said Commissioners are hereby impowered and enjoined, within one Month after the same shall be transmitted to them, as aforesaid, to appoint one or more Person or Persons to inspect the said Book or Books, Warehouse or Warehouses, and to examine the same Accounts; and if upon Examination it shall appear that any of the said Coffee or Tea was delivered out otherwise than as aforesaid, or before Payment of her Majesty's Duties for such of the said Coffee or Tea as shall be sold to be consumed in Great Britain, or giving such Security, as aforesaid, for such of the said Coffee or Tea as shall be delivered out for Exportation, as aforesaid, then the Warehouse-keeper or Warehouse-keepers offending therein shall not only be disabled to hold or enjoy any publick Employment, but also shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered and divided, to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majesty, and the other Moiety thereof, with Full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall seize, sue, or inform for the same in any the Courts aforesaid.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Coffee and Tea, so lodged in any Warehouse or Warehouses, to affix one Lock to every such Warehouse, the Key of which shall remain in the Custody of such Proprietor or Proprietors; and that he or they may in the Presence of the said Warehouse-keeper or Warehouse-keepers (who is and are hereby obliged to attend at all reasonable Times for that Purpose) view, sort, and receive out the said Coffee and Tea, or any Part thereof, in Manner following, that is to say, such of the said Coffee or Tea as shall be sold to be consumed in Great Britain, upon paying the Remainder of all the Duties imposed thereon, as aforesaid, and such of the said Coffee or Tea as shall be sold for Exportation, upon giving such Security as is before in that Behalf expressed.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the said sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, all the Duties and Impositions (so much as is to be paid down in ready Money, as aforesaid, excepted) for the said Coffee or Tea delivered out of the said Warehouses to be consumed in Great Britain, shall be paid upon such Delivery out of the Warehouse, and not otherwise; and that from and after the said sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, all Duties imposed upon such of the said Coffee or Tea as shall be delivered for Exportation, and exported accordingly (except so much as was paid down in ready Money, as aforesaid) shall be discharged; and from thenceforth no Drawback or Allowance shall be paid or made out of her Majesty's Customs for or on Account of the Exportation of any such Coffee or Tea; any thing herein, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. Provided always, That if any Importers of Coffee or Tea shall pay down all her Majesty's Duties for the same, upon the Importation, and before the Landing thereof, then such Importers shall not be obliged to secure the same in a Warehouse or Warehouses, as aforesaid.

XL. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties hereby granted upon imported Tea and Drugs (except such Tea as shall be imported from any Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East India Company) chargeable by this Act, shall be raised, levied, recovered, answered, and paid (to and for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Allowances, as the other Duties upon the same Goods respectively are by any Law or Statute now in force, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered and answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That in case any of the said Tea and Drugs hereby charged, (and except as before excepted) upon which the said new Duties by this Act granted, shall, upon the Importation thereof, be duly paid or secured to be paid, be again exported at any Time or Times within eighteen Months by British Merchants, or within nine Months by Aliens, to be accounted from the respective Times of the Importation of the said Goods inwards, and that Proof be first made upon Oath, That the said Tea or Drugs, except as before excepted, so exported, be the same for which the said Duties are paid, or secured to be paid, as aforesaid, That then and in every such Case, and not otherwise, the same Duties so paid shall, without any Delay or Reward, be wholly repaid out of any the Duties upon Tea and Drugs by this Act granted, or the Security for such of the said Duties as shall be secured shall be vacated (on a Debenture or Debentures regularly certified and sworn to) as to so much of the said Tea and Drugs as shall be so exported; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLII. And whereas several Companies, and divers Merchants Importers, have or may have, on the sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, several Stocks or Quantities of Coffee and Tea; It is hereby further enacted, That all and every such Companies and Merchants Importers, having on the sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons in Trust for them or any of them, or for their or any of their Benefit or Account, any Stock or Quantity of Coffee or Tea, or either of them, within the Realm of Great Britain, being for Sale, shall yield and pay unto her Majesty the like respective Duties for the same, as are by this Act granted and to be paid for and upon the like Goods respectively, to be imported after the said sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve; the said Duties for such Stocks to be answered and paid to her Majesty's Use, within six Months after the said sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve.

XLIII. And to the end the said Stocks of Coffee and Tea, hereby intended to be charged may be known, and the Duties thereupon duly ascertained and secured; It is hereby enacted, That all and every the said Companies and Merchants Importers of Coffee and Tea, shall, on or before the sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, make a just Entry thereof at the Custom-house nearest the Place where the said Stocks of such Goods do remain, as aforesaid, and permit the proper Officers of the Customs thereunto to be appointed, at any Time before the sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, to enter into their and every of their Warehouses or Places where such Stocks are to be found, and to view, weigh, and take Account of the same; and if any such Company or such Merchants Importers shall neglect to make such Entry at the Custom-house within the Time aforesaid, or shall refuse to permit such Officer to enter into their or any of their Warehouses or other Places (being thereunto required) there to view the said Stock, or any Part thereof, or shall hide, remove, or convey away the said Stock or any Part thereof, with Intent to defraud her Majesty, or shall not pay her Majesty's Duties for the same, according to the true Meaning of this Act, then, for every or any such Offence, the Company, or such Merchant Importer respectively so offending, shall forfeit and lose his, her, or their said Stocks of Coffee and Tea, or the Value thereof; one Half to her Majesty, and the other Half thereof to the Use of the Seizor or Informer, to be recovered in any of her Majesty's Courts aforesaid.

XLIV. Provided always, That if any such Companies or Persons so chargeable for any Stocks of Coffee or Tea, shall pay her Majesty's Duties for the same, before the End of the said six Months, then they respectively shall be allowed for such prompt Payment after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for every Sum so advanced; and in case of Exportation thereof, or any Part thereof, within eighteen Months after Entry made, as aforesaid, the said Duties payable by this Act for such Part of the same Stocks, as shall be so exported, shall be discharged or repaid.

5 Geo. 1. c. 11. 10 Geo. 1. c. 10. 11 Geo. 1. c. 30. 12 Geo. 1. c. 28. 4 Geo. 2. c. 14. 5 Geo. 2. c. 24. 18 Geo. 2. c. 26. 21 Geo. 2. c. 14. 32 Geo. 2. c. 10.

XLV. And whereas, upon the Garbling and Cleaning of Pepper, great Quantities of Stones, Dirt, and Trash have been found, and now remaining in the Warehouses appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs for receiving of Pepper, by virtue of the Act of the ninth of the Queen, and more of the same may probably be found among the Pepper, to be imported, and the same being of no Use, either to the Importers or Buyers; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs for the time being, shall have hereby, at the Request of the Importers or Buyers, Power to cause such Stones, Dirt, or other Trash, to be destroyed, from time to time, in such Manner as they shall think fit, so as no Prejudice doth or shall arise to the Revenue thereby; and the said Commissioners shall have the like Power, with respect to any Stones, Dirt, or Trash that may be found amongst Coffee to be lodged in Warehouses, in pursuance of this Act; and the respective Ware-house Keepers shall be discharged in their respective Books, of so much Pepper or Coffee as shall be so destroyed, as aforesaid.

XLVI. And moreover be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, answered and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Gilt and Silver Wire, which at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties already imposed thereupon) the Duties following, that is to say, For all Gilt Wire imported, as aforesaid, a Duty after the Rate of one Shilling for every Ounce Troy; and for all Silver Wire imported, as aforesaid, nine Pence for every such Ounce, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importer thereof, from time to time, before the landing of the same; and for and upon all Gilt and Silver Wire, which at any Time or Times, within or during the same Term, shall be made in Great Britain, the Duties following; that is to say, For all Gilt Wire so made in Great Britain, a Duty after the Rate of eight Pence for every Ounce Troy; and for all Silver Wire, so made in Great Britain, a Duty after the Rate of six Pence for every Ounce Troy, and proportionably for greater or lesser Quantities, to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

XLVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire imported, shall be raised, levied, recovered, and paid, and be brought into the said Exchequer (to and for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon imported Sope, granted by one other Act of this Session of Parliament, and the Duties on Starch, granted by this Act, or any of them, are prescribed and appointed to be raised, levied, recovered, answered and paid.

XLVIII. And for the better ascertaining, charging, and securing the Duties by this Act set and imposed upon gilt and Silver Wire made in Great Britain; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain now being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall, from time to time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose, appoint, shall be her Majesty's Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Duties set and imposed upon all the Gilt and Silver Wire made within Great Britain, chargeable by this Act; which said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall and have hereby Power, by Commissions under their respective Hands and Seals, to substitute and appoint under them such Officers as shall be requisite in that Behalf; and that the same Commissioners and Officers for the said Duties on Wire shall have out of those Duties such Salaries and Rewards for their Services therein, as the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall think reasonable to establish or allow in that Behalf; and that the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on Wire to be made in Great Britain, for the time being, shall, from time to time, cause all the Money to arise for the said said Duties on Gilt and Silver Wire to be made in Great Britain (the necessary Charges of Management excepted) to be paid, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities herein after expressed.

XLIX. And it is hereby enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, who at any Time or Times within or during the Term last-mentioned shall draw or cause to be drawn, any Gold or Silver into big Wire in Great Britain, shall give Notice in Writing at the next Office for the said Duties on Wire, of their respective Names and Places of Abode, and of the Houses or Places by them respectively made use of, for the drawing or making of such Wire therein, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Offence in drawing or causing to be drawn any such Wire, in any House or Place, without having first notified the same, as aforesaid; and that no Refiner, Wire-drawer, or other Person or Persons shall, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Wire, draw or cause to be drawn any Gold or Silver into such Wire as is commonly called Big Wire, at any House or Place other than some common Bar-house, to be approved by the Commissioners for the said Duties on Wire for that Purpose, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Offence therein.

L. And it is hereby enacted, That from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Wire hereby granted, all and every the Refiners, Wire-drawers, and other Persons, who shall draw, or cause to be drawn, any Gilt or Silver Wire, commonly called Big Wire, as aforesaid, shall once in every Month make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office for the said Duties of all the Gilt and Silver Wire by them severally made or drawn within such Month respectively; which Entries shall contain the Weight and Kinds of all the Wire mentioned therein, and how much thereof respectively was made in each Week, on Pain to forfeit, for every Neglect of Entry, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; which Entry shall be made upon the Oath of the Refiner, or other Person for whom the said Wire was drawn, or of the chief Workman employed therein, or (if he or she be a Quaker) then upon his or their solemn Affirmation, to the best of their respective Knowledge and Belief; which Entries, Oaths, and Affirmations shall and may be made with, and administered by such Officer or Officers as shall be appointed to take the same, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever.

LI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Refiner, Wire-drawer, and other Person, who shall draw, or cause to be drawn, any Gold or Silver Wire, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, within six Weeks after they respectively shall make, or ought to have made, such Entry as aforesaid, pay and clear off all the said Duties for Gilt and Silver Wire which shall be due from them respectively, upon Pain of forfeiting double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall have been so refused or neglected.

LII. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That all and every the Officers for the said Duties on Wire, shall at all Times, by Day or by Night, and if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, be permitted, upon his or their Request, to enter the Bar-house, Work-house, or other Place which shall be made use of by any Person or Persons for the drawing or making of Gilt or Silver Wire, commonly called Big Wire, liable to the said Duties, and to take an Account of the just Weight of the Gilt and Silver Wire which shall have been so drawn or made from time to time; and shall thereof make Return in Writing to the Commissioners of the said Duties upon Wire, or such as they shall appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy thereof (if demanded) with the Maker of the said Wire, upon whom such Return of the said Officer shall be a Charge; and if the said Officer shall refuse to give or leave such Copy (being demanded, as aforesaid) every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings to every such Refiner, Wire-drawer, or other Person, as aforesaid.

LIII. Provided always, That if such Charge be made by taking the Weight of the Gold and Silver in such Big Wire at the Bar-house, as aforesaid, then an Allowance of one fifth Part shall be made in Consideration of the Waste to be sustained in reducing the same to Small Wire.

LIV. Provided also, That every Officer who shall be empowered to make such Charge, as aforesaid, shall, in the first Place, be sworn for the due and faithful Execution of his Office; which Oath shall and may be administered by all or any the Commissioners of the said Duties upon Wire, or by any Justice of the Peace, who shall give to such Officer a Certificate thereof; and all Persons chargeable with the said Duties upon Wire, are hereby required to keep sufficient and just Scales and Weights at the Place or Places where he, she or they do make such Wire, and permit and assist the Officer to make use thereof for the Purposes aforesaid, under the Penalty of ten Pounds, to be forfeited and lost for not keeping such Scales and Weights, or for not permitting and assisting the Officer to use the same, as aforesaid.

LV. And be it enacted, That if any Maker of Wire shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Execution of any the Powers given to him or them by this Act, for ascertaining and securing the said Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire, the Person or Persons offending therein shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

LVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Refiner, Wire-drawer, or Person, who shall draw, or cause to be drawn, any Gilt or Silver Wire, as aforesaid, after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Wire, shall (under Pain of forfeiting forty Pounds for every Offence) remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away, any Gilt or Silver Wire by or for him, her, or them made or drawn, of which no Account shall have been first taken by the proper Officer of the said Duties, from the Bar-house, or Place where the same Wire shall have been made or drawn, without giving to the proper Officer four and twenty Hours Notice at the least of his, her or their Intention to remove, carry, or send away the same, that so the said Officer (without his own wilful Default) may have Time to weigh and take an Account thereof.

LVII. And for the better ascertaining the said Duties upon Wire, It is hereby enacted, That all Persons, by or for whom any Wire shall be made or drawn, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, keep all LXII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, at any Time or Times after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the Continuance of the said Duties on Gilt and Silver Wire, export, by Way of Merchandize, for any Foreign Parts, any Gold or Silver Thread, or any Gold or Silver Lace or Fringe, made of Plate Wire spun upon Silk, and shall give sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Thread, or of such Lace or Fringe, intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall not be relanded or brought again into Great Britain, and shall make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation, as aforesaid, that the said Gold and Silver Thread, or the said Gold and Silver Lace, or Fringe, was actually made after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twelve (which Securities shall be taken in her Majesty's Name, and to her Use; and the said Oaths and Affirmations shall be administered by the Customer or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation) that then and in every such Case, the said Customer or Collector shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of such Gold or Silver Thread, and Gold and Silver Lace or Fringe, so exported or shipped to be exported, and the Exportation or Shipping thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector or Receiver for the said Duties upon Wire (upon producing the said Debentures so certified to him) shall forthwith pay a Drawback or Allowance, after the Rate of five Shillings for every Pound Weight Averdupois, of such Silver Thread, Lace, or Fringe, and after the Rate of six Shillings and eight Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, of such Gold Lace, Thread, or Fringe, out of the Monies of the said Duties on Wire then in the Hands of such Receiver or Collector, without Fee or Reward; and if such Receiver or Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners of the said Duties upon Wire are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid the said Debenture out of any the Duties on Gilt or Silver Wire arising by this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Courts of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof; or by any other Law in Force relating to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, settled, or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in such Case for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the said Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

LXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, in relation to the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Gilt and Silver Wire, shall be sued for, levied, and recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture is and may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any her Majesty's Courts before mentioned; and that one Moiety of such Fine, Penalty and Forfeiture, relating to the said Duties on Wire (not otherwise directed by this Act) shall be to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

LXV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Persons as shall be in pursuance of this Act appointed Commissioners for the Duties on Gilt and Silver Wire, to be made in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall and may have and exercise the same or like Jurisdiction, Power and Authority, and may adjudge, determine, mitigate or order, in all Cases and Matters relating to the said Duties on Gilt and Silver Wire arising within the Limits aforesaid, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, may or lawfully can exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate or order, in the like Cases or Matters in relation to the said Duties of Excise, by any Law or Statute now in Force.

LXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the said Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire by this Act granted, no Gold or Silver Thread, Lace, Fringe, or other Work made thereof, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, upon Pain of being forfeited, and upon the further Penalty of one hundred Pounds to be paid by the Importer for every Parcel so imported; and that one Moiety of such Forfeitures shall be to the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety (besides Full Costs of Suit) to him or them that shall seize, inform, or sue for the same in any of her Majesty's Courts aforesaid.

LXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Policy of Assurance, which shall, at any time or times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, be made or entered into within the Cities of London or Westminster, or elsewhere within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, the Sum of two Shillings and four Pence, over and above all such Duties as are already chargeable upon the same, by any Act or Acts of Parliament formerly made in that Behalf.

LXVIII. And be it declared and further enacted, That all Deeds, Instruments and Writings, for the Payment of any Sum of Money upon the Loss of any Ship or Goods, or upon any Loss by Fire, or for any other Purpose for which any Writing, commonly called a Policy of Assurance or Insurance, is or hath been usually made, shall be construed, deemed and adjudged to be Policies of Assurance within this Act, and to be charged with the Duty last mentioned.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That the same Duty upon such Policies, Deeds, Instruments, and Writings, as aforesaid, shall be under the Government of the Commissioners for the time being, appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and empowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to cause one or more new Stamp or Stamps to be provided, to denote the same Duty, and to do all other Things necessary to be by them done for the putting this Act in due Execution, with relation to the same Duty.

LXX. And for the better securing the same Duty, be it further enacted, That all Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, upon which any such Policy shall be written or printed, shall, before any Name of any Person, or any particular Day, Time, or Sum of Money shall be written or printed therein, be brought to the Head Office for stamping and marking of Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and the same Commissioners, by themselves or their Officers, shall forthwith, upon Demand, from time to time, stamp or mark, as this Act directs, any Quantities or Parcels of such Vellum, Parchment or Paper, he or they paying the Duty hereby payable for the same, without any Fee or Reward, and without Delay; which Stamp or Mark to be put thereupon, in pursuance of this Act, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same Duty.

LXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, who shall, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, write or cause to be written, any Name of any Person, or any Day, Time, or Sum of Money, in or upon such Policy of Assurance, Deed, Instrument, or Writing, as aforesaid, or sign, seal, execute, or subscribe the same, before the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereupon the same shall be printed or written, shall appear to have been so duly stamped or marked, that then every such Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds; the one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with Full Costs of Suit, to such Person or Persons as shall inform and sue for the same in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed; and that if any such Policy of Assurance shall, during the Term last mentioned, be signed, sealed, executed, or subscribed, upon Vellum, Parchment or Paper, not appearing to have been duly stamped or marked according to Law, that then and in every such Case, there shall be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors (over and above the Duties hereby payable) for every such Policy of Assurance, the Sum of five Pounds; and that no such Policy of Assurance shall be available in Law or Equity, or be given in Evidence, or admitted in any Court, unless as well the said Duty hereby charged, as the said Sum of five Pounds shall be first paid to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and a Receipt produced for the same, under the Hand of the Receiver General for the time being of the Stamp Duties, or of his Deputy or Clerk, and until the Vellum, Parchment or Paper, on which such Policy of Assurance is so signed, sealed, executed, or subscribed, shall be marked or stamped according to the true Meaning hereof; and the said Receiver General, and his Deputy or Clerk, are hereby enjoined and required, upon Payment or Tender of the said Duty payable by virtue hereof, and of the said Sum of five Pounds, to give a Receipt for such Money, and the other proper Officers are thereupon required to mark or stamp such Policy of Assurance with the proper Mark or Stamp requisite in that Behalf.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any time or times hereafter, counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark, to resemble any Stamp or Mark, which shall be provided, made or used, in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, upon any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of the Duty hereby granted and made payable for or in respect of such Policy of Assurance, or shall utter, vend or sell any Vellum, Parchment or Paper with counterfeit Mark or Stamp thereupon, knowing such Mark or Stamp to be counterfeit; or if any Person whatsoever shall privately and fraudulently use any Stamp or Mark, which shall be provided or used in pursuance of this Act, so as thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of the Duty hereby granted for such Policy of Assurance, then every such Person so offending, and being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all other Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Directions, Provisions, Articles, Matters and Things, which are enacted, imposed, or contained in one other Act made in this present Session of Parliament (wherein certain other Duties are granted upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper) with relation to the Duties thereby granted and made payable, for and in respect of any Surrender of or Admittance to any Copyhold Lands or Tenements within those Parts of Great Britain, called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not hereby otherwise directed or provided for, shall be practised, applied, observed and executed, with relation to the said Duty on Policies of Assurance, in as full and ample Manner, as if the same, and every of them, were herein fully and particularly repeated and re-enacted with relation to the same Duty hereby granted.

LXXIV. And be it hereby enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act, or in any other Act of Parliament passed for granting any Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper, shall extend, or be construed constituted to extend, to charge the said Stamp Duties, or any of them, on any Warrants or Instruments the Chief Justices in Eyre, or by any Warden, Lieutenant, or other Officer of her Majesty's Forests or Chases, or any of them, or by their Officers, or any of them, for any Matter or Thing relating to their respective Offices.

LXXXV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That every Person, who shall be appointed a Commissioner for all or any the Duties granted by this Act, and every subordinate Officer under such Commissioners, who shall receive any Salary or Allowance in respect of his Office (the several Commissioners and Officers of the Customs excepted) shall, before his acting in his respective Trust, take an Oath for his due and faithful Execution of the same, according to this Act; which Oath shall and may be administered to any such Commissioners by any other Person who shall be appointed a Commissioner, as aforesaid, and to the said Officers respectively, by any one of the said Commissioners, or by one Justice of the Peace, who shall give to the Officer a Certificate thereof gratis.

LXXXVI. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, or in pursuance of the said former Act (intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for prosecuting the War, and other her Majesty's most necessary Occasions,) or if any Person or Persons now is, or hereafter shall be sued or prosecuted for any Matter or Thing by him or them done in pursuance of an Act of the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign, For laying certain Duties on Candles, and certain Rates upon Monies to be given with Clerks and Apprentices, or in pursuance of an Act of the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, For granting further Duties on Candles, and other Duties therein mentioned, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

LXXXVII. And to the end all the said Rates and Duties upon Skins and Hides, and Pieces of Skins and Hides, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, Gilt and Silver Wire, Policies of Assurance, and any other Duties before by this Act granted, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of executing this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer, according to the true Meaning hereof, it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for managing, raising, collecting, and paying the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein, shall perform their several Duties in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the same Rates and Duties, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum, not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, and misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last-mentioned.

LXXXVIII. And whereas it is intended that the said several Rates and Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, and upon Starch, Coffee, Tea, and Drugs, and upon Gilt and Silver Wire, and the said Duties upon Policies of Assurance, and all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall arise or be brought into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer, by, upon, or for all and every or any the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, shall all together be made a Fund or Security for raising any Sum not exceeding eighteen hundred thousand Pounds, towards your Majesty's Supply, by such Methods, and in such Manner and Form as are herein after mentioned: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for and towards the raising the said Sum of eighteen hundred thousand Pounds, do further most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of thirty-two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twelve, the full Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by or for the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, from time to time, in case the same shall extend to the said Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds, shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer of or for all the Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money charged, as aforesaid, shall not amount to one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same shall extend, shall be Part of the said yearly Fund of one hundred sixty-eight thousand and three Pounds per Annum, for and towards the answering and paying of all and every the principal Sums herein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of two Millions three hundred forty-one thousand nine hundred and ninety Pounds, principal Money, together with Interest for the same after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, as herein after is also mentioned; and in case the said Monies by this Act appointed or appropriated, as aforesaid, shall, at any Time or Times, appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer, for all the Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money charged, as aforesaid, shall not amount to Commissioners and Officers to be sworn.

Persons sued upon this Act, or the Leather or Candle Acts, may plead the General Issue. 9 Annæ, c. 11.

CVI. And for the more effectual preventing the Frauds of the Chandlers and Makers of Candles for Sale, whereby her Majesty's Duties upon Candles are very much lessened; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale, who, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall make any Candles for Sale, shall, before he begins to make or dip any Making or Course of Candles, declare to the Officer or Officers appointed to take an Account of the same, the Number of Sticks which he designs to make at such Making or Course, and also the Sizes of the Candles whereof each Stick is to consist; and if such Making or Course is intended to be of Mould Candles, then such Maker shall declare to such Officer or Officers, before he begins to fill any of the said Moulds, how many Moulds he intends to fill at such Making, and how often he intends at such Making to draw the said Moulds; and in case any Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale, shall neglect or refuse to make such Declaration, as aforesaid, or shall, after such Declaration made, make any Increase of his Number of Sticks, or of the Sizes of his Candles in such Making or Course, over and above the Number and Sizes so declared, as aforesaid, or in the Case of making of Mould Candles shall fill a greater Number of Moulds, or draw such Moulds oftener than shall be declared, as aforesaid; or in case any Chandler or Maker of Candles shall, after the Weighing of any Making of Candles by the Officer or Officers appointed to take an Account of the same, increase the Weight of such Candles so weighed, by redipping the same, or otherwise; then and in any of the said Cases, such Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered, levied, and mitigated, by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture can or may be recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any of the Laws of Excise, and to go one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

CVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twelve, no Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale shall begin to make any Course or Making of Candles, without Notice thereof first given to the Officer for the said Duties, for the Place or Division where such Maker shall inhabit, to the Intent that such Officer may take an Account of the same, unless at such Times as are herein after mentioned; that is to say, from the twentieth Day of September to the twenty-fifth Day of March, yearly, between the Hours of seven in the Morning and five in the Evening; and from the said twenty-fifth Day of March to the twenty-ninth Day of September, yearly, between the Hours of five in the Morning and seven in the Evening; upon Pain, that every such Chandler or Maker of Candles, doing contrary hereunto, shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered, levied, mitigated, and distributed, as is last before mentioned.

CVIII. And whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for ascertaining and directing the Payments of the Allowances to be made for or upon the Exportation from Scotland of Fish, Beef, and Pork, cured with Foreign Salt, imported before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven; and for disposing of such Salt still remaining in the Hands of her Majesty's Subjects there; and for ascertaining and securing the Allowances for Fish and Flesh exported and to be exported from Scotland for the future; it is amongst other Things enacted, That the Allowances therein granted shall be paid and satisfied out of any her Majesty's Duties arising upon Salt in Scotland, or out of the Revenues of Customs and Excise in Scotland, or any of them, with Preference to all other Payments whatsoever to be made out of the same, the Charge of raising and managing those Revenues, and the Fees, Salaries, and other Charges, allowed or to be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for keeping up the Court of Session and Justiciary, and the Exchequer Court in Scotland, always excepted and foreprized: And whereas since the Union the Expence of keeping up the said Courts could no otherwise be provided for there than out of the Duties of Customs and Excise; and Doubts may arise upon the Provisions made by the Act above recited for that Purpose: For obviating and preventing of all such Doubts, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fees, Salaries, and other Charges, allowed or to be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for keeping up the Courts of Session, and Justiciary, and Exchequer Court of Scotland, are and may be chargeable upon any Parts of the said Customs and Excise, preferable to all other Payments whatsoever, the Charge of Management excepted, but so as not any Ways to prevent any Application of the Excessence out of the said Customs and Excise appointed by any former Laws.

CIX. And whereas notwithstanding the Provision made for suppressing of unlawful Lotteries, by an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for suppressing of Lotteries; and the further Provision made for suppressing the same, and for the preventing the erecting or setting up any Office or Place, for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings, or Service, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reviving, continuing, and appropriating certain Duties upon several Commodities to be exported, and certain Duties upon Coals to be waterborn and carried Coastwise; and for granting further Duties upon Candles for thirty-two Years; to raise fifteen ‘hundred thousand Pounds by way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and eleven; and for suppressing of such unlawful Lotteries, and such Insurance Offices, as are therein mentioned; many ill disposed Persons, with Design to evade the said Laws, have of late presumed to erect and set up Offices or Places for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings, or Service, and also other Offices or Places under the Denominations of Sales of Gloves, of Fans, of Cards, of Numbers, and of the Queen’s Picture, for the Improvement of small Sums of Money; and Advertisements thereof are daily published in the common printed News Papers, and otherwise; which Practices are prejudicial to the Publick, and to the Trade of this Kingdom, and tend to defraud her Majesty’s Subjects: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act of the tenth Year of the late King WILLIAM, and also the said Act of the said last Session of Parliament, shall be duly put in Execution for the effectual preventing and suppressing all such unlawful Lotteries and Offices; and further, That every Person or Persons who, after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall erect, set up, or keep any Office or Place, for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings, or Service, or on any of them, or any other Office or Place, under the Denominations of Sales of Gloves, of Fans, of Cards, of Numbers, of the Queen’s Picture, for the Improvement of small Sums of Money, or the like Offices or Places, under the Pretence of improving small Sums of Money, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty’s Courts aforesaid, wherein no Esloin, Protection, Wager of Law, nor any more than one Imparance shall be allowed; one third Part thereof to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, one other third Part thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish of the Place where the Offence shall be committed, and the other third Part thereof, together with Full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same: And every Printer or other Person, who, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall, by Writing or Printing, publish the setting up or keeping any such Office or Place under any the Denominations aforesaid, or like Denominations, for the Improvement of small Sums of Money, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and distributed in such Manner as the Penalty last mentioned is to be recovered and distributed; and every Person or Persons who, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, in any Office or Place, before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, erected or set up for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings, or Service, or under any other the Denominations aforesaid, or any like Denominations, for Improvement of small Sums, shall make or suffer to be made therein, any new Insurances or Contracts for new Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings, or Service, or receive any Payments into any the Offices or Places aforesaid, for Improvement of small Sums of Money, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and distributed in like Manner.

Proviso for Officers set up before 24 June 1712.

CX. Provided nevertheless, That the Offices or Places erected under the Denominations aforesaid; set up or used before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, may be continued after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, for making good and executing only such Contracts therein respectively made before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, as they might have been continued if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Cake Sope or Ball Sope not obliged to be put into Casks. 10 Annæ, c. 19. §. 8.

Clause in Favour of Mary Ravenell. 8 Annæ, c. 7.

CXI. And whereas by the said Act for laying new Duties on Sope (amongst other Things therein mentioned) it is required, That all Sope to be made during the Term thereby granted, shall, upon the making thereof, be put by the Maker into such Casks as are thereby prescribed, and none other, under the Penalty therein expressed; It is hereby declared, That the same shall not be construed to extend to hard Cake Sope, or Ball Sope; any thing in that Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXII. And whereas in pursuance of an Act of Parliament of the eighth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty new Duties of Excise, and upon several imported Commodities; and for establishing a yearly Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, to raise nine hundred thousand Pounds by Sale of Annuities, and in Default thereof by another Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; Mary Ravenell, Widow, became Purchaser of an Annuity of eighteen Pounds per Annum, and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer the three first Payments, according to the said Act, but by Mistake of her Agent, one Moiety only of the fourth and last Payment was paid, and twenty-five Pounds remaining of the said last Payment is yet unpaid, and by Means thereof the said Mary Ravenell cannot have an Order for Payment of the said Annuity, in pursuance of the said Act; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the several and respective Officers at the Receipt of the Exchequer, to receive from the said Mary Ravenell, for her Majesty’s Use, the Sum of twenty-five Pounds, so omitted to be paid, as aforesaid, and upon the Receipt thereof, to levy such Talley for the said Money, and to make out such Order for the Payment of the said Annuity of eighteen Pounds per Annum, as they respectively might have done in case the said fourth and last Payment had been duly paid according to the Directions of the said Act: the said Act, or any thing therein contained, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

10 Annæ, c. 22.

CXIII. And whereas by an Act passed this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Merchants importing Prize Goods from America, Prize Cocoa of the Growth or Produce of Foreign Plantations, not belonging to her Majesty or her Subjects, taken in America, is to pay only such Duties and Customs as the same would pay if it were of the Growth and Produce of the Plantations belonging to the Crown of Great Britain; on which a Doubt is made by the Officers of her Majesty’s Customs, what Duties and Customs such Prize Cocoa is to pay, there not being any Customs imposed on Cocoa of the Growth or Produce of her Majesty’s Plantations, but on Cocoa imported from the same: For Remedy thereof, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Prize Cocoa of the Growth or Produce of such Foreign Plantations, not belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, taken in America,

Prize Cocoa brought from the Plantations

America, now in Warehouses under the Queen's Locks, or on Board any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, now imported, or that hereafter shall be imported, into any Part of Great Britain, having proper Certificates to prove the same being Prize, according to the Meaning of the said Act for the Relief of Merchants importing Prize Goods from America, shall be subject and liable to no other Duties than what such Prize Cocoa was liable and subject to pay by her Majesty's Declaration made in Favour of the Captors of Prizes, dated the seventeenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and three; any thing in the said Act, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXIV. And whereas by the Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and satisfying the Publick Debts; and for erecting a Corporation to carry on a Trade to the South Seas, and for Encouragement of the Fishery; and for Liberty to trade in unwrought Iron with the Subjects of Spain; and to repeal the Acts for registering of Seamen; (reciting therein, that Part of the Debt of the Navy is ascertained by Tickets made out for Wages due to Seamen, and others, who served on board any of her Majesty's Ships) the Commissioners of the Navy are thereby required to cause an exact and true Account to be made up and delivered to the Lord High Treasurer, of all the said Tickets made out on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven; and so much Money as the said Tickets should amount unto, are, by the said recited Act, directed to be deducted (among other Things therein mentioned) out of the several Sums therein before computed to be the Debt of the Office of the Navy, Victualling, Transport and Ordnance, in order to ascertain the same, to be subscribed into the Joint Stock of the said Company, for the Use of the Publick; and the said Tickets are, by the said recited Act, directed to be subscribed, admitted, and taken into the Joint Stock of the said Company for the respective Sums due upon the same respectively, with such Interest as in the said recited Act is mentioned: And whereas the Tickets made out for Wages due to Seamen, and others, who served on board any of her Majesty's Ships, do only ascertain the Time such Persons served on board any of her Majesty's Ships, but not the Wages or Money due to them, so that such Account cannot be made out as the said recited Act directs; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no more or other of the said Tickets shall be subscribed, admitted, or taken into the Joint Stock of the said Company than have been already subscribed, admitted, and taken thereinto; and that all the Tickets made out, or to be made out for such Service, as aforesaid (except such of them as are already subscribed, admitted, and taken into the Joint Stock of the said Company) shall and may be paid in such Method and Manner as the same might or should be paid if they had not been directed by the said recited Act to be subscribed, admitted, and taken into the Joint Stock of the said Company; and that there shall and may be subscribed into the Joint Stock of the said Company, for the Use of the Publick, such Sum or Sums as might or should have been subscribed for the Use of the Publick, if the said Tickets had not by the said recited Act been directed to be subscribed, admitted, and taken into the Joint Stock of the said Company; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding: And all the Stock which shall be subscribed into the said Joint Stock of the said Company, for the Use of the Publick, shall be applicable and applied, and are hereby appropriated to such Uses, as by the said recited Act is directed, for and concerning the Stock to be subscribed into the said Company, for the Use of the Publick.

CXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, for the Indemnity of such Persons, who through Neglect or Inadvertency, have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties upon Monies given, paid, or contracted for with Apprentices, and to have the Indentures or Contracts stamped within the Times for those Purposes respectively limited by the Acts of Parliament in that Case made; That upon Payment of the respective Rates and Duties so omitted or neglected to be paid, as aforesaid, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, to such Person or Persons to whom the same ought to have been paid, and tending to be stamped such Indentures or Contracts so omitted to be stamped, on or before the twenty fifth Day of December in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve, the same Indentures or Contracts shall be good and available in Law or Equity, and the Apprentices therein named shall be capable of following and exercising the respective intended Trades or Employments, as fully as if the Rates and Duties, so omitted, had been duly paid within the respective Times in the said Acts of Parliament limited; and the Persons who have incurred any Penalty by the Omissions aforesaid, are hereby acquitted and discharged of and from the said Penalty; any thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies lent, and to be lent to her Majesty upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty, to be raised by a Land Tax in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twelve; and so much Money (if any such be) of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred, or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for the raising the said Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved, to discharge the same; and all the Monies lent, or to be lent unto her Majesty, upon another Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for charging and continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twelve; and for applying Part of the Coinage Duties to pay the Deficiencies of the Value of Plate coined; and to pay for recovering the old Money in Scotland; and so much Money of the said Duties of Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made, or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred, or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charge thereby allowable for the raising the said Duties thereby granted, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved tute a Corporation to trade with a Joint Stock to the said East Indies, with such Powers and Authorities, and under such Limitations as in the said Act are for that Purpose set forth; and his said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the said Act, by his Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the fifth Day of September in the tenth Year of his Reign, constitute a Corporation or Body Politick, by the Name of The English Company trading to the East Indies, with such Benefit of Trade, Powers, Privileges and Advantages, and subject to such Restrictions, Conditions and Agreements, as are in the said Letters Patents set forth: And whereas, in and by one other Act made in the sixth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for assuring to the English Company trading to the East Indies, on Account of the United Stock, a longer Time in the Fund and Trade therein mentioned; and for raising thereby the Sum of one Million two hundred thousand Pounds, for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions, it was enacted, That upon Payment to her Majesty of the Sum of one Million two hundred thousand Pounds, at the Times, and upon the Terms in the said Act mentioned, they the said English Company trading to the East Indies, now called The United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, should have such further Time and Interest in the said Fund and Trade to the East Indies, as in the last-mentioned Act is particularly set forth, but subject to the Proviso or Condition of Redemption in the said last-mentioned Act, and herein set forth; that is to say, it was thereby declared and enacted, That at any Time upon three Years Notice, after the five and twentieth Day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, upon the Expiration of the said three Years, and upon Repayment by Parliament, as well of the said Sum of two Millions then before advanced, as of the said Sum of one Million two hundred thousand Pounds then to be advanced, and since advanced and paid accordingly, making in the whole three Millions two hundred thousand Pounds, and of all Arrears which, at the End of the said three Years, shall be due for and upon the said Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, then and from thenceforth, as well the said Duties upon Salt, as the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and also the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and all the Corporations erected in pursuance of the said Acts, or the Benefit of Trade granted by them, or by any Charters made in pursuance thereof, should absolutely cease and determine: Now to the Intent that the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and their Successors, may be the better encouraged to proceed in their Trade, and to make such lasting Settlements for the Support and Maintenance thereof for the Benefit of the British Nation, may it please your Majesty, at the humble Petition of the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the last-mentioned Proviso for Redemption and Determination of the said several Duties, yearly Fund, Annuities, Corporations, and Benefit of Trade, shall be and is hereby repealed, and made void; and that the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and the Duty of five Pounds in the hundred charged by the said Acts upon Goods imported from the East Indies, shall continue, and the said United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, and their Successors, shall have and enjoy the said yearly Sum of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, or such Part thereof as they now are or hereafter shall be entitled unto, and all the Benefit of Trade, Franchises, Privileges, and Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, in respect thereof given and granted, or intended to be given or granted unto them by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, or by the said Charter of the fifth Day of September in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, or by the said Act of the sixth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, or by any of them, freed and discharged of and from the said former Proviso or Condition of Redemption contained in the said last recited Act, and all other Provisoes, Powers, Acts, Matters or Things, heretofore had, made, done or committed, for redeeming, determining, or making void the said Duties, yearly Fund, Benefit of Trade, Franchises, Privileges, Profits and Advantages, or any of them, subject nevertheless to the Restrictions, Covenants and Agreements in the said recited Acts, and Letters Patents, or any of them contained, now in force, and also subject to the general Provisoes or Condition of Redemption herein after contained; that is to say, Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time, upon three Years Notice after the five and twentieth Day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and upon Repayment by Parliament as well of the said Sum of two Millions, as of the said Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds, making in the whole three Millions two hundred thousand Pounds, unto such Companies, Corporations, and Persons, as shall be then entitled thereto, and of all Arrears which, to the End of the said three Years, shall be due for or upon the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, then and from thenceforth the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and the said Yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, shall absolutely cease and determine.

An Act for better ascertaining and securing the Payments to be made to her Majesty for Goods and Merchandizes to be imported from the East Indies, and other Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East India Company.

WHEREAS the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do yearly import great Quantities of Goods, the Species and Quantities whereof cannot be known, nor due Entries made, so as to ascertain the Customs, without having them first landed and examined, to bring the Contents thereof into a Method fit for the Computation of the Customs and other Duties payable for the same; for which Reason it hath been the constant Practice of all Companies trading to the East Indies, to enter and land their Goods and Merchandizes by Bills at Sight, or Sufferance, and to give Security for Payment of the Customs, and other Duties thereof, at two six Months Time from the Importation: And whereas some Doubts have lately arisen concerning the Legality of the said Practice; Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Company, and their Successors, from time to time, to enter such Goods as are or shall be imported by them at the Custom-house by Bills at Sight, or Sufferance, and to give Security under their Common Seal for the Payment of the Customs, and other Duties laid, or to be laid, upon all such Goods as are rated in the Book of Rates, and upon Coffee, which is to be ascertained by the Oath of the Importer, videlicet, for the Payment of one half Part thereof at the End of six Calendar Months next after the Time within which the Report of the Master or Purser of the Ship, in which they shall be imported, shall or ought to have been made, and for the Payment of the other Half Part thereof, at the End of twelve Calendar Months next after the time within which such Report shall or ought to be made, as aforesaid; and the Commissioners and principal Officers of the Customs, are hereby authorized and required to grant to the said Company such Bills at Sight, or Sufferance, and take such Security, as aforesaid, and to make them such Allowances and Deductions as are to be made to other Merchants, paying their Customs and other Duties at or before the landing of their Goods.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to alter the Method or Manner of paying the Duties of fifteen per Cent. on Muslins and Callicoës, or the Duties upon any other Goods, which are to be ascertained by Sale at the Candle.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act for the appointing the Circuit Courts in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to be kept only once in the Year.

‘ WHEREAS it has been found by Experience to be sufficient for the Administration of Justice in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, that the Circuit Courts should be kept only once in the Year;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Time coming the said Circuit Courts in Scotland shall be kept only once in the Year, and that in the Months of April or May at the several Places, and in Manner and Form as by Law established; and that in all Time coming, the Circuit Courts formerly appointed to be kept in the Month of October yearly, be superseded and cease, excepting only when it shall please her Majesty or her Successors, by a Proclamation to be issued in the Month of July preceding, to order the said Circuit Courts for the October following to be kept at all or any of the Places mentioned in an Act of Parliament of Scotland, passed in the third Session of the second Parliament of King CHARLES the Second, in which Case, and not otherwise, the said October Circuit shall that Year be kept upon the Days and at the Places so appointed by the Proclamation, and in the usual Form of Law.

The Circuit Courts in Scotland to be kept but once a Year. And the Circuit Court in October shall cease, except when the Crown by Proclamation shall order it to be kept.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for explaining several Clauses in an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, for the Relief of the Sufferers of the Islands of Nevis and St. Christophers, by Reason of the Invasion of the French there, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and five.

9 Annæ, c. 23. WHEREAS in an Act made in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, *An Act for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs; and for charging certain new Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and on Cards and Dice; and on the Exportation of Rock Salt for Ireland; and for Security thereby, and by a weekly Payment out of the Post Office, and by several Duties on Hides and Skins, a yearly Fund of one hundred eighty-six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds, for thirty-two Years, to be applied to the Satisfaction of such Orders as are therein mentioned, to the Contributors of any Sum, not exceeding two Millions, to be raised for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; a Sum of one hundred and three thousand and three Pounds, eleven Shillings and four Pence, is appointed to be distributed amongst the Proprietors and Inhabitants of the Islands of Nevis and St. Christophers, who sustained great Losses by a late Invasion and Depredation of the French, to encourage them to resettlement in the said Islands, in Debentures to be paid and satisfied in like Manner as the then unsatisfied Debentures, charged upon the Forfeited Estates in Ireland, were to be satisfied and discharged; concerning the Distribution whereof some Doubts and Difficulties have arisen, to the great Prejudice and Delay of the poor Sufferers who have resettled there: For Remedy and Removal whereof, Be it enacted, &c.*

"None shall be entitled to a Part of the 103,003 l. 11 s. 4 d. granted 9 Annæ, c. 23. but such of the Proprietors or Inhabitants of Nevis and St. Christophers as were Sufferers and resettled there before 25 Dec. 1711.
 "This Clause is confirmed 5 Geo. 1. c. 32. What shall be deemed a Resettlement. The Commissioners for Trade and Plantations may, on Proof of such Resettlement, issue out, in the Name of each Sufferer, his Executors, &c. Debentures for the third Part of their Losses. Sufferers not making Proof of their Losses before 25 Dec. 1712. shall be excluded from any Share of the Bounty. Sufferers may redeem their Shares, if assigned, by Payment of the Consideration Money, &c.

Anno Regni ANNÆ Reginae Magnæ Britanniae, Franciae, & Hiberniae, duodecimo. Stat. 1.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the twenty-fifth Day of November Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ten, in the ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of GOD, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. Being the first Session of this present Parliament. And from thence continued by several Prorogations, to the seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eleven: Being the second Session of this present Parliament. And from thence continued by several Prorogations to the ninth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and thirteen: * Being the third Session of this present Parliament.

In the Record is added, and continued by several Adjournments till the 16th Day of July in the twelfth Year of her Majesty's Reign.

C A P. I.

An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty, to be raised by a Land-Tax in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirteen. EXP. 2s. in the Pound.

C A P. II.

An Act for granting to her Majesty Duties upon Malt, Mum, and Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirteen; and for making forth Duplicates of Lottery Tickets, lost, burnt, or destroyed; and for enlarging the Time for adjusting Claims in several Lottery Acts; and to punish the counterfeiting or forging of Lottery Orders; and for explaining a late Act in Relation to Stamp Duties on customary Estates, which pass by Deed and Copy.

Continued annually, and particularly by 13 Geo. 1. c. 7.
 c. 1.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Person and Persons, who by Virtue, or in Pursuance of any former Act for laying Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, have made or shall make any Composition still in being, for the Duties of their Malt, shall on or before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, continue such their Composition for the Duties hereby granted, and pay the Composition Money, or give Bond for the same, according to the Purport, true Intent, and Meaning of this present Act, or in Default thereof shall be, and are hereby charged and made liable to pay unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the Sum of six or liable to the Duty, &c.

Compounders to continue their Composition, &c. before

fix Pence for every Bushel of Malt which he, she or they or any other Person or Persons in Trust for him, her or them, shall be possessed of, on the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen; and that all and every such Person and Persons who have or hath, or shall make such Composition for their said Duties on Malt, in Pursuance of the said former Acts or any of them, and who shall make Default in continuing such their Composition, as aforesaid, shall on or before the tenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, make true and particular Entries of all such Malt as they or any of them, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for them or any of them, shall be possessed of, or have in his or their Custody or Possession, at the Office of Excise within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds and the Malt, of which no such Entry shall be made; and within six Days after he, she or they shall have made or ought to have made such Entry, as aforesaid, shall pay down the Duties hereby charged upon the same, or in Default thereof shall forfeit and lose double the Value of the said Malt; and that the Houses, Out-houses, and other Places belonging to such Compounders, who shall make Default in continuing such their Compositions, as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby made liable to the Search and View of the Officers for the said Duties, in the same Manner, and under the same Penalties for Refusal, as other Persons making Malt for Sale are liable.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, and after the Duty by this Act imposed on Malt is paid by the Malster, if any Quantity of Malt shall unfortunately happen to be damaged by the casting away or sinking of the Barge or Vessel in which the said Malt shall be transported from one Part of this Kingdom to another within the same, That the Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Division, where such Accident shall happen, shall at the next General Quarter-Sessions to be held for such County, Riding, or Division, upon Proof of such Damage, and of Payment of the Duty, as aforesaid, determine and settle the Quantity of the Damage done to such Malt by the casting away or sinking of the Barge or Vessel in which the same shall be transported, as aforesaid, and an Allowance to be made in respect thereof, and to give a Certificate under their Hands and Seals of the Sum allowed, which Allowance shall bear the same Proportion to the whole Duty, as the said Damage shall appear to bear to the Value of the said Malt before it was so damaged; upon producing of which Certificate to the Officer appointed to collect the said Duty, he shall be obliged to repay or allow to the said Proprietor or Proprietors, out of the Duty paid for the said Malt, so much Money as the Sum certified by the said Justices shall amount unto, or in Default thereof, that the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Malt shall and may deduct the Allowance so certified out of the next or any other subsequent Monies becoming due from such Proprietor or Proprietors by Virtue of this present Act.

Malt damaged by the casting away of the Vessel, &c.

Justices to determine the Damage, &c.

to and Officer to repay the Duty, &c.

XV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any such Loss or Damage shall happen, as aforesaid, the Person or Persons who shall sustain the same, shall, three Days at least before the next Quarter-Sessions, give or leave Notice in Writing thereof with the Collectors of Excise of the District or Collection where such Loss or Damage shall happen, and of his and their Intention of applying at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for an Allowance in respect of such Damage or Loss.

Notice to be left with the Collector three Days before Quarter-Sessions.

XVI. And whereas many Malsters and Makers of Malt, in order to the defrauding her Majesty of the Duty, and preventing the Officers from taking and keeping a true Account of the Corn or Grain by them steeping and steeped, and making into Malt, do in the Absence of the Officers remove Part of their Corn or Grain out of the Cistern or Wetting-Fat, and mix the same with Corn or Grain of a former Wetting, and supply the Place of the Corn or Grain so removed with fresh Corn or Grain, and do also mix their several Couches and Floors, in such Manner that the Officers for the said Duties cannot distinguish one Wetting from another; For Remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Duties hereby granted, no Malster or Maker of Malt, other than Compounders for the said Duties, shall, during the Continuance of the said Duties, mix, or cause to be mixed, his, her or their Corn or Grain making into Malt, of one Wetting or Steeping, or any Part thereof, with his, her or their Corn or Grain making into Malt, of a former Wetting or Steeping, or any Part thereof, before the same is put on the Kiln for drying, on Pain of Forfeiture of the Sum of five Shillings for every Bushel of Corn so mixed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

No Malster to mix Corn of one Wetting with Corn of another Wetting, on forfeiture of 5 s. per Bushel.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Gagers and other Officers of Excise, for the Time being, or that shall be deputed to put this present Act into Execution, shall, during the Continuance of the Duties hereby charged, measure such Corn and Grain making into Malt by the Gage only, and not by the Bushel; any Thing herein before contained, or in any former Act or Acts, relating to the Duties hereby granted, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Gagers to measure by the Gage, and not by the Bushel.

XVIII. And whereas in making of Malt, practised before the granting the said Duties, the Barley, or other Corn or Grain, during its Steeping in the Cistern or Uting-Fat, did usually rise and swell so considerably, that it was thought reasonable, upon granting the said Duties, in all Charges to be made by the Officers from the Cistern or Couch, to allow to the Malsters, upon Payment of the Duty, four Bushels in every twenty Bushels, and so proportionably upon every greater or lesser Quantity, in Consideration of such Rise or Swelling of the Corn, which Allowances have been and are made accordingly: And whereas many Malsters or Makers of Malt for Sale, by pressing, treading, ramming, or other Methods, do now not only make their Corn lye so close in the Cistern or Uting-Fat, and also in the Couch, that the Rise or Swelling, as aforesaid, is prevented, but also renders it very difficult for Officers to know the true Quantity of the Corn steeped or in the Couch, and thereby have the Allowance, as aforesaid, though the Reason of making the same is taken away; Be it therefore further enacted, That if any Malster or Maker of Malt for Sale, during the Continuance of the Duties on Malt by this Act granted, shall tread, ram, or otherwise Force together in the Cistern, Uting-Fat, or Couch, any Corn steeping or steeped, in order to the making into Malt, every such Malster or Maker of Malt for Sale, shall for every such Offence, forfeit and and lose the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence for every Bushel of Corn steeping or steeped, that shall be so pressed, trodden, rammed, or forced; any Thing herein or in any former Act or Acts contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

All Prosecutions to be within five Years.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall be sued or charged with the Duties hereby granted, unless some Action, Information, or Suit be commenced for the same, within five Years after the same shall become due.

Allowance for Malt charged in the Uting-Fat, &c.

XX. And in Regard the Quantity of Barley, or other Corn or Grain, taken by the Gage in any Cistern, Uting-Fat, or other Vessel or Utensil, wherein such Barley, or other Corn or Grain shall be found Wetted or Steeping, or which shall be found to have been wetted or steeped for the making of Malt, is by this Act to be charged and returned by the Gager, as so many Bushels of Malt: It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of every twenty Bushels so charged by the Gager, there shall be an Allowance made to the Maker of such Malt so charged in the Uting-Fat, Cistern, or other Vessel, wherein the same shall be found Wetted or Steeping, as aforesaid, or upon the Floor within thirty Hours after the same shall be thrown out of the Uting-Fat, Utensil, Cistern or other Vessel, of four Bushels, and out of every greater or lesser Quantity, a proportionable Allowance shall be made in Consideration of the Difference between the Quantity of such Corn when it is wet and swoln, and the Quantity thereof, when it is converted into Dry Malt; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Debentures for Malt unsatisfied, on 24 June 1713, how to be paid.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That all Debentures for Malt exported upon any former Act or Acts for laying Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, which shall remain unsatisfied, on the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, shall (in Case the respective Commissioners or Officers of Excise shall not have sufficient in their Hands of the Duties granted by the said former Acts to satisfy the same) be paid and satisfied out of the Duties arising by this present Act.

An Allowance of 10 Bushels in 20 on a Floor-Gage.

XXVIII. Provided always, That if any Barley or other Corn or Grain that hath been steeped or wetted in any Cistern, Uting-Fat, or other Vessel, shall, during the Continuance of this Act, be found working or growing upon the Floor, before it is put upon the Kiln, in order to be made into Malt, after the said three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, which when dried and made into Malt, will not answer so great a Quantity from the Floor as from the Cistern or Fat; is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of every twenty Bushels so charged upon the Floor, there shall be an Allowance made to the Maker of the said Malt, which shall be gaged and charged upon the Floor, after the same shall have been thrown out of the Uting-Fat, Utensil, Cistern, or other Vessel before mentioned, by the Space of thirty Hours or more, and before the same shall be dried, of ten Bushels, and out of every greater or lesser Quantity a proportionable Allowance shall be made, in Consideration of the Difference between the Quantity of such Corn when it is making upon the Floor, and the Quantity thereof when it is dried and perfectly made into Malt; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The same Allowance on exporting ground Malt, as if whole, &c.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever shall export any ground Malt from any Port or Place in Great Britain, to any foreign Parts, the Duties whereof shall have been paid or secured to be paid according to this Act, such Person and Persons shall have the like Drawback or Allowance out of the Duties on Malt by this Act granted, as if the said Malt had been whole, upon Debentures to be obtained, and upon producing Certificates, making Oath, and doing and performing the other Matters and Things herein before prescribed and directed, in order to obtain Debentures upon Exportation of Malt for foreign Parts; yet nevertheless such ground Malt so exported shall be computed and estimated after the Rate of so many Bushels of Malt as the same did contain before it was ground, and no more.

Gager to leave a Copy of each Gage with the Maker.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Gager or other Officer, who shall be constituted or appointed to put this Act in Execution, shall be and are hereby required to leave a true Copy of each Gage, and the Quantity thereof, in Writing under his or their Hands, with or for the said Maker or Makers of Malt, at the Time of taking such Gage upon Demand, under the Penalty of forty Shillings.

Concealing Malt forfeits 10s. per Bushel.

XXXV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Maker of Malt shall, during the Continuance of the Duties hereby granted, fraudulently hide, conceal or convey any of his Malt from the Sight or View of the Gager or Gagers appointed to take an Account of the same, the Person or Persons offending therein, shall forfeit and lose for every Bushel of Malt so hid, concealed, or conveyed away from the Sight and View of such Gager or Gagers, the Sum of ten Shillings, to be recovered and distributed, or mitigated, as other Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act, or by any Law herein referred unto, are to be recovered, distributed, or mitigated.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter-Sessions, &c.

XXXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if either Party think him or themselves aggrieved by any Judgment or Order to be given or made by any Justices of the Peace, in Pursuance of this present Act, touching or concerning the Duties hereby granted, or any Penalty and Forfeiture relating to the same, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons, so finding him, her or themselves aggrieved by such Judgment or Order, to appeal from the same to the Justices assembled at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be holden for the County, Shire or Stuartry where such Judgment or Order shall have been made; which said Justices of the Peace, or the major Part of them, are hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same; and no Writ of Certiorari shall be allowed or brought to set aside any Determination or Order of the said Justices.

No Certiorari.

Appellor to give Notice thereof six Days before Quarter-Sessions, &c.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Party or Parties so appealing, as aforesaid, shall give Notice in Writing, by the space of six Days next before such Session shall be held, as aforesaid, unto the Party or Parties of the other side, of his, her or their Intention to bring such Appeal; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices or the major Part of them, in their Quarter-Sessions, to award Costs to either Party, as they shall in their Discretion think fit, to be levied by Warrant of the Justices of the Peace of such County, Shire, or Stuartry, or any two or more of them, on the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties, against whom the same shall be awarded. Provided also, That in case there be not the Space of six Days between the first Judgment or Order of the two Justices and the Quarter-Sessions then next following, that then the Appeal may be made at the second Quarter-Sessions after such Judgment or Order made.

XXXIX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Malt made in Scotland, not to be consumed there, which at any time or times between the twenty-third Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be brought into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall, in case the same be brought by Sea, be entred with the Officer for the said Duties of the Port where the same shall be so brought into England, Wales, or Berwick; and the Sum of six Pence per Bushel (unless a Certificate from the proper Officer be produced, that it had paid the said Duty in Scotland) for the same Malt, shall be paid to such Officer before landing thereof: And in case the same shall be brought by Land, such Malt shall pass and be carried by and through the Towns of Berwick or Carlisle, and there entred with the Officer of the said Duties, in such of the said Towns by or through which such Malt shall be so carried; and the like Duty of six Pence per Bushel for the same, unless such Certificate be produced, as aforesaid, shall be paid down in ready Money to such Officer, on Pain of forfeiting all such Malt, and the Value thereof, as shall be landed or put on Shore, or brought into England, without such Entry or Payment of such additional Duties, as aforesaid: And in case any Malt made in Scotland shall, during the said Term, be found coming out of Scotland, or brought from thence by Land, by or beyond the Towns before-mentioned, without Entry or Payment of the Duties thereof, or producing such Certificate, as aforesaid, then all such Malt, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited; the last mentioned Forfeiture thereof to be and go, one Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majesty, the other Moiety thereof to such Person or Persons as will inform, seize, or sue for the same, or the Value thereof, and to be recovered and levied by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any other Penalties or Forfeitures, relating to the Malt Duties are by this Act to be recovered and levied.

XL. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which shall arise by this Act of the said Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, over and above the necessary Charges of raising and paying the said Duties, shall from Time to Time be brought and paid into the Exchequer.

" There shall be kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt one Book, in which all the Orders for Money payable upon this Act shall be registred; and the Money lent upon the Act of the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign unsatisfied, with Interest of six per Cent. shall be placed upon the Register, and shall be paid out of the Monies arising by this Act: Interest to be paid every three Months. It shall be lawful for any Persons to lend upon Credit of the said Duties any Sums, as together with the Principal Monies appointed to be transferred, shall not exceed seven hundred thousand Pounds; which Lenders shall have Interest of five per Cent. to be paid every three Months. Where it shall appear by Affidavit before any of the Barons of the Exchequer, that any Exchequer Bills, or Tickets, before the twentieth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, have been lost, burnt, or destroyed; It shall be lawful for the respective Officers, upon producing a Certificate from any of the said Barons, and on Security given to the said Officers, to make forth Duplicates of the said Bills and Tickets. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to settle and adjust the Properties of any Tickets in the Lotteries that have not hitherto been settled, provided the Persons possessed of the Tickets do appear on or before the five and twentieth of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen. If any Person shall forge or counterfeit any of the Lottery Orders, or alter the Number or Principal Sum of any such Order, or counterfeit the Hand of any Person to such Order, thereby to procure a fraudulent Assignment, or sell any such Order, knowing the same to be forged, every such Person shall be adjudged a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy." EXP.

XLVIII. And whereas in the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign an Act did pass, For laying several Duties upon all Soap and Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and upon chequered and striped Linen imported; and upon certain Silks, Calicoes, Linens and Stuffs, printed, painted or stained; and upon several Kinds of stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and upon certain printed Papers, Pamphlets and Advertisements, for raising the Sum of eighteen hundred thousand Pounds, by way of a Lottery, towards her Majesty's Supply; and for Licensing an additional Number of Hackney Chairs; and for charging certain Stocks of Cards and Dice; and for better securing her Majesty's Duties to arise in the Office for the Stamp-Duties, by Licences for Marriages and otherwise; and for Relief of Persons who have not claimed their Lottery Tickets in due Time, or have lost Exchequer Bills or Lottery Tickets; and for borrowing Money upon Stocks, Part of the Capital of the South-Sea Company, for the Use of the Publick; in which said Act it is enacted, That for every Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written, within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the first Day of August in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twelve, any Surrender of or Admittance to any Copyhold Land or Tenement, within those Parts of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any Grant or Lease by Copy of Court-Roll, or any other Copy of the Court-Roll of any Honor or Manor within the same Parts of Great Britain, or any of them, other than and except the original Surrender to the Use of a Will, and the Court-Roll or Book wherein the Proceedings of the Court are entred or enrolled, the Sum of two Shillings and three Pence Sterling; and a Doubt having arisen whether by the said Clause, Copies of Admittances to Custom Right or Tenant-Right Estates, not being Copyhold, which pass by Deed, Surrender and Admittance, or by Deed and Admittance, ought to be stamped; It is declared and enacted Malt made in Scotland, brought by Sea into England, to be entred at the Port of landing, and pay 6 d. per Bushel, unless certified to have paid the Duty. Malt brought by Land, to pass thro' Berwick or Carlisle, and to be entred there, and to pay 6 d. per Bushel, on pain of Forfeiture. Such Malt coming by Land, beyond the said Towns, without Entry, &c. forfeited, or the Value.

The Monies arising to be paid into the Exchequer.

C A P. III.

An Act to revive and continue the Act for taking, examining, and stating the publick Accounts of the Kingdom; and also to continue the Act for appointing Commissioners to take, examine, and determine the Debts due to the Army, Transport-Service, and Sick and Wounded. E X P.

C A P. IV.

An Act for making Inclosures of some Part of the Common Grounds in the West-Riding of the County of York, for the Endowing poor Vicaridges and Chapelries, for the better Support of their Ministers.

WHEREAS in the West-Riding of the County of York there are divers Parishes of great Extent, and very populous, which hath occasioned the erecting of divers Chapels of Ease for the Benefit of the Inhabitants: But there being very small or no settled Provision made for the Maintenance of the Ministers that perform Divine Offices in those Chapels, or for the Vicars of many of the Parish-Churches within the said West-Riding; and there being large Commons or Waste Grounds, within many of the said Parishes, which yield little or no Profit or Advantage to any Person, it would be a great Advantage and Incouragement to the Vicars and Ministers there, if they might, by inclosing some Parts of the said Commons and Waste Grounds, improve the same for the Benefit of themselves and their Successors: May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty, at the humble Suit of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the said Riding, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, it shall and may be lawful for any of the Inhabitants of any Parish in the West-Riding of the County of York, wherein any such Chapels of Ease, as aforesaid, now are, or hereafter shall be erected or built, and wherein there are large Wastes or Commons, with the Consent of the Lord or Lords of the Manor wherein such Waste-Ground lies, (and if there be above two Lords of such Manor, then with the Consent of the major Part of them) and with the Consent of three Parts of four of all Freeholders and others, who have any Right of Common therein, according to their Number, and the Value of their respective Estates, to inclose any Part of the Wastes or Common Grounds within such Parish (or Chapelry therein) not exceeding sixty Acres, or a sixth Part of such Common Land, where the said sixth Part shall not exceed sixty Acres, and to settle the same in Trustees and their Heirs, for the Benefit, and as a Maintenance and Support of such Ministers as shall not have a settled Provision of above forty Pounds per Annum for their Maintenance; and shall reside within the same Parish or Chapelry, and perform Divine Offices in the Parish Church or Chapel therein, according to the Usage of the Church of England, and be licensed by the Archbishop of York, or the Guardian of the Spiritualities (Sede Vacante); any former Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Saving always, and reserving unto all Lords of Manors, and other Owners and Proprietors of Royalalties within the said Riding, their Heirs and Assigns, all and all Manner of Mines and Quarries of Stone, Coal and Ore, and other Mines, with full Power, and free Liberty to dig, get, and fough for the same, in and through any such Inclosures that shall be made pursuant to this Act; and the same so got, with Carts, Wains and Carriages to take, lead, and carry away.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after any such Inclosure and Settlement, it shall not be in the Power of any Trustee or Minister, or any other Person whatsoever, to alienate and employ any of the Profits of such inclosed Lands to any other Use or Uses, but only for the Support and Maintenance of the Vicar or Minister who shall serve the Cure, (if it belong to a Vicarage) and to the Minister that performs Divine Service in the Chapel, according to the Usage of the Church of England, (if it be appropriated to any Chapel) and not otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any of the said Trustees and their Heirs, from Time to Time, by any Writing or Writings under their Hands and Seals, with the Consent of the Vicar or Minister, for whose Use such Inclosure is made, to be testified by his being made a Party to, and signing and sealing such Writing, to demise or lease any Common or Waste Grounds, or any Parcel or Parcels thereof, that shall be inclosed by Virtue of this Act, for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding one and twenty, so as upon every such Demise or Lease there be reserved, payable Half-yearly, during the said Term, as much Rent as can, at the making such Lease, be really gotten for the same; and that such Rent be made payable to or for the only Use and Benefit of such Vicar and Minister of such Vicarage or Chapelry, and their Successors, and so as no Fine, Income, or other Consideration be taken for the same.

V. And it is hereby enacted, That all Leases made of such Inclosures in any other Manner, shall not be good or available in the Law, but shall be ipso facto void.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Suit, or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for any Thing that he or they shall do or

C A P. VI.

An Act for the better Regulating the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

WHEREAS of late several Conveyances of Estates have been made in Trust or redeemable for elusory Sums, no ways adequate to the true Value of the Lands, on Purpose to create and multiply Votes in Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the Laws in that Behalf: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That veyance whereon Infeoffment is not taken, and Seisin registred a Year before the Teste of the Writ, shall intitle to vote or be elected in Scotland; nor if any Election happen during the Continuance of a Parliament. Any Elector may require the Prefes to tender an Oath to one whom he suspects to have an Estate in Trust. ral, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Determination of this present Parliament, no Conveyance or Right whatsoever, whereupon Infeoffment is not taken, and Seisin registred one Year before the Teste of the Writs for calling a new Parliament, shall, upon Objection made in that Behalf, entitle the Person or Persons so infeofo, to vote or to be elected at that Election in any Shire or Stewartry in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and in case any Election happen, during the Continuance of a Parliament, no Conveyance or Right whatsoever, whereupon Infeoffment is not taken one Year before the Date of the Warrant for making out a new Writ for such Election, shall, upon Objection made in that Behalf, entitle the Person or Persons so infeofo to vote or be elected at that Election; and that from and after the said Day, it shall or may be lawful to or for any of the Electors present, suspecting any Person or Persons to have his or their Estates in Trust, and for the Behoof of another, to require the Prefes of the Meeting to tender the following Oath to any Elector; and the said Prefes is hereby impowered and required to administer the same in the Words following, viz.

The Oath.

I A. B. do, in the Presence of God, declare and swear, That the Lands and Estate of which I claim to give my Vote in this Election, are not conveyed to me in Trust, or for the Behoof of any other Person whatsoever; and I do swear before God, that neither I, nor any Person to my Knowledge, in my Name, or by my Allowance, hath given, or intends to give, any Promise, Obligation, Bond, Back-bond, or other Security, for re-disponing or re-conveying the said Lands and Estate, any Manner of Way whatsoever. And this is the Truth, as I shall answer to God.

Refusing, shall not vote.

And in case such Elector refuse to swear, and also to subscribe the said Oath, such Person or Persons shall not be capable of voting, or being elected at such Election.

Other Objections as allowable by Law.

II. Provided always, That notwithstanding such Oath taken, it shall be lawful to make such other Objections as are allowed by the Laws of Scotland against such Electors.

No Infeoffment on any redeemable Right (except proper Wadsetts, &c.) shall entitle to vote or be elected.

III. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That no Infeoffment taken upon any redeemable Right whatsoever (except proper Wadsetts, Adjudications, or Apprisings, allowed by the Act of Parliament relating to Elections in one thousand six hundred eighty-one) shall entitle the Person so infeofo to vote or be elected at any Election in any Shire or Stewartry; and that no Person or Persons, who have not been inrolled and voted at former Elections, shall, upon any Pretence whatsoever, be inrolled or admitted to vote at any Election, except he or they first produce a sufficient Right or Title to qualify him or them to vote at that Election, to the Satisfaction of the Freeholders formerly inrolled, or the Majority of them present; and the returning Officers are hereby ordained to make their Returns of the Persons elected by the Majority of the Freeholders inrolled, and those admitted by them, referring always the Liberty of objecting against the Persons admitted to, or excluded from the Roll, as formerly.

And Persons not enrolled at former Elections, shall not vote without producing a Right.

This Clause is repealed by 16 Geo. 2. c. 11.

Sheriffs, &c. shall, on Penalty of 50l. make publick Intimations three Days before the Day of Election.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Sheriffs of Shires, and Stewarts of Stewartries, shall be obliged, under the Pain of fifty Pounds Sterling, one Moiety whereof shall be to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered before the Court of Session, by any Action summarily, without abiding the Course of the Roll, to make the publick Intimations required by the Laws of Scotland, at the several Parish Churches within their respective Jurisdictions, at least three Days before the Dyet of Elections.

Saving the Rights of Heirs and Husbands.

V. Provided always, That the Right of apparent Heirs in voting at Elections by Virtue of their Predecessors Infeoffments, and the Right of Husbands by Virtue of their Wives Infeoffments, be and is hereby reserved to them, as formerly; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any Right whereon Infeoffment is taken before 1 June 1713. shall entitle to vote for Members of Parliament.

VI. Provided also, That any Conveyance of Right, which by the Laws of Scotland is sufficient to qualify any Person to vote in the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for Shires or Stewartries, and whereupon Infeoffment is taken, on or before the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, shall entitle the Person or Persons, so infeofo, to vote at the Elections of Members to serve in the next ensuing Parliament; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Husbands not to vote by Virtue of their Wives Infeoffments, unless they are Heiresses, &c.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared to be the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, That no Husbands shall vote at any ensuing Election by Virtue of their Wives Infeoffments, who are not Heiresses, or have not Right to the Property of the Lands on Account whereof such Vote shall be claimed.

relating to Exchequer Bills.

MAY it please your most Excellent Majesty; Whereas in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign (amongst other Things) for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, several Bills commonly called Exchequer Bills, were made forth, amounting in Principal Money to two Millions and five hundred thousand Pounds, for your Majesty's Supply; and in Pursuance of another Act of the same Session of Parliament-made (amongst other Things) for circulating a further Sum in Exchequer Bills; and of an Act made in the eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty to be raised by a Land-Tax in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, further Exchequer Bills, to the Amount of four hundred thousand Pounds in Principal Money, have also been issued for your Majesty's Supply: And whereas Provision was made in the Acts before mentioned, That the said Bills should bear an Interest of two Pence per Cent. per Diem, when they respectively should not be in the publick Receipts; and that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for circulating the said Bills (by exchanging such of them

' them for ready Money as should, from Time to Time, have passed through your Majesty's Revenue or ' Taxes, and also through the Exchequer in the Manner therein mentioned) should have an Allowance after
 ' the Rate of three Pounds per Cent. per Ann. for the whole Sum of the said Bills, amounting to two Mil' lions and nine hundred thousand Pounds: And whereas in and by the said Act of the seventh Year of your 7 Ann. c. 7.
 ' Majesty's Reign, certain Duties were granted, continued, or made payable to your Majesty, your Heirs ' and Successors, for ever (subject to such Redemption as is therein expressed) that is to say, the Duties
 ' called the two Thirds of a Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage therein mentioned, which were to take ' Effect by that Act, from the seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, certain Du' ties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, Pic' tures and Muslins, and certain increased Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Tea,
 ' Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Pictures, and certain further Rates or Duties upon all white
 ' Callicoes, Porcelan, commonly called China Ware, and Drugs; all which are to take Effect by the Act
 ' last mentioned, from the twenty-third Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; and one Half
 ' of another Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage therein mentioned, which is to take Effect from and after ' the last Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; and all the said Duties so granted, conti' nued, or made payable, together with the Surplus which should, from Time to Time, arise of or from ' the other Half of the same Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage (over and above eighty thousand Pounds ' per Ann. formerly charged thereupon for Payment of Annuities) and divers Arrears and other Sums of Mo' ney or Revenues more largely described in the said Act of the seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign, are ' thereby, and by the other Acts abovementioned, or some of them, made a general Fund or Security for ' paying the said Interest which was to be born on the said Bills, and the said Allowance after the Rate of ' three Pounds per Cent. per Ann. and for or towards raising a yearly Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds
 ' for paying off and cancelling the said Bills; and by the aforesaid Acts, or some of them, it was provided,
 ' that Quarterly at the four usual Feasts of the Year, until the said Duties should take Effect, and be suffi' cient for Payment of the said Interest and Allowance, there should be a Computation made of the Sum
 ' which on every of the said Feast Days should be due and owing (over and above so much as should ' have been applied of the said Duties to those Purposes) for the said Interest and Allowance, and that ' other Exchequer Bills should be made out for so much as should be so computed to be due, bearing the ' like Interest, and for circulating whereof the said Governor and Company were to have the like Allow' ance of three Pounds per Cent. per Ann. and the Quarterly Bills so made forth until and for the Quarter
 ' ended at Lady-Day one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, have amounted to the further Sum of four ' hundred and eighty thousand three hundred and twelve Pounds, and ten Shillings, or thereabouts, and more
 ' Quarterly Bills of the like Nature may further be issuable on the said former Acts: And by the same Acts,
 ' or some of them, it was declared and enacted, That out of the Remainder of the said Duties and Reve' nues, when and as the same should respectively take Effect (Regard being first had to the said Payments ' for Interest and Circulation, which are always to be preferred) the full Sum of two hundred thousand ' Pounds, or so much thereof as the said Remainder would from Time to Time extend unto, should be ' appropriated for paying off all the Principal Money which should be contained in the said Bills, and for ' cancelling the same, until all the said Bills should be discharged and cancelled: And whereas by an Act
 ' made and passed in the ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign, for enabling and obliging the Bank of England Recital of
 ' to exchange all Exchequer Bills for ready Money upon Demand, it was enacted, That the full Sum of 9 Ann. c. 7.
 ' forty-five thousand Pounds per Ann. should be paid to and for the Use of the said Governor and Com' pany, and their Successors, by Quarterly Payments, and by such Ways and Means, and in such Manner
 ' and Form, as in that Act are prescribed, until such Time as all the said Quarterly Exchequer Bills made or
 ' to be made for Interest or Allowance, as aforesaid, together with a Million of the said Bills for two Mil' lions nine hundred thousand Pounds shall be paid off and cancelled, or until such Time as there shall not ' be standing out and uncanceled more than one million and nine hundred thousand Pounds in the ' whole of the said Bills for two millions and nine hundred thousand Pounds, and Quarterly Bills taken ' together (which of the Limitations aforesaid shall first happen) as by the said several Acts, Relation
 ' being thereunto respectively had, may more fully appear: And whereas the said Governor and Com' pany of the Bank of England are willing (for the Publick Service) to undertake the Circulation of the ' further Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds in other Exchequer Bills to be issued for your Majesty's ' Supply, and of such Quarterly Bills for Interest and other Allowances, as shall and may be made forth
 ' in Pursuance of this present Act, so as the said Governor and Company may have such Encouragements,
 ' and such Terms and Advantages as are hereafter in this Act expressed: Now we your Majesty's most du' tiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly beseech your ' Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.'

Publick Act.

' XXIII. And whereas by the said Act made in the seventh Year of her Majesty's Reign, it was declared " and enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for ever,
 " should continue and be one Body Corporate and Politick, and should for ever have, receive and enjoy the " intire yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, out of certain Rates and Duties of " Excise therein described, and such Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Pri" vileges, Profits, and Advantages, as are therein expressed, subject nevertheless to a Power and Condition
 " of Redemption, in that Act contained in that Behalf: And it was thereby provided and enacted, That at " any Time upon twelve Months Notice after the first Day of August, which should be in the Year of our " Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament to " the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, of the several Sums, amount" ing to sixteen hundred thousand Pounds, therein mentioned, without any Deduction, Discount, or Abate" ment whatsoever, to be made out of the said Sum of sixteen hundred thousand Pounds, or any Part there-
 " of, and upon Payment to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, of all Arrears of the said
 " one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and all the Principal and Interest Money, which should be
 " owing unto them upon all such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, or Parliamentary Funds, which the said Go" vernor and Company, or their Successors, should have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to, at the " Time of such Notice to be given, as aforesaid, (such Funds, for Redemption whereof other Provision
 " was made in the same Act, only excepted) then, or in such Case, and not till then, the said yearly Fund
 " of one hundred thousand Pounds should cease and determine, as by the same Act (Relation being thereunto " had) may more plainly appear : Now for the better Encouragement of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to perform the Service of circulating all the Exchequer-Bills, according to the true Meaning of this Act, It is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said recited Proviso or Condition for determining the said yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds, upon twelve Months Notice, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred thirty-two, upon such Payments, as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby repealed and made void; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for ever, shall remain, continue and be one Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and shall for ever have, receive and enjoy the said intire yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds out of the said Rates and Duties of Excise, together with a perpetual Succession, and all Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits and Advantages whatsoever, whereunto the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are, or before the making of this Act were entitled by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Grants or Charters whatsoever, now in Force; subject nevertheless to such Restrictions, Rules, Directions, Agreements, Matters and Things, as in the said Acts and Charters, or any of them, now in Force are contained or prescribed; and also subject to the Power and Condition of Redemption, hereafter in this Act contained in this Behalf.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time upon twelve Months Notice after the first Day of August, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred forty-two, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, of the said Sum of sixteen hundred thousand Pounds, without any Deduction, Discount or Abatement whatsoever, and upon Payment to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, of all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and all the Principal and Interest Money which shall be owing unto them upon all such Tallies, Exchequer-Orders, or Parliamentary Funds, which the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, shall have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to at the Time of such Notice to be given, as aforesaid (such Funds, for Redemption whereof other Provision is made in the said former Acts, or any of them, or in this Act, always excepted) then and in such Case, and not till then, the said yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds shall cease and determine.

XXV. Provide also, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after such Redemption of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and from and after Redemption shall also be made by Parliament of the Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, by the said Act of the seventh Year of her Majesty's Reign, settled and payable to the said Governor and Company, in the Manner therein mentioned, and from and after Redemption shall likewise be made of the Fund established by this Act, in Relation to the said Exchequer Bills, then, and not till then, the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall cease and determine, but till then, the said Governor and Company shall continue a Corporation, and shall have and enjoy all the Powers and Privileges they are now entitled unto, as aforesaid.

XXVI. And be it further enacted and declared, That this Act shall be esteemed in all Courts of Law and Equity to be a publick Act, and Notice thereof shall be taken as such by all Courts and Persons accordingly.

' XXVII. And

‘ XXVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first Year of her Majesty’s ^{Recital of the} Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of her Majesty’s Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of ^{Act 1 Annæ, Stat. 1. c. 7.} the Crown, It was enacted and declared, That the Hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which were granted to the Crown in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty ^{12 Car. 2. c. 23.} King CHARLES the Second, and the Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, by the said Act of the first Year of her Majesty’s Reign granted to her Majesty for the Term of her Life (subject nevertheless to such weekly Payments or Incumbrances as were thereby appointed to be charged upon, and payable out of the several Duties of Excise before mentioned) and the Revenue of the General Letter-Office or Post-Office, and divers small Branches of her Majesty’s Revenues therein enumerated, and the Monies arising by the further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, by the said Act granted or made payable to her Majesty during her Life, should be for the Support of her Majesty’s Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown; and in the said Act several Provisions are made to restrain Granting or Aliening the Revenues aforesaid, or any of them: since which Time the Revenues of First-fruits and Tenths of the Clergy (being Part of the said small Branches) have been otherwise disposed by or in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament in that Behalf; and ^{5 Annæ, c. 24.} the Revenue arising in the General Letter-Office or Post-Office hath been since regranted and increased, and Part of that Revenue so regranted and increased hath been appropriated to raise Money for the publick Use, and other Part thereof is applicable to the Support of her Majesty’s said Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, pursuant to another Act of Parliament made for those Ends and Purposes, as by the said respective Acts, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas by Occasion of several extraordinary Expences since the said Act of the first Year of her Majesty’s Reign, divers Arrears of Salaries, Wages, Diet-Monies, and other Allowances, and sundry Debts for Emptions, Provisions, and other Causes, have incurred, and grown due to her Majesty’s Servants, Tradesmen, and others, and do now remain unsatisfied, which Debts and Arrears do amount to a very considerable Sum in the Whole, and are properly chargeable upon the said Branches or Revenues which were appointed to the Support of her Majesty’s Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as aforesaid: Now her Majesty’s said most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous that her Majesty, in the Administration of her Civil Government, may not remain under any Difficulties, in Respect of the Arrears or Debts contracted, as aforesaid, and being therefore desirous that a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds may be raised, by such Ways and Means, as in this Act are authorized or appointed, the better to enable her Majesty to discharge the said Debts and Arrears, do, for that End and Purpose, most humbly pray that it may be enacted, &c.’

“ Her Majesty, by Letters Patents, may appoint 35,000 l. per Annum for 32 Years, to be issued out of the Exchequer, chargeable on the Revenues of the Crown, &c. and preferable to all other Payments, but not to prejudice any Dispositions, &c. since 1 Annæ, of the First-Fruits, Post-Office, &c. Letters Patents to direct how the said Sum shall be paid, and to empower Persons to advance the same, &c. and to direct how the Monies may be transferred. The Letters Patents good in Law. No Fee to be taken, nor Money to be diverted, on Pain of Incapacity, and treble Damages. Money advanced, Tax-free. E X P.”

XXXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Money lent, and to be lent to her Majesty upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty, to be raised by a Land-Tax in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, and so much Money (if any such be) of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Monies lent, or to be lent unto her Majesty upon another Act of this Session of Parliament, for granting to her Majesty Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirteen; and so much Money of the said Duties of Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charge thereby allowable for the raising the said Duties thereby granted, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Sums (not exceeding twelve hundred thousand Pounds) authorized by this Act to be issued in Exchequer-Bills, shall be appropriated for or towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein after expressed, (that is to say) For or towards defraying the Charges of the Ordinary of her Majesty’s Navy, and for Victuals, Wages, Ordinary of the Navy, &c. Wear and Tear, and other Services of the Navy, and Victualling thereof, performed and to be performed, and for Sea Service in the Ordnance, performed and to be performed, so as all the Issues to be made out of the said Aids or Supplies, for all the Naval or Marine Services beforementioned, do not in the whole exceed one Million and two hundred thousand Pounds, over and above the Money to be made good to the South Sea Company, as is herein after mentioned; and for or towards defraying the Charge of Half-Pay, to such Officers as have served well at Sea in the late War, and shall be out of Employment by Sea or Land in Time of Peace, so as such Half-Pay, within the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, do not exceed seventeen thousand Pounds, out of the same Aids or Supplies; and for or towards defraying the Charge of the Land Forces in her Majesty’s Service for six Months, from the two and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twelve to the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, both inclusive, and for reducing their Numbers; and for or towards the Charge of her Majesty’s Guards and Garrisons in Great Britain, from the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen to the five and twentieth Day of December following, including General

XXXIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That no Appropriation, or other Matter or Thing in this Act contained, shall obstruct or hinder any Payment or Payments, which, by and in Pursuance of an Act made in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and satisfying the publick Debts; and for erecting a Corporation to carry on a Trade to the South Seas; and for the Incouragement of the Fishery; and for Liberty to trade in unwrought Iron with the Subjects of Spain, and to repeal the Acts for registering Seamen, and of her Majesty's Charter grounded thereupon, are or shall be required and authorized to be made by the Treasurer or Paymaster of the Navy, for the Time being, or by any other Persons to be intrusted with the Publick Monies for the Service of the Navy, out of such Publick Monies, Tallies, Orders, or Parliamentary Securities in their Hands or Power respectively, as are or shall thereby be charged or chargeable to make good any Deficiency or Deficiencies to the Corporation erected in Pursuance of the Act last mentioned, called by the Name of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, trading to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, and for incouraging the Fishery, or to their Treasurer, for their Use; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted and declared, That all such of the said Arrears and Debts (intended by this Act to be satisfied out of the said Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, to be raised, as aforesaid) and all Debentures for the same, or any of them, as have been, at any Time or Times before the thirtieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, sold, assigned or granted, or covenanted to be assigned or granted, or for which any Authority hath heretofore been given or granted by any of her Majesty's Servants, or by any Husband of any her Majesty's Servants, or by any Tradesman, or other Person, who served Provisions or Goods for her Majesty's Service, or by any of their Executors or Administrators, to receive the same, or any Part thereof, to the Use of such Buyer, Assignee or Grantee, or of such Person or Persons so authorized, shall and may be redeemed, and are hereby redeemable by the

An Act for the better Regulating the Forces to be continued in her Majesty's Service; and for the Payment of the said Forces, and of their Quarters. E X P.

C A P. XIII.

An Act to enable such Officers and Soldiers as have been in her Majesty's Service, during the late War, to exercise Trades, and for Officers to account with their Soldiers.

“WHEREAS there hath been and are divers Officers and Soldiers who have served her Majesty in the late Wars, and were Instrumental, by the Blessing of Almighty God, in obtaining an advantageous Peace for these Kingdoms, some of which are Men that used Trades, others that were Apprentices to Trades, who had not served out their Times, and others who by their own Industry have made themselves apt and fit for Trades, many of which (the Wars being now ended) would willingly employ themselves in those Trades which they were formerly accustomed to, or which they are apt or able to follow, and make Use of, for the getting their Living by their own Labour, but are or may be hindered from exercising those Trades in certain Cities and Corporations, and other Places within this Kingdom, because of certain By-Laws and Customs of those Places, and of the Statute made in the fifth Year of Queen Elizabeth, prohibiting the Use of certain Trades by any Person who hath not served as an Apprentice to such Trade for the Space of seven Years: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted, &c.

For former Laws concerning Soldiers, refer to 18 H. 6. c. 18. & 19. 7 H. 7. c. 1. 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 2. 43 El. c. 3. 31 Car. 2. c. 1. 5 Eliz. c. 4.

“Officers and Soldiers who have not deserted the Service, having used any Trade, or that were Apprentices, and did not serve out their Times, may set up and exercise Trades: That is to say, Apprentices may set up their Trades, though they have not served out their Times, and others any Trade in the Counties where they were born. And if indicted, may plead the General Issue, and shall recover treble Costs. Service how to be proved. Penalty of producing a forged Commission, or false Certificate. Paymasters to state Accounts of disbanded Regiments, and pay the Arrears to the Colonels. Colonels to state Accounts with the Captains; and the Captains with inferior Officers, &c. and pay what is due, on Forfeiture of double the Sum. Disbanded Soldiers setting up Trades shall be freed from Arrests for three Years, and their Stock, &c. from being taken in Execution. Executors of Colonels, Agents, &c. who died indebted to the Officers and Soldiers, shall pay such Debts, preferably to all others. Executors having paid Debts before the making of this Act, such Payment shall be good. Neither this nor the 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 11. shall prejudice the Privileges of Oxford and Cambridge.” E X P.

C A P. XIV.

9 Ann. c. 23.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of her now Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, and for charging certain new Duties on ſtampt Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and on Cards and Dice, and on the Exportation of Rock Salt for Ireland, and for ſecuring thereby, and by a weekly Payment out of the Poſt-Office, and by ſeveral Duties on Hides and Skins, a yearly Fund of one hundred eighty-fix thouſand fix hundred and ſeventy Pounds, for thirty-two Years, to be applied to the Satisfaction of ſuch Orders as are therein mentioned, to the Contributors of any Sum not exceeding two Millions, to be raiſed for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's Occaſions, a Power was given to the Commiſſioners therein mentioned, for licenſing two hundred Chairs within the Cities of London and Weſtmiſter, and Suburbs thereof, and all Pariſhes and Places within the weekly Bills of Mortality, for the Term of thirty-two Years, from the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and eleven; and by another Act of Parliament, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her ſaid Majesty, the ſaid Commiſſioners had a Power for the lincenſing an additional Number of Chairs, not exceeding one hundred, from the twenty-fourth of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, for the Term of thirty-one Years, within the Cities and Liberties aforeſaid, ſo that the whole ſhall not exceed three hundred: And whereas by the aforeſaid Act, made in the ninth Year of her ſaid Majesty's Reign, it is, amongſt other Things enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhould, in the firſt Place, liſenſe all ſuch Perſons as had then been ancient Coachmen, or ancient Chairmen, or the Widows of any of them, unleſs they ſhould neglect or reſuſe to take ſuch Licences, upon the reſpective Terms thereby allowed, within a reaſonable Time to be limited by the ſaid Commiſſioners, not leſs than twenty Days: And whereas ſeveral Doubts have ariſen, whether the ſaid Commiſſioners are obliged by the ſaid Act of the ninth of the Queen, to liſenſe the Widows of Chairmen, or to let them have the Benefit of ſuch Licences as were granted to their Huſbands whilſt living, and ſeveral Suits of Law have been commenced thereupon, to the great Oppreſſion and Grievance of the Parties concerned; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Commiſſioners for the Time being, for licenſing Coaches and Chairs, purſuant to the recited Acts mentioned, ſhall and are hereby required, in the firſt Place, to liſenſe all and every the Widow and Widows of ſuch Hackney Chairman or Chairmen reſpectively, who have died or ſhall die poſſeſſed of any Licence or Licences, granted by the ſaid Commiſſioners in Purſuance of the ſaid Acts, unleſs ſuch Widow or Widows ſhall neglect or reſuſe to take ſuch Licences upon the reſpective Terms allowed by the ſaid recited Acts, within a reaſonable Time to be limited by the ſaid Commiſſioners, not leſs than twenty Days.

The Commiſſioners ſhall in the firſt Place liſenſe the Widows of Hackney Chairmen, unleſs they neglect to take out ſuch Licence in a reaſonable Time.

Such Widows, their Chairs and Servants, liable to ſuch Rules, &c. as other liſenſed Chairmen.

II. An Act for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain.Most Gracious Sovereign,

‘ WHEREAS the making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain is of great Use and Benefit to the Nation, being set up in several Parts of this united Kingdom, employing many thousands of the Poor, and is brought to great Perfection; but by the Duties on Hemp and Flax imported, and Drawback on Foreign made Sail-Cloth exported, the Makers of British Sail-Cloth have not a sufficient Encouragement for so useful and beneficial a Manufacture;’ Therefore we your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, have given and granted to your Majesty such additional Duty upon Foreign Sail-Cloth to be imported, as is herein after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty, That it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the one and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, over and above all Subsidies, Duties, Impositions and Payments, already due and payable, or which ought to be paid to her Majesty, for or upon such Foreign made Sails and Sail-Cloth, or Canvas usually entred as Hollands-Duck or Vitry Canvas, which shall be fit and proper to be made use of, for making of Sails for navigating Ships and Vessels, and which shall be imported into Great Britain by Way of Merchandize, except such Canvas as is of the Product and Manufacture of Ireland, there shall be raised and levied, collected, and paid unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, a further Duty of one Penny per Ell, and after that Rate for greater or lesser Quantities, during the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer; the same to be raised, levied, collected and recovered, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as any Subsidy payable to her Majesty, for any other Goods or Merchandizes imported, or to be imported, may by any Law or Laws now in Force be raised, levied, collected and recovered.

‘ II. And whereas Hemp and Flax imported draws back nothing of the Duties paid for the same, when wrought up into British Sail-Cloth;’ Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the said additional Duty of one Penny per Ell, a Reward or Recompence of one Penny be given and paid for every Ell of British made Sail-Cloth or Canvas, fit for or made into Sails, which from and after the one and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, and within the said Term of seven Years, or at any Time before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be exported out of Great Britain by Way of Merchandize: Provided always, That the Exporter of such British made Sail-Cloth shall always, before he receives any such Reward, make Oath (which the proper Officers of the Customs have hereby Power to administer) that such Sail-Cloth was made in Great Britain, is actually exported or shipped to be exported, without any Intention to be relanded in any Part of Great Britain, and that no former Reward upon this Act was made for the same Sail-Cloth.

‘ III. And it is hereby enacted, That if any British made Sail-Cloth, for which such Reward shall be given, shall be relanded in Great Britain, the same shall be forfeited; and every Person concerned in bringing back or relanding the same, shall forfeit two Shillings for every Ell so brought back or relanded; one Moiety of which Forfeitures shall be to her Majesty, and the other Moiety thereof to such as will seize, inform or sue for the same, or the Value thereof, to be recovered by Action, Bill, Suit or Information, in any her Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Exchequer at Edinburgh, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than Imparance shall be allowed. [This Act is continued for seven Years by 10 Geo. I. c. 17. §. 4. and by 20 Geo. 2. c. 45. to 1 June 1754, &c.]

An Act to vest in the Commissioners for building fifty new Churches in and about London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, as much of the Street near the May Pole in the Sirand in the County of Middlesex, as shall be sufficient to build one of the said Churches upon; and for restoring to the Principal and Scholars of King’s Hall, and College of Brazen Nose in the University of Oxon, their Right of Presentation to Churches and Chapels in Stepney Parish.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth Year of her Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties upon Coals, for building fifty new Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned; it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute and appoint such Persons as her Majesty should think fit, to be Commissioners, to enquire and inform themselves in what Parishes the said new Churches (except one for Greenwich) were most necessary to be built, and of proper Places for the Sites of the said respective new Churches; and also a Cemetery or Church-yard for each of the said Churches; and also which of the Chapels within the said Parishes are fit to be made Parish Churches; and that they should “ should ascertain the several Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the Bounds and Limits which in their Judgments or Opinion might be fit to be made distinct Parishes: And whereas her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the one and twentieth Day of September in the tenth Year of her Reign, did nominate, constitute, authorize and appoint Thomas Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, John Lord Archbishop of York, John Lord Bishop of Bristol, Henry Lord Bishop of London, Jonathan Lord Bishop of Winchester, Nathaniel Lord Bishop of Durham, and divers other Persons, to be Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid: And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Time given to Commissioners appointed by her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties on Coals for building fifty new Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned; and for giving the said Commissioners further Power for better effecting the same; and for appointing Monies for rebuilding the Parish Church of St. Mary Woolnoth in the City of London, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Commissioners, or any five or more of them, should proceed to do and perform all and every the Matters and Things in and by the said Acts intended to be done and performed: And it is thereby provided and enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, at any Time before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twelve, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute and appoint such Persons to be Commissioners to execute all and every the Powers in the first recited Act, and in the said last Act mentioned, as her Majesty should think fit: And whereas her Majesty did, in Pursuance of the said last recited Act, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the seven and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twelve, nominate, constitute and appoint Thomas Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, John Lord Archbishop of York, Simon Lord Harcourt, then Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain (now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain) John Duke of the County of Buckingham and Normanby, Henry Viscount Bolingbroke, the Right Reverend Father in God William Lord Bishop of Chester, and the Right Reverend Father in God Philip then Lord Bishop of St. Davids (now Lord Bishop of Hereford) and divers other Persons, to be Commissioners; and that they, or any five or more of them, should do, perform, and execute all and every the Powers, Matters and Things, in and by the said recited Acts, and either of them, appointed to be done and performed: And whereas the vacant Piece of Ground at and about the May-Pole in the Strand in the County of Middlesex, is a proper Place for the building one of the said fifty new Churches upon, which cannot be appropriated to that Use, without the Aid of Parliament; Be it therefore enacted, &c.

“ The Waste Ground in the Strand on which the new Church is to be built, vested in the Commissioners appointed by Letters Patent bearing Date 27 Sept. 1712. Such Church to be deemed one of the fifty new ones. A Street way and Passage to be left on the North Side and East End of the said Church.” P R.

“ IV. And whereas by an Act made in the first Session of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for confirming to the Principal and Scholars of King's Hall and College of Brazen Nose in the University of Oxon, the Purchase of the Advowsons of Stepney and other Churches, and for settling the same to the Benefit of the said College, it is provided, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Principal and Scholars, and their Successors, upon every Vacancy, from Time to Time, to nominate and appoint respectively fit Clerks to officiate in the Chapel of Stratford-Bow, and in all other Churches or Chapels that then were or should be built, within the Parish of Stebunheath alias Stepney in the County of Middlesex, and to receive the Profits belonging to the same: And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the second Sessions of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Time given to the Commissioners appointed by her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties on Coals, for Building fifty new Churches, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned; and also for giving the said Commissioners further Powers for better effecting the same, and for appointing Monies for rebuilding the Parish Church of Saint Mary Woolnoth in the City of London, it is enacted, That in every new Church and Parish to be erected or constituted pursuant to the same Act (other than such Chapels as, according to the same Act, should be converted into Parochial Churches) the first Rector should be nominated and appointed by her Majesty, of and in such new Church and Parish; in which Act there being no express Saving to the said Principal and Scholars, and their Successors, of their Right upon every Vacancy, from Time to Time, to nominate or present respectively fit Clerks to officiate, as aforesaid, it may happen to be controverted, whether the first Rector in every new Church and Parish, to be erected or constituted pursuant to the same Act, in the said Parish of Stebunheath alias Stepney, and also in such Chapels within the same Parish as should be converted into Parochial Churches, pursuant to the same Act, might belong to the said Principal and Scholars, and their Successors, to nominate and appoint: Now for the preventing of all such Controversies, it is hereby enacted, &c.

“ The Principal and Scholars of Brazen Nose in Oxford, shall nominate the first Rector in every new Church or Chapel turned into a Church in Stepney Parish. Nothing in this Act shall prejudice the Right, &c. of John Walker, &c.” P R.

An Act for making perpetual the Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom; and that Persons bound Apprentices to, or being hired Servants with Persons coming with Certificates, shall not gain Settlements by such Services or Apprenticeships: And for making perpetual the Act made in the sixth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Importation of Cochineal from any Ports in Spain, during the present War, and six Months longer: And for reviving a Clause in an Act made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for settling the Trade to Africa, for allowing Foreign Copper Bars imported, to be exported.

WHEREAS an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, was enacted, to have Continuance (except what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby constituted) only until the twenty-ninth Day of May one thousand six hundred sixty-five, and from thence to the End of the first Sessions of the next Parliament; which said Act, by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King JAMES the Second, (except what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby constituted) was enacted to be in Force from the first Day of May one thousand six hundred eighty-five, and so to continue for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Sessions of Parliament; and by an Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, the said Act (as to what therein related to the Settlement of the Poor) was enacted to be in Force from the first Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-one; but no Provision was thereby made for continuing divers other Parts of the said Act, which said Act, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, as to all Parts thereof, not mentioned and continued in and by the said Act made in the third and fourth Years of their late Majesties (other than and except what relates to the Corporations mentioned in the said Act, [For the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom,] and thereby constituted, was, by an Act made in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties, continued only for the Space of seven Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; which said Act afterwards by an Act of the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for continuing several Laws therein mentioned, was continued only for seven Years, from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred; and which said Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the said late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for continuing the Laws therein mentioned relating to the Poor, and to the Buying and Selling of Cattle in Smithfield, and for suppressing of Piracy, was enacted to be in Force from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seven (except what relates to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby constituted) only for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Sessions of Parliament; which said Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the said late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, being found to be a very useful and necessary Law, and being near expiring; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the said late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, shall be and is hereby made perpetual.

II. And whereas by an Act made in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for supplying some Defects in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, It was amongst other Things enacted, in the Words following, (viz.) That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, that from and after the first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-seven shall come into any Parish, or other Place, there to inhabit or reside, shall, at the same Time, procure, bring, and deliver to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place where any such Person shall come to inhabit, or to any or either of them, a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any other Parish, Township or Place, or the major Part of them, or under the Hands and Seals of the Overseers of the Poor of any other Place, where there are no Churchwardens, to be attested respectively by two or more credible Witnesses, thereby owning and acknowledging the Person or Persons mentioned in the said Certificate, to be an Inhabitant or Inhabitants legally settled in that Parish, Township or Place, every such Certificate having been allowed of and subscribed by two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County City, Liberty, Borough, or Town Corporate, wherein the Parish or Place, from whence any such Certificate shall come, doth lie, shall oblige the said Parish or Place to receive and provide for the Person mentioned in the said Certificate, together with his or her Family, as Inhabitants of that Parish, whenever he, she, or they shall happen to become chargeable to, or be forced to ask Relief of the Parish, Township or Place, to which such Certificate was given; and then, and not before, it shall and may be lawful for any such Person, and his or her Children, though born in that Parish, not having otherwise acquired a legal Settlement there, to be removed, conveyed, and settled in the Parish or Place from whence such Certificate was brought: And

whereas

After 24 June 1713. any Person bound Apprentice, or being a hired Servant, to one who came into a Parish by Certificate, shall not gain a Settlement there by Reason of such Apprenticeship, &c.

Farther Provisions concerning Poor.

5 Geo. 1. c. 8.

‘whereas many Persons obtaining and bringing such Certificates, do frequently take Apprentices, bound by Indenture, and hire and keep Servants by the Year, who, by Reason of such Apprenticeships and Services, do gain Settlements in, and become a great Burthen to such Parishes, Townships and Places, though such Masters coming with such Certificates have, by Virtue thereof, no Settlements in such Parishes, Townships or Places.’ For Remedy whereof, It is declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person whatsoever, who, upon or after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, shall be an Apprentice, bound by Indenture to, or shall, upon or after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, be a hired servant to or with any Person whatsoever, who did come into or shall reside in any Parish, Township or Place, in that Part of Great Britain called England, by Means or Licence of such Certificate, and not afterwards having gained a legal Settlement in such Parish, Township or Place, such Apprentice, by Virtue of such Apprenticeship, Indenture or Binding, and such Servant by being hired by, or serving as a Servant, as aforesaid, to such Person, shall not gain or be adjudged to have any Settlement in such Parish, Township or Place, by Reason of such Apprenticeship or Binding, or by Reason of such Hiring or Serving therein; but every such Apprentice and Servant shall have his and their Settlements in such Parish, Township or Place, as if he or they had not been bound Apprentice or Apprentices, or had not been an hired Servant or Servants to such Person, as aforesaid; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘III. And whereas Cochineal being of the Growth of the Spanish West Indies, is of Principal Use in Dying of Clothes, and other the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, Scarlets, Purples, and other Colours called Grain Colours, to the great Improvement thereof, and imploying of great Numbers of her Majesty’s Subject, in finishing and perfecting such Woollen Manufacture: And whereas before the Act passed in the sixth Year of her present Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for the Importation of Cochineal from any Ports in Spain, during the present War, and six Months longer, Cochineal could not be imported into this Kingdom, but from the Places of its Growth, although the same was then, and is now sold at cheaper Rates in several Parts of Europe, and used as well in Dying the said Manufactures of this Kingdom abroad, as also foreign Manufactures, at lower Prices than her Majesty’s Subjects can, to the Incouragement of Foreign Woollen Manufactures, and the great Prejudice of those of this Kingdom, and Impoverishment of many of her Majesty’s Subjects employed therein, if the said Act should not be further continued;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act made in the sixth Year of her present Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for the Importation of Cochineal from any Ports in Spain, during the present War, and six Months longer, shall be and is hereby made perpetual; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Act 6 Ann. c. 33. made perpetual.

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 26.

‘IV. And whereas in an Act made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of the late King William, intituled, An Act to settle the Trade to Africa, a Clause was enacted in the Words following, viz. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and the late Queen Mary, amongst other Things, it was enacted, That no other Copper than what is made of English Ore only, should be exported, which proving very prejudicial to the Trade of England, by enabling Foreigners to export Copper much cheaper than it can be carried from England; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesty’s Subjects to export from England all such Copper Bars, as hath or shall be imported into England from Foreign Parts, and upon Exportation shall draw back all Duties, or vacate the Securities, saving the Half of the old Subsidy, as is usual in other Commodities: Which Clause being expired; and forasmuch as the Copper Manufacture of this Kingdom is brought to such Perfection, that there is more made than can be expended here and in the Plantations;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause, and every Matter and Thing therein contained, shall be and is hereby immediately, from and after the Time of the Expiration thereof, revived in full Force, and shall be and is hereby continued for and during the Space and Term of fourteen Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

The Clause in the Act 6 & 10 W. 3. c. 26. relating to the Exportation of Copper Bars imported, continued for 14 Years, &c.

No Drawback except for East India and Barbary Copper. See 13 Geo. 1. c. 27.

V. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed on the Exportation of any Copper, but such as hath been or shall be imported from the East Indies and the Coast of Barbary only, [Continued with 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 26. §. 19.] Farther continued by 32 Geo. 2. c. 23.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officer of the Place where the said Salt was made, and the Duties thereof paid, or secured to be paid, shall, upon Demand, deliver gratis to such Master of the Vessel, a Certificate, under his Hand and Seal, of the particular Quantity of Salt shipped on Board his Vessel for the North Seas, or Isleland, and that the Duties on such Salt have been paid or secured to be paid.

Officer where the Salt was made, &c. to give the Master a Certificate of the Quantity shipped.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Codfish, Ling or Hake, which have been caught and cured at the North Seas, or at Isleland, may be imported and landed, so as Oath be first made before the Landing thereof, by the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, before the Officer for the said Duties in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed, (who is hereby impowered and required to administer the same, without Fee or Charge) That all the Fish so imported came from the North Seas, or Isleland, and were caught and cured there, and so as the said Fish be, at the Landing thereof, and before the same be removed from the Shore, tendred to the Officer of the Port for the said Duties, to have Part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling or Hake, cut off, that no Allowance for such Fish be obtained upon Exportation; and the said Officer is hereby impowered and required to cut off Part of the Tail of all such Fish on the Importation thereof; and in Case any such Fish shall be landed before the same shall be tendred to the Officer, to have Part of the Tail cut off, as aforesaid, all the Fish so landed shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

Codfish, &c. may be imported, on Oath made that it came from the North Seas, &c. and so as the Fish be tendred to the Officer of the Duties, to have Part of the Tail cut off. Fish landed before so tendred, shall be forfeited.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Salt so made use of in curing of Fish shall remain, such foul Salt shall be thrown over Board and destroyed, in the Presence of the Officer for the Salt-Duties for such Port, before the Collector shall sign his Certificate.

Foul Salt to be thrown over Board.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall happen, that any of the Salt so taken on Board for curing of Fish, shall not have been used for that Purpose, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Master of such Ship or Vessel to land the said Salt, so as an Entry be made thereof within ten Days after his coming into any Port in Great Britain that he shall arrive at, and the Duties paid down for the same, before such Salt, or any Part thereof, shall be landed or taken out of any such Ship or Vessel: And if such Master shall neglect or refuse to enter such Salt, in such Port where he shall first arrive, and pay down the Duties for the same within the said ten Days (except in Case of his being driven into any Port, or detained there by Strefs of Weather or contrary Winds, or other unavoidable Necessities) then and in such Case all the Salt on Board such Ship or Vessel shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, or the Person commanding the same in that Voyage.

Salt not used, may be relanded, so as an Entry be made thereof.

Master neglecting to enter the Salt, it shall be forfeited and double the Value.

VI. And be it enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of such Boat or Vessel, upon producing to the Collector of the Salt-Duties for the Port where he imports his Fish, such Certificate of the Quantity of Salt taken on Board, and that the Duties of it were paid or secured to be paid, and making Oath before the said Collector, of the particular Quantity of the Salt in such Certificate mentioned, that was made use of in curing of Codfish, Ling or Hake, caught and cured at the North Sea, or at Isleland, and that the said Fish have been all marked, as aforesaid, that there may be no Allowance obtained for the same upon Exportation (which Oath the said Collector is hereby impowered and required to administer without Fee or Charge) shall receive gratis from the said Collector a Certificate of the same, which, together with a Certificate of Payment of the Duty of the Remainder of the Salt taken in for that Voyage, if there shall be any Remainder, (which Certificate he shall also receive gratis) being produced to the Collector of the Salt-Duties for the Place where the Duties on the said Salt were paid or secured to be paid, such

On producing a Certificate of the Quantity taken on Board, &c. and on Oath made of how much was used in Curing, &c. the Security given for the Payment of the Duties shall be discharged, and the Collector shall repay the Duties without Fee.

The Duties of Salt that perished at Sea, or was taken by the Enemy, shall be repaid.

such Security shall be discharged, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be repaid upon Demand by the said Collector, without Fee or Reward.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Master of any such Boat or Vessel shall have taken in any Quantity of British Salt, for the curing of Fish in the North Seas, or at Isle-land, as aforesaid, the Duties of the Salt having been paid or secured to be paid, and the Vessel on which such Salt, as aforesaid, is shipped, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies with such Salt on Board her, that in such Case any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division or Town, wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to the Officer of the Place, where the Duty on such Salt shall have been paid or secured to be paid, such Security shall be discharged, and so much Money, as was actually paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be repaid upon Demand by the said Officer, without Fee or Reward, provided such Proof be made within nine Months after such Loss or Taking, as aforesaid.

One Half of the Forfeitures shall be to the Crown, the other to the Seizer, &c. to be recovered as by the Laws of Excise.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures given by this or any former Law, relating to the Duties of Excise upon Salt, shall be distributed in Manner following, (that is to say) one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who shall seize, sue or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered and levied, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated by any Law of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and all and every Officer and Officers for the said Duties on Salt, are hereby authorized and empowered to seize all Salt and other Things which by this or any former Act or Law relating to the Duties on Salt are declared to be forfeited.

General Issue.

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in Purfance of this or any other of the Statutes relating to the Duties of Excise upon Salt, or the Powers thereby given, he or they shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial, a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonsuit, discontinue or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant and Defendants shall have double Costs to him or them awarded, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

IX. AND whereas in and by one Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act containing divers Orders for Artificers, Labourers, Servants of Husbandry and Apprentices, it is enacted in the Words following; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the first Day of May next coming, it shall not be lawful to any Person or Persons, other than such as now do lawfully use or exercise any Art, Mystery, or Manual Occupation, to set up, occupy, use or exercise any Craft, Mystery or Occupation, now used or occupied within this Realm of England or Wales, except he shall have been brought up therein seven Years at the least as an Apprentice; in Manner and Form above said, nor to set any Person on Work in such Mystery, Art or Occupation, being not a Workman at this Day, except he shall have been Apprentice, as is aforesaid, or else having served as an Apprentice, as is aforesaid, shall or will become a Journeyman, or hired by the Year, upon Pain that every Person willingly offending or doing the contrary, shall forfeit and lose for every Default forty Shillings for every Month: Upon which aforesaid Statute, several Distillers of Brandy or Spirits made from British Malt or Cyder, stand indicted for not having served seven Years, as aforesaid, to the great Discouragement of the Consumption of malted Corn and Cyder, and destructive to her Majesty's Revenue of Excise; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons shall or may distil Brandy or Spirits made from British Malt or Cyder, and such Person or Persons shall not be prosecuted for so doing by Virtue of the aforesaid Statute, or any Clause, Matter or Thing contained therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for laying Duties upon Soap, and other Matters therein mentioned, it was amongst other Things enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for the respective Treasurers of the Navy and Ordnance, and the respective Paymasters of the Guards, Garrisons and Land Forces for the Time being, or any other Officers or Persons, who then were or afterwards should be entitled (for the publick Use and Benefit) to any Parts or Shares of the Capital Stock of the Corporation erected by the Name of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, trading to the South Seas and other Parts of America, and and for encouraging the Fishery (not being absolutely sold, applied or disposed for some of the publick ^{10 Ann. c. 19.} Uses in that Act mentioned) from Time to Time, by any Warrant or Warrants in Writing from the ^{§. 185.} High Treasurer of Great Britain then being, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, (and not otherwise) to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money, from any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who were or should be willing to advance or lend the same upon Credit of the said publick Stock, or any Part thereof, and to allow Interest, not exceeding the Rate of six Pounds per Cent. per Ann. for the Forbearance thereof, as is therein mentioned, and to assign, mortgage, and transfer such respective Shares of the said Stock, whereupon such Sums of Money should be agreed to be so lent, to the respective Lenders thereof or such as they severally and respectively should appoint, and to their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns respectively, upon such Conditions of Redemption, and under such Agreements for the Sale of the Stock so mortgaged, for making Default in the Repayment of the Money to be borrowed thereupon, or for Non-payment of the Interest thereof, and subject to such other Conditions, and in such Manner and Form as in such Warrant and Warrants respectively should be prescribed in that Behalf; and that all the Money which should be borrowed upon Credit of such Stock, as aforesaid, should be applied and disposed by the said Treasurers, Paymasters, or others respectively chargeable therewith, to such publick Uses whereunto the said Stock so to be mortgaged would have been applicable by or in Pursuance of another Act in the said recited Act mentioned, if no such Mortgage, Assignment or Transfer had been made, and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; and that the said Treasurers, Paymasters and other Officers, borrowing the said Monies, should be answerable for the Application thereof accordingly; and that the said Company should not be responsible for permitting the Stock to be so transferred, as if the same were unduly transferred; and that the Lenders of such Money should not be chargeable with the Application thereof to the said Uses, as by the said Act of the tenth Year of ^{10 Ann. c. 19.}

 her Majesty's Reign may more fully appear: And whereas some Doubt hath been made, whether the Governor and Company of the Bank of England (with Regard to certain Restrictions contained in former Acts of Parliament) might lawfully lend Money upon Credit of the said publick Stock, pursuant to the said Act in that Behalf: For obviating of which Doubt, it is declared and enacted by this present Act,
 That it shall and may be lawful, as well to and for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as to and for any other Person or Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend such Sum and Sums of Money, as they, or any of them, shall think fit, to the said Treasurers, Paymasters and others, or any of them, upon Credit of the publick Stock before mentioned, or any Part thereof, at such Interest, and upon such Assignments, Mortgages or Transfers, subject to such Conditions of Redemption, and with such Agreements for selling the Stock so mortgaged, in Case of Non-payment of the Principal or Interest, and in all other Respects according to the Forms prescribed in the said recited Act of Parliament in that Behalf; any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Restrictions, Prohibitions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters or Things therein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. V.

An Act for taking away the new additional Duty of thirty Pounds per Centum ad Valorem, imposed upon all Books and Prints imported into Great Britain, by an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty Queen ANNE.

WHEREAS by divers Acts of Parliament heretofore made, several Duties have been laid upon all ^{10 Annæ, c. 19.}
 Books and Prints imported into Great Britain: And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of ^{sect. 33.}
 the Reign of her present Majesty Queen ANNE, a further Duty of thirty Pounds per Centum ad Valorem, was laid upon all Books and Prints imported into Great Britain; which said Additional Duty of thirty Pounds per Centum has been found, by Experience, to have tended very much to the Discouragement of Learning, and to have been prejudicial to the other Duties formerly laid: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, the said Duty of thirty Pounds per Centum ad Valorem shall not be charged, levied, or collected upon any Books or Prints imported into Great Britain, but the said Duty is hereby absolutely discharged and taken away; and the said Act, so far only as it relates to the said Duty of thirty Pounds per Centum ad Valorem, shall be and is hereby absolutely repealed.

An Act for taking away Mortuaries within the Dioceses of Bangor, Landaff, St. Davids, and St. Asaph, and giving a Recompense therefore to the Bishops of the said respective Dioceses: And for confirming several Letters Patents granted by her Majesty, for perpetually annexing a Prebend of Gloucester to the Mastership of Pembroke College in Oxford; and a Prebend of Rockster to the Provostship of Oriel College in Oxford; and a Prebend of Norwich to the Mastership of Catherine Hall in Cambridge.

21 H. 8. c. 6.
sect. 7.

The Clause in the recited Act, so far as it relates to the taking any Mortuary in the Dioceses of Bangor, Landaff, St. David's, and St. Asaph, repealed.

And the Bishops of the said Dioceses shall not take any Mortuaries after the Times limited above.

Recompense to the Bishop of St. Asaph and his Successors, for such Mortuaries.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the one and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, An Act where Mortuaries ought to be paid, for what Persons, and how much, and in what Case none is due, and by a Proviso or Clause therein contained, it is provided (among other Things) That it shall be lawful to the Bishops of Bangor, Landaff, St. Davids, and St. Asaph, to take such Mortuaries of the Priests within their Dioceses and Jurisdictions as thentofore had been accustomed; and the Bishops of the said Dioceses for the Time being have accordingly used to demand and take, and continue to demand and take Mortuaries upon the Death of any Clergyman within their said Dioceses and Jurisdictions; which said Mortuaries consisting of several of the best Goods of the deceased, do oftentimes amount to a very considerable Part of his Estate, and the Payment thereof does very much lessen that small Provision which generally the Clergy of those Dioceses are able to make for the Support of their Families, and tends to the great impoverishing of the same: For the Remedying whereof for the future, and for abolishing and taking away all Mortuaries or Corse-presents, and the Custom or Usage of taking and paying Mortuaries or Corse-presents upon the Death of Clergymen within the said Dioceses and Jurisdictions: And to the End a reasonable Recompense and Satisfaction for the same may be provided and established for the Bishops of the said Dioceses for ever;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Proviso or Clause in the said Act, and all and every Proviso or Clause in the same Act, so far as the same do or doth relate to the taking any Mortuary or Corse-present upon the Death of any Clergyman within the said respective Dioceses or Jurisdictions, shall immediately, from and after the respective Times herein after mentioned, that is to say, within the said Diocese of St. Asaph from and after the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; and within the said Diocese of Bangor, immediately from and after such Time any Rectory Sine Cura shall next happen to be void and be in the Collation of the present Bishop of the said Diocese of Bangor, or of any of his Successors; and within the said Diocese of Landaff, immediately from and after such Time as the Treasurership, with the Prebend thereto annexed, founded in the Cathedral Church of Landaff, shall next happen to be void, such Treasurership and Prebend being in the Collation of the Bishop of the said Diocese of Landaff; and within the said Diocese of St. Davids, immediately from and after such Time as the Prebend of Langamarch, founded in the Collegiate Church of Brecon, now enjoyed by John Medley Arch-Deacon of St. Davids, shall next happen to be void, the same being in the Collation of the Bishop of St. Davids, stand and be absolutely repealed, annulled, and void, and all and every, and any Custom, and Usage of and for paying, demanding, or taking any Mortuary or Corse-present, or any Goods, Thing or Things, for or in the Name of a Mortuary or Corse-present, upon the Death of any Clergyman within the said respective Dioceses or Jurisdictions, shall, from the respective Times aforesaid, for ever, be absolutely abolished and void; and no Mortuary or Corse-present, or Sum or Sums of Money for or in Lieu of the same, or in the Name thereof, shall be yielded, paid, answered or satisfied, or be due or payable by any Person or Persons, to any Bishop of either of the said Dioceses, or other Person or Persons claiming by, from, or under any such Bishop: And that from and after the respective Times aforesaid, it shall not be lawful to or for the respective Bishops of the said Dioceses or any of them, their or any or either of their Successors, Farmers, Bailiffs or Lessees, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, claiming by or under such Bishops, or any or either of them, to take, receive or demand of any Person or Persons, any Manner of Mortuary or Corse-present, or any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Thing, for or in the Name, Lieu or Stead of any Mortuary or Corse present, or to convene, cite, sue or prosecute any Person or Persons before any Judge Spiritual, or in any of her Majesty’s Courts of Law, or other Court whatsoever, for the Recovery of, or for, touching or concerning any Mortuary or Corse-present, or any Thing in Lieu thereof, for or by Reason or on Account of the Death of any Priest or Clergyman within the said respective Dioceses or Jurisdictions, at any Time after the respective Times aforesaid; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any Law, Custom or Usage whatever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Recompense and Satisfaction to the Bishop of St. Asaph and his Successors, for such Mortuaries as might arise or become due or payable to the said Bishop of St. Asaph, or his Successors, by Virtue of the said recited Act, upon the Death of any Priest or Clergyman, the Rectory Sine Cura, which shall first after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, happen to be void, and be in the Collation of the Bishop of the said Diocese of St. Asaph, or any of his Successors, shall immediately upon such Vacancy, and from thenceforth be annexed and united to the said Bishoprick of St. Asaph for ever, and all and every the Profits, Rights, Dues, Benefits and Advantages whatsoever of the same Rectory, or thereto in any wise belonging or appertaining, shall or may be had, received, taken and enjoyed by the Bishop of the said Diocese and his Successors for ever.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Recompense and Satisfaction to the Bishop of Bangor and his Successors, for such Mortuaries as might arise or become due or payable to the said Bishop of Bangor or his Successors, by Virtue of the said recited Act, upon the Death of any Priest or Clergyman, the Rectory Sine Cura, which shall next happen to be void, and be in the Collation of the Bishop of the said Diocese of Bangor, or any of his Successors, shall, immediately upon such Vacancy, and from thenceforth be annexed and united to the said Bishoprick of Bangor for ever; and all and every the Profits, Rights, Dues, Benefits and Advantages whatsoever of the same Rectory, or thereto in any wise belonging or appertaining, shall or may be had, received, taken and enjoyed by the Bishop of the said Diocese of Bangor and his Successors for ever.

Recompense to the Bishop of Bangor, &c.

IV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend to enable any Bishop in either of the said Dioceses of St. Asaph and Bangor, to demise, let or set; and that it shall not be lawful to or for the Bishops of either of the said Dioceses, or any of their Successors, to demise, lease, set, or let to Farm, or otherwise, either of such Rectories Sine Cura, annexed and united to the respective Bishopricks of St. Asaph and Bangor, as aforementioned, or any the Rights, Dues, Benefits or Profits thereof, for any longer Time than such Bishop, by whom any Lease of either of the said Rectories Sine Cura shall be made, shall continue Bishop of the said Diocese; any Statute, Law, or Usage whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bishops of St. Asaph and Bangor, shall not lease the Rectories united to their Bishopricks for any longer Term than they continue Bishops.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Recompense and Satisfaction to the Bishop of Landaff and his Successors, for such Mortuaries as might arise or become due or payable to the said Bishop of Landaff, or his Successors, by Virtue of the said recited Act, upon the Death of any Priest or Clergyman, whensoever the Treasurership, with the Prebend thereto annexed, founded in the Cathedral Church of Landaff, shall next happen to be void, the said Treasurership and Prebend shall, immediately upon such Vacancy, and from thenceforth be annexed and united to the said Bishoprick of Landaff for ever; and all and every the Profits, Rights, Dues, Benefits and Advantages whatsoever, of the said Treasurership and Prebend, or thereto in any wise belonging or appertaining, shall or may be had, received, taken and enjoyed by the Bishop of the said Diocese of Landaff and his Successors for ever.

Recompense to the Bishop of Landaff:

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Recompense and Satisfaction to the Bishop of St. Davids and his Successors, for such Mortuaries as might arise or become due or payable to the said Bishop of St. Davids, or his Successors, by Virtue of the said recited Act, upon the Death of any Priest or Clergyman, whensoever the said Prebend of Langamarsh shall next happen to be void, the said Prebend shall, immediately upon such Vacancy, and from thenceforth be annexed and united to the said Bishoprick of St. Davids for ever; and all and every the Profits, Rights, Dues, Benefits and Advantages whatsoever, of the same Prebend, or thereto in any wise belonging or appertaining, shall or may be had, received, taken and enjoyed by the Bishop of the said Diocese of St. Davids and his Successors for ever, in as full and ample Manner as the said John Medley now hath or enjoyeth, or might or ought to have and enjoy the same.

To the Bishop of St. Davids.

VII. And whereas her Majesty has been graciously pleased, by her Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the eleventh Day of November in the twelfth Year of her Reign, to incorporate Collwell Brickenden Doctor in Divinity, the Master of Pembroke College in the University of Oxford, and his Successors, Masters of the same College, by the Name, Style and Title of Master of Pembroke College in the University of Oxford; and did thereby grant to the said Master and his Successors, Masters of the same College, for their better Support and Maintenance, that Canonship or Prebend in the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Gloucester, which should first happen to be void, and in the Gift of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from and after the Date of the said Grant; to have and to hold the said Canonship or Prebend, to the said Collwell Brickenden Master of the said College, and his Successors, Masters of the same College, of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in pure and perpetual Alms, for and during his and their respective Continuance in the said Mastership; and did thereby likewise unite such Canonship or Prebend, as aforesaid, to the said Corporation for ever: And whereas her Majesty has been also graciously pleased, by other her Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the fourteenth Day of January in the twelfth Year of her Reign, to incorporate George Carter Doctor in Divinity, the Provost of Oriel College in the University of Oxford, and his Successors, Provosts of the same College, by the Name, Style and Title of Provost of the House of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Oxon, commonly called Oriel College, of the Foundation of Edward the Second, some Time King of England, of famous Memory; and did thereby grant to the said Provost, and his Successors, Provosts of the same College, for their better Support and Maintenance, that Canonship or Prebend in the Cathedral Church of Christ, and of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of Rocheſter, which should first happen to be void, and in the Gift of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from and after the Date of the said Grant; Saving always the Right of the Arch-Deacons of the said Church for the Time being, to one of the said Canonships, by Virtue of a former Grant; to have and to hold the said Canonship or Prebend, to the said George Carter, Provost of the said College, and his Successors, Provosts of the same College, of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in pure and perpetual Alms, for and during his and their Continuance in the said Provostship; and did thereby likewise unite such Canonship or Prebend, as aforesaid, to the said Corporation for ever: And whereas her Majesty has been further graciously pleased, by other her Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the six and twentieth Day of April in the thirteenth Year of her Reign, to incorporate Thomas Sherlock Doctor in Divinity, Master or Warden of St. Catherine's College or Hall in the University of Cambridge, and his Successors, Masters or Wardens of the same College or Hall, by the Name, Style and Title of Master or Warden of St. Catherine's College or Hall in the University of Cambridge; and did thereby grant to the said Master or Warden, and his Successors, Masters or Wardens of the same College or Hall, for their better Support and Maintenance, that Canonship or Prebend in

The Queen's Letters Patents to the Master of Pembroke College, and to the Provost of Oriel College in Oxon, and to the Warden of Katherine Hall in Cambridge, confirmed.

‘ the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity in Norwich, of the Foundation of King Edward the Sixth, which should first happen to be void, and in the Gift of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, from and after the Date of the said Grant; to have and to hold the said Canonship or Prebend to the said Thomas Sherlock, Master or Warden of the said College or Hall, and his Successors, Masters or Wardens of the same College or Hall; of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in pure and perpetual Alms for and during his and their Continuance in the said Mastership or Wardenship; and did thereby likewise unite such Canonship or Prebend, as aforesaid, to the said Corporation for ever; as by the said several and respective recited Letters Patents (Relation being thereunto had) may more fully and at large appear.’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several and respective recited Letters Patents, and all and singular the Clauses, Articles and Things therein respectively contained, shall be and are hereby ratified and confirmed, and the said several and respective Canonships or Prebends shall be, from Time to Time, for ever, held and enjoyed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the several and respective Letters Patents above recited.

A publick Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be taken and allowed in all Courts within this Kingdom as a publick Act.

Saving to the Crown all First Fruits, &c. for such Rectories, &c.

IX. Saving nevertheless, and always reserved unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, all and singular First-fruits and Tenths, in any wise due or payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for or in respect of such Rectories Sine Cura, and Treasurership, and Prebend thereunto annexed, founded in the Cathedral Church of Landaff, and the said Prebend of Langamarch, and all such Right and Title, as her said Majesty hath in or to such First-fruits and Tenths, or any of them, and which shall continue to be levied and paid in like Manner as heretofore; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Another Saving to the Lessees, &c.

See 28 Geo. 2. c. 6. for taking away Mortuaries in Chester.

X. Saving also to the Queen’s Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and to the respective Lessee or Lessees of the said Treasurership, and Prebend thereunto annexed, founded in the Cathedral Church of Landaff, and to the said Prebend of Langamarch, and to all and every other Person or Persons whatsoever, all such Estate, Right, Title and Interest, in, to or out of the said Treasurership and Prebend thereto annexed, and the said Prebend of Langamarch, as any such Lessee or Lessees, or other Person or Persons, have or might have or claim, in, to, or out of the said Treasurership and Prebend thereunto annexed, and the said Prebend of Langamarch, if this Act had not passed.

An Act to prevent the Growth of Schism, and for the further Security of the Churches of England and Ireland, as by Law established.

23 & 24 Car. 2. c. 4.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Uniformity of publick Prayers, and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies; and for establishing the Form of making, ordaining, and consecrating Bishops, Priests and Deacons in the Church of England, it is, amongst other Things enacted, That every Schoolmaster keeping any publick or private School, and every Person instructing or teaching any Youth in any House or private Family, as a Tutor or Schoolmaster, should subscribe before his or their respective Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese, a Declaration or Acknowledgment, in which, amongst other Things was contained, as follows, viz. I A. B. do declare, That I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as it is now by Law established; and if any Schoolmaster, or other Person instructing or teaching Youth in any private House or Family, as a Tutor or Schoolmaster, should instruct or teach any Youth as a Tutor or Schoolmaster before Licence obtained from his respective Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, for which he should pay twelve Pence only, and before such Subscription and Acknowledgment made, as aforesaid, then every such Schoolmaster and other instructing and teaching, as aforesaid, should, for the first Offence, suffer three Months Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize, and for every second and other such Offence should suffer three Months Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize, and also forfeit to his Majesty the Sum of five Pounds: And whereas notwithstanding the said Act, sundry Papists and other Persons dissenting from the Church of England, have taken upon them to instruct and teach Youth as Tutors or Schoolmasters, and have for such Purpose openly set up Schools and Seminaries, whereby, if due and speedy Remedy be not had, great Danger might ensue to this Church and State: For the making the said recited Act more effectual, and preventing the Danger aforesaid, &c. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 10. and 1 Jac. 2. c. 4.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties granted by former Acts upon Wines and Vinegar, and upon Tobacco and East India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, the Methods prescribed for collecting the Impost Duty upon Tobacco, granted by an Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the Second, are altered, and, among other Things, it is enacted, That on any Payment of the said Duty for Tobacco to be consumed here, there be an Allowance of eight Pounds per Cent. for the Merchants Encouragement, in Consideration of Waste and Shrinkage in the Cellars, and an Allowance of four Pounds per Cent. in Consideration of Waste that may arise on any Tobacco exported within the Time allowed by Law, to be struck off only from the Entries, and not to be paid where the whole Quantity entred shall happen to be exported; both which Acts are since ‘ since continued, and are now in Force: And whereas by Law there are several other Duties payable on the Importation of Tobacco, but no Provision is made thereby for giving any Allowance out of the same, in Consideration of Waste or Shrinkage, as aforesaid; and it being reasonable that the Manner of collecting the several Duties upon Tobacco should be in one uniform Method, and that the same Allowance for Waste and Shrinkage on the Consumption here, should be granted to the Exporters, for the Preservation and Improvement of that most beneficial Trade, which, for many Years past, hath greatly declined; Be it enacted and declared by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, during the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, there shall, for the better Encouragement of the said Consumption and Export Trade, be an Allowance of eight Pounds per Cent. made to the Merchant at Importation, out of all the Duties payable upon Tobacco, instead of the aforesaid eight Pounds, and four Pounds per Cent. which by the before recited Acts are to be allowed only out of the Impost Duty, and which said Allowance of eight Pounds per Cent. out of all the said Duties, shall not be deducted from the Merchants on Exportation; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ II. And whereas by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and by the Book of Rates therunto annex, an additional Duty of one Penny per Pound was made payable for all Tobacco of the English Plantations, upon giving Security for Payment of the same at nine Months after the Importation: And whereas by the said Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King JAMES the Second, a Duty or Impost of three Pence per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco, and six Pence per Pound on all Tobacco of Foreign Plantations, the Method of collecting which Impost Duty was altered by the said Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, and thereby the Payment thereof was to be at the End of eighteen Months, with certain Discounts at different Rates for Prompt Payment within the respective Times thereby limited: And whereas by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, a further Subsidy of one Penny per Pound was laid on all Tobacco of the English Plantations, payable in three Months from the Importation, upon Security: And whereas by one other Act made in the second Year of her Majesty’s Reign, a Duty of one third Part of one Penny per Pound was made payable on the same Tobacco, and the Importer to have nine Months for the Payment thereof, on sufficient Security; all which Acts before mentioned are, by several subsequent Acts, since continued, and are now in Force: And whereas the Payment of the said several Duties, at the different Times, as before mentioned, according to the respective Acts of Parliament, has by Experience been found prejudicial and burthenfome to Trade, and a Loss to the Revenue: For Prevention whereof for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, during the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, all the said several and respective Duties on Tobacco, granted by the aforementioned Acts of Parliament, and since continued, shall be due and payable, during the Term aforesaid, at the End of eighteen Months, to commence at the End of thirty Days after the Master’s Report of the Ship, or to commence from the Merchant’s Entry of the Goods within those thirty Days, which shall first happen, and the Bond or Bonds to be given for the same, shall be made payable at the End of eighteen Months accordingly; any Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, That if the Importer or Proprietor of Tobacco shall, upon Entry thereof, pay ready Money for all or any Part of the said Duties within the said thirty Days, or at any Time or Times within any of the first fifteen Months of the said eighteen Months, to commence at the End of the said thirty Days after the Master’s Report of the Ship, he shall, in lieu of all former Discounts made for Prompt Payment, out of all the said Duties have an Allowance made of ten Pounds per Cent. per Ann. for the said fifteen Months, or proportionably for so many intire Months of the said fifteen Months as shall then remain unexpired, but not to be allowed any Discount after the End of fifteen Months, nor for any less Time than a Month; and in case after the Importer or Proprietor shall have given Security, as aforesaid, (which at his Election may be in one or more Bond or Bonds) to pay the said several Duties in eighteen Months, and shall be desirous to discharge his Bond or Bonds, or any Part thereof, in ready Money, sooner than fifteen Months, he shall be abated upon the Bond or Bonds for such Prompt Payment, so much as the said Discount shall amount to, in Proportion to such Time, but not to be allowed any Discount after the End of fifteen Months.

IV. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained, is intended to take away the said Allowance of eight Pounds per Cent. to be made out of the several Duties for the Merchants Encouragement, and in Consideration of Waste and Shrinkage, nor the Allowance of five in the Hundred out of the several Subsidies, and the said additional Duty, by Virtue of the respective Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Acts before recited.

‘ V. And whereas several Merchants and other Persons concerned in the Importation of Tobacco of the English Plantations, are frequently under Difficulties, and unable to give good and sufficient Security for the Payment of the several Duties imposed thereon: And whereas putting the same into proper Warehouses may not only be an Ease and Convenience to the Importers thereof, but also a Security to her Majesty’s Revenue, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, during the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, in case any Person importing any of the said Tobacco, shall pay down in ready Money the Subsidy of one Penny per Pound due and payable to her Majesty by the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, or by any Act or Acts continuing the same, and shall then desire to have the said Tobacco put into Warehouses, under the

Queen’s

Queen's and the Merchant's Locks, for the Security of the Remainder of the Duties, the Merchant or his Servants shall have free Access into the said Warehouses, at all seasonable Times; and the Custom-house Officers are hereby required to attend, without Fee or Reward: And it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners or Principal Officers of the Customs, to permit and cause the said Tobacco to be lodged and put into Warehouses (to be provided by and at the Charge of the Merchants, and to be first approved by the said Commissioners or Officers) upon the Merchant's giving his own Bond for Payment of the Duties at the End of fifteen Months; and if the Importer or Importers of such Tobacco, as has been so lodged in the Warehouses, shall not, within the said Time of fifteen Months, offer good and sufficient Security for Payment of the Duties at the End of the said eighteen Months, or by Debentures on Exportation of such Tobacco, or Payment of the several Duties for which his own Bond hath been given, discharge his or their Obligations, or any Part thereof, but that the Tobacco, or any Part thereof, shall continue and be still remaining in the said Warehouses, for Want of the Payment of the Duties due thereon; in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or Principal Officers of the Customs for the Time being, and who are hereby required and impowered, to cause the said Tobacco so remaining to be publicly sold by Inch of Candle, first giving the Proprietor or Proprietors fourteen Days Notice, or leaving the same in Writing at the Place of his or their last Abode, the Product thereof, after such Sale, first to be applied towards Payment of the Customs and Charges that have been expended thereon, and the Overplus, if any, to be rendred and paid to the Proprietor, or other Person lawfully authorised to receive the same.

VI. Provided always, That in case any Tobacco put into the said Warehouses, and so locked up, as aforesaid, shall be burnt or destroyed by Fire, during the Time it remains in the said Warehouses, the Proprietors or Owners of such Tobacco shall be allowed the Duties paid, and the Bond shall be discharged for so much thereof as shall have been so burnt or destroyed.

VII. And whereas divers great Quantities of Tobacco of the English Plantations have been imported for some Time, but by Reason of the Deadness of the Tobacco Trade, occasioned by the Length of the late War, the Importers or Proprietors thereof have not entred the said Tobacco, and paid or secured the Duties for the same, as the Law requires; For Relief therefore of the said Importers or Proprietors of the said Tobacco in this special Case, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Time of Importation of all such Tobaccos, as are already imported, and not entred, shall be reckoned to be from the second Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, in like Manner as if the Masters of the said Ships or Vessels had made Report of their several Ladings on that Day; and the Importers or Proprietors of such Tobacco shall pay or secure the Duties, and have and enjoy the several Allowances and Discounts, and be entituled to drawback the Duties, as fully and in like Manner as if the said Tobacco had been imported, and the Masters of the Ships had made their respective Reports of their Ladings, on the said second Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; any Law, Usage or Custom, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that her Majesty's Revenue suffers great Prejudice, as well by Allowances for damaged Tobacco, as by the obtaining a Drawback by Debenture on the Re-shipping the same, as if such Tobacco had been found and good, and paid the Duties at Importation; For preventing the like Abuses for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, within or during the Term of five Years thence next ensuing, or at any Time before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, no Merchant or other Person whatsoever shall have any Allowance or Abatement for the Subsidies or other Duties made him, for any Sort of Tobacco imported, or to be imported, under Pretence of such Tobacco being corrupt or unmerchantable: But in case any Merchant or other Person shall refuse to make Entry of such damaged Tobacco, and to pay and secure the whole Duties due and payable for the same, then he or they shall have Liberty to separate from his or their Tobacco, so much thereof as they shall refuse to pay Custom for; and the Principal Officers of her Majesty's Customs, or any two or more of them, shall cause all such corrupt Tobacco to be weighed and publicly burnt, or otherwise destroyed as not wholesome and fit for Use; and the Owner or Importer thereof shall be discharged from paying or securing any Subsidy, or other Duties for the same, to her Majesty; any Law, Custom or Usage, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Importer of such damaged and corrupt Tobacco, shall, as a Compensation for Freight and other Charges, and for that the cutting off, and separating the same, may deface the Remainder of the Tobacco, have an Allowance of twenty-five Pounds Weight of Tobacco, free of all Duties, for every one hundred Pounds of such corrupt and damaged Tobacco so separated, to be burnt or destroyed, as aforesaid, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; which Allowance of twenty-five Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of Tobacco so to be made, as aforesaid, shall be by Certificate; and the Officers are hereby required to make, pass, and pay such Certificate without Fee or Reward, the Tobacco mentioned in such Certificate not to be placed to the Merchant's Export Account, so as such Allowance of twenty-five Pounds of Tobacco for every one hundred Pounds of damaged Tobacco so separated or destroyed, does not exceed the Quantity of one hundred and fifty Pounds of Tobacco, upon or for any Hoghead of Aranca Tobacco, or the Quantity of two hundred Pounds of Tobacco, upon or for any Hoghead of sweet-scented Tobacco.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to forbid or hinder the Merchants or Importers having an Allowance made them for damaged Tobacco, in such Manner as hath been usual, so as such Allowance doth not exceed forty Pounds Weight of Tobacco upon any one Hoghead; and for the more ready Dispatch of Business, such small Damages, not exceeding forty Pounds Weight on any one Hoghead, shall be viewed, and the Allowance made in the Scale; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And

Merchant to give his own Bond to pay the Duties at 15 Months End, to be sold by Inch of Candle.

Tobacco burnt in the Warehouses, Duties to be allowed, and Bond discharged.

For Tobacco in the River entered,

Time of Importation to be reckoned from 22 June 1714.

No Allowance for damaged Tobacco.

Merchant refusing to pay the Duties, such Tobacco to be destroyed, &c.

Owner to be allowed 25 lb. for every 100 lb.

The Allowance to be by Certificate, and not to be placed to the Export Account, &c.

Not to hinder former Allowances, not exceeding 40 lb. on any one Hoghead.

' XI. And whereas it frequently happens that divers Goods and Merchandizes are brought into her Majesty's Storehouses for want of being entred, and because the Duties of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties are not paid and secured as the Law directs, which Goods do remain there divers Years, and often so long, until they are perished, and become of no Value, whereby the Queen hath lost the whole Custom due on the Importation of the said Goods; For Prevention whereof for the future, Be it likewise enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, the Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being shall, in all Cases where the Goods are or shall be brought into her Majesty's Storehouses for Security of the Customs, and other Duties due thereon, as soon as conveniently they can, cause all Goods so brought into her Majesty's Storehouses, as aforesaid, which shall have remained there for the Space of twelve Months, the Subsidy and other Duties not paid, compounded for, or otherwise secured as the Law directs, to be publickly sold by Auction or Inch of Candle; and after such Sale, the Produce thereof is first to be applied to or towards the Payment of the Freight, Primage and Charges of Warehouse-room, and other Charges that shall arise thereon, next the Customs and Duties, and the Overplus to be paid to the Proprietor, or other Persons authorized to receive the same.

Goods in Warehouses unentered to be sold at publick Sale.

Altered by 12 Geo. 1. c. 23 § 19.

' XII. And whereas an Act passed in the eighth Year of her Majesty's Reign for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions, and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, and for better preventing Frauds in Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; in which Act there were several Regulations enacted to be complied with, in Order to entitle the Exporters of Tobacco to their Debentures; which new Regulations, being made to commence from the twenty-seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, by which Time the same could not be known in Scotland, several Parcels of Tobacco, through Ignorance, were exported from thence without Regard to the Regulations laid down in the said Act, the Debentures of which Tobacco have been refused to be made forth and allowed to the Merchants upon that Account only; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Tobacco exported from Scotland, after the twenty-seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, and before the sixteenth Day of April following, the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland shall cause the Debentures to be made forth, and allowed to the Merchants, according to the Laws in Force before the said twenty-seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten; any Thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 Ann. c. 13.

For all Tobacco exported from Scotland between 27 March and 16 April 1710. Exchequer there to make out Debentures.

' XIII. And whereas there has been some Doubt whether the Deputations or Authorities granted to Collectors, Surveyors, or other inferior Officers of the Customs, do remain in Force upon the Death or Removal of any of the Commissioners of the Customs, by whom the Deputations were granted; Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Collectors, Surveyors, or other inferior Officers of the Customs, who are or have been, or shall be hereafter deputed or appointed, as aforesaid, shall be deemed to remain and continue in their respective Offices and Employments, notwithstanding the Death or Removal of any of the Commissioners of the Customs, who deputed and appointed such Officers, until the Deputations of such Officers respectively shall be by the said Commissioners, or any superior Authority, revoked, annulled or made void. VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Starch, which at any Time or Times, within or during the Term of two and thirty Years, to be reckoned from the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies and Duties, already imposed thereupon) the Sum of two Pence for every Pound Weight, consisting of sixteen Ounces Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid down in Ready Money by the Importers thereof, from Time to Time, before the Landing of the same; and for and upon all Starch, of what Kind soever, which at any Time or Times, within or during the same Term of two and thirty Years, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny for every such Pound Weight Averdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, the same to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

Starch imported to pay 2d. per lb.

VIII. And it is hereby declared, That if the Charge on Starch be made by gaging the said Starch before it be dried in the Stove, then, and in every such Case, every Box of green Starch, or Starch before it be so dried, containing fifty-seven Inches in Length, and ten Inches in Breadth, shall, from the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, be esteemed one hundred thirty-one Averdupois Pound Weight of Starch dried and perfectly made, and shall be charged accordingly, and proportionably for greater or lesser Quantities.

Made in Great Britain 1 d. Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 1. Every Box of green Starch of 57 Inches in Length, and 10 in Breadth, to be charged as 131 lb. of Starch. The Depth of Inch 10 provided for, 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 1. c. 2. §. 6. For Duties on Starch, see farther 3 Geo. 1. c. 4. and 4 Geo. 2. c. 14.

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Coals which at any Time or Times, within or during the Term of two and thirty Years, to be reckoned from the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be shipped to be exported beyond the Seas (Coals exported to Ireland, the Isle of Man, or her Majesty's Plantations excepted) the Duties following, that is to say, For such Coals shipped to be exported by Foreign Bottoms, the Sum of five Shillings the Chalders, Newcastle Measure, (over and above the present Duties upon the same;) and for all Coals which at any Time or Times, within or during the same Term of two and thirty Years, shall be shipped to be exported beyond the Seas in British Bottoms, the Sum of three Shillings for every Chalders, Newcastle Measure (over and above the present Duties payable for the same) and no more; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Coals exported in foreign Bottoms to pay 5 s. the Chalders,

X. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Duties imposed by this Act upon such Sope, Paper, Pastboards, Millboards, Scaleboards, chequered and striped Linens, or any other Commodities before charged, as shall be imported into England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, during the Term or Terms aforesaid, and all the Duties which shall arise in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, for Coals to be exported during the Term therein granted, as aforesaid, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England, for the Time being, according to the Duties of their respective Offices; and that all the Duties imposed by this Act upon such Sope, Paper, Pastboards, Millboards, Scaleboards, and chequered and striped Linens, or any the Commodities before charged, as shall be imported into Scotland, during the respective Terms aforesaid, and all the Duties imposed by this Act, which shall arise in Scotland, for Coals to be exported during the said Term therein granted, as aforesaid, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being, according to the Duties of their respective Offices; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the Time being shall, from Time to Time, pay or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they shall respectively receive for the said imported Commodities, and for the said exported Coals (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as are to be inflicted by this Act for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for any the Purposes herein after mentioned.

in British Bottoms, 3 s. Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 1. The import Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs. Concerning Duty on Coals, see farther 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. 22 Geo. 2. c. 37. 39 Geo. 2. c. 19. Stat. 28.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Duties imposed by this Act upon such Sope, Paper, Pastboard, Millboard, Scaleboard, Starch, and other Commodities before particularly charged, as shall be made in England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, during the Term or Terms aforesaid, and all the Duties imposed by this Act, upon such Silks, Callicoes, Linens, Stuffs and Paper, as shall be printed, painted, stained or dyed in England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time or Times within or during the Term or Terms therein granted, as aforesaid, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being, and the Officers employed or to be employed under them; and that all the Duties imposed by this Act upon such Sope, Paper, Pastboard, Millboard, Scaleboard, Starch, and other Commodities before particularly charged, as shall be made in Scotland during the Term or Terms aforesaid, and all Duties imposed by this Act upon such Silks, Callicoes, Linens, Stuffs and Paper, as shall be printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Scotland, at any Time or Times within or during the Term or Terms therein granted, as aforesaid, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the Time being, and the Officers to be employed under them; and that the said respective Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland for the Time being shall, from Time to Time, pay or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they shall respectively receive for the said Duties upon Sope, Paper, Pastboard, Millboard, Scaleboard and Starch, as shall be made in Great Britain within or during the respective Terms aforesaid, and for the said Duties upon such Silks, Callicoes, Linens, Stuffs and Paper, as shall be printed, painted, stained or dyed in Great Britain, at any Time or Times within or during the respective Terms therein granted, as aforesaid, as the same shall arise, into the Receipt of her Majesty's Exchequer in England, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as are to be inflicted by this Act for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for any the Purposes herein after mentioned.

Sope, Paper, &c. made in Great Britain, to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise.

How these several Duties shall be raised, &c.

10 Ann. c. 19.

XII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the several Duties by this Act imposed, as aforesaid, upon Sope, Paper of all Sorts, Pastboards, Millboards, Scaleboards, chequered and striped Linens, and upon printed, painted, stained and dyed Silks, Callicoes, Linens and Stuffs, during the said Term or Terms of Years, therein by this Act granted, in all Cases whatsoever (except where other Provision or Direction is specially made or given by this Act) shall be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, and with the like Discounts, Allowances, Exemptions and Drawbacks, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties imposed on the same Commodities respectively, by an Act made in the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for laying several Duties upon Sope, Paper, chequered and striped Linens, and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, Linens and Stuffs, printed, painted or stained, (amongst other Things thereby charged) for and during the respective Terms thereby granted, towards raising the Sum of one Million eight hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament thereby referred unto, or by any other Act of this Session of Parliament are to be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid respectively; and that the said Duty by this Act imposed upon Starch, during all the said Term of two and thirty Years therein by this Act granted, shall be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, and with the like Discounts, Allowances, Exemptions and Drawbacks, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties imposed by another Act of the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign, upon Starch (amongst other Things thereby charged) for and during the Term thereby granted, towards raising another Sum of one Million eight hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament thereby referred unto, are to be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid respectively, except in such Case or Cases, touching which other Directions are given by this Act; and that the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Coals exported to any foreign Parts, (except before excepted) during the said Term of Years by this Act granted of and in the same, shall be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Exportation of Coals, or any other customable Goods, to any foreign Parts, by any Law or Statute now in Force, during the Continuance thereof, are to be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid.

10 Ann. c. 26.

10 Ann. c. 19.

Proper Stamps to be provided.

XIII. And for better securing the Duties by this Act chargeable upon such of the Commodities aforesaid, as by the first mentioned Act of the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign are directed to be marked or stamped; and to the End the Duties arising thereupon by this Act may be better distinguished, and applied to the separate Use by this Act intended, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such proper Stamps or Seals shall, on or before the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, be provided and distributed by the said respective Commissioners, as may serve to denote the Payment or charging of the several Duties by this and the said former Act chargeable on the same Commodities respectively; and that the said Stamps or Seals by this Act directed to be provided, shall be used and applied accordingly, and shall and may, from Time to Time, be renewed or altered by the said respective Commissioners, as often as there shall be a necessary Occasion for renewing the same.

All the Powers in 10 Ann. to be in Force, 10 Ann. c. 19 & 26.

XIV. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Pains of Death, and other Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things whatsoever, contained in the said several Acts of the tenth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing and paying the Duties on such Commodities before mentioned, as are by this Act charged with new or additional Duties thereupon, or touching the Marks or Stamps thereby directed to be continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing and paying the same new or additional Duties, by this Act charged upon the same Commodities respectively, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if they were particularly and at large repeated in the Body of this present Act, except in such Cases only where any Alteration therein is specially made by this Act.

Persons exporting Silks, &c. to give Notice to the proper Officer of packing the said Goods,

XV. And whereas great Quantities of Silks, Callicoes and Linens that are printed, painted, stained or dyed in Great Britain, are frequently shipped off in order to be exported, as is pretended, for which the Exporter doth receive a very great Drawback; and notwithstanding the Law already made to prevent the relanding of them, yet very great Quantities are frequently relanded, to the great lessening of her Majesty's Revenue, and Prejudice of the fair Trader; To prevent which evil Practices for the future, and to secure the Duties upon the said Goods, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, all and every Person and Persons that shall export any Silks, Callicoes or Linens that are printed, painted, stained or dyed, for which a Drawback is to be allowed, such Person or Persons (before he or they shall ship the said Goods) in order to obtain the Drawback for the same, shall be obliged to give Notice to the proper Officer or Officers to be appointed pointed for that Purpose by the respective Commissioners of the Customs, when and where he will pack up the said Goods in Order to be exported; and the said Commissioners of the Customs are hereby empowered and directed to cause such Officer to take care to see that such Seal or Seals, Stamps or Marks, be taken off from every Piece so intended to be exported; and the said Officer or Officers shall take an Account of the Kinds and Quantities of the Goods so intended to be exported, and make a Return thereof to the Officer that shall be appointed by such Commissioners to receive the same, without any Fee or Reward for so doing.

‘XVI. And whereas Sope is more or less used in washing, scouring, or preparing the Sheeps Wool, or Lambs Wool, to be converted into the Woollen Manufactures of this Realm, and in the making or finishing Woollen Manufactures, or Manufactures mixed with Wool, whereof the greatest Part of the Value of the Materials is Wool, and in whitening of new Linen in the Piece, in Order to the Sale of such Linen, or in some of them, and it being judged reasonable to give an Encouragement to Persons who shall be employed in the preparing, making or finishing those Manufactures, whether the same be for Exportation or Home Consumption; It is hereby further provided and enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person and Persons, who, after the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, during the Continuance of the Duties on Sope by this Act granted, shall employ, spend and consume any Quantity or Quantities of Sope in the making of any Cloths, Serges, Kerfies, Bays, Stockings, or other Manufactures of Sheeps or Lambs Wool only, or Manufactures whereof the greatest Part of the Value of the Materials shall be Wool, or in the finishing the said Manufactures, or preparing the Wool for the same, or in whitening of new Linen in the Piece, in order to the Sale of such Linen, or to and for his, her or their chief Workman employed under him, her or them in those Works, or any of them, from Time to Time, to make Proof in Writing by the Affidavit of the said Person or Persons, who shall so employ, spend and consume the said Sope, or of his, her or their chief Workman, unless he, she or they be a known Quaker or Quakers, and by the solemn Affirmation of such Quaker or Quakers, before the Collector and Supervisor of the District or Division where such Sope shall be so employed, spent and consumed, or either of them (who are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer the same, upon the Request of the Manufacturer, or his, her or their chief Workman aforesaid) which said Affidavit or Affirmation shall specify the Kinds and Quantities of the Manufactures so made, finished, prepared or whitened, and the Days between which, and the Places where the same were so made, finished, prepared or whitened respectively, and the Quantities and Kinds of the Sope which were actually employed, spent and consumed therein, and that no Allowance by virtue of this Act, was before made to such Manufacturers respectively, or for his, her or their Benefit, of the Duties payable by this Act, for the Sope so specified in such Affidavit or Affirmation, or any Part thereof; and that upon the making of every such Affidavit or Affirmation, the said Collector out of the Money in his Hands of the said Duties upon Sope by this Act granted, shall pay to the said Manufacturers respectively so much as the whole Duties granted by this Act, for the Sope specified in every such Affidavit or Affirmation taken by the said Collector and Supervisor jointly, or by the said Collector singly, doth amount unto, without any Delay; and in case the same were administered by the Supervisor only, then upon a Certificate thereof made and signed by the said Supervisor (which he is hereby required to make and sign upon Demand) the said Collector shall, out of any Monies in his Hands of the said Duties on Sope, forthwith pay to the said Manufacturers respectively, the said Duties so payable by this Act for the Sope so spent and consumed, as aforesaid; and in case the Collector shall not then have Money sufficient in his Hands to satisfy such Payments, That then and in every such Case, the Commissioners of the said Duties on Sope for the Time being, upon a Certificate thereof from the said Collector (who is hereby enjoined and required to make and sign such Certificate) shall forthwith cause such Payments to be made out of any Monies arising by the said Duties on Sope by this Act granted, without any further Delay.

XVII. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Affidavits, Affirmations and Certificates, touching the said Allowance to the Woollen and Linen Manufacturers aforesaid, shall and may be written or printed upon Paper not stamped or marked for any the Duties charged by any Act upon stamp Vellum, Parchment or Paper; and that no Fee, Gratuity or Reward whatsoever, shall be required, demanded or taken from any the said Manufacturers, for making any the Payments of the said Allowance for Sope consumed in the said Woollen or Linen Manufactures, or for making or taking any the said Affidavits, Affirmations, or Certificates relating thereunto (except four Pence for writing every such Affidavit, Affirmation or Certificate) upon Pain that any the said Officers offending therein, shall for every such Offence pay treble Damages to the Party grieved, besides Costs of Suit, to be recovered in such Manner, as any other Penalties relating to the Duties upon Sope are by this Act to be recovered.

XVIII. And for the better preventing Frauds and Abuses in obtaining the Allowances last mentioned, it is hereby further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, in such Affidavit or Affirmation, swear, affirm or alledge any Matter or Thing that shall be false and untrue, with an Intent to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, such Person or Persons offending therein, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose treble the Value of the Allowance for which such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be made, to be recovered in like Manner (to wit) one third Part thereof to the Use of the Queen's Majesty, and the other two Thirds thereof, with Costs of Suit, to the Use of the Informer or Prosecutor; and if any Person or Persons, being once convicted of any such Offence, shall again offend in the like Kind, and be thereof duly convicted in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in any the Courts of Scotland, every such Person or Persons, for such other Offence, shall suffer as in Cases of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

‘XIX. And whereas it has been found by Experience, That several Makers of Sope, with Intent to deceive her Majesty of the just Duties by this and the recited Act granted, do make Sope in private Cellars and other secret Places, and fraudulently issue and send out the same in small Casks: For preventing of which evil Practice for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the second Day who is to take care that the Seals be taken off from every Piece, &c.

On Oath or Affirmation of the Quantity of Sope spent in making Cloths, &c.

Specifying the Manufactures so made, &c. and that no Allowance hath been made before, Collector to repay the whole Duties, &c.

Such Affidavits, &c. not to be stamped, &c.

Such Affidavit, &c. false, forfeits treble the Value of the Allowance.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be engrossed or written any Admittance or Instrument for admitting of any Fellow of the College of Physicians, or of any Attorney, Clerk, Advocate, Proctor, Notary, or other Officer or Officers, in any Court whatsoever in Great Britain (not being an annual Officer in any Corporation or inferior Court, whose Office is under the Value of ten Pounds Sterling per Ann. in Salary, Fees, or other Perquisites) the Sum of forty Shillings Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Appeal from the High Courts of Admiralty, either in England or Scotland, Court of Arches, or the Prerogative Court of Canterbury or York, shall be engrossed or written, the Sum of forty Shillings Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be engrossed or written any Institution or Licence, that shall pass the Seal of any Archbishop or Bishop, Chancellor or other Ordinary, or any Ecclesiastical Court whatsoever in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed; or upon which shall be engrossed, written or registred, any Writ or Instrument for the like Purpose, with any such Institution or Licence, that shall be passed or made by any Presbytery, or other Spiritual Power in Scotland, the Sum of five Shillings Sterling (Licences to Schoolmasters and Tutors excepted.)

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Letters of Mart shall be engrossed or written, the Sum of five Shillings Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which any Beneficial Warrant, or Order under the Sign Manual of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, (except Warrants or Orders for the Service of the Navy, Army and Ordnance) shall be engrossed or written, the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence Sterling.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which shall be engrossed or written in Great Britain, any Indenture, Lease, Bond, or any Deed not hereby otherwise charged ged, the Sum of six Pence Sterling; except Bail Bonds and Assignments thereof, and Indentures for binding poor Parish or Charity Children Apprentices, and such Deeds executed in Scotland, as are charged with the Stamp-Duty of two Shillings and three Pence, by an Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of her present Majesty's Reign.

XXII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge with any the Stamp-Duties hereby granted, any the Matters or Things which, by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, further Duties upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, are exempted from the Duties thereby granted.

Not to charge any Matters exempted by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better and more effectual levying, collecting and paying unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the said Stamp-Duties hereby granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care and Management of the Commissioners for the Time being, appointed to manage the Duties payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and charged on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, by the former Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and empowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to appoint and provide Stamps to denote the several Stamp-Duties hereby charged, and to do all other Things necessary to be by them done, for the putting this Act in Execution with relation to those Duties.

Commissioners of the Stamps to manage these Duties.

XXIV. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That where any more than one of any the Matters or Things hereby charged with any Stamp-Duty, shall be engrossed, written, entred, or registred upon one Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, the said respective Duties hereby granted, shall be, and hereby are charged upon every one of such Matters and Things respectively.

Several Matters written on one Piece of Paper, to be severally charged.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, That all Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, charged by this Act with any of the Stamp-Duties hereby granted, which hath been, or shall (before the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen) be stamped or marked, in Pursuance of the former Acts of Parliament, relating to her Majesty's Stamp-Duties, or any of them, shall, before any of the Matters or Things (in respect whereof any Duty is hereby made payable) be written or engrossed thereupon, (such Writing or Engrossing being at any Time after the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and within the said Term of two and thirty Years) be brought to the Head-Office for stamping or marking of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, to be stamped or marked with another Mark or Stamp, over and besides the Marks or Stamps put or to be put thereupon, in Pursuance of the said former Acts of Parliament, or any of them; and that all Vellum, Parchment and Paper, which hath not been, or shall not (before the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen) be stamped or marked in Pursuance of the said former Acts, or any of them, shall (before any the Matters or Things, in respect whereof any Stamp-Duty is payable hereby, and by the said former Acts, or any of them, shall be thereupon written or engrossed, such Writing or Engrossing being after the said second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and within the said Term of two and thirty Years) be brought to the said Head-Office, and there marked or stamped with the proper Marks or Stamps provided, used, or appointed, and to be provided, or appointed, in Pursuance of this Act, and of the said former Acts of Parliament, to denote the respective Duties hereby and thereby respectively charged thereupon; and that if any of the said Matters and Things so to be engrossed or written, as aforesaid, shall, during the Term last mentioned, be engrossed or written, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not appearing to have been duly marked or stamped according to this Act, That then, and in every such Case, there shall be due, answered, and paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors (over and above the Stamp-Duties payable hereby, and by the said former Acts, or any of them) for every such Matter and Thing respectively, the Sum of five Pounds Sterling; and that no such Matter or Thing shall be available in Law or Equity, or to be given in Evidence, or admitted in any Court, unless as well the said Duty hereby charged in respect thereof, as the said Sum of five Pounds, shall be first paid to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and a Receipt produced for the same, under the Hand of the Receiver General, for the Time being, of the Stamp-Duties, or of his Deputy or Clerk, and until the Vellum, Parchment and Paper, upon which such Matter or Thing is so written or engrossed, shall be marked or stamped, according to the Tenor and true Meaning hereof; and the said Receiver General, and his Deputy or Clerk, are hereby enjoined and required, upon Payment or Tender of the said Duties, and of the said Sum of five Pounds, and such other Sums, as by the said former Acts are payable in that Behalf, to give a Receipt for such Monies, and the other proper Officers are thereupon required to mark or stamp such Matter or Thing with the proper Marks and Stamps requisite in that Behalf.

Vellum, &c. already stamped in Pursuance of former Acts, to be brought to the Stamp-Office to be marked with the new Stamps.

No Writing before Paper stamped, good, till 5 l. paid to the Queen, and the Duty be paid.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Commissioner and Officer, who shall or about in or about the managing or collecting the Stamp-Duties last mentioned, shall, before he shall act in or about the same, take the Oath following; That is to say,

Commissioners to be sworn.

I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute the Trust reposed in me, pursuant to the Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her Majesty Queen ANNÆ, whereby certain additional Duties are charged or made payable, in respect of the several Matters or Things engrossed or written, as therein is mentioned, without Fraud or Concealment; and shall, from Time to Time, true Account make of my Doings therein, and deliver the same to such Person or Persons as her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors shall appoint to receive such Account; and shall take no Fee, Reward, or Profit for the Execution or Performance of the said Trust, or the Business relating thereto, from any Person or Persons, other than such as shall be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or some other Person or Persons by her or them to that Purpose authorized.

‘XXXVII. And to prevent such Doubts as may arise touching the Allowance for present Payment of the Stamp-Duties charged by this and the said other Acts;’ it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be allowed and paid to every Person who shall at any one Time bring to be stamped, or buy of the said Commissioners, Vellum, Parchment or Paper, the Duties whereof, doubly or trebly charged by this and the said other Acts, shall in the whole amount to ten Pounds or upwards, after the Rate of six Pounds in the one hundred Pounds per Annum, for six Months, upon the present Payment of the said Duties, at the Head-Office for marking or stamping of Vellum, Parchment and Paper.

‘XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, Matters and Things, prescribed, appointed or contained in or by the said Act of Parliament made in the said ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, or in any other Act of Parliament relating to the Duties thereby charged, or any of them, which are now in Force, and not hereby altered or otherwise provided for, shall, in the same Manner and Form as they now stand in Force, with relation to the said Duties, or any of them, charged by the said Act of the said late King WILLIAM, be of full Force and Effect with relation to the said Stamp-Duties hereby charged, and every of them, during all the said Term of two and thirty Years, and shall be applied, practised and executed, for the securing, raising, levying, collecting, executing, answering and paying the said Stamp-Duties hereby charged, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses and Things, and every of them, had severally and respectively been particularly enacted in this Act, with relation to the Stamp-Duties hereby charged, and as if the Stamp-Duties hereby charged had been charged by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty’s Reign.

‘XXIX. And to the End all the said additional, or new Duties upon Sope and Paper, and upon certain Linens, Silks, Callicoes and Stuffs, and upon Starch and exported Coals, and upon stampt Vellum, Parchment and Paper, before granted by this Act, may be certainly and duly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of executing this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, according to the true Meaning hereof; it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from Time to Time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers, as shall be proper and necessary for the managing, raising, collecting and paying the same Duties, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the Commissioners and Officers concerned therein shall perform their several Duties in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the same Duties, or any of them, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two Millions, upon a Fund of Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

‘XXX. And whereas a Proclamation was issued by their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of their Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties several Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for four Years, towards carrying on the War against France, for publishing the Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps provided in Pursuance of the same Act, which Act has been since continued by several subsequent Acts of Parliament, and the same Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps have been used for the stamping or marking of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, in Pursuance of the said subsequent Acts of Parliament, which were provided and used in Pursuance of the said first Act, and published by the said Proclamation; but no Proclamation was issued in Pursuance of the said subsequent Acts, or any of them; whereupon some Doubts have arisen whether the said Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps, ought not to have been again published by Proclamation after the passing the said Acts for continuing the said Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper, as the Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps provided for the Duties so continued: For removing whereof, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps, provided in Pursuance of the said first mentioned Act, shall be deemed, taken, and made use of, as the Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps provided in Pursuance of the said Acts for continuing the said Duties, and every or any of them, until other Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps, shall be provided and published by Proclamation, in Pursuance of the same Acts, or of one of them; and that the said Publishing of the said Types, Devices, Marks, or Stamps, by the said Proclamation, in Pursuance of the said first mentioned Act for granting the said Duties, shall be deemed and taken to be a sufficient Publishing thereof, as well for and in respect of the Duties granted by that Act, as for and in respect of the Duties on Vellum, Parchment and Paper, which have been since granted or continued by any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating thereto; any Thing in the said Acts, or any of them, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

‘XXXI. And whereas several Persons, who have, since the Commencement of the Rates or Duties upon Monies given, paid, or contracted for with Clerks and Apprentices, taken Clerks and Apprentices, and received and contracted for Sums of Money, with or in respect of the taking of such Clerks and Apprentices, have, through Neglect or Inadvertency, omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties payable in that Behalf, or to cause to be inserted the Sums of Money so given, paid, or contracted for, with or in respect of the taking of such Clerks and Apprentices, in the Contracts or Indentures relating thereto, and and to have such Contracts or Indentures stamped within the Time for that Purpose respectively limited by the Act of Parliament in that Case made; whereby the said Masters and Mistresses have incurred one or more Penalty or Penalties, and such Clerks and Apprentices will, according to that Act, be disabled to follow or exercise the intended Trades, Professions, or Employments, unless some further Provision be made; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid; That upon Payment of the said respective Rates and Duties, which have been so omitted or neglected to be paid, as aforesaid, on or before the first Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, to such Person or Persons to whom the same ought to be paid, according to the same former Act, and tending to be stamped such Indentures or Contracts so omitted to be stamped, on or before the said first Day of March in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, the same Indentures or Contracts shall be stamped, and shall be good and available in Law and Equity, and the Clerks or Apprentices therein named shall be capable of following and exercising the respective intended Trades, Professions, or Employments, as fully as if the Duties, so omitted to be paid, had been duly paid, and the Indentures or Contracts stamped within the respective Times in the same Act for those respective Purposes limited, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; so as the true and full Sum or Sums of Money, and all other Things given or contracted for, to or for the Benefit of the Masters or Mistresses, with or in respect of the taking such Clerks or Apprentices, be truly written or indorsed in Words at length, on such Indentures or Contracts, wherein the same have been omitted to be inserted, according to the same Act, and the Masters and Mistresses truly paying the said omitted Duties, on or before the said first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, are hereby indemnified and discharged off and from all Penalties by them incurred by the said recited Acts, for which no Prosecution hath been commenced before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen.

XXXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of two and thirty Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, the full Sum of one hundred and five thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said additional or new Duties upon Sope and Paper, and upon certain Linens, Silks, Callicoës, and Stuffs, and upon Starch, and exported Coals, and upon stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, by this Act granted, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforesaid, in case the same shall extend thereunto, shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer, for the said Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money so granted, shall not amount to the Sum of one hundred and five thousand Pounds per Ann. then the Monies so arising, so far as the same shall extend, shall be Part of the yearly Fund towards the answering and paying off all and every the Principal Sums herein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of one million eight hundred seventy-six thousand four hundred Pounds Principal Money, together with Interest for the same after the Rate of four Pounds per Cent. per Ann. as herein after is mentioned; and in case the said Duties, Rates, and Sums of Money by this Act granted, shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year, to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer, for or upon Account of the same Duties, shall not amount to as much as one hundred and five thousand Pounds, that then, and so often, and in every such Case, so much as shall be wanting to make up the said Fund or Sum of one hundred and five thousand Pounds for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good, from Time to Time, out of the first Aid or Supply to be granted in Parliament, next after such Deficiencies shall appear, and shall from Time to Time be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same shall be granted; and in case no such Aid or Supply shall be granted, then by and out of any Publick Money, which shall be in the said Receipt of Exchequer, not appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by Act of Parliament; and the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, for the Time being are hereby strictly enjoined and required to make up such Deficiency accordingly, out of such unappropriated Publick Money, without any further or other Warrant or Authority for the same.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute for or towards advancing the Sum of one million four hundred thousand Pounds, by paying, at or before the respective Days and Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, to any Receiver or Receivers, to be appointed for that Purpose, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of ten Pounds, or divers entire Sums of ten Pounds, upon this Act; and that for the raising of the said Sum of one million four hundred thousand Pounds, any Person who will become Contributor or Adventurer, shall and may advance the Sum of ten Pounds, for which Sum so advanced, he, she, or they shall be entitled to receive by virtue of this Act such Principal Money, and the Interest thereof, to be paid, as herein after is mentioned, by and out of the said yearly Fund; and that every Contributor or Adventurer may advance as many entire Sums of ten Pounds as he, she, or they shall think fit, and for every such Sum of ten Pounds so advanced, he, she, or they, is or are to be interested in one Lot or Share of and in the said yearly Fund by Virtue of this Act; and the same entire Sums of ten Pounds each, are hereby appointed to be paid unto such Receiver or Receivers, at or before the respective Days and Times, and in the respective Proportions herein after mentioned; That is to say, one fourth Part thereof on or before the tenth Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; one fourth Part thereof on or before the tenth Day of September in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; one other fourth Part thereof on or before the eleventh Day of October one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the tenth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and fourteen.

“ LXV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for Prosecuting the War, and other her Majesty's most necessary Occasions, It is enacted, That upon the Shipping of any Hides or Calve-Skins for Exportation into Foreign Parts, and giving Security to the Customer or Collector of the Customs of the Port from whence such Exportation shall be made, That such Hides and Calve-Skins shall not be relanded or brought on Shore, in any Port or Part of Great Britain, the Customer or Collector shall give the Exporter a Certificate or Debenture in Writing, of the Kinds and Quantities of such Hides and Calve-Skins; and that upon producing such Certificate, the Collector at the Port where such Hides or Calve-Skins shall be exported, shall repay to the Person producing such Certificate, two Thirds of the Duties which were before charged for such Hides or Calve-Skins so exported, as aforesaid: And whereas some Doubts have arisen upon the Construction of the said Act, whether the same shall extend to allow a Drawback of the said Duties, for any other Sort of Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, than Hides and Calve-Skins; Therefore to explain the said Act, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Sheep-Skins and Lamb-Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, which are chargeable with any Duties by the said Act passed in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, shall, upon Exportation thereof, have a Drawback or Allowance of two Thirds of the Duties, payable by Virtue of the said Act, subject to such Rules, as by the said Act are prescribed on the Exportation of any Hides or Calve-Skins; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

“ LXVI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better collecting and recovering the Duties granted for the Support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, and for the further Benefit thereof, and for the preserving her Majesty's Harbour Moorings, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That the Sum of four thousand Pounds out of the Shares of the several Captors of Prizes, by Virtue of her Majesty's Declaration of the first of June one thousand seven hundred and two, which should remain uncalled for within the Times by the said Act limited for the Payment of the same, should be applied for or towards the Payment of certain Rewards for taking or destroying Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy, during the late War, to and amongst the Flag Officers, Captains, and other Officers and Companies of her Majesty's Ships of War, their Executors or Administrators, entitled thereunto by Virtue of the said Declaration, in such Proportion as by the said Declaration is directed, if the same should be decreed to them by the High Court of Admiralty, and Lists of the Ships entitled to such Rewards by such Decree, should be transmitted to the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, and the same should be claimed, and afterwards demanded to be paid within the respective Times for the said several Purposes limited by the said Act; and that if the several Sums so to be decreed and demanded for such Rewards should amount in the whole to more than four thousand Pounds, then the said four thousand Pounds should be divided among the several Claimers, by way of Average, in Proportion to their respective Interests, to be adjusted by the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Person or Persons appointed for the same: And whereas Lists of the Persons on Board some of the Ships, entitled to such Rewards, at the Time of the taking or destroying such Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy, during the late War, for which the same became due, have never been transmitted unto the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, the same not having been sufficiently provided for in the said Act, by Reason whereof the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes have been unable to adjust the Proportions belonging to several Claimers of such Rewards, and to make Distribution of the said four thousand Pounds according to the said Act; for Remedy, &c.

LXIX. And

LXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Money lent, and to be lent to her Majesty upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty, to be raised by a Land Tax in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and so much Money (if any such be) of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be referred to discharge the same; and all the Monies lent or to be lent unto her Majesty, upon the Duties of Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, charged and continued by another Act of this Session of Parliament, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; and so much Money of the said Duties of Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry thereby granted or continued, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made or to be made upon that Act, or thereby transferred or directed to be transferred thereunto, and the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties thereby granted, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be referred to discharge the same; and all the Surplus or unappropriated Monies, which shall arise and be paid into the Exchequer, for the Use of the Publick, from and after the twelfth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, until all the Provisions of Money intended by this Act for the Uses and Purposes hereinafter mentioned shall be satisfied, and all the Monies which, over and above the Allowances for prompt Payment, and other Allowances directed by this Act, shall arise, of or for the said Contributions, not exceeding the Sum of one Million four hundred thousand Pounds in this Act mentioned, shall be appropriated for or towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are hereinafter prescribed; that is to say, it is hereby enacted and declared, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies by this Act provided, as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied the Sum of seven hundred forty-five thousand seven hundred Pounds and three Pence, for defraying the Charges of the Ordinary of her Majesty's Navy, including Half-pay to Sea-Officers, and for Victuals, Wages, Wear and Tear of the Navy, and Victualling thereof, performed and to be performed, and for Sea-Service in the Office of Ordnance, performed and to be performed; and any further Sum not exceeding three hundred thousand Pounds, towards satisfying the Debt due for Seamen's Wages, and to the Yards, and for the Debt due to the Marines; and any further Sum not exceeding three thousand Pounds, to be equally distributed among the Chaplains that served in the Fleet during the late War, and are not otherwise provided for; and any Sum not exceeding three hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence, for maintaining Guards and Garrisons in Great Britain, Jersey and Guernsey, together with two independent Companies in North Britain for one Year, from the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, to the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; C A P. XI.

An Act to prevent the Listing her Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers without her Majesty's Licence.

“ WHEREAS several ill-affected Persons, Subjects of the Crown of Great Britain, have lately, in open Defiance of the Laws, presumed traiterously to list divers of her Majesty's Subjects within the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, to serve the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES the Second, and since his Decease pretended to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, as Soldiers to the great Disturbance of the Peace of these her Majesty's Kingdoms: And whereas the like traitorous Practice may be more covertly carried on, under Pretence of listing her Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers under some Foreign Prince, State or Potentate: For Remedy thereof, Be it, &c.

“ Subjects of Great Britain who shall, after 1 August 1714. within the Kingdom, or in Ireland, and after 1 October out of the Kingdom, list themselves to serve any Foreign Prince, &c. or procure any Subject so to do, without her Majesty's Licence, shall be guilty of High Treason. Offences out of the Realm, where to be tried. No Licence shall exempt from the Penalty, Persons listing any Subject to serve the French King. Continuance of the Act for three Years. E X P.

C A P. XII.

An Act for the better Maintenance of Curates within the Church of England; and for preventing any Ecclesiastical Persons from buying the next Avoidance of any Church-Preferment.

“ WHEREAS the Absence of beneficed Ministers ought to be supplied by Curates that are sufficient and licensed Preachers, and no Curates or Ministers ought to serve in any Place without the Examination

'mination and Admission of the Bishop of the Diocese, or Ordinary of the Place, having Episcopal Jurisdiction: But nevertheless, for Want of sufficient Maintenance and Encouragement for such Curates, the Cures within that Part of Great Britain called England, have been in several Places meanly supplied: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Rector or Vicar having Cure of Souls shall, from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen nominate and present any Curate to the Bishop or Ordinary, to be licensed or admitted to serve the Cure of such Rector or Vicar in his Absence, the said Bishop or Ordinary, having Regard to the Greatness of the Cure, and the Value of the Ecclesiastical Benefices of such Rector or Vicar shall, on or before the granting such Licence, appoint by Writing under his Hand and Seal a sufficient certain Stipend or Allowance, not exceeding fifty Pounds per Ann. nor less than twenty Pounds per Ann. to be paid or answered at such Times as he shall think fit, by such Rector or Vicar, to such Curate, for his Support and Maintenance; and if it shall appear to the Bishop or Ordinary, upon Complaint or otherwise, that any Curate of such Rector or Vicar, licensed or admitted before the said nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, hath not a sufficient Maintenance, it shall be lawful to and for the said Bishop or Ordinary to appoint him a certain Stipend or Allowance in like Manner as before mentioned; and in case any Difference shall arise between any Rector or Vicar and his Curate, touching such Stipend or Allowance, or the Payment thereof, the Bishop or Ordinary, on Complaint to him made, shall summarily hear and determine the same; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to pay such Stipend or Allowance, may sequester the Profits of such Benefice, for or until Payment thereof.

After 20 Sept. 1714. Bishop, &c. to appoint a Stipend to Curates, not exceeding 50 l. per Ann. nor less than 20 l. and on Neglect of Payment may sequester the Benefice.

II. And whereas some of the Clergy have procured Preferments for themselves by buying Ecclesiastical Livings, and others have been thereby discouraged; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall or do, for any Sum of Money, Reward, Gift, Profit or Advantage, directly or indirectly, or for or by Reason of any Promise, Agreement, Grant, Bond, Covenant or other Assurance, of or for any Sum of Money, Reward, Gift, Profit or Benefit whatsoever, directly or indirectly, in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, take, procure, or accept the next Avoidance of, or Presentation to any Benefice with Cure of Souls, Dignity, Prebend or Living Ecclesiastical, and shall be presented or collated thereupon, that then every such Presentation or Collation, and every Admission, Institution, Investiture and Induction upon the same, shall be utterly void, frustrate, and of no Effect in Law, and such Agreement shall be deemed and taken to be a Simoniack Contract; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors to present or collate unto, or give or bestow every such Benefice, Dignity, Prebend and Living Ecclesiastical, for that one Time or Turn only; and the Person so corruptly taking, procuring, or accepting any such Benefice, Dignity, Prebend or Living, shall thereupon, and from thenceforth, be adjudged a disabled Person in Law to have and enjoy the same Benefice, Dignity, Prebend or Living Ecclesiastical, and shall also be subject to any Punishment, Pain or Penalty, limited, prescribed or inflicted by the Laws Ecclesiastical, in like Manner as if such corrupt Agreement had been made after such Benefice, Dignity, Prebend, or Living Ecclesiastical had become vacant; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Penalty of taking for any Sum of Money, &c. the next Avoidance, &c. 31 El. c. 6. 1 W. & M. stat. 1. c. 16.

C A P. XIII.

An Act to discharge and acquit the Commissioners of Equivalent for the Sum of three hundred eighty-one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds fifteen Shillings ten Pence Halfpenny by them duly issued out of the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, which they received.

WHEREAS by the Treaty of Union, and fifteenth Article thereof, it is agreed, That Scotland shall have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof shall be charged towards Payment of the Debts of England contracted before the Union, in all Particulars whatsoever, and particularly that the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds and ten Shillings should be granted to her Majesty as an Equivalent to Scotland; for such Part of the Customs and Excise there, as should be applicable to the Payment of the said Debts of England, according to the Proportions therein set down; and it is agreed, That her Majesty be empowered to appoint Commissioners, who should be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for disposing the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds and ten Shillings, and all other Monies which shall arise to Scotland upon the Agreements in the Treaty of Union, to the Purposes mentioned in the said fifteenth Article, in an Act of the last Parliament of Scotland, intituled, An Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company; in another Act of the said last Parliament, intituled, An Act concerning the Publick Debts; and in an Act of the first Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, An Act for further directing the Payment of the Equivalent Money: And whereas her Majesty, by Commission dated the fifth of June one thousand seven hundred and seven, did nominate and appoint Sir Andrew Hume, William Dalrymple, Esq; Sir Robert Sinclair of Stevenson, Sir Thomas Burnett of Leyes, Sir John Areskine of Awa, Sir John Swinton of the same, Sir James Campbell of Abernehill, Sir James Smollet of Bonhill, Sir Patrick Johnston, Sir Francis Grant, Barons; George Baillie of Jervise Wood, John Haldon of Glencagles, John Bruce of Kinross, William Seton the Younger of Pittmedin, John Clarke the Younger of Pemycook; Alexander Abercrombie of Glestock, Mungo Grame of Gorby, John Graham of Dugaldstone, John Pringle of Haining, Douglas the Younger of Kellhead, Daniel Campbell of Buttes, Esq; Sir John Cope, Knight, Jacob Raynardson, John Brydges and James

James Houblon, Esqrs. Commissioners for disposing the aforesaid Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds and ten Shillings, and all other Monies which shall arise to Scotland upon the Agreements in the Treaty of Union: And by another Commission dated the six and twentieth of July one thousand seven hundred and nine, did nominate and appoint the aforesaid Sir Andrew Hume, William Dalrymple, Esq; Sir Robert Sinclair of Stevenson, Sir Thomas Burnett of Leys, Sir John Aeskine of Alva, Sir John Swinton of the same, Sir James Campbell of Averbhill, Sir James Smollet of Bonhill, Sir Patrick Johnston, Baronets; John Bruce of Kinross, William Seton the Younger of Pittmedin, Alexander Abercrombie of Glesflock, John Pringle of Hayning, Esq; Sir John Cope, Knt. and John Brydges, Esq; to be Commissioners for the same Ends and Purposes; which Commissioners, or the Major Part of them, pursuant to their said Commissions, have well and duly issued and paid the Sum of three hundred eighty-one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, as directed by the Laws above recited, in Manner herein after set down, viz. towards the Loss which private Persons sustained by the reducing the English Money then in Scotland to the current Rate in England, the Sum of three thousand and seventeen Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence; for recoining the Scots and Foreign Money, and reducing it to the Standard of the Coin of England, the Sum of forty-nine thousand eight hundred eighty-eight Pounds fourteen Shillings and eleven Pence one sixth of a Penny; towards Payment of the Stock, Interest and Debts of the Indian and African Company, the Sum of two hundred twenty-nine thousand six hundred and eleven Pounds four Shillings and eight Pence; towards the Charges of the Commissioners, Secretaries, and Accountants of the two Treaties of the Union, the Sum of thirty thousand four hundred ninety-eight Pounds twelve Shillings and two Pence; towards Payment of the first Class of the Civil List, the Sum of twenty-seven thousand five hundred fifty-three Pounds seventeen Shillings and nine Pence one third of a Penny; towards Payment of the second Class of the Civil List, the Sum of four thousand six hundred fifty-five Pounds and six Shillings; towards Payment of the first Class of the Military List, the Sum of fourteen thousand one hundred eighty-eight Pounds and eight Pence; towards Payment of the second Class of the Military List, the Sum of fourteen thousand four hundred fifty-eight Pounds two Shillings and eight Pence five sixths of a Penny; for the Fees and Salaries of the Servants of the Commission, till the fourteenth of March, and thirtieth of April last past, the Sum of five thousand four hundred and thirteen Pounds eleven Shillings and four Pence; for the necessary Charges of the Commission, and for defending of Law-Suits where the Titles of Parties were not clear, these Charges preceeding the six and twentieth Day of March last, amounted to the Sum of two thousand two hundred twenty-four Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence one sixth of a Penny: All which Sums together amount to the above Total of three hundred eighty-one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny: Be it therefore, &c.

Commissioners of the Equivalent discharged of the Sums paid by them upon the several Heads mentioned in this Act. But not freed from applying the Sum of 16575*l.* 14*s.* 1*d.* ob. now remaining in their Hands, to the Uses by the Acts directed. E X P.

III. And whereas it appears, that the other Publick Debts of Scotland yet unsatisfied, which are adjusted and certified, pursuant to the Directions of the several Acts above recited, do amount to the Sum of two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence and five sixths of a Penny, including the Interest of such Parts thereof as bear Interest from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eight, to the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; Be it therefore enacted, &c.

The Commissioners to call for all Certificates, &c. and cancel all Debentures by which the unsatisfied Debt is constituted, and to issue new Debentures, to bear Interest at 5*l.* per Cent. after 24 June 1714. and paid out of the first Money due to Scotland. E X P.

provided; which Acts do nevertheless prove ineffectual for such Purposes, by Reason such Patrons are not convicted, or not in such Manner as the said Acts do direct and appoint: Therefore for making the said Laws more effectual, and for the speedier and easier vesting the Presentations to such Benefices in the two Universities, according to the Intention of the said Laws, Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Papist or Person making Profession of the Popish Religion, and every Child not being a Protestant, under the Age of one and twenty Years, of every such Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion, and every Mortgagee, Trustee or Person any ways intrusted, directly or indirectly, mediately or immediately, by or for any such Papist or Person making Profession of the Popish Religion, or such Child, as aforesaid, whether such Trust be declared by Writing or not, shall, from and after the tenth Day of July which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, be disabled, and is hereby made incapable to present, collate or nominate to any Benefice, Prebend, or Ecclesiastical Living, School, Hospital or Donative, or to grant any Avoidance of any Benefice, Prebend or Ecclesiastical Living; and that every such Presentation, Collation, Nomination and Grant, and every Admission, Institution and Induction to be made thereupon, shall be utterly void and of no Effect, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever; and that in every such Case the Chancellor and Scholars of the University of Oxford, and the Chancellor and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, by what Name or Names soever they or either of them are incorporated, shall respectively have the Presentation, Nomination, Collation and Donation, of and to every such Benefice, Prebend or Ecclesiastical Living, School, Hospital and Donative, set, lying and being in the respective Counties, Cities and other Places and Limits in the said Act of the third Year of King JAMES mentioned, as in and by the said Act is directed and appointed in the Case of a Popish Recusant Convict.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said tenth Day of July, when and as often as any Presentation to any Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living shall be brought to any Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary, from any Person who shall be reputed to be, or whom such Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary shall have cause to suspect to be a Papist, or Trustee of any Person making Profession of the Popish Religion, or suspected to be such, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary, and he is hereby required to tender or administer to every such Person, if present, the Declaration against Transubstantiation, set down and expressed in an Act of Parliament made in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants, to be by such Person made, repeated and subscribed; and in case such Person shall be absent, the said Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary shall, by Notice in Writing to be left at the Place of Habitation of such Person, appoint some convenient Time and Place when and where such Person shall appear before such Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary, or some Persons to be authorized by such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary, by Commission under his or their Seal of Office; and upon such Appearance, the said Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary, or such Commissioners, shall tender or administer the said Declaration to the Person making such Presentation; and in case such Person shall neglect or refuse to make, repeat and subscribe such Declaration, when the same shall be so tendered, as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary, or such Commissioners, upon such Notice as aforesaid, That then such Presentation shall be utterly void and of none Effect; and in every such Case, such Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary shall, within ten Days next after such Neglect or Refusal, send and give a Certificate under his or their Seal of Office of such Neglect or Refusal to the Vice-Chancellor for the Time being, of that University to whom such Presentation would of Right belong, if such Person so presenting had been a Popish Recusant Convict; and it shall and may be lawful, to and for the Chancellor and Scholars of such University, to present a Person qualified according to the said Acts to such Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living; and the Presentation to such Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living, for that Turn only, is hereby given unto, and vested in them for that Purpose; any Matter, Clause or Thing contained in either of the said former recited Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

III. And for the better Discovery of all secret Trusts, and fraudulent Conveyances made by Papists or Persons making Profession of the Popish Religion, of their Advowsons and Right of Presentation, Nomination and Donation, to any Benefices or Ecclesiastical Livings; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when the Presentation of any Person presented to any Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living, shall be brought to any Archbishop, Bishop or other Ordinary, the said Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary is hereby required, before he give Institution, to examine the Person presented upon Oath, whether to the best and utmost of his Knowledge and Belief, the Person or Persons who have made such Presentation, be the true and real Patron or Patrons of the said Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living, or made the said Presentation in his or her, or their own Right, or whether such Person or Persons so presenting be not, mediately or immediately, directly or indirectly, Trustee or Trustees, or any way intrusted for some other, and what Person or Persons by Name, who is or are Papists, or make Profession of the Popish Religion, or the Children of such, or for any other and what Person or Persons, or what he knows, has heard or believes, touching or concerning the same; and if such Person or Persons so presented shall refuse to be so examined, or shall not answer directly thereto, then and in every such Case such Presentation shall be void.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chancellor and Scholars of the respective Universities, to whom the Presentations to such Benefices and Ecclesiastical Livings should belong, in case the rightful Patrons had been Popish Recusants convicted, and their Presentees or Clerks, for the better Discovery of such secret and fraudulent Trusts, had, done, made and created, by or for such Papists or Persons professing the Popish Religion, and their Children, as aforesaid, to exhibit their Bill in any Court of Equity against such Person or Persons presenting, and such Person or Persons as they have Reason to believe to be the Cestui que Trust of the Advowson of such Benefice or Ecclesiastical

And the two Universities shall have the Presentation, &c. in the respective Counties, &c. mentioned in 3 Jac. 1. c. 5.

When any Presentation is brought to any Archbishop, &c. he may tender to the Person, if present, the Declaration in 25 Car. 2. c. 24.

If absent, summon him to appear.

Refusing to make the Declaration, or to appear, the Presentation shall be void.

And the Archbishop, &c. shall certify such Refusal to the University, who shall present, &c.

Bishops, &c. to examine Persons presented on Oath.

Refusing to be examined, the Presentation shall be void.

University may exhibit Bills in Chancery for the Discovery of fraudulent Trusts.

Ecclesiastical Living, or any other Person who they have Cause to suspect may be able to make any other or further Discovery of such secret Trusts and Practices; to which Bill the Defendants therein named, being duly served with the Process of the Court in which the said Bill shall be exhibited, shall forthwith directly answer to the Facts charged and enquired in the said Bill, at the Discretion of the Court where such Bill shall be exhibited; and in case the Defendants, or any of them, shall refuse or neglect to answer the said Bill in such reasonable Time as shall be for that Purpose allowed and appointed, by Discretion of the said Court where the said Cause shall be depending, (the Distance of Place and the Circumstances of the Defendant or Defendants considered) That then and in such Case the said Bill shall be taken pro Confesso, and be allowed as Evidence against such Person for neglecting and refusing, and his Trustee or Trustees, and his and their Clerk: Provided that every Person having fully answered such Bill in such Court of Equity, and not knowing any Thing of any such Trust for a Papist or other Person disabled, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to his Costs, to be taxed according to the Course of the Court.

When any Quare Impedit is depending, the Court may administer an Oath to discover any secret Trust:

And if it appear that the Patron is a Trustee, he shall discover for whom, or be punished as guilty of a Contempt. Court may order the Person for whom such Patron is a Trustee to appear and make the Declaration, &c. who refusing, shall be esteemed a Recusant convict.

The Answer of such Patron, &c. to be allowed as Evidence.

Persons making such Discovery, liable only to the Loss of the Presentation.

If such Bill be exhibited by the University, no Lapse shall incur, &c. till three Months after the Answer put in, &c. The University may sue any Writ of Quare Impedit, &c.

The Court may enforce the Producing of Deeds relating to Trusts.

Not to extend to Scotland,

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court where any Quare Impedit shall be hereafter depending, at the Instance of either of the said Chancellors and Scholars, or their Clerk, being Plaintiffs or Defendants in such Suit, by Motion in open Court, at their Discretion, to make any Rule or Order requiring Satisfaction, upon the Oath of such Patron and his Clerk, who in the said Suit shall contest the Right of the said University to present to such Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living, by Examination of them or either of them, in open Court, or by Commission under the Seal of such Court for Examination of them or either of them, or by Affidavit, as the said Court shall find most proper, in Order to the Discovery of any secret Trust, Frauds or Practices relating to the said Presentation then in Question; and in Case it appear to the Court, upon the Examination of such Patron and Clerk or either of them, That the said Patron is but a Trustee for some other Person or Persons, that then the said Patron and his Clerk shall discover who such Person and Persons are, and where he, she, or they live or inhabit; and upon their Refusal to make such Discovery, or to give such Satisfaction, as aforesaid, they shall be punished as Persons that are guilty of a Contempt to the said Court; and in case such Patron or his Clerk shall discover the Person for whom the said Patron is a Trustee, that then and in such Case the said Court, upon Motion made in open Court, shall make a Rule or Order, That the Person or Persons, for whom the said Patron is a Trustee, shall, in the said Court, or before Commissioners to be appointed for that Purpose, under the Seal of the said Court, make, repeat and subscribe the Declaration against Transubstantiation herein before mentioned, and likewise, on Pain of incurring a Contempt against the said Court, give such further Satisfaction upon Oath, touching or relating to the said Trust, as the said Court shall think fit; and such Person so required to make, repeat and subscribe the said Declaration, and refusing or neglecting so to do, shall be esteemed as a Popish Recusant convict, in respect of such Presentation.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Answer of such Patron and Patrons, and the Person for whom he or they are any ways intrusted, and his and their Clerk, or any of them, and his and their or any of their Examinations and Affidavits taken, as aforesaid, by Order of any Court where such Quare Impedit shall be depending, or by any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary, or the Commissioners, as aforesaid, (which Examinations shall therefore be reduced into Writing, and signed by the Party examined) shall be allowed as Evidence against such Patron so presenting, and his Clerk.

VII. Provided always, That no such Bill, nor any Discovery to be made by any Answer thereunto, or to any such Examination, as aforesaid, shall be made use of to subject any Person making any such Discovery, or not answering such Bill, to any Penalty or Forfeiture, other than the Loss of the Presentation then in Question.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That in case of any such Bill or Bills of Discovery, as aforesaid, exhibited in any Court of Equity by the Chancellor and Scholars of either of the said Universities, or their Presentee, no Lapse shall incur, nor Penarty be a Bar, against such Chancellor and Scholars, in respect of the Benefice or Ecclesiastical Living, touching which such Bill shall be to be exhibited, till after three Months from the Time that the Answer to such Bill shall be put in, or the same be taken pro Confesso, or the Prosecution thereof deserted; provided that such Bill or Bills be exhibited before any Lapse incurred.

IX. And whereas it hath been doubted whether any Writ of Quare Impedit brought by the respective Universities, for any Presentation, Nomination, Collation or Donation pursuant to the said recited Acts, or either of them, may be brought by them, in or by the Name of Chancellor and Scholars, or ought to be by their true Name of Incorporation respectively; It is hereby declared, That the said respective Chancellors and Scholars of the said Universities are by this Act, and were by the said former Acts, entitled to sue any Writ of Quare Impedit by the Name of Chancellor and Scholars of the University of Oxford, and Chancellor and Scholars of the University of Cambridge respectively, or by their respective proper Names of Incorporation at their Election.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Trust for any Papist, or Person professing the Popish Religion, confessed or discovered in and by any Answer to such Bill, as aforesaid, or such Examination, as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Court where such Discovery shall be made, and such Court is hereby enabled, to enforce the producing of the Deeds creating and relating to the said Trusts, by such Methods as they shall find proper.

XI. Provided always, That nothing herein before contained shall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

XII. And whereas by the Determination of the late Privy Council of Scotland, the Punishments contained in an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, passed in the eighth Session of the first Parliament of King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for preventing the Growth of Popery, cannot be fully put in Execution against Jesuits, Priests, and other trafficking Papists, who disguise and shelter themselves under borrowed Names, to avoid the Penalty of the Law; It is therefore hereby enacted, and be it enacted by the Authority thority aforesaid, That the Lords of her Majesty's Justiciary in Scotland be hereby impowered to inflict the same Punishments against Jesuits, Priests, and other trafficking Papists, which the Privy Council of Scotland was impowered to do by the aforesaid Act of Parliament.

An Act for providing a Publick Reward for such Person or Persons as shall discover the Longitude at Sea.

WHEREAS it is well known by all that are acquainted with the Art of Navigation, That nothing is so much wanted and desired at Sea, as the Discovery of the Longitude, for the Safety and Quickness of Voyages, the Preservation of Ships, and the Lives of Men: And whereas in the Judgment of able Mathematicians and Navigators, several Methods have already been discovered, true in Theory, though very difficult in Practice, some of which (there is Reason to expect) may be capable of Improvement, some already discovered may be proposed to the Publick, and others may be invented hereafter: And whereas such a Discovery would be of particular Advantage to the Trade of Great Britain, and very much for the Honour of this Kingdom; but besides the great Difficulty of the Thing itself, partly for the Want of some Publick Reward to be settled as an Encouragement for so useful and beneficial a Work, and partly for want of Money for Trials and Experiments necessary thereunto, no such Inventions or Proposals, hitherto made, have been brought to Perfection; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the first Commissioner of the Admiralty, the Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons, the first Commissioner of the Navy, the first Commissioner of Trade, the Admirals of the Red, White, and Blue Squadrons, the Master of the Trinity-House, the President of the Royal Society, the Royal Astronomer of Greenwich, the Savilian, Lucasian, and Plumian Professors of the Mathematicks in Oxford and Cambridge, all for the Time being, the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Philip Lord Bishop of Hereford, George Lord Bishop of Bristol, Thomas Lord Trevor, the Honourable Sir Thomas Hanmer Baronet, Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons, the Honourable Francis Robarts Esq; James Stanhope Esq; William Clayton Esq; and William Lowndes Esq; be constituted, and they are hereby constituted Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude at Sea, and for examining, trying, and judging of all Proposals, Experiments, and Improvements relating to the same; and that the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, have full Power to hear and receive any Proposal or Proposals that shall be made to them for discovering the said Longitude; and in Case the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall be so far satisfied of the Probability of any such Discovery, as to think it proper to make Experiment thereof, they shall certify the same, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Persons Names, who are the Authors of such Proposals; and upon producing such Certificate, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills for any such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding two thousand Pounds, as the said Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude, or any five or more of them, shall think necessary for making the Experiments, payable by the Treasurer of the Navy; which Sum or Sums the Treasurer of the Navy is hereby required to pay immediately to such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude, to make those Experiments, out of any Money that shall be in his Hands, unapplied for the Use of the Navy.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after Experiments made of any Proposal or Proposals for the Discovery of the said Longitude, the Commissioners appointed by this Act, or the major Part of them, shall declare and determine how far the same is found practicable, and to what Degree of Exactness.

III. And for a due and sufficient Encouragement to any such Person or Persons as shall discover a proper Method for finding the said Longitude, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the first Author or Authors, Discoverer or Discoverers of any such Method, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to, and have such Reward as herein after is mentioned; that is to say, to a Reward, or Sum of ten thousand Pounds, if it determines the said Longitude to one Degree of a great Circle, or sixty Geographical Miles; to fifteen thousand Pounds, if it determines the same to two Thirds of that Distance; and to twenty thousand Pounds, if it determines the same to one Half of the same Distance; and that one Moiety or Half-Part of such Reward or Sum shall be due and paid when the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, do agree that any such Method extends to the Security of Ships within eighty Geographical Miles of the Shores, which are Places of the greatest Danger, and the other Moiety or Half-Part, when a Ship by the Appointment of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall thereby actually sail over the Ocean, from Great Britain to any such Port in the West-Indies, as those Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall choose or nominate for the Experiment, without losing their Longitude beyond the Limits before mentioned.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as soon as such Method for the Discovery of the said Longitude shall have been tried and found practicable and useful at Sea, within any of the Degrees aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall certify the same accordingly, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Person or Persons Names, who are the Authors of such Proposal; and upon such Certificate the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills for the respective Sum or Sums

Council of Scotland was impowered to do by an Act passed in Commissioners appointed for discovering the Longitude, and receiving Proposals relating to it.

Commissioners to certify the Probability of such Discovery to the Commissioners of the Navy, who shall make out a Bill for 2000l. for making the Experiments. 14 Geo. 2. c. 39. 26 Geo. 2. c. 25. To be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy.

The Commissioners to determine how far any Proposal is practicable. Reward to the first Discoverer.

When to be paid.

As soon as such Method shall have been found practicable, the Commissioners shall certify the same to the Commissioners of the Navy, who shall make out Bills for Payment of the Reward, and the Treasurer of the Navy shall pay the same.

Sums of Money, to which the Author or Authors of such Proposal, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled by Virtue of this Act; which Sum or Sums the Treasurer of the Navy is hereby required to pay to the said Author or Authors, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, out of any Money that shall be in his Hands unapplied to the Use of the Navy, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

The Commissioners may allow a less Reward for any Proposal of considerable Use to the Publick.

Amended by
2 Geo. 3. c. 18.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Proposal shall not, on Trial, be found of so great Use, as aforementioned, yet if the same, on Trial, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, be found of considerable Use to the Publick, that then in such Case, the said Author or Authors, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, shall have and receive such less Reward therefore, as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall think reasonable, to be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy, on such Certificate, as aforesaid.

An Act to reduce the Rate of Interest, without any Prejudice to Parliamentary Securities.

37 H. 8. c. 9.
13 El. c. 8.
21 Jac. 1. c. 17.
12 Car. 2. c. 13.

WHEREAS the Reducing of Interest to ten, and from thence to eight, and thence to six in the Hundred, hath, from Time to Time, by Experience been found very beneficial to the Advancement of Trade, and Improvement of Lands: And whereas the heavy Burden of the late long and expensive War hath been chiefly born by the Owners of the Land of this Kingdom, by Reason whereof they have been necessitated to contract very large Debts, and thereby, and by the Abatement in the Value of their Lands, are become greatly impoverished: And whereas by Reason of the great Interest and Profit which hath been made of Money at Home, the Foreign Trade of this Nation hath of late Years been much neglected, and at this Time there is a great Abatement in the Value of the Merchandizes, Wares, and Commodities of this Kingdom, both at Home and in Foreign Parts, whither they are transported: And whereas for the Redress of these Mischiefs, and the preventing the Encrease of the same, it is absolutely necessary to reduce the high Rate of Interest of six Pounds in the hundred Pounds for a Year to a nearer Proportion with the Interest allowed for Money in Foreign States; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, upon any Contract, which shall be made from and after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, take, directly or indirectly, for Loan of any Monies, Wares, Merchandize, or other Commodities whatsoever, above the Value of five Pounds for the Forbearance of one hundred Pounds for a Year, and so after that Rate for a greater or lesser Sum, or for a longer or shorter Time; and that all Bonds, Contracts, and Assurances whatsoever, made after the Time aforesaid, for Payment of any Principal, or Money to be lent or covenanted to be performed upon or for any Usury, whereupon or whereby there shall be reserved or taken above the Rate of five Pounds in the Hundred, as aforesaid, shall be utterly void; and that all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, which shall after the Time aforesaid, upon any Contract to be made after the said nine and twentieth Day of September, take, accept and receive, by Way or Means of any corrupt Bargain, Loan, Exchange, Chevizance, Shift, or Interest of any Wares, Merchandize, or other Thing or Things whatsoever, or by any deceitful Way or Means, or by any Covin, Engine, or deceitful Conveyance, for the forbearing or giving Day of Payment for one whole Year, of and for their Money or other Thing, above the Sum of five Pounds for the forbearing of one hundred Pounds for a Year, and so after that Rate for a greater or lesser Sum, or for a longer or shorter Term, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the treble Value of the Monies, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Things so lent, bargained, exchanged or shifted.

After 29 Sept.
1714. no Person shall take above 5 l. per Cent. Interest.

All Bonds, &c. for a greater Interest shall be void.

And Persons taking above 5 l. for the Forbearance of 100 l. for a Year, shall forfeit treble the Value of the Monies, &c.

After 29 Sept.
1714. no Scrivener, &c. shall take above 5 s. for 100 l. for a Year, for Brokage, &c. nor above 12 d. besides Stamp Duties, for making or renewing any Bond, &c. on Penalty of 20 l. Costs, and Imprisonment for six Months; one Moiety to the Crown, the other to the Prosecutor.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Scrivener and Scriveners, Broker and Brokers, Solicitor and Solicitors, Driver and Drivers of Bargains for Contracts, who shall after the said nine and twentieth Day of September take or receive, directly or indirectly, any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Reward or Thing for Brokage, soliciting, driving, or procuring the Loan, or forbearing of any Sum or Sums of Money, over and above the Rate or Value of five Shillings for the Loan, or forbearing of one hundred Pounds for a Year, and so ratably, or above twelve Pence, over and above the Stamp-Duties, for making or renewing of the Bond or Bill for Loan, or forbearing thereof, or for any Counterbond or Bill concerning the same, shall forfeit for every such Offence twenty Pounds, with Costs of Suit, and suffer Imprisonment for Half a Year; the one Moiety of all which Forfeitures to be to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same in the same County where the several Offences are committed, and not elsewhere, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Essoin, Wager of Law or Protection, shall be allowed.

An Act for the speedy and effectual preserving the Navigation of the River of Thames, by stopping the Breach in the Levels of Havering and Dagenham in the County of Essex; and for ascertaining the Coal Measure.

“WHEREAS the Preservation of the River of Thames is of the utmost Importance, as well as the City of London, as to the Trade of this whole Kingdom: And whereas in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seven, by a violent Inundation of the said River of Thames, there happened a great Breach in the Walls or Banks of the Levels of Havering and Dagenham in the County of Essex, next adjoining to the said River, whereby one thousand Acres of Land in the said Levels is overflowed, and the same, if not speedily remedied, will tend to the apparent Hazard of the Navigation of the said River, by the continual Quantities of Earth and Gravel, which every Tide are brought from the said Breach, and have already occasioned a Shelf or Sand Bank to grow up near the Mouth of the said Breach, which reaches almost half cross the River in Breadth, and near a Mile in Length; insomuch that if the said Breach is not stopped, and the Walls or Banks made good again, the Navigation of the said River of Thames is in Danger of being utterly destroyed: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted, &c.

“For 10 Years from 10 July 1714. Ships coming into the Port of London, to pay 3 d. per Ton. Coasters 3 s. each Voyage. Colliers 1 d. per Chald. Names of the Trustees. Trustees may appoint Receivers of these Duties. Duties to be applied to the Stopping the Breach. Accounts, &c. to be laid before the Parliament. No Customer, &c. to take any Entries, &c. till these Duties are paid, on Forfeiture of 50 l. Collector may enter Ships, and distrain for the Duties. Trustees may borrow Money on this Act at 6 l. per Cent. If sufficient Money be raised within the 10 Years, then the Duties to cease.” E X P.

“XI. And whereas the Practice and Usage in the Port of London for many Years last past, in the Measurement of all Sorts of Coals, commonly called Sea Coals, Water-born, liable to the several Duties, and chargeable with the same by several Acts of Parliament, hath usually been made by a Bushel equal to one Bushel and one Quart, Winchester Measure, according to the Standard in her Majesty's Exchequer: And whereas some Doubts and Disputes have of late arisen touching the Measurement of Sea Coals; For preventing therefore all such Disputes for the future, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Bushel commonly called the Coal Bushel, shall be made round, with a plain and even Bottom, and to be nineteen Inches and a Half from Outside to Outside, and to contain one Winchester Bushel and one Quart of Water, according to the Standard for the Winchester Bushel, described by an Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM for settling a Duty upon Malt, and all Sea Coals and Culm chargeable with any Duties by the Winchester Measure, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, shall be chargeable with the said Duties, and be sold, measured, and paid by the Chalder, containing thirty-six of such Bushels, as aforesaid, heaped up, and no other, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity, under the like Penalties and Forfeitures as are by Law prescribed in Regard to the Winchester Bushel; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

“XII. And for the more easy and better ascertaining the Contents of the said Bushel, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall cause an exact Bushel to be made of Brass of the Manner and Dimensions aforesaid, and the same to be sealed and kept in her Majesty's Exchequer as a Standard for the Purposes aforesaid, that Recourse may be had thereto as Occasion shall require.

An Act for the Preserving all such Ships and Goods thereof, which shall happen to be forced on Shore, or stranded, upon the Coasts of this Kingdom, or any other of her Majesty's Dominions.

“WHEREAS by an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of King EDWARD the First, concerning Wrecks at Sea, it is enacted, That where a Man, a Dog, or a Cat, escape quick out of the Ship, that such Ship, nor Barge, nor any Thing in them, shall be adjudged a Wreck, but the Goods shall be saved, and kept by View of the Sheriff, Coroner, or the King's Bailiff, and delivered into the Hands of such as are of the Town where the Goods were found; so that if any sue for those Goods, and after prove that they were his, or perished within his keeping, within a Year and a Day, they shall be restored to him without Delay, and if not, they shall remain to the King, or to such others to whom Wreck belongeth; and he that otherwise doth, and thereof be attainted, shall be awarded to Prison, and make”

Ed. 1. c. 4.

4 Ed. 1. Stat. 2. ' make Fine at the King's Will: And whereas by another Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of the said King EDWARD the first, intituled, De officio Coronatoris, concerning the Wreck of the Sea, it is enacted, That wheresoever it be found, if any lay Hands of it, he shall be attached by sufficient Pledges, and the Price of the Wreck shall be valued, and delivered to the Town: And whereas great Complaints have been made by several Merchants, as well her Majesty's Subjects as Foreigners, trading to and from this Kingdom, that many Ships of Trade, after all their Dangers at Sea escaped, have unfortunately near home, run on Shore, or been stranded on the Coasts thereof; and that such Ships have been barbarously plundered by her Majesty's Subjects, and their Cargoes embezzled, and when any Part thereof has been saved, it has been swallowed up by exorbitant Demands for Salvage, to the great Loss of her Majesty's Revenue, and to the much greater Damage of her Majesty's trading Subjects: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace of every County, or County of a City or Town, and also all Mayors, Bailiffs, and other Head Officers of Corporations and Port-Towns near adjoining to the Sea, and all Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and Officers of the Customs in all and every such Places shall, upon Application made to them, or any of them, by or on the Behalf of any Commander or Chief Officer of any Ship or Vessel of any of her Majesty's Subjects, or others, being in Danger of being stranded or run on Shore, or being stranded or run on Shore, are hereby impowered and required to command the Constables of the several Ports within her Majesty's Dominions, nearest to the Sea Coasts where any such Ship or Vessel shall be in Danger, as aforesaid, to summon and call together as many Men as shall be thought necessary to the Assistance and for the Preservation of such Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, and their Cargoes; and that if there shall be any Ship or Vessel, either Man of War or Merchants Ship, belonging to her Majesty, or any of her Subjects, riding at Anchor near the Place where such Ship or Vessel is in Distress or Danger, as aforesaid, the Officers of the Customs, and Constables above mentioned, or any of them, are hereby impowered and required to demand of the Superior Officers of such Ship or Vessel so riding at Anchor, as aforesaid, Assistance by their Boats, and such Hands as they can conveniently spare, for the said Service and Preservation of the said Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid; and that in case such Superior Officer of such Ship or Vessel riding at Anchor, as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to give such Assistance, he shall forfeit for the same the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by the Superior Officer of the said Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, together with their Costs of Suit, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action, Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, wherein no Essoin, Wager of Law, or Protection shall be allowed.

II. And for the Encouragement of such Persons as shall give their Assistance to such Ships or Vessels so in Distress, as aforesaid, Be it further enacted, That the said Collectors of the Customs, and the Master or Commanding Officer of any Ships or Vessels, and all others who shall act or be employed in the Preserving of any such Ship or Vessel in Distress, as aforesaid, or their Cargoes, shall within thirty Days after the Service performed be paid a reasonable Reward for the same, by the Commander, Master, or other Superior Officer, Mariners or Owners of the Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, or by the Merchant, whose Ship, Vessel, or Goods shall be so saved, as aforesaid; and in Default thereof, the said Ship, Vessel or Goods so saved, as aforesaid, shall remain in the Custody of such Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, until such Time that all Charges shall be paid, and until the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, and the said Master or other Officer of the Ship or Vessel, and all others so employed, as aforesaid, shall be reasonably gratified for their said Assistance and Trouble, or good Security given for that Purpose, to the Satisfaction of the several Parties that are to receive the same; and that in case after such Salvage, the Commander or other Superior Officer, Mariners or Owners of such Ship or Vessel so saved, as aforesaid, or Merchant whose Goods shall be so saved, as aforesaid, shall disagree with the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, touching the Monies deserved by any of the Persons so employed, as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commander of such Ship or Vessel so saved, or the Owner of the Goods, or the Merchant interested therein, and also for the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, to nominate three of the neighbouring Justices of the Peace, who shall thereupon adjust the Quantum of the Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons acting or being employed in the Salvage of the said Ship, Vessel or Goods; and such Adjustments shall be binding to all Parties, and shall be recoverable in an Action at Law to be brought in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record, by the respective Persons to whom the same shall be allotted by the said Justices of Peace; and in case it shall happen, that no Person shall appear to make his Claim to all or any the Goods that shall be saved, that then and in such Case, the chief Officer of the Customs of the nearest Port to the Place where the said Ship or Vessel was so in Distress, as aforesaid, shall apply to three of the nearest Justices of the Peace, who shall put him or some other responsible Person in Possession of the said Goods, such Justices of Peace taking an Account in Writing of the said Goods, to be signed by such Officer of the Customs; and if the said Goods shall not be legally claimed within the Space of twelve Months next ensuing, by the rightful Owner thereof, then publick Sale shall be made thereof, and if perishable Goods, forthwith to be sold, and after all Charges deducted, the Residue of the Monies arising by such Sale, with a fair and just Account of the whole, shall be transmitted to her Majesty's Exchequer, there to remain for the Benefit of the rightful Owner when appearing, who upon Affidavit or other Proof made of his or their Right or Property thereto, to the Satisfaction of one of the Barons of the Coife of the Exchequer, shall upon his Order receive the same out of the Exchequer.

III. And it is hereby also enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, besides those impowered by the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, and the Constables, as aforesaid, shall enter or endeavour to enter on board any such Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, without the Leave or Consent of the Commander, or other Superior Officer of the said Ship, or of the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, or of the said Constable, or some or one of them employed for the Service and Preservation of the said Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid; or in case any Person shall molest him, them, or any of them, in the saving of the said Ship, Vessel or Goods, or shall endeavour to impede or hinder the saving of any such Ship, Vessel or Goods, or when any such Goods are saved, shall take out or deface the Marks of any such Goods, before the same shall be taken down in a Book or Books for that Purpose provided by the Commander or ruling Officer, and the first Officer of the Customs, as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall, within the Space of twenty Days, make double Satisfaction to the Party grieved, at the Discretion of the two next Justices of Peace, or in Default thereof, shall by such Justices of Peace be sent to the next House of Correction, where he shall continue and be employed in hard Labour by the Space of twelve Months then next ensuing; and that it shall be lawful for any Commander or Superior Officer of the said Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, or for the said Officer of the Customs, or Constables on board the same Ship or Vessel, to repel by Force any such Person or Persons as shall, without such Leave or Consent from the said Commander or Superior Officer, or the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, or such Constables, as aforesaid, press on board the said Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, and thereby molest them in the Preservation of the said Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid.

or hindering the saving the Ship, to make double Satisfaction.

Masters may repel Pressers into the Ship.

IV. And it is hereby likewise enacted, That in case any Goods shall be found upon any Person or Persons, that were stolen or carried off from any such Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, he, she, or they, on whom such Goods shall be found, shall immediately, upon Demand, deliver the same to the Owner thereof, or to such Person by such Owner authorized to receive the same, or in Default thereof, shall be liable to pay treble the Value of such Goods, to be recovered by such Owner in an Action at Law to be brought for the same.

Goods carried off, to be immediately delivered up.

Penalty treble the Value.

V. And it is hereby moreover enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall make, or be assisting in the making any Hole in the Bottom, Side, or any other Part of any Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, or shall steal any Pump belonging to any Ship or Vessel so in Distress, as aforesaid, or shall be aiding or abetting in the Stealing such Pump, as aforesaid, or shall wilfully do any Thing tending to the immediate Loss or Destruction of such Ship or Vessel, such Person or Persons shall be and are hereby made guilty of Felony, without any Benefit of his, her, or their Clergy.

Making Holes in the Ship, &c. Felony.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Suit or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for any Thing that he or they shall do, or cause to be done, in Pursuance of this Act, and executing any of the Powers and Authorities, or any of the Orders or Directions therein mentioned, all and every Person and Persons so sued in any Court whatsoever, shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if in any such Suit the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit, or forbear Prosecution, or discontinue the Suit, or if a Verdict shall pass against him, or Judgment be given against him upon a Demurrer, then in any of the said Cases, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover full Costs, for which he and they shall have the like Remedy as where Costs by Law are awarded; and this Act shall be taken and allowed in all Courts within this Kingdom as a publick Act, and all Judges and Justices are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such without special pleading of the same.

General Issue.

An Act to explain Part of an Act made in the seventh Year of her Majesty's Reign, (for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising a further Supply to her Majesty, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine) so far as the same relates to unwrought Incle imported into this Kingdom.

‘ W H E R E A S by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, intituled, An 7 Ann. c. 7.7
‘ Act for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising a further Supply to her ‘ Majesty, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine, it is expressly enacted and provided,
‘ That all European Linens, Sisters Thread and Tapes, or Incles (among other Things) shall be exempted
‘ from the Payment of the Duties called the Two third Subsidies, for all Times to come during the Conti‘ nuance of the same: And whereas some Doubts and Disputes have arisen between the Commissioners of ‘ her Majesty's Customs and the Merchants and other Importers of the said Tapes and Incles, by Means of ‘ the Uncertainty whether the Exception of the Tape or Incle, mentioned in the said Act, be only of Tapes
‘ that are wrought Incle, so that all wrought Incle is thereby exempted from the Payment of the aforesaid ‘ Duties, though manufactured abroad in Parts beyond the Seas, and unwrought Incles, which imploy great ‘ Numbers of Poor in manufacturing the same, is construed to be liable to, and is charged with the said ‘ Duties, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Law, as appears evidently, in that the bring‘ ing in and importing wrought Incle, is prejudicial to Great Britain, and the poor Subjects and Manufac‘ turers thereof; Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with ‘ the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament ‘ assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Provision and Exception in the said Act above ‘ mentioned, in relation to Tapes or Incles, shall extend and be construed to exempt European unwrought ‘ Incle, commonly called or known by the Name of Short Spinnal, as well as wrought Incle, from the Pay‘ ment of the said Duties of the Two third Subsidies, which shall be entred at any of her Majesty's Custom-‘ houses within the Kingdom of Great Britain, after the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred ‘ and fourteen; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.
